CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:24 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:41 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:41 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair till Thursday, not so cold Thursday. Ther. 21.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, JANUARY 2 1900. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

THE HOPE MEMORIAL CHAPEL DEDICATED.

Auspicious Event for the Presbyterians of the West End.

THE EDIFICE IS A FINE ONE.

DEDICATION WORDS SPOKEN BY THOSE MOST INTERESTED.

Principal Sermon Was Preached by Rev. W. R. Richards—Growth of the Society During the Past Twelve Years Has Been Remarkable—Chapel Furnishings Complete and Paid For.

It was with feelings of regret that the faithful worshippers gave up their old place of worship last Sunday morning after twelve years of association with it, but there was also feelings of pride and joy upon being able to enter a handsome new place of worship in the evening, and thus it was not like forsaking the old altogether for the new, for the two places are connected in such a way that they are inseperable.

Hope Memorial chapel, as this new place of worship will be known, was dedicated Sunday evening under auspices that were pleasing and prospective of success. The handsome church edifice was filled to overflowing, and appropriate exercises were held commemorative of the auspicious event in the history of this people. While there was a feeling of joy and happiness, there was also a pronounced reverence that pervaded the chapel, and the services were of the highest interest. The chapel, brilliantly lighted, could not have possibly shown to better advantage.

The exercises opened with the singing of the hymn, "Sun of My Soul," invocation and Lord's Prayer, led by Rev. G. Kennedy Newell, pastor; responsive reading, Rev. F. D. Tildon, pastor of Bethel chapel; "Gloria," by the congregation; reading of Scripture, Rev. O. S. Newell, of New York; prayer, Rev. J. O McKelvey, pastor of Warren chapel; offertory hymn, "O Lord of Heaven;" offertory prayer, Rev. G Kennedy Newell.

At this time the dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards, pastor of the Crescent Avenue church, who took his text from St John, second chapter and seventeenth verse: "And His Disciples Remembered That it Was written, The Zeal of Thine House Has Eaten Me Up."

Dr. Richards spoke in part as follows: "This place must be one where the poorest sinner can enter the door and receive that Spiritual refreshment, and the sinner's soul is of more value than this temple. We are dedicating God's house this night. Be careful that you do nothing that shall make it harder for people to come here and meet God and receive the blessing He has for them. This place is for all conditions of men, and it should not turn our hearts from God. It must be a house of prayer, and it must unite all conditions of men, and the name of Christ must always remain on this house where God's word shall be preached. It must be a house of praise, a place to sing the Redeemer's praise, and reverence Him. Twelve years ago this house was established, and ever since it has been a house of prayer. The chapel has ministered to many needs, and it all belongs to the Lord Jesus Christ. The new house is the 'Holy of Holies,' where we can come reverently with tender memories to "Our Father's House."

After the sermon the hymn "The Church's One Foundation," was sung, and then followed three short addresses. Henry C. Squires, the superintendent of the Sunday-school, spoke from the words 'We Dedicate This House to the Study of the Word of God." In part he said: "I love the Word of God, and we dedicate this house to the teaching of the Word. There is nothing more appropriate than than that. We dedicate these pews in the name of God to all who will come here and hear His Word. May many gather to listen to the Word of Life and receive the blessings, and may many be brought to Christ. May God's Word be magnified here, and be studied more, and may the time never come when God's Word shall be lost in this house. We learned to love the old chapel, with its low ceilings and its angular rooms, but the new chapel adds inspiration to our work and labor. I am glad we are not to desert the old one, but we welcome the new and hold fondly to the old."

Frederick H. Andrews was the next speaker and he talked from the words: "We dedicate this House as a House of Praise to God." He said it gave him great pleasure to assist in dedi

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.)

ALL WERE WELCOME.

"Open House" Kept at Hope Chapel—Lieut. Scott an Entertainer—Refreshments Were Served.

Yesterday afternoon at Hope Memorial chapel the usual New Year's Day reception was held, and a very large number of members and friends were present to enjoy the festivities. The usual turkey dinner was not served, other lighter refreshments taking the place of it. Those present were just as well pleased and there was not so much work attached to the reception.

During the afternoon Lieut. Charles E Scott, of Indianapolis, entertained with recitations of a humorous and pathetic character. His selections were mostly from the writings of James Whitcomb Reilly and Eugene Fields. His droll manner and humor frequently brought forth a storm of applause. For over an hour he kept his audience in the best of humor and all were sorry when he concluded. After the entertainment the refreshments were served by the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the chapel, and thus a very pleasant and enjoyable time was spent.

WEDDED AS YEAR WANED

MISS EDMIE CORLIES THE WIFE OF JOHN UPDEGRAFF HUSSEY.

Nuptials Performed at the Home of the Bride's Mother—House Was Prettily Decorated — To Travel in Japan.

A very pretty wedding was that of last Saturday, when Miss Edmie Corlies, daughter of Mrs. J. Edgar Corlies, of Road Ending was united in marriage to John Updegraff Hussey, of Pittsburg, Pa. Owing to the fact that the bride's brother died about a year ago the affair was a quiet one and only the relatives and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony.

Rev. J. C. White, of Pittsburg, Pa., performed the ceremony, assisted by Dr. Richards, of the Crescent Avenue church. The house decorations consisted of greens and holly and American beauty roses. In the service, choir boys assisted and they formed an aisle for the bridal party through the use of broad white satin ribbons, which extended to the improvised altar.

The bride's mother escorted by her brother, J. Dunbar Wright, of New York, entered the parlor first. Then followed the bride accompanied by her grandfather, J. Howard Wright, of New York, who gave her away in marriage. Those who attended the bride as maids were Miss Louise Fisk, Miss Emma Schoonmake, Miss Fanny Cox, of this city, and Miss Marguerite Wood, of Bridgeport, Conn. Miss Hussey, of Pittsburg, Pa., sister of the groom, was the maid-of-honor, and Curtis Hussey, of the same place, brother of the groom, was the best man. The bridemaids and maid-of-honor were gowned in white silk muslin trimmed with lace and they carried American beauty roses. The bride's gown was white satin and Duchesse lace. She wore diamond swallows and a diamond star, gifts of the groom.

The bridemaids received from the bride white card cases lined with pieces of the latter's gown, and the groom gave his ushers, S Victor King, S. H. Moore, Frederick Hussey and Frank Kennedy, of Pittsburg, Pa., rings.

Those who witnessed the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Wright, William Harold Brown and J. Dunbar Wright, of New York; Mrs. C. C. Hussey, Mr. and Mrs. Clement C. Moore, Mrs. William Burden, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kingsland, of Pittsburg; Mrs. J. Parker Mason and son, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fisk, Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Cox, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Schoonmaker, of this city.

After the ceremony the couple left for the south and will then go to California. They will return to Plainfield next May, and will then soon leave for Europe, where they will travel for two years.

TO ASSESS BENEFITS.

Judge Vail Appoints Commissioners in Connection With Street Improvements.

In the Union County Court of Common Pleas in Elizabeth Saturday Judge Vail appointed Andrew J. Gavett, William M. Sandford and John T. Fritts, all of Plainfield, as commissioners to estimate and assess benefits for permanent street improvements in this city in pursuance of chapter 200 of the laws of 1898. The above commissioners will at once get to work assessing benefits for the macadamizing of East Sixth street, Franklin place, East Ninth street, West Fourth street and West Third street.

—Use Press want ads

—Use Press want ads.

BOYS' CLUB NOT MISSED

OLD SANTA PAID HIS VISIT THERE SATURDAY NIGHT.

A Clever Entertainment Was Arranged and Carried Out by the Lively Young Members of the Club—Well Attended.

One of the institutions of which the citizens of Plainfield should be proud is the Boys' Club, the headquarters of which are on Sycamore street. At this club, boys of all conditions in life are taught many useful things, notably those pertaining to the industries of life. The Boys' Club is a unique organization whose membership is composed of a class of boys who would be about the streets at night and consequently liable to fall into evil habits. The boys—about 50—take much interest in the club's affairs and are a wide awake set. Many of them are gathered from the ranks of the newsboys, messengers, bootblacks, etc.

That the boys take an interest in the club was shown Saturday evening when they gave a novel entertainment in the gymnasium at the club house, which had been handsomely and artistically decorated by their own efforts with a profusion of evergreen wreathes, stars, etc. The performance, which was under the management of Olaf Saugstad, the very efficient superintendent, was an impromptu vaudeville affair. Those who assisted in making the entertainment a success were Hugh Gray, who rendered a violin solo very cleverly; Clarence Pope and Hugh Gray, musical sketch artists; Jack Varden in a character song.

One of the best things in the way of the gymnastic exercise was given by Bert Hansen, Daily Press carrier, whose acrobatic feats would do credit to a professional athlete. Clarence Pope and Thomas Kelly also showed some clever work on the trappeze.

An amusing monologue was given by Clarence Pope, who read several home made receipies from the Daily Press that flavored of originality and kept the audience, as well as the newsboys, in good humor.

During an intermission, W. B. Wadsworth, the president of the Boys' Club, made a brief address in which he told of the good work accomplished by the Club and admonished the boys to resolve to begin the New Year in the right path.

After the vaudeville performance, Santa Claus made his appearance in the person of Johnny Berry and distributed the boys' stockings, which contained peanuts, candy and pop corn. A basket of apples was also passed among the boys.

Among those who received gifts from Santa Claus was President Wadsworth, who was called forward and handed a long envelope which was found to contain 16 letters from as many boys, all of whom thanked him for his kindness to them and wishing him a Happy New Year. Mr. Wadsworth values the collection highly.

At the close of the entertainment three cheers were given by the boys for Supt. Saugstad.

The entertainment was attended by a number of ladies and gentlemen who appeared to enjoy it quite as much as did the boys.

OPEN HOUSE AT Y. M. C. A.

New Year Was Commenced in a Pleasant Manner With Several Special Attractions.

Open house was kept at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday. It was an informal affair and was principally confined to the gymnasium, where the young men and boys of that department were given full scope to display their ability in the gymnastic exercises. During the afternoon the entertainment in the gymnasium consisted of basket ball and various other games. Arthur Denton, who won the highest average in the recent bowling contest, was awarded the silver medal by Physical Director Heywood. During the day many persons interested in the work of the association called to pay their respects to Secretary Manning, and to extend to him the compliments of the season. The attraction in the evening was the star course entertainment, when Miss Carolyn Layng, the well-known recitationist, and Mons. DeVilliers, the French illusionist, delighted a large audience by their clever recitals, and marvelous and most astonishing feats of magic and mystery. This entertainment was one of the best yet held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., and it appeared to please the audience far more than have any of the previous ones.

Services at the Hospital.

Yesterday afternoon about twenty members of the Local Union Christian Endeavor visited Muhlenberg Hospital and held a very interesting New Year's Day service, which consisted of singing, etc. Most everyone took a little gift along to make the patients at the institution happy.

YOUNGEST NOBLE GRAND

QUEEN CITY LODGE CONFERS HONORS ON ALEX. MUIR.

Installed in Office of Noble Grand—Is Youngest Odd Fellow in State to Hold That Office—Collation at the Hotel Kensington.

Plainfield can now boast of having the youngest Noble Grand in the ranks of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in New Jersey. Alex. Muir, who was last evening installed in the leading office in Queen City Lodge, of this city, is just a few months inside the age limit prescribed by the rules of the order. Muir has proved himself to be one of the best workers in the lodge and his general popularity lead to his election to the highest office of the lodge.

District Deputy Grand Master T. C. Smith and staff were present at the meeting last night and installed the following officers: Past grand, Harry Freleigh; noble grand, Alex. Muir; vice grand, John Cose; recording secretary, R. J. Neal; financial secretary, H. H. Hoffman; treasurer, J. P. Allis; right support to the noble grand, Dr. Pocock; right support to vice grand, George Firstbrook; left support to vice grand, George Radford; right scene supporter, P. Van Fleet; left scene supporter, S. B. Ayres; chaplain, G. Thorn; conductor, T. C. Smith; warden, J. B. Brown; inside guardian, George Morehouse; outside guardian, Fred Walsh.

After the meeting, the members and their guest adjourned to the Hotel Kensington, where a course dinner was served. Speeches followed. The address of the evening was made by Former Judge W. A. Goddington on "Odd Fellowship."

JUST A WEEK AFTER.

Christmas Festival of All Souls Church Held New Year's Day, But an Enjoyable Occasion.

At All Souls church, Park avenue, from 4 until 7 o'clock, the annual Christmas festival was held. There was a large gathering and from 4 to 5 o'clock the children enjoyed themselves playing all sorts of games, after which a pleasing supper was served. The dining table was decorated chiefly with holly. A feature was a bell-shaped box of confections decorated with Christmas trees. A great deal of merriment was caused by the distribution of german favors, which disclosed all sorts of whistles. An interesting part of the programme was the reading of the story, "Little Miss Muffett and Her Christmas," by Superintendent E. B. Smith. This was followed with an enjoyable address by Rev. Mr. Nickerson, pastor, on the significance of Christmas Day. One of the most enjoyable events was the arrangement of an Indian tepee, in which there were a number of gifts. Irving Buckle, a bright little fellow, impersonated Santa Claus, and after he brought the gifts from the tepee they were distributed by the superintendent, after which all adjourned to their homes well pleased with the afternoon's celebration.

FAIR SKATERS RACE.

Thrilling Match on New Market Pond for Ladies' Championship Yesterday Afternoon—Miss Waglow Won.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Market, Jan. 2.—A thrilling skating match for the ladies' joint championship of South Plainfield and New Market was held on the New Market pond yesterday afternoon. Miss Mamie Higgins was the representative from South Plainfield and Miss Bertha Waglow from this place. The distance was a mile. The race was an even one for the first half mile when they turned the mark and started for the finish. Then Miss Waglow drew ahead and won out by twenty yards amid the shouts of the crowd.

Death Due to Apoplexy.

At 1 o'clock this morning there occurred the death of Frank C Hopkins, aged 51 years, who has been residing on the second mountain for sometime past. He was a brother of Mrs. Underhill. He was unmarried. Death was due to apoplexy. Early last evening Dr. Fritts and Dr. Main were summoned to the house and they did all in their power to prolong life. The deceased was a member of the society of Friends.

Several Plainfield Cases
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Jan. 2—There was a long list of causes on the calendar for the January term of the court, which convened in the county courthouse here today, several of the most important being Plainfield cases. They were nearly all ready for trial.

A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hanigan, of Somerset street, Saturday.

—Press want ads bring results.

MAKE-UP OF COMMITTEES

COUNCILMAN TOLLES WILL BE CHAIRMAN OF STREET WORK.

President-to-be Smith Has Fixed up the Committees—Buckle to Remain at Head of Police and Coriell of Fire Department.

One of the most important happenings at the first meeting of the new Common Council will be the appointment of the committees for the enquing year. There will be one change in that all the principal committees will have five instead of three members as heretofore. With Mr. Barrows no longer in the Council, there has been considerable interest in his probable successor. Mr. Tolles will undoubtedly be the chairman this year. Mr. Buckle will remain at the head of the Police Board while Mr. Coriell will be the chairman of the fire committee again this year.

The probable composition of the committees will be as follows:

Finance — VanHerden, chairman; Lee, Mellick, Tolles and Coriell.

Streets—Tolles, chairman; Craig, Dumont, Coriell and Lee.

Police — Buckle, chairman; Gloak and Dumont.

Fire — Coriell, chairman; Mellick, Buckle, Craig and VanHerwerden.

Lights—Mellick, chairman; Clifton and Gloak.

Alms—Lee, chairman; Dumont and Tolles.

License—Gloak, chairman; Buckle and Clifton.

Auditing—Clifton, chairman; VanHerwerden and Craig.

NEW YEAR HIGH MASS.

Impressive Services Conducted at St. Mary's and St. Joseph's Churches at Midnight Sunday.

The year 1900 was ushered in at St Mary's church with the observance of midnight Mass and celebration of Holy Communion, privileges extended by Pope Leo to all Catholic churches throughout the world. The celebrant of the Mass was Rev. Father P E Smyth, rector of the church, assisted by Rev. Father Westman. The interior of the church, with its decorations of evergreens, and the beautiful high altar with numerous lighted candles presented a scene long to be remembered, especially by the large number of non Catholics present. The services lasted about an hour and a half, during which Father Smyth preached a sermon suitable to the occasion. He was listened to with the greatest attention by one of the largest audiences ever seen in St Mary's many being compelled to stand. The music was under the direction of Miss Smith, and the singing was up to its usual high standard. Services were also held yesterday morning at 7.30 and 9.30 o'clock.

An immense congregation was present at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church at midnight Sunday, the occasion being the celebration of the new year by the services of High Mass, a religious observance not previously attempted in this city. Every seat in the edifice was taken and many were compelled to stand throughout the services, which were very impressive. The music was of a high order of excellency, the choir, under the leadership of Prof. James E. Bailey, being augmented for the occasion.

GROCERY BUSINESS SOLD.

J. F. MacDonald Retires—He is Succeeded by J. F. Mattlage.

The old-established grocery business of J. Fred MacDonald, established 1856, was sold yesterday to J. F. Mattlage, of Westfield, for several years in the grocery business on Second avenue, New York. He recently moved to Westfield on account of his health, and engaged in the business there. He recently sold his Westfield business to his brother. He will remove his family to Plainfield in a little while. The present manager of the store, Wilbur P. Henderson, will be retained, as will also Miss Nellie Colohan, bookkeeper. The present force of clerks will also be retained by Mr. Mattlage, namely, Jerry Moore, Henry Wyman and James Connett. Mr. MacDonald will retire from business entirely and take a much-needed rest which has been advised by his physician.

New Druggist in Town.

Clayton M. Nagle, a recent resident of Passaic, has bought the old established drug store of Horsley Barker at Front and Grove streets, and has taken possession. Mr. Nagle is a single man and a graduate of one of the best pharmacy colleges in the country. He has had an extensive experience in the drug business in cities of New Jersey and New York city. Mr. Barker has not made any arrangements for future business.

Fred J. Pope, of East Fifth street, secretary of the Royal Arcanum, is seriously ill at his home. Dr. Browning is attending him.

DEATH OF LITTLE HELEN.

The Grim Reaper Entered W. R. Ross' Home New Year's Day to Take Away Five-Year-Old Daughter.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Willard R. Ross, of Coddington avenue, in the loss of their bright little daughter, Helen, aged five years, which occurred yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, just as everyone was preparing to spend a happy New Year's Day. The little girl has for two weeks past been critically ill with bronchial pneumonia, and the best of medical skill had been employed in the hopes that the dreaded disease might be overcome. Faithfully and constantly the parents watched over the bedside and did all in their power to baffle the disease. The parents are grief-stricken over their loss, and their grief is shared in no small measure by the host of friends who knew the little girl only to love her. She was very bright for her age, and was a favorite with all who knew her.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon from the house at 4 o'clock, and interment will take place Thursday morning at Hillside cemetery.

NEW YEAR'S WEDDING.

NUPTIALS OF MABEL VANMIDDLESWORTH AND JOHN GOODMAN.

The Ceremony Witnessed by Sixty Relatives and Friends—Couple Wedded Under Arch By Rev. Dr. Schenck.

A pleasing event of interest of the first day of the new year was the marriage of Miss Mabel VanMiddlesworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry VanMiddlesworth, of Elmwood place, and John Goodman, of Manning avenue, of the borough, which took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, where about sixty relatives and friends gathered to witness the happy event.

The home was tastefully decorated with flowers and greens and in the parlor, where the ceremony was performed, there was arranged a pretty arch of greens, and in the centre there was suspended a bunch of holly. At the appointed hour the bride and groom, preceded by the flower girl, Helen Woolley, entered the parlor and were met beneath the arch by Rev. Cornelius Schenck, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, who performed the ceremony. The ceremony was a very pretty one and was performed with a ring Following the event which made the two one, congratulations were extended and a bright and successful journey through life was wished Mr. and Mrs. Goodman.

The bride's gown was of a very pretty new shade of brown cloth, and was trimmed with satin and lace. The flower girl was gowned in white and carried a basket of flowers. The bride carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

During the evening a wedding supper was served and at a late hour the bride and groom left to take up their residence at the corner of Central avenue and Third street, where the groom has completely furnished a home. When they departed they were showered with rice and good wishes. They were handsomely remembered with presents.

Guests were present from the borough, this city, Roycefield, Dunellen and other nearby places, most of whom were relatives of the contracting parties. The groom is an employee of Love Bros., West Front steet grocers, and is very popular, as is also the bride, who is well known among a large circle of friends, and is closely identified in church work.

FOR BENEFIT OF HOSPITAL

Colored People Will Do What They Can to Aid the Institution.

The attention of the colored people and friends is called to the union meeting to be held at Mt. Olive Baptist church next Thursday evening in the interest of the hospital. Envelopes are now out in the hands of members and friends and they are to be returned at that time. The choirs of the Calvary, Fillmore Baptist and Mt. Zion A. M. E. churches, will unite with the choir of the Mt. Olive Baptist church, and render special music for the occasion. The various colored organizations about the city are to be represented and they will speak. The subject to be discussed is "God's Providential Care for His People." Rev. G. L. P. Taliaferro, of Philadelphia, one of the most able speakers of his race, will be present and open the subject for discussion.

Song Service at Hospital

The Christian Endeavorers of this city held a song service at the Muhlenberg hospital yesterday afternoon. It was much enjoyed by the patients. There were solos by Horace J. Martin and Miss Cornelia Miller. A quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Martin, Miss Florence Hawkins and David Runyon sang several selections.

BACHELORS BEAR OFF THE BOWLING HONORS.

Won Second Match From the Married Men.

ON PARK CLUB ALLEYS.

SINGLE MEN LED IN EVERY FRAME EXCEPT FIRST.

The Second of the Series of Bachelor-Benedict Matches on the Alleys of the Park Club was Rolled Saturday Night—VanBuren was High Man—The Bachelors Won by Twenty-six Pins.

The Bachelors are in power now. They are, at least, as far as the bowling alleys of the Park Club are concerned. Saturday night they demonstrated for the second time their superiority on the club alleys by winning the second of the famous Bachelor Benedict matches by a majority of twenty-six pins. The Benedicts are heart-broken for it is the first time since the series of matches were inaugurated that such a thing happened. Think of it, two straight.

It was all right for the first frame. While neither side did anything phenomenal, it was an even thing, the Benedicts only leading by a single pin. In the second frame something happened. The pins seemed in league with the single men. They tumbled down at the slightest excuse and the result was a lead of fifty-seven pins when the frame was over. After that the Bachelors were never headed.

At the close of the fourth frame the leaders were at the front by a majority of 73 pins. Then the married men made a united effort to retrieve their lost honor. It was a brave attempt, but it didn't do any good. A slice was taken off the lead every frame until, in the eighth, there were only ten pins between the teams. It was no use. The Bachelors got together and made it 22 pins in the ninth and 26 on the windup, when the Benedicts failed most dismally to do anything and lost the opportunity to win out at the finish.

There were eight men on each team instead of ten as at previous contests. Of the Benedicts, J. H. Howell failed to sustain the reputation he made in the first match. H. D. Hibbard, of the club team, was up against it. He had six splits, which did all sorts of things to his score.

In the Bachelor contingent Charles S. Cook forgot to take the foul line into consideration, and four fouls were called on him before he remembered it. A. L. C. Marsh described all sorts of fantastic curves, but the gutters received them rather than the head pin and his score suffered as well.

Laurens H. VanBuren was a steady anchor for his team and made high score for the evening.

The individual scores were as follows:

BACHELORS.		BENEDICTS.
C Murphy	156	F. O. Ball	166
Cook	110	Northrup	131
Marsh	96	Brown	126
B. C. Ball	177	Howell	112
Taylor	143	Hibbard	107
A. Murphy	130	Garretson	146
Laing	121	F. B. Ball	164
VanBuren	184	Dr. Thiers	147
	1117		1091

IN HONOR OF MISSES MITCHELL.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Maynard Entertained Friends in a Pleasant Way.

In honor of the Misses Maude E. and Minnie Mitchell, daughters of Rev. J. W. Mitchell, who are engaged in teaching school in Asbury Park, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Maynard, of North avenue, tendered a reception to a number of friends yesterday. The house was very prettily decorated in green and pink. Besides the pleasant feature of sociability that such an assemblage brings about, there was a number of selections played on a phonograph that had been provided by the host. Refreshments were also served.

Those present included Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mitchell, Mrs. Abbie Peters, Mrs. Pierson, Misses Nellie and Cora Pierson, Mrs. Henry Kingslow, Harry Kingslow, Isaac Fields, Miss Ida Mitchell, Franklin Kelso, Miss Belle Flanigan, Fred White and Rev. and Mrs. Cooper.

The Last Chapter.

The last chapter in the history of the now defunct Union County Country Club will be the sale of the property of the club. Robert A. Meeker, the receiver of the club, has announced that he will sell the furniture and equipments of the clubhouse, the only assets remaining, at public auction Monday, January 8th, at 10 o'clock.

Informal Holiday Dance.

An informal New Year's Day dance was held in the hall of the Park Club house last evening. It was arranged by the house committee of which Laurens H. Van Buren is chairman. The patronesses were Mrs. F. H. Ball, Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Clapp.

A BRITISH VICTORY.

General French Drives Boers From Colesberg.

LADYSMITH REPORTS ALL WELL.

Armored Train Reaches Buller—A Sterkstroom Dispatch Tells of Successful Skirmish With Boers and Rescue of Prisoners.

LONDON, Jan. 2.—The success of General French in driving the Boers from Colesberg has shot a welcome ray of light through the gloom of the campaign in South Africa. Everywhere it is commented upon as an example of sound tactics and as an illustration of what may be done when the right methods are employed with the Boers. The government is urged to take the lesson to heart and to see that no stone is left unturned in the endeavor to get the largest possible forces of cavalry and mounted infantry to the front.

Now that General French has the Boers on the run the hope is expressed that he will give them no rest, but will harass them until they have found their way across the Orange river, which is 12 miles distant. The old wagon route to the Free State traverses Colesberg and crosses the river by a fine bridge 1,340 feet long. It is believed that the Boers retreated toward Norval's Pont, farther east, and the question is whether General French will be able to secure these two bridges before the Boers destroy them.

One important effect of the success of General French is that it will probably have a deterrent influence upon Dutch disaffection. There is some disposition here to exaggerate the importance of small skirmishes and engagements. It should be borne in mind that General French has only 2,000 men, and, so far as the important points of campaign are concerned, the situation is virtually unchanged.

At Modder River the Boers appear to be modifying somewhat their line of defense. General Buller's scouts have discovered a Boer camp established in the vicinity of Springfield, southwest of GENERAL FRENCH.

Colenso, by a Free State commando. A similar movement has been made at Modder River. A large force of Boers, it is reported, has formed a new laager about 15 miles down the stream at Jameelhoek.

Heliograph reports from Ladysmith show that all was well on Dec. 31. The bombardment was being continued, but its intensity had relaxed. An official dispatch from Ladysmith confirms the report cabled yesterday that several officers of the Devonshire regiment were severely wounded by the explosion of a Boer shell in the mess tent.

A new armored train has reached General Buller from Durban.

A Cape Town dispatch says that an exchange of prisoners is under consideration.

The entire Seventh division will have sailed from England by Jan. 11.

Lord Wolseley, replying to a correspondent who had asked for information regarding the British artillery, wrote:

"Our field artillery is at least as good as any field artillery in Europe."

A British firm, according to The Daily News, after keen competition with several American firms, has secured the government contract for the new seven span bridge over the Tugela river at Colenso. The firm is working night and day to complete the order.

It is said that Mr. John Churchill, younger brother of Mr. Winston Churchill, will accompany the Duke of Marlborough to the seat of war.

The Standard's correspondent at Frere camp, telegraphing on Jan. 1, says:

"Sir Charles Warren's division is now nearly complete. Its headquarters will be at Estcourt. It is rumored here that the guns which were captured from General Buller at Colenso have been mounted in the hills commanding the drift over the Tugela river at Springfield. The Boers, it appears, captured 620 rounds of shrapnel when they took the guns.

"General Buller's difficulties have been immeasurably increased by the enforced delay since the last engagement. He now has before him a series of walled and fortified hills running 16 miles along the line of the Tugela. These are swarming with the enemy, posted in positions of great strength and bristling with guns, while the river in front is in full flood. The coming battle will certainly be the stiffest and probably the most momentous of the entire campaign."

The Lisbon correspondent of The Standard says:

"It is currently reported that the speech of King Carlos in the cortes will refer at some length to the situation in South Africa, but it is doubtful whether anything will be said more friendly to England than to the Transvaal.

"The public is with the Boers, and the papers generally fear British designs upon Delagoa bay. The Portuguese government asserts that it has done everything to preserve neutrality."

The Daily Mail has the following dispatch, dated Jan. 1, from Rensburg:

"Yesterday afternoon a big force of cavalry and infantry, with ten guns, under the personal command of General French, moving by detour, occupied some hills three miles from Colesberg, where the Boers were in strength, confident in the natural aid afforded them by the hills around.

"The enemy's position extended six miles around the entire village. At day break our artillery opened the battle. The Boers were taken by surprise, but replied vigorously. An artillery duel was maintained for two hours. Then a Boer Hotchkiss collapsed and was abandoned. We captured it. A Boer big gun was silenced, but this and the other Boer guns were withdrawn to the northward, whither we are harassing the Boer retreat by a damaging shell fire.

"Colesberg is in our hands, and the few remaining loyalists are jubilant. We have captured many wagons and a considerable quantity of stores.

"Our losses were quite slight, but the Boers must have suffered heavily. They may stop at Achtertang or cross the river altogether at Norval's Pont, where the bridge is still intact."

The Times, in its second edition, publishes a dispatch from Sterkstroom, dated Dec. 31, which says:

"Captain Montmorency's scouts were cut off owing to their refusal to leave a wounded officer, Lieutenant Warren of Brabant's horse. These men, under Lieutenants Milford and Turner of the Frontier mounted rifles, defended themselves most gallantly against the repeated attacks of some 800 Boers. The enemy resorted to sniping during the night, but were repulsed with loss.

"At 5:15 this morning Captain Goldsworthy, with the Cape mounted rifles, arrived, and the enemy immediately fled to the hills. Turner's party, whose horses had all been killed, were rescued. They displayed splendid pluck, and the brilliant manner in which Captain Goldsworthy effected their relief on his own responsibility is deserving of the highest praise. Our loss was two men wounded. The Boers lost about 30 men, including 8 killed."

Another account says: "The success of this little party will arrest the progress of the enemy's recruiting in that vicinity."

Rumored Uprising.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 2.—Ugly rumors are in circulation of a Dutch uprising, with the object of seizing Cape Town and the docks and capturing the governor of Cape Colony, Sir Alfred Milner. The center of the movement is said to be Paarl, a village about 330 miles from Cape Town, where a meeting of the Afrikander bund was held Dec. 30. A similar meeting was held at Richmond on Dec. 28, and it is reported that the members of the bund in these two towns are acting in concert. The members of the bund at Wellington and the Dutch in Clanwilliam district are said to be armed with Mausers and to be anxious to use them in behalf of the Boers. Although the stories of an uprising are discredited, the police and military are taking ample precautions.

The Seized Vessel.

DURBAN, Jan. 2.—The imperial mail steamer Bundesrath of the German East African line, which was seized in Delagoa bay by the British cruiser Magicienne on the ground that she was carrying contraband of war, has been brought to wharf here and is now guarded by marines and bluejackets. The United States, German, Russian and Austrian military attaches, who spent the holidays in Durban, returned to the front this evening. The White Star line steamship Majestic, which left Liverpool on Dec. 13 with 2,000 troops, arrived here today.

McCoy Defeats Maher.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—"Kid" McCoy defeated Peter Maher at Coney Island yesterday afternoon in five rounds of a 25 round bout. It was a knock out. The battle did not begin till nearly 5:30. There was first a long delay, as no purse had been posted. Finally the entire receipts, $16,000, were put in the hands of the stakeholder, Jimmy Wakely, and the men agreed to fight for that. Then there was another long squabble over gloves, McCoy insisting on wearing a pair of his own and Maher insisting that the rule that the club furnish gloves be followed. McCoy yielded at last, and the fight began.

Gone to Canada.

LANCASTER, Pa., Jan. 2.—The continued absence of County Treasurer E. H. Hershey and the ugly stories concerning his accounts which have been afloat for a week past prepared the public for the formal announcement today that he is a defaulter and absconder. Mr. Hershey's son was in charge of the office last week endeavoring to straighten out the books. He called County Auditor Marsh to his aid, and they have found a defalcation of $65,000.

Half a Million For Cooper Union.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Andrew Carnegie has given $300,000 toward the endowment of a mechanic arts day school in the Cooper Union. To this gift Abram S. Hewitt and Edward Cooper of the board of trustees of the Cooper Union have added $200,000. The total sum of $500,000 will enable the trustees to put in running order a day school in addition to the night schools of mechanic arts which have been conducted for many years.

Railway Employees Happy.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 2.—Employees of the Western Maryland railroad received an acceptable New Year's gift in the shape of a 5 per cent increase in wages. In 1893, owing to the then financial depression, wages were reduced 10 per cent with the promise that they should be restored as soon as financial conditions warranted. Early in 1898 one-half the cut was restored, and yesterday they were put back to the original schedule.

Roosevelt Names Judges.

ALBANY, Jan. 2.—Governor Roosevelt has appointed Justice E. M. Culler of Brooklyn, Justice Judson S. Landon of Schenectady and Justice William E. Werner of Rochester to be judges of the court of appeals under the new law passed for the relief of that court. The court of appeals, through Judge Parker, asked for three additional judges.

Mississippi Frozen Over.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 2.—For the first time in many years the Mississippi river is frozen over here. Steady cold weather for a week or more has formed ice that resists the river boats. As a result no boats are arriving or departing, and the ferries have been compelled to tie up.

Gridiron Club In Charleston.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 2.—The Gridiron club of Washington is the guest of this city. Among the other prominent visitors are Senators Depew of New York and Tillman of South Carolina and Congressman Champ Clark of Missouri.

Croker Breaks a Leg.

LONDON, Jan. 2.—Richard Croker's leg was broken yesterday at his country place, Moat House, near Wantage, in Berkshire. The Tammany chieftain was trying to mount one of his horses for an early morning ride.

HOW ARE YOUR KIDNEYS?

It wouldn't be a half bad idea to ask yourself this question every morning—how are your kidneys? If the sole of your shoe get thin and a hole appears, you straightway have a patch put on. But how about your kidneys? Do you ever watch them? They are the most important organs of the body, because the blood constantly is passing through them all day and all night. They are the filters of the system and remove the poison from the blood. If they are neglected the poison spreads, then comes Bright's Disease and perhaps death. Watch Nature's signs—backache, pains in the loins, scalding and sleeplessness—dark urine, headache—you have any of these beware, your kidneys are out of order.

Don't experiment, but get the best remedy.

DR. HOLTIN'S KIDNEY TABLETS.

These little health tablets have saved hundreds of lives and may save yours. They are the prescription of a practicing physician, and are guaranteed in all diseases of the kidney and bladder. Don't be deceived by substitutes but get the genuine.

Prepared only by
HOLTIN CHEMICAL CO. 93 Maiden Lane, N. Y.

FOR SALE BY
JOHN P. POWERS,
Druggist,
tu th 45 Somerset St.

Sour Stomach

"After I was induced to try CASCARETS, I will never be without them in the house. My liver was in a very bad shape, and my head ached and I had stomach trouble. Now, since taking Cascarets, I feel fine. My wife has also used them with beneficial results for sour stomach."
Jos. KRESLING, 1921 Congress St., St. Louis, Mo.

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
TRADE MARK REGISTERED
REGULATE THE LIVER

Pleasant. Palatable. Potent. Taste Good. Do Good. Never Sicken. Weaken. or Gripe. 10c. 25c. 50c.
... CURE CONSTIPATION. ...
Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York. 315

NO-TO-BAC Sold and guaranteed by all druggists to CURE Tobacco Habit.

BANK ELECTION.
CITY NATIONAL BANK.
The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this bank, for the election of nine Directors to serve for the ensuing year, will be held at the Banking rooms, corner of Park avenue and Front street, on Tuesday, January 9th, 1900, from 1 to 2 o'clock p. m.
WILLIAM F. ARNOLD, Cashier.
Dated Plainfield, N. J., December 7th, 1899.
12-8 9 11 13 15 16 19 22 25 28 30 1-2 4 6 8

Flynn Bros.,
SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods
Have stood the test for years.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .
in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated
DOMESTIC FINISH.
Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.
Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.
Trading Stamps given.
The City Steam & Hand Laundry
MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 23 B
19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Hair's Hat Store 126 Park avenue. 10 1

SELLING OUT
Below Cost
TO CLOSE BUSINESS.
Star Crockery Store,
23 Somerset St., near Front.
3 and 9 cent Articles.
BARGAINS! BARGAINS!
Solomon & Evans,
Proprietors.

THE "Know How" IN PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job. That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor 24 ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 637

STATIONERY and TOYS.
We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade.
CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.
We make a specialty of
FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.
High Grade Cigars.
Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.
B. W. HAND,
205 W. Front Street.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
at Steiner place, North Plainfield
B. H. McCullough, Prop'r
dash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets.
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 9 11

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.
Yard 726 to 737 South Ave.

LADIES' TAILORING.
RICHARDSON & WALD,
325 West Front Street.
TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS.
We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
Alterations and relining promptly attended to.
—DRESSMAKING.—
Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats, Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

COPYRIGHT 1899
THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM
will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.
Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.
The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.
FRED ENDRESS,
121—125 WEST FRONT STREET.

GEO. O. STEVENS & CO.
COAL.
147 WEST FRONT ST.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 9 9 1 year

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS.
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

ESTATE of William H. Brower, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the fourteenth day of November, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.
SARAH J. BROWER,
JOHN L. BROWER,
11 21 9 oaw tu Executors.

ESTATE of Maggie Cash, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, administrator of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the twenty-first day of December, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.
JEREMIAH CASH,
12 26 9 oaw Administrator.

ESTATE of Sarah A. MacDonald, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made, on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the thirteenth day of December, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.
JAMES FREDERICK MACDONALD,
WILLIAM F. ARNOLD,
12 26 9 oaw Executors.

TRY THE
QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No. 337 Park Avenue.
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS.
CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

John G. Bantle,
First-class
Ladies' and Gent's
TAILOR.
428 Watchung Avenue.
Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS
For the Fire-place. Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates. Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas Telephone 87

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 109 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.
We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.
—CHRISTMAS GOODS—
A Big Assortment.

Ladie Desiring
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 208 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

The fat undertaker,
Who plants by the acre,
Poor victims of cough and cold,
Is sighing and crying.
For we've all stopped dying
Since Brazilian Balm was sold.
And for those who desire
Not just yet to go higher
It is worth its weight in gold.

For sale by all druggists. L. W. Randolph, Wholesale Agent.

Every pair of genuine P & P. Gloves is stamped with our name.
REGISTERED BRANDS OF THE
"P. & P." Kid Gloves
MANUFACTURED BY Chaumont PINGS & PINNER CO.
PERFECT FITTING LATEST STYLES
MANUFACTURED BY Berthold PINGS & PINNER CO.
BEST VALUE NEWEST SHADES
MANUFACTURED BY Fontaine PINGS & PINNER CO.
Don't take substitutes—There's none so good.
FOR SALE BY
Crosby & Hill,
95 tu f Plainfield, N. J.

Defective Eyes.
Overstrained and Defective Eyes are the cause of many a
HEADACHE.
Correctly-fitted Glasses will remedy the trouble. A Scientific Examination Free and Glasses Guaranteed.
STILES & CO.,
107 E. Front St.
EVERY THURSDAY.
Hours: 10:30 to 5:00.

Chas. L. Stanley,
. . FLORIST . .
No. 142 North Ave.
HEADQUARTERS for choice Cut Flowers, Ferns, Palms, a large assortment of other plants.
Floral design work and decorating for all occasions. Satisfaction guaranteed; an immense stock of Holly, Wreaths, Roping, etc.
Annex stores for the Holidays,
134 North Ave,
South Ave, Netherwood, and Central Ave., Westfield

M. Molnar,
432 Watchung Ave.,
Ladies' and Gents'
FINE TAILORING
Graduate of
New York Cutting School.
Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with o'd clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.
Subscriptions to The Patent Record, $1.00 per annum.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills
25c.
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

NEW YEAR IN HAVANA

Torchlight Processions and Noisy Demonstrations.

CHEERS FOR WOOD AND M'KINLEY.

Disturbance In Cienfuegos—Plans Being Matured For a Complete Reorganization of the American Army In Cuba.

HAVANA, Jan. 2.—The new year was ushered in with a torchlight procession which, forming just before midnight and preceded by a band, left the lower Prado and made a circuit of the principal streets. Almost the only tune played was the Cuban national hymn. Everybody seemed to be awake and awaiting the advent of 1900. The strains of the popular hymn drew the people everywhere to windows and doorways, and the procession was greeted with the wildest enthusiasm. Innumerable small boys kept up a firecracker fusillade along the entire line of march. All the prominent Cuban generals were cheered, although there is no doubt that the vivas were chiefly for "Cuba Libre." President McKinley and Governor General Wood came in for a liberal share of popular applause.

The procession having returned to the Prado and the band having once again played the Cuban national hymn, some Americans who were present called for the "Star Spangled Banner." The band immediately complied, and the crowd cheered lustily.

While Generals Maso, Rabi and Lara, who are here to attend General Wood's council of representative Cubans, were passing through Cienfuegos they were escorted from the vessel to the hotel, where a banquet was tendered them. Meanwhile a large crowd of colored people had gathered to demand from the authorities that the remains of Dionisio Gil, the colored brigadier general in the Cuban army who had been shot and killed the previous day by the police after he had shot and wounded two policemen who were in the act of arresting him, should be exhumed and buried with proper honors. The demonstrators marched through the town, unfurled a black flag and raised riotous cries against the authorities. The chief of police was fired at five times. General Maso and Mayor Aleman addressed the crowd, which at first would not disperse. Eventually, however, the police succeeded in restoring order and calming the people.

ARMY CHANGES IN CUBA.

A Complete Reorganization of the Commands In the Island Soon.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—It is probable that the present month will be marked by a complete reorganization of the military commands in Cuba. The impression prevails that there is to be a heavy reduction in these commands, and it is intimated that the outcome will be the creation of two departments instead of the six which originally comprised Cuba and the four into which the island is now divided.

General Wilson, who commands the combined departments of Matanzas and Santa Clara, has been ordered to Washington, and it is not the present intention that he shall return to Cuba. It is said that while here he, with General Davis, who is coming from Porto Rico and is due on the 5th at New York, will confer with the committees of congress having to do with the creation of a new form of government for Porto Rico and with legislation for Cuba during the time it shall remain under American control.

The combined department of Santiago and Puerto Principe is without a commander, although the duties of the post vacated by General Wood upon his promotion to the governor generalship are being temporarily discharged by the senior colonel. Thus the entire orient, as the eastern half of the island is called, is without a permanent commander. It is understood that the four departments in the orient will be consolidated into one and that a brigadier general will be named by Secretary Root, upon the recommendation of General Wood, to take command, with headquarters at Santiago.

Labor Troubles In Florida.

BAGDAD, Fla., Jan. 2.—Simpson & Co.'s mills have refused to accept the result of the recent arbitration of the labor troubles and gave notice that they would no longer employ Knights of Labor. Last Thursday they posted notices that they would pay 10 per cent advance to all old hands who would sever their connection with the Knights or to nonunion men who applied at once for work. Monday morning the mills opened with a full force of nonunion men. Late in the afternoon one of the employees was shot from ambush and wounded in the thigh. A lot of logs were also cut loose and set adrift. Serious trouble is feared.

War on National League.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—The Times-Herald says: "In a secret conference lasting seven hours a majority of the American Baseball league magnates decided to declare war on the National league and break the national agreement which has been in force since Feb. 24, 1896. Present at this meeting, which is destined to be one of the most important in the history of the league, were President B. B. Johnson and James H. Manning of Kansas City, Matt Killilea of Milwaukee and Charles Comiskey of St. Paul."

Downey-McIntyre Draw.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Jack Downey of Brooklyn and Percy McIntyre of New York fought 20 hard rounds at 135 pounds to a draw in the Greenwood Athletic club in Brooklyn. It was give and take all the way through, but honors were so evenly divided at the end that the referee could not pick a winner.

A Feast For Lions.

VIENNA, Jan. 2.—One of the animal keepers at the Vienna Zoological gardens entered the cage of lions in a spirit of bravado, and six lions rushed upon him and tore him to pieces. The attendants sought in vain with flaming torches and streams of water to drive the wild beasts from their victim.

New Austrian Currency Laws.

VIENNA, Jan. 2.—Under the new currency laws which are now in force throughout Austria-Hungary the florin and kreuzer disappear. The new unit is the krone, equaling half a kreuzer. After the introduction of the gold standard the krone will be worth 1 franc 5 centimes.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair; continued low temperature; high northeasterly winds.

GOEBEL MEN AHEAD.

Democratic Caucus Shows the Victory in Both Houses.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 2.—All doubt as to the ability of the Goebel Democrats to organize both houses of the legislature was dispelled by the attendance in the Democratic caucus. Senator Goebel was nominated for president pro tem. of the senate, and the entire Goebel slate went through. In the house caucus all of the 58 Democrats answered to roll call and participated. In the senate four Democrats remained out. They were Senators Alexander, Hays, Gillespie and Roberts. Senator Hill was sick and absent, but is not classed with the dissenters.

In the senate caucus Senator Harold created a sensation by making an alleged expose of the anti-Goebel leaders, declaring that he had been approached by J. H. Whallen of Louisville and paid $4,500 to remain out of the caucus. The money, he said, had been placed in a box with the Louisville Trust company, the key to which he passed up to Senator Goebel, who was presiding over the caucus, ending his speech by declaring that he had entered into the deal for the purpose of exposing Whallen and further that there was not money enough in the world to make him disloyal to his party and his state.

Attorneys for Goebel and other contesting Democratic candidates for state offices served notices upon the Republican contestees to take depositions to be used as evidence in the pending contest cases and naming their witnesses. The list of witnesses includes a long array of prominent men in both the Republican and anti-Goebel Democratic parties, like Governor Bradley, Senator Deboe, General Basil W. Duke, John H. Whallen and others.

The Republicans decided to hold a conference and nominate a straight Republican slate of candidates.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Mme. Sara Bernhardt is ill in Paris.

Western Germany is suffering from a coal famine.

Lady Alice Montagu was reported to be dying in London.

Two slight shocks of earthquake were felt in southern California.

Fifty thousand dollars for the Lawton fund was announced to be in sight.

The treasury estimates the stock of gold in the country at about $1,000,000,000 worth in coin.

The charges against Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire for violation of the civil service law were dismissed.

An explosion of gas at Knoxville, Pa., wrecked a large number of houses and stables and tore up several streets for hundreds of feet.

Many New Mayors.

BOSTON, Jan. 2.—Thirty-two cities in Massachusetts inaugurated mayors and city governments yesterday. The number of municipalities is increased this year by the addition of Melrose to the list. This gives the state 33 cities. Newton does not inaugurate its mayor until Jan. 8. The exercises in most places were of the usual nature. Thomas N. Hart took the seat which he previously had occupied, as he was mayor of Boston during 1890 and 1891. In several other places the mayors had served terms previously. The mayors of Brockton and Haverhill were elected by the Socialist-Democratic party. In their inaugural addresses the mayors generally devoted much attention to financial matters.

Colonel Elderkin Dead.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Jan. 2.—Colonel William Anthony Elderkin, U. S. A., retired, has just died here, aged 60 years. As assistant commissary general he was at one time connected with the chief commissary department of the lakes on the staffs of both General Merritt and General Brooke. He was retired two years ago owing to ill health. Colonel Elderkin graduated from West Point in 1861.

Seeley Wedding.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Herbert Barnum Seeley, the grandson of P. T. Barnum, and Miss Lucie Mitchell, daughter of Mrs. Archibald Paul Mitchell of this city, were married yesterday at the home of the bride's mother. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Matthew A. Tayler, rector of the Church of the Holy Sacrament. The young couple will tour the south on their wedding trip.

Banquet to Mayor Odell.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Jan. 2.—A testimonial banquet was given last night by 125 leading citizens of Newburg to Hon. Benjamin B. Odell, who is closing his sixth term as mayor of Newburg. He has served as mayor for a longer period than any other mayor in the state with one exception. Mayor Odell is the father of B. B. Odell, Jr., chairman of the Republican state committee.

Dr. Hering's Birthday.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 2.—The one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Dr. Constantin Hering was celebrated here yesterday by the dedication of the office building erected in his honor by his son, Walter E. Hering. Over 500 persons from this city, Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Baltimore, Washington and other cities were present.

Print Cloth Production.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Jan. 2.—The entire production of the print cloth mills of this city for the year just passed was 12,000,000 pieces, with sales fully equal to that amount. Business has been exceedingly good during the year, and many contracts were made which extend through the entire year 1900.

Moody Left No Will.

GREENFIELD, Mass., Jan. 2.—A petition has been presented in the probate court here by W. R. Moody, eldest son of the late evangelist, Dwight L. Moody, asking that he be appointed administrator of his father's estate. It is expected that the request will be granted. Mr. Moody left no will.

Fire In Elizabeth, N. J.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Jan. 2.—Fire totally destroyed the Isham building in this city, causing a loss of $75,000. The lower floor of the building was occupied by five stores, and the upper stories were used as offices and a lodgeroom.

Convicts' Concert Repeated.

SING SING, Jan. 2.—The concert and minstrel entertainment given by the convicts at the state prison on Christmas day was repeated. About 1,000 persons including the convicts, witnessed the performance.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

EDUCATIONAL

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
Adella C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th. Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
PIANO AND THEORY : : :
Home Studio,
132 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN,
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

.....Piano Instruction.....
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty . . . . .
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-
formerly with B. B. Maynard.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmon
Telephone 601

Don't be wasting you money and paying high prices for frames. Come and get your framing done with the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street,
where you will find a large assortment in ready-made frames and the latest styles in mouldings to make up frames to order at prices that will surprise you. Also fine drawings in crayons and pastels from all kinds of photographs.
Best Satisfaction Guaranteed.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.
Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

THE ORESCENT HOTEL.
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor.

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:20, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 2:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
E. H. BIRD, P. M.

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS.
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.
T. M. INGRAHAM.

XMAS IS NEAR
Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.
MRS. L. J. DENTON,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

COLLIER
EYE SPECIALIST,
103 Park Ave.....
Established 1869. Eyes Examined Free.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing,
Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
120 North Ave. Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly
TELEPHONE 168 b.

OUR OYSTERS
ARE THE
---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

E. B. Maynard, NEW SHOP NEW FURNITURE BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

WANTED
25 Mechanics
and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.
Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.
Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.
. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

New Year's Gifts
INCLUDE
Shoes, Slippers, Rubber Boots, etc.

Perhaps you didn't give anything in our line Christmas. If not, now is your chance. We're here to do business with everbody that comes our way, and if you don't get treated properly tell us about it.
VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.
Repairing Properly Done.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas, Fine Coffee,
All the Seasonable Goods for the Holidays. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit.
Tel. 931. C. E. GULICK & CO.,
THE PARK GROCERS.

Our Attractive Holiday Display
awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.
A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,
Gramophones, Records and Supplies
A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.
BROKAW'S . . .
The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

FIRE!!!
When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by Largest agency in the city 63 Nort Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
ELSTON M. FRENCH.

Candy For the Children
AT CHRISTMAS TIME is as much or more so expected by them as fireworks on the Fourth. They look for it in their stockings.....
American Mixture 10c lb. Old Fashioned Mixture, 10c lb.
Special Mixture 12c lb., and upwards to 60c lb.
Christmas Bell Box, the latest for Sunday Schools.
R. Walsh & Co.
TWO ST RES.
157 MARKET STREET,
677 BROAD STREET,
NEWARK N. J.
m th

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

NEW YEAR'S IN BERLIN.

Emperor William's Address to Officers—Cordial Greeting to White.

BERLIN, Jan. 2.—The new year broke dark, cold and foggy, with a drizzling rain, but the great ceremony of awakening the city was nevertheless performed successfully by the military bands and drum and fife corps of the whole garrison marching at the quickstep from the castle to the Brandenburg gate and back, rousing the population with deafening echo. The emperor and empress, as usual, were early about. The significant act of rededicating the flags of the Prussian army, which occurred in the forenoon, was a most solemn ceremony.

Emperor William at the New Year's parade addressed the officers of the garrison as follows:

"The first day of the new century sees our army, in other words, our people, in arms, gathered around their standards kneeling before the Lord of Hosts, and, verily, if any one has especial reason this day for bowing down before God it is our army. A glance at our standards suffices as an explanation, for they are the embodiment of our history.

"In what condition did the past century at its dawn find our army? The glorious army of Frederick the Great had slept upon its laurels fossilized amid all the petty detail of pipeclay, led by superannuated and inefficient generals, with officers unaccustomed to useful work and lost in debauch, luxury and foolish arrogance.

"Our army, in a word, was not equal to its mission, which, indeed, it had forgotten. Heavy was the chastisement of heaven which overtook it and fell on our people. It was cast into the dust, the glory of Frederick was extinguished and our standards were broken. In many long years of bitter servitude God taught the people to look to itself and, under the foot of the proud conqueror, our people engendered in itself the most sublime thought."

Mr. White was addressed by the emperor at the Cercle with particular kindness and at considerable length. His majesty expressed great satisfaction that relations with the United States during the year 1899 were so greatly improved and that so many obstacles to a better understanding between the two nations had been removed. He said that he, with the rest of Germany, had been deeply and appreciatively touched at various passages in the president's message.

BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

Washington Social Season Inaugurated at the White House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Beneath a sky as bright as that above Cuba and in a wind as cold as the Arctic over 2,000 citizens stood in line at the White House gates yesterday waiting to pay their respects to the president of the United States after the brilliant official reception which ushered in the new year and marked the opening of the social season in Washington.

The decorations of the executive mansion were not as elaborate this year as they have been on some former occasions. Still there was a profusion of palms, fern, smilax, holly and other greens everywhere through the state, dining, the blue, red and green parlors and the east room. The mantels were banked high with foliage plants and the window recesses filled with tall, graceful palms and rubber plants. The green of the foliage plants was relieved by scarlet poinsettia and other flowering plants. The light of the brilliant day was excluded and the rooms were flooded with electric lights from thousands of tiny bulbs, adding to the brilliancy of the decorations. The glittering gold and silver trappings of the members of the diplomatic corps and the full dress uniforms of the army and navy contrasted strongly with the modest black of the jurists, statesmen and civilian officials of the government as they moved through the mazy throng. The president and Mrs. McKinley received in the blue parlor, assisted by the members of the cabinet and their wives, and "behind the line" were about 50 of the wives and daughters of senators, representatives, prominent army and navy officers and others high in social and official circles.

The full Marine band in their red uniforms were stationed at the head of the corridor opposite the state dining room throughout the reception played patriotic airs.

Ohio Assembly Meets.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 2.—The seventy-fourth general assembly met yesterday and elected the Republican caucus nominees by a strict party vote. An adjournment was then taken. Under the reorganization Judge A. G. Reynolds of Lake county is speaker of the house and Oscar Shepard president pro tem. of the senate. Lieutenant Governor Jones holds over until next Monday, when he will be succeeded by Hon. John A. Caldwell of Cincinnati.

Robbery and Arson.

WHITINSVILLE, Mass., Jan. 2.—Thieves broke into the house of George Nelson at Castle Hill and stole a safe containing $2,200, after which they set fire to the dwelling to cover their crime. Mr. Nelson got up early to go to the barn, only a short distance from the house. On his return he found his desk ransacked, in confusion and the house on fire. There is no clew to the perpetrators of the crime.

Naval Movements.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—The Texas has sailed from Fort Monroe for New York. She will there be docked and repaired and then sent to the West Indies to join Admiral Farquhar in his cruise. The Eagle has arrived at Nuevitas. The training ship Adams has arrived at Yerba Buena island.

Eight Negroes Dead.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 2.—During the past week eight young negroes have died suddenly at Lady's island, in the vicinity of the Central Phosphate works, Beaufort county, this state. There are suspicions that the whisky they used was either tampered with or not chemically pure.

Another Rise in Wages.

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., Jan. 2.—The Norwalk and Fairfield Worsted Mills company, manufacturers of cashmeres and worsteds, has given notice that on and after Jan. 15 wages would be raised 10 per cent in all departments. The company employs 200 hands.

Old Church Reopened.

BOSTON, Jan. 2.—That famous old structure, the old South Meeting House, has been reopened after undergoing extensive interior changes which the hand of time had made necessary. The changes and finish give the several rooms a modern aspect.

CABUYAO CAPTURED.

Americans Begin a General Southern Advance.

LARGE HAUL OF PRISONERS AND GUNS

Documents Seized In Manila Involve a Thousand Filipinos In the Intended Rising—Wife and Sisters of Aguinaldo In Custody.

MANILA, Jan. 2.—The first movement of a general southern advance occurred yesterday morning, when two battalions of the Thirty-ninth infantry landed and occupied Cabuyao, on the south side of Laguna de Bay. Two Americans were killed, and four were wounded. Twenty-four of the enemy's dead were found in one house. One hundred and fifty prisoners and four 6 pounder rapid fire guns were captured. Three Filipino officers also surrendered to Major March and two American and two Spanish prisoners.

The gunboat Laguna de Bay bombarded the town before the disembarkation of the troops from the cascoes, which was made under the enemy's shrapnel fire. The enemy evacuated the place before the charging Americans, retreating to Santa Rosa, to which town they were pursued. Heavy fighting occurred along the road to Santa Rosa, which was occupied by the insurgents retreating south toward Silaag. The Americans burned the country between and around Cabuyao.

The gunboat returned to Calamba for re-enforcements and thence came to Manila to fetch ammunition. She recently captured two of the enemy's steam launches, one under the fire of artillery at Calamba, and also four cascoes loaded with rice.

Other regiments are mobilizing at San Pedro Macati and Pasig preparatory to continuing the southern advance.

Sunday's capture of bombs involved the seizure of documents inculpating 1,000 Filipinos who intended to rise against the Americans. Papers were also found showing a distribution of the city into districts and a careful assignment of leaders and followers. The precautions taken by the Americans on Saturday, it is now evident, alone prevented an uprising.

The provost marshal has requested two more regiments to be detailed for the protection of Manila. Three thousand troops are now actually in the city.

Aguinaldo's wife, sisters and 18 Filipinos have surrendered to Major March's battalion of the Thirty-third infantry at Bontoc, province of that name.

It was announced from Manila Dec. 23 that Colonel Wilder some time previous to Dec. 15 or perhaps that day had telegraphed to Vigan from Bayombong that Aguinaldo, with a number of Igorroti litter bearers, had crossed the mountains near Bayombong, going southward, and that his wife had died in a village in that vicinity. It was added that she had been unwell since the birth of their son and that the hardships of their flight proved fatal.

McClellan's Heirs.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Jan. 2.—The struggle going on in court here between claimants from Ireland, Canada and the United States for the estate of John McClellan has brought to light the fact that he was a deserter from the British army. The American and Canadian claimants, Mrs. Margaret Bulkley of Chicago, Mrs. Mary Vine of Grand Rapids, Thomas McClellan of Calgary, N. W. T., and William McClellan of Niagara, Ont., all claiming to be brothers and sisters, have joined hands against Mrs. Mary McClellan and Margaret Hamill of County Armagh, Ireland, claiming to be nieces. Still another claimant, Joseph McClellan of Belfast, Ireland, claiming to be a nephew, has just appeared by his attorney. Lawyers from Canada and Ireland are here, and the contest bids fair to last a week longer at least.

Life Convict Free.

SING SING, Jan. 2.—John C. Baldwin, who was sentenced to imprisonment for life for the murder of William H. Springstein at Port Jervis in 1877 and who was pardoned last Saturday by Governor Roosevelt, has been released from prison and left for Port Jervis with friends who were waiting for him. Baldwin had served 22 years, less two months, and is now about 60 years old. The first sentence of the court was that he be hanged, but this was commuted to life imprisonment. Major W. S. Weston of Newburg, Dr. J. J. Mills of Port Jervis and other influential persons who believed Baldwin innocent have worked unceasingly for his pardon. Baldwin is a veteran of the civil war.

A North Carolina Blaze.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 2.—Fire at Greensboro, N. C., caused losses aggregating nearly $100,000, partly covered by insurance. The fire started in the elevator shaft of the Hague-McCorkle Dry Goods company's wholesale house and soon enveloped that building and spread to the adjoining store, occupied by W. J. Clary. Water froze before it struck the burning building and added to the hardship of subduing the flames.

Church Burned.

STROMSBURG, Neb., Jan. 2.—Eden Baptist church was totally destroyed by fire early Monday morning and two people seriously injured. The fire was caused by an explosion of acetylene gas with which the church was lighted. A New Year's watch meeting was being held, and a large number of people were present, but most of them had just left the building when the explosion occurred.

Senator Ford Now Lieutenant.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Company C Ninth regiment, N. G. N. Y., has elected Senator John Ford a second lieutenant to succeed Lieutenant Charles W. Seward, who died of camp fever in the Spanish war. Senator Ford joined the Ninth shortly after the muster out of the United States volunteer service.

Chilean Claims Commission.

VALPARAISO, Jan. 2.—The Chilean congress having approved the renewal of the Chilean commission, or the Washington tribunal, according to the convention with the United States, executive action has made the revival an accomplished fact.

Family and Home Burned.

BARBOURSVILLE, W. Va., Jan. 2.—William Ellis, wife and two children were burned to death in their home near here. No one knows the origin of the fire.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

338 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week $5 a year—in advance.

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., JAN. 2, 1900

COMING EVENTS.

Jan. 2—Meeting of Missionary Study Class of the Y. M. C. A.

Jan. 8—Meeting of Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A.

Inviting a Gas War.

In the recommendation of the street committee of the Common Council that went out of power with the old year, that in fixing terms for a franchise for the People's Gas Company, the incoming Council should stipulate that the new company should not sell out or assign its interests for a period of five years, the Newark News foresees a war of rates between the old and the new companies with rather disastrous consequences. In discussing the possibilities that such a restriction in a franchise might bring about, the News says:

"Primarily, the object of this restriction in the Plainfield franchise is to assure competition and cheap gas for five years. Under almost identical conditions a competing gas company was chartered in Kansas City, Mo., a few years ago. The old company immediately cut the price, and the new one met it. This seesaw process continued until both companies were selling gas at fifty cents per 1,000—a rate that was unprofitable, and was rapidly eating the new company's capital, while the old one, although not earning profits, was self sustaining by reason of economies learned through a long period of operation, and had an ample "war fund" that it had been gradually retiring to meet just such emergencies. The new company was approaching bankruptcy at a gallop when the old one offered to buy it out. This the franchise restriction forbade, and the absorption of capital and the destruction of credit continued. In its desperation the new company appealed to the Council for relief, but that body was obdurate, and asked, like Shylock, 'Is it so nominated in the bond?'

"Meanwhile Kansas City was fairly revelling in fifty-cent gas—cheap gas, to be sure, but pretty poor gas. Needed extensions of mains were refused, because the more gas sold the greater was the loss. When the new company was about to throw up its hands and go out of the business the Council relented by repealing the restrictive clause of the franchise, and the old company forthwith took its rival into camp at bargain-counter figures—and gas went up to the old price again. This was long before the period of the restriction had expired.

"Of course, Kansas City got cheap gas for a time, but it was at the expense of the stockholders of the new company, many of them citizens. Then, in order to get better gas, secure necessary extensions and save the wanton destruction of capital, the city permitted consolidation and welcomed higher priced gas. The new concern was not capitalized for a long fight, and the city took pity on it.

"Perhaps, under similar conditions, the corportion heart of Plainfield would not be so soft, but it would be well for that city to satisfy itself in advance as to the ability of the petitioning company to withstand a five-years' siege."

The city of Syracuse has established a municipal lodging house, at which an applicant is furnished with a supper, bath, lodging, and breakfast, on condition that he will work at street cleaning a day. A meal is furnished for one hour's work. Good idea.

The municipal-owned street railway of Huddersfield, Eng., carries passengers for 2 cents. The employes work 8 hours per day with 10 per cent. higher wages than are paid by private owned plants for a 10-hour work day.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

To Charles Blazier, a farmer living near High Bridge, hearing has been restored. Last summer Blazier lay down on the green sward for a nap. When he awoke he heard deafening sounds. At first they seemed like the noise emanating from a boiler factory, then they sounded like a newly organized band, horse fiddle and other deafening sounds. He experienced this unsought-for music for almost a fortnight and then all was quiet. Physicians were unable to ascertain the cause of the trouble. Blazier became so deaf that he could hear scarcely anything. A day or two ago Blazier called upon Dr. Knight of Clinton, who removed a large cricket from his ear. The cricket was dead and flattened out as thin as paper. His hearing began to return at once and now it has been restored fully.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

Nothing but the extraordinary attracts wide attention, and this accounts for the popularity of "The Sleeping City," a rousing four-act comedy drama which will be seen at Music Hall Friday night. The plot is one of contemporaneous interest, developed in a way to keep the audience's expectancy fully alive, and contains some deeply impressive scenes. The characters, flesh and blood people, are essayed by a strong assemblage of players, both emotional and humorous. The play has brisk action, terse dialogue, telling climaxes and effective act endings, and it abounds in thrilling situations. A vast deal of magnificent stage effects is required for the proper mounting, and no detail has been overlooked to give a wonderfully realistic production.

WIT AND WISDOM.

A great many social barriers are crossed in love.

A woman always thinks a man ought to join some church.

There are no breakers ahead of the man who is already broke.

The architect of his own fortune never tires of planning extensions.

The fellow who shakes the tree does not always get the most fruit.

There is nothing more musical than the voice of a mule to another mule.

An Irish philosopher says it's a wise man who has his after thoughts first.

Some men owe their success to acting contrary to the advice of their friends.

Sometimes the only difference between a boom and a boomerang is in the orthography.

It's a poor rule that won't work both ways; but it's a poorer one that won't work at all.

Truth crushed to earth will rise again and the crushing and rising constitutes a continuous performance.

Some girls who profess to be highly educated have merely been immersed in a weak solution of accomplishments.

Someone asserts that a cat's eyes are larger at midnight than at any other time. We are positive its voice is.—Chicago News.

WATCHES.

In laying aside a watch be sure that it rests upon its case.

A watch should be wound up every day at the same hour.

Avoid putting it on a marble slab or near anything excessively cold.

If suspended the action of the balance may cause oscillation, which will interfere with its going.

A sudden change of temperature contracting the metal, may sometimes cause the mainspring to break.

The cold also coagulates the oil and the pivots and wheels work less freely, and affect the regularity of the time-keeping.

To keep your watch clean take care that the case fits closely, and see that the watch pocket is kept free from fluff which is so often given off by linings.

Avoid sudden jars and falls, for even if it does not seem to affect it at the moment, a watch will resent rough handling by becoming gradually "out of order" without apparent cause.

RAM'S HORN SAYINGS.

Spiritual pride cheers the devil's heart.

Many a pulpit has no divine pulling power.

Blood money cannot hush an accusing conscience.

The love of God submerges the barriers of polite society.

The christian can scorn the scorn and ridicule the ridicule of the world.

The devil's mail bag—a gossiper's mouth.

The moment a man boasts of his righteous life, he shows the devil on his lips.

The hand of providence gives the best massage treatment.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

TRY GRAIN-O! TRY GRAIN-O!

Ask your Grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. ¼ the price of coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Sold by all grocers.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,

122 East Front Street.

ANNIVERSARY SPECIALS FOR WEDNESDAY.

36-in Fruit of Loom Muslin - 7½c yd
36-in Lonsdale Cambric - - 10c yd
20-in Cotton Birds Eye - - 39c pc
Lot of col'd Border Table Linen Remnants, 25c yd
12c Hemmed Pillow Cases, 45 x 36 - 10c ea
12x4 Superfine Wool Blankets, reg. pr. $9, 7.98
11x4 " Grey " " " $3, 2.48
All our 8c Outing Flannels - - 6½c yd
All our 8c Flannelettes - - 6½c yd
Ladies' all-wool Flannel Waists, val. 1.48, 1.00
Men's Heavy Fleece-lined Underwear, 75c suit
Men's Heavy Grey Wool Socks - 10c pr
Men's Fine Camels Hair, 25c quality, 3 prs 50c
Men's White Unlaundered Shirts, - 39c
Odds and Ends in Men's Underwear at half price
Men's Heavy Scotch Wool Gloves, - 25c pr
Silk Floss Pillows, splendid substitute for down,
16 x 16, 19c. 18 x 18, 25c. 20 x 20, 39c.
22 x 22, 50c. 24 x 24, 59c. 26 x 26, 75c.
29c Outing Flannel Skirt patterns (BEAUTIFUL STYLES) 25c ea
Childs' Heavy Wool Mittens, - 10c pr
Ladies' Sleeveless Cardigan Jackets, FIRST GRADE 98c
All our Ladies' 50c Fleece-lined Ribbed Underwear, - - - - 39c garment

DOWNSTAIRS.

100 piece Dinner Set of best English Porcelain, underglaze decoration, green and flow blue with gilt handles, a $10.00 set, for tomorrow, - - - - $7.50
3 styles 98c Celery Boats, HEAVY GILT and FLORAL DECORATIONS 50c
$3.00 Parlor Lamp, 26-in high, 9-in globe with removable brass fount, finely decorated, 1.87
9-in China Salad Bowls, gold stippled, flower and vine decorations, 49c reg. price, 27c
6 styles Pin Trays, 15, 19 and 25c grades, 10c
49c Comb and Brush Trays, - 23c
Lot of 50c gold framed Pictures, 10 x 12 25c

THIS WEEK WE ARE CELEBRATING OUR 10th ANNIVERSARY. EVERY DAY A LONG LIST OF SPECIALS WILL BE ADVERTISED. DON'T FAIL TO READ EVERY ISSUE OF THE PRESS.

TERMS FOR SPECIALS - CASH.

Trading Stamps with each Cash Purchase.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,

234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

FINE MERINO UNDERWEAR, Suited to this Weather, SOLD AT PECK'S.

Salaried Position Offered -:-
- to a -
Bright, Active, Reputable Young Man,
as Manager of
A Live Up-to-date Newspaper and Trade Journal.
Experience Not Necessary . . .
Apply to . . .
SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

An Annual . . . . Clearing Sale

of our entire stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's suits, reefers, overcoats, ulsters and heavy-weight trousers begins this Saturday and will last for a short time only.

All MEN'S OVERCOATS that were sold at 7.00 and 8.00, clearing sale price 4.25 and 4 75.
All MEN'S OVERCOATS that we sold from 8.50 to 10.00, clearing sale price 5 50.
350 extra fine OVERCOATS, former prices from 12.00 to 15.00, clearing sale price 6 50 and 7 00.
MEN'S ULSTERS reduced from 7.00 to 4.50.
Best Shamrock IRISH FRIEZE ULSTERS, reduced to 6.50, former price 12.00.
1,000 Men's and Youth's heavy weight suits of all descriptions, styles and qualities, which we must and will sell regardless of cost or value. 5.00 suits to be sold at 2 75. 7.50 suits to go at 4 50. 10.00 suits to go at 5 75, and all others in proportion. Children's Suits at 1.00, worth 2.00. 2.50 Child's Suits to go at 1.45.
2,000 pairs of Men's Trousers to be included in this sale at 1.00, 1.50, 2.00 and 2.25. Boys' Knee Pants with double seat and double knees at 20c.
Men's fleece lined underwear at 30c, worth 50c. Men's winter caps at 15c. Working shirts at 15c, and thousands of more bargains at this great clearing sale. Call early and avoid the great Saturday rush.

Will Pay Carfare to all Buyers of Clothing.

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

Chocolates Bon Bons Ice Cream Drops — Wieda's — Ice Cream Soda Water Hot Soda
Manufactured at the Premises, 144 West Front St. Phone, 1188.

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.
Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS
Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.
at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

THE BOOT SHOP AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.
Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.
Capital, $150,000.
Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.
CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.
DIRECTORS.
Chas. Hyde, J. F. Hubbard, Jas. T. Cleeson, H. G Runkle, Walter Scott, W. F. Arnold, J. K. Myers, J. F. MacDonald, J. B. Coward.
General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 228.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

will aid the cook as no other agent will to make

The dainty cake,
The white and flaky tea biscuit,
The sweet and tender hot griddle cake,
The light and delicate crust,
The finely flavored waffle and muffin,
The crisp and delicious doughnut,
The white, sweet, nutritious bread and roll,—
Delightful to the taste and always wholesome.

Royal Baking Powder is made from PURE GRAPE CREAM OF TARTAR and is absolutely free from lime, alum and ammonia.

There are many imitation baking powders, mostly made from alum and sold cheap. Avoid them, as their use is at the cost of health.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Miss Comstock, of Sheepshead Bay, has been visiting friends in the city.

Miss Florence Dodge, of Bayonne, has been visiting Plainfield relatives.

Mrs. Stack, of Poughkeepsie, is visiting her son, Fred Stack, of Park avenue.

Former Councilman Francis C. Marsh is ill at his home on Madison avenue.

Councilman Murray Burtis, of Fair view avenue, has returned from a business trip.

Rev. J. C. White, of Pittsburg, Pa., who has been visiting in Plainfield, has returned home.

Miss Eva Tunison, of Somerville, who has been visiting borough relatives, has returned home.

The Misses Martin, of New York, are guests of their cousin, Miss Gertrude Tier, of Bank place.

Sydney R Titsworth, of West Fifth street, left today for Alfred University after spending the holidays in town.

Mrs. Letitia S. Penfield and her mother, Mrs. Smock, of Park avenue, are visiting Brokaw Brothers, of New York.

Rev. O. S. Newell, of New York, and his mother, are visiting G Kennedy Newell and wife, of West Fifth street.

Lloyd VanMiddlesworth, who lives on a farm near Weston, Somerset county, is visiting at the home of his parents.

Rev. Ernest Crane, of this city, will return this week to Crozier Theological Seminary, where he will complete his studies.

Charles W. Naylor and wife, of Brooklyn, spent yesterday with Mrs. Naylor's mother, Mrs. Sanders, of Orchard place.

Howard T. Lewis, of Alfred University, has returned after being a guest at the home of Mrs. George H. Babcock, of West Eighth street.

The society news of Washington, D. C., gives an account of a five o'clock tea given by Mrs. Browne, wife of Justice Browne of the Supreme Court, on Thursday, at which Miss Marion Dumont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Dumont, of East Seventh street, was one of the assistants in welcoming the guests.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT.

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—Martha Washington Council, No. 23, Daughters of America, meet this evening.

—Tomorrow evening Unity Lodge, No 109, K. of P., will install the officers elect.

—A regular meeting of Unity Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be held tomorrow evening.

—Next Friday evening the Mayor and Borough Council will meet for the first time this year.

—Miss Cain, of Raritan, has been visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. Hervey Buchanan, Duer street.

—Mrs. L. J. Denton, the West Front street florist, has been engaged to decorate the Crescent Avenue church for the year 1900.

—The Borough Public Schools will reopen tomorrow. Most of the teachers have returned from their holiday vacation.

—The first meeting of the new Plainfield Board of Education will be held this evening. The officers for the new year will be elected.

—The Potter Press Works will start up again tomorrow after being closed for several days so that an account of stock could be taken.

—Monday morning, January 8th, at 10 o'clock, Robert A. Meeker will sell the goods and chattels at the Union County Country Club.

—There was no meeting of Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, last evening. The meeting was held Friday evening of last week.

—Early this month an entertainment will be given in the Parish House of the Church of the Heavenly Rest by the Industrial School members.

—Consult Laire's advertisement in today's Press for list of specials for the week. His prices are very low and his goods as good as the best.

—There were a number of quiet watch night affairs held in various parts of the city Sunday night. They were all void of any celebration until the new year was ushered in.

—If the present weather continues it may be possible to start the work of widening Somerset street, as proposed, if the right sort of agreement has been reached between the officials and the property-owners.

LONG KNOWN - - - MUCH USED.

Randolph's Glycerine of Arnica.

for Cold Wind Chaps, Rough Skin and all Irritations of the Skin.
.....QUICK RELIEF GIVEN.....

25c per bottle -:- -:-

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for TELEPHONE CALL 109
Lowney's and Whitman's Chocolates and Chocolate Bon-Bons.

N. K. BARNES, Grocer,

No. 245 WEST FRONT STREET,

SPECIAL FOR TEN DAYS.

GRANULATED SUGAR 5c lb.

Best Butter, lb	28c	10 cakes Laundry Soap for	19c
Best Eggs, dozen,	22c	3 lb package Prepared Buckwheat,	10c
Best Flour, 24½ lbs,	55c	Large bottle of Catsup	5c
Best Potatoes, basket,	35c	3 lb can Pineapple	10c
Best Hams, per lb,	10½c	3 lb can Bartlett Pears	10c
Best Molasses, gallon	35c	Lemon Cakes, lb	5c
Best Syrup, gallon	35c	Soda Crackers, lb	5c
Fine Drinking Tea, lb	35c	Nic Nac Crackers, lb	5c
Fine Drinking Coffee, lb	12c	Ginger Snaps, lb	5c
5 gallons Best Oil	50c	Corn Starch, package	5c

TRADING STAMPS ALSO.

Annual January Sale of Ladies' Muslin Underwear.

An entirely new showing of muslin underwear is now ready for your inspection.

These Goods were bought many weeks ago, before the recent heavy advances in prices on cotton goods—Prices have been made accordingly.

Made by one of the famous underwear manufacturers of Massachusetts in clean, well ventilated factories, insuring absolute cleanliness in manufacture.

Finely made garments, snowy white, beautiful dainty garments. By far the best elaborate assortment we have ever shown.

These goods have just been received, and placed on sale. As to prices they conform to the regular January bargain prices, which are much lower than the ordinary.

I. LEDERER.

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.

Commencing Tuesday Evening, January 3rd, and continuing until further notice, this store will close at 6 o'clock every evening excepting Saturday.

We would respectfully ask the patrons of this house to make their purchases before 6 o'clock so that our salespeople can have their evenings free from duty and be enabled to render more prompt and efficient service during business hours.

UNDERWEAR

At Mill Prices : : :

If you could deal direct with the maker he would not be able in most cases to quote you better prices than we will tomorrow.

50c Men's heavy, thick wool, fleeced underwear in natural gray shades, worth 75c.

75c Men's fine natural wool underwear, very soft and heavy, a regular 1.00 quality.

1.00 Men's natural grey underwear, well made and handsomely trimmed, very fine heavy quality, finely knitted and very soft, well worth 1.25.

1.50 Men's extra heavy camels hair underwear, double breasted and well made, remarkable value.

25c Women's ribbed underwear, made of fine Egyptian cotton, good weight and very heavily fleeced, worth 39c

39c A little lot of women's ribbed vests (no drawers to match) in a good shade of blue grey, about half wool and heavily fleeced, worth 69c.

50c Women's fine ribbed combination suits, half wool and heavy fleece lined, reduced from 1.00.

Blankets and Comfortables.

We offer astonishing values in blankets and comfortables.

2.98 Blankets 81 x 90 inches, weight 5 pounds, nearly all wool, that are worth 4.00.

3.98 Blankets extra large and heavy, made of California wool, very soft and downy, that are worth 5.00.

1.25 Extra large size comfortables filled with fine white cotton and covered with fine silkaline nicely tufted, the actual value is 1.75.

3.48 Fine eiderdown filled comfortables covered with a splendid quality of French satin and worth 4.50.

After Christmas.

We're getting ready to inventory. This the season for Broken Lots and probably Broken Prices. We have found one lot already that has got to go. We sold it for $10.00. You can buy it now for $8.50.

OVERCOATS . . .

are now in order, $5.00, $7.50, $10, $12, $13.50.

ULSTERS - - $4.50, 5.50.

Schepflin & Schultz,
CLOTHIERS.
M. J. Cashin, Manager.
322 West Front St.

$1.23 French Felt Shapes, 75c.

Bonn's 140 West Front St

98c Felt Alpine HATS, 69c.

Flannelette Night Gowns 98c and 75c.

Made of soft, fleecy, closely woven flannelette, pretty pink and blue stripes, cut long and full Empire style, wide torchon edging and insertion all around and at cuffs, 98c. Others made plain with high neck, only 75c.

Hats Trimmed Free of Charge.

CHAS. L. FORGE,
Architect and Superintendent.
228 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given.

Emery's
Dancing Pavilion
(SCOTCH PLAINS.)
Pavilion For Rent
FOR Balls, Parties, etc.

SPECIAL ! !
HAIR DRESSING, SHAMPOOING, MANICURING.
Until after the Holiday Season
MISS HOLMES,
Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology, will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening at parlors 75c. At ladies residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.
440 W. FRONT ST.

MASSAGE :-: VAPOR BATHS
CORNS REMOVED 25c.
M. V. STICKLE, 149 East Fifth St.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, Jan. 2.—During 1899 there were eight new buildings erected in Dunellen and several streets were macadamized. Beside a large number of blue stone sidewalks laid and 43 hydrants have been set.

The two new reservoirs being built on the side of the mountain near Sebring's Mills by the Watchung Water Co. are 80x50 and have a capacity of 450,000 gallons of water. One of the reservoirs is nearly completed.

Miss Louise Brakeley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs P. W. Brakeley, had as her guest last week her friend Miss Mary Ward, of New York.

Miss Bessie Benton, who has been visiting the Misses Marlow, of Dunellen avenue, has returned to her home in New York.

A check for $395.77 has been received from County Collector Servies. It is the State railroad tax of the borough.

Mrs Catharine Mairer has returned from Port Reading where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Peter Conley.

Joseph Kuldoses has bought one of the lots of the Dealaman property and will build a house in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Robins have been entertaining their daughter, Mrs. Flora F. Allison, of Elizabeth.

Station agent Dunn, of Lincoln, who has been slightly ill, is considerably improved in health.

Mrs. O. A. Douglass has been entertaining her nephew, Milton Smith, of New York.

Miss Annie Frazee, of Bensonhurst, has been a guest at Cedar Cottage the past week.

Station Agent R. S. Fisher will occupy the Martine house on First street.

Miss Eva Bodine has been visiting friends in Washington, D. C.

S. C. Staples is slowly recovering from a serious illness.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, January 2. — The regular hunting season for rabbits closed yesterday. A number of hunters in the village were out for their final hunt. Clinton Clark holds the quail shooting record for the season, killing nine at one shoot Friday afternoon.

The trolley company furnished their usual accommodations to the public Sunday and all day New Year's. You could catch several cars within a few minutes of each other, but if you missed the bunch it meant a wait from forty to sixty minutes.

Miss Reighmetta Marsh and Miss Addie Johnston, who have been spending their holiday vacation with their parents, left this morning by the Washington express for Luray College, Luray, Va., to resume their studies.

The fine skating on the several ponds through the Valley called out the young people yesterday, and from early morn until late at night the ponds were filled with merry skaters.

Dr. Parks led the monthly consecration meeting of the Baptist Young People's Society in the parlors of the church Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Smith and child, of Lincoln, have been the guests of Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Terry, of Netherwood, have been the guests of Mrs. Terry's mother, Mrs. James Buckley.

Mrs. Wm. Gere has returned from a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brockway, in Brooklyn.

A carload of amusement lovers from the village enjoyed the vaudeville show at Music Hall last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schick have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Molloy at Glenside Park.

Miss Hattie Wilcox was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Nancy Wilcox, yesterday.

School reopened this morning after an eleven days' holiday vacation.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs Harry Coddington, of Mountain avenue, spent New Year's Day in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Jed M. Smalley, of Watchung avenue, has returned after visiting relatives in Brooklyn.

Miss Lillian Kline, of Elizabeth, is a guest at the home of George L. Van Emburgh, of East Second street.

Hearing on School Law.

The commission appointed to revise the school law will give three public hearings, in the Council Chamber, City Hall, Newark, January 4, at 3 o'clock; in the Chancery Court room at the State House, Trenton, on Friday, January 5th, at 3 o'clock; and in the Court House at Camden on Saturday, January 6th, at 11 o'clock. An invitation is extended to all persons interested in the revision of the school laws of the State.

—What is known to the Germans as a "Sylvester Service" was held New Year's Eve at St. Peter's Lutheran church on Grove street. It consisted of a short service of song and prayer.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Bowers, of Basking Ridge, has been visiting relatives.

Chester Long, son of Firman Long, of Summit avenue, is very ill with pneumonia.

The Misses Emmons, of Washington avenue, are entertaining company from Trenton.

Lawyer John Powers and family, of Elizabeth, have been visiting Plainfield relatives.

It is reported that before long one of Plainfield's officials will take unto himself a wife.

Mary Hines, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Peter Hines, of Liberty street.

Harold Chandor, of East Fifth street, spent Sunday and Monday with relatives in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown, of Westfield, have been guests at the home of Herbert Taylor, of East Front street.

Oliver B. Leonard, of Perth Amboy, formerly of Plainfield, has been visiting relatives on Madison avenue.

J. H. Leggett, the druggist, has been confined to the house by illness, but is again at his place of business.

Miss May Ward, of Newark, was the guest of Miss Eleanor Williams, of West Seventh street, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A B. Meredith, of Madison avenue, returned yesterday after spending the holidays at Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. George Randolph, of Brooklyn, have been guests at the home of Jed M. Smalley, of Watchung avenue.

Ralph K. Miner, of East Sixth street, left this morning for St. Paul, Minn., in the interests of the American Engine Company.

Prof. F. J. Miller, of the Chicago University, formerly principal of the Plainfield High School, has been visiting friends in town.

Henry B. Drake, of Duer street, returned today to his studies at the Philadelphia Textile School after spending his vacation at home.

Rev. Father Brennan, of the borough, officiated at the Stony Hill church Sunday owing to the regular pastor, Rev. Father Scannell, being ill.

The young daughter of Mr and Mrs. Herbert C. McVoy, of Sandford avenue, that has been afflicted with trouble of the feet, is improving.

G. Elston Woodland and wife, of the borough, have gone to Trenton, where they will reside. Mr. Woodland will take charge of the Prudential Insurance Company's office at that place.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

A remedy for Nasal Catarrh which is drying and exciting to the diseased membrane should not be used. What is needed is that which is cleansing, soothing, protecting and healing. Such a remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. Price 50 cents at druggists or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York. The Balm when placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. A cold in the head vanishes quickly.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Provinz Westpreußen.

Danzig. Auf der Schichauwerft fand der Stapellauf eines für den Norddeutschen Lloyd erbauten Post- und Passagierdoppelschraubendampfers erster Klasse statt. Das Schiff erhielt den Namen „Großer Kurfürst" und ist für 2400 Passagiere, sowie 206 Mann Besatzung eingerichtet.—Neulich wurde die katholische Kirche in Altschottland, einem Vororte Danzigs, beraubt. Die Opferstöcke sind sämmtlich aufgebrochen und geplündert worden; das Tabernakulum mit den silbernen und goldenen Kirchengeräthen und dem Reliquienschrein sowie eine kostbare gestickte Decke sind gestohlen.

Rheinprovinz.

Barmen. Der Ehrenbürger Barmens, Otto Schüller, der in 30jähriger Thätigkeit als Beigeordneter um das städtische Gemeinwesen sich große Verdienste erworben, ist gestorben.—Die Garnfabrik und Färberei von Friedrich Peter Ostermann in der Gasstraße ist vollständig abgebrannt. Der Schaden wird auf 200,000 Mark geschätzt.

Bonn. Auf dem Rhein bei Mondorf, gegenüber der Siegmündung, wurde ein Fischernachen von einem Dampfer überrannt. Von den vier im Boote befindlichen Personen sind drei ertrunken, eine Person konnte sich so lange über Wasser halten, bis sie gerettet wurde.

Düren. Der Stadtgemeinde Düren ist die Genehmigung zur Aufnahme einer vierprozentigen Anleihe von 1,650,000 Mark ertheilt worden. Aus der Anleihe sollen die Kosten für ein neues Schlachthaus, ein neues Krankenhaus und für verschiedene Straßenbauten bestritten werden.

Essen. In der Kohlenzeche „Unser Fritz" im Essener Grubenrevier ist ein Grubenbrand ausgebrochen, der zwar keine besonders großen Dimensionen annahm, für eine Zahl der in der Zeche beschäftigten Arbeiter jedoch verhängnißvoll geworden ist. Drei von ihnen sind todt aufgefunden worden, acht wurden zwar lebend, aber bewußtlos zu Tage gefördert.

Koblenz. Der Bauführer Ritter, welcher in mehreren Rheinorten Schwindeleien und Zechprellereien ausführte, wurde vom Schöffengerichte in Braubach zu sieben Monaten Gefängniß verurtheilt.

Provinz Sachsen.

Langensalza. Hier ist das Amtsgerichtsgebäude abgebrannt.

Letzlingen. In unserem Dorfe herrscht seit langer Zeit hartnäckig die Diphtheritis, sie hat mehrere Opfer gefordert, ohne daß es gelingt, die Krankheit zu unterdrücken. Die Schule ist seit über drei Monaten geschlossen.

Mühlhausen. Nach dem Betriebsbericht der städtischen Gasanstalt für 1898—99 beträgt der Gewinn in diesem Jahre 77,523.98 Mark, das ist 12,914.14 Mark mehr als im Vorjahre. Es hat sich auch hier gezeigt, daß die vor 14 Jahren erfolgte Einführung der elektrischen Beleuchtung auf den Gasverbrauch ganz ohne Einfluß geblieben ist.

Provinz Schlesien.

Beuthen. Ein Brand zerstörte den Dachstuhl und einen geringen Theil der inneren Anlage des Absorptionsraumes der Benzolfabrik auf Friedenshütte.

Görlitz. Auf dem Holzplatz der Görlitzer Eisenbahnbedarfs-Aktiengesellschaft vormals Lüders vernichtete eine Feuersbrunst fünf Schuppen mit werthvollem Hölzern und viele Holzstöße. Der Schaden beträgt mehr als 100,000 Mark.

Laurahütte. Hier wurde bei dem Uhrmacher und Juwelier Gurzky, der sich erst vor Kurzem etablirt hatte, in der Nacht eingebrochen und für etwa 10,000 Mark Uhren, Broschen, Armspangen, Ringe und Medaillons gestohlen. Von den Dieben fehlt bis jetzt jede Spur.

Myslowitz. Die hiesige Polizei hob ein Diebesnest von 20 Personen aus, die seit Wochen große Diebstähle auf dem Güterbahnhofe verübt hatten.

Provinz Schleswig-Holstein.

Kiel. Unter der Anklage, in einem Preßprozeß gegen den „Volkszeitungs"-Redakteur Dr. Luetgens einen Meineid geleistet zu haben, ist in Kiel der Polizeikommissär Amelung verhaftet worden.—In der Nähe von hier kollidirten die Frachtdampfer „Wolga" und „Libau." Die „Wolga" sank und ihre Ladung, die aus Hafer bestand, ist verloren.

Neumünster. Ein bedeutendes Schadenfeuer vernichtete die Modelltischlerei, das Magazin, das Holzlager, die Schmiedewerkstatt und das Zeichenbureau der großen Maschinenfabrik und Eisengießerei Rohwer u. Ehlers. Außerdem wurde das Maschinen- und Kesselhaus stark beschädigt. Zahlreiche Modelle, Stahl- und Rohrvorräthe sind eingeäschert. Das Feuer ist durch Selbstentzündung der Kohlen entstanden. Der Materialschaden ist sehr bedeutend, viele Arbeiter sind brodlos geworden.

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE.
and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

We are NOW receiving orders for HUYLER'S
XMAS CANDY,
—to be delivered at—
CHRISTMAS TIME.
Remember the Only Agency
—IS—
Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.
Tel. 705.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.
Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .
Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot AND Tar is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

Toys, Toys, Toys for the HOLIDAYS
—AT—
HARPER'S,
411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N.J.

Irving Savings Institution.
115 CHAMBERS ST., NEW YORK CITY
The Trustees of this institution have declared interest on all sums remaining on deposit during the three and six months ending December 31, 1899, at the rate of FOUR PER CENT. per annum on amounts from $1 to $3,000, payable on and after Monday, January 15, 1900. Deposits made on or before January 10th will draw interest from January 1st.
W. H. B. TOTTEN, President.
G. BYRON LATIMER, Secretary 12 26 10

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS.
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.
A FIRST-CLASS
GROCERY STORE.

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83 A.

H. Eggerding,
131 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made of the remnants from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars.

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 262 A.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
Paris for 1900.
Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.
Circulars at
181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

Notice of Order to Limit Creditors.

SOMERSET COUNTY SURROGATE'S OFFICE.

Estate of Mary A. Cooper, deceased. Notice is hereby given, that on the eighth day of December, A. D., 1899, on the application of the undersigned, as Administrators of Mary Ann Cooper, deceased; an order was made by H. N. Spencer, Surrogate, requiring the creditors of Mary Ann Cooper, deceased, to bring in their debts, demands and claims against the said decedent, under oath or affirmation, and present the same to the subscriber within nine months from the date of said order; and in default thereof any such creditor should be forever barred of his or her action thereof against the subscribers

THOMAS NEWMAN,
EDWARD A. COOPER,
ANNIE PRATT,
Administrators.
12 11 9 oaw

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED
Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

Yearly Clearance

time has come to this great store. Furniture and carpets at topsy-turvy prices—odd lines, yet new in pattern, and prices at lower marks than we've ever known them!
A great holiday trade left many, many broken lots—all to your profit.

Carpets, too!
Thousands of yards of carpets to go at the cut down prices—a 200-foot floor to show 'em on. Come!
Parlor Suits—over 100 kinds to pick from—beauties all—some are odd ones—all prices.

$9.98
A polished quarter-ced golden oak desk with mirror and two drawers. Worth $14.00.

$18.75
Antique oak bedroom suit. Large French bevel plate mirror. Combination washstand, splasher back. Value $25.00.

$10.98
Solid Oak golden finish, 4 shelves. Value $15.00.

Oil Heaters
A great comfort—cost, 1 cent an hour to run. Odorless.

$3.98
High-armed cherry rocker—spindle back. Easily worth $5.00.

$5.49
A fine cherry frame corner seat—silk damask upholstered seat. Value 8.00.

$5.98
Good sized antique oak chiffonier—5 drawers. Value $9.00.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

A New Yorker, who lately went on an excursion to New Mexico with a lot of railroad men, in a special car, reflected that alkali dust and champagne always upset his digestion, and determined to buy a box of Ripans Tabules at a St. Louis drug store.

"How do these sell?" he asked of the druggist.

"We sell a lot of 'em," was the reply. "That gentleman who just went out bought a box. He is Commodore J. E. M. Maury of New York, who is on this New Mexican excursion."

As days went by, our friend took a Tabule after each meal and one before going to bed and was as regular as a top. So too was the Commodore. In a few days, however, most of the party suffered more or less from over-eating, over-smoking, alkali dust, want of exercise and indigestion. Nearly every one complained of constipation, and the Commodore, like a good angel produced his box from time to time, and in every case relief followed his kindly ministrations.

"How does it happen," asked the Commodore of our friend, "that you alone escape the inconvenience all the others suffer from? Only you and I escape!" But our friend was foxy and would not admit that he too was a slave to Ripans Tabules; but all that party carry them now when they go where meals are irregular and the water is bitter or poor.

A new style packet containing THE RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on firs mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, o London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,
THE GROCER.
Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.
Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

OF LOCAL INTEREST

Some people we Know and We Will Profit by Hearing About Them.

This is a purely local event.
It took place in Plainfield, N. J.
Not in Buffalo, N. Y.
You are asked to investigate it;
Asked to believe a citizen's word,
To confirm a citizen's statement.
Any article that is endorsed,
That obtains resident advocates,
Is more worthy of confidence
Than a far off foreign article
Testified to by foreign people.

Mrs. Wm. H. Ludlow of 88 Jackson street says:—"I was troubled with kidney complaint, backache and a sort of dull pain across my loins for several years. If I sat for any length of time and tried to rise I had a sharp pain in the kidneys. Walking any distance or much standing agravated the difficulty. I could not rest well at night from the fact that I had to be constantly changing about from one position to another trying to free myself from pain. I used quite a number of remedies but got no permanant relief. I was prevailed upon to get Doan's Kidney Pills from L. W. Randolph's drug store. In justice to them I must say they did me a great deal of good. It is seldom that I feel any pain in my back and when I do a few doses of this remedy never fails to relieve me. I know others who have used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results. From my experience I can honestly recommend to all who suffer from Kidney troubles".

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

RECEIVER'S SALE.

The subscriber, the Receiver of the Union County Country Club appointed by the Chancellor, will, ON MONDAY, JANUARY 8th, A. D. 1900, AT THE CLUB-HOUSE, corner of West Seventh Street and Arlington Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey, at 10 o'clock A. M., sell at public auction to the highest bidder, all the goods and chattels of said Club now on said premises, consisting of ten-pins, ten-pin balls, 3 pool tables, pool balls, billiard balls, racks, cues, &c., carpets, rugs, sofas, tables, stands, hairs, shades, kitchen utensils, crockery, table linen, silver-plated ware, glassware, 3 sets scenery in Casino, folding theatre chairs, and all other goods and chattels belonging to said Club on said premises.
Terms cash. ROBERT A. MEEKER, Receiver.
12 30 1 2 6

WANTED
The address of all AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS in Plainfield and vicinity. If you will send us your address on a postal card we will be glad to furnish you with our latest price list. Our line is complete, and goods are always fresh and our prices are the lowest.
Geo. W. Wrennick,
133 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

LAIRE'S . .
: SPECIALS :
For This Week.
U. S. club skates.
Shinny sticks.
Skate Straps.
Boys' sleighs.
" coasters.
Steel snow shovels.
Wood " "
Carpet sweepers.
Oil heaters.
Parlor stoves reduced.
The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

A Puzzler.

"John has five oranges, James gave him eleven, and he gives Peter seven, how many has he left?"

Before this problem the class recoiled.

"Please, sir," said a young lad, "we always does our sums in apples."—Tit-Bits.

Natural Effect.

First Goat—Oh, Nanette. Come over on the next lot. There's such a pile of old magazines there!

Second Goat—No, William. Ever since I ate that last poem I've been so dizzy my feet gets all mixed up.—New York Press.

Only Three.

Friend—"The gossips have formulated a regular indictment against your character. They say you were a terrible flirt while abroad. Do you plead guilty?"

American Girl—"Y-e-s; to three Counts."—New York Weekly.

Meant as a Compliment.

"Don't you think, Mrs. Spitely, that this hat is a little too gay for a matronly woman like me?"

"Not at all, my dear. You know that you're years younger than you look."—Tit-Bits.

Competition.

"Maud says she is madly in love with her new wheel."

"Huh! Another case where man is displaced by machinery."—Household Words.

SAMOAN GIRLS.

They Are Athletes and Born Coquettes.

The Samoan girl is not only an athlete, she is a born coquette. From the time she is ten years old, she begins to make eyes from behind a gracefully carved fan. She is without sincerity, but romantic to the extreme. Yet in spite of her romantic nature the Samoan girl when angered is a match for a Samoan warrior in activity and strength. It has been said that the Samoan women and girls are even harder to deal with than the men. They are absolutely without feeling and are cruel to their captives.

If a Samoan is fortunate she will wear a necklace of sharks' teeth and earrings made of some metal. That is her costume. The sharks' teeth are usually the present of the favored suitor, and it often is the case that a girl hardly in her teens will have many necklaces. The more shark's teeth a girl posesses the more admirers she has, and, therefore, the more is envied by her less fortunate sisters. The Samoans are a great people for dancing, and during holiday season dancing is in order day and night. The girls take to dancing as naturally as they do to swimming, and a girl is taught to swim before she is taught to walk. They are graceful, and readily learn any dance.

The Samoan girl has no choice of husbands. The marrige is always arranged by her parents, and she accepts the inevitable. However, marriage does not prevent a woman from having admirers.—Woman's Life.

That Unlucky 13.

"How do you think I have been absorbing atmosphere lately?" asked the girl. "No, I am in earnest. Of course I don't mean riding in the open cars. Don't you know you always hear artists talking about atmosphere? They have to have it. They go abroad, not so much to study as to get atmosphere, and I thought perhaps it might be a good thing to apply that principle and get a little for the different things I am doing. I first commenced to do my hair up on the leaves of a German calendar, but it occurred to me after I had begun that it was a practical way of getting this atmosphere, and I am not sure but I did get along a bit better with my German. But I finally came to grief, and you would never guess how. No, not with my German, but with my hair. One day I was particularly anxious to have my hair look well, but in the morning when I took out one of my curl papers the lock of hair that was around it was perfectly straight. I couldn't see how it was, because I had done my hair up all alike and this was the only one that went wrong. Now, I never was superstitious, though of course I wouldn't do anything when there was a very bad omen. But what do you think? The piece of the calendar the straight lock was on was for the thirteenth day of the month, and there was a big figure 13 on it. I wouldn't have believed it if it hadn't happened to me, but it just goes to show that thirteen is an unlucky number. Only one lock of hair straight."

Ladies' Pelerine.

Fur collarettes and pelerines, have taken the place of capes in feminine fancy this season. Combinations in furs are extremely fashionable, many beautiful and striking effects being produced with blue fox and stone martin, Persian lamb or seal, with white, black or grey fox, sable, chinchilla and ermine. In this love'a pelerine, Alaska sable is used to trim rich seal. The adjustment is made by shoulder seams and a centre back seam may also be used, if so desired. The back is shaped in a shallow point. The front is broad at the shoulders, fits stylishly over the bust and ends in a decided point a trifle below the waist line.

The sable is applied around the back and on the shoulders at a considerable depth, but narrows toward the lower edge, where it ends in two beautiful tails. The high flaring collar is fashionably shaped, fastening close at the neck to give the desired protection. It is faced with sable. Charming effects can be produced by the same model in less expensive material. Persian lamb cloth may be trimmed with inexpensive fur or velour can be used for the body of the pelerine with astrakhan for the trimming. To make this pelerine in the medium size will require ⅝ of a yard of velvet 27 inches wide with 1 yard of contrasting material the same width. MAY MANTON.

New Opera Bags.

One of the latest uses for the animal head in fur is for an opera bag, a silken or satin pouch being attached and the head forming the lower part of the bag. If one is very vulgar and very rich she may have diamond eyes in her animal's head; if one is vulgar and poor she may have rhinestones, while for the minority is left the simplicity of the regular optical completeness, which loses nothing of its conspicuousness, says the Criterion. These bags form a rather quaint addition to the winter toilet, and, matching the fur trimming or article of attire, give a pleasing note of individuality to the whole costume. A gray fox's head with gray satin attachment, out of which peeped a pair of opera glasses in repousse silver, was seen at the theatre the other evening, the last touch to an effective toilet in the prevailing shade of gray.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS

The Flattering Fox.

A vain, silly lamb met a gay young fox,
He bowed with a "How de do?"
She made sheep's eyes at the swell young chap,
Which is just what a lamb would do.

He asked her to drive in his fine new cart,
Of course she could not say nay
For the rig was neat, and he looked so smart,
And her own new hat came that day.

As they rode along through the cool green woods,
Such flattering things he said,
Till the poor lamb's head was completely turned,
And she blushed a rosy red.

"You're really most charming," the fox remarked,
"As you are, and yet I'd prefer"—
He paused to consider; the lamb cried out,
"And how would you like me, sir?"

The villainous fox smacked his smiling lips,
As he said, with a wicked wink,
"I'd like you boiled for dinner, my dear,
"Next day—lamb stew, I think!"

The lamb turned pale and tried to flee,
She couldn't escape, of course;
And old Mother Fox had her nicely served,
With gravy and fine mint sauce.

The moral is plain as the nose on your face,
To flattery lend no ear;
A flatterer's always a dangerous chap,
Even though he won't boil you, my dear!

ROYALTY AT PLAY.

Kings and Queens Enjoy Themselves Very Much Like Other People.

Somehow or other we never seem to think of royalty as really human in the way of playing practical jokes or behaving like common, ordinary folks. A daring photographer at Copenhagen has snapped his camera on royalty at play and obtained some pictures that are not only amusing, but which shew the extremely human side of those destined to sit in high places.

King Christian, of Denmark, as the juniors all probably know, is grandfather to the Czar of Russia and the children of the Prince of Wales. Every year at least there is a joyous family gathering at Copenhagen, to which all look forward with the greatest pleasure. It was at one of these re-unions that the photographer did his work while waiting for the various guests to assemble for a group picture.

One of the pictures represents the Czar running one of his Danish cousins down the marble steps of the palace, holding the young Prince by the nape of his neck and the seat of his trousers; another shows the Czar in full flight hotly pursued by this same Prince. Still another picture represents the Grand Duke Michael of Russia leaning over the shoulder of his aunt, the Princess of Wales, to tickle the ear of his sister, the Grand Duchess Xenia. There were many others of the same sort, about 70 in all, and the photographer said nothing about them until he placed them on exhibition in his window. Royalty heard of it, of course, and two of those most interested, Princess Victoria of Wales and Grand Duke Michael, went down to investigate.

Instead of being angry, they were highly amused, and insisted that the photographer bring the pictures to the palace to show to the rest. Everybody enjoyed them, and before he left the photographer received orders for several sets of the pictures, which have been distributed among appreciative royal relatives. It is a pleasure to learn that modern rulers are not only as human as the rest of the world, but also that they can appreciate a joke, even when they are the victims and the whole world knows it.

MEDAL OF HONOR.

Few People Would Know the Rare Decoration if They Saw It.

The medal of honor granted by Congress for some conspicuous act of gallantry is so rare that hundreds of officers have never even seen it.

The bow knot worn in the buttonhole in lieu of the medal goes unrecognized, except by the very few. The medal is of black bronz, and is often mistaken for the Grand Army insignia, the latter having been patterned after it to a certain degree. It is much larger than the latter, and on the reverse side is engraved the name, rank, date and the battle in which the service was rendered, and the specific act of heroism for which it was given. The medal is only worn on state occasions, but the bow knot is always worn. It is a small affair, with its specific ribbon. It is of silk, white stripe in center, bordered by two blue stripes. It is an inch in length and three eighths of an inch wide. The little emblem shows that the wearer has received from this Government the highest honor that can be conferred upon man. The Secretary of War recently issued an order, after a conference with the Executive Committee of the Medal of Honor Legion, that hereafter, on all official occasions, receptions, banquets, &c., the Congressional medal of honor will be worn resting on the breast and suspended by the broad official ribbon of the order around the neck.

Had to Talk.

A very little fellow has a very lively tongue, and talks so much at meals that on a recent occasion, when there were to be guests at the table, his elder brother bribed him with a quarter to be still. After 10 minutes of silence the little boy whispered anxiously to his brother: "Arthur, Arthur, mayn't I talk a nickel's worth?"

At Wardbury, Norway, the longest day lasts from May 21 to July 22, without interruption.

THE ALMOND-EYED CHINESE

They Are Getting to Be a Power in San Francisco.

HAVE A DAILY PAPER

And They Are Highly Respected in Business and Financial Circles—How the Chinese Printer Dances All Day Around His Cases.

The Chinese of San Francisco have a new daily paper. The noisy apotheosis of the Kearney regime found its fitting setting recently when funds for the reception of the California Volunteers were being sought and Chinese merchants subscribed liberally and were invited to and did take a prominent and honorable position in the great public parade, while Dennis Kearney, unnoticed, watched the Chinese ride by him in carriages, and he so poor in the esteem of mankind that "none was found to do him reverence."

Only 20 years in the swift march of time and the despised Chinaman finds a place in the great arena of American activities as distinct and lasting as that of his erstwhile tormentor, whose chief claim to notice was in his open defiance of all law, and his more than heathenish gospel that "might makes right."

The intervening years since the man Kearney waved a hangman's noose before a savagely delighted army of malcontents and preached the doctrine of Chinese extirpation, and the present day, may be called the period of reconstruction of that outraged law, and great has been the transformation. In deference to popular will, lawfully expressed, national legislation has shut off Chinese immigration in a large measure, and time has shown the wisdom of the act. But the hundred thousand Chinese then and now within the State of California have, by the laws of absorption and amalgamation, as they apply to commerce and trade, gradually merged their interests with those of leading American houses, and their world-wide reputation for business honesty and sagacity has won for them fast business friendships which all the demagogues on earth could not break or make.

President McKinley. Admiral Dewey.
(Two notable names as they look in Chinese type.)

Steamship lines and brokerage and banking are largely in Chinese hands, and the stated Clearing House of San Francisco passes upon such a volume of Chinese commerical paper as to surprise those who do not keep pace with the wonderful progress of this people. Having such great interests in financial circles the Chinese merchant needs a daily adviser and counsellor, just as his Caucasian neighbor does, and so the greatest innovation of the nineteenth century follows—a Chinese daily newspaper in San Francisco.

Vast as are the differences in other national characteristics between the Chinese and Americans, in none are they greater than in the art of printing. This is owing mainly to the vast difference in the constructive form of the respective languages. The English language has as many roots as it has derivatives, and no attainable classification could bring them into a form where composition would be possible. The Chinese language, on the contrary, having neither the orthographical or etymological departments—each word being fixed and unchangeable—is derived from 214 root words, which expand into 14,000 characters or words, in ordinary uses, and can be expanded far beyond this. Where, then, the ordinary letters and marks of the English language can be placed in a small case, in less than 100 squares or boxes, it requires 14,000 boxes or spaces to hold a font of Chinese type.

The great cases are ranged about the room, resting on the floor, and, with his stick, he dances from one section to another, forward and backward, until the spectator, not knowing what the printer was doing, would be apt to believe him afflicted with the St. Vitus dance. Each type is a word complete in itself, and is in a box with other type for other words, but all come from the same root, and any one of them can do duty for several words in the English language.

The Chinese character which means "storm" will also mean "rain," "wind," "thunder," "lightning," "electricity," "telegram," "telephone" and so on for all words that have their roots in "storm." The storm is known to produce electricity in the form of lightning, and all the other words follow. A Chinese printer will dance all around his great case and average 4,000 characters a day, or what is equivalent to 1,000 ems of type. His method of distributing type is also unique and possible only to such a language. The great case, it will be noted, is in 10 sections, each section being a repository for certain roots and derivatives. The printer takes a handful of type and first distributes them into ten small boxes, each holding the root word of one of the large squares. He then stands with the small box before the section it represents and places the characters in their proper boxes. To [illegible] only an English font [illegible] to see type in [illegible] never been ink-ed, while others in the same boxes have been used many times.

This is accounted for by the fact that while they are from the same root they are altogether away from common usage and are only brought into play when the "copy" of some scholarly Chinaman is being set.

The type used is between 12 and 14 points and of middle size. The size of type range from 1 to 8, 1 being largest and equal to two-inch poster type. The Chinese printer is never afraid of "knocking his forms into pi," as the characters are all easily distinguishable and readily reset. The body of a Chinese type is nicked exactly as is an English type, with this difference, that the nicks in the former are to the right and out, while those of the latter are up. The type is cast at Yokohama and Tokio, from type metal and with an American trade mark. The sticks, chases, planers, locks, imposing stones, galleys, all are just as in ordinary American job offices.

The new paper is called Chung Sai Yat Po, which means "Oriental and Occidental Daily News."

STEYN'S ROMANCE.

Career of the President of the Orange Free States.

President Steyn of the Orange Free State has had just a bit of a romance in his career. When he was nineteen he left South Africa to study law in Europe. On the same ship was a sweet, winsome lassie of twelve, and the boy and girl became boon companions to the end of the voyage.

Six years passed, and Steyn returned to Bloemfontein a full fledged barrister. At a social function one of the first guests he was introduced to was a beautiful young lady of eighteen, in whom he quickly recognized his ship companion of six years before. His offer of marriage was accepted but Steyn's financial position did not warrant him in setting up housekeeping just then. There was nothing for it but to wait and work. Steyn travelled a great deal in circuit, and the letters for his sweetheart he addressed secretly to a mutual friend, upon whom Miss Fraser—for such was the young lady's name—called every day. Bloemfontein in those days was so small that everybody made a point of knowing everybody else's business. Consequently people were quick to notice he friendship that had sprung up between Miss Fraser and Steyn's friend in the barrister's absence, and the general impression was that this gentleman was trying to steal Steyn's sweetheart from him, thus proving himself a traitor to Steyn and unworthy of recognition by any honest, fair dealing resident of Bloemfontein.

When Steyn returned to Bloemfontein people received him with veiled expressions of commiseration. Steyn could not understand it. He hastened to the residence of the gentleman who had been acting as his postman and inquired the meaning of it all. He roared with laughter when he heard of the conclusion his fellow townsmen had jumped to; and how surprised they were good but misguided folk were when they saw the rising young barrister and the "base deceiver" walking arm in arm!

Great Man Was a Bad Boy.

Like the majority of great men of letters, Nathaniel Hawthorne was not over fond of school. In the very interesting resume of his life which Mrs. Annie Fields has just contributed to the "Beacon Biography" series, there are several pictures of young Hawthorne's life in Bowdoin College, which show that the first great American novelist was not guilty of airing an uncomfortable superiority of tastes or demeanor.

Once, unwilling to wait for the appointed college vacation, he wrote to his sister Louisa: "It is expedient for me to return to Salem immediately," and proceeds to give his reasons.

Simple country college though Bowdoin was at the time Hawthorne attended it, the students now and then permitted themselves amusements such as "gaming," which scandalized the faculty. Young Hawthorne was one of the culprits, and the President of the college wrote to his mother to ask her co-operation in the attempt to induce your son faithfully to observe the laws of this institution.

The President added, apparently for the sake of sparing the mother's feelings: "Perhaps he might not have gamed were it not for the influence of a student we have dismissed from the college."

Young Hawthorne, having seen this letter, assures his mother in indignation: "I have a great mind to commence playing again, merely to show him that I scorn to be seduced by another into anything wrong."

What Lyddite Is.

This explosive, brought into prominence by its use in shells at Omdurman and Ladysmith, is picric acid made by acting upon carbolic acid with nitric acid. It is a bright yellow substance, much used by dyers. When exploded it produces an effect 11 times greater than that of gunpowder, killing not so much by the force of the pieces of steel shell it hurls in every direction as by the blow of the suddenly compressed air. Lyddite shells are, therefore, more "humane" than ordinary shrapnel, since they do not mangle so much, but act by air concussion. The shell have nose fuses only, so that they explode on impact. Made of forged steel, they are used with 6 and 9.2 inch breech-loading guns, with howitzers and with 4 and 6 inch quick-firing guns. Their chief utility is in demolishing fortifications, walls, &c. A small town in Kent, where experiments were made with it, gives the name lyddite to the picric shell.—Baltimore Sun.

Carelessness of persons who send money through the mails is well illustrated by the fact that last year the Government was enriched by $10,000.71, which was found in letters that were indeliverable on account of incorrect addresses. These letters lay in the Dead Letter Office till it was certain that it would not be possible to find their owners, and then the money was sent to the Treasury Department.

A small boy, on hearing some people say that they should not consider themselves properly married if they were not married in church, said, "I should consider myself properly married if I got a good wife."—Sydney Town and Country Journal.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, insuring Cleanliness and Comfort

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 55, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 55, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 06, 7 30, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00 m, 12 58, 1 45, 2 46, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 30, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 44, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 28, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked * change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 214 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent,
218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. L. Manning & Son

STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

XXXX QUALITY
FINEST
LOFOTEN COD LIVER OIL,

Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.

Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at

39c per Pint.

For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at

50c per Bottle,

or the Tasteless at

75c per Bottle.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
Hepburn & Co.,
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,
213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

Misses' & Children's Cloaks at Greatly Reduced Prices.

The $5.25 Coats are now $4.25
" 4 50 " " " 3.60
" 3 95 " " " 3.00
" 3.25 " " " 2 50

Women's Golf Capes

WILL ALSO BE SOLD AT A REDUCTION OF 20 PER CENT.

I. LEDERER.

FURNITURE for the Parlor . . . Library . . . Dining-Room . . . Bedroom . . .

Close at 6 o'Clock.

POWLISON & JONES,
140 and 151 E. Front St.

FALL OPENING.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.

OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5.00.

Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1,000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,
206 West Front Street.

The Miller Oil Heater

One kind only.

JOS. W. GAVETT,
318 WEST FRONT STREET.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,

Made only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,
At 25 cents for a quart bottle Cor. Park and North Aves.

FURS.

Our assortment of Furs at the present time is larger and better than ever before. A few of the many special values. Each item is worthy of your special attention.

COLLARETTES.

Grebe, extra fine fur, satin lining, $6.00.
Sheared Coney, 12 tails, extra fine satin lining, $5.95.
Sheared Coney, extra long and extra fine satin lining, at $7.75.
Electric Kurmur, satin lined, $12.00.

BOAS. Stone Marten, $1.89 and $2.49. Bear skin, $3.25

MUFFS. Sable, $3.98. Astrachan $2.25.

CHILDREN'S FURS. Electric Seal, $1.49 to 4.75. Thibet sets, $1.00 to 1.49. Angoras, $1.98 to 2.98.

UNTRIMMED MILLINERY. Mink sets, $3.25. Stone Marten, $1.00 to 6.49. We will close out the balance of our untrimmed millinery at prices that will please you. All new goods. The bargains in this department must be seen to be appreciated.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

"SOROSIS!"

The most popular shoe sold for women. 3,000 pairs turned out of the factory each work day. The best $3.50 shoe in every respect made. We sell them, as well as other lines at a higher price, and also as low as 98c $1 25, $1 50, $2 00, etc Good winter shoes for men $1 25 $1 50, $2 00 and up to $5 and $6 Felt Slippers, Rubber Boots, Arctics, Rubbers, everything you need in the shoe line. Peddles Trunks, Dress Suit Cases and Traveling Bags.

DOANE & EDSALL. . . . .

HIS STORY.

A Queer Lad and His Old, Old Story.

He was a little bit of a darkey not much bigger than a lump of coal and not much whiter, and when I called him up to do an errand for me across the street his eyes snapped as if they were electrified.

"What is your name?" I inquired.

"Tank, boss," he answered, with a bow and a grin.

"That's a queer kind of a name. Your people aren't temperance folks, are they?"

"'Deed, boss, I dunno. Dey calls me Tank, but my name's Pasquotank Perquimans."

"Oh," I laughed, "that's enough name for two kids like you are. Where do you come from?"

"I'se fum Norf Ca'liny, boss."

"What are you doing so far from home?"

"Doin' de best I kin, boss."

"How much have you made to-day?"

He stopped a moment to study.

"When I gets de ten cents you's gwineter gib me," he said with a very shrewd little smile—I had not agreed upon a price at all—"an' I gits ten cents mo', I'um de nex' gem'man, it'll make twenty cents, boss."

"Is that all? You can't live on twenty cents a day, can you?"

A shadow, if a shadow could show there, came into the little black face, and with it a hard line as of determination.

"I'se gotter lib, boss," he said. "I cain't die, fer dey ain't nobody but me ter take keer ob mammy, an' she's mighty po'ly mos' of de time."

Possibly Pasquotank Perquimans was working on my sympathies and his story may have been told many times before, but I think not, and I know that his revenue for that day was more than twenty cents.—Washington Star.

Would Come Around All Right.

They were seated side by side on the lover sofa, and there wasn't room enough between them for an argument.

"George," murmured the maid, after a blissful silence, extending over a period of several minutes, "I'm afraid your arm must be very painful."

"Why, do you think so, dearest?" he asked.

"Because," she coyly replied, "it seems to be out of place."

"Oh, well, never mind," said George. "It will come around all right."—New York World.

Object Attained.

"Say, Cap'n," said the man from beyond the suburbs, "do you ever fall while you're walkin' around on them ten-foot stilts?"

"I fall every day, regularly," solemnly replied the advertising fakir. "Got to do it. It's part of my contract. You'll see me fall when I come to a place where there's room."

This is why an eager spectator followed him for near three hours and then went home, a disappointed man.—Chicago Tribune.

Profitable Silence.

"I think that husbands ought to pay their wives a weekly salary," declared Mrs. Tomdik.

"About how much?" declared Mrs. Hojack.

"Well, say $10 a week."

"I used to think so, too, until I discovered that my husband pays about $800 a year for my millinery and clothes alone, and then I decided that any salary I would like to ask for wouldn't go very far."—Detroit Free Press.

Amending It.

"I awsked you," protested the mortified ex-coachman, "for a certificate of good character, and all you say for me in this recommendation is that I 'wouldn't steal a red-hot stove.' Cawn't you make it a little stronger than that, sir?"

"Certainly. Let me have it again."

And the ex-employer took the document, erased the word "red-hot stove," inserted "active volcano" and handed it back.—Chicago Tribune.

Her Pleasing Fault.

"I hear that you are calling on Miss Perkleigh pretty regularly."

"Yes."

"Thought you used to say the only thing she could do with success was to sit and giggle at nothing."

"I know it. She's still that way. Keeps so busy at it that she never has time to play or sing rag-time songs."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Indispensable.

"Yes, yes," said the manager wearily, "I know you have a fine wardrobe."

"Well," said the sensational actress, "don't you think costume counts for anything?"

"Of course. I realize that the wardrobe is a necessity. You've got to have something to take off in the disrobing scene."—Washington Star.

What She Saw There.

"Caroline went down cellar backward with a mirror and a light Halloween."

"Did she see her future husband?"

"Well, yes; anyhow, she saw his prototype."

"Honest!"

"Yes. She said she supposed it would be just her luck to marry a cabbagehead."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Making Allowances.

"Do you admire Beethoven's music?" asked the young man whose hair is long and curls at the ends.

"Oh, yes," answered the young woman. "Beethoven was all right for his day. You see, rag time hadn't been invented then."—Washington Star.

Amendment Accepted.

"He's looking for a wife," they said to her pointedly.

"He would be an object of greater interest to me," she replied, with some asperity, "if he were looking for a single woman."—Harper's Bazar.

To Be Dreaded.

She—I trust, Jack, our marriage will not be against your father's will.

Jack—I'm sure I hope not; it would be mighty hard for us if he should change it.—Brooklyn Life.

NOTHING GOES TO WASTE

Refuse Matter Turned Into Handsome Products.

THERE ARE MILLIONS IN IT

Rags and Tags of Beggars Into Dainty Billet Doux—A Great Industry in New York and Its Profits—Seen in Basements.

"Nothing in New York goes to waste," said a William street dealer in old metals and old magazines, to a Press reporter.

"Old rubber use to be thrown away. At present it is remelted and revulcanized. The mackintosh which you wear may be made of old rubber shoes. Your overshoes may be made of old rubber coats, so you may be wearing rubber shoes on your back and rubber coats on your feet.

"The rags and tatters of the town are turned into handsome products. A man gets a note on superfine paper of beautiful tint, with a monogram on it. It may have been a beggar's shirt, metamorphosed into a billet-doux. The elegant stationery on which the fastidious maiden writes his letter may have been an old woman's night-gown. The white de luxe, with its fine linen paper is made of the rags of a thousand alleys. It is the cheap paper on which the newspapers are printed that has an irreproachable ancestry. It comes from the white fibre of the forest trees. But the fine grades of paper are the tattered raiment of tramps and wanderers, changed by the magic of chemistry and machinery into a beautiful product."

The basement shop of the dealer is piled high with old commercial ledgers, over which bookkeepers wore out their eyes, and with old newspapers which discuss the politics and news sensations of a decade ago. Its walls shine with old copper teapots, old brass saucepans and battered britannia ice pitchers. In one corner is a heap of old copper that glitters like Klondyke gold. Here and there rise mountains of old magazines.

The copper teapots and brass saucepans retain, in their fallen circumstances, an air of cheerfulness. But the situation of the old Century and Harper's magazines that stand on the shop stairs in huge piles at 2 cents a copy, is almost pathetic. Though printed eight or ten years ago, many of them are not second hand, but new, for their leaves are still uncut.

Compare their prices with that of old copper and old pewter, which brings fifteen cents a pound. An old teapot or an antiquated ice pitcher brings thirty times as much, ounce for ounce, as do these literary treasures.

"The business of preventing old copper pots and old pewter spoons, old magazines and old newspapers from going to waste," said the dealer, "has grown to great proportions. Twenty years ago only ten or fifteen firms in the city were engaged in it. Now it keeps busy a hundred firms. Then the volume of business in these seeming trifles was a few hundred thousand dollars a year. Now it is about $20,000,000.

"Some of these firms, which occupy dark little basements, have a capital of from $50,000 to $100,000. They handle ten or more tons of old metal and old paper a day. Sometimes twenty tons of old paper go out of a place in twenty-four hours. I have received in one day thirty bales of old commercial ledgers, weighing 1,000 pounds to the bale. That is fifteen tons of old accounts. The entire trade handles thousands of tons of old metals and old paper every year."

"What are old metals worth?"

"New sheet copper brings from 40 to 50 cents a pound ingot copper, 17 cents; old copper, 15 cents. You see old copper brings almost as much as ingot. We pay 15 cents a pound for britannia ware also. It is made of tin and lead, with about 1 per cent. copper and 1 per cent. silver. It is durable and will last a hundred years. Britannia is about the same metal as pewter, for which we likewise pay 15 cents a pound. Pewter lasts well, and we often get quaint English pewter pitchers that are fifty years old. Old lead is 4 cents a pound. Old tea lead, from china, 3 1-2 cents; old type, 5 cents; old zinc, 3 1-2 cents; old tinfoil, 4 cents; old electrotypes and old stereotypes are from 3 to 4 cents. All these old metals are melted down and used over again.

"Old account books, diaries and commercial ledgers bring a cent a pound, and are made over into writing paper.

"Old newspapers bring $5 a ton, or one-quarter of a cent a pound. They are turned into pulp, made into paper and go through the press to be born again as newspapers. Perhaps the newspaper which originally was Democratic becomes at its second birth Republican.

"When people move, about the first of May, we get many curious articles of metal ware from them, as well as many old books, pamphlets and newspapers. Most of our metals come from factories; most of our magazines from dealers.

"The second-hand book dealers call now and then and explore our stock. They carry away any rare old book or curious old pamphlet which they chance to find. They get them for a song, just as we got them by the pound, and sell them for what they will bring."

The King's English at Home.

"I have not been able as yet to pass for an Englishman, for my speech betrays me. The other day I inquired of a policeman the nearest hardware store. He looked at me in amazement. I then explained that I wanted to buy a penknife. 'Oh,' said he 'you mean the iron mongers.' Yesterday I asked the ticket puncher at an underground railway station: 'Do I take this train for Mark Lane?' 'No,' the next,' said he; 'but if I were you I should let the train take me there instead.' The other day I entered a bicycle store and inquired of the proprietor if he had wheels to rent. I repeated my question several times, but he did not understand me, and finally I asked: 'Have you wheels for hire?' when we forthwith struck a bargain."—London Letter in Baltimore Sun.

503

An Ordinary Life Insurance Policy is a negotiable security constituting one of the best investments known to the financial world.

WRITE FOR PARTICULARS.....

Home Office, Newark, N. J. THE PRUDENTIAL Insurance Co. of America.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President. LESLIE D. WARD, Vice-President.
EDGAR B. WARD, 2d V. P. & Counsel. FORREST F. DRYDEN, Secretary.

J. H. WOODLAND, Sup't., E. Front St. & Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

HAND'S LICENSE GRANTED.

Scotch Plains Citizens' League Opposes the Same of W. F. Carroll and it is Laid Over

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elisabeth, Jan. 2—Rev. Gideon M. Shott, pastor of the Scotch Plains Baptist church, and president of the Citizens' League of that place, which has undertaken the job of reducing the number of barrooms in that place, was in the Union County Court this morning to continue his fight against the drink evil, which, he asserts, is the curse of Scotch Plains. Rev. Mr. Shott was called into court because of the applications made by two local hotel keepers, and his desire to prevent at least one of them from being granted by Judge Vail.

The minister was accompanied by Lawyer Irving L. Baldy, of Plainfield, who has been employed by Rev. Mr. Shott to look after the matter in court. When the application of E. L. Hand was called, there was no opposition to the granting of the license on account of the latter having been in business for many years and being regarded as an upright hotel keeper. The application of Walter F. Carroll, who purchased the boad house of George Thatcher, the minstrel man, met with a different fate. His application was opposed by Lawyer Brady, backed by a remonstrance signed by eighty-six voters in the township, on the ground that the interests of the community did not require his inn, and also because, it was alleged, Carroll had persistently violated the license laws since he had been running the hotel. It was also claimed that the signers to his application were not qualified according to law.

Judge Vail laid the application over till Saturday morning for a hearing. Rev. Mr. Shott and his supporters will be on hand in full force to oppose the granting of the license.

Mischevious Boys Get Into Trouble.

Several young men, whose names are known, broke a window sash and entered the school house at South Plainfield Sunday evening just before midnight and rang in the new year on the school house bell. Albert Soper, one of the trustees, dressed himself and walked over and into the building and took the names of several of the young men and will lay the matter before the Board of Trustees at the next meeting.

Fire in the Crescent Rink.

A telephone alarm was sent into fire department headquarters last evening shortly before 6 o'clock telling of a small blaze in the boiler room at the Crescent Rink. Second Assistant Chief Jennings and Fireman Harry Bush hurried to the scene. They found the wooden floor afire. George Frazee, the fireman, had fought the flames until he saw that they were gaining. The blaze was quickly put out with an extinguisher.

—The Plainfield Board of Education will meet next Monday evening, Jan. 8th.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Ofttimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,

129 West Front Street,

Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	High Score.
Roselle Casino.....	5	1	911
Park Club.....	3	3	864
Westfield Club.....	3	3	826
Cranford Casino....	1	5	765

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Grace M., daughter of George and Sophie Schmith, aged one year and seven months, died Sunday after a short illness.

—The death of Mrs. Cornelia N. Pennington, aged sixty-six years, occurred this morning at her home on Arlington avenue. Funeral notice will be published later.

Blindness From Sugar.

Several members of the crew of a sugar-laden ship were afflicted with blindness in the moonlight and starlight when in the tropics, though they could see quite clearly as soon as the sun rose. They attributed it to fumes from the sugar.

Business in Africa.

Business in South Africa, including Cape Town, is absolutely stagnant. Food stuffs have doubled in price, and thousands are without work or money to buy the necessities of life.

Temperance in French Army.

Temperance has been promoted in the French army by controlling the canteen and substituting coffee, tea and cocoa for intoxicating drinks.

Around the World.

The Russian Minister of Railways has prepared a timetable showing that when the Trans-Siberian Railway is finished the journey around the world can be made in 33 days.

Money in Switzerland.

Two years ago it was easy in Switzerland to borow money on good security for 3 to 3 1-2 per cent.. Since then money has become so scarce that 4 and even 5 per cent is often asked.

Good Roads in Egypt.

Twenty years ago Egypt had hardly a single good road. During the last six years over 1,000 miles of good roads have been built.

New York's Millionaires.

There are said to be no fewer than 300 millionaires in New York.

Bees raised in Texas are shipped to all parts of the world.

An apple tree 125 years old is the pride of North Haven, Me.

Taken with an Epileptic Fit

George Parvin, of Cranford, came here yesterday to catch a Blue Line flier for Washington, D. C. While waiting in the station he was taken with an epileptic fit. Dr. Pittis was summoned and attended the young man. He recovered sufficiently to continue his journey.

Christmas Gift From Jerusalem.

M. Estil, the stationer, received a very pretty Christmas present from Jerusalem a few days ago from D. N. Tadros, one of the guides that accompanied the Honeyman tourists on their recent trip abroad. It is a card containing flowers from the Holy Land, beautifully worked by the natives in colored silks.

Dr. Fisher Died Suddenly.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Jan. 2—Dr. Irwin R. Fisher, a prominent physician of Harlingen, was found dead in his bed at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. County Physician Wagoner said that death was due to heart disease.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary corner Park and North avenues.

THE HOPE MEMORIAL CHAPEL DEDICATED.

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.)

cating the beautiful house to God, such a handsome gift, and he hoped that God would grant that many voices would be heard singing His praises there, and that many would join in his praises. He praised God for the old and the new house, and for the many that have found Christ, and he hoped that as God's people gathered they would find that sweet rest, refuge and strength which God alone can give.

The last speaker was Rev. G. Kennedy Newell, pastor, who spoke from the words: "We didicate this House as a House of Prayer to God." A portion of his remarks follow: "God loves the prayers of his people. We have burdens, sorrows and we need prayer. May we make this a house of prayer. May it be constantly a house of prayer, and may it be consecrated as such. Christ has said 'My House Shall be a House of Prayer,' and tonight we dedicate this house as one of prayer."

Following the above addresses the prayer of dedication was given by Dr. Richards. Then the dedication hymn, "Thou Whose Unmeasured Temple Stands," was sung. The services were then closed with silent prayer, and the closing prayer and benediction by Pastor Newell.

After the services many remained to inspect the new building and all commented favorably upon it. Mr. Squires came in for much credit for the great amount of work performed by him at the chapel and in securing the new edifice.

Upon the completion of twelve years of loyal service, Sunday evening, the worshippers entered their new house of worship which will be known hereafter as Hope Memorial chapel of the Crescent Avenue church. The remarkable growth and the great amount of good accomplished at this mission, has been a source of wonderment to Christian workers in this city, as well as congratulation. From time to time the chapel has of necessity been enlarged until now it can truly be said that the attendants have a church home where they secure all the benefits that come with such an institution. It has been no easy task to maintain this mission and make it the success it has been. It has meant a great amount of labor, accompanied by earnest prayer, that makes it possible for such a celebration as occurred Sunday.

It was twelve years ago Sunday that Hope chapel started in a small but determined way with a handful of people, and today a fine substantial edifice has been erected complete in every detail, and making a place of worship for the people of the West End, that will always stand for that which is good and uplifting. The erection of Hope Memorial chapel was made possible by a legacy of $5 000 left by the late Mrs. Cornelia Van Deventer, whose interests were identified with that body of worshippers. It required $7,000 to complete the edifice, and the Crescent Avenue church placed a mortgage of $2,000 on the property, and the members of the chapel very kindly raised a sufficient amount of money to pay the interest on that amount for the next two years. The furnishings of the new church home are all paid for. The handsome carpet that covers the floor was a gift from the Ladies' Aid Society of the chapel, while the beautiful memorial window that has been placed directly back of the pulpit platform, was the gift of the Sunday-school class taught by Silas Yerkes. The pulpit furniture, which is of a dark green wood, and very handsome, came from John Doul Miller's Sunday-school class.

HOPE CHAPEL AS IT LOOKED IN 1888.

Mr. Travell's class gave the communion table which is of wood that matches the other furniture, and the beautiful Bible was a gift from Mrs. Hall's class of young men. The contribution plates were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Silas Yerkes. The other furnishings for the pastor's study, and the class rooms will come a little later on.

The building is a very substantial one, and the architect, A. L. C. Marsh, has well arranged every part. The acoustic properties are fine, a most essential thing. The main part of the chapel is provided with comfortable pews, arranged in a semi circle fashion, so that a person can sit anywhere and yet obtain a good view of the platform without any obstruction. An alove is provided on the platform, and in front there is an altar. The whole interior is attractively frescoed and painted in rich colors. The pews are of heavy solid wood of a dark green color, and the carpet is of a pretty shade of red. The chapel is so built that the old part can be opened into the new, and thus more room is secured. A cosy vestibule is provided for at the entrance, and there is also provided several rooms that can be used for Bible study. In front there is the pastor's study, convenient to the platform.

From an exterior point of view the chapel is imposing. It is frame, of a dark-stained shingle style. A large cupola is located midway between the old and new, thus giving the whole a more attractive appearance. A smaller cupola is placed on the other end of the new building which offsets the larger one. At the main entrance a pretty electric light arrangement has been made. The whole building is as complete as possible, and too much credit cannot be given the architect for his endeavors. The chapel is lighted by electricity, in the center being a large chandelier. The ceilings are high, giving plenty of room for ventilation and the sound of the voice.

Senator Kean Was at Home.

United States Senator John Kean was at his home to all his friends at his handsome residence on Morris avenue, Elizabeth, yesterday afternoon. Plainfield was represented by a little delegation of prominent Republicans, which included E. R. Ackerman, Former Assemblyman Roger F. Murray, Former Sheriff William T. Kirk and George J. Tobin. State Senator Charles A. Reed was present from Somerset county.

Reception to Parishioners.

A reception was given to the parishioners of Grace P. E. church yesterday afternoon at the home of their rector, Rev. E. M. Rodman, on East Seventh street. The guests were received by Rev. and Mrs Rodman and their daughter, assisted by several young women.

A family reunion was held yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. B. Crane, East Second street, when all the pleasantries that go with a New Year's reception were enjoyed.

BURIED TREASURES.

Over Which a Blind Negro Has Raved For Thirty-Five Years.

There is an old negro, Uncle Tom Weston, down on the Florida side of the Okefinokee swamp, who has raved for 35 years about a buried treasure which he is unable to recover. He says his old master buried $25,000 in gold during the Civil War when Sherman's army was marching through Georgia. He carried the treasure box for his master and dug the hole in the swamp in which the gold was buried. An accident made him blind before the war and he was not able to see where the treasure was concealed. His master died during the war without recovering the gold, and left no instructions concerning it. Uncle Tom has suffered from rheumatism for many years and is a cripple. Though he is blind and crippled Uncle Tom has made many trips to the swamp in quest of the hidden treasure only to be disappointed. The old man is afraid somebody has already recovered it, as he understands several parties instituted a search. He is the oldest negro in the Okefinokee region, and he sits on his door sill all day long wondering about the buried treasure and sorrowing because he must die without succeeding in recovering it.

England's Young Commander.

There has been talk in England of a successor to Gen. White as commander of the British South African forces. The sentiment is less strong than it has been, but Gen. Hunter has been mentioned for the position. Gen. Hunter is young, cultured and a fighter.

(Major-Gen. Sir Archibald Hunter.)

Wind Affects Lake Levels.

A paper on "Fluctuation in the Level of the Great Lakes" was read before the National Geographic Society in Washington recently by A. J. Henry, of the Weather Bureau. Some variation in water level is produced by action of the wind, said Mr. Henry. For example, the wind frequently blew the entire length of Lake Erie, heaping the water at Buffalo and lowering it at Toledo. At one time this difference in level between the two cities amounted to 15 feet.

Testing Ocean Beds.

The British Government keeps 11 vessels at work sounding and charting the ocean beds to find out where dangers lurk. Last year 10,000 square miles were carefully charted in different parts of the world—Asia, Africa and the South Pacific.

The last Government census of India showed 173,000 girls, between 5 and 9 years, who are widows.

—Press want ads pay.

An Historic Farm.

The Warwick farm of 535 acres, five miles from Spring Field, Chester County, Pa., around which cluster interesting memories, was the other day sold by the heirs of Thomas K. Sterrett to Albert Maerz, of Reading, for $12,000. On the farm stood the old Warwick furnace, built in 1730, and at which many of the cannons used in the Revolutionary army were cast. In the meadows many of them were buried to prevent them from falling into the hands of the British after the battle of Brandywine, in 1777, when General Washington and his army were retreating northward through Chester County, leaving this important iron furnace exposed to the mercy of the enemy.

Several of the cannons were dug up and some sent to the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia in 1876 and exhibited as relics. The old bell cast in 1777 at this furnace and used in the belfry for a great number of years is now in Independence Hall, in Philadelphia, as a relic.

The Word "Admiral."

The word "admiral" is of Arabic origin, and dates back to the time of the Crusades; it is but another form of the familiar Eastern titles, Emir and Ameer, and simply signifies prince. The D is intrusive and there is no connection with the Latin "mare," the sea, or with the root from which we get admiral. In European mouths the word has been variously contorted; the Teutonic races have introduced the D and suffixed, instead prefixing the article; or we may consider it as a contraction of some such phrase as Admir-al-Bahr, prince of the sea. The Portuguese, again, have taken the article for the first syllable, and make Almirante, but there can be no doubt as to the identity of the word. As a nation the Arabs were never a maritime power, but after their conquest of Spain they found it necessary to have a naval force, and from them both office and name were adopted by the neighboring Powers.

An Appalling Famine.

The famine which is spread over the greater portion of Bombay is daily becoming more acute. The enormous number of 951,523 men are employed on various relief works, but there are still millions of persons destitute for whom no relief can be provided and who must inevitably starve to death unless immediate outside assistance is forthcoming.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

TELEPHONE 722.
MAZE EDWARDS, - - Lessee and Manager.

Friday Night, Jan. 5, 1900.

A. Q. SCAMMON'S COMPANY IN THE GREAT SUCCESS

"THE . . : : SLEEPING : : . . CITY."

Realistic Pictures of New York Life After Dark.....

Midnight Happenings in the Great Metropolis! Sensational Scenes! Humorous Complications! Up-to-Date New York Singing and Dancing Specialties!

PRICES—25, 35, 50 and 75c.

THE First National Bank, of Plainfield, N. J.

Capital ..... $200,000.
Surplus and Profits ..... $ 90,000.

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.

DIRECTORS.

Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Cotrell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

Union County Orphan's Court.

In the matter of the assignment of George L. VanEmburgh and Frederick M. VanEmburgh, partners in trade under the firm name and style of George L. VanEmburgh and Son of the City of Plainfield, County of Union and State of New Jersey. Order

Upon reading and filing the petition in the above entitled matter:

It is hereby ordered that all creditors of the estate of George L. VanEmburgh and Frederick M. VanEmburgh, partners as G. L. VanEmburgh and Son do appear before the Orphan's Court of the County of Union at the court house in the City of Elizabeth on the 24th day of January next at ten A. M. and show cause why the agreement of compromise made and entered into by and between the said G. L. VanEmburgh and Son, partners as aforesaid and their said creditors should not be confirmed, and why their said assignee should not reconvey and reassign to said assignors all the trust estate remaining in the hands of their said assignee.

And it is further ordered that this order be published in the Plainfield Daily Press and the Plainfield Courier-News for three weeks successively, once each week, and that copies of this order be mailed at least ten days before the return day thereof, with postage prepaid to every creditor of said assignors addressed to such creditor at his usual postoffice address so far as said assignors can ascertain the same.

1 2 3 oaw B. A. VAIL, Judge.

Advertised Mail Matter.

JANUARY 2, 1900.

Althouse, Mr W H
Barber, Mr A
Brown, Mrs B
Carrington, Miss Louise
Corbie, Mrs J E
Cook, Mrs
Freeman, Mr and Mrs J C D
Frey & Co., N J
Gibbs, Miss Annie
Green, Mrs H G
Harper, Mrs George
Hoffman, Mrs Francis
Hurst, Mr C N
Jaeger, Miss
Jansen, Mrs
Kunzeman, Mrs Pierce
Lane, Mr Norman
McCoy, Mr John.
Mandeville, William
Mannahar, Mrs Emilie T
Miller, Mr Fred
Naptha Renovating Establishment
O'Brien, Mrs Nellie
Owens, James
Pall, Mrs W M
Peart, Mr H A
Pizo, Mr Mich.
Pollock, Mr Thos C
Robinson, Miss Grace
Dean
Rode, Mr and Mrs A B
Route, James
Rumo, Albert
Vanaker, Mr F
Williams, Mr A P
VanNest, Mrs Maggie

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

GEO. W. COLE,

UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER.

200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.

OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

DIED.

ROSS.—January 1st, Helen Marie, daughter of Willard H. and Ida C. Ross, aged 5 years and 23 days.

Services at 11 Codington avenue, North Plainfield, Wednesday, January 3rd, at 4 p. m. Friends are invited.

SCHMITH.—In North Plainfield, Sunday, December 31, 1899, Grace M., daughter of George and Sophie Schmith, aged 1 year, 6 months, and 7 days.

Funeral services Wednesday, January 3, 1900, from her parents' residence, 91 Grandview avenue, at 2:30 o'clock, p. m. Relatives and friends respectfully invited. Interment at Evergreen Cemetery, Plainfield.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

WANTED — A stenographer for part of the time. Sabbath Recorder Office. 1 2 2

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Call, with references, at 429 Kensington avenue. 1 2 3

ONE comfortable room, with excellent table, at moderate terms. 1121 Putnam avenue. 1 2 6

WANTED—Girl for general housework, family of three; reference required; good place for capable girl. Apply Mrs. E. B. Smith, 2 Waynewood place, corner West Front St.

LOST SATURDAY—Left hand seal-skin glove. Reward to finder at Daily Press office.

COLORED man wants employment; handy at anything; good references; willing and obliging. 211 West Third St.

$1,200—Wanted on first mortgage, at six per cent; principals only. Address A. B. C., Press office. 1 2 2

WANTED—Girl to assist in light housework. German preferred; reference. A. J. Hartman, 129 Broad street, Westfield, N. J. 1 2 3

A SIX YEAR OLD bay horse, one buggy and harness complete, sound and gentle, good traveler. Inquire A. Kane, 409 East Third St.

WANTED—Young girl to assist in housework. Apply 916 West Front St. 12 30 3

WANTED—Good second-hand safe. Send particulars to P. O. Box 301, Plainfield. 12 30 3 eod

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

FOR SALE or exchange for house and lot or small farm, a fine farm of 200 acres, well watered and timbered. Address Albert, care Daily Press. 12 15 eod tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney, cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

WANTED—Experienced cook. Apply Superintendent Muhlenberg Hospital. 12 27 tf

TO LET—Large, well-heated room, with excellent board. 62 Sandford Ave. 12 26 6

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $6 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 3m

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

WANTED—White girl, Protestant, as chambermaid and waitress; good references required. 219 Hillside Ave. 12 29 3

WINES made only from selected grapes and cane sugar crystal. Twenty-five cents per bottle and upward. "THE VINEYARDS," Park Ave., corner Cooper St., Fanwood. 12 18 12

A. KANE,

Proprietor of the EAST END FEED STORE.

Dealer in

Hay, Feed, Grain & Flour, Coal and Wood.

Also Dealer in

BLUE STONE, FLAGGING and CURBING.

The best goods and work at the lowest prices.

Store and Office
409 East Third St.,
Telephone 913.
A. McKeon, Manager.
Open evenings until 8 o'clock.

C. H. RUGG

has removed his Coal Office to 150 East 4th St.,

near Watchung Ave.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:24 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:46 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:46 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair till Friday; stationary temperature. Ther. 23.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 3, 1900. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

NEW COUNCIL NOW READY FOR BUSINESS.

Organization was Effected at Meeting Last Night.

FRANK SMITH PRESIDENT

J. T. MACMURRAY ELECTED A CITY CLERK TO SUCCEED HIMSELF.

President Smith Appointed the Committees as Printed in The Daily Press Yesterday—Meeting Night Changed to Second Monday in the Month—A New Method of Keeping the City Claims.

Plainfield's Common Council for 1900 convened last evening for the first time to effect an organization. When City Clerk James T. MacMurray called the body together all the members were present except Messrs. VanHerwerden and Craig. They came in later. The members are seated in the following order: Frank H. Smith, president; J. B. Dumont, B. Frank Coriell, Charles B. Clifton, J. VanHerwerden, George P. Mellick, R. I. Tolles, J. F. Buckle, William L. Gloak, Robert Lee, James Craig. A significant fact is that four of last year's councilmen are seated side by side and face the president, while on either side are the new members, with the exception of Mr. Coriell, who is between Mr Dumont and Mr. Clifton.

The members assembled promptly at the appointed hour and at once took up the business of the evening. City Clerk MacMurray, whose term as clerk did not expire until his successor was appointed, called the meeting to order, and read the call. Then followed the first business, that of selecting a president. Frank H. Smith's name was the only one mentioned and he was elected by ballot, according to rule, there being nine cast for him, as he did not vote, and two members being absent at the time. Messrs Dumont and Buckle were appointed to escort him to the chair, where a handsome bouquet of flowers awaited him.

In accepting the honor, Mr. Smith thanked most sincerely his associates, and stated that he was not insensible of the duties, and would endeavor to fulfil them to the best of his ability. He hoped the relations this year would be as pleasant as those of last year, and he would do all in his power to render just decisions.

The next business was that of selecting a city clerk for the term of three years. James T. MacMurray was the only nominee and he was elected unanimously. Then came the election of W. V. Mundy as janitor to succeed himself for one year.

Mr. Dumont, at this time, moved that the rules of order for 1899 be adopted for 1900, with the following changes, that the time of meeting be changed from the first Monday in the month to the second Monday, and that the finance, streets and fire committees be composed of five members each, and the police, lights, alms, license and auditing committees be composed of three members each. This was adopted.

The bonds of Constables Peter R. Weaver, Amos Moffitt and Frank Vanderhoof were received, approved and filed. Then followed the appointment of committees as follows by the president:

Finance—VanHerwerden, chairman; Lee, Mellick, Tolles and Coriell.

Streets—Tolles, chairman; Craig, Dumont, Coriell and Lee.

Police—Buckle, chairman; Gloak and Dumont.

Fire—Coriell, chairman; Mellick, Buckle, Craig and VanHerwerden.

Lights—Mellick, chairman; Clifton and Gloak.

Alms—Lee, chairman; Dumont and Tolles.

License—Gloak, chairman; Buckle and Clifton.

Auditing—Clifton, chairman; VanHerwerden and Craig.

Charles Hyde through J. B. Coward, attorney, communicated with the Council as regards the assessment of taxes for 1894, '95, '96 on property on Woodland avenue, between Ravine road and Park place, stating that the same had been paid. He asked that the taxes be remitted, cancelled. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

All the petitions left by the Council of 1899 were at this time referred to the proper committees who will consider them in due time. The annual report of City Treasurer William F. Arnold was received, and on a motion offered by Mr. Dumont was ordered advertised. This motion also included that the proper blank certificates be printed for this official.

Mr. Dumont gave notice that at the next meeting he would move that the

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.)

PLAINFIELD AT COURT.

CASES OF INTEREST HERE IN THE UNION COUNTY COURTS.

January Term Has Opened and Has a Number of Cases in Which Some Plainfielders Are Involved.

The January term in the Union County courts will see a number of cases of interest to Plainfielders. Many of them will come to trial while a few have been laid over until a future term of court.

Among the cases in the Supreme Court that will come to trial are the following: Eastman Kodack Company against the Bard Company, on contract, W. S. Angleman for the plaintiff and Murphy & Blatz for the defendant; George M. Craig against Charles M. Hunter, on contract, Walter Borcert for the plaintiff and Reed and Coddington for the defendant; George Christensen against John Lambert, in tort, Jos. E. Stricker for the plaintiff and Murphy & Blatz for the defendant; Benjamin W. Jones against Charles Chapot et al., partners etc. and Louise Chapot, on contract, Corbin and Corbin for the plaintiff and Codington and Swackhamer for the defendant; Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118 Improved Order of Red Men against Republic Savings and Loan Association, on contract, William Newcomb for the plaintiff and Lindabury, Depue and Faulks for the defendant.

Of the Circuit Court cases on for this term, those of interest to Plainfield are as follows: The First National Bank of Plainfield against William R. Mattox, in replevin, W. M. Stillman for plaintiff and W. S. Angleman for defendant; Anna Gwynette against William R. Mattox, in replevin, Charles J. McNabb for the plaintiff and W. S. Angleman for defendant; Edward Bushmore against James Dawe, builder, and Emma Cox, owner, on contract, mechanic's lein, Isaac P. Runyon for the plaintiff and W. S Angleman for the defendant.

The only justice jury appeal case to come up this term is that of Rosa Frucht against Solomon S. Parkas, on contract.

There are a number of appeal cases from local justice's courts to come up this term. All the Plainfield cases were originally tried in Justice Mosher's court. They are as follows: Charles Kane against Michael Ettinger et als.; Frederick Yates against Lewis C. Beekman; Charles Peterson against Carrie Pearson et als; Richard Higham against Oscar F. Pearson; Wesley R Brokaw against Fred Hargraves; Abram Kuntzman against David Hand et al., partners, etc.

The Grand Jury for the January term, the first one selected by Sheriff Houston, is as follows—

Foreman, Alderman William J. Carlton.

Elizabeth—Frederick Bender, Jr., Henry Clauss, Chauncey A. Harris, Taeron B Clark, Chas. H. Moore, Patrick J. Ryan, Peter Bonnett.

Rahway—Joseph W. Martin, Clarence S. Leonard, Andrew J. Haliday.

Clark—Wm. J Thompson.

Cranford—George H. Miller.

Fanwood—Alfred McKown.

Linden—James Hope.

Plainfield—James F. Buckle, J. Hervey Doane, Wm. H. Sebring, Frank H Smith.

New Providence—George Wahl.

Springfield—Peter C. Meisel.

Summit—Edward C. Holmes.

Westfield—Charles F. Conant.

Union—Henry V. Tillou.

GAVE MUCH TO CHARITY.

Filing of His Will Shows That He Left Only Little to His Children.

Runyon Walker's will has been filed with the Surrogate at New Brunswick. Walker died several weeks ago in New Market.

It was expected that his fortune amounted to nearly $200 000, but before he died he gave away much to charitable organizations, and left only a little to each of his children.

The bequests were: Mrs. John Ross, $3 000; Lewis D Walker, $3,000; Mrs. Calvin Drake, $1 000; Mrs. S. R Dayton, $2 800; F R Walker, $1,000; Mrs. Isaac Giles, $1 000, and Mrs. William J. Nelson $1 000. The real estate, valued at $50 000, will be divided so that each child receives an equal amount.

Edward Devine is Commander.

Plainfield Council, No. 25, Shepherds of Bethlehem, has elected for the ensuing year—Commander, Edward Devine; vice commander, Mrs. Howard; aid to commander, William Ford; marshal, Robert Goldsack; scribe, Mrs Lithhauser; account, Mrs. Remie Mattis; treasurer, Mrs. M. J. Nash; chaplain, Robt Loramour; inside guard, Geo. McComb; outside guard, F. Moore; master of ceremonies, Mrs. Denckiau; trustee, M. Leivers.

—Press want ads bring results.

BLOOD POISONING SET IN.

Serious Results That Come From Vaccination Ordered by Board of Education.

A sad case of poisoning is reported on West Front street, corner of Elmwood place. A boy named Stewart, aged about 12 years, was vaccinated recently according to the rule of the Board of Eduation, and soon afterward blood poisoning set in and since that time the boy has suffered intensely. The lad has been a sufferer from scrofula, and it is said that that may have something to do with the way the vaccine took hold. A few days ago a physician was called and expressed the opinion that he was in doubt as to what could be done for the boy. There appears to have been something in the blood that has caused the vaccine to act so contrary to general principles.

The boy's parents are heart-broken over the condition of their son and are doing all that is possible to effect a recovery. The parents claim that the Board of Education has no right to compel vaccination and it is possible that they may go to law over the matter. They say that the law gives the Board of Education the right to say that a child may be vaccinated, but that they cannot make it compulsory.

WHY HOME MISSIONS?

Continuation of Services in the New Sanctuary at Hope Chapel—Address by Dr. Dixon.

The dedication of the new sanctuary of Hope chapel was marked by the formal dedication services Sunday evening and special services every evening for the week following. Last night was devoted to a review of the subject of home missions. Rev. Dr. John Dixon, assistant secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Home Mission, was present and spoke on "Why Home Missions?"

He was a pleasant and interesting speaker and sketched simply the field and the needs of the Board. He begged his hearers to remember that it was their duty to give the advantages of the beautiful new chapel to others beside themselves.

He told how the Board had expended a million dollars in the last year and now supported 1,300 missionaries and 328 teachers. He pointed out the various lines of work to be accomplished and showed how much there was still to do. He told how much greater and more effective work could be accomplished if every member of the Presbyterian denomination should just devote a cent a week to the Board's treasury. Such an offering was comparatively very small to the individual but, in the aggregate, it would greatly advance the cause of home missions.

Remembered Retiring Superintendent.

Owing to a lack of space yesterday the account of the dinner given Saturday evening by G. Eleton Woodland, formerly superintendent of the local branch of the Prudential Insurance Company, to his agents at McVey's hotel, was crowded out. The affair was a very pleasant one, and made all the more so for the fact that the agents very kindly remembered their retiring superintendent by presenting him with a gold watch and chain. The presentation was made by George H. Fairchild, one of the officers of the company, and it was accepted gratefully, showing that there is the best of feeling existing between all. The dinner served by "Mine Host" McVey was all to be desired.

Grand Lodge of Colored Masons.

Last week at the annual session of the Grand Lodge of colored Masons held at Camden the following officers were elected: Grand Master, J. H. Morgan, Bordentown, deputy grand master, Hilyard Oliver, Camden; senior grand warden, Abram W. Brown, Plainfield; junior grand warden, John Vance, Salem; grand treasurer, Walter Miller, Snow Hill; grand secretary, Charles N. Robinson, Camden.

100 Mortgages Filed.

One hundred mortgages on land in New Orange, Union county, were placed on record in Elizabeth last Friday. The amounts range from $600 to $1 500, and they represent a total of about $80 000. All the mortgages are given by Martin Olsen to the Baron De Hirsch Fund, which is the mortgagee.

Letter Carriers Remembered.

Plainfield's letter carriers were handsomely remembered Monday when they made their rounds. Their many patrons did not forget them and they appreciated what they received.

Card of Thanks.

Having been appaised of the kindness of my many friends during my recent illness, I take this opportunity of thanking each one.

Patrick Hanrahan.

—Use Press want ads.

BOY'S LIFE CRUSHED OUT BY LAND SLIDE.

Sudden and Violent Death of David Hand at Dunellen.

TONS OF EARTH OVER HIM.

FATHER OF THE BOY NARROWLY ESCAPED BEING CAUGHT.

Hand and His Son Were Working in Sand Pit Near Jackson Avenue, Where an Excavation Ten Feet Deep Had Been Made Into the Bank—The Boy was in Excavation When Earth Fell.

David, Jr., the 17-year-old son of David Hand, Netherwood, met with a sudden and violent death at Dunellen about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon by being crushed beneath a land slide.

The accident occurred on Jackson avenue nearly in rear of the tin shop of T. C. Bodine. At that point Mr. Hand has been engaged all fall in getting out sand, which is being shipped by rail to out-of-town parties. Since the cold weather set in the upper surface of the sand pit had become frozen, necessitating the workmen digging further into the excavation, which is about ten feet deep and describes a crescent shape circle.

It was shortly after the noon hour when David Hand and his sons, David and Irving, together with two workmen, resumed operations. Young David and his father were well in the centre of the pit, the younger Hand being the furtherest from the mouth or opening.

Suddenly, and without any intimation of the danger which lurked in the possibility of the overhanging frozen earth giving way, there was heard a cracking, grinding sound. The father heard the noise and realizing that the upper crust of the pit was about giving way, jumped into the open space. He was none too quick. Before he could warn his son of the terrible death that threatened him, the entire mass fell with a crash and buried young David Hand up to his neck beneath fully 15 tons of frozen earth and sand.

The father was horrified to see his son killed before his eyes. Some of the workmen say that the unfortunate boy was heard to utter a groan, followed by a gurgling sound as his life was crushed out.

Before the dazed father could come to his senses his oldest son Irving and the workmen sprang to the rescue and began to shovel away the sand. They worked rapidly and desperately and in less than three minutes had succeeded in extricating the young victim. It was at first hoped that the boy was only stunned and had become unconscious.

Messengers were dispatched for a physician and Dr Whitford responded. Later Dr. Brakeley visited the scene of the accident and examined the body. Both physicians pronounced the boy dead, and gave it as their opinion that death must have been instantaneous.

It being impossible to reach the county physician Dr. Brakeley signed a certificate of death and the body was removed by A. M. Runyon & Son, the undertakers, to the home of his parents in Netherwood.

It is not probable that an inquest will be deemed necessary.

The funeral services will be held at the Baptist church, Scotch Plains, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Word of a Terrible Fight.

John Bowden, who is in the Philippines with the 18th Infantry, Co. G, has written to his brother, Charles Bowden, of this city, telling him of a terrible three days's fight held the first of November. He reports that half of his company was killed in the engagement with the enemy, but that Uncle Sam's men finally came off victorious. He says that the soldiers are kept on the go and there is more or less fighting every day.

502 Local Telephones.

The New York and New Jersey Telephone Company has been working very hard under the direction of Manager Charles W Runyon, to reach the five hundredth mark in the subscription department, and they have succeeded. The company now has five hundred and two subscribers in this city. In seventeen days seventeen 'phones were put in, and the men were kept busy day and night.

L. G. Grenelle's Triple Celebration.

Rev. and Mrs. L G. Grenelle, of Asbury Park, celebrated New Year's night the anniversary of their golden wedding, the fiftieth anniversary of the ordination of Mr. Grenelle to the Baptist ministry and Mr. Grenelle's seventy-ninth birthday. Mr. Grenelle was pastor of the Baptist church at New Market for a number of years.

TO SAVE HIM FROM PRISON.

Judge Vail to Allow an Examination to Determine the Sanity of Bigamist Blackford.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Jan. 3.—Former Judge William A. Coddington, of Plainfield, who has been engaged by Mrs John Blackford, of Putnam avenue, that city, to save her husband from State prison on his plea of guilty to the charge of bigamy in having married Miss Alice Morgan, of Westfield, without a divorce, appeared before Judge Vail in the Union county court this morning and made application for the appointment of a commission of physicians to examine into the sanity of the prisoner.

Blackford was to have been sentenced this morning, but Judge Vail postponed disposition of the case for one week in order to grant the application. The examination will be made by Dr. Fred Bailey, the jail physician, and another doctor. Blackford did not appear in court when the case was brought up.

UNIVERSAL EDUCATION.

Prospect of Establishing a Center of the University Association and World's Congress Extension.

Professor C. Davis is in town working among professional men for the purpose of organizing a branch of the University Association and World's Congress Extension, which will make a special study of economical questions during the coming year.

The University Association is a federation of the teaching powers of the principal universities and colleges throughout the world. Incorporated with the association is the famous World's Congress Extension, an international organization, perfected to continue the benefits derived from the World's Congress held during the World's Columbian Exposition.

The work of the University Association deserves the earnest attention and support of thoughtful people, especially ministers of the gospel and educators. As education is not finished when we leave school, college, or university, such a means of continuous systematic and suggestive culture, as that provided by this association will be very helpful to all those who are anxious enough to pursue systematic study in the field of history, science, literature, economics, or art. Many of the prominent educators, who are are at present connected with the principal universities and colleges of the world are connected with this association, and it is endorsed by over fifty college and university presidents, and some of the greatest thinkers of the world.

Those who become members meet together in class once a week for a review of the work done. Each class will have its own corps of officers, including a local instructor.

Mayor's Message Deferred.

It was expected that Mayor Rockfellow's message would be presented to the new Common Council last evening at their first meeting for the year. It did not make an appearance. As the session was taken up chiefly with organization His Honor thought he would defer his message for a short time. It will probably be presented next Monday evening when the Council will meet again.

From Fourth Ward Friends.

The very handsome bouquet of flowers found on the table of the Council rooms last night were presented to President Frank H. Smith by his Fourth ward friends. A card telling that fact was fastened thereto. A number of prominent politicians from that ward were present at the meeting and watched the opening session with a great deal of interest.

Rev. O'Donnell's Paper.

In commemoration of the third anniversary of the Monroe Avenue M E church, Rev. W. C. O'Donnell, the pastor, has edited and published a special paper called "Forward." It contains a historical report of the church society, which includes a list of the members and many other interesting facts about the church.

City Treasurer on Time.

A commendable feature of Wm. F. Arnold's work as City Treasurer is that he has his annual report in the hands of the City Clerk at the first meeting of the new Council. This was true of last evening, and it facilitates matters very much, and gives the Council a sufficient amount of time to arrange for its publication.

To Tell of "The Church."

This evening at Hope Memorial chapel there will be an address by Dr. Thomas C. Hall, of Union Theological Seminary, New York, who will talk on "The Church."

Public Installation.

There will be a public installation of the newly elected officers of Pauchcaughnaughsinque Tribe of Red Men, this evening.

MUST REPORT SUSPICION

CHANCES OF CONTAGION REDUCED TO MINIMUM IN BOROUGH.

Ordinance Passed by Board of Health Compelling Physicians to Report Suspicious Contagious Cases in 24 Hours.

The Board of Health of North Plainfield, that has the reputation of having the most active set of health officials in the State, took another step at the meeting last night to reduce to a minimum the chances of contagious diseases getting a foothold in the borough. This consisted in passing an ordinance compelling physicians to report to the Board all cases that are suspected to be contagious diseases within twenty-four hours after that suspicion becomes fixed in their minds. Under the present law the doctors are not compelled to report such cases until they are positive of the ailment. Under the new ordinance the Board hopes to act so that there will be no danger of contagion being carried before quarantine can be established.

Another important ordinance adopted is one which makes it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of $25, for a person to enter a quarantined house without the permission of the Board of Health.

At the meeting last night the Board also examined milk that was bought of a local dealer, which was found to be very impure. Steps will be taken to punish the dealer.

DIED IN BED.

Wife was at His Side When Life was Found to be Extinct.

Cornelius Pennington, aged 65 years, of Arlington avenue, one of Plainfields's best known citizens, died yesterday morning at an early hour. He was subject to fits of epilepsy, and during the evening, after he retired, his wife noticed that he acted strangely and several times he twitched. At first she paid little attention to it, but soon afterward the twitching became more violent. She leaned over and placing her hand on his face discovered that it was cold. She then got out of bed, lit a lamp and learned that her husband was dead. The deceased was a brother of Nathan Pennington, of Liberty street. He is survived by a wife, son and daughter. The latter is Mrs. Eli Odam.

The funeral services will be held from the late residence, 1038 Arlington avenue, Friday afternoon next at 2 o'clock. Interment at Hillside cemetery.

CAUGHT CUTTING WIRE.

Three Discharged Men Tried to Steal From Elizabeth Trolley Company.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Jan. 3—Colonel Edward Hine and Elisha B Gaddis, of Newark, were complainants at police headquarters Monday against three recently discharged employes and a stranger. The men were charged with conspiracy to steal cables and supplies from the Elizabeth and Westfield Trolley Company.

The three former employes were arrested in the woods Sunday night between here and Roselle by Superintendent Chamberlain and Policeman Edward Merrill as they were in the act of cutting the feed cable.

They are John Goodwin, George Schwer and Aaron Boylinski, all of Brooklyn. They were committed. The other man got away.

Says He Was Slandered.

E. W. Chamberlin, superintendent of sewers and roads of Westfield, has commenced suit against James M French, of Westfield, in the District Court at Elizabeth, for $300 damages. The damages are claimed because of stories concerning Chamberlin, which, it is alleged, French has circulated. It is also alleged he has asserted that Chamberlin has raised vegetables on the Westfield sewer farm at the expense of the township. The case is set down for tomorrow.

Miss Kirby to be Employed as Assistant.

A meeting of the board of directors of the library was last night. There were present M. W. Tyler, J. Evarts Tracy, Rowland Cox, Alexander Gilbert, W. H. Larrabee and Wm. M. Stillman. On motion the recommendation of the librarian that Miss Adele Kirby be employed as second assistant, was adopted. The report of the librarian for December was read.

Lawton Once on General Sweneh's Staff.

It is a fact not generally known that the late General Lawton, who died recently in the Philippines, was a member of the staff of Gen. Sweneh, of Park avenue, during the Civil War. The latter speaks in the highest terms of the late General as a fighter and as a man.

Trouble in Police Department.

There is trouble in the Police Department again, and Mayor Rockfellow, to whose attention it has been called, is investigating it fully.

BOROUGH FIREMEN AS ENTERTAINERS.

Warren Engine Company Gather About a Christmas Tree.

LOADED WITH NOVELTIES.

GIFTS THAT SUGGESTED BOYHOOD DAYS.

Mayor Smalley, Senator Reed and Councilman Clark Kindly Remembered by the Firemen's Laddies With Presents of an Unique and Astonishing Description—The Fun Was Fast and all Enjoyed the Evening.

The Warren Engine Company of the borough is composed of a jolly set of fellows, who believe in enjoying themselves in an original manner. Each year during the holiday season they plan to have an entertainment at their handsome apartments. Last year the boys got up a Christmas tree, which proved such a success that it was decided to repeat the affair again this year. Last evening was the date set for the function. A handsome Christmas tree had been provided for the occasion and upon it were hung numerous gifts for the members of the company and their friends. These gifts were not intended to exhibit the wealth of the members of the company as much as they were to serve as reminders of once happy days—

"For to them 'twas but yesterday,
They played—a careless boy—
Around the old home place
In all their youthful joy!"

Before the fruit was gathered from the tree brief speeches were made by Mayor Smalley, Senator Reed, Councilman Clark, Chief Fairchild and others. Then Santa Claus, personated by J. J. Stahl, secretary of the company, distributed the presents, which consisted of articles usually found in the nursery.

Knowing the mayor's passion for a good horse Santa had kept faith with him by bringing a minature trotting horse attached to a two-wheeled gig.

Senator Reed was the recipient of a small broom to signify the clean sweep of his political opponent.

Councilman Clark drew a coal cart, while Chief Fairchild was presented a mammoth tin trumpet fully five feet in length.

Foreman Bennett was awarded a tin fire hat of regulation size. Dave Allen's gift was a piece of earthenware which the boys named a "kazunka." Other gifts included monkeys on a stock, dolls, tops, horns, drums, and various nick-nacks too numerous to mention. The Daily Press reporter was not forgotton, his gift being a miniature solid tin watch and chain. The difference between this watch and one of the Waterbury make is the fact that the reporter's watch contains a "yellow kid" which persists in flying out when the case is sprung open.

After all the boys had been remembered the remainder of the evening was passed with music and story telling. The affair was most enjoyable and the event will pass into the history of the company as one of many pleasant affairs for which this well-known and popular organization is noted.

Special Meeting to be Held.

It has been arranged by the Mayor and Council of the borough to hold a special meeting next week when there will be a discussion concerning the widening of Somerset street. Some of the members cannot be present at the meeting Friday evening and it is the desire of the Mayor that all the membership shall be present when the matter comes up. At this meeting the property owners affected will be asked to express their view on the subject and in this way it is hoped that a full and free expression of opinion may be secured.

Mr Woodhull's New House.

An important residential sale has just taken place through the real estate agency of E. C. Mulford & Son, North avenue, who have sold to Floyd T. Woodhull, of the firm of Woodhull & Martin, William Moore's handsome residence in West End Park, known as 926 West Front street. Since coming to Plainfield Mr. Woodhull has been a resident of the borough, but this change makes him a Plainfielder, where his partner resides. Mr. Woodhull and his family will take possession of their new home early in the spring.

Griffin to Spread Out.

Owing to the steady increase in his business, A. M. Griffin, the East Front street hardware dealer, has found it necessary to increase the size of his establishment. He has therefore rented the store next to his present one, now occupied by Wesley R Brokaw, the music dealer, and will take possession in a short time. An archway will be cut between the two stores. Mr. Brokaw will move to new quarters.

CHEER FOR BRITONS.

Colonial Troops Distinguish Themselves In Battle.

CONFIRMATION OF FRENCH'S VICTORY

Buller's Army In Fine Form and Confident of Future Success—The Cabinet to Expend Five Million Pounds For National Defense.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—The morning papers are unanimous in praising the gallantry of the Canadian and colonial troops. The Times says:

"The mother country will share with the Canadians and Australians in the pride and gratification they must feel at the fine qualities displayed by their troops in this dashing little engagement."

The Standard says:

"The Canadians and Australians had been spoiling for a fight. Now they have had their opportunity, and they have greatly distinguished themselves by their coolness and discipline. From the viewpoint of imperial unity the little fight may fairly be described as one of the most gratifying events recorded in the history of the British race."

Although the continuance of minor successes gratifies the British public, it is not forgotten that the larger aspects of the campaign are unchanged. As The Daily News remarks, "It is a day of small mercies."

The importance of both General French's and Colonel Pilcher's victories lies in the effect they are likely to have upon the colonial Dutch. The latest dispatch from Douglas confirms the earlier report that the Boer laagers consisted chiefly of British subjects who, on the arrival of the small Free State commando, accepted probably an invitation to throw in their lot with the Boers.

Colonel Pilcher reports, through the officer commanding at the Orange river:

"I have completely defeated a hostile command at the Sunnyside laager this day, Jan. 1, taking the laager and 40 prisoners besides the killed and wounded. Our casualties are two privates killed and Lieutenant Adie wounded. Am encamped at Dover farm, 20 miles northwest of Belmont and ten miles from Sunnyside."

The success of General French's column is at length confirmed officially, the war office this afternoon issuing a dispatch from Cape Town, dated Monday, Jan. 1.

The Boer strength in the engagement with General French was estimated at from 5,000 to 7,000 men.

The Daily Telegraph has received the following, dated Jan. 2, from Frere camp:

"The weather is fine. The Tugela river is now fordable. General Buller's army is in fine form, ready and confident for the work before it.

"The Boers inquired by heliograph today: 'Why is Roberts coming? What has Buller done?'

"The British replied, 'How did you like our lyddite in the last battle?'

"The Boers signaled in response, 'Rats.'"

At a meeting held at the London residence of Viscount Curzon Monday a committee of ladies was formed to equip a hospital base for the yeomanry. The Princess of Wales accepted the presidency of the committee. The Duchess of Connaught and the Duchess of York agreed to serve as vice presidents. The membership of the committee includes most of the leading women of the British aristocracy, among them the Duchess of Marlborough.

The Daily Mail makes the following statement this morning:

"We understand that the defense committee of the cabinet, after careful consideration of the question of the defense of the empire, particularly with regard to artillery, will shortly call for the expenditure of £5,000,000 to make good deficiencies and to place the nation on a par with other great powers.

"The new equipment will be provided as speedily as possible, and, while sufficiently mobile for use in the field, it is intended to be adaptable to the necessities of what are known as guns of position."

The queen has accepted the services of 12 battalions of militia for foreign stations. Seven of these are assigned to South Africa.

The Earl of Albemarle will command the City of London infantry division instead of Colonel Sir Charles Howard Vincent.

PILCHER'S RAID.

Brilliant Cavalry Skirmish by Colonial Troops.

BELMONT, Cape Colony, Jan. 3.—Another dispatch from Dover farm, dated Jan. 1, says:

"The colonial troops, who have been longing to be allowed to meet the Boers, have at last been given an opportunity to do so and scored a brilliant success. The raid conducted by Colonel Pilcher was very difficult owing to the fact that the movements of the troops were immediately communicated to the Boers by natives. In order to prevent this Colonel Pilcher in making his forced march from Belmont left a British trooper at every farmhouse with instructions not to allow the natives to leave their huts, the patrols calling the names of the natives hourly in order to prevent their escape.

"In the maneuver at Cook's farm Colonel Pilcher sent mounted patrols east. One of these, consisting of four men commanded by Lieutenant Adie, suddenly encountered 14 Boers, who opened fire. The lieutenant was severely wounded, and Private Butler gave up his horse in order to carry the lieutenant out of range.

Meanwhile Lieutenant Ryan, who had worked magnificently, reported that the veldt on the right of the enemy was clear, whereupon Major de Rougemont ordered the guns to a trot. They arrived within 1,500 yards of the laager, unlimbered and planted five shells in as many minutes within the laager.

Immediately the enemy could be seen streaming over the kopje. They were completely surprised, but quickly opened a well directed fire.

A press representative had the privilege of carrying an order to the Toronto company to double quick into action. The order was received with great satisfaction. The company rushed forward until within a thousand yards of the enemy's position, when it opened a hot fire upon the kopje and completely subdued the Boer fire.

During the advance the Boer fire suddenly ceased. Thirty-five Boers hoisted a white flag and surrendered. A portion of the Torontos moved across the front of the guns and entered the laager. The Boers had fled. Fourteen tents, three wagons, a great store of rifles, ammunition, forage, saddles and camp equipment and numerous incriminating papers were captured.

The Boers lost 6 killed and 12 wounded. The Torontos stood the galling fire with admirable patience, never wasting a shot.

A British Repulse.

PRETORIA, Jan. 3.—Sunday night the British in great force attacked Commandant Schoeman's commando in the Colesberg district and tried to storm the position. They repeated the attack Monday morning, but were forced to retreat, the Boers holding the position. The loss of the British is not known, but it is reported to have been heavy. The Boers consider it a great compliment to the Transvaal that Lord Roberts should have been selected for supreme command of the British forces.

Three British prisoners who were taken at Malagro say that Captain Gordon Chesney Wilson, husband of Lady Sarah Wilson, and five other officers whose names they refuse to give were wounded in a recent sortie from Mafeking.

German Bark Seized.

HAMBURG, Jan. 3.—The Hamburger Correspondenz announces that the German bark Hans Wagner of Hamburg was seized by the British at Delagoa Bay on Dec. 21 and that her owners have lodged a complaint with the British foreign office.

Famous Violin Maker Dead.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 3.—John Albert, famous throughout the country for his skill in the manufacture of violins, is dead at his residence in this city, aged 91 years. Mr. Albert was born in the duchy of Baden, Germany, and there learned the trade of making violins. He came to this country and continued to make these instruments. He was the first to discover that violins made of American woods were superior in tone and quality to any such instruments of foreign woods. Among his patrons was Ole Bull, the famous maestro. Adelina Patti and Signor Niccolini also purchased their string instruments from Albert, and some of them are still in use in the Welsh castle of the diva.

Chicago Elevated Held Up.

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—After an exciting and grotesque struggle stretching over miles of elevated railway track, the police yesterday took entire possession of the whole line of the new Northwestern Elevated railway in this city. The police acted under orders of the commissioner of public works, former Congressman Lawrence E. McGann. On the outcome of the remarkable contest between the city authorities and the railway company is involved the possible forfeiture of the company's franchise as well as the sum of $100,000 posted by the railway company to guarantee the completion of the road by Jan. 1.

Portugal's Foreign Relations.

LISBON, Jan. 3.—The cortes was opened yesterday. The message from the throne declared that the cordiality of Portugal's relations with the other powers was shown by the presence in the Tagus of fleets of France, Germany and Great Britain. The government, it continued, had caused itself to be represented at the Brussels and The Hague conferences, the former to check the abuses of alcoholism in South Africa and the latter to reduce the frequency and to minimize the horrors of war, and it was hoped that both humanitarian objects would be achieved.

The Parnell Memorial.

DUBLIN, Jan. 3.—At a meeting of the Parnell memorial committee in this city, Mr. Daniel Tallon, lord mayor of Dublin, presiding, Mr. John E. Redmond announced the result of the recent tour of the lord mayor and himself in the United States in the interest of the fund. The committee adopted a resolution thanking the people of the United States for their generosity, with particular reference to Mr. Richard Croker's donation of £3,000. It was decided to proceed immediately with the erection of the memorial.

More Southern Cotton Mills.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 3.—T. C. Guthrie, just returned from Rockingham, says citizens there have decided to erect two new cotton mills. The work is to begin shortly. Two new cotton mills were organized at Kings Mountain yesterday, each with a capital of $100,000. They are the Cora mill. E. Dilling president, and the Bonny, W. D. Manney president. Also a new bank, capital $20,000, W. A. Manney president.

Washington Statue In Paris.

PARIS, Jan. 3.—The city council has chosen the site for the equestrian statue of Washington. It is at the intersection of the Avenue d'Iena and the Avenue du Trocadero. It is a fine site, in the midst of the American quarter, with the Place du Trocadero, the Palais du Trocadero, the Arc de Triomphe and the Champs Elysees close by. The pedestal has also been approved by the council.

Slot Machines Must Go.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 3.—Mayor Flower has sent an order to Chief of Police Gaster to strictly enforce the ordinance prohibiting the operation of slot machines in this city. Although the law had been promulgated, the machines were still running; hence the order of the mayor. The law provides for a $25 fine not only against the slot machine proprietors, but against the players as well.

Negro Cool at His Hanging.

NORFOLK, Jan. 3.—Julius Robinson, colored, was hanged yesterday at Dinwiddie Court House for murdering W. M. Jolly, a merchant, in November last. He was taken from Petersburg to the scene of the hanging on a train and was the coolest man in the crowd. He made a speech on the gallows, warning young colored men against drinking whisky and carrying pistols.

Three Killed by a Train.

LEWISBURG, Pa., Jan. 3.—Three men were killed by an east bound express train on the Philadelphia and Erie division of the Pennsylvania railroad at a crossing near Montandon, about ten miles north of Sunbury. The men were riding in a covered wagon.

Mr. Croker Doing Well.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—Mr. Richard Croker of New York, who broke his leg Monday near Wanragen while mounting a horse, is reported to be progressing favorably towaid recovery.

Burned While Playing Santa Claus.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Jan. 3.—While distributing gifts in the garb of Santa Claus, Frank Tuthill's false beard caught fire, and he was severely burned.

To the Sick.

Indisputable Facts.

Disease, fermentation and decay are caused by microbes and germ life: when these organic pests are destroyed there can be no sickness.

Antiseptics are so called because they destroy microbes: surgeons always use antiseptics in performing dangerous operations.

Carbolic acid is a common antiseptic, but is poisonous if taken into the system strong enough to destroy the germs of disease.

Radam's Microbe Killer, composed of GASES, is an antiseptic, perfectly harmless to the human body, but doubly powerful in destroying disease if faithfully applied. Physicians frequently use Microbe Killer in treating Cancers, and recommend it for Catarrh, Tuberculosis, etc.; others know it to be invaluable in Bright's Disease and Bladder Troubles.

Fermentation of food in the stomach causes Dyspepsia, Sourness, etc.; Radam's Microbe Killer destroys the CAUSE and sweetens the stomach.

Impoverished blood is the home of germ life; when pure it is the fountain of life, the source of all health and vigor.

Radam's Microbe Killer is the only rational remedy for all diseases; its antiseptic power eradicates every disease from the human body.

These facts are incontrovertible and we invite the fullest investigation by all interested people, professional or otherwise.

We would like to mail you, absolutely free, a book containing testimonials and advice.

Large bottles $1.00, gallon jugs, $3.00.

The Wm. Radam Microbe Killer Co

121 PRINCE STREET, NEW YORK, or

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Plainfield, N. J.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscriber, executor of Elizabeth D. Baker, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the twenty-seventh day of December next.

Dated November 22d, 1899.

11 22 5 oaw SAMUEL C. MOUNT.

WANTED

The address of all AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS in Plainfield and vicinity. If you will send us your address on a postal card we will be glad to furnish you with our latest price list. Our line is complete, and goods are always fresh and our prices are the lowest.

Geo. W. Wrennick,

133 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

H. Eggerding,

131 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c cigar in the State, and made of the primest from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars.

Flynn Bros.,

SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,

Near Music Hall,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

POWERS' PHARMACY Somerset St. Craig Place.

Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .

Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot Tar

is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .

in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated

DOMESTIC FINISH.

Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.

Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.

Trading Stamps given.

The City Steam & Hand Laundry

MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B

19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,

Furniture and Freight Express

Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat store 128 Park avenue. 101

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job. That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,

201 PARK AVE., Cor 2d ST.

Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.

Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635

A. KANE,

Proprietor of the EAST END FEED STORE.

Dealer in

Hay, Feed, Grain & Flour, Coal and Wood.

Also Dealer in

BLUE STONE, FLAGGING and CURBING.

The best goods and work at the lowest prices.

Store and Office

409 East Third St.,

Telephone 913.

A. McKeon, Manager.

Open evenings until 8 o'clock.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.

at Steiner place, North Plainfield

R. H. McCullough, Prop'r

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,

Painters and Paper Hangers,

Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Street.

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11

M. POWERS,

DEALER IN

LEHIGH COAL.

FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.

Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 87 A.

Yard 726 to 737 South Ave.

THE GRANDVIEW

Meat Market

George Egal, Manager.

Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM

will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.

Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.

The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.

FRED ENDRESS,

131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

GEO. O. STEVENS & CO. OAK. 747 WEST FRONT ST.

ALEX. LUSARDI,

211 West Front Street,

Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores. 1 9 1 year

J. C. Pope & Co.,

INSURANCE AGENTS,

119 East Front St.,

Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . .

: SPECIALS :

For This Week.

U. S. club skates.
Shinny sticks.
Skate Straps.
Boys' sleighs.
" coasters.
Steel snow shovels.
Wood " "
Carpet sweepers.
Oil heaters.
Parlor stoves reduced.

The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,

Tel. Call 682.

Irving Savings Institution.

115 CHAMBERS ST., NEW YORK CITY.

The Trustees of this institution have declared interest on all sums remaining on deposit during the three and six months ending December 31, 1899, at the rate of FOUR PER CENT. per annum on amounts from $1 to $5,000, payable on and after Monday, January 15, 1900. Deposits made on or before January 10th will draw interest from January 1st.

W. H. B. TOTTEN, President.

G. BYRON LATIMER, Secretary 12 26 10

TRY THE

QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No. 337 Park Avenue

(Miller Building.)

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.

108 NORTH AVE.

John G. Bantle,

First-class

Ladies' and Gent's

TAILOR.

428 Watchung Avenue.

Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

Your Valuables

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault

Lock boxes from $3 50 to $10 a year

GAS

For the Fire-place. Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates. Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.

CURTIS M. THORPE,

510-512 PARK AVENUE.

"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIRE-PLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,

—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—

109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.

I. O. H.

Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 109 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711,

ROYAL ARCANUM.

The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.

A. I. LITTELL, Regent.

Fred'k J. Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,

Watchmakers and Jewelers.

219 Park Avenue.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25

LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.

Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.

A Big Assortment.

Ladie Desiring . . .

KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING

done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 218 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

Defective Eyes.

Overstrained and Defective Eyes are the cause of many a

HEADACHE.

Correctly-fitted Glasses will remedy the trouble. A Scientific Examination Free and Glasses Guaranteed.

STILES & CO.,

107 E. Front St.

EVERY THURSDAY.

Hours: 10:30 to 5:00.

L. A. HUMMER,

VARIETY MARKET.

Meats Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.

163 SOMERSET ST.

Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.

Paris for 1900.

Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.

Circulars at

181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

NEUMAN BROS.,

GROCERS,

Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

We are NOW receiving orders for

HUYLER'S XMAS CANDY,

—to be delivered at—

CHRISTMAS TIME.

Remember the

Only Agency

—IS—

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Tel. 705.

M. Molnar,

432 Watchung Ave.,

Ladies' and Gents'

FINE TAILORING

Graduate of

New York Cutting School.

Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with o'd clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md. Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

SMALLEY BROS.,

144 North Avenue.

BUTCHERS.

Everything usually found in a first-class market.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83 A.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills

25c.

A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.

MALLINSON'S

North and Watchung avenues.

CHAPELLE'S MISSION.

Papal Delegate to Philippines Reaches Manila.

DELICATE AND IMPORTANT TASK.

Many Religious Differences Which Need Adjustment—Governor Leary Proclaims Total Abolition of Slavery In Guam.

MANILA, Jan. 3.—Archbishop Chapelle, the papal delegate to the Philippines, has just arrived here on the United States transport Sherman, which sailed from San Francisco Dec. 8. He will lodge in the house formerly occupied by Mr. Charles Denby of the Philippine advisory commission.

This action on the part of Mgr. Chapelle settles the contest between the various friar brotherhoods in Manila who, separately, have been using their influence to obtain the privilege of entertaining the archbishop and the Rev. Father McKinnon, late of the California volunteers and now a regular army chaplain, who was also a passenger on the Sherman. It is said that the friars are striving to secure Mgr. Chapelle's ear for the purpose of securing better protection for individual interests. The arrival of the papal delegate directs attention to the question of the church and the brotherhoods in the Philippines, including the matters of deciding the brotherhoods' claims to real estate and other property, of the church receiving state support and of the re-establishment of Spanish curates in native parishes. By the appointment of Mgr. Chapelle as Archbishop Nozaleda's successor the Filipinos and Spaniards feel that steps will be taken in these momentous matters which may bring infinite good or evil to the islands.

ARCHBISHOP CHAPELLE.

A naval officer who has arrived here from Guam brings a proclamation issued by Captain Leary, naval governor of that island, decreeing the absolute prohibition and total abolition of slavery, or peonage, the order taking effect Feb. 22.

The prologue of the proclamation declares that the Spanish system of peonage, amounting to slavery, is a menace to popular liberty and a violation of the privileges guaranteed by the American constitution.

Captain Leary also deported all the Spanish priests for reasons which were sufficient for him.

To Have Emperor's Picture.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—The Hungarian portrait painter Arthur Ferraris, at present in New York, has just been notified by the Chamber of Commerce of Hamburg that the emperor of Germany has designated him to paint the life size picture of himself which the Chamber of Commerce will present to the Hamburg-American line for the saloon of the new twin screw express steamer Deutschland, about to be launched. Mr. Ferraris arrived here about six weeks ago, having been commissioned by the wife of the French embassador in Vienna, the Marquise de Reversaux, to paint a picture of her mother, Mrs. Storey of Washington.

Milwaukee Street Railway Fight.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 3.—In spite of the fact that three injunctions were hanging over the heads of the mayor, city clerk and members of the common council restraining those officials from creating the street railway ordinance into a law, that measure, over which there has been a lively fight for several weeks past, was finally passed by the common council at last night's session by a vote of 25 to 1, 16 members refusing to vote. The ordinance was immediately signed by Mayor Rose.

Allen Not a Candidate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Senator Allen of Nebraska in an interview authorized an absolute denial of reports that he would be the candidate for the presidency of a part of the fusion forces. He said: "I would not accept the nomination if it were unanimously tendered me. Mr. Bryan undoubtedly will be the candidate of the Democratic, Populist and Free Silver parties for the presidency. Nebraska will give him a united, active delegation to all three of the conventions."

The Port Jervis Bank.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Jan. 3.—A committee of the stockholders of the Port Jervis National bank reports that the bank's capital has been impaired to the amount of about 75 per cent through the defalcation of Lewis E. Goldsmith, formerly assistant cashier. The committee recommends an assessment of 75 per cent upon the par value of the stock. The proposition of the committee, it is thought, will be adopted and the bank resume business.

The Molineux Trial.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—The eighth week and the forty-seventh day of the trial of Roland B. Molineux for the murder of Mrs. Katharine J. Adams opened with Harry S. Cornish again on the stand. The cross examination of Cornish by Attorney Weeks was the feature of the day's proceedings. The witness' private life was shown up in a not very enviable light.

To Investigate D., L. and W. Wreck.

PATERSON, N. J., Jan. 3.—Judge Dixon, in opening the January term of court, charged the grand jury to thoroughly investigate the wreck on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad on Thanksgiving night, as a result of which collision seven persons lost their lives.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remembe you will not be hurt in the slightest. My loca. anæsthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. C. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

EDUCATIONAL

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
Adella C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th. Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
PIANO AND THEORY
Home Studio,
182 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN,
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

Piano Instruction
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
420 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to

Pride's Tonsorial Parlor
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty.
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
—WILLIAM J. PRIDE,—
formerly with R. B. Maynard.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmot
Telephone 201

Don't be wasting you money and paying high prices for frames. Come and get your framing done with the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street,
where you will find a large assortment in ready-made frames and the latest styles in mouldings to make up frames to order at prices that will surprise you. Also fine drawings in crayons and pastels from all kinds of photographs.
Best Satisfaction Guaranteed.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.
Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.
HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL,
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 2:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
R. H. BIRD, P. M.

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS.
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Fires for Picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.
T. M. INGRAHAM.

XMAS IS NEAR
Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.
MRS. L. J. DENTON,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance. 9 North avenue.

COLLIER
EYE SPECIALIST,
103 Park Ave.....
Established 1869. Eyes Examined Free.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

J. W. VANSICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly
TELEPHONE 140 B.

OUR OYSTERS
ARE THE
---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

E. B. Maynard, NEW SHOP NEW FURNITURE BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

The Kind You Have Always Bought
In Use For Over 30 Years.
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

WANTED
25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,
Gramophones, Records and Supplies.
A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.
BROKAW'S . . .
The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

FIRE!!!
Largest agency in the city
When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by
ELSTON M. FRENCH.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

OUR SPECIALTIES } Choice Teas, Fine Coffee.
All the Seasonable Goods. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit
C. E. GULICK & CO.,
Tel. 931. THE PARK GROCERS.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

THOSE CAPTIVE SHIPS

British Right of Seizure Not Admitted.

OUR GOVERNMENT AWAITS FACTS.

Department Is Acting Firmly In the Delagoa Affair and Will Protect the Rights of American Trade.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The state department has received from United States Embassador Choate at London by cable a statement of the facts he had developed in connection with the seizure by British warships of American goods on the three merchant vessels, Beatrice, Mashona and Maria. The goods comprised not only flour, but miscellaneous articles of common trade, and while they were shipped for Lourenco Marques in British and German ships yet the contention of our officials is that they were not subject to seizure. They could not lodge representations on the subject until they were possessed of a knowledge of the facts, but as soon as Mr. Choate's statement came to hand an instruction was cabled to him to inform the British government that we could not admit the right of seizure in these cases.

This is the preliminary step usually taken in such negotiations. Next in order will be a report from our consular representative at Lourenco Marques respecting the present condition of the seized or detained goods and damage sustained. The department is not yet fully informed on these points, though that will be necessary to the further presentation of the cases. It is not even known just where the goods are or if they have all been seized or only in part.

It will be the duty of our consular agent at Lourenco Marques to ascertain and report these facts, and he is now engaged in doing this under the original instructions of the state department.

While the department is acting, as it promised in the beginning, to firmly protect all American rights of trade, it is showing no unseemly haste in the presentation of the case. The instruction to Mr. Choate was not a demand for the release of the goods nor yet for indemnity, but rather a precautionary notice to the British government to save all of our rights in the case. It will be sufficient to inaugurate the settlement of the matter by negotiation, and the state department has not the slightest doubt that the British authorities will make full amends to the owners of the goods when the facts are all laid before it.

Public Debt Decreases.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The monthly statement of the public debt shows that at the close of business Dec. 30 the debt, less cash in the treasury, amounted to $1,134,300,007, a decrease for the month of $5,791,824. This decrease is largely accounted for by the purchase of bonds during the month. The debt is recapitulated as follows: Interest bearing debt, $1,026,772,320; debt on which interest has ceased since maturity, $1,208,500; debt bearing no interest, $389,914,649; total, $1,417,894,469. This amount, however, does not include $686,979,403 in certificates and treasury notes outstanding, which are offset by an equal amount of cash on hand.

Landslide at Mare Island.

VALLEJO, Cal., Jan. 3.—A serious landslide has occurred on the water front of Mare Island, as a result of which 150 feet of the sea wall slid into the bay, carrying with it tons of granite work, cement and earth and loosening up fully 500 feet more of the wall. The break is believed to be due to the fact that heavy rains of the past few days had so filled the soil back of the embankment with water that the pressure could not be withstood. It is estimated that the actual damage in money caused by the landslide will be $75,000, to say nothing of the loss of time.

Western New York Snow Bound.

DUNKIRK, N. Y., Jan. 3.—A fearful blizzard is raging in Chautauqua county. No trains have reached Dunkirk on the Western New York and Pennsylvania road, as the drifts between Mayville and Silver Creek are ten feet deep. Trains of the Nickel Plate road are using the tracks of the Lake Shore between Brockton and Buffalo. Lake Shore trains are getting through, but are late about two hours. Traffic over several stage routes is blocked. In many places the snow is six feet deep on a level.

Destroying Mint Dies.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 3.—The work of demolishing the steel dies that coined the output of the United States mints during 1899 has been commenced in the blacksmith shop of the mint here. Exactly 1,070 dies representing the money coined in this city were destroyed. The dies used at the New Orleans mint will also be rendered useless. Those from San Francisco have not yet arrived. Every die used by the United States mints is engraved and destroyed in this city.

M. Buffet Guilty.

PARIS, Jan. 3.—The senate, sitting as a high court, interrupted its deliberations yesterday and announced that it had decided by a vote of 148 to 48 that M. Buffet was guilty, with extenuating circumstances; that it acquitted MM. Godefroy and De Vaux owing to the large minority in their favor and that it acquitted MM. Sabran and De Ramel. The court then adjourned without arriving at a decision respecting MM. Guerin and Deroulede.

Invalid Burned to Death.

DUBOIS, Pa., Jan. 3.—Mrs. Claude Miller of Ridgeway, an invalid and unable to move from her bed, was burned to death Monday night. She was alone in the house when the fire broke out, and though desperate efforts were made to rescue the unfortunate woman the flames had gained such headway that entrance to the building was impossible.

Sawmills Destroyed.

COUDERSPORT, Pa., Jan. 3.—The two large sawmills of the Lackawanna Lumber company at Cross Forks were completely destroyed by fire last night. Four hundred men are thrown out of employment. The mills were the principal industry of the town. Loss is estimated at $40,000.

Noted Photographer Dead.

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—Benjamin French, a veteran photographer of this city and who became famous as an importer of lenses, has just died, aged 80 years, the result of a complication of diseases.

Do not wash your hands and face with a common laundry soap, or if you do, don't complain when you find them rough, hard and chapped. Ordinary laundry soaps are good for scrubbing floors, but not for the skin. Ivory Soap makes a creamy lather that rinses easily and takes the dirt with it. The natural oil of the skin washed with Ivory Soap is not removed, and the skin is left soft and smooth.

IT FLOATS.

COPYRIGHT 1899 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

KENTUCKY POLITICS.

Governor Taylor's Message—Blackburn Elected to the Senate.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 3.—Governor W. S. Taylor submitted a message of over 7,000 words, covering state affairs and presenting elaborate reasons for the repeal of the Goebel election law, which he called the "infamy of 1898 that had demoralized, disturbed and disgraced the state."

After four years of retirement former Senator Joseph Clay Styles Blackburn was chosen by the joint caucus of the Democratic members of the legislature as the successor of Senator William Lindsay in the United States senate. Notwithstanding Blackburn's nomination was a foregone conclusion and his election morally certain, the proceedings of the caucus were enacted in the presence of a galaxy of Kentucky beauty and a dense throng of admirers.

John H. Whallen, who is accused by Senator S. B. Marrell of having attempted to bribe him by offering him $4,500 to vote against Goebel in the gubernatorial contest, has arrived here and given bond in the sum of $10,000.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

The Pennsylvania railroad system of pensions went into effect.

A movement has been started to consolidate the milk companies of Chicago.

Commissioner General Peck announced that 7,000 firms of this country would have exhibits at the Paris exposition.

Ten villages were reported destroyed by an earthquake in the Achalkalak district of the government of Tiflis, Russia.

It was said in Washington that 2,800 troops are to be withdrawn from Cuba and the number of military departments reduced to two.

Treasurer of the United States Roberts said the distribution of internal revenue receipts to the first group of banks would be completed in about eight days.

Why He Named Werner.

ALBANY, Jan. 3.—Governor Roosevelt has stated that he took special pleasure in designating Justice William E. Werner as an associate justice of the court of appeals as a well earned recognition of the services he rendered as presiding justice at the sessions of the special grand jury which indicted violators of the election law in New York city at the late election. The governor said that it was a very difficult matter to secure convictions in cases of this character. In this instance, with 40 indictments and 20 convictions, some of the offenders receiving terms as long as five years, the work of Judge Werner was deserving the highest commendation.

Diamond Robber Identified.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 3.—Jerome Desclo, a jeweler of Washington, has identified Charles E. Hoyt, now at the Central police station, as a member of the gang which robbed his store of a tray of diamonds valued at $3,000 on March 16, 1897. Hoyt was brought to Pittsburg from Boston by Detective Charles C. McGovern last Saturday and is supposed to have been implicated in the diamond robbery at A. E. Seidle's store in this city about a month ago, in which a tray of diamonds was stolen. Hoyt says the diamonds are in a "fence" in Brooklyn, of which he gave the address, but denied complicity in the robbery.

Favorable to Diaz.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 3.—A plebiscite of citizens of the republic was had yesterday regarding candidates for the presidency in the term to begin next December, and a heavy vote was cast in this vicinity. An immense preponderance of the votes favored the candidacy of President Diaz. The result of the plebiscite will be announced at the meeting of the national convention of the Liberal party. There was no disorder at any of the hundreds of polling places, and good feeling prevailed.

Big Gas Well on Fire.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 3.—The big Painter gas well, belonging to the Mountain State Gas company of this city, located in Ritchie county, has accidentally caught fire, and all efforts to extinguish the flames have been futile. Millions upon millions of feet of gas is going to waste, and the financial loss will be enormous. The roar from the burning gas can be heard 12 miles, and the fire illuminates the whole surrounding country.

Tried to Poison the Family.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 3.—Agnes Utley, a negro girl, was lodged in jail here on the charge of attempting to poison the family of Richard C. Batchelor, a merchant, for whom she had been cooking, by putting a box of matches into the coffee. The girl had been discharged for refusing to properly perform some household work, and it is supposed she put the matches into the coffeepot for revenge.

Ice Bridge at Niagara.

BUFFALO, Jan. 3.—An ice bridge has formed in the gorge at Niagara Falls just above the upper steel arch bridge, but it is doubtful whether it will develop strength enough to bear any considerable weight. Superintendent Welch says it is the earliest bridge that has formed within his recollection, although bridges have formed between Jan. 8 and 10. The ice scenery in the park is the finest in years.

Fatal Waterback Explosions.

BRIDGETON, N. J., Jan. 3.—The waterback in the home of Samuel Cossaboon exploded yesterday, blowing the range to atoms and wrecking the kitchen. A baby asleep in a cradle was instantly killed. Tilly Hogate, who was terribly injured by the explosion of a waterback in the home of William Bennett, is dying.

The Massachusetts Speakership.

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—After a sharp and vigorous campaign, beginning over a year ago, the speakership of the lower branch of the legislature of 1900 was decided yesterday by the nomination at the Republican caucus of James J. Myers of Cambridge.

Summer Residence Burned.

BENNINGTON, Vt., Jan. 3.—The Lodge, the summer residence of former Senator Legrand C. Tibbetts in the adjoining town of Hoosac, N. Y., has been burned. The property was insured for $30,000, but that amount will not cover the loss.

Surplus of Twenty-one Millions.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The comparative statement of receipts and expenditures of the government shows that for the first half of the current fiscal year there was a surplus of $21,026,934.83 in receipts over disbursements.

NIXON FOR SPEAKER.

New York Legislature Chooses Its Officers.

ALBANY, Jan. 3.—The Republican assembly caucus last night was presided over by James T. Rogers of Broome. The following nominations, all of which were confirmed by election today, were made:

Speaker, S. Fred Nixon of Chautauqua; clerk, A. E. Baxter of Chemung; principal doorkeeper, Thomas F. Murphy of New York city; first assistant doorkeeper, Charles R. Houghtaling of Albany; second assistant doorkeeper, Roswell B. Warren of Washington; stenographer, H. C. Lammert of Kings.

The Democratic caucaus of assemblymen made these nominations:

Speaker, J. Franklin Barnes of Schuyler; sergeant-at-arms, Jeremiah Burns of New York; clerk, William Leonard of New York; doorkeeper, Thomas J. Barry of New York; first assistant doorkeeper, Henry Christie of Rockland; second assistant doorkeeper, Dennis McTighe of Erie; stenographer, Caleb Redfern of New York.

Open Door in China Assured.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Secretary Hay was able to lay before the president and the cabinet at the regular meeting the gratifying information that of the six foreign nations questioned by the state department concerning the preservation of American commercial interests in China five had responded in a manner satisfactory to the United States. The fifth answer, that of Russia, was received yesterday. Italy is now the only country that has not sent a reply, but with the great powers of Europe united in acquiescence in the request of this government it is likely that she will find it to her interest to follow their example.

Thick Ice In the Hudson.

RHINECLIFF, N. Y., Jan. 3.—The cold wave which entered the Hudson valley a week ago still holds sway. The ice in the river opposite this place is from five to six inches thick and of a fine quality. The Consumers' Ice company and the many private concerns along the upper Hudson are preparing to commence operations. It is estimated that nearly one-third of the ice stored last winter still remains in the houses. Iceboats have made their appearance. Several owners of yachts are out with their boats enjoying the sport.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORUE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

325 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance.
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district
Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., JAN. 3 1900

COMING EVENTS.

January 6—Social conference of leaders in boys' department of Y. M. C. A.

January 7. Wm. D. Murray will speak and Douglas Lane, tenor soloist at the Orpheus of the Messiah, will sing at Y. M. C. A. rally at 4:15 p. m.

Jan. 8—Meeting of Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A.

A Banker's Opinion.

Under the heading "What Bankers say of 1 99" Saturday's New York Mail and Express devotes several columns to the opinions of bankers relative to the record of 1899 for material prosperity. One of these important papers written by Former Mayor L. V. F. Randolph, of East Front str et, president of the Atlantic Trust Company, of New York, considers the past year one of the most important of the century. Progress in inventions and mechanical arts has been made at a marvellous rate, and the world has progressed in material wealth at a rate not less wonderful. In America, especially, a degree of prosperity has been developed heretofore unknown. Mr. Randolph has recently returned from a journey of nearly 5,000 miles, and he finds everywhere an unsurpassed prosperity. He refers to the enormous consumption of steel, iron and coal, activity in the market for live stock and the outlook for good crops as bases for these prosperous conditions. The increase of our exports over imports, the past enlargement of industrial enterprises, the consolidation of many of these and the war in South Africa are subjects discussed by the ready pen of this able financier, who closes his article with this pleasant outlook: "With peace and prosperity at our doors, we may rejoice and be thankful, and go forward to still higher and better conditions."

For pure editorial "guessing" the New Jersey editor of the New York Press can hold his own with any journalist in these parts. Witness his latest:

Movemen s for the consolidati n of towns into cities when clipped of political significance appeal favorably to the people. The proposed wedding of Westfield, Cranford and Garwood is one of these. A city between Elizabeth and Plainfield would prove a prop to each in a commercial sense, and must prove an economical venture because of the necessary reduction of government officials.

This proposed municipal wedding, or whatever you may term it, is as mythical as any Mother Goose tale ever read by credulous child. If a man is seeking a life job with no hope of ever succeeding in it, let him undertake to become match maker for the "wedding of Westfield, Cranford and Garwood."

The Republican Senators are to caucus at Trenton tomorrow. There will be little friction in the gathering, as it is pretty well settled just how the plums are to be apportioned. Senator Johnson, of Bergen, will be president and Senator Pitney, will be the leader on the floor of the Senate. Augustus Barber, of Gloucester, will again be secretary, and J. Frank Lindsay, of Morris, will be assistant secretary. The journal clerk will go to Atlantic county, and Senator Miller, of Salem, wants to land one of his constituents as sergeant at-arms.

The will of the late John I Blair who was rated as sixty times a millionare, which made but few bequests of a charitable or public nature—the great bulk of the estate being kept within the members of his immediate household—is regarded with kindly favor from the standpoint of the State. If Mr. Blair's will was probated in New York State, the heirs would have to pay an Inheritance Tax of $3 000 000. But New Jersey, always favorable to the big money interests, will collect no taxes from the lineal heirs.

Without going through that modern process known as "booming," the fund being raised for the benefit of the family of the late General Lawton has almost reached three times the sum that it was originally intended to raise by public subscription. It speaks volumes for the appreciation and generosity of the American people towards as brave and noble a soldier as ever fought under the Stars and Stripes.

In carrying his crusade straight into the temples of justice, where liquor licenses are either granted or refused, Rev. Mr. Shott, of Scotch Plains, is a reformer that sticks to the last. Whatever else they may say of this ministeral crusader, no one can say that he is not possessed of plenty of perseverance.

President Smith ought to have a veritable bed of roses in his occupancy of the Councilmanic Presidency—with all the members of the distinguished body of one political persuasion. But too much harmony sometimes leads to unpleasant results. Let us hope otherwise, however.

Governor Voorhees is at work putting the finishing touches on his message. The G vernor's message will contain about 8 000 words, and will be chiefly a resume of the reports of the various State departments. It will contain no important recommendations.

Mr. Platt will crack the whip and the Legislature of New York will start on its annual work of running the New York city government from Albany.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

Commuters on the Lackawanna road say they are surprised at Anthony Comstock's ignorance of Hoyle. "We play whist, which bears as close a resemblance to poker as Mr. Comstock does to a game marker," said one daily traveler yesterday "Besides if the question was raised as to the right to play with cards on a train I believe the players could win. The owners of the train possibly have the privilege of according concessions to patrons, even to amusement with cards. Some day we will get this moralist into a game of whist and teach him the diff rence between it and poker, and also how pleasureable it is to rub up against men who are not always trying to make others miserable."

* * * * *

Considering the matter from every point it can be said that the standing committees appointed by President Frank H. Smith at the first meeting of the Common Council last evening are very satisfactory to the majority. There is some dissatisfaction, however, as might be expected. It is impossible for a single person to give entire satisfaction in this respect, but President Smith is considered to have used excellent judgment in the main. The committees composed of five members each are of course the strongest. It seems, however, that there should be five members on the police committee, as well as the fire, for it is every bit as important. One of the new members, Mr. Gloak, is on this committee, with Mr. Buckle as chairman and Mr. Dumont as a third member. The latter can scarcely be called a new man, having served the city so many years. It no doubt will be a good working committee.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

Enjoy the good things of life and see "The Sleeping City" at the Music Hall Friday night. This up-to-date comedy-drama has a particularly interesting story of New York life after dark that is further away from conventionality than other plays of this kind, and the various roles are consistent and in touch with nature It has a plot of thrilling interest, keen humor, a scenic completeness and beauty is seldom equalled, and a corps of players whose abilities have been proven in many ways. Every detail in "The Sleeping City" is carefully looked after, and it is given a most creditable production under Manager A Q Scammon's direction. Musical specialties, including all the latest in songs and dances, are features of every performance. Reserved seats can be secured at box office.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

George F. Coard, of East Ninth street, left today for Amherst College after spending the Christmas vacation at home.

THERE IS A CLASS OF PEOPLE

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over ¼ as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15c. and 25c. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? Not Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

. . . THURSDAY . . .
Anniversary Specials.

70 in Bleached Table Linen, 75c value	50c yd
63 in ½ Bleached German Damask	39c yd
18 x 33 Bleached Huck Towels, hemmed	10c ea
8.50 Melbourne Blankets, 11-4	6.75 pr
All our 3.00 Satine Covered Comfortables	2.48 ea
" " 4.00 Down Comfortables	3.25 ea
" " 5.00 " "	4.25 ea
" " 36 in 12c Percales	10c yd
" " Amoskeag Apron Ginghams	5c yd
" " 50c Corsets	39c ea
" " Ribbed Corset Covers, wing sleeve	25c ea
" " 50c Cambric Corset Covers	39c ea
" " 1.25 Porcelain Clocks	98c ea
Odds and Ends in Ladies' Ribbed Underwear	25c
2.65 Brilliantine Waists, black	1.98
Odd Lot of 3.00 Separate Skirts to close	1.98

ALL FURS AT A SACRIFICE.

CHILDREN'S SILK HOODS AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES : : : :

Carpet Store Specials.

1.25 White Lace Curtains, 3⅓ yards long, beautiful patterns	98c pr
4.00 Moquette Rugs, 3 x 6	3.50 ea
White Corrugated Cottage Rod, with trimmings complete	25c ea
Special lot of 25c Oil Cloth, 6-4 width only	15c sq. yd

Basement Specials.

25c Wash Boards	15c
59c Wash Boards	42c
Best Fibre Water Pails	21c
" Cedar Water Pails	21c
13 in Maple Chopping Bowls	7c
Tampico Scrub Brushes	8c
All Bristle Scrub Brushes	16c
Wood Rim Flour Sieves	8c
70 ft. Clothes Lines	8c
7.00 Oak or Im. Mahogany Morris Chairs, with Velour Cushions	4.98

Your Choice of 6 styles of Rockers with Velour Seat, Leather Seat or Saddle Seat, regular 3.25, 3.48 and 3.98 chairs,

At $2.98.

TERMS FOR ALL SPECIALS - CASH.

Trading Stamps with each Cash Purchase.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,
234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

FINE MERINO UNDERWEAR,
Suited to this Weather,
SOLD AT PECK'S.

Salaried Position Offered :-
- to a -
Bright, Active, Reputable Young Man,
as Manager of
A Live Up-to-date Newspaper and Trade Journal.
Experience Not Necessary . . .
Apply to . . .
SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

An Annual . .
. . Clearing Sale

of our entire stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's suits, reefers, overcoats, ulsters and heavy-weight trousers begins this Saturday and will last for a short time only.

All MEN'S OVERCOATS that were sold at 7.00 and 8.00, clearing sale price 4.75 and 4 75.

All MEN'S OVERCOATS that we sold from 8.50 to 10.00, clearing sale price 5 50.

350 extra fine OVERCOATS, former prices from 12.00 to 15.00, clearing sale price 6 50 and 7 00.

MEN'S ULSTERS reduced from 7.00 to 4.50.

Best Shamrock IRISH FRIEZE ULSTERS, reduced to 6.50, former price 12.00.

1,000 Men's and Youth's heavy weight suits of all descriptions, styles and qualities, which we must and will sell regardless of cost or value. 5.00 suits to be sold at 2 75. 7.50 suits to go at 4 50. 10.00 suits to go at 5 75, and all others in proportion. Children's Suits at 1.00, worth 2.00. 2.50 Child's Suits to go at 1.45.

2,000 pairs of Men's Trousers to be included in this sale at 1.00, 1.50, 2.00 and 2.25. Boys' Knee Pants with double seat and double knees at 20c.

Men's fleece lined underwear at 30c, worth 50c. Men's winter caps at 15c. Working shirts at 15c, and thousands of more bargains at this great clearing sale. Call early and avoid the great Saturday rush.

Will Pay Carfare to all Buyers of Clothing.

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Wieda's
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
Manufactured at the Premises, 144 West Front st. Phone, 1182.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use
REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT.
Made only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,
At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.
Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.
at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

THE BOOT SHOP
AROUND THE CORNER

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.
Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.
Capital, $150,000.
Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.
CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.
DIRECTORS.
Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson.
H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold.
J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J. B. Coward.
General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, January 3.—Louis Neal, who made his home with the Blair family at New Market, was found dead in bed early Sunday morning. Heart disease is the supposed cause of death. He was about 50 years of age and a laborer by occupation.

R S Fisher, the new station agent, moved his family to this place yesterday. He will occupy the Martine house on Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wiegand spent New Year's at the home of Mrs. Wiegand's father, Randolph Clawson, of Church street.

Skating on New Market pond is fine and many of the younger set avail themselves of the opportunity.

The Board of Education met last evening at the Whittier school building.

The public schools of the borough resumed the winter session.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Jan. 3.—The second Literature Society of the Baptist Young People's Society will resume its weekly meetings in the church parlors this evening. At the close of the evening study the society will hold a business meeting for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year.

The granting of E. L. Hand's license at the county court yesterday was what the majority of people in town had expected, as Mr. Hand has the reputation of conducting one of the best and most orderly hotels through this section. The League consider that it has gained an encouraging victory by having Carroll's license laid over for one week and a hard fight will be put up to have the license refused.

Albert Hollingsworth, who has been spending his holiday vacation with his father, Lofius Hollingsworth, has returned to his studies at Lehigh University.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott T. Collins, of Brooklyn, have been the guests of Mr. Collins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Collins, of Fanwood.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Morey and child have returned from a short vacation spent with Mr. Morey's parents at Syracuse, N. Y.

Miss Sadie Reger has returned from a week's visit with her parents at Succasunna, Morris county.

John Patterson, of Morris Plains, is spending several days in town with old friends.

A young daughter has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs Ernest Clark.

Ernest Marsh is detained at home suffering from a severe cold.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, Jan. 3—The Central Railroad has detailed an officer to keep the Westfield station clear of loungers and to find out who breaks the electric lights in the tunnel under the tracks.

The skating on the river at Cranford is excellent, and is being taken advantage of by people from all the towns along the railroad.

The C & C. Electrical Works at Garwood were opened again today, after the stock-taking was finished.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad service is to be improved at Roselle when the next schedule goes into effect.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Sara Richards, of East Front street, went back to her studies at Smith College this morning.

Everett J. Peck, of Myrtle avenue, returned to his studies at Lehigh University yesterday afternoon.

Orville T. Waring, of Willow avenue, returned last night to his studies at the University of Pennsylvania.

Miss Hattie Goddard, of East Ninth street, left this morning for Wellesley College after spending her vacation at home.

William Rushmore, of Park avenue, left today to resume his studies at Amherst College after the Christmas holiday.

William A. Townsend, of Myrtle avenue, left yesterday afternoon for Bethelehem to resume his studies at Lehigh University after the Christmas vacation.

Bon Ami

The Finest Cleaner

MADE. IT WILL NOT SCRATCH OR WEAR ANY SURFACE, YET IT CLEANS THE DIRTIEST PERFECTLY.

A NEW YEAR PROPOSAL.

"What resolutions have I vowed to keep the coming year?
Come, sit beside me, maiden fair, and straightway you shall hear:
I've pledged myself to choose one girl from out the throng so gay,
And live her with an honest love forever and for aye.
I'll work for her with brain and brawn, with all my might and main,
Until I've won her everything that honesty can gain;
I'll fill her life with all that's good, till life itself is done—
And while we train our minds and hearts we'll not neglect the fun.
Now tell me, won't you, maiden fair, what you have vowed to do—
For I've laid bare my inmost soul to no one but to you?"
"I've made no pledges," she replied in so demure a tone,
"But, if you don't object, I'll try to help you keep your own!"
—Wallace Dunbar Vincent, in Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for January.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Edward Wrage, of Hillier & Co.'s, has recovered from a slight illness.

Jack Hall, of Madison avenue, has renturned to his studies at Harvard.

Fred Adams, of Newark, visited his parents in Netherwood New Year's Day.

George Moore, of East Fifth street, who has been ill for a long time, is no better.

Frank Whiteside, of the News staff, has been visiting his relatives in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Armstrong and son, Howard, of Brooklyn, are visiting Plainfield relatives.

Miss Beatrice Miner, of East Sixth street, is confined to her home with the mumps.

Mrs. Paul Symons, of East Third street, has entirely recovered from a recent illness.

B. A. Hegeman, Jr., of West Seventh street, is detained at home by an attack of the grip.

Miss Sadie Brown, of New York, has been visiting the Misses Blimm, of Somerset street.

Edward Brown, of New York, who has been visiting Plainfield relatives, has returned home.

Miss Ellen E. Osgood, of Myrtle avenue, started this morning for Smith College after the holiday vacation.

Mrs Harry Lowrie and daughter, of Philadelphia, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Lowrie, of Park avenue.

Sunday last a bright baby boy arrived at the home of Mr and Mrs. Herbert Holder, West Fourth street.

Mrs. Stack, of Poughkeepsie, who has been visiting her son, Fred Stack, of Park avenue, has returned home.

E. C. Mulford, of East Fifth street, whose illness has extended over a long period, remains about the same.

Miss Lou Croson, of West Fourth street, has returned to her position at the local telephone office, after a brief vacation.

Miss Edith Hulburt, of West Front street, who has been quite ill for some time past, has had a relapse, and is not so well.

Harry Pennoyer, of Orchard place, has returned from a western business trip and is spending the holiday season at his home.

Miss Amy G Burt, of West Seventh street, has returned to her studies at the Centinary Collegiate Institute at Hackettstown.

W. Ellery C. Leonard, principal of the High School at Wrentham, Mass., is a guest at the home of F. E. Marsh, of Madison avenue.

Charles Davis, of Park avenue, has returned to his studies at the University of Pennsylvania, after spending the holidays at home.

Miss Helen L. Hall, of Wellesley College, returned to her studies this morning after spending her vacation at her home in this city.

Dr. Daniel Main, of the Hahneman Hospital, Philadelphia, who has been visiting his parents in this city, returned to his duties yesterday.

Miss Constance Patten, of West Fifth street, left this morning to return to her studies at Smith College after spending her vacation at home.

Charles Bowden, of this city, has gone to Philadelphia to transact some business for his brother, Fred Bowden, who is now with Uncle Sam's men in Cuba.

Mrs. W. C. Chamberlain and daughter, Lottie, of East Third street, who were burned so terribly a few weeks ago, are now steadily improving and their recovery is assured.

Ernest H. and Herbert DeW. Rapalje, of Fairview avenue, have returned to their studies at Rutgers College after spending most of their vacation with their parents in the borough.

George Sorrell, of West Front street, is steadily improving from the effects of his serious accident of a few months ago, when his leg was fractured in two places, and is able to get about very well with the aid of crutches.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders.

—Look at L. W. Randolph's display of licorice in his drug store window.

—Yale University will reopen next Tuesday after the Christmas vacation.

—Stanley, the North avenue florist, furnished the flowers at the funeral of Arthur D. Pearson.

—Next Sunday morning at the Crescent Avenue church the Lord's Supper will be celebrated.

—We are selling the original Gorton salt cod fish cake. They are the finest on the market. Use no other. Rogers.

—This evening there will be a meeting of the Session of the Crescent Avenue church after the prayer meeting.

—Friday evening there will be a preparatory service at the Crescent Avenue church, after which the Session will meet.

—Peck does not need wind to run his business; he puts plenty of steam into it. His sales are full of it. That's why they draw so well.

—James B. Blair, dealer in gents furnishing goods, has still a very good stock to select from of gloves, umbrellas, etc., for New Year's presents.

—The December issue of the Silver Cross contains a very excellent half tone cut of the King's Daughter-Baby Camp building on Johnston's Drive.

—Owing to the fact that there is mumps in the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. R Richards, of East Front street, the regular New Year's Day reception was omitted this year.

—Grapes, pears, apples, Florida and California oranges, nuts, Japanese persimmons and in fact everything in the fruit line can be found at Alex Lusardi's, 211 West Front street.

—The Queen City Laundry, Park avenue and Fourth street, Miller building, is doing good work and building up a large trade. Give them a trial and you will be satisfied with the work they do.

—At the regular meeting of Martha Washington Council, No. 23 Daughters of America, last evening, the recently elected officers were installed by Associate State Vice Councilor Mrs. Tillie S. Riker, of this city.

—If you have frequent headaches and get no relief from ordinary remedies, have your eyes examined. Our examination is thorough and free of charge. Stiles & Co., eye specialists, at 107 East Front street, every Thursday. Hours, 10 30 to 4.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

P. L. Smith, of Hackettstown, was the guest over New Year of friends in Plainfield.

Miss Hannun, of Chester, Pa., is the guest of Miss Elsie Martin, Hillside avenue.

Miss Kennedy, of Brooklyn, is a guest of Miss Saidee Mae Howell, of Myrtle avenue.

Miss Nellie Schutt, of New York, is the guest of Miss Aimee Emmons, of Prospect place.

Miss Karolyn Kampman, of Sandford avenue, left this morning for Wellesley College.

Arthur Peck, of Myrtle avenue, returned yesterday to his studies at Lehigh University.

Miss Pauline Denton, of Washington avenue, has returned from a visit with Brooklyn relatives.

Miss Mabelle Phillips, of Madison avenue, returned this morning to her studies at Wellesley College.

Frank Reeder, Jr., of Lafayette College, was the guest yesterday of E Maxwell Honeyman, Grove street.

District Deputy Grand Master T. C Smith and staff will visit the Odd Fellows lodge at Millstone tomorrow evening to install the officers.

Miss Mary Ward, of Newark, returned home yesterday afternoon after spending several days with Miss Eleanor Williams, of West Seventh street.

J. Vincent Rittenhouse, of East Sixth street, has returned to Lehigh University after spending his Christmas vacation in Plainfield and Morris Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. John Toomer, Mr. and Mrs Warren Marsh, Mrs. John Bonner, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Ayres, and Mr. and Mrs. William Murray, all of Hartford, Conn., returned to their homes today after a family gathering at the home of Randolph Marsh, of Plainfield avenue.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

LONG KNOWN AND MUCH USED.

Randolph's Glycerine of Arnica.

for Cold Wind Chaps, Rough Skin and all Irritations of the Skin.

.....QUICK RELIEF GIVEN.....

25c per bottle -:- -:-

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for TELEPHONE CALL 10

Lowney's and Whitman's Chocolates and Chocolate Bon-Bons.

THIS IS THE TIME

to protect your feet from the cold and damp---We can shoe you with reliable shoes at a small cost.

VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.

Repairing Properly Done.

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.

Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

ANOTHER STORY.

How Young Vanderbilt Came to Get That $6,000,000.

The real motive for the Vanderbilt will settlement is suggested by an inconspicuous little item tucked away under a single line head in the railway news department of a morning paper. It relates that in a recent order for new locomotives, placed by the New York Central Road, it was required that the engines be equipped with the several devices invented and patented by young Cornelius Vanderbilt, and incorporated under his personal direction in an engine which has had a thorough working test during the past two months.

The story came to me at second or third hand, so the precise language of a very interesting interview cannot be given, yet the essential points can be vouched for as correct.

When the cables to Japan were quivering in their ocean depths with the urgent messages which sought young Alfred Vanderbilt for days after his father's death, two lawyers met at lunch at the Lawyers' Club, in the Equitable Building, and proceeded in a friendly manner to discuss a bottle of red wine, much superior to the "fine old crusty vin ordinaire" of the story—and some other things.

They represented interests which were antagonized by the Vanderbilt will. The one whose client's interests it would be to maintain the will said to the other: "What are we going to do about this?"

The notable reply of the other was this, in effect: "You people must give up handsomely. I know your argument: that the will was drawn by the best legal talent in town is straight as a steel rail and cannot be broken. I would admit that if you would compel us to attack it on questions of law, which would be determined by a Court. But we won't. It is easy to involve in our attack questions of fact which would require a jury trial. Where would you be before a jury? Now, I have not talked to a jury—neither have you—these 20 years, but there are some bright young men in my office who are in fine jury training. I'd put one of them in for the talking. What would he do? He'd get just exactly anything we wanted. Our client, who devoted his time to hard work in the machine shops of his father's road, was cut off because he married the girl he loved. Your client, when his father was dying, was wasting his time in the futile tea houses of Yokohama, lured by the blasted eyes of an unchristian Geisha girl. You see my point. Let me fill your glass."

All the world knows what the settlement was: Alfred gave out of his portion a fortune, which 20 years ago would have made its possessor famous. Also it is remembered that young Cornelius, although in every other respect silent as to the settlement, denied with some heat, for so cool a youngster, the story that his portion was a "gift" from Alfred.—Phil. North American.

Parnell's Home.

The fund for the redemption of the Parnell Homestead is completed. If the amount asked for had been $50,000 instead of $10,000, it could easily have been raised in New York city alone. The home will be in the hands of trustees for the people of Ireland, to whom it will revert when the surviving members of the Parnell family die out. But the friends of Parnell are not content in merely saving Avondale, but are determined to honor his memory and fittingly commemorate his great services on behalf of the Irish nation and its descendants here and elsewhere, by erecting a beautiful monument in Dublin, the city of his fondest hopes.

Berry's Pride All Gone.

Berry Wall, the "king of the dudes," has been sued for $144, the amount of his dressmaker's bill. Worse than that, a jury gave judgment for the amount. It looks as if Wall does not care to enable his wife to sustain her position as "queen of the dudes," even at moderate cost. Where is his royal pride?—Pittsburg Dispatch.

GREAT CANAL OPEN.

The Chicago Drainage Ditch Flooded With Water.

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—The $33,000,000 canal, at present used for sewage disposal, but ultimately to be a ship canal also, is in use after seven years of hard work by the trustees of the sanitary district, which is the name of a corporation including the larger part of the city of Chicago and many of its suburbs. At last the Chicago end of it is in use, but the water has not yet reached the other end, at Lockport, Ills., and will not reach it for several days.

Probably never before has the completion of a public work of such magnitude been marked with such absolute lack of ceremony. There were no speeches, no exercises and no cheering. About 8 a. m. the sanitary district trustees and engineer gathered at the scene. Besides a few workmen, there were not a dozen spectators present. There was no grand rush of water, to be followed by the cheers of spectators. Indeed, the opening of the canal resembled more the tiny stream of water that flowed over the Holland dike and grew larger and larger until it swept a great hole in the wall of earth. That is the way the great canal opened. This method was used to avoid the danger of a sudden rush of waters, but it robbed the opening of all impressiveness.

The canal had been built to carry 300,000 cubic feet a minute, but only about 50,000 feet a minute will be admitted until the channel is full.

The Philippine Commission.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—President Schurman will not return to the Philippines with the other members of the Philippine commission when that body goes back to Manila on account of his duties at Cornell. Admiral Dewey's return is also more than doubtful. Mr Denby and Professor Worcester will remain on the commission after it completes the report upon which it is now engaged and will return to Manila to aid in the establishment of civil government.

A Convention Preview.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 3.—According to the Cleveland Leader, information received by it from a source second only to President McKinley and Senator Hanna is to the effect that not only will Senator Hanna be the chairman of the next Republican national committee, but will be both the temporary and permanent chairman of the Republican national convention.

Crew All Lost Save One.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Jan. 3.—The schooner Puritan was driven ashore on Cabot island in a heavy gale Monday and eight out of her crew of nine were lost. Six were married men with families. The survivor broke his arm. It is feared that other disasters will be chronicled within a day or two as the results of the same gale.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair; fresh westerly winds.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—FLOUR—State and western quiet, but a little better in tone; winter patents, $3.55a3.75; winter straights, $3.35a3.45; Minnesota patents $3.80a4.05; winter extras, $2.55a2.90.

WHEAT—No. 2 red opened firm on cables and was further advanced on prospects of a visible supply decrease and light offerings; March, 75a76¼c.; May, 75 1-16a75⅝c.; July, 75⅛a75¼c.

RYE—Steady; state, 56c.; No. 2 western, 60¾c., c. i. f., Buffalo.

CORN—No. 2 was quiet, but firmer, with wheat and on cables.

OATS—No. 2 slow; track, white, state 31a34¼c.; track, white, western, 31a34¼c.

PORK—Steady; mess, $10a10.50; family $12a12.50.

LARD—Strong; prime western steam $6.15, nominal.

BUTTER—Strong; state dairy, 20a27c.; state creamery, 23a29c.

CHEESE—Firm; fall made, fancy small, 12¾a13c.; fall made, fancy, large, 12¾a13c.

EGGS—Firm; state and Pennsylvania, 24a25c.; western, ungraded, at mark, 15a22c.

SUGAR—Raw steady; fair refining 3 13-16c.; centrifugal, 96 test, 4¼c.; refined steady; crushed, 5 3-16c.; powdered, 5¼c.

RICE—Quiet; domestic, 4a6½c.; Japan 4¼a5c.

TALLOW—Steady; city, 5c.; country 4¼a5c.

HAY—Quiet; shipping, 65a75c.; good to choice, 80a85c.

Jamaica Have Hopes.

Ice has formed to a good thickness on the pond at Waicoung, and there is a broad smile on the face of the women in that vicinity who have hopes of realizing their fondest ambition.

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.

Commencing Tuesday Evening, January 3rd, and continuing until further notice, this store will close at 6 o'clock every evening excepting Saturday.

We would respectfully ask the patrons of this house to make their purchases before 6 o'clock so that our salespeople can have their evenings free from duty and be enabled to render more prompt and efficient service during business hours.

UNDERWEAR

At Mill Prices : : :

If you could deal direct with the maker he would not be able in most cases to quote you better prices than we will tomorrow.

50c Men's heavy, thick wool, fleeced underwear in natural gray shades, worth 75c.

75c Men's fine natural wool underwear, very soft and heavy, a regular 1.00 quality.

1.00 Men's natural grey underwear, well made and handsomely trimmed, very fine heavy quality, finely knitted and very soft, well worth 1.25.

1.50 Men's extra heavy camels hair underwear, double breasted and well made, remarkable value.

25c Women's ribbed underwear, made of fine Egyptian cotton, good weight and very heavily fleeced, worth 39c

39c A little lot of women's ribbed vests (no drawers to match) in a good shade of blue grey, about half wool and heavily fleeced, worth 69c.

50c Women's fine ribbed combination suits, half wool and heavy fleece lined, reduced from 1.00.

Blankets and Comfortables.

We offer astonishing values in blankets and comfortables.

2.98 Blankets 81 x 90 inches, weight 5 pounds, nearly all wool, that are worth 4.00.

3.98 Blankets extra large and heavy, made of California wool, very soft and downy, that are worth 5.00.

1.25 Extra large size comfortables filled with fine white cotton and covered with fine silkaline nicely tufted, the actual value is 1.75.

3.48 Fine eiderdown filled comfortables covered with a splendid quality of French satin and worth 4.50.

After Christmas.

We're getting ready to inventory. This the season for Broken Lots and probably Broken Prices. We have found one lot already that has got to go. We sold it for $10.00. You can buy it now for $8.50.

OVERCOATS . . .

are now in order, $5.00, $7.50, $10, $12, $13.50.

ULSTERS - - $4.50, 5.50.

Schepflin & Schultz,

CLOTHIERS.

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

VELVET HATS, Tam Crowns, 1.49 & 1.69.

Bonn's 140 West Front St.

TRIMMED VELVET FELT HATS 2.98.

A LINED PETTICOAT, made of satteen, with a wide flounce and four ruffles, for - - - $1.89.

WARM SHIRT WAISTS, made of good quality flannelette, pretty designs, all sizes, for - - 49c.

Advertised Mail Matter.

JANUARY 2, 1900.

Althouse, Mr W H
Barber, Mr A
Brown, Mrs B
Carrington, Miss Louise
Corbie, Mrs J E
Cook, Mrs
Freeman, Mr and Mrs C D
Frey & Co., N J
Gilson, Miss Annie
Green, Mrs H G
Harper, Mrs George
Hoffman, Mrs Francis
Hurst, Mr C N
Jaeger, Miss
Jansen, Mrs
Kunz-eman, Mrs Pierce
Lane, Mr Norman
McCoy, Mr John
Mandeville, William
Mann, Mr and Mrs Emilie T
Miller, Mr Fred
Paphia Renovating Establishment
O'Brien, Mrs Nellie
Owens, James
Pall, Mrs W M
Peart, Mr H A
Pizzi, Mr Mich
Pollock, Mr Thos C
Robinson, Miss Grace Dean
Rode, Mr and Mrs A B
Route, James
Rono, Albert
Tanner, Mr P
Williams, Mrs A P
VanNest, Mrs Maggie

E. B. BIRD, Postmaster.

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles.

CARDS and CALENDARS.

We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.

High Grade Cigars.

Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.

B. W. HAND,

205 W. Front Street.

CHAS. L. FORCE,

Architect and Superintendent.

208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 tf

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Provinz Westfalen.

Münster. Ein Denkmal zur Erinnerung an den Westfälischen Frieden stiftet der hiesige Verschönerungsverein mit einem Kostenaufwande von 8000 bis 10,000 Mark. Das Modell liefert Ritter von Zumbusch in Wien, ein geborener Westfale, der auch den Entwurf zur Kaiserstatue des Porta-Denkmals anfertigte.

Dortmund. Der Verkehr auf dem Dortmund-Ems-Kanal ist in fortwährendem Steigen begriffen. Die Zunahme des Gesammtumschlages in den Haupthafenplätzen des Kanals beziffert sich auf circa 70,000 Registertonnen in neun Monaten, eine Zahl, welche für die hohe Bedeutung des Kanals am deutlichsten spricht. Der weiteren Entwickelung des Verkehrs auf dem Kanal ist der Mangel an ausreichendem, entsprechendem Schiffsmaterial sowie das Fehlen der an den Hafenplätzen projektirten Anlagen wie Löscheinrichtungen u. s. w. einstweilen hinderlich, doch werden bereits Maßnahmen getroffen, diesen Mißständen abzuhelfen.

Sachsen.

Dresden. Ein Mitglied der internationalen Einbrecherbande, die vor einigen Jahren zahlreiche mitteleuropäische Städte unsicher machte, wurde hier in der Person des in Griechenland geborenen Peritles Afsenaatos zu sechs Jahren Zuchthaus, zehn Jahren Ehrverlust und polizeilicher Aufsicht verurtheilt. Er war bei Einbrüchen in Dresden, Wien, Graz, Nürnberg, München, Berlin, Marseille und anderen Städten betheiligt.—Der bekannte dänische Herrenreiter Lieutenant Baron Gregers Wedell hat sich in einem hiesigen Hotel erschossen. Der junge Offizier war im Sommer auf einem der kleinen Rennplätze seiner Heimath furchtbar schwer gefallen und hatte sich Verletzungen des Rückenmarks zugezogen, die ihn seitdem an's Krankenlager gefesselt hatten. Alle Kunst der Aerzte vermochte es nicht, die Fortschritte der Zerstörung zu hemmen, wie viel Widerstand die kräftige Natur des Unglücklichen auch leistete.

Chemnitz. Am Vorabend des letzten Sedantages und an diesem selbst kam es hier zu Straßenkrawallen, deren Hauptheilnehmer sich jetzt vor dem Geschworenengericht zu verantworten hatten. Es waren 12, meistens dem Arbeiter- und Handwerkerstande angehörende Personen wegen Aufruhrs angeklagt. Verurtheilt wurden zehn, und zwar zu Strafen von acht Monaten Gefängniß bis zu zwei Jahren Zuchthaus.

Crimmitschau. Im nahen Wahlen hat der Besitzer der großen Lindner'schen Vigognespinnerei, August Lindner, in Folge der andauernd schlechten Konjunktur der Vigognespinnerei sich das Leben genommen. Der Fall macht hier großes Aufsehen.

Lauter. Hier haben das Ehepaar Althoff und drei Kinder bei einem in ihrer Behausung ausgebrachenen Brande den Erstickungstod gefunden.

Leipzig. Die hier verstorbene Privatiere Emma Sieland vermachte der Stadtgemeinde ein Kapital von 100,000 Mark zur Gründung einer Wohlfahrtseinrichtung und weitere 15,000 Mark zur Vermehrung des städtischen Theaterpensionsfonds.—Die Verlagsbuchhandlung von Breitkopf u. Haertel dahier offerirt einen Preis von 1000 Mark für die beste Dichtung und Komposition eines Marineliedes. Als Preisrichter sollen Hermann Bahr, Detlev v. Liliencron, Julius Lohmeyer und Eugen d'Albert fungiren.

Thüringische Staaten.

Apolda. In der Glockengießerei der Firma K. F. Ulrich hier, die in den letzten 20 Jahren über 2000 Kirchenglocken hergestellt hat, ist kürzlich die große 280 Centner schwere Glocke für die Kreuzkirche in Dresden gegossen worden, nachdem bereits vorher die zu diesem Geläute gehörigen vier kleineren Glocken, 360 Centner schwer, hergestellt waren. Der Firma liegen belangreiche Aufträge vor, so ein Geläute von fünf großen Glocken im Gewicht von 1000 Centner für die Gedächtnißkirche der Protestanten in Speyer. Dieses Geläute wird zunächst auf die Pariser Weltausstellung kommen.

Kamburg. Das hiesige Amtsgericht hat gegen einen Engländer Namens York, der in den Dörfern der Umgegend Leute für die britischen Truppen anzuwerben suchte und, als man hinter seine Schliche kam, schleunigst Reißaus nahm, einen Steckbrief erlassen. Auch in anderen Theilen Deutschlands treiben sich solche englische Agenten herum.

Koburg. Als Magistratsrath wählte kürzlich die Stadtverordnetenversammlung den Geheimen Kommerzienrath Freiherrn v. Mayer. Damit ist zum ersten Male ein Israelit in die städtische Korporation gewählt.

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE.
and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

MR. MURPHY'S TROUBLES

His Jewish Neighbors Objected to the Smell of Pork.

John Murphy, a longshoreman, was the only Irishman living in the six-story tenement at 25 Henry street, New York. All the other tenants were Hebrews, but Murphy might have got along peaceably with his fellow tenants had it not been for his love of pork and intense aversion to onions. Ike Lipschitz, a shoestring peddler, lives on the floor beneath Murphy, and loves onions as dearly as Murphy loves pork. It was this difference in tastes that caused the trouble. Several of the Hebrew tenants, headed by Lipschitz, called on Murphy several nights ago.

"Ve are a commiddee," said Lipschitz, "vat gomes to dell you, Mr. Murphy, dat de horrible porg smell py your rooms vas too much. If you don't stob id ve vill pud you owid of der puilding."

"Ho! ho! yer will, will yez?" said Murphy, rubbing his hands at the prospect of a fight. "Thin star-rt in now. It wud cause me intinse pain to do it, but Oi'll tell yez wan thing, and that ain't two, before a Jew, or tin thousand Jews, cud put me out of this building Oi'll lick ivery wan of yez in th' house. And Oi want to say to yez, Ike Lipschitz, if yez cook any more of them inions Oi'll star-rt in at wance. Now, Oi'll give yez wan minoot to git away from me doo-r."

The committee hastily got out of danger, and word went around the neighborhood that trouble was likely to happen in the house at no distant date. It happened early yesterday morning, when Lipschitz arrived home after selling all his shoestrings and began to fry some onions. The odor soon found its way to Murphy's rooms, and soon Lipschitz turned pale as he heard a well-known voice say: "Lave me at him! Oi'll stand it no more."

Lipschitz hastily barricaded his door. It was proof against the kicks administered to it a moment later by Murphy, and the Irishman passed on to the other flats, shouting: "Come out! Come out!

Bewhiskered men, scantily clothed, swarmed into the hallways, armed with sticks, but none of them went within striking distance of Murphy, and when he rushed at them they hastily retreated into their rooms. Windows were thrown up and a chorus of shrill feminine voices shouted: "Bolice! Murder! Vatch!"

Murphy was master of the situation when Policeman Henry of the Madison street station appeared on the scene.

"Begorra!" he cried when he saw the policeman. "If Oi can't find a Jew to whip Oi'll whip a cop."

He rushed for the policeman and both rolled down the stairs, but Henry used his club and Murphy soon subsided.

"I have heard it said that one Irishman can lick four Jews," remarked the Magistrate when the man was arraigned before him in the Essex Market Court. "But I'll fine you $5 just the same."

Murphy's wife paid the fine. "Oi'll move away from the aste side if th' roights of the Oirish can't be rispicted," her husband threatened as he left the court.

Buffalo Hunting in Early Days.

If we may believe the old accounts of buffalo hunting in the period before the advent of the horse, it was not only arduous, but hazardous. We have a picture of it in Pere Marquette's journal of his expedition to discover the Mississippi River. Like all the Jesuit missionaries who explored the continent in advance of other white men, Marquette gives familiar insight into savage life and ways, and takes pains to record not only his observations of the people, but of the fish and game as well. On his way down the Mississippi River he saw vast herds of pisikious or wild cattle "more corpulent" than the cattle of France, having great humps, and manes which falling over their faces gave them a hideous appearance and obscured their vision. They were scattered over the prairie like herds of cattle. Marquette counted one band of 400. "They are very fierce," he writes, "and not a year passes without their killing some Indian. When attacked they take a man with their horns, if they can, lift him up, and then dash him to the ground, trample on him and kill him. When you fire at them from a distance with gun or bow, you must throw yourself on the ground as soon as you fire and hide in the grass, for if they perceive the one who fired they rush on him and attack him."

This was in 1673, before the firearms brought into the country by the fur traders had become common, and when the usual weapon of the chase was still the bow. Under these conditions we may well understand how the buffalo was a formidable creature, and how the savage who hunted afoot verily took his life in his hands. When horses were acquired by the tribes, and feeble man became a centaur, the situation was changed. From this new apparition the buffalo fled in terror. When the white man appeared on the scene the fear of human kind grew with experience. From the undaunted creatures which, when attacked, "if they perceive the one who fired rush on him and attack him," the game stampeded at the sight of their pursuers; and the most vivid and most lasting picture of the American buffalo as we recall it to-day, is of herds in retreat, a whole species "on the run," enveloped in the dust of the retreat, and vanishing into oblivion.

The Toque.

He saw her new toque,
This reckless old bloque
This active old soque;
By way of a joque,
He feelingly spoque,
"If sudden I woque
And saw that blamed toque
I surely would croque!"
She gave him a poque
And his neck nearly broque,
And he lay on some coque
'Till the man came to stoque
When he said "I'll revoque
That blasted poor joque
I made on the toque!"

The professor was explaining to the top class at girls' high school the theory according to which the human frame is completely renewed every seven years, and addressing one of his pupils, he said: "Thus, Miss A——, in seven years, you will be Miss A—— no longer." "I devoutly hope that may be so," said the young lady demurely, casting down her eyes.

A AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

Yearly Clearance

time has come to this great store. Furniture and carpets at topsy-turvy prices—odd lines, yet new in pattern, and prices at lower marks than we've ever known them!
A great holiday trade left many, many broken lots—all to your profit.

Carpets, too!

Thousands of yards of carpets to go at the cut down prices—a 200-foot floor to show 'em on. Come!
Parlor Suits—over 100 kinds to pick from—beauties all—some are odd ones—all prices.

$9.98
A polished quartered golden oak desk with mirror and two drawers. Worth $14.00.

$18.75
Antique oak bedroom suit. Large French bevel plate mirror. Combination washstand, splasher back. Value $25.00.

$10.98
Solid Oak golden finish, 4 shelves. Value $15.00.

Oil Heaters
A great comfort—cost 1 cent an hour to run. Odorless.

$3.98
High-armed cherry rocker—spindle back. Easily worth $5.00.

$5.49
A fine cherry frame corner seat—silk damask upholstered seat. Value 8.00.

$5.98
Good sized antique oak chiffonier—5 drawers. Value $9.00.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

The wife of a well-known contractor and builder in a town of Northern New Hampshire has for several years suffered from gall stones, and at the time of the passage of one of these she experienced such intense pain that it would generally cause her to take to her bed and remain there sometimes from twenty-four to forty-eight hours. She had taken Ripans Tabules for a stomach trouble and was surprised to note that a Tabule, taken at the time of an approaching paroxysm with the gall stones, lessened the pain. As time went on, and she learned to apply them in season, she found most surprising relief, and her husband lately said: "If it had not been for Ripans Tabules I do not believe she would be alive to-day." He is very careful, indeed, to see to it that the supply of Tabules is never allowed to run low.

When this testimonial was shown to the lady, it having been taken down from her reported sayings, she said the only suggestion she could make regarding it was that it did not give the severity of her case in strong enough terms nor sufficiently express the almost immediate relief she derived from the use of the Tabules. Her husband said he had always been haunted with the fear that for some reason the manufacture of the Tabules might be suspended, because he feels confident he shall never be able to find anything that will take their place.

A new style pocket containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some druggists—NOT FIVE CENTS. This low price—yet it is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen (i. e., five cartons—120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life.
Telephone No. 672

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,
THE GROCER.
Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.
Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

THE MODE.

Street Gowns and Underwear Which Are Most In Favor.

The most elegant of street toilets are of a reserved and sober richness, rather plain, but of beautiful cut and fine materials. The accompanying underwear, however, is of the most luxurious description, being all of the finest handwork, trimmed with real lace. The present exceedingly clinging style of gown necessitates the suppression of all bulky trimming on underwear, and it is now reduced to the minimum volume. Ruffles are proscribed, and instead of heavy linen and muslin thin batiste, cambric and lawn are used. The decorations are fine and flat, so that it does not form lumps which are visible under the gown. Sometimes the lace, which is chiefly valenciennes, is of the saffron hue, and in that case, if the initials are embroidered on the garment, embroidery cotton of the same tint is used.

SKATING COSTUME.

Nightgowns are more voluminously trimmed. They have ruffles and fluffy decorations of various kinds and are sometimes decorated with heavy guipure, which is shaped to the outline of the collar or plastron.

Underbodices are of the simplest form, sometimes being simply a short bolero tied across the bosom. When they have seams and darts, these are sometimes hemstitched.

The picture shows a skating costume which consists of a long polonaise of velvet. It crosses diagonally in front and has a high, flaring collar lined with chinchilla. There is a long revers of chinchilla, and the polonaise is edged with a band of chinchilla. The lining is of quilted satin. The velvet toque has a chinchilla border and is trimmed with a cluster of plumes and a jeweled ornament.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

ACCESSORIES.

Pretty Adornments For the Fashionable Costume.

Costly buckles adorn capes, bodices, collars and hats. Jeweled, enameled and wrought effects are seen, with various odd designs in metal and cameo.

Very large, drumlike muffs promise to be generally revived, after all, although at first such a possibility was indignantly denied by fashion mongers.

Another novelty, which is as old as the hills, is to be launched in the shape of lace mitts for full dress wear again. The models shown are of embroidered tulle and delicate point de venise in black or white, and their special purpose is for wear at dinners, where short sleeves are required; as long gloves cause so much trouble in putting off and on.

FORMAL TOILET.

Feathers this season are often very complex and do not rely upon their own beauty alone for attractiveness. They are shaded, spangled and jeweled in various ways. One of the newest adornments is a line of jewels set along the midrib of the ostrich plume. This adds great richness, and such plumes are used for trimming the most elaborate hats.

The cut shows a gown of mauve cloth. It has a train, the skirt being trimmed around the foot by little ruches of mauve silk and an incrustation of violet velvet and spangles. The bodice of violet velvet has a sort of skeleton bolero of mauve cloth edged with ruches and embroidered with velvet and spangles. The sleeves match the bolero and are trimmed at the top and wrists with violet velvet. Around the belt is a scarf of white tissue with mauve stripes. The violet velvet toque is trimmed with pink chrysanthemums.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

SEA SOUNDINGS.

Prof. Nathorst Discredits Some of the Depths Recorded.

Just before he sailed for the east coast of Greenland a few weeks ago, Prof. Nathorst, the geologist and Arctic explorer, was asked how it happened that the deep sea soundings which he made last year in the Arctic Ocean differed so largely from those of the Swedish Arctic expedition made in the same waters thirty-one years ago. These soundings were in that part of the sea known as the Swedish deep, between Spitzbergen and Greenland, and the expedition of 1868 believed it reached a depth of 2,650 fathoms. Prof. Nathorst tested this measurement last year and touched the bottom in the Swedish deep a 1,475 fathoms. In other words, the greatest depth he could find in this part of the sea was 7,050 feet less than that recorded thirty years before, which up to this time has figured on the maps as the depth of that part of the ocean.

"This descrepancy is very large," said the professor, "but I believe it may easily be explained. There is no doubt in my mind that it is due to the imperfect methods of sounding employed thirty years ago. The greatest trouble is to know with certainty when the bottom is reached at such depths, and the problem must have been much more difficult thirty years ago than it is now. The lead we used weighed 77 pounds, and its weight was augmented by two sinkers, each weighing 110 pounds, and yet it was by no means easy to tell when the lead touched bottom, for the line still continued to run out on account of its own weight.

"As a check we had to recourse to the watch. Every hundred meter length of the sounding line was marked with a piece of cloth. We timed with the watch the time required for each successive length to cross the gunwale. As soon as the lead touched the bottom the line paid out more slowly, but we could not have detected the fact without the record supplied by the watch. I am certain we were never once mistaken as to the time the lead reached the bottom."

Over Seven Feet.

J. Frank Skinner is seven feet and one-quarter inches tall. He lives in Augusta, Ga. There is nothing remarkable about him except his size which is remarkable, unless it is his unlimited fund of his good nature. He rather enjoys being photographed, even if the camera does betray his difficulty in securing trousers high enough to meet his vest.

(The tall Georgian.)

He is a farmer by occupation, and he smillingly asures you that every thing on the farm grows to a size in proportion to the family. His father, he says, is two inches shorter than he, but his elder brother is some two inches taller.

He weighs 190 pounds and has never been sick in his life. He attributes his statue to hereditary, all his paternal ancestors to the memory of man being seven-footers. The family history shows that any son that failed to reach the height of 6 feet 6 inches was looked down upon in more than one sense.

While there are advantages in such a height, it has its drawbacks as well. For instance, all the beds in the paternal mansion have to be elongated after they come into the house. The house itself had to be built to order, the ceilings higher than is usual and the doors to match. A few inches have to be added to the legs of all the chairs and other similar alterations made. After a few such things the family can settle down to live comfortably.

Speed of a Motor Car.

A motor car in France lately attained the marvelous speed of nearly 66 miles an hour. A Belgium inventor, M. Camille Jenatzy, in April, this year, determined, if possible, to break the kilometer record of 37 3-5 seconds, made by Count de Chasseloup Laubat. The course was a perfectly straight and level road running through the new sewage farm lying off the highway between St. Germain and Constance. The car which Jenatzy rode was the "Jamais Contente," which is built of sheet iron and is torpedo shaped so as to offset as little resistance to the wind as possible. The first kilometer was ridden in 47 4-5 seconds, and the second in 34 seconds, which is equivalent to 105,882 kilometers (65 miles 1,404 yards) in an hour. "La Jamais Contente" is no even yet satisfied, for Jenatzy thinks that he can yet do the flying kilometer at the rate of about 120 kilometers, or about 75 miles an hour.

Women Little Esteemed.

The Korean woman is so little esteemed that she has not even a name. In childhood she has a nickname bestowed upon her, by which she is known to her family and intimate friends, but after she arrives at maturity she is called thus only by her parents. To the rest of the world she is simply "the daughter" or "the sister" of So-and-So.

Women students at the University of Berlin are not allowed to wear their hair in braids down their backs. Two girl students who persisted in doing this were expelled.

SPIDER ARCHITECTS

Plans of the Most Dainty House in the World.

There are few members of the animal kingdom whose work is more marvelous than that of the geometric spider and those related to him. Dr. Henry Laney of Cumberland, Md., who does considerable experimenting along scientific lines for a pastime has lately been studying the theliphonides, a species of spider, that builds its web over the water along streams and rivers, with interesting results.

After securing the web, which, in its natural state, is comparatively invisible for photographic purposes, Dr. Laney proceeded first to make it tenacious by spraying it with an alcoholic solution of shellac from a medical atomizer. Though still comparatively invisible after this treatment the web could be handled with ease, without fear of tearing it. To develop the beautiful work of the spider Dr. Laney with another atomizer sprayed the web with a solution of gallic acid, which made it appear as if frost had settled upon it. The web now seemed to be covered with the morning's dew. To complete the effect Dr. Laney captured the spider, put him in the death box and then coated him with shellac. Deftly placing the insect in the web in a natural position, he was sprayed with gallic acid. Using black velvet as a background, Dr. Laney succeeded in photographing one of the most beautiful and delicate pictures found in nature.

Dr. Laney says: "The spider displays wonderful intelligence and mechanical skill in making these nets. Its instinct is far above that of the ordinary animal; indeed, it quite borders on reason. When a large spider desires to make a web for himself and he has some distance to stretch it, he does not swing himself, as most people suppose, and let the wind or his own momentum take him where it will. He begins his web by starting the first guy very close up to the corner of the angle. He attaches to the other side of the angle making a short guy. Each guy increases in length, the spider always using the last guy made to carry the next one over until he attains the position in which he wishes to place his net. The last guy may be ten feet long and the first one only a foot in length.

"When the guys are all fixed to his satisfaction he proceeds to put in the network by starting from the center, where he attaches his web, then with circular motion traveling from guy to guy, spinning web as he goes and by its natural moisture sticks it to each guy, carefully carrying the web in his hind feet, to prevent it from touching except at the point desired by him. When he has a small distance of the inside completed he goes to the outside of the net and finishes out any irregular part of the net that does not come within the radius of a circle. After the circle has been attained the same rotary motion is kept up until the net is finished to the center.

"Here comes the most comic feature of net building—the test of the durability of the work by the spider himself. As soon as the net is finished he puts every guy through the severest test, by sharp, brisk jerks, seemingly sufficient to tear the whole net to pieces. If he finds the net is not taut, he will go to the end of the guy rope, stretch it until the net suits him and reattach the guy. If the net still seems loose from the center, the guy will be carried from the center to some convenient point, to give the net its proper shape.

"The nets are perched so as to catch mosquitos and small insects. The struggles of the prey generally seriously damage the nets. The spider himself in the morning demolishes the rest of the web for the day, with the exception of the main guy ropes, retires to a secluded quarter and again appears late in the afternoon, about 4:30 or 5 o'clock, and renews his net. It requires him about an hour and a half to construct the ordinary web. This work is done every day, rain or shine, and both male and female spiders are equally industrious. The baby spiders are taught industry, beginning net building right after their birth. While building his net the spider takes no notice of the accumulation of insect life in its meshes, and when his work of building is finished he pounces upon them ravenously, consuming them in toto. You cannot kick or blow these spiders out of their nets, nor can they be taken unawares. When they fall their own net is attached to them, and they can almost touch the water and then quickly run back on the silken string which they spun while falling. The web is always attached to them. When the main guy of the net becomes too full of insect debris for convenience and comfort, the spider goes out, consuming all before him, and at the same time spinning a fine web behind, entirely renewing the guy."—St. Louis "Republic."

An Interesting Dog.

A very interesting dog, which once belonged to the late General Gordon, of the English army, better known as "Chinese Gordon," is being kept at the Gordon Boys' Orphanage, at Dover, England. It is the property of Major Sell, of the King's regiment, who says regarding it: "The dog's name is Wang. When General Gordon was recalled from China to go to Khartoum, about fourteen years ago, he brought three of the rare black Chow puppies back with him, and when he arrived at Gibraltar he gave Wang to Sir John Adle's daughter. Sir John was an old friend of General Gordon, and was then commanding at Gibraltar. Wang remained in the possession of this lady until her husband, who is in the royal artillery, got a staff appointment in London, when he gave the old dog to me. The other two puppies are believed to be dead, so that Wang is the only remaining one that General Gordon owned.

Very nearly as interesting as Wang is the kilted boy who acts as his keeper, Robert Robinson. Three years ago Robert's father turned the starving lad out of doors at Crewe, England. The little fellow tramped from place to place, living as he could. Returning to Crewe he found that his mother was dead and the home that he had been driven from broken up. Tramping again, he eventually got to London, and there a constable found him, a mere bundle of rags and bones, asleep at the foot of the Gordon statue in Trafalgar square. He was eventually taken to the Gordon Boys' home, and as Wang's keeper is one of that institution's most honored inmates.

A RUSH FOR BRIDES.

Why White Men Wish to Wed the Choctaw Maidens.

When the number of marriages performed during the month of November in Indian Territory between Choctaw girls and white men come to be counted up the records promise to develop startling figures. It is estimated that these marriages during the single month will mount up to six thousand.

To uninformed Easterners this lightning lovemaking presents a curious enigma.

To be sure, the Choctaw brides are young, for the most part under twenty, and they are pretty. Their coloring is exquisite—their skin ivory white, their lips red and their hair and piercing eyes as black as night. Nor is their beauty their only attraction, for many of them are well informed and all are intelligent. Moreover, their tastes are domestic, and most of them are, contrary to the traditions of their race, gentle and sunny in temper.

But, unfortunately for the romance of the story, none of these womanly virtues and graces account for the white men's assiduity as suitors. The secret of it is that a prize comes with every Choctaw bride who was won before the first of December. The prize is 1,100 acres of land, 550 for the bride, the same amount for the bridegroom.

This situation was developed in the following fashion:

Every member of the Choctaw tribe has a certain portion of land and money. Hitherto a Choctaw who married outside the tribe has been able to secure the same privilege for wife or husband. But the Dawes Commission recently took it upon itself to announce that after Dec. 1 no person not a Choctaw by blood would be enrolled on the citizenship list.

This meant that no white man who should marry a Choctaw woman after that date would be allowed to share in the possessions of the tribe. Nothing could have proved a stronger incentive to matrimony. The Choctaw girl who now finds herself unwedded will have only herself to thank or blame.

As a protection for the young women of the nation and their attractive dowers the Choctaw laws provide that all white men, before they can be admitted to the tribe, must produce a recommendation of good character from the county Judge of the county where they last resided.

So strictly is this held to that several Choctaw belles are said to have recently refused French and English men of title because they refused to prove their ancestry or to produce the necessary proof of character.

A still stronger evidence of their fastidiousness is that the young women, few of whom are full blooded refuse to marry Indians. This accounts for the good fortune of the white men.

Every Choctaw family will be from this time on wealthy in its own right.

Healthiest Town in America.

The honor of being the healthiest town in the United States, and perhaps in the world, belongs to Millerstown, Pa. The death rate, according to the latest statistics, issued from Washington, gives Millerstown but 1 in every 1,000 inhabitants. The average death for the big towns and cities in the United States runs from 10 in 1,000 up to 20 and even more.

Millerstown has about 2,500 inhabitants. It lies in the Juniata Valley at the base of the Blue Mountains overhanging the Juniata River, about thirty-three miles west of Harrisburg on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The exceedingly healthy condition of the town is largely due to the water supply which is free from pollution. The town is supplied with water from springs which flow into the Juniata River. While it is not claimed that the springs contain medicinal properties the water is transparently pure. The absence of any manufactories or big works keeps the air free from smoke and dirt.

The sanitary arrangements of the town are in excellent condition and receive close attention from the officials.

Intoxicating liquors are almost an unknown quantity, although the town is not prohibition. The people are quite up to date in all their surroundings and occupations.

Mrs. John Jacob Astor.

The wife of John Jacob Astor, who was a Miss Willing, of Philadelphia is called one of the most beautiful married women in the world. Whether she has any other claims to distinction is not stated.

Money Orders That Fail.

In the course of the last year nearly 60,000 money orders failed to reach the payees. The number of such cases increases from year to year, corresponding with the aggregate business. In many cases remitters hold the orders as receipts; in other cases failure to deliver is due to defective address; but the bulk of the loss occurs through the stealing of letters by persons in the employ of the payees or remitters. Whenever loss is reported, whether actual or alleged, a duplicate is drawn promptly, the issue of which makes the original void. In the last year the number of duplicates issued was 46. 63, being an increase over the preceding year of 1,562.

Mrs. Crowley—My husband always tells to make light of things.

Mrs. Ainsley—And yet it is common gossip that he manages to keep you in the dark.—Chicago Times-Herald.

AN AUSTRIAN'S SURPRISE.

Was Bewildered at the Result of the Fight at Santiago Bay.

Capt. Taylor gives an amusing account in the Century of his interview with an Austrian Lieutenant who boarded the Indiana immediately after the fight at Santiago:

He was in full uniform, with a brilliant display of epaulets and gold lace, white waistcoat and trousers. He found us covered with the smoke and dust of battle, groups of half-naked men lining up to salute him as he passed, their face streaked with powder smoke and coal dust. He reached me on the bridge finally in a state of polite bewilderment, and presented his captain's request for permission to pass through our blockading lines and bring out from Santiago Austrian refugees desiring to leave that besieged town. After referring him to Admiral Sampson and telling him he would be found some distance to the westward he asked for news, and I told him we had just come out of action with Cervera's squadron. He showed great surprise and said:

"Then there has been a battle?"

"Yes," I replied.

"And the result?" he asked eagerly.

"We have defeated them."

"But where is the Cervera's fleet now?" he inquired.

"His flagship, the Maria Teresa, is there Lieutenant," I answered, pointing at the same time, to the beach a few miles distant.

"But I see nothing but some smoke.

"It is the smoke of the Teresa burning, Lieutenant; she is a wreck upon the beach."

He was silent, and I continued:

"Close to her on the beach you will see another column of smoke; that is the Oquendo burning. On this side nearer to us, is the Pluton, sunk in the breakers, and the Furor is near her, but she is on the bottom in deep water, and is not visible."

"But," he interrupted, "you have then destroyed half those splendid vessels of Cervera's?"

"Wait, Lieutenant," I continued, and look a few miles further to the westward, and you will see another column of smoke; that is the Vizcaya, on the beach near Aserraderos. As to the Colon, she is still further to the westward, out of sight to us here, but you will see her presently as your Captain steers in that direction to find Admiral Sampson, who is at the end of our line."

His eyes ranged along the shore as I pointed out the different vessels.

"Mein Gott!" he exclaimed. "Then you have destroyed the whole of that splendid squadron? I did not think it possible."

After a moment more of silent astonishment he said, with a polite sympathy which concealed eager professional curiosity:

"And your injuries, Captain? What losses has the American squadron sustained?"

"None," I replied.

"But, Captain, you do not understand; it is what casualties—what ships lost or disabled—that I ask."

"None, Lieutenant." I said. "The Indiana was struck twice, suffered no injury, no loss. The other ships are virtually in the same condition. We are all of us perfectly ready for another battle—as much so as before Cervera came out this morning."

His astonishment was now complete.

"Mein Gott!" he exclaimed again. "Admiral Sampson's fleet has destroyed these great Spanish ships, and without injury to his own squadron! Sir, it is unheard of. I must go to inform my Captain."

The Iowa's Close Call.

Captain Robley D. Evans of the battleship Iowa is authority for the story that had not Admiral Cervera made his disastrous sortie on July 3, the battleship Iowa and its crew would have gone to destruction in the harbor. Captain Evans told the story to a friend while traveling recently from Cincinnati to Washington.

"Only luck prevented the destruction of the Iowa," said the captain. "The day after the storming of El Caney General Shafter made an appeal to the department at Washington for help on the part of the fleet. He desired that the fleet enter the harbor and create a disturbance, thus diverting the attention and preventing further slaughter of the Americans when the city was taken. Orders were sent that a battleship enter the harbor and a consultation was held. It was decided that the Iowa should enter the harbor the morning of July 4."

Captain Evans told the officials that if they told him to go, of course he would go, but it meant the destruction of the Iowa and every man aboard.

"I know the harbor to a dot," he said. "I have been there many times."

Then making a sketch of the passage, which reminds one of a letter S, he said: "Right there," pointing with his pencil about the middle of the letter, "the guns of the enemy, 160 feet above the water, bear directly upon this point; the guns have an accurate range and when my ship reaches that point goodby to the Iowa and Bob Evans."

There was another consultation, and Evans was ordered to prepare to enter the harbor the morning of July 4. The Spanish fleet left the harbor the morning before the appointed day, Cervera preventing the sacrifice by making his final dash for liberty.

The Iowa was to send one man with the Merrimac's party and Captain Evans lined up the men for the purpose of securing volunteers. The clerk of the ship called 150 names and each man responded, "Here am I, send me." Captain Evans remarked that he could not send the whole —— crew.

"Who does not want to go?" he asked.

There was no answer.

"Well, boys, some of you fellows got to die. Murphy, step out here. You too, McLean.

Taking a penny from his pocket he said: "Murphy, you're heads. McLean, you're tails. If it comes down heads you go, Murphy. If it comes down tails, you are to die, McLean."

"I'll give you $50 for your chance to go," said McLean.

Murphy shook his head.

The penny was flipped and it came down heads.

"I'll give you $100 for your chance," said McLean. Murphy smiled and shook his head.

"I'll give you $150 cash," said McLean excitedly. Murphy shook his head again, and McLean burst into tears and sobbed like a child, then was led back to the ranks.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 12th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 29, 7 59, 8 00, 8 15, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 45, 9 55, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 5., 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 05, 7 30, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12.00 m, 12 58, 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 29, 7 47, 8 15, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37., 11 10 a. m.; 12 06, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 30, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 56 a. m.; 1 01, 2 05, 2 20, 3 23, 4 36, 5 03, 5 27, 9 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 13, 7 34, 8 27, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 06 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 28 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 28 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m. (Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN, General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN, General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.

Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.

Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.

Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.

Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.

Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket time-tables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR, General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE, General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. L. Manning & Son

STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

XXXX QUALITY
FINEST
LOFOTON COD LIVER OIL,

Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod. Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at 39c per Pint.

For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at

50c per Bottle,

or the Tasteless at

75c per Bottle.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
Heaburn & Co.,
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,
213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

FURNITURE for the Parlor . . .
Library . . .
Dining-Room . . .
Bedroom . . .

Close at 6 o'Clock.

POWLISON & JONES,
149 and 151 E. Front St.

Annual January Sale of Ladies' Muslin Underwear.

An entirely new showing of muslin underwear is now ready for your inspection.

These Goods were bought many weeks ago, before the recent heavy advance in prices on cotton goods—Prices have been made accordingly.

Made by one of the famous underwear manufacturers of Massachusetts, in clean, well ventilated factories, insuring absolute cleanliness in manufacture.

Finely made garments, snowy white, beautiful dainty garments. By far the best elaborate assortment we have ever shown.

These goods have just been received, and placed on sale. As to prices they conform to the regular January bargain prices, which are much lower than the ordinary.

I. LEDERER.

FALL OPENING.
WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.
OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5 00.

Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1,000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,
206 West Front Street.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles
in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.

Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

Our Attractive Holiday Display awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.

A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

FURS. Our assortment of Furs at the present time is larger and better than ever before. A few of the many special values. Each item is worthy of your special attention.

COLLARETTES.
Grebe, extra fine fur, satin lining, $6.00.
Sheared Coney, 12 tails, extra fine satin lining, $5.95.
Sheared Coney, extra long and extra fine satin lining, at $7.75.
Electric Kurmur, satin lined, $12.00.

BOAS. Stone Marten, $1.89 and $2.49. Bear skin, $3.25

MUFFS. Sable, $3.98. Astrachan $2.25. Electric Seal, $1.49 to 4.75.

CHILDREN'S FURS. Thibet sets, $1.00 to 1.49. Angoras, $1.98 to 2.98.

Mink sets, $3.25. Stone Marten, $1.00 to 6.49.

UNTRIMMED MILLINERY. We will close out the balance of our untrimmed millinery at prices that will please you. All new goods. The bargains in this department must be seen to be appreciated.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

"SOROSIS!"

The most popular shoe sold for women. 3 000 pairs turned out of the factory each work day. The best $3 50 shoe in every respect made. We sell them, as well as other lines at a higher price, and also as low as 98c $1 25 $1 50, $2 00, etc. Good winter shoes for men $1 25 $1 50, $2 00 and up to $5 and $6. Felt Slippers, Rubber Boots, Arctics, Rubbers, everything you need in the shoe line. Peddles Trunks, Dress Suit Cases and Traveling Bags.

DOANE & EDSALL. . . . .

A BURGLAR STORY

A pretty little volume by Margaret Penrose, on the order of "Bessie's Burglar," has been issued by Jordan, Marsh & Co., of Boston, under the title "The Burglar's Daughter," and it will be sure to interest our young readers, and the older ones, too, perhaps.

The story begins with a gay children's party at the home of Ethel Weston, whose papa has just presented her with a beautiful silver workbox as a present on this her tenth birthday. All Ethel's young friends were at the party, where they played games, some played on the piano and others danced, while the little hostess moved among them, talking first with one, then another, seeing that all were having a pleasant time.

All at once, when the enjoyment was at its height, loud voices were heard in Mr. Weston's study, where he was busy preparing notes for his work as night editor of a newspaper. All the other girls were talking and laughing, and no one seemed to hear the voices except herself. She stepped aside to listen, and presently her quick ear heard the front door close and a carriage drive rapidly away. She heard the servants running backward and forward to her mother's room, talking in hushed voices.

Ethel had lost interest in her party. She felt that her paper must be in trouble, but for another half hour she entertained her merry guests. After they had gone away at last she ran to her mamma's room and found Mrs. Weston unconscious on a couch, with a maid attending her.

"What made my mamma ill, Kate, and where is papa?" Ethel asked excitedly.

"Your papa went away with two men, and your mamma fainted," the girl tried to explain, but before Ethel could ask another question her mother's eyes opened and she motioned Ethel to her side.

"I cannot tell you all that has happened to-night, Ethel," she said, feebly, "so now you may kiss me and come early to-morrow morning. This is the only way you can help me now, dear. I am ill."

What a sad ending to such a delightful birthday! Her thoughts ran over the events of the party, the hours of happiness ending with grief. She prayed earnestly, with all the innocence of childhood, that everything might end well, and in the peace that came with this simple trust she fell asleep.

The next morning Mrs. Weston made up her mind that it was better that Ethel should learn the truth from her lips than from those of a stranger, so she drew Ethel to her side.

"In the first place," she began, "you must show me that you have courage, for what I am going to tell you will be as great a shock to you as it is to me. It seems that many of the nights when your papa was supposed to be at his office, he was stealing into the homes of wealthy people, taking their money and any valuables that he could turn into money. In fact, dear, he is—I am ashamed to tell you—a burglar. Yet I cannot wish you to dislike papa, nor to lose hope for him, for certainly he was kind to you and me. Let us rather believe he must have been strongly tempted in some way, and let us never give up hoping that he may sometimes become an honest man."

They sat together very still, Ethel began to cry, but as he saw the tears come in mamma's eyes she wiped her own and said resolutely:

"I shall always love my papa, and I will never believe he is a very bad man. Something may have led him astray. But, Oh, mamma, do you suppose he could have taken my silver workbox from anybody's home? I never could keep it if I thought that."

"No, dear, you need have no doubt about the box, for I was with papa when he bought that at Hill's. So, cheer up and be as strong as you can, for I must tell you something more. I had hoped last night there might be some mistake when he was accused, but I see by the morning papers that papa has confessed his wrong doing. Now, we must sell everything in the house to pay his debts, so that it will be easier for him. Do you understand, dearie?"

Ethel saw poverty before them; she saw that they must become like other poor people, but her heart should be true. And it was true. Ethel herself went to the private school where she had been a favorite pupil and told the teacher that she could come no more. That same day the servants were sent away, and in a few days more everything was sold, except Ethel's workbox and a few keepsakes Mrs. Weston had before her marriage, the debts were paid, and the two faced the world alone.

In many places Mrs. Weston and Ethel tried to get rooms within their means, but while there were many places where the sign "Rooms to Rent" was hung out, they were all too high in price for their modest purses. On the afternoon of the second day they found time to turn aside and question a little fellow who was crying bitterly upon the street. He had run away from home and couldn't find his way back, but he knew the street and number, so Ethel and her mamma went with him and were rewarded for their trouble by finding with the little boy's mother, a pleasant-faced German woman, the home for which they had so wearily searched.

All went well for one week, and then Ethel's true nature had a chance to reveal itself, for Mrs. Weston fell ill and Ethel became a brave, true little woman. How their slender store of money was soon gone, and how Ethel sold all her pretty trinkets to buy medicines and food; how she found a firm friend in the doctor and in Mr. Hill, the very merchant from whom her silver workbox had been purchased, is all a story full of interest to those who admire the noble impulses of a brave heart.

Ethel did not forget her papa. Mrs. Weston was confined to her bed and Ethel was her constant nurse, with all the cares of the two upon her small shoulders. One by one all Mrs. Weston's jewels were sold, and often Ethel tried in vain to get work. In the first of these efforts she passed by a police station and ran in asking to see her papa, thinking that he must be kept there, but she found that he had been sent many miles away to prison for two years.

At last Mrs. Weston became so ill that it was feared she would die, and then Mr. Hill had her sent to the hospital and took Ethel to his home to live, where she was once more surrounded by comfort and luxury. A beautiful blue and white bedroom had been prepared for her, and on the pretty little stand stood the silver work box she had sold to Mr. Hill on her first visit to his store.

She was very happy in her new home, where every one came to love her dearly, but she was just as sensible and just as thoughtful as ever. She had one wish, and that was to reunite her old home.

She returned to her studies at a different school, and tried hard to make up for her lost year, and but for the thought of her dear mamma, whom she might never see her papa again, she would have nothing left to wish for. But no home is like one's own home.

The two years had passed away, and on a cold, dreary day, when the snow was falling fast, Mr. Weston was released from prison. It was a gloomy outlook for this man, once respected by all. His wife and daughter, he thought, would not want to see the man who had brought disgrace upon them, but yet he thought he must look upon them once more. With the money the prison authorities gave him he bought a railroad ticket to his old home, and went straight to the house in which they had all lived so happily. It was night when he arrived there, but the house was dark and deserted. In bitterness and despair he forced open a window and slept upon the floor.

All the next day he spent in making inquiries about the Westons, but he could find no trace of them. In the evening he met Mr. Hill, who was on his way home, but Mr. Weston was so changed that his old time friend did not recognize him, and thought the shabby looking man who addressed him was but a common beggar. So he handed him a dime and passed on, busy with his own thoughts.

Mr. Weston was first stung and then made bitter by this. At first he had resolved to lead an honest life, but now the old temptation came back to him.

"Well," he muttered to himself, "I am not obliged to beg. If I can't live honestly I know another way, and when some of these rich fellows wake up in the morning to find they have a little less money I'll have a little more. Why not try Mr. Hill's house to-night?" he asked himself. "I know the place well, and he is very rich."

(Ethel and the burglar.)

So it came about that Mr. Weston found himself after midnight in Ethel's room, with his head bowed in grief over Ethel's silver work box, which he had recognized. It was so that Ethel found him when she awoke.

"Sir," she cried, "who are you and how dare you touch the box my papa gave me? Give it to me now!"

Prepared by the finding of this box, Mr. Weston knew his daughter's voice at once.

"Don't be afraid of me, little girl. I won't hurt you," he said. "Ethel, darling, look at me. Don't you know your own father?"

With a cry Ethel was upon the floor by his side, and their tears mingled together as Ethel told of her mother's long illness and their struggle with poverty. But Ethel would not let her father go away, in spite of all his pleading. His sense of right triumphed, and at last he let her lead him to Mr. Hill's bedroom, where he confessed that he unknowingly come to rob the house of the man who had befriended his wife and child.

That was the turning point in Mr. Weston's life. Mr. Hill secured work for him, and from that time on he became an honest man. Mrs. Weston got well, and was not long until the three were reunited in a happy little home of their own, surrounded by the firm friends that Ethel's true heart had won.

A Difference in Feeling.

Bessie wanted a feather for her doll. Her mother could not find one, but found a flower instead, and said: "I think, Bessie, the flower is better."

"O, mamma," replied the little girl, "the feelin's inside of me ain't like the feelin' inside of 'ou. I want a feather."

How Doves Coo.

Many birds form their sounds without opening their bills. The pigeon is a well-known instance of this. Its cooing can be distinctly heard, although it does not open its bill. The call is only rendered audible by resonance.

CLOVER HAY,

While costing less is worth more than Timothy for cows. Give the cow the BEST CLOVER and the horse the BEST TIMOTHY and the result will please you We have all kinds at right prices

In comparing prices it should be borne in mind that OUR GRAIN IS ALL RECLEANED and OUR FEEDS are ALL MADE ON THE PREMISES and ARE KNOWN TO BE PURE

Mixed Oats	74c per bag	Middlings	90c per 100
Mixed Oats	76c per bag	Oat Feed	72c per 100
2 White Oats	78c per bag	Gluten	95c per 100
Regular Clips	80 per bag	Oil Meal	$1.45 per 100
X. B. Clips	82c per bag	No. 1 Grain Mixture	$1.10 per 100
Yellow Corn	70c per 100	Our Poultry Food	$1.15 per 100
Cracked Corn	84c per 100	Wheat	$1.25 per 100
Course Meal	84c per 100	Barley (96 lbs)	$1.15 per bag
Ground Feed	84c per 100	No. 1 Hay	85c per 100
Bran	90c per 100	Clover Hay	85c per 100
Buckwheat Middlings	70c per 100	Cut Hay	85c per 100

The above prices are for spot cash at our stores If delivered add according to quantity as follows:

25 bags or over	2c per bag
5 bags or over	5c per bag
Less than 5 bags	10c per bag

THE PAUL T. NORTON CO.

Elizabeth, Elizabethport, Red Bank, Plainfield, Somerville.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	High Score.
Roselle Casino	5	1	911
Park Club	3	3	864
Westfield Club	3	3	826
Cranford Casino	1	5	765

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

William D. Murray will lead the young men's meeting at the Y M C A Sunday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock and Douglass Lane, the bass soloist at the recent oratorio concert, will sing.

Owing to the holidays the Spanish class will meet this week Thursday instead of Monday evening.

O. S. Rogers, of this city, will represent the literary society of the local Y. M. C. A. at Newark on Friday evening on the occasion of the State debating society.

The board of directors will meet tomorrow evening.

The executive committee of the King's Daughters will meet at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at the Y. M. C. A.

The lady managers of the Children's Home will meet at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Y. M. C. A.

FOURTH CENSUS DISTRICT.

C. E. Tunis, of New Brunswick, is the Supervisor, With 141 Enumerators.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, Jan. 3.—Census Supervisor C E Tunis, of the fourth census district, which includes the counties of Middlesex, Somerset Hunterdon and Union, has established headquarters for the fourth district in this city. He will have 141 enumerators, divided as follows: Middlesex, 44; Somerset, 18; Hunterdon, 27, Union 52.

The appointment of these enumerators will be made with reference to physical activity and to aptness, neatness and accuracy in writing and in use of figures, and each must be a resident.

The enumeration will begin June 1st and must be completed within two weeks in all cities for which 8 000 inhabitants or more were reported in 1890, and in all other districts on or before the first day of July next there after.

A Forceful Speaker.

Rev. Dr. Thos. C. Hall, who speaks at Hope chapel tonight, is widely known as a forceful speaker. He is the son of the late Dr. John Hall, of New York. After one or two other pastorates he was called to a large church in Chicago, which he served successfully for a number of years. Two years ago he accepted a call to a professorship in Union Theological Seminary, New York. His subject tonight will be "The Church." Service at 8 o'clock.

Installation Ceremonies.

Iona Council, Degree of Pocohontas, will tonight install the officers recently elected. Deputy Great Pocohontas Dodwell and staff will be present to perform the installation ceremonies. A collation will follow.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Oftimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,

129 West Front Street,

Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 861.

HORSE KNEW THE WAY BACK.

Wild Flight of Crosby & Hill's Delivery Wagon Without Damage.

This forenoon the horse owned by Crosby & Hill, attached to the delivery wagon, and in charge of William Conway, ran away from in front of a place of business on North avenue while the driver was inside. The animal ran very fast through North avenue, Park avenue, Somerset street, and turned in the lane back of Crosby & Hill's store, where he is accustomed to going. There was not a penny's worth of damage, despite the fact that the streets were crowded with wagons. After a while the driver showed up and continued on his journey of delivering goods.

Former Plainfielder Marries.

Last evening at 5 o'clock in the M. E. church at Washington, N. J., took place the marriage of Miss Grace Barnes, daughter of Dr. Charles R Barnes, pastor of the church, and Willard B. Force, formerly of this city, but now a practicing dentist in New York. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs D N. Force, of Carlton avenue. Miss Minnie Force, sister of the groom, was the bridemaid. The bride and groom will reside in Jersey City.

Boiler Pipes Overheated.

A telephone alarm was sent in from the residence of Jacob Kirkner, of West Eighth street, yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Chief Doane and several firemen on No. 2 hose wagon responded. The feed pipe to the boiler had become blocked and the boiler pipes were overheated. The firemen arrived just in time to prevent a serious conflagration. The damage done will reach $10.

Nursing a Sprained Wrist.

Chief T. O. Doane, of the fire department, is nursing a sprained right wrist as the result of an accident Monday morning. He was passing under the railroad bridge at Park avenue and stepped on some ice. He slipped and fell. In endeavoring to save some packages that he was carrying, his whole weight fell on his right wrist. A severe sprain was the result.

Mrs. Wentworth Gives Bail.

Mrs. Sarah Wentworth, the rich widow who stood in the window of her house on First avenue, Elizabeth, and fired a revolver at her neighbors, was arraigned yesterday morning in the police court on a charge of assault with intent to kill. She gave bail of $150. She became her own bondswoman as she owns considerable real estate.

Installed as Worshipful Master.

At the regular communication of Jerusalem Lodge, No 26, F. and A. M., held last evening, the officers-elect were installed. The retiring Worshipful Master, Garret T. Dunham, officiated, and was in charge until his successor, Robert A. Meeker, was installed as Worshipful Master. There was so much business on hand that all festivities were omitted for the evening Entertained at Cards.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Gallup, of West Front street, entertained the card club of which they are members. The usual number of games were played, after which refreshments were served. It was nearly 12 o'clock when the guests departed, but all voted the affair a great success.

Fell Dead at His Home.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, January 3.—Captain Harry Ayres fell dead of heart disease yesterday at his home, 127 Jefferson avenue. He was sixty years old and had been blind for some years.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

NEW COUNCIL NOW READY FOR BUSINESS

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.)

rules of order be adopted as the by-laws of the Council. He then offered a resolution to the effect that the finance committee be authorized to purchase a suitable book in which all claims shall be entered against the city, and that the auditing committee keep in this book a record of all claims to be certified to by them, the same to be in lieu of and endorsement of such claims. The idea of this is that when the claims are audited an endorsement of their correctness can be made at the same time and thus a great deal of time can be saved. Usually this work is done after a Council meeting and a great deal of time is consumed. The idea was considered a good one and the book will be purchased. Thus each year's claims can be kept separately. They are to be easy of access and can be seen by any member when desired.

Another resolution offered by Mr. Dumont designated The Daily Press and The News as the official papers of the city. This resolution was followed by an inquiry from Mr. Dumont as to what condition the city ordinances are in. After being informed that they are all together, he moved that a special committee be appointed to codify them and get them in the proper shape. President Smith appointed on that committee Messrs Dumont, Mellick and Gloak.

After Mr. Tolles offered a motion that when the Council adjourned it be to meet Monday evening, January 8th, the Council adjourned.

McCONNELL INDICTED.

Charged with the Burglary of Mantz Brothers Clothing Factory on the Night of December 5th.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, January 3.—One of the first acts of the Union County grand jury, yesterday, was to indict Frank McDonnell on the charge of larceny, preferred by Mantz Brothers, of Plainfield. McDonnell is in custody in Easton, Pa., and will be extradited to New Jersey as soon as the requisition papers can be signed by the Governor of Pennsylvania. The night of December 5th Mantz Brothers' factory was broken into and a large quantity of clothing stolen. A week after that McDonnell was arrested in Easton selling valuable trousers for thirty cents a pair. He was arrested on suspicion and the clothing was identified as that stoled in Plainfield.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Mamie McKeon, of West End Park, is visiting friends in Jersey City for a week.

The Misses Randolph, of Randolph road, entertained a few of their friends New Year's evening.

Miss Margaret Kenney, the young daughter of John J. Kenney, is confined to her home by illness.

Mrs. Seeley Edsall, of 49 Sandford avenue, who has been detained at her home by illness, is too ill yet to leave home.

Miss Elsie Martin, of Hillside avenue, gave a tea Monday afternoon to introduce her friend, Miss Hannum, of Chester, Pa.

Miss Mollie Noel, of West Second street, and Miss Josie Barmingham of Sixth street, spent New Year's visiting Washington Valley friends.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Cashin are receiving the congratulations of their many friends on the birth of a bouncing boy, which lifted the scales at 12 pounds.

A very handsome gold finger ring, set with a beautiful diamond, was presented to Miss Elizabeth Smalley, bookkeeper for Smalley Brothers, as a New Year's gift.

Deputy Grand Master Workman Nash visited Elizabeth last night and assisted in the installation of the newly-elected officers of Success Lodge, No. 11, A. O. U. W.

Woman Trapped Thefts.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Jan. 3—Chief of Police Tenney has obtained from Laura Douglas, a young colored woman, living here, the revolver with which Fred Davis killed John Monks Christmas Eve. The young woman, it turns out, is the person who betrayed Davis' whereabouts to the police.

Still Here

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—Will you kindly correct the statement in a recent issue of your paper that the Woman's Temperance Aid Society is out of existence; there is plenty of Gospel Temperance work to do and we are doing it in a quiet way.

The Members of the Society.

Wine Not Paid For

The action brought by Gamna Agnoe, of Elizabeth, against John Wilson, of Liberty street, to recover for a quantity of wine, was tried this morning before Justice Mosher. Clayton Crane represented the plaintiff. W K. McClure appeared for the defendant.

To Banquet at Kensington.

This evening the Plainfield physicians will hold their annual meeting and banquet at the Hotel Kensington.

WHERE FAST HORSES MEET

High Class Trotters on New York's Great Speedway.

A RARE SIGHT FOR ALL

More Fast Horses Can Be Seen There Than on Any Other Drive in the World—A Recent Sunday Morning Meet—The Exclusive List.

Ever since the trotting horse became a recognized product of this country New York has been the great centre toward which each breeder turned a longing eye, hoping some day to produce a world beater that should find a market there. In the early days of breeding the trotter the road riders of the metropolis absorbed the champion performers, and in a certain sense this is true to-day.

Of course, with the immense growth of breeding light harness horses, when thousands are produced annually, no one section or city can absorb all, but it is safe to say that at the present time there are more high class trotters in New York than all other cities in the country.

The reason is not far to seek. New York naturally attracts a class of men who have the means and wealth to gratify a desire for whatever they wish. For many years the great drawback to harness sport was the lack of a suitable place for fast driving. Few men care to own a fast horse unless they can gratify the ambition to have a fast one and excel some competitor in point of speed.

Now all this is changed. The owner and lover of the light harness horse has free access to the finest drive devoted to fast driving in the world. It is a boon not alone accessible to the man of wealth, who drives a champion that perhaps represents an outlay of many thousands of dollars, but equally so to the man of humble means who probably finds as much pleasure behind his modest priced trotter as falls to the lot of the wealthy devotee.

Again, it is not alone those who drive that vote Speedway Park one of the brightest and most enjoyable spots in Greater New York. Thousands who make the journey by car to enjoy the beautiful scenery and watch the sport derive fully as much pleasure as those who drive.

The visitor who had not seen the locality in ten years would scarcely recognize the place to-day. What was then a rough, unattractive spot of wilderness has been transformed into a lovely park stretching for two miles along the banks of the Harlem River. The rugged beauty of nature has been softened and made more attractive. The ruged beauty of nature has been softened and made more attractive. The sheltered nooks and overhanging cliffs present an ever changing panorama that alone would make a visit well worth the journey.

When to this is added the most magnificent speeding ground man ever constructed, over whose surface one can see almost daily the fastest harness horses in the world competing in spirited contests, what could the lover of nature or sport desire that is not here provided for his enjoyment?

The approach from the Viaduct at 155th street has been hewn for the greater part of the way out of solid rock. This part of the drive has a macadam stone surface. The broad walks on either side invite the pedestrian to join the throng and view the sport. Many, however, prefer to make the journey up Amsterdam avenue leaving the car at Washington Bridge and passing down the broad stone steps that lead to the drive.

At the end of the approach the Speedway proper begins, and extends for a trifle over a mile and a half to Dykeman street, which is really a macadamized extension. The construction of the roadbed is similar to that of the tracks where harness races are held, and no track has better care or is kept in more perfect order. The first stretch extends to High Bridge. From this point to Washington Bridge there is a slight descent as the upper stretch is reached.

It is here that the drivers usually congregate and the majority of the contests take place. The lower stretch is rarely used for speeding, except on the homeward journey, when a party of friends indulge in a grand scramble to see which shall first reach the macadam.

Sunday morning, from ten to twelve o'clock, is when the drive is liable to be most attractive to the lover of harness sport. The visitor may then see not only many of the fastest horses the skill of the breeder and trainer has produced, but prominent visiting horsemen from other cities who sojourn here to enjoy the advantage of the famous drive.

At a recent Sunday morning meet, among the many famous horses seen in the throng, was Robert J., 2:01 1-2, the champion harness horse of the world at the time he was transferred from the race track to the road, and Bumps, 2:03¼, that now holds the world's record to wagon. Among others scarcely less noted were Bessie Bonehill, 2:05¾; Roy Wilkes, 2:06 1-2; Dariel, 2:07¼; Lizzie Wilkes, 2:08¼ David B., 2:09¾; James L., 2:09 1-2; King Egbert, 2:09¾; Lucille, 2:09¾; Nettie Jefferson, 2:10¼; J. B. D., 2:10¾; Ambidexter, 2;11¼; Iron Ban, 2:11¾; Jack, 2:12½; Chanty, 2:13¼; West Wilkes, 2;13½; Glen Mere Boy, 2:14¼; Sir Eld, 2:14¾, and perhaps others which figure as members of the exclusive 2:15 list.

This was not any special occasion, either, but is such common occurrence that many of the regular spectators come to know all the Speedway stars, which of course, adds greatly to the enjoyment of witnessing the contests.

Those present that morning saw the famous "cracks," Robert J., 2:01 1-2; Bumps, 2:03¼; Dariel, 2:07¼, and Jack 2:12 1-2, in one of the best contests ever seen over the drive.

Add to the spirited scenes of speed the long line of pleasure vehicles moving in an endless chain up one side and down the other, the thousands of spectators that line the walks on either side and one has an ideal picture of what the Speedway has done toward contributing to the pleasures of those fortunate enough to dwell within the circle of its magic influence.

ARAB ACTORS AND THEATRE

J. E. Woolacott Describes a Performance of "Romeo and Juliet."

J. E. Woolacott writes from Carlo, thus describes a performance of "Romeo and Juliet" by Arab actors: "From our box facing the stage we look down on a sea of red tarbooshes, broken here and there by the turban of a sheikh. On our left a few harem boxes with white lace curtains drawn tightly across the front indicate that the fair sex are not entirely shut out form the joys of the drama. The peepholes originally cutt to enable the ladies to obtain a clear view of the stage have been in several instances materially enlarged by the hands of the fair playgoers, and we catch now and then a glimpse of a face, the flash of an earring, and the red glow of a lighted cigarette.

"Impatient for the play to begin, the occupants of the back benches stamp their feet with dogged persistance, and after ten minutes of this amusement the curtain is rung up, revealing the entire company, stiff and erect, formed in two rows, the principals, of course, in the foreground.

"In a doleful chant, punctured with mournful groans, we have the prologue, and assuredly the 'misadventured, piteous over-throws' of the lovers of Verona never fathomed the depths of woe suggested by this Arab choir. The curtain falls amid vociferous applause, and five minutes later rises again, revealing the amorous Romeo clad in red doublet and sky-blue trunks, gazing with rapture at the balcony of his lady-love.

"My mentor assures me there is good literary workmanship in the version of 'Romeo and Juliet 'that is being played. But the story itself has been materially tampered with. The garrulous old nurse does not appear, and the Count of Paris furnishes all the comic relief vouchsafed by the translator. This doughty nobleman's costume consists of a brown velvet doublet, sky-blue continuations, which only continue to the knee, ending there in a little lace frill, striped socks, and brown slippers. Juliet flouts him to his face, whereat the Arab playgoers howl with delight."

Betraying Pens.

"Killed by a letter" was the significant heading of a Havana newspaper over an article telling of ex-Minister De Lome's fall. This legent would be an appropriate epitaph over the political graves of many public men. The rivalry between Hamilton, the leader de facto of the Federal party, and Adams, the leader de jure, incited Hamilton's letter during the campaign of 1816, arraigning Adams, which was one of the causes of the rupture and overthrow of that party and the triumph of Jefferson and the Democracy. Hamilton's letters attacking Burr were the cause of the duel in which Hamilton lost his life.

Jefferson's letter to his old neighbor, Mazzei, in 1796, in which, by pretty plain implication, he traduced Washington and other men whom the American people honored, kept Jefferson denying and explaining for many years, his historic letter to Van Buren on this subject having been written shortly before his death and twenty-eight years after the Mazzei epistle was penned. The reservation and publication of Jefferson's "Anas," or dairy, which is really a sort of letter to posterity, with its spiteful assaults on the memory of Hamilton and other eminent men, showed an amazing lack of discernment on Jefferson's part, and has called out from all his creditors and biographers excuses which accuse.

"Never write a letter," said Talleyrand, "and never burn one that you receive." If Nicholas Biddle had observed the first part of this injunction the fate of the United States bank, over which he presided, would probably have been different. Jackson would not have been able to perform that second labor of Hercules in slaying the bank "hydra," and the politics of the '30s would have lost one of its most picturesque episodes.

An interesting and usually level headed personage, Biddle, had what Juvenal called an "incurable itch for writing," and this led him and his institution to their doom, defeated Clay and the national Republican party in 1832, and, as one of the consequences of the bank's overthrow, brought on the panic of 1837. The "Rhea letter" precipitated the contest of 1830 between Jackson and Calhoun out of the line of succession to Jackson's political heir, dwarfted Calhoun from a national to a local figure, and turned him to the partisan metaphysics out of which were evolved nullification and that morbid and wire drawn political philosophy in defense of slavery that brought on the war which destroyed slavery.

The "Star-Eyed" a Cook.

"Years ago, when I belonged to a coterie of young cavaliers in New York City," said Col. Henry Watterson at Chamberlin's, "I designed the dish now generally known as lobster a la Newburg. I gave my idea to Charlie Delmonico, and he saw that it was carried successful execution. John McCulloch was one of us, and to John is due the appearance of broiled live lobster in the East. He had caught on to the epicurean way of preparing it during his stay in California. In after years I attained some fame as a manipulator of certain dishes, terrapin, perhaps, being my masterpiece.

"Curiously enough, all the newspaper stories have given me credit for being an artist in the preparation of oyster stews, but my experience with the bivalves is limited. I always left them to John Chamberlin, while he would not allow any one but myself to attend to the diamondbacks.

"I can't begin to tell you how much of this ingredient or the exact quantity of the other to put with the terrapin, but I know how to blend them all in an instinctive sort of way, and I've never yet found the man who didn't admit that my cooking was of the highest order."—Washington Post.

"Now," said the enterprising interviewer, "please read this over and hold up your right hand?"

"But," said the public man, "this is merely an interview."

"That's all it is now. But I thought it would be a good thing to be appointed a notary public. We've had too many denials, and this article's going to be an affidavit before it gets into the paper."—Washington Star.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—There will be an important meeting of the Exempt Firemen's Association tonight.

—There will be a regular meeting of Protective Conclave, No. 505, Order of Heptasophs, this evening.

—The regular January meeting of the Mayor and Borough Council will be held on Friday night next.

—The funeral services of the late Frank C. Hopkins, who died yesterday morning at Watchung, will be held from the residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

—The monthly business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Park Avenue Baptist church will be held tomorrow evening at the home of Miss Elizabeth Runyon, East Sixth street.

HOSPITAL DONATIONS.

Those Who Have Contributed Articles to Community Sick Room.

Donations for month of December: Arthur Robinson, daily papers; Drake & Mundy, 2 turkeys; S. H. Johnson, lettuce, egg plant, beets and parsnips; John McDonald, oranges, bacanas, spinach and celery, (5 times); Mrs John F. Loecer, literature, old linen; Mrs. H. B. Paul, literature; Mrs. Chas Fisk, flowers; Mrs. Rowland Cox flowers; Miss H. C. Gardiner, 3 vases; Mrs. Robert Lowery, 7 night shirts, 2 rubber rings, Mrs. Brooks, old linen; Mrs. J. W. Reinhart, 4 boy's shirts, 2 pajama dressing gowns; Mrs. Roberts, books and magazines; Miss A. L. Goreline, books; Mrs. J. E. Cories, magazines; Mrs. T. S. Hume, Sunday papers; Mrs. Percy VanAlstyne, magazines; Mrs. Mazy Edwards, literature; S. Scheuer & Sons, keg Malaga grapes; Mrs. S. B. Carson, magazines; Mrs. H. A. Woodruff, literature; Mrs. R. W. Happersett, literature; Mrs. J. D. Runyon, oranges, apples, Malaga grapes, lemons, box of canned fruit; Mrs. DeGraff, books and toys; Mrs. G. H. Simmons, literature; J. A. Smith Bros, box of oranges; Mrs. Eden Boice, two dozen crullers; Mrs. G. H. Runkle, turkey; Mrs. S. Huntington, turkey; Mrs. Stevens, three dozen oranges; Holy Cross Church Guild, eight pillow cases; Mrs. F. S. Green, dressing gown; C. W. Tallman, barrel of flour; Mrs. Louis Braum, cake; Mrs. Thomas Minford, two cakes; H. P. Reynolds, pair of slippers, two brushes; Mrs. H. B. Green, literature; P. Rausch, cake; Stanley Day, literature; Gladys Biglow, doll, cradle, etc.; Mrs D. T. VanBuren, turkey; W. W. Wilson, turkey.

Killed by a Train.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Jan. 3—Frank Mussek, aged 22 years, a track walker on the Pennsylvania Railroad, stepped from one track to the other in front of a local train, Monday night, and was instantly killed.

Massage, Manicuring Hair Dressing, Shampooing, Facial Massage and Steaming

MISS HOLMES, Graduate of New York Schools of Massage, Electricity and Dermatology.

440 W. Front St., near Washington Ave.

THE First National Bank, of Plainfield, N. J.

Capital ..... $200,000.
Surplus and Profits ..... $ 90,000.

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTILL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.

DIRECTORS.

Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Cortell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estill.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

Demulcent Cream

Will soften the skin.
Will prevent roughness
Will please everyone.
"Is a Delightful Cream to use."

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 55 Warren Street, New York.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

TELEPHONE 722.

MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.

Friday Night, Jan. 5, 1900

A. Q. SCAMMON'S COMPANY IN THE GREAT SUCCESS

"THE . . : : SLEEPING : : . . CITY."

Realistic Pictures of New York Life After Dark.....

Midnight Happenings in the Great Metropolis! Sensational Scenes! Humorous Complications! Up-to-Date New York Singing and Dancing Specialties!

PRICES—25, 35, 50 and 75c.

GEO. W. COLE,

UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER.

200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.

OFFICE OPEN D. Y AND NIGHT.

DIED.

PENNINGTON—In this city, Tuesday, Jan. 2d, 1900, Cornelius M. Pennington, aged 66 years, 10 months, 11 days.

Funeral services at his late residence, 1038 Arlington avenue, Friday, Jan. 5th, at 2 p. m. Interment in Hillside.

HAND Suddenly at Dunellen, Tuesday, Jan. 2d, 1900, David, son of David and Annie Hand, aged 16 years, 7 months and 19 days.

Funeral services at the Baptist church, Scotch Plains, Thursday, Jan. 4th at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited without further notice

HOPKINS—In North Plainfield, Tuesday Jan. 2d, 1900, Frank C. Hopkins.

Funeral services at his late residence, Washington Valley, Thursday, Jan. 4th, at 2 p. m.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

WANTED—Girl for general housework Call with references, at 429 Kensington avenue. 1 1 3

ONE comfortable room, with excellent table, at moderate terms, 1121 Putnam avenue. 1 2 6

WANTED at once, cooks, waitresses, chambermaids and general houseworkers. Call Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place. 1 3 2

LOST—On Saturday evening in train 6:15 from N. Y. or in Plainfield, a gold, green and white enamel pin, with P S., '98. Return to E B. Clark, 131 Crescent Ave. 1 3 3

WANTED—White girl for general housework; references required. 330 East Fifth Street. 1 3 2

LADY wishes to secure a place for a young girl to assist in housework. 65 Grandview Ave

FURNISHED rooms to let. 322 East Fifth St. 1 3 4

ROOM to rent in my house; suitable for office. Dr. Knott, 157 Crescent Ave. 1 3 3

WILL exchange house in Arlington, N. J., eight rooms and bath, all improvements, for similar Plainfield property; or sell cheap. M. F. Wiltz, Dunellen, N. J.

WANTED—Printing press 5 x 3, or larger Address X, care Press.

WOMEN can secure good home for winter, $10 per month. Call 114 New St., before 9 a. m. 1 3 3

FIRST CLASS Guernsey and Durham Cow for sale. Inquire Mrs. Gaghen, 316 Lee Place. 1 3 3

$1,200—Wanted on first mortgage, at six per cent; principals only. Address A. B. C. Press office. 1 2 2

WANTED—Girl to assist in light housework. German preferred; reference. A J. Hartman, 129 Broad street, Westfield, N. J. 1 2 3

WANTED—Young girl to assist in housework. Apply 916 West Front St. 12 30 3

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

WANTED—Experienced cook. Apply Superintendent Muhlenberg Hospital. 12 27 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

PURE cider vinegar for sale at C. J. Ackerman's, Clinton avenue 8 5 w-s tf

FOR RENT—Central Hall, for occasional festivities or permanent occupation. Apply to Fred Dunn. w s tf

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 3m

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:24 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:47 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:47 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Threatening tonight, with snow flurries Friday afternoon; warmer Friday. Ther. 25.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., THURSDAY, JANUARY 4, 1900. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

MORE FIRE ALARMS WITH LESS LOSSES.

Records of Plainfield Fire Department for 1899.

IS COMPARED WITH 1898.

TOTAL LOSSES WERE GREATLY REDUCED LAST YEAR.

People Are Learning That the Department Can Extinguish Fires Without Flooding the Premises so the Number of Still and Telephone Alarms Has Greatly Increased—Only Two Serious Fires Last Year.

The last year has shown an increase in the number of fires to which the Plainfield fire department has been summoned to render assistance and a decrease in the amount of losses resulting from these fires. Since the department has reached its present state of excellence and, with the adoption of the call system, converting it from a volunteer to a paid department, the records of the department show that aid has been asked for at a far greater number of small fires than heretofore. The people have begun to realize that the calling out of the department does not necessarily mean the flooding of their homes as in the old days of the volunteer companies.

During the year of 1899, there were 86 fires that were recorded at department headquarters as against 61 in 1898. Of the 86 fires, there were 50 box alarms, 19 still alarms and 17 telephone alarms. There were only two really large fires, the one that partially gutted the Pruden building on West Front street, and the one that destroyed the ice house near Grant avenue.

No exact record has been kept of the number of fires in which the chemical engine has provod its effectiveness but a large proportion of the fires has seen that apparatus in use and with good effect. The substitution of the stream from the chemical engine for the regular stream from the hydrant has undoubtedly saved thousands of dollars' worth of property that would have been ruined by the flood.

Last January saw the greatest proportion of fires of any one month during the year. They came right after the extreme cold weather that marked the beginning of last year. Most of them were due to overheated stoves or defective flues.

The opening of the new engine house in the west end and the establishment of part of the apparatus there has proved to be a wise move. Heretofore it was some time before the apparatus from the centre of the city could reach the scene of the fire and the flames were enabled to get under good headway.

The greatest difference to be noticed in the records of 1899 and 1898, is the remarkable reduction in the fire losses last year, the amount being reduced to nearly a third of the losses of 1898. In 1898 the total loss to buildings amounted to $38 983 50, while last year, it was only $11,877.01. The loss on the contents of the buildings amounted in 1898 to $17,561.76. In 1899, it was $10,496.96. The total losses in 1898 were $56,545.26; in 1899, $22,373.47.

FUNERAL OF LITTLE HELEN.

Last Sad Rites Over the Remains of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ross' Child.

The last sad rites over the remains of Helen Marie Ross, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard R. Ross, of 11 Codington avenue, were held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home, which was crowded with relatives and young friends of the little one who had passed away. The service, which was conducted by Rev. G. W. Gardner, pastor of Grace M. E. church, where Helen was an attendant, was particularly affecting.

An affecting incident in connection with the services was the vocal rendition of a favorite hymn of the departed, "Jesus Loves Me." This was sung by Elmer E Runyon. There was a beautiful display of flowers from relatives and friends. From the church and Sunday-school there were tokens, and from the people in New York where Mr. Ross is employed there was a very large floral heart of roses.

After the services an opportunity was given all to view the remains. The interment took place this morning at Hillside cemetery.

Elizabeth Calls a Buffalo Pastor.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Jan. 4—The congregation of the Westminster Presbyterian church met Tuesday night and decided to extend a call to Rev. Henry E. Mott, of the Central Presbyterian church, of Buffalo, to take the pastorate of the church, which has been vacant for a year and a half.

—Press want ads bring results.

MUTILATED TRANSFERS.

TROLLEY CONDUCTORS ORDERED TO REFUSE THEM

If They are the Least Bit Torn by the Passengers—Conductor of the Brunswick Traction Co. Tries to Enforce the Rule.

Patrons of the trolley cars who have occasion to procure transfers must bear in mind that by a recent rule of the New Brunswick Traction Company, no transfer tickets will be accepted for passage, if they are the least particle torn or mutilated. A day or two ago a gentleman who had been given a transfer by the conductor of one of the cars of the Plainfield Street Railway, accidentally tore the piece of thin paper to the extent of less than half an inch. The damage to the ticket (if any) was incurred by the passenger in drawing it from his pocket. When tendered to the conductor of the car on the Brunswick Traction Company it was refused on the pretext that "no torn transfers are taken." The conductor demanded another fare which the passenger naturally indignantly declined to hand out. The conductor was persistent; the passenger obdurate to that functionary's appeals or demands.

The passenger finally told the conductor that if he chose he could eject him from the car but that he would not pay a second fare. The conductor, after a little parley, decided to accept the transfer and the passenger was left to his own reflections. Therefore, if you wish to avoid any unpleasantness when riding on the trolley cars be sure not to mutilate your transfer. It is a question, however, whether the courts would sustain the trolley company in the strict observance of a rule that certainly usurps the rights of a passenger. Had the conductor referred to above ejected the passenger in question the latter would certainly have placed the matter in the hands of an attorney.

FISH AND GAME.

An Effort to Procure a Reform in the Laws

The hunting season is over in New Jersey and it it wound up with one miserable tracking snow in the middle of last week. In this vicinity the snow was not deep enough to do any harm. It was lost in the grass to a great extent, but up country it was deep and reports show that many many rabbits were killed in Morris, Sussex and Warren counties.

There will be a strong effort this year to procure a rational reform in the fish and game laws, and the opinions of the firsh and game commissioners will be not alone consulted. A large number of reasoning anglers demand that black bass shall be protected to a greater extent in their spawning season, meaning that the close season shall be extended until the bass have left the beds. Thousands of fish are now snatched away from their nests and the broods are left at the mercy of other fish and insects.

MEMORIAL TO HOBART.

Committee Decides in Favor of a Statue in Bronze.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Paterson, Jan. 4.—The sub-committee, of which Attorney-General Griggs is chairman, appointed to report on the proposed memorial to Vice President Hobart, has reported to the Citizens' Committee of this city that it was of the opinion that the memorial should consist of a bronze statue, life size or heroic size, to be placed upon a granite or other stone pedestral, the statue to represent Mr. Hobart standing before the United States Senate.

It is further recommended that the statue be erected in front of the City Hall, in the centre of the city of Paterson in which Mr. Hobart's life was spent. The cost of the proposed memorial is estimated at $15,000, to be contributed by Mr. Hobart's friends all over the country.

Change in Arrangements.

To obviate some difficulties, a change has been made in the arrangement of the speaker's desk and seats of the First Baptist church. The speaker's platform, heretofore at the rear of the main room and in front of the intermediate department, has been removed to the north east side of the main room, commanding a view of the whole school, including the primary and intermediate departments. The chairs and circular seats face the platform. It is thought the change will be an improvement.

Scientific Periodicals.

Two new scientific periodicals have been added to the number taken at the Plainfield Public Library through the Babcock fund. One is the international edition of "The American Architect," which contains many very fine plates; the other is "The Trained Nurse."

DR. HALL'S ELOQUENCE.

HEARD AT HOPE MEMORIAL CHAPEL LAST EVENING.

The Celebrated Divine Spoke on "The Church"—Living Faith in Christ is Necessary to Maintain True Church.

The eloquent sermon delivered at Hope Memorial chapel last evening by Rev. Thomas C. Hall, D. D., of Union Theological Seminary, New York, was worthy of a larger congregation than that which greeted the speaker. Those who were present, however, were well repaid.

Dr. Hall's subject was "The Church," and he handled it in a manner to convince all who listened to his magnetic utterances on his idea of that which serves to build up the true church, that he had been a close student of theology. He said he believed there was danger in the many dogmas and rituals which are to be found throughout the land, many of which are beautiful in form and service. But without the true love of Christ being innermost in the breasts of His disciples there was danger in the possibility of a lack of force. One of the notes of the true church he believed to be living faith in Christ, and the keys to these notes were the muscles of energy and the brains of sincerity, which consequently necessitated a fierce hand to hand struggle in high and low places for all mankind.

Dr. Hall's sermon was replete wi h excellent suggestions regarding the uplifting of the Christian world and the possibilities that existed for an era of increased spiritual welfare throughout the land.

SHOPLIFTERS GUILTY.

Trio of Women Admit Taking Articles from Various Stores in Newark.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, January 4—Annie Bowers, Eliza Garrison and Ida Carrell, of Plainfield, who were arrested December 18th on a charge of shoplifting, pleaded guilty to four indictments for larceny and receiving before Judge Fort in the Quarter Sessions Court yesterday. The Garrison and Carrell women, who gave their names to the police as Jennie Pope and Jennie Tenner, respectively, and were indicted under these names, admitted in court that the names were wrong. With the consent of Judge Fort the names in the indictments were corrected by Assistant Prosecutor Hood. The Bowers woman had nothing to say. The indictments charge that the women stole various articles, valued at $90 60, from Hahne & Co., W. V. Snyder & Co., L. S. Plaut & Co. and Goerke & Co.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Paughcaughnaughsinque Tribe Braves Take Their Posts for the Year.

There was a large gathering of Red Men last evening at the wigwam of Paughcaughnaughsinque Tribe, the occasion being the installation of the newly-elected officers. Deputy Great Sachem William Westphal was the installing officer assisted by his staff, Warriors Newcorn, Allen, Woolston and Ulrich.

After the installation ceremonies an informal entertainment consisting of recitations, musical selections, etc., was enjoyed by the big braves and their squaws and pappooses, many of whom were present.

Refreshments followed, and the "Big Injuns" proved themselves royal entertainers.

Naval Reserves May Use Armory.

Commander Washington Irving, of the Battalion of the East, New Jersey Naval Reserve, recently applied to the Mayor and Common Council of Hoboken, for permission to use the City Hall Armory one evening of each week for drill purposes. The request has been granted. The training ship Portsmouth is too small to permit of proper infantry drill.

Decisions Rendered.

Decisions have been rendered in the Court of Common Pleas at New Brunswick in favor of the plaintiffs in the contract suits, tried last June before Judge Strong and brought by Chase vs. Hayes, Lucas vs. Hayes and Lehman vs. Hayes. The defendant lives at Dunellen. W. S. Angleman for plaintiff; H. B Cook, of New Brunswick, for defendant.

Wind Helps Clean Up.

In spite of the fact that city employees were busy yesterday removing the surplus amount of dirt from the streets in the business part of the city, the wind succeeded in removing about twice as much, and everyone surely received their share.

Mrs. Pettit to Speak.

Mrs. Alonzo Pettit, of Elizabeth, will address the Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Baptist church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. All who are interested are cordially invited to be present.

PARK CLUB LOSES THE WHIST TROPHY.

Defeated Last Evening by New Jersey Whist Club.

BY A SCORE OF 23 TO 6.

PARK CLUB HELD IT SUCCESSFULLY SEVEN TIMES.

The Newark Veteran Team Was in Great Form and Won Easily From Parks Who Did Not Play Up to Their Usual Standard—Next Game at Newark With Roseville as Challengers.

The State whist tropho has left its abiding place in the club house of the Park Club and betaken itself to Newark where it rests in the club rooms of the New Jersey Whist Club. After seven successful attempts to hold the trophy, the Park Club whist four was defeated last evening by the champion team of the Newark club.

The home team was fairly outplayed at the game but what luck there was went to the visitors. The local whist experts were off their usual form while the visitors played a model game. The defeat was rather an overwhelming one, somewhat influenced by those causes but a fair and square victory nevertheless.

The New Jersey Whist Club team was composed of Messrs. Otis, Cameron, Eagles and Amar, four of the most prominent players of the country. They were old rivals of the elder four of the Park Club, and the matches between those teams were always very close and exciting. The New Jersey Club has won the trophy this year five times. Seven victories are credited to the Park Club and nine to the Elizabeth Chess and Whist Club. The Park Club was represented by the usual team—Peter B. Matthews, Arthur A. Freeman, Albert Woltmann and Ralph Willis.

The score by rounds was as follows:

	N. J. W. C.	PARK CLUB.
First round	7	2
Second round	8	3
Third round	8	1
	23	6

The match for the trophy will be played next week at Newark, when the challengers will be the team from the Roseville Club. The Park Club has sent in a challenge for the trophy, but its turn will not come until March.

PREPARING TO CUT ICE.

COLD SNAP MAKES THE HARVEST FOR ICE DEALERS.

Work Will be Started Tomorrow Cutting the Frigid Article—Ice Seven to Ten Inches Thick and of Excellent Quality.

The continuation of the cold weather has caused general rejoicing among the young people. The skating is now excellent and the ice is so thick that there is not the slightest chance of any accident. On most of the ponds where the young people congregate, the little snow that fell on New Year's morning has been swept off. For the first few days of the cold snap, it was almost too cold for enjoyable skating while the high winds from the north made the cold even more intense. Now, however, the wind has moderated and the last few afternoons and evenings have seen a host of young people on the ice.

There are others who are rejo cing at the length of the cold spell. The ice men are happy for the ponds are frozen to the depth of from seven to eight inches and, in some exceptional cases, as thick as ten inches. The ice is now thick enough to cut and work will be begun at once.

The employes of the Plainfield Ice and Cold Storage Company are busy today on their big ice pond at Watchung, marking the ice for cutting tomorrow. At Tier's lake the work of cutting will be started in a day or two. At New Market the ice is plenty thick enough to cut and work will be started there and on the South Plainfield pond shortly.

Reports from Lake Hopatcong tell of a fine crop of ice there. It is reported to be ten inches thick and very clear. The ice companies will begin their harvesting there this week.

Contagious Diseases Covered.

The ordinance adopted by the North Plainfield Board of Health Tuesday night covers the following diseases: cholera, yellow fever, typhus fever, leprosy, plague, trichinosis, small-pox, varioloid, enteric (or tyyhoid) fever, diphtheria, membraneous croup, or scarlet fever, and is the same as adopted by the Plainfield Board.

Fund is Growing.

The fund started by the members of the Loyal Temperance Legion for a public drinking fountain is steadily growing, and it is believed that by next summer the fountain will be a reality.

THE WIFE IS FORGIVING.

MRS. BLACKFORD CIRCULATING PETITION FOR HUSBAND'S AID.

To Be Used in Case He is Declared of Sound Mind—It Asks Judge Vail to Extend Clemency in His Sentence.

While her husband is languishing in the Union county jail awaiting sentence on the charge of bigamy, Mrs. J. L. Blackford, who was the victim of his infidelity, is doing everything that lies in her power to secure as light punishment as possible for him. Yesterday Mrs. Blackford started a petition in circulation among the business men of Plainfield, in which the signers ask Judge Vail, of the Union County Court, to deal leniently with the prisoner when he is sentenced.

The petition is being prepared to be used in case Blackford is declared sane by the commission of physicians appointed by the court yesterday on application of W. A. Coddington, who has been engaged to act in behalf of her husband by the wife. If the prisoner is found insane, the petition will be of no use, but in the possibility of a contrary opinion Mrs. Blackford is exerting herself to secure as short a term in prison as possible for the bigamist.

The petition is being circulated personally by Mrs. Blackford. It has been signed by many business men who have no sympathy for Blackford himself, but when appealed to by the devoted wife, with tears in her eyes, they find it impossible to decline to do her the favor of adding their name to the petition.

DOCTORS DINED.

Quarterly Meeting of Plainfield Medical Association Held at the Hotel Kensington.

The quarterly meeting of the Plainfiel Medical Association was held last evening at the Hotel Kensington, and it was one of the most interesting and profitable gatherings yet held. Prior to the meeting the members enjoyed their regular banquet, when "Mine Host" Staats served one of his finest dinners. The menu was one of the best enjoyed by the association, and all were loud in their praise of it. Following the banquet the members adjourned to the hotel parlors, where a highly interesting and instructive paper on "Typhoid Fever" was presented by Dr. T. S. Davis. A general and informal discussion of the subject followed, and many valuable points were brought out. The subject as treated by Dr. Davis was from the point of view of a homœopathist.

Those present at the meeting and banquet were: Drs. B. VanD. Hedges, S. B. Probasco, J. H. Carman, T. H Tomlinson, Marc L. Clawson, O. L. Jenkins, T. S. Davis, Kempton Browning, F. C. Ard, J. T. Fritts, H. V. Merrell, N. W. Currie, M. B. Long, W. H. Murray, E. W. Hedges, W. C. Boone, A. F. VanHorn, Albert Pittis, W. C. Allen.

CAMDEN'S MAYOR CONDEMNED.

An Indignation Meeting Blames Him for Appointing Unfit School Principal.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Camden, Jan. 4—Former Senator Maurice Rogers presided last night at an indignation meeting of 500 citizens, where resolutions were passed condemning Mayor William B. Hatch for continuing Martin Scheibner as principal of the High School, and for the methods used to put Scheibner in the place. The resolutions blamed the Mayor for Scheibner's appointment and declared that the principal conducts himself in such a way as to provoke discord in the school, that he is arbitrary, partial and untruthful, and that he procured his teacher's certificate in a dishonorable way. The resolutions also condemned the School Commission, and called for the appointment of a committee to devise a plan for abolishing the commission and for the appointment of a new body more representative of the people and less the representative of one-man power.

A Singer in Demand.

Mrs. John Manley sang at the religious services conducted in the Ninth Regiment Armory in New York Sunday, and last night she was one of the soloists at the Red Men's installation exercises. Next Tuesday she will sing at the installation of the G. A. R. and the Sons of Veterans and later in the evening at the thirtieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Scribner, of Maple avenue.

On the Retired List.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Teachers' Retirement Fund, held in Trenton Tuesday, seven teachers were placed on the retired list. Among these was Miss Jennie Wortman, of Liberty Corner, who is given an allowance of $315 a year. There are now twenty-four teachers drawing annuities from the retirement fund.

PAY ON FIRST OF MONTH

COUNCIL'S NEW MOVE APPRECIATED BY CITY EMPLOYES.

It is Probable That in the Future the Men Will Receive Their Pay on the First and Thus Make it Easier for Them.

There is one thing which should receive the early attention of the new Common Council. That is an arrangement whereby all city employes can receive their pay on the first day of the month. When a person is obliged to wait a whole month for his pay the money cannot come any too soon to suit him when the first of the month arrives. It has occurred that the employes have been obliged to wait a number of days and weeks, before they could get their money owing to the fact that either the president of the Council or some other official, whose duty it is to sign checks, was away.

Under the present system the employes have had little cause to object, for City Treasurer William F. Arnold has made it a point to pay the men just as soon as possible. It has been said that arrangements can be perfected whereby the men could be paid on the first day of the month, and it is considered only fair that they should be. It is thought that under the new system, proposed by Mr. Dumont at the meeting of the Council Tuesday evening and adopted by that body, that this trouble will be overcome. Under this system the claims will all be audited early and thus the usual delay, occasioned by auditing them after the Council, will not occur. It is said that this was one reason why Mr. Dumont offered the resolution.

Many of the men who have to wait a month for their money are obliged to run accounts for various things, and they like to settle their bills the first of the month. It has not always been possible for them to do this.

A JACK HORNER PARTY.

Pleasant Local Affair Enjoyed by the Young Women's Club.

The members of the Young Women's Club held one of their regular social affairs last evening at the club rooms, West Front street. It was what might be termed "A Jack Horner" party, and no end of amusement was caused in the attempt made by those present in pulling plums from a large Christmas pie. Of course, the participants did not feel called upon to sit in the corner after the fashion of Jack Horner, but they had just as much fun. After enjoying themselves in this way for a time, games were played for awhile. Then refreshments were served and the rest of the evening was passed in a social manner. There seems to be renewed interest in the club on the part of the members and a successful season is promised.

TO BRANCH OUT.

Project of Continuing New Orange Railroad to Connect With Lackawanna.

The New York and New Orange Railroad Company is preparing for an important transaction in the spring, at which time the road will be built to continue across the country, crossing the D., L. & W. R. R. at Millburn. Two routes have been surveyed; one of these routes is over a private right-of-way, which will be given to the company by the land owners.

This proposed extension of the road will be an important move, and will no doubt put the line on a paying basis, on account of the freight business to be done with the Fandango Paper Mills, the Diamond Mills and Litehipe's Stone Crusher, east of Millburn. The road will also connect with Springfield.

SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC.

Village of Iselin, Near New Brunswick, Has One Death.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, Jan. 4.—A small pox epidemic has broken out in the village of Iselin, near this city. Four children of William Clarkson were stricken last week and one of them died.

The nature of the disease was not known at first and several children living in the same house with the Clarkson's were permitted to continue going to the Iselin Public School.

The Clarkson house has been quarantined by the Woodbridge Board of Health and all of the school children have been vaccinated.

Can't Purchase a Lighting Plant.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bayonne, January 4.—At the meeting of the Common Council, Tuesday, City Attorney Benny declared that there was no authority given by law for the city to purchase an electric light or gas plant. It would require legislation to give the city such authority. The City Attorney was instructed to give an opinion in writing.

—There will be an important meeting of the Primary Teachers' Union next week Monday evening.

SENATOR REED'S PLAN SEEMS TO BE POPULAR

Publishing Valuations Will Tend to Equal Assessments.

LOCAL ASSESSOR HIT HARD.

HE WILL HAVE TO MOVE CAREFUL IN HIS WORK.

The Publication of the Assessments Will End the Practice of Favoritism to the Rich and to Those With Political Influence—The Bill Will Be Introduced Early in the Session.

Senator Charles A. Reed, of Somerset county, seems to have struck a popular subject in his announced intention of framing a law that will equalize assessments throughout the State. As already explained in The Daily Press, the proposed bill will provide for the publication in the local newspapers of all the assessments on real estate made by the city and township assessors. By this means each property owner can see at what figure his neighbor is assessed, and if there should be any discrepancy or favoritism the fact will be at once apparent, and the solution of the vexed question of equal taxation will work itself out in its own and in a natural way through the medium of protest where the assessments have been unjust or unfair.

It is thought that a law of this kind cannot fail to be productive of good results in many ways. For instance, it will remind the local assessors that their duplicates will practically be put into the hands of the people directly interested through publication, and this will be a check upon favoritism, political and otherwise, against which there has been so much complaint. There is no doubt that many of these complaints have been just, and have been the cause of much dissatisfaction in most communities of the State. Some of the local assessors appear to have believed that their continuation in office has depended upon the support of large property owners, and one of the objects of Senator Reed's bill will be to do away with the practice of making lower valuations for some and higher valuations for others.

Another effect of the proposed legislation, it is believed, will be to reduce the labors of the State Board of Taxation, and also to bring the county boards, which are composed of the local assessors, into more harmonious accord. It is well known that it was long the practice—and it is probable that it still to some extent obtains—of the local assessors to keep down as low as possible the valuation of their respective townships. Hence combinations were possible in the local boards, the result of which has sometimes been to favor certain townships to the detriment of others.

It is thought that Senatoa Reed's proposed bill will be to so directly place the matter of assessments in the hands of the taxpapers that the local assessors will be more diligent in the matter of making fair and equitable assessments, inasmuch as their continuation in office will largely depend upon the manner in which they do their work, and not upon the influence of a few men whose interest is in low valuations of their individual real estate.

The bill will be introduced into the Legislature at an early date by Senator Reed.

Say They Are Paying too Much.

District Clerk Sickley, of the Springfield Board of Education, has prepared a statement which is being used as an argument by the residents of "South Neighborhood" who wish to set up a borough government in that section of the township. It shows that of 230 children of school age in the township eighty-nine live within the limits of the proposed borough, and that out of $1,600 raised for school purposes in the township this year, $626 was contributed by the would-be borough residents. The advocates of the borough claim that the statement shows they are paying more than their share of taxes for school purposes.

Will Bore for Oil and Gas.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Jan. 4.—The Glen Rock Oil Company has filed articles of incorporation with the Clerk of Union County. The company is capitalized for $50,000 and will do business in Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York, Indiana, West Virginia and Michigan. The objects of the company are the sinking and construction of oil and gas wells and the producing of oil and gas therefrom. It will also deal in oil and gas lands.

—New students are entering the Plainfield Business College, and old students are securing positions. Now is a good time to enter for a term of six months.

GATACRE ATTACKED.

Sterkstroom Report Not Confirmed In London.

LIVELY CANNONADE AT LADYSMITH.

New Battery to Be Equipped—Eight Additional Militia Regiments Ordered Out to Replace Those Serving at the Front.

LONDON, Jan. 4.—There is complete absence of anything new from the seat of war. The report of the Boer attack upon Molteno is not yet confirmed. Apparently General French holds nothing within five miles of Colesberg Junction. His request for re-enforcements dispels any present hope that he will be able to seize one of the crossings of the Orange river.

It is probable that when Lord Roberts arrives General French will be ordered to quit his present unsupported position and to concentrate his command at De Aar or Orange River. As The Daily Telegraph says, "General French seems to be in the position of a man having a tiger cat in a trap and unable to kill it for want of a stick."

A dispatch from Dover Farm announces that Lieutenant Colonel Pilcher has returned there safely from Douglas.

Since Commandant General Joubert's return to the front the cannonade of Ladysmith by the Boers has been much livelier. Between Dec. 18 and Dec. 29 four shells killed one officer and 13 men and wounded 13 officers and 11 men.

The war office acknowledges the inferiority of the regular artillery by authorizing the equipment of the new battery attached to the London volunteer corps with Vickers and Maxims, some of which the Boers use, and by ordering 100 of these 12½ pounder quick firers built immediately. The officers and men of the new battery will be supplied from the Honorable artillery company.

Eight additional militia regiments have been called out. Seven of these will serve in Ireland, replacing the regulars sent to South Africa.

A dispatch from Sterkstroom, Cape Colony, dated Wednesday, says:

"The Boers attacked General Gatacre's forces at Molteno this morning, and the action is now proceeding."

The Boer forces around Stormberg are estimated at 6,000 to 8,000. That they gave battle at Molteno is an indication of confidence of success on their part, for Stormberg is a natural fortress, whose defensive strength exceeds that of any position in that locality. Gatacre has probably about 8,000 men in his command.

A dispatch from Kimberley, dated Dec. 26, says: "The Boers last night evinced considerable interest in the Premier mine, using their searchlights. This morning they actively shelled the fort. The Royal artillery replied. Our shells were well placed and dropped amid the smoke of the enemy's guns. Last night's storm ignited some of our military mines, but there were no casualties. Mr. Cecil Rhodes has supplied the Boer prisoners with new clothing."

A dispatch from Naauwpoort, Cape Colony, dated Jan. 2, says: "Colesberg has not yet been occupied by the British. The Boers have removed their laager out of range of the British guns, but are holding a strong position. The British guns command the Norval's Pont road and the Colesberg road bridge."

A dispatch to The Times from Lourenco Marques, dated Tuesday, says:

"An ambulance corps with 29 wounded left Dundee for Pretoria on Dec. 31.

"The Boers at Dundee behaved shockingly. The ambulance doctor and assistants were imprisoned for 11 days in the compound. There was a terrible exhibition of rowdyism on Christmas day.

"Sixteen soldiers have died in the hospital since the British evacuated Dundee."

The Vienna correspondent of The Standard says:

"Emperor Nicholas has assured the British embassador at St. Petersburg, Sir C. S. Scott, that Great Britain need not fear intervention or any sort of difficulty from Russia in the present South African complications. This may fairly be interpreted as an assurance, including an indirect promise, that France will abstain from creating difficulties for England."

Sailing of Second Contingent.

OTTAWA, Jan. 4.—It is stated by the militia department that the transports Laurentian and the Montezuma, carrying the second Canadian contingent to South Africa, will sail from Halifax on the 18th inst. and the Pomeranian on the 20th. The western squadrons go by the last steamer.

Crew Safely Rescued.

EAST MORICHES, N. Y., Jan. 4.—In the bitter cold of the early morning men from several life saving stations yesterday battled against a heavy surf in an effort to rescue the crew of the three-masted schooner the S. P. Hitchcock, which is ashore opposite this place. After several hours of heroic work nine men, the entire crew, were taken ashore.

That Seized Flour.

READING, Pa., Jan. 4.—The American flour seized by the British off the coast of Africa was manufactured by the Seaboard Milling company of this city. The shipment consisted of 25,000 barrels, valued at $125,000. This company has been sending most of its product to South Africa for the past four years.

Twenty-two Sailors Perish.

LONDON, Jan. 4.—A dispatch from Bristol announces that the British steamer Borghese of Glasgow foundered off Cape Finistere last Friday in a hurricane. Twenty-two of the crew were drowned. The survivors, nine in number, have just arrived in Bristol.

Congressman Boutelle Gaining.

BANGOR, Me., Jan. 4.—A private letter from the attending physician at McLean asylum, Waverley, Mass., says: "I am very glad to be able to tell you that Congressman Boutelle has made some further progress since I wrote you on Friday last."

Dead From Burns.

SENECA FALLS, N. Y., Jan. 4.—Mrs. Nora Shuman, who was severely burned about two weeks ago by her clothes catching fire while burning rubbish in her yard, has just died.

Contests In Kentucky.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 4.—Papers in 17 contested election cases affecting seats of house members of the legislature have been filed with House Clerk Leigh.

PLAGUE IN HAWAII

New Cases Discovered—Passage to San Francisco Denied.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—The steamer Australia, which has just arrived at this port, brings the following advices from Honolulu, bearing date of Dec. 26:

"After an interval of 13 days, in which no cases were discovered, bubonic plague has broken out again. The announcement was made Christmas afternoon that there had been three new cases of bubonic plague, death occurring in each case. The first was that of Miss Ethel Johnson of Iwelti, who had been sick for six days. She died Saturday afternoon Dec. 23, and an autopsy was held, after which her body was cremated.

"Though the autopsy and bacteriological investigation are said to show beyond doubt that she died of the plague, the announcement of the fact was not made until Christmas day. When Miss Johnson was first taken sick, it was said she had the plague, and she was kept under observation by physicians of the board of health. Then it was announced that she did not have the plague.

The Australia only brought one steerage passenger. On account of the plague the agents of the vessel refused to carry out the 50 people who wanted to come to San Francisco second class.

The Plague at Manila.

MANILA, Jan. 4.—The health officers have found a native with all the symptoms of bubonic plague in a house in the walled city where two suspicious deaths have occurred. The patient has been isolated, and every precaution has been taken to prevent a spread of the disease.

MORMONS SCORED.

Mississippi's Governor Gives Final Message and Is Named For Senator.

JACKSON, Miss., Jan. 4.—The reading of Governor McLaurin's message in the legislature yesterday created quite a surprise when the section referring to the growth of Mormonism in Mississippi was reached. The governor denounced the Mormon sect in scathing terms and recommended the adoption of laws that will prevent the teaching of the doctrine in the state. During the discussion of the subject he said:

"There is no threatened danger to the state more baneful than the lecherous teachings of the Mormon apostles of polygamy. It is more dangerous because it is taught under the guise of the ministry of the gospel. The Mormons disclaim the open teachings of polygamy in the pulpits but they teach it on the corner, and the minister's cloak gives potency to their speech."

The Democratic caucus here unanimously nominated Governor McLaurin for the long term for United States senator.

The Molineux Trial.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—In the trial of Roland B. Molineux for the murder of Mrs. Katharine J. Adams the most interesting testimony yesterday was that of John H. Yocum, a chemist and a warm friend of Harry Cornish. He said that any chemist could make cyanide of mercury, the poison which is alleged to have caused the death of Mrs. Adams. He had made it himself, and the process was easy. He took prussian blue and yellow oxide of mercury, boiled them together, filtered the mass and the precipitate contained cyanide of mercury. Still other drugs would yield cyanide of mercury. All of the drugs required were what is known as "dry colors." Molineux, it will be remembered, was superintendent of a dry color factory in Newark. Yocum testified that any man known as a chemist can procure the ingredients.

Earthquake Started Gas.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 4.—Reports received from interior points show that the recent earthquake was the cause of a number of strange happenings. The mud volcanoes in the desert near the Colorado river have become active after a long rest and are now spouting mud again. The natural gas wells near Yuma are also in working order since the heavy quake. They have been lighted, and the glare at night can be seen for miles. A correspondent from Moosa writes that a number of fissures were made in the ground at that place 20 or more feet in length.

The Braznell Inquest.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Jan. 4.—The fourth session of the coroner's inquest into the Braznell mine disaster began yesterday morning in the large courtroom in the presence of a large crowd. The three previous sessions were devoted to the work of viewing the bodies of the victims as they were removed from the mine. Yesterday's session was given over to the taking of the testimony of the officials of the mine and others who knew of the condition of the mine after as well as before the explosion.

Aged Woman Dead.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Jan. 4.—Mrs. Cynthia Conant, 101 years of age, the oldest woman in Springfield, is dead in this city. She remembered Lafayette, whom she met in Boston on his visit there, and she recalled incidents of the war of 1812 and the part her father, Jesse Lewis, took in capturing a British vessel in Hyannis harbor. She was born in Centerville Sept. 15, 1798.

Report on Soldiers' Homes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The secretary of war has sent to congress a report from Major Knox, inspector general of the army, on the condition of the national soldiers' homes. It shows the homes in excellent condition, clean, modern and well policed. Some of them are crowded. The food is well cooked and served, but the bills of fare do not always indicate a diet suitable for feeble old men.

To Join the Texas.

BOSTON, Jan. 4.—A draft of 28 sailors from the training ship Alliance and the receiving ship Wabash has left the Charlestown navy yard for New York, to join the Texas. The Texas is being repaired previous to joining Rear Admiral Farquhar's squadron in the West Indies.

Gift For Boston Art Museum.

BOSTON, Jan. 4.—The will of Alexander Mosely of this city, filed in the Suffolk probate court, bequeaths property in this city assessed at $140,350 to the Boston Art museum upon the death of the daughters of the testator.

Six Hundred Earthquake Victims.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 4.—The latest reports from Achalkalek, in the government of Tiflis, show that 600 lives were lost during the earthquakes which visited that district on Monday.

OF LOCAL INTEREST

Some people we Know and We Will Profit by Hearing About Them.

This is a purely local event.
It took place in Plainfield, N. J.
Not in Buffalo, N. Y.
You are asked to investigate it;
Asked to believe a citizen's word,
To confirm a citizen's statement.
Any article that is endorsed,
That obtains resident advocates,
Is more worthy of confidence
Than a far off foreign article
Testified to by foreign people.

Mrs. Wm. H. Ludlow of 88 Jackson street says:—"I was troubled with kidney complaint, backache and a sort of dull pain across my loins for several years. If I sat for any length of time and tried to rise I had a sharp pain in the kidneys. Walking any distance or much standing agravated the difficulty. I could not rest well at night from the fact that I had to be constantly changing about from one position to another trying to free myself from pain. I used quite a number of remedies but got no permanant relief. I was prevailed upon to get Doan's Kidney Pills from L. W. Randolph's drug store. In justice to them I must say they did me a great deal of good. It is seldom that I feel any pain in my back and when I do a few doses of this remedy never fails to relieve me. I know others who have used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results. From my experience I can honestly recommend to all who suffer from Kidney troubles".

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

H. Eggerding,
131 Park Ave. Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

Flynn Bros.,
SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods
Have stood the test for years.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.
Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .
Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot & Tar
is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

WANTED
The address of all AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS in Plainfield and vicinity. If you will send us your address on a postal card we will be glad to furnish you with our latest price list. Our line is complete, and goods are always fresh and our prices are the lowest.
Geo. W. Wrennick,
133 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .
in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated
DOMESTIC FINISH.
Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.
Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.
Trading Stamps given.
The City Steam & Hand Laundry
MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B
19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 126 Park avenue. 101

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING
is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.
MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor. 24 ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 335

A. KANE,
Proprietor of the
EAST END FEED STORE.
Dealer in
Hay, Feed, Grain & Flour, Coal and Wood.
Also Dealer in
BLUE STONE, FLAGGING and CURBING.
The best goods and work at the lowest prices.
Store and Office
409 East Third St.,
Telephone 913.
A. McKeon, Manager.
Open evenings until 8 o'clock.

McCullough's STEAM MILL
at Steiner place, North Plainfield
R. H. McCullough, Prop'r
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 311

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 97 A.
Yard 726 to 737 South Ave.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM
will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.
Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.
The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.
FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

GEO. O. STEVENS & CO.
OAK
747 WEST FRONT ST.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 951 Dear

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS.
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . .
: SPECIALS :
For This Week.
U. S. club skates.
Shinny sticks.
Skate Straps.
Boys' sleighs.
" coasters.
Steel snow shovels.
Wood " "
Carpet sweepers.
Oil heaters.
Parlor stoves reduced.
The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

Irving Savings Institution.
115 CHAMBERS ST., NEW YORK CITY
The Trustees of this institution have declared interest on all sums remaining on deposit during the three and six months ending December 31, 1899, at the rate of FOUR PER CENT. per annum on amounts from $1 to $3,000, payable on and after Monday, January 15, 1900. Deposits made on or before January 10th will draw interest from January 1st.
EW. H. B. TOTTEN, President.
G. BYRON LATIMER, Secretary 12 26 10

TRY THE
QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No. 337 Park Avenue.
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS.
CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

John G. Bantle,
First-class
Ladies' and Gent's
TAILOR.
428 Watchung Avenue.
Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
TELEPHONE 1165.

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS
For the Fire-place. Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates. Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 149 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y. 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.
We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1.25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.
A Big Assortment.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.
Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

New Discovery Cures Rheumatism.
One by one the ills of the flesh are overcome and the latest to succumb is wily old Rheumatism, who has retained his crown of pain many many years. A hospital specialist, searching for some happy combination to absolutely cure rheumatism, one day hit the right combination and to-day the world at large is benefitting by scores of cures. The remedy, which is the talk of the medical world, is
DR. HOLTIN'S RHEUMATIC REMEDY which has cured in every single instance, and has been used in desperate cases. The great beauty of this new cure is that it goes to the spot at once and relieves instantly the pain because it drives out of the system the deadly uric acid and gets the muscle fibers back to their normal tension. Any one suffering or knowing any one who suffers, should act at once and seek the aid of Dr. Holtin's Rheumatic Remedy, because it is highly indorsed by the profession and absolutely certain to cure the most obstinate case.
Be sure to get the genuine. Sold only in 50c. packages.
Prepared only by
HOLTIN CHEMICAL CO. 93 Maiden Lane, N. Y.
FOR SALE BY
JOHN P. POWERS,
Druggist,
tu th 45 Somerset St.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
Paris for 1900.
Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.
Circulars at
161 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS.
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.
A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

BEST FOR THE BOWELS
If you haven't a regular, healthy movement of the bowels every day, you're sick, or will be. Keep your bowels open, and be well. Force, in the shape of violent physic or pill poison, is dangerous. The smoothest, easiest, most perfect way of keeping the bowels clean and clean is to take
CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
TRADE MARK REGISTERED
REGULATE THE LIVER
Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken, or Gripe. 10c, 25c, 50c. Write for free sample, and booklet on health. Address Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York. 322a
KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN

M. Molnar,
432 Watchung Ave.,
Ladies' and Gents'
FINE TAILORING
Graduate of
New York Cutting School.
Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 230 Park Ave. Tel. 295A.

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue
BUTCHERS.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83 A.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills
25c.
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

CONGRESS RESUMES.

National Lawmakers Again In Session.

MANY IMPORTANT BILLS INTRODUCED

The Senate Votes to Take Up Financial Bill Immediately—Representative Sulzer Creates a Flurry In the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The senate evinced a disposition yesterday to take up the work of the session in earnest and while the sitting was of only a little more than an hour's duration a large number of important bills were introduced and a definite foundation laid for proceeding with the financial bill. The hour for the beginning of the debate on this measure was fixed for 2 o'clock today. The most notable event of the day was an objection entered by Mr. Hoar of Massachusetts to the summary disposition of resolutions asking for information about the conduct of the Philippine war. He indicated a purpose to demand consideration for such measures evep at the expense of the financial bill. The 10th inst. was named as the day for the delivery of eulogies in honor of the memory of the late Vice President Hobart.

The senate committee on foreign relations presented a report upon Senator Hoar's resolution in regard to claims of citizens of the United States against Spain. The committee presents a schedule of claims amounting to over $1,000,000 and adds, "It is impracticable to state even approximately the amount actually due on these claims or to allege, in view of the state of records of the state department of that date, that there may not be others than those mentioned." As to the remedy of the claimants, the committee expresses the opinion that the only present remedy is by diplomatic negotiation.

The house was in session but 15 minutes and during that time had a little flurry over an attempt by Mr. Sulzer of New York to secure consideration for a resolution asking information concerning the relations of the treasury department with the National City bank of New York. The resolution was referred to the committee on ways and means.

Mr. Gaines of Tennessee rose to a question of personal privilege respecting his vote on the Roberts resolution. These events and the prayer of the chaplain occupied the brief time the house was in session.

Chairman Payne and some of his associates of the ways and means committee had an informal talk after the adjournment of the house relative to the Sulzer resolution calling on the secretary of the treasury for information which had been referred to the committee. A meeting of the committee will be held today, and a pretty thorough understanding was arrived at that at today's meeting the resolution would be considered and probably reported at once to the house. Some changes are likely to be made in the resolution, however, by the omission of the two banks specifically named, thus making the inquiry relate generally to all banks. It is understood also that personal inferences are likely to be avoided in the amended resolution. In the form thus reported back to the house it is expected the resolution will pass without objection and that any debate on the question involved will be deferred until the secretary of the treasury has had an opportunity to comply with the request for information.

Boston City Council at Odds.

BOSTON, Jan. 4.—Mayor Hart called several political leaders into consultation with him yesterday in an endeavor to form some plan for straightening out the tangle in the common council caused by Daniel J. Kiley's alleged usurpation of the presidency on Monday. Nothing developed that was likely to relieve the situation. That trouble is not unexpected at the council meeting this evening is shown by the action of Mr. Kiley in requesting the police board to assign a squad of police for duty at the city hall at that time.

The Moody Schools.

EAST NORTHFIELD, Mass., Jan. 4—The Moody schools in this town have opened after the Christmas recess with an attendance in all departments of about 800. There are many new students, notably in the Mount Hermon school. The opening sessions were devoted to some extent to expressions of respect for the late D. L. Moody. The general memorial service will be held next Sunday and will probably be conducted by Mr. Paul D. Moody.

This Man Was Smart Indeed.

ELMIRA, Jan. 4.—A man named Smart, claiming to be an agent for P. F. Collier, the publisher, offered Collier's Weekly for one year and 14 volumes of Kipling's works for $5.20 and secured $1 deposit from each person subscribing here, making an "easy hundred" from some of the most prominent people in town. The paper and books never came, and Collier announces that Smart is not in his employ.

Fruit Business Ruined.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Jan. 4.—The effects of the recent storms on exports are now manifesting themselves, and the apprehensions of the colony in this respect are confirmed. The local fruit companies have practically collapsed, and the fruit industry, already absorbed by the United Fruit company, has reached its lowest ebb. The United Fruit company is dispatching only two fruit steamers this week.

Mrs. Cutting Wants Divorce.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 4.—Minnie Seligman Cutting, the well known actress, through her attorney, ex-Governor Johnston, has filed suit in the circuit court for divorce from her husband, Robert Cutting. She alleges desertion. The couple were married July 28, 1892, at Monmouth Beach, N. J. They separated Oct. 18, 1898, and Mrs. Cutting alleges that her husband has since remained away from her.

Forger Sentenced.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Jan. 4.—Alba M. Kent, Jr., of this city, who forged notes a year ago to the amount of $10,000, raised the money on the same and eloped to Japan with Miss Marjorie Vinton, pleaded guilty in the supreme court at Mayville on two indictments for forgery and was sentenced to Auburn prison for 3 years and 2 months at hard labor.

Weather Probabilities.

Generally fair and warmer; light west to southwest winds.

PRISONERS SET FREE.

General Wood Liberates Forty In Santa Clara Province.

HAVANA, Jan. 4.—General Wood has issued an important order giving freedom to 40 men in the province of Santa Clara. Some of them had been detained without trial. Others were suffering excessive punishment. All had been released ten months before by an order issued by General Bates, but they were immediately rearrested by orders from division headquarters on the ground that a department commander did not have the power to pardon.

After looking carefully into the cases General Wood decided that the judgment of General Bates regarding their release was wise, and consequently today's order setting them at liberty was promulgated.

Reports from other departments are daily expected, and it is believed that before the end of the month a large number will be released, especially in the province of Havana. The cases of those who have been held for a long time in detention without trial will be the first to be investigated.

The council of notables, as General Wood's convention of representative Cubans is called, held a session yesterday at which General Wood was present and then adjourned, many of the members having to catch today's boat for the eastern provinces. General Maso, who hopes to return to Havana in the near future, said that freedom from all foreign control was now in sight and that the assurances of President McKinley and the conduct of the governor general convinced him of the absolute sincerity of the United States.

Bids for school furniture to the value of $500,000 will soon be invited.

Hanna Denies the Story.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 4.—Senator Hanna declares that although he has been urged to stand for the permanent chairmanship of the next Republican national convention he will not do so. "There are other men," he said, "who are more ambitious than I and who value that honor more than I do. I will give way to them." He also declared that he will not be one of the delegates at large from Ohio in the convention. "I greatly desire that General Dick shall have an uncontested place in the Ohio delegation at large," he explained, "and I am glad to step out in his favor. If I was to be considered as one of the delegates at large, precedent giving the place to me as a senator, there would be a contest between General Grosvenor and General Dick. I being out of it, there will be room for both of them, as there should be, and friction will be avoided." It is evident from the foregoing that the plan to make Senator Hanna a delegate at large and permanent chairman of the Republican national convention was formed without his consent.

New York State Fair.

ALBANY, Jan. 4.—As the outcome of the warm fight on for the management of the next state fair a bill will be introduced in the legislature carrying out the recommendation suggested in the governor's annual message that the state take under its control the management of the state fair. At the annual meeting of the New York State Agricultural society, which occurs here Jan. 17, several schemes will be put before the convention toward placing the society upon a broader and more businesslike basis and to make it in fact as well as in name a state agricultural society.

Monthly Crop Report.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The climate and crop bulletin for December says: "The weather conditions during the month of December have been generally favorable for winter wheat, reports from a majority of states indicating that the plant is well rooted, has made vigorous growth and is in a most promising condition at the close of the month, except in Michigan and portions of Ohio, the late seeding in the first named state not having stooled satisfactorily, while in the latter state the plant is small and weak and in poor condition for the winter."

New Hotel For Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4.—George C. Boldt of the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, and his partner, Lawrence McCormick of the Bellevue in this city, announce that they have adopted plans for the erection of a hotel which is to cost $2,000,000 and which is to be erected on the site of the present Stratford hotel here. The structure, which is to compare, according to Mr. Boldt, with any hotel in the United States, is to be completed by Sept. 1, 1901. There are to be 350 rooms for guests in the new hotel.

Trades School at Tuskegee.

TUSKEGEE, Ala., Jan. 4.—The formal opening of the Armstrong-Slater memorial trades building at the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial institute will take place Jan. 10. A number of prominent business men of the north are to be present. This building, which has been erected and equipped at a cost of $35,000, is the largest and most complete structure on the grounds.

Trains Crash In St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 4.—A passenger train in the yards in this city crashed into a stock train last night, causing a bad wreck. Details are slow. Reports thus far indicate seven persons injured, all on the freight train.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—FLOUR—State and western rather firmer and buyers more inclined to take hold; Minnesota patents, $3.85a4.10; winter straights, $3.40a3.45; Minnesota bakers' $2.85a3.10; winter extras, $2.55a2.90.

WHEAT—No. 2 red opened easy under disappointing cables, but recovered on English buying and a fair speculative demand; May, high, 75 11-16c.; low, 75⅝c.; July, high, 75⅝c.; low, 75 5-16c.

RYE—Steady; state, 56c.; No. 2 western, 60¼c., f. o. b., afloat.

CORN—No. 2 opened easier on big Chicago receipts, but later rallied with wheat; May, high and low, 39⅝c.

OATS—No. 2 quiet; track, white, state, 31a34½c.; track, white, western, 31a34½c.

PORK—Firm; mess, $10.25a10.75; family, $12a12.50.

LARD—Easier; prime western steam, $6.12½.

BUTTER—Firm; state dairy, 20a27c.; state creamery, 23a28c.

CHEESE—Firm; fall made, fancy, small, 12¾a13c.; fall made, fancy, large, 12¾a13c.

EGGS—Firm and higher; state and Pennsylvania, 25a26c.; western, ungraded, at mark, 24a23c.

SUGAR—Raw steady; fair refining, 3 13-16c.; centrifugal, 96 test, 4¼c.; refined steady; crushed, 5.35c.; powdered, 5.05c; TURPENTINE—Steady at 52½a53c.

RICE—Steady; domestic, 4a6½c.; Japan, 4¼a5c.

TALLOW—Steady; city, 5c.; country, 4¼a5c.

HAY—Steady; shipping, 65a75c.; good to choice, 80a85c.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE,
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

EDUCATIONAL.

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
Adelia C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th. Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
::: PIANO AND THEORY :::
Home Studio,
132 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN,
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6me

.....Piano Instruction.....
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty .....
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

REAL ESTATE
AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmon
Telephone 601

Don't be wasting you money and paying high prices for frames. Come and get your framing done with the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street,
where you will find a large assortment in ready-made frames and the latest styles in mouldings to make up frames to order at prices that will surprise you. Also fine drawings in crayons and pastels from all kinds of photographs.
Best Satisfaction Guaranteed.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put here to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Pron'r.
107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL..
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor.

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 140 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
E. H. BIRD, P. M.

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS,
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to hire for picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.
T. M. INGRAHAM.

XMAS IS NEAR
Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.
MRS. L. J. DENTON,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 761.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 2c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Ouming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

COLLIER
EYE SPECIALIST,
103 Park Ave.....
Established 1869. Eyes Examined Free.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing,
Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

J. W. VANSICKLE.
129 North Ave. Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 148 b.

OUR OYSTERS
ARE THE
---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial
Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

BAMBERGER'S
"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE"
MARKET & HALSEY STS.
Doors open at 8:30 during winter months, instead of at 8 o'clock, as formerly.

Sacrifice of Men's Kid Gloves {ADLERS}.

FIVE THOUSAND PAIRS—the entire season's accumulation of throw-outs, or, in other words, goods showing imperfections sufficient to cause their rejection from regular stock lines. It may be an oil spot, a slight shading or some trivial defect scarcely noticeable to any except a practiced eye. Essentially as good as the best turned out by "Adler," whose name is synonymous with excellence when it comes to gloves. All styles, all sizes, and lower prices than it will be possible to quote under almost any other conditions than those governing this purchase and sale.

Lot Number 1 Men's and Boys' Gloves
An exceptionally good assortment of mismates, all clean, bright goods, but a trifling difference in shade or size brings them under the head of "partially undesirable," and an absurdly low price is placed upon them in consequence; for ordinary wear they are as good as the best selling for from 50c to 1.50 per pr., special to morrow while they last..... 25c

Lot Number 2 Men's and Boys' Gloves
Made of splendid kid and cape stock with buck seams, out seams or over seams, lined and unlined, as well made and nicely finished as any gloves turned out of the factory excepting a few machine imperfections, the least among them worth 75c per pair and most of them intended to retail for 1.00 and upwards, tomorrow while they last..... 50c

Lot No. 3 Men's and Boys' Gloves made of very finest kid, either lined or unlined, some of them lined with silk, newest shades of gray, tan and oxblood, a little bit soiled, but the cleanest glove would look worse in a single wearing, it seems almost folly to let them go at a price so much below their actual worth, instead of 1.00 to 1.50 per pair, while they last..... 65c

Lot No. 4 Men's and Boys' Gloves
First quality Mocha, reindeer and kid, and if it were not for our invariable rule to sell as we buy, these lines could be put in stock and sold at regular prices. It is difficult to find the faults, and after looking them over we're pretty nearly convinced that there's a mistake somewhere or we never would have gotten these 1.00 and 1.50 gloves retail at 85c

L. BAMBERGER & CO.,
Market and Halsey Streets.
Newark, N. J.

WANTED
25 Mechanics
and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.
Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.
Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.
. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

FIRE!!!
When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by
ELSTON M. FRENCH.
Largest agency in the city
63 Nort Ave., opp. Be o

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.

Both Branches Organize and Hear the Governor's Message.

ALBANY, Jan. 4.—Both houses of the legislature met at noon yesterday and after organizing and listening to the governor's message adjourned to Wednesday evening next.

The assembly was called to order by Clerk Archie E. Baxter. After roll call the house balloted for officers, with the following result:

Speaker, S. Fred Nixon of Chautauqua; clerk, A. E. Baxter of Chemung; sergeant-at-arms, F. W. Johnston of Erie; principal doorkeeper, Thomas F. Murphy of New York; first assistant doorkeeper, Charles R. Houghtaling of Albany; second assistant doorkeeper, Roswell P. Warren of Washington; stenographer, H. C. Lammert of Kings.

Of the 149 votes cast Speaker Nixon received 92 and Dr. J. Franklin Barnes of Schuyler, the minority leader, 57.

The senate was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Woodruff, and prayer was offered by Bishop Doane. The lieutenant governor made no speech, merely extending his greetings.

OFFICERS PROMOTED.

Bates, Wheaton, Young, MacArthur and Ludlow Remembered.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The president today sent the following nominations to the senate:

War: Brigadier General J. C. Bates, to be major general of volunteers; Brigadier General Lloyd Wheaton, to be major general of volunteers by brevet.

To be brigadier generals: Colonel S. B. M. Young, Lieutenant Colonel Arthur MacArthur, Lieutenant Colonel William Ludlow; also a number of appointments and promotions in the regular and volunteer army.

To be United States consuls: Thomas T. Prentis of Massachusetts at Rouen, France; George L. Darte of Pennsylvania at Martinique, transferred to Patras, Greece; Alonzo C. Yates of Virginia at Patras, transferred to Martinique.

James E. Hewey to be appraiser of merchandise in the district of Portland and Falmouth, Me.; Edward H. Banks, collector of customs, district of York, Me.

A Chinese Wedding.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4.—The first marriage in this country of a Christianized Chinese couple will take place here next week. The fact that the prospective bride and groom have never seen each other lends additional interest to the event. The future husband is Wung John, the proprietor of a Chinese restaurant in this city, and his fiancee is Su Ting Fu, who is now on her way to Philadelphia from San Francisco, where she was a pupil in the Presbyterian School For Chinese Girls. The wedding will be solemnized in the Arch Street Presbyterian church, and the rector, Rev. Mervine J. Eckles, D. D., will perform the ceremony. Elaborate preparations are in progress for the unusual affair.

First White House Dinner.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The first of the formal dinners of the social season at the White House was given by President and Mrs. McKinley last night, the members of the cabinet and their wives being the guests of honor. Invited to meet them were members of the senate and house and a few other persons. The east room and other public portions of the house were appropriately decorated for the occasion. The Marine band furnished the music. The list of guests was unusually large, covers being laid for over 70 persons.

Supreme Court Justices Appointed.

ALBANY, Jan. 4.—Governor Roosevelt has designated three supreme court justices to sit on appellate division benches to fill vacancies. He designated Justice Michael Herschberg of Newburg to sit on the appellate division bench in the Second department to fill the vacancy caused by the appointment of Justice Cullen to the court of appeals bench for a temporary period. He also designated Justice Frank Hiscock of Syracuse and Justice F. C. Loughlin of Buffalo to sit on the appellate division bench in the Fourth department.

Cockfighters Ice Bound.

CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 4.—The steamer Oliver King is ice bound in the Tennessee river near the mouth of Little river and is in a dangerous position. On board the boat are 25 sports from Knoxville, Loudon, Kingston and Chattanooga who were on their way into Little river to have a big cocking main. The supplies have been exhausted, and a party has left for Loudon to get them relief. The boat is in the center of a big ice gorge.

Millions For Defense.

BUDAPEST, Jan. 4.—The Pesti-Hirlap says that the Austria-Hungarian government contemplates spending £20,000,000 immediately for increasing the army and navy in consequence of the grave European situation. The government, according to the same authority, will also propose to the Austrian and Hungarian parliaments an increase of the annual grant for defensive purposes.

Second Sight and Hearing.

FORT VALLEY, Ga., Jan. 4.—"Aunt" Polly Jordan, colored, who lives about two miles from here, is, according to reliable authority, 107 years of age. Some years ago she lost both sight and hearing, and her mind became deranged. Recently hearing and sight have returned, and her mental balance is completely restored.

Newfoundland Prosperous.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Jan. 4.—The public revenues of Newfoundland for the six months that ended with Dec. 31 were $1,043,000, which is $230,000 over the figures reached during the corresponding period of 1898. This is the largest showing ever made in the history of the colony.

Help For Boer Widows and Orphans.

GRAND RAPIDS, Jan. 4.—John Stekete, vice consul of the Netherlands, has forwarded to Holland a draft for 9,200 guilders, Grand Rapids Hollanders' latest contribution for the widows and orphans of Boers killed in South Africa. The sum amounts to $3,078 American money.

For a New County.

ALBANY, Jan. 4.—Senator Mitchell has introduced a bill to create a new county to be known as the county of Bronx in the borough of the Bronx in New York.

Austrian Miners Strike.

VIENNA, Jan. 4.—Three thousand miners have struck for an advance of wages in the Koflach coal district of Styria.

HIGH COURT CLOSED.

Long Conspiracy Trial Before French Senate.

ONLY THREE FOUND GUILTY

Seventy-five Persons Were Thrown Into Prison Five Months Ago. A Costly Affair With Meager Results.

PARIS, Jan. 4.—The conspiracy trial before the senate sitting as the high court has come to an end, except for the sentences in the cases of those convicted. Out of the 75 alleged conspirators who were thrown into prison five months ago and who have been since released in batches owing to want of evidence, only MM. Deroulede, Guerin and Buffet have been found guilty, and these three are accorded "extenuating circumstances," which reduces their punishment to detention in a fortress or banishment. It is understood that the sentence will vary between five and ten years' detention. President Loubet may extend pardons in accordance with the Berenger law in favor of first offenders.

Strong precautionary measures were taken in the vicinity of the senate house but there was no sign of disorder anywhere when the judgments were rendered.

All the Nationalist organs describe the result of the trial as a fiasco for the government after the flourish of trumpets with which it announced the discovery of a great plot against the republic. They insist that the whole indictment fizzles out and that the acquittal of M. Buffet's fellow prisoners disposes of the charge of a royalist conspiracy. Moreover, they declare that the evidence proved that M. Deroulede has always been a political enemy of M. Buffet.

The Journal des Debats says:

"The light thrown by the testimony has shown that the charges against the royalists are perfectly empty. The acquittal of M. Buffet's coprisoners has destroyed the charge."

After dwelling upon the dismissal of batch after batch of prisoners, the paper concludes in the following sarcastic strain:

"It is upon the remaining three or four that the government can alone rely in order to give France a retrospective shadow and to conjure up a vision of outrage, revolution and catastrophe from which the vigilance of the government has spared her."

M. Guerin is held guilty of conspiracy and of insults and outrages at the expense of the police, but he is acquitted of the charge of a premeditated attempt to kill.

The trial has cost 800,000 francs in addition to the expenses of detention.

It is asserted that MM. Deroulede, Buffet and Guerin will be condemned to pay costs.

A Large Coinage.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4.—At the United States mint in this city 122,790,528 coins were made during the year 1899, representing a value of a little more than $65,000,000. In addition to the coin coined for this country work was done for Costa Rica and Santo Domingo. The total number of gold coins executed for the United States was 4,669,768, valued at $54,632,750. The silver pieces coined numbered 38,075,384, representing a value of $8,214,565. The coins of the baser metals, nickel and copper, were issued in abundance. Five cent pieces to the value of $1,301,451.55—26,029,031 pieces—and $536,000.31 worth of cents—53,600,031 pieces—were minted. For Santo Domingo 241,314 silver pesos were coined. For Costa Rica the mint coined 25,000 20 colones pieces, 50,000 10 colones and 100,000 5 colones pieces, all gold coins, with a valuation of $698,023.26.

Choate Opens a Library.

LONDON, Jan. 4.—Mr. Joseph H. Choate, the United States embassador, and Mrs. Choate, accompanied by the bishop of London, the right Rev. Mandel Creighton, and Lord George Hamilton, the secretary of state for India, opened the Free library at Acton donated by Mr. John Passmore Edwards, a well known publisher and founder of many libraries and institutions, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Choate during the course of his remarks referred to the importance of universal education, which their forefathers in America made their cornerstone.

Terrific Powder Explosion.

LAKE LINDEN, Mich., Jan. 4.—Tuesday night buildings in this city were shaken as a result of an explosion of over 2[illegible] tons of powder which occurred nearly 2[illegible] miles distant, near Eagle river. It has since been learned that two sleigh loads of black powder, each containing 11 tons, had been in some unknown manner exploded. Two men, Joseph St. Louis and Joseph Pammerstone, and four horses were blown to atoms. The powder was valued at $2,000, the horses at $800.

Big Gas Well Struck.

TOLEDO, Jan. 4.—A special to The Commercial from Findlay, O., says: "A 10,000,000 cubic feet gas well was struck four miles east of here yesterday by operators who are "wildcating" in new territory. All tools, casing and tubing were blown out of the well, and the roar of escaping gas can be heard for five miles. This is the greatest gas well in Ohio since the famous Karg well of ten years ago which started the natural gas boom in northwestern Ohio."

A Valuable Land Claim.

DALLAS, Jan. 4.—Suit was filed in the district court of Dallas for ownership of the land upon which Oak Cliff, a suburb of Dallas with 5,000 inhabitants, is located. An alleged missing heir living in Titus county, Tex., has been found and it is said that the widow who settled the land never yet gave deeds to any of it. The property involved is worth $500,000.

A Minnesota Bank Closed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 4.—A Wabasha (Minn.) dispatch to The Journal says the People's bank of that place has closed its doors and is now in the hands of the bank examiner. Depositors, it is claimed, will lose nothing. No statement of assets and liabilities has been given out.

Postmasters Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The following fourth class postmasters have been appointed: New York—Berlin, Hattie Peckham. Pennsylvania—Dagus Mines, Alfred Josefson; Germany, J. Q. Loundsbury; Harleysville, I. R. Haldeman; Mountertown, George B. Tilly.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

338 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week

$5 a year—in advance.

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., JAN. 4, 1900

COMING EVENTS.

January 6—Social conference of leaders in boys' department of Y. M. C. A.

January 7—Wm. D. Murray will speak and Douglas Lane, bass soloist at the Oratorio of the Messiah, will sing at Y. M. C. A. rally at 4:15 p. m.

Jan. 8—Public debate in large hall Y. M. C. A. at 8 p. m. Subject: "Resolved, That the U. S. Should Own All Public Railroads and Telegraphs Within Its Domain."

What It Hopes to Accomplish.

There has been such a hurricane of adverse criticism manifested towards the proposed codification of the school laws by educators in various sections of the State—especially in Hudson and Passaic counties—that in prospect of the opposition being carried into the Legislature, Senator Stokes, chairman of the Commission appointed two years ago, has issued a statement that is tended to sooth the ruffled feelings of those who object to the proposed changes.

The Commission declares that it is its purpose to condense and simplify the School laws, to provide a uniform system of school government as a substitute for the patchwork laws now in use; to remove school officers and teachers from the thraldom of politics and political influences; to elevate the dignity of the profession of teaching, and to make the State, as far as possible, the leading educational State in the Union.

The general scheme of codification divides the school districts of the State into two general classes, one of which will include the school districts in townships and the other those in cities, boroughs and incorporated towns. The Commission recommends a term of five years for a member of a Board of Education to enable him to familiarize himself with his duties and to insure a more radical separation of the School Board from political control and from political influence.

Skill in Advertising.

No matter in what class of goods a merchant may deal, advertising is the most important branch of his business; for it causes enlargement of sales and a consequent increase of profits, remarks the Philadelphia Record. The alert tradesman knows that skill is as essential in the composition of his business announcements as it is in the selection and handling of his wares. Anybody can sell when people insist on buying; but eloquently-worded advertisements make patrons of thousands of persons who had not intended to buy.

A New York paper recently printed a communication, signed by the euphonious name of "Wickes Washington," in which the writer advocates the use of open cars on street railways the year around, because he thinks disease germs dance in glee in the foul air of the closed ones. A kind and observing reader of The Daily Press sends the communication to us with the side note "Dare you publish this, you old chronic grumbler?" The idea of our friend is evidently to show that The Daily Press was in the wrong in demanding the retirement of "pneumonia expresses"—run so long in violation of the law and the demands of the majority of its patrons by the benevolent institution known as the Plainfield Street Railway Company. There is gruff old saying that "a fool is born every minute," and we should say that the New York correspondent who wants open street cars in the dead of winter, together with his counterpart in Plainfield who utters sardonically "Dare you publish this, you old chronic grumbler," belongs to that unfortunate class of individuals.

The fact that the organization of the Legislature was practically decided upon sometime ago by the Republican leaders, suggests a Trenton correspondent to say that taking time for the forelock is having the Legislative machinery well oiled and in good shape for operation is an indication that the Republican leaders mean that the session shall be of brief duration and that as few laws as possible shall be enacted. Such precaution against radical and unnecessary legislation is deemed imperative that the party may make a record which will win votes during the great Presidential campaign, which will be opened soon after the adjournment of the session. While the Republican leaders feel very confident of of a sweeping victory for their Presidential ticket, they do not care to run any risks by permitting a long Legislative session, which might result in vexatious complications.

Whatever justice there may be in the Income Tax proposition, and the point of view generally depends upon whether the man comes under the working process of the act, it is generally conceded that should the idea ever become the law of the United States, it would mean a tax that would be of a difficult kind to collect. The experience of South Carolina, which has lately enacted an Income Tax Law, goes to prove this. That State has a tax that applies to incomes of over $1,500. The returns from the collection of this tax are now all in, and they appear to indicate that the people of South Carolina are in an astonishing state of poverty. Some seventeen counties have reported no collections at all. Many other counties made returns of from $16 to $90, and in only two did the collections exceed $1,000.

The New York Herald reports that President McKinley has used one vacancy in the grade of Brigadier-General of the army to appoint twelve officers of lower grade to that position. This has been done by retiring the newly appointed officers one after the other. They were all near retirement for age any way, and this device will increase their pay. Although these officers have deserving records The Herald fancies that if any more promotions are made on this plan the nominations may not be confirmed.

Governor Roosevelt is credited with the desire of being twice more elected as Chief Executive of the State of New York and then going to the White House. Meanwhile he is fearful of having the Vice Presidential nomination thrust upon him.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Senator Reed has grasped the problem of equal taxation, and if he places the solution in a law the Legislature will be in a tangle no longer over the vexatious question. Mr. Reed sees that the trouble lies in the inequalities of the assessments levied by local assessors, and favors the publication of all assessments. When the list appears annually in the newspapers every tax payer will know what his neighbor pays. If there has been unfairness in the levies the protests that will follow must serve as a corrective, thus forcing an impartial assessment and the equalization of taxation. Mr. Reed by all means should incorporate his ideas into a bill and its adoption is assured. A law of this character has been a necessity since tax was imposed in this State.—New York Press.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.

A Big Idea.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—I have been thinking for a long time that salt water would be brought to Plainfield at a moderate expense for bathing purposes. A pipe could be laid from the sound to some central location here, where pools and baths could be made, also if desired it could be taken to Dunellen, Lincoln and Bound Brook. Salt water has been carried through pipes over 100 miles for such purposes. I believe such a scheme would be a help to our city by increasing travel on the street railways and bringing custom to our merchants. Would like to have the opinion of others on this subject.

Advance.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Miss Swackhamer, of Whitehouse, has returned home after a pleasant visit with Miss DuBois, of Park avenue.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered to Miss Evelyn Simonson, of Duer street, a few evenings ago. The affair was arranged by a number of her young friends and was very enjoyable. Games, dancing, etc., helped to pass the time away, after which refreshments were served.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about ¼ as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,

122 East Front Street.

. . . FRIDAY'S . . .

Anniversary Sales.

52 in Vicuna Dress Serges, Shrunken and Sponged - - - 98c yd
New 58 in Skirting Plaids - 1.19 yd
Red Golf Suitings - - 50c to 1.25 yd
38 in All-Wool Homespun Suitings 50c yd
French Flannels - - - 50c yd
All Our Silkalines - - 8c yd
" " 10c Cot Bats - - - 8c ea
" " Amoskeag Apron Ginghams 5c yd
" " 15c Fast Black Morie Percaline 11c yd
Lot of Odd Separate Skirts, ½ price 1.98 to close
" " Ladies' Wool Vests and Pants, 1.00 to 1.25 Garments - - - 75c ea
All Our Ladies' 1.25 Muslin Night Gowns 98c ea
" " " " White Skirts - 98c ea

- - - FOR MEN - - -

All Our 50c Outing Flannel Working Shirts 39c ea
" " " White Shirts - 39c ea
Special Muslin Night Shirts - 49c ea
Ladies' 1.25 Silk Gloria Umbrellas 98c ea
Gents' 1.75 28 in Umbrellas - 1.29 ea
Silk Floss Pillows, 16 x 16, 19c; 18 x 18, 25c; 20 x 20, 39c; 22 x 22, 50c; 24 x 24, 59c; 26 x 26, 75c.
Dennison's Crepe Paper - - 8c roll
Special Box Writing Paper - - 10c
No. 1 Satin Ribbon - - - 1c yd
25c Photo Frames - - - - 15c ea

Basement Specials.

4.00 Large Parlor Lamps - - 2.98
4.98 " " " - - - 3.95
16 in Top Oak Tables - - - 59c
18 " " " " Heavy Moulding 85c
Genuine Birdseye Maple Tables - - 1.98
Solid Oak Book Cases - - - 2.87
White Iron Beds, brass trimmed - 3.50
Double Woven Wire Springs, all sizes - 1.98
Solid Oak 5 Drawer Chiffoniers - - 4.98
Dining Chairs, worth 1.25 - - - 98c
Bissels Carpet Sweepers - - - 99c
Extra Large Tufted Couches, with best steel springs, upholstered in 3 and 4 toned velours, value 12.00 - - - 9.95

By all Means Read Friday's Ad.

TERMS FOR ALL SPECIALS - CASH.

Trading Stamps with each Cash Purchase.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,

234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

FINE MERINO UNDERWEAR, Suited to this Weather, SOLD AT ..... PECK'S.

GOOD TIMES ARE HERE.

Now is the time to place your money in Real Estate at ground floor prices.

WOODLAND PARK will suit the aristocratic home-seekers.

DEWEY PARK and LINCOLN will suit the small investor and home-seeker.

SILAS D. DRAKE,

175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.

Telephone 605.

An Annual . . Clearing Sale

of our entire stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's suits, reefers, overcoats, ulsters and heavy-weight trousers begins this Saturday and will last for a short time only.

All MEN'S OVERCOATS that were sold at 7.00 and 8.00, clearing sale price 4.25 and 4 75.

All MEN'S OVERCOATS that we sold from 8.50 to 10.00, clearing sale price 5 50.

350 extra fine OVERCOATS, former prices from 12.00 to 15.00, clearing sale price 6 50 and 7 00.

MEN'S ULSTERS reduced from 7.00 to 4.50.

Best Shamrock IRISH FRIEZE ULSTERS, reduced to 6.50, former price 12.00.

1,000 Men's and Youth's heavy weight suits of all descriptions, styles and qualities, which we must and will sell regardless of cost or value. 5.00 suits to be sold at 2.75. 7.50 suits to go at 4 50. 10.00 suits to go at 5 75, and all others in proportion. Children's Suits at 1.00, worth 2.00. 2.50 Child's Suits to go at 1.45.

2,000 pairs of Men's Trousers to be included in this sale at 1.00, 1.50, 2.00 and 2.25. Boys' Knee Pants with double seat and double knees at 20c.

Men's fleece lined underwear at 30c, worth 50c. Men's winter caps at 15c. Working shirts at 15c, and thousands of more bargains at this great clearing sale. Call early and avoid the great Saturday rush.

Will Pay Carfare to all Buyers of Clothing.

New York Clothing Company

M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.

214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.

Plainfield, N. J.

Chocolates Bon Bons Ice Cream Drops

Wieda's

Ice Cream Soda Water Hot Soda

Manufactured at the Premises, 144 West Front St. Phone. 1138.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT.

Made only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,

At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.

at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

THE BOOT SHOP

AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 Park Avenue.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.

Capital, $150,000.

Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President,
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson. H. G. Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J. B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

CHARLES ARNOLD,

Dealer in all kinds of

Fresh and Salt Meats,

POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON

203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.

Telephone 238.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations; Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, Jan. 4.—The following newly-elected officers of William G. Holton Council, No. 55, Jr. O. U. A. M., were installed Tuesday evening by Deputy High Councillor Isa R. Merrill: Councillor, Isaac J. Stites; vice-councillor, Eugene Thompson; warden, Fred Giddes; conductor, Silas Naylor; outside sentinel, Fred Vail; inside sentinel, William Shibberly; recording secretaries Newton Apgar and Edward Herlich; financial secretary, William Apgar; chaplain, John B Lane; trustees, William Wallace and Louis Snyder; representative to State Lodge, Frank Humpston. After the installation the members were treated to cigars furnished by Councillor Stites.

Prof. Messerole, superintendent of the Dunellen public schools, has ruled in favor of all pupils who wish to go skating that they must have their lessons correct and department good, when they can get dismissed at 2:30 o'clock each afternoon.

Neal Huff, a hustling newsboy, son of Expressman George Huff, is confined to his home by illness. Joe Egany is filling his place by supplying Neal's customers with their favorite paper.

The ice in the New Market pond is fully 8 inches thick and preparations are being made by J. Y. Wilson to begin the annual harvest today.

Monday evening Deputy High Chief Dick will install the newly elected officers of Court Dunellen, Independent Order of Foresters.

Owing to the absence of a quorum the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education was not held Tuesday night.

Sanford Staples, who has been confined to his home on Front street by illness, has improved sufficiently to be about.

Charles Wyhusky, after a serious illness of several weeks, has recovered sufficiently to be able to return to work.

Miss Kate Kratzel has the scarlet fever and the home of her parents on North avenue has been quarantined.

James Touzeau, of Front street, is confined to his home with a severe attack of the grippe.

Goldston Smalley is seriously ill at his home on the Greenbrook road.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Jan. 4.—The annual election of chief and assisant engineers for the fire department was held Tuesday evening, and the B. and E. members stole a march on the members of Excelsior H. and L. Co., and elected the entire board from among their own membership. Ever since the offices of chief, first and second assistants was created by the township committee, there has been a great rivalry between the two companies to fill the offices from among their own members. Excelsior being the largest in membership has generally been able to elect their ticket by a fair majority. But the members of the B and E. are laughing at the members the largest and oldest company now on account of their poor memory. The law states that the election must be held annually upon the first Tuesday in January. Excelsior forgot to hold theirs, consequently the B. and E. Co. had a walkover and a laugh. George Clark was elected chief, and John Radin and George Johnston assistants.

Miss Nancy Wade, who has been spending her holiday vacation with her parents, has returned to her home in Mahwah, this State.

Mrs. Frederick Houston and child, of Brooklyn, have been the guest of Mrs. Houston's father, Robert Walpole.

Mrs. J. S. Braker and children, of Waltham, Mass., are the guests of the Misses Hayes in Fanwood.

Miss Nina Saber has returned from a week's vacation spent with her parents in Cortland, N. Y.

Township Committee will meet in the town rooms this evening to transact routine business.

Wm. Bullman, of Brooklyn, has been spending a few days with his friend George Allen.

Judge Clark and James Johnston are doing duty as jurymen at the January term of court.

A remedy for Nasal Catarrh which is drying and exciting to the diseased membrane should not be used. What is needed is that which is cleansing, soothing, protecting and healing. Such a remedy is Ely's Cream Balm Price 50 cents at druggists or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York. The Balm when placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. A cold in the head vanishes quickly.

SIR WILLIAM McCORMAC GONE TO SOUTH AFRICA.

Sir William McCormac, president of the Royal College of Surgeons, has gone to Cape Colony as consulting surgeon to the British Royal Army Medical Corps. During the Franco-Prussian war he was surgeon in chief to the Anglo-American ambulance and was also at the front during the Russo-Turkish war.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Miss Marguerite Schuck, of Vine street, has returned from a visit with Brooklyn friends.

Miss Etta Raybert, of North avenue, has returned from a visit with New Brunswick friends.

Miss Muriel Brokaw, of Madison avenue, spent New Year's with her parents at Raritan.

Miss Elizabeth Allis, of West Fifth street, is home after a visit with her brother in Montclair.

Edward Palmer, of Madison avenue, has returned after visiting his parents at Hornellsville.

Edward Wrage has returned to his position at Hillier & Co.'s, after being detained at home by illness.

Miss McMasters, of West Fourth street, has been sojourning in Massachusetts over the holiday time.

Miss Freeman, of LaGrande avenue, is home from Lakewood, N. J., where her Christmas holiday was spent.

Miss Mary Griswold, of Madison avenue, is home from Geneseo, N. Y., where her Christmas vacation was spent.

Alonzo Titsworth, of Boston, has returned after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Titsworth, of Madison avenue.

Miss Harlet Filmer, of Madison avenue, has returned from Gloversville, N. Y, where she spent the Christmas holidays.

Claude Edwards, of Bayonne, has returned home after spending several days with Harold Davis, of Kensington avenue.

Miss Boorman, of Massachusetts, has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Pond, of Washington avenue.

Miss Adelaide Ball, of Myrtle avenue, has returned to her studies at Wellesley College after spending her vacation at home.

Walter R. Bennett, of Somerset place, is steadily improving from the trouble with his foot, and the sore is gradually healing.

Miss Cora Tomlinsom, of Asbury Park, has returned home after visiting her sister, Miss Lena Tomlinson, of West Fifth street.

Mrs. J. P. Mosher, of West Fifth street, has returned from Alfred, N. Y., where she was called by the death of her mother.

The home department visitors of the Sunday-school of the Crescent Avenue church are making their quarterly calls this week.

Rowland Meizenbach, who has been the guest of Roy T. Phillips, of Madison avenue, during the holidays, has returned to his studies at Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rogers and her daughter, Miss Jessie Rogers, of Brooklyn, are guests at the home of Dr. W. E. Stelle, of Central avenue.

Miss Lorenzo, of Wellesley College, who has been the guest of her college friend, Miss Mabelle Phillips, of Madison avenue, has returned to her studies.

Dr. F. T. Clawson, of West Seventh street, has returned after a visit at Fitchburg, Mass. Mrs. Clawson and son will remain at Fitchburg a few days longer.

A. B. Meredith, of Madison avenue, has returned after spending his Christmas at Boston and Lowell. Mrs. Meredith, who accompanied him, will remain a week longer.

Miss Mary Thompson, who is spending the winter in Asbury Park, has been at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Thompson, of Rockview avenue, during the holidays.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—A number of new members will be received in the Crescent Avenue church next Sunday morning, when the Lord's Supper will be celebrated.

—Tuesday evening last a surprise party was tendered to Miss Clara King, of 26 Chatham street, by a large number of her friends. Miss Alice Davie, of Jackson avenue, arranged the affair which was complete in every detail.

—The Daily Press is in receipt of a copy of Swift's home calendar for 1900, which is one of the most beautiful of the end of century calendars. Copies may be obtained by sending 10 cents in stamps to Swift & Co., Union Stock Yard, Chicago.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Bessie Pound, of East Second street, is enjoying an attack of the mumps.

James Smith, of Elmwood place, has been visiting his daughter at Orange.

John Angleman, of Bayonne, has been visiting Plainfield relatives for a few days.

Mrs. Frederick W. Coleman, of Park avenue, is visiting relatives at Baltimore for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fenner, of Boycefield, have returned home after a visit with Plainfield relatives.

Miss Grace Hurtt, of Manasquan, who has been visiting relatives in this city, has returned home.

Miss Anna Fenner, of Elmwood place, will leave town in a few days to visit out-of-town relatives.

Miss Edith Clapp, daughter of Mrs. John Clapp, of Mercer avenue, has gone to New York to spend several weeks.

Irving W. Clark, son of E B Clark, of Crescent avenue, has returned to Princeton University after the Christmas vacation.

Mrs. J. T. Armstrong and son, Howard, of Brooklyn, have returned home after a short visit with Plainfield relatives.

Miss Margaret McCutchen, of Rockview avenue, has returned to Smith College, after spending the holiday season at home.

B S. Braider, of Manning avenue, who has been detained at home for a long time as the result of a fracture of the leg, is now able to go about and is steadily improving.

Librarian's Report for Dec., 1899.

Vols. on Accession-Book, Nov. 30, 1899.	16,675
" added by Gift	17
" now in Library	16,692
" in Babcock Collection, Nov. 30, 1899.	2,060
" added by purchase	50
" now in Babcock Collection	2,110
Total number in Library	18,802
Number of card holders, old registration	5,785
New registration	62

HOME CIRCULATION.

F	Fiction	1,413
J	Juvenile	493
B	Biography	94
100	Philosophy	19
200	Religion, Mythology, etc.	23
300	Sociology	83
400	Philology	3
500	Natural Science	55
600	Useful Arts, including medicine	83
700	Fine Arts	74
800	Literature	141
910-919	Description, Travel	154
900	History	197
000	General Works, Periodicals, etc.	22
	Total circulation	2,806

Of this number there were circulated through special libraries:

Potter Press Works	51
Scott Press Works	7
	58
Delivery Stations.
Y. M. C. A.	27
Hope Chapel	6
	33
Special Collections, Circulation, Babcock	153
Number of Circulating Days	25
Largest Circulation in One Day	243
Smallest " "	23
Daily Average Circulation	112
Number of Visitors to the Building (Sunday Visitors included in above)	3,617
	178

EMMA L. ADAMS, Librarian.

LONG KNOWN - - - MUCH USED.

Randolph's Glycerine of Arnica.

for Cold Wind Chaps, Rough Skin and all Irritations of the Skin.

.....QUICK RELIEF GIVEN.....

25c per bottle -:- -:-

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for TELEPHONE CALL 109

Lowney's and Whitman's Chocolates and Chocolate Bon-Bons.

"PAY CASH AND SAVE MONEY" AT

V. L. FRAZEE'S,

THE PEOPLE'S CASH GROCER

151 West Front Street.

SPECIAL PRICES FOR

Friday, Saturday and Monday,

January 5th, 6th and 8th.

Best Elgin Creamery Butter	30c lb
Good Creamery Butter	25c lb
Best Full Cream Cheese	15c lb
Good Lard	6c lb
Fresh Jersey Eggs, guaranteed	22c doz
Best Fine Granulated Sugar	5c lb
Best Early Rose Potatoes	35c basket
Best Extra Fancy Seeded Raisins,	10c pkge
Best New Cleaned Currants, 1 lb package	9c
Best Vermont Maple Syrup	1 qt bottle 25c
Best Home-made Mince Meat,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best California Prunes	5c, 7c, 8c and 9c lb
Paris Sugar Corn	9c can
New York State Sugar Corn	7c can
Rose Bud brand, Early June Peas,	7c can, 4 cans for 25c
Fine Small Early June Peas	10c can
Best Solid Packed Tomatoes	7c can
Best Vanilla Drip Sugar Syrup	35c gallon
Best New Orleans Molasses	35c gallon
Best XXXX Minnesota Patent Flour	55c bag
Best Lemon Cakes, Ginger Snaps, Nic Nacs, Soda and Oyster Crackers	4c lb
Uneeda Biscuit	4c package
Best Mocha and Java Coffee	25c lb
Fresh Roasted Coffee, bean or ground	12c lb
Fine Fat Mackerel	8c each

N. K. BARNES, Grocer,

No. 245 WEST FRONT STREET,

SPECIAL FOR TEN DAYS.

GRANULATED SUGAR 5c lb.

Best Butter, lb	28c	10 cakes Laundry Soap for	19c
Best Eggs, dozen,	22c	3 lb package Prepared Buckwheat,	10c
Best Flour, 24½ lbs,	55c	Large bottle of Catsup	5c
Best Potatoes, basket,	35c	3 lb can Pineapple	10c
Best Hams, per lb,	10½c	3 lb can Bartlett Pears	10c
Best Molasses, gallon	35c	Lemon Cakes, lb	5c
Best Syrup, gallon	35c	Soda Crackers, lb	5c
Fine Drinking Tea, lb	35c	Nic Nac Crackers, lb	5c
Fine Drinking Coffee, lb	12c	Ginger Snaps, lb	5c
5 gallons Best Oil	59c	Corn Starch, package	5c

TRADING STAMPS ALSO.

THIS IS THE TIME

to protect your feet from the cold and damp---We can shoe you with reliable shoes at a small cost.

VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.

Repairing Properly Done.

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.

Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.

FRIDAY

BARGAIN DAY

AS USUAL.

Tomorrow's special prices represent a saving of about half prices on every article mentioned.

3½c	Best quality light colored prints in small neat figures and stripes.
10c	Very heavy quality of printed German flannelettes, dark and medium colors; regular price 15c.
16c	Bleached sheeting, 2¼ yards wide, good, heavy quality; worth 22c.
10c	Hemmed huck towels, good heavy quality, full bleached, size 20x32 inches; worth 15c.
17c	Extra fine heavy quality women's fleece-lined hose, absolutely fast black; regular price 25c.
59c	Women's mocha suede gloves, a very excellent quality, tan shades only and fully worth $1.00.
15c	Women's outing flannel skirts, good heavy quality, plain colors with fancy striped borders, finished around the bottom with shell stitching; regular price 29c.
$1.69	Decorated English porcelain toilet sets, nine pieces complete; worth $2.50
25c	Clothes trees, finished in birch or cherry; worth 75c.
75c	Children's high chairs, golden oak, nicely polished and finished; worth $1.25.
39c	Solid oak stands, tops 22 inches square, undershelf 16 inches, turned legs; worth 75c.

After Christmas.

We're getting ready to inventory. This the season for Broken Lots and probably Broken Prices. We have found one lot already that has got to go. We sold it for $10.00. You can buy it now for $8.50.

OVERCOATS . . .

are now in order, $5.00, $7.50, $10, $12, $13.50.

ULSTERS - - $4.50, 5.50.

Schepflin & Schultz,

CLOTHIERS.

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

20 Styles of Flannel Waists now at $1.75.

Bonn's

140 West Front St

French Flannel Waists all colors, 2.98.

$1.23 FRENCH FELT HATS FOR 75c,

Various shapes, all colors; it will cost you but little to have a stylish trimmed hat. Silks, Velvets, and Fancy Wings are very cheap, and we do not make any charge for trimming.

OUR SPECIALTIES } Choice Teas. Fine Coffee.

All the Seasonable Goods. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit

Tel. 931.

C. E. GULICK & CO., THE PARK GROCERS.

Advertised Mail Matter.

JANUARY 2, 1900.

Althouse, Mr W H	Mandeville, William
Barber, Mr A	Manning, Mrs Emilie T
Brown, Mrs B	Miller, Mr Fred
Carrington, Miss Louise	Kaptha Renovating Establishment
Corbie, Mrs J E	O'Brien, Mrs Nellie
Cook, Mrs	Owens, James
Freeman, Mr and Mrs C D	Pall, Mrs W M
Frey & Co., N J	Peart, Mr H A
Gillam, Miss Annie	Pizn, Mr Mich.
Green, Mrs H G	Pollock, Mr Thos C
Harper, Mrs George	Robinson, Miss Grace Dean
Hoffman, Miss Francis	Rode, Mr and Mrs A B
Hurst, Mr C N	Roate, James
Jaeger, Miss	Ryno, Albert
Jansen, Nrs	Tanner, Mr F
Kunzleman, Mrs Pierce	Williams, Mr A P
Lane, Mr Norman	VanNest, Mrs Maggie
McCoy, Mr John.

E. H. HIRD, Postmaster.

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles.

CARDS and CALENDARS.

We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.

High Grade Cigars.

Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.

B. W. HAND,

205 W. Front Street.

CHAS. L. FOROE.

Architect and Superintendent.

208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 m 6

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Freie Städte.

Hamburg. Bei der dieser Tage vorgenommenen Bürgermeisterwahl wurde für den verstorbenen Dr. Versmann der Polizeiherr, Senator Dr. Hachmann, zum zweiten Bürgermeister gewählt. Hachmann, der früher als Vorsitzender der Hamburger Bürgerschaft hervorragendes juristisches Talent bewiesen, hat seit 14 Jahren die Polizei geleitet. Der größeren Oeffentlichkeit wurde er besonders bekannt, als er bei dem großen Hafenarbeiterstrike die Vermittlerrolle übernahm.—In Folge einer Aethererplosion ist Biebers chemische Fabrik abgebrannt.

Bremen. Der 19jährige, vielfach vorbestrafte Arbeiter Grube, der wenige Tage zuvor aus der Strafanstalt zu Oslebshausen entlassen worden war, wurde bei einem Mordversuche auf den Uhrmacher Picker verhaftet. Der Verbrecher gestand ein, der Urheber eines an einem jungen Mädchen begangenen Mordes, sowie des Angriffes auf den Direktor des Norddeutschen Lloyd, Brewermann, und auf zwei Frauen zu sein. Sämmtliche Verbrechen sind innerhalb acht Tagen geschehen und haben in der Stadt allgemeine Aufregung verursacht.

Lübeck. Wegen mehrfacher Wechselfälschungen sind zwei Makler, ein Speisewirth, ein Kolporteur und ein Kellner verhaftet worden.—Es hat sich hier ein „Verein öffentliche Lesehalle" begründet, der zum Zweck hat, eine bisher in Lübeck fehlende öffentliche unentgeltlich zu betretende Lesehalle zu begründen und zu unterhalten.

Oldenburg.

Oldenburg. Im Landtage wurde der Konsul Groß aus Brake zum Präsidenten, der Abgeordnete Jürgens zum Vizepräsidenten gewählt. Die Wahl des Kunstmalers Bahldieck aus Eutin zum Landtagsabgeordneten ist für ungiltig erklärt worden, weil er am Tage der Wahl die oldenburgische Staatsangehörigkeit noch nicht erworben hatte. An Stelle Bahldiecks wurde Rathsherr Sommer-Eutin zum Abgeordneten gewählt.

Mecklenburg.

Neustrelitz. Im Dorfe Blumenow erschoß der frühere Gardejäger Scheiber aus Rheinsberg seine Braut, die dort Erzieherin war, als er allein mit ihr im Schulzimmer eine Unterredung hatte; dann tödtete er sich selbst durch einen Revolverschuß.

Wismar. Dieser Tage starb hier einer unserer bekanntesten Großkaufleute, der Inhaber der großen Papierfabrik, Kommerzienrath G. Marsmann.

Braunschweig. Lippe.

Braunschweig. Bei den jüngsten Landtagswahlen unterlagen sämmtliche Kandidaten der Sozialdemokraten und Welfen.—Der Braunschweiger Straßeneisenbahngesellschaft ist die Erlaubniß zur Vornahme von Vorarbeiten für eine elektrische Bahn von Harzburg nach dem Burgberge beziehungsweise dem Molkenhause ertheilt worden. Die projektirte Linie soll im Kalten Thale am Gatter beginnen und entweder unter dem Burggemäuer selbst endigen oder vom Kalten Thale aus nach der Einsattelung zwischen Sachsen- und Burgberg geführt werden.

Detmold. Der Staatsminister, Konsistorialpräsident u. s. w. Dr. Miesitschek v. Wischkau ist des Herrschens über die Lippe'schen Lande müde geworden und hat sich pensioniren lassen. Der bisherige Erste Staatsanwalt am Landgericht Detmold (Oberlandesgerichtsbezirk Celle), Gevekot, ist zu seinem Nachfolger ernannt worden.

Großherzogthum Hessen.

Darmstadt. Gymnasiallehrer Dr. Ahlheim, der Einpauker des Dettweiler'schen Sohnes, ist vorbehaltlich etwaiger späterer Wiederverwendung im Staatsdienste in den Ruhestand versetzt worden. Damit sind die drei Hauptbetheiligten in der leidigen Affäre—Dettweiler, Soldau und Ahlheim—aus dem hessischen Schuldienst verschwunden.

Mainz. In den städtischen Schulvorstand, in dem seither nur die katholische und die evangelische Geistlichkeit vertreten war, werden nunmehr zufolge Verfügung der Regierung auch der israelitische und freireligiöse Geistliche als stimmberechtigte Mitglieder eintreten.—Hier und im ganzen Rheingau-Distrikt ist ein Erdbeben verspürt worden. Häuser wurden so stark erschüttert, daß die Bewohner angsterfüllt auf die Straße eilten.

Offenbach. Die ministerielle Genehmigung des Ortsstatuts über die Feuerbestattung im Krematorium zu Offenbach ist nunmehr erfolgt.

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE.
and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

CORN COB PIPES.

They Are Commonly Used and Made in Many Shapes.

Corncob pipes are still most commonly used in the old familiar form, this being a bowl, straight-sided, barrel-shaped, egg-shaped, or pear-shaped, with a straight reed stem thrust into a hole bored in the side of it. There are made nowadays, however, corncob pipes in many styles, these including pipes with different shaped bowls, and pipes fitted up in different ways, some, for instance, having straight, hard rubber stems in place of reed stems. There are now made also corncob pipes in various briar pipe styles, these including pipes in the bulldog shape with straight stem, and pipes in various round-shaped bowls with the familiar dropping stem. There are about twenty varieties of corncob pipes made in briar patterns, with bits of celluloid, horn or rubber, the end of the stem part of the pipe, into which the bit is inserted, being in many of these pipes finished with a ferrule in the regular briar style. Corncob pipes in briar designs sell at retail for from 15 cents to 50 cents apiece.

There are also made some long-stemmed corncob pipes. An old-style long-stemmed corncob pipe has a bowl of generous proportions, made from a section of a large cob, this bowl being fitted with a drop stem two feet or more in length. A long-stemmed corncob new within a year or two has a very deep bowl, made of half a cob, this bowl being fitted with a drop stem a foot or a foot and a half in length, making a pipe in its general outlines something like the familiar old deep-bowled German pipes. So, take it all together, the corncob pipe, simple as it might seem to be, is really a pipe made in a good many varieties.

Corncob pipes are exported to Australia and South America, to South Africa and to England and to continental Europe.—New York Sun.

A Family Affair.

"The first trick I ever held," said the old operator with a reminiscent smile, "was out on the desert in Utah. It was a dreary spot, containing nothing but the telegraph office and an eating station for the accommodation of the overland passengers.

"Part of my duties was acting as cashier at mealtime, not a difficult matter, and something that I was thankful for, as it added a small sum to my salary, of which the total amount was not large enough to cause me to dream of getting rich.

"My first experience as cashier was a trying one. The first to file past my desk was a woman. When I looked at her inquiringly, as she was about to pass on without showing any intention of paying, she said that her husband would settle. The second and third said the same thing.

"I glanced down the line that was filing past and discovered that there was only one man in it, and he was at the end.

"'Where is your husband, madam?' I inquired of the fourth, thinking I was being worked with some sort of a flimflam game.

"She indicated the old man at the end of the line, and I let her pass on.

"I asked the same question of the fifth and received the same answer. Confident now that I was being worked, I seized hold of her shawl and detained her.

"There was an uproar immediately and the old man darted forward and demanded what I was doing.

"'This lady says she is your wife,' said I.

"'So she is,' he snapped.

"'And this other woman?'

"'Is mine, too,' he shouted.

"I had forgotten that I was in Utah."—Detroit Free Press.

Result of Mental Shock.

In the Progres Medical, M. Boissier relates the following remarkable case which is an addition to the group of cases in which sudden loss of hair or change of its color followed mental shock. The subject was a vigorous peasant, aged thirty-eight years, who was not of a nervous temperament beyond being slightly emotional. His hair was abundant and of a dark chestnut color and not even slightly interspersed with white filaments. One evening as he was returning home preceded by his mule on which was mounted his son, aged eight years, the animal slipped and the child was thrown off and trampled on several times. He was only severely bruised, but the father thought he was killed and in endeavoring to save him was terror-stricken. He trembled and had palpitations and a feeling of cold and tension in the face and head. On the following day the hairs of his head, beard and eyebrows commenced to fall in quantities so that after eight days he was absolutely bald. At the same time the skin of the face and head became paler. Soon all the affected regions were covered with finer, more silky, and a little more thinly sown, completely white hair. The hair of other regions was not affected.

Electricity and Steam in Coal Mining.

Prof. D. C. Jackson, while commending the use of electricity for many purposes in coal mining, points out some of its disadvantages. There are many instances in which the use of direct current machinery for pumping and fans has not been found satisfactory. For these purposes polyphase currents are preferable, as they permit the use of a motor that is perfectly reliable under essentially all conditions to be met with in mining. It can therefore be accepted that direct current for haulage and polyphase currents for other power is the best practice in large mining installations. Electric coal cutting, in a large number of cases, has not been successful, but experience shows that this is more the fault of the individual cutter than the system, and good results have invariably followed the installation of improved electric apparatus. As to pumping, when the pump is of large capacity, and can be located within reasonable distance of the steam plant, the steam pump is cheaper than its electric rival.

"How did the burglars happen to miss your jewels?"

"Only yesterday something told me they were not safe in the tomato can in the cellar, where I usually keep them, and I had accordingly concealed them in a jewel case in my room."—Detroit Journal.

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

Yearly Clearance

time has come to this great store. Furniture and carpets at topsy-turvy prices—odd lines, yet new in pattern, and prices at lower marks than we've ever known them!

A great holiday trade left many, many broken lots—all to your profit.

Carpets, too!

Thousands of yards of carpets to go at the cut down prices—a 200-foot floor to show 'em on. Come!

Parlor Suits—over 100 kinds to pick from—beauties all—some are odd ones—all prices.

$9.98
A polished quartered golden oak desk with mirror and two drawers. Worth $14.00.

$18.75
Antique oak bedroom suit. Large French bevel plate mirror. Combination washstand, splasher back. Value $25.00.

$10.98
Solid Oak golden finish, 4 shelves. Value $15.00.

Oil Heaters
A great comfort—cost, 1 cent an hour to run. Odorless.

$3.98
High-armed cherry rocker—spindle back. Easily worth $5.00.

$5.49
A fine cherry frame corner seat—silk damask upholstered seat. Value 8.00.

$5.98
Good sized antique oak chiffonier—5 drawers. Value $9.00.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

My little girl, eleven years old, has had all her life a very serious and stubborn constipation. I had given everything I could think of, and still once in about two or three weeks she would wake at night crying pitifully with pain, and for two or three hours would suffer intensely until finally relieved by frequent enemas. All this was very wearing. My brother insisted I should try Ripans Tabules and finally he got them for me. I tried them, giving her two every night for awhile, then two every other night, then she took them herself when she felt like it. It is now about three months since she has had any trouble, and her bowels are in a very healthy condition. Her color is good and she is gaining flesh. As I have given her no other medicine I ascribe her improved condition wholly to Ripans Tabules.

A new style packet containing THE RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores — FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York — or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life.
Telephone No. 672.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,
THE GROCER.
Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.
Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

ELEGANT COSTUMES.

Warm Wraps—Costly Gowns For Receptions.

Fur is the ideal winter wrap, it is so light and so warm. Nevertheless if one cannot have a fur cape or coat one of cloth or other material may be rendered as warm by an interlining of chamois skin.

This is the season of receptions, and for the costumes of those who receive the variations of the princess form are chosen, and light or bright colors are usually preferred. White continues to be in the first rank of fashion, but gowns of white cloth and similar goods are so expensive, because easily soiled, that only wealthy women, to whom cost is no object, can afford them. Pure white, ivory white, pearl white and those yellower and grayer tones which are indefinable are all worn and are extremely elegant in their perfection of simplicity. Gowns of this class appear at day as well as evening receptions.

For the street also, although white is not permissible, the tints enumerated are intensified into mastic, ecru, pale gray beige and coffee shades and in this stronger character serve for out of doors. The material par excellence for such costumes is thin cloth of marvelously flexible and fine quality, with a surface as lustrous as satin.

BALL GOWN.

The picture shows one of the newest designs for a ball dress. It is of white plaited mousseline de soie, embroidered with silver ears of wheat. The plaits of the skirt are stitched down almost to the foot in front, but grow shorter toward the back. The foot is bordered by two bands of mink. The plaited bodice is embroidered with wheat ears around the decolletage and has a large plaited bow at the side. The sleeves are plaited horizontally and embroidered at the shoulders.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

EVENING ATTIRE.

Gowns, Bodices and Trimmings For Elegant Wear.

Striped silks in the Louis Quinze and Louis Seize styles, although by no means new, still retain their hold on fashionable favor. Of this same genre, but less familiar, are the Louis Quinze bows made of tiny roses, which are used on skirts and corsages to fasten draperies and decorate the tops of sleeves.

Bodices of point de venise or point de bruges are made over white or colored silk. An interlining of mousseline of the same color as the silk is placed between the silk and the lace to give the latter greater effect. Lace is also used for tunics and entire robes and is often embroidered with gold threads and small jewels or is enriched by wandering applications of tiny gauze ruches, which follow parts of the pattern.

Fur is again employed for evening gown decoration, and one of the newest phases of fashion is a ball costume of tulle embroidered with sable.

The long, plain skirt is by no means displaced by plaited ones or by tunics.

BALL COSTUME.

All have their place, and for a graceful figure nothing better can be devised than the smooth, plainly fitted skirt.

The ball gown illustrated is of satin, with a ruffle of lace, through which a black velvet ribbon is run around the middle of the skirt. The bodice has a lace front and a sort of empire belt of black velvet fastening on the bosom with velvet bows. The corselet is also of black velvet, and there are triple epaulets of black velvet edged with narrow lace. Tiny ruches surround the decolletage.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

CHILDREN'S STYLES.

Clothing For Very Little Boys and Girls.

The dresses of small children are made in the Mother Hubbard style, or the yoke is lengthened so that it extends below the arms and forms a sort of little empire bodice. The style and arrangement of the trimming are the chief means of attaining variety. Collars, pelerines, revers, epaulets and berthas of different kinds are employed with much ingenuity to give individuality. As for materials, velveteen, soft silk with wide ribs, surah, china silk, plain wools or those having a tiny stripe or figure printed, woven or embroidered, and fine checks and plaids are chosen.

GIRL'S DRESS.

For outdoor wear the straight sack, single or double breasted, is the conventional garment. The sleeves are long and rather loose, so as to slip on and off easily, and there is a little pelerine or a capuchin that may be drawn over the head. Gray, beige, red, dark blue and white are the shades most frequently adopted.

Felt, stitched velvet and silk are used for children's hats, and the trimmings are ribbon, silk, velvet and ostrich feathers. There are very pretty hats and bonnets of puffed and plaited taffeta, trimmed with the same material, which suit children to perfection.

An illustration is given which shows a pretty dress for a little girl. It is of cashmere and is laid in vertical stitched plaits which extend from the neck and shoulders to a little below the waist. In front is a flat plait, at each side of which eyelets are worked, through which are passed black velvet ribbons, which here and there form choux. The sleeves are made with stitched plaits at the top and wrists. The accompanying hat of blue felt is trimmed with a chou of blue and white fancy ribbon and fringed ends of ribbon.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

THIN COSTUMES.

Tulle and Net Gowns For Dinner and Evening Wear.

Dinner gowns of tulle embroidered with jet spangles or jewels have unlined transparent sleeves. These may be of plain tulle, shirred and puffed, or of the embroidered tulle. When the latter is used, it is better to have no shirring, but to draw the goods plainly over the arms. The skirt of such gowns is made over a lower skirt of silk, which has at the foot several rows of plaitings of plain tulle, serving to sustain the lower edge of the outside skirt.

BALL GOWN.

The newest of these spangled gowns have an intermingling of black chantilly, which gives a pleasing effect. All sorts of old laces are now brought into use again, and women who have heirlooms of this sort laid away can make good use of them.

A novel idea in evening bodices is an arrangement of guipure which forms points around the decolletage. These points of guipure are carried upward toward the neck and are fastened to the jeweled necklace at the tips.

The ball gown shown in the picture is of pink liberty silk. The tunic is of spangled black tulle, draped in front and trimmed with black lace at the back. Large butterflies of spangled black lace decorate the skirt and the bodice. The bolero of spangled silk has shoulder straps of the same goods embroidered with jewels. There are transparent sleeves of the tulle, which drop from the shoulders.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

HAN'S ADVENTURE.

What He Saw When He Looked in the Brook.

Once upon a time, in a distant land, there lived a bright, sturdy lad of the name of Hans. His home was with his parents in a rude peasant's cottage that stood at the foot of a great mountain. Hans spent his days tending his father's sheep as they browsed on the mountain side. He was an ambitious boy, and as he sat under the shade of a tree, playing sweetly on a home-made flute, he would dream of the great deeds he would perform when he became a man. One day he saw a wonderful sight. Far away across the valley and half way up a mighty cliff he saw a band of funny little gnomes and elves at work polishing up a great golden crown.

"What a mighty Prince I should be!" thought Hans. "If I might wear that crown I should be the greatest Prince in all the land, and how happy I should be!"

On three successive days the vision of the golden crown appeared to Hans; and then he determined to set off at once in quest of it.

So eager was he that he forgot to bid farewell to his parents, and left the sheep to roam at will over the mountains.

"I must make haste," said Hans to himself, as he started off across the valley, "lest some one else should reach the golden crown before me. I shall not rest till it is mine."

(He looked in the brook and saw an old man.)

Such a long, long valley it was! The big red sun rose and set many, many times and still Hans seemed as far off from the goal as ever.

Green shady trees spread out their hospitable branches toward him, but not once did he pause to enjoy their restful shade. Now and then a dancing brook ran across his path, and its murmuring voice seemed to call on him to bathe in its cool waters and refresh his weary body, but he would not heed, and went plunging madly on. The perfumed breath of the wild flowers along the way was wafted up to his nostrils, but he ruthlessly trod them down. A frightened robin flew to his bosom for protection from a hungry hawk, but he thrust it roughly away from him, saying:

"Fight your own battles. All my strength and energy I must save for mine."

The way now grew rougher and more arduous with every step. Great brambles and thorny bushes reared their ugly heads before him. Oftentimes he might have avoided them by walking around, but he was afraid by that to lose a little time, and went straight on, tearing his clothes and scratching his hands and face till the blood flowed. But so intent was he on reaching the cliff whereon was the golden crown that he felt no pain. And one day—it was years since he began his journey, though he realized it not—he found the crown within his grasp. With a fierce cry he sprang forward and placed the great glittering thing upon his head.

How heavy it was. Its weight seemed more than he could bear. "I suppose I shall get used to it," he said to himself. "And how fine I must look with it on!"

He went to the edge of a placid stream and looked in, that he might see his own reflection.

He saw a gaunt old man in tattered garments, with wrinkled visage and hollow eyes; and in the figure there was no trace of the handsome, sturdy, fair-haired Hans who had contentedly tended his father's sheep.

"Now, how can this be?" groaned Hans. "Though the crown is on my head, yet I look not one bit like Prince, but rather a tired out old man, on whose brow this golden thing is much out of place, and whose weight my feeble body cannot bear."

Then, with a despairing gesture, he flung the golden crown far out into the stream, where it sank from sight. And from the cliff above came the mocking laughter of the gnomes.

Then old Hans bethought himself of his forgotten home, of his kindly parents and the gentle sheep, and a longing filled his soul to see them all once again.

So, weary and heartbroken, he set out on his homeward journey. It was winter now; the flowers were dead, the trees, bare of all foliage, reared their great gaunt limbs like mocking fingers; the streams were frozen, and all nature was cheerless and barren around him.

At last he was at home, but long since his parents had died, and long since the neglected sheep had perished miserably.

Hans made his way to the house; at least that would afford him a welcome. Yes—the door stood open, as it had stood for years, but inside the hearthstone was cold.

Dear reader, Hans is any boy, and the golden crown is simply a boy's ambition. Beware lest in your haste to reach the goal you forget to live along the way. It is good to keep one's life ambition always in mind, but remember that there are duties to perform each day.

Having determined on what position you would like to attain in life quietly go to work to acquire the knowledge and virtues which will make you competent to fill that position when it comes to you.

It is not the crown that will make of you a Prince, but the princely virtues that will make you fit to wear a crown.

Proceedings of the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders.

[OFFICIAL.]

Regular meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union, New Jersey, held on Thursday, December 7, 1899 at 2:30 o'clock p. m. All members were present excepting Freeholder Miller.

The minutes of the previous meeting were on motion, approved as read, (reading of bills being omitted)

COMMUNICATIONS.

The following order of the Court was presented and read, viz:

UNION COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT.

In the matter of the application of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union for the appointment of Commissioners to condemn land belonging to Jonathan P. Glasby and others, for the purpose of widening North or Westfield Avenue in the Township of Union. | Order Fixing Compensation of Commissioners.

Application being made to the Court by W. R. Codington, attorney for the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, to fix the compensation for services rendered by the commissioners appointed on January sixteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, in the above entitled matter:

It is on this twenty-third day of November, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, ordered that the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union do pay to F. C. Marsh, Joseph A. Hubbard and James O. Clark the sum of two hundred dollars each, the same to be in full for compensation for services rendered and necessary disbursements incurred by them in the discharge of their duties respecting the condemnation of lands made by said commissioners by virtue of said appointment made January 16, eighteen hundred and ninety nine, including also services rendered by said commissioners in reconsidering the report made by said commissioners under order of this Court, said order bearing date October 12, 1898.

B. VAN SYCKEL,
Justice Supreme Court.

No objection being offered the foregoing order was received and filed.

From the County Attorney as follows:

December 4, 1899.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union.

Gentlemen: Having been requested to give my opinion as to whether or not the county could be held by for the payment of the claims of peace officers provided for by virtue of section eighty-three of the election laws, I beg to state that I am of the opinion from the reading of the section that the municipalities where the polling places are held respectively, are required to furnish such officers when requested in the manner provided for in said section. I would further say that I have communicated with the Clerks of the Essex, Somerset and Middlesex Counties Boards of Freeholders regarding the matter and they each inform me that these expenses so far as their respective counties are concerned, are paid by the municipalities and not by the freeholders, therefore, it being the custom in other counties for the municipalities to pay these bills when required, and such being the evident meaning of the provisions of the act respecting the same, I am compelled to advise your Honorable Body that such bills should not be paid by you.

Yours respectfully,
W. R. CODINGTON, County Attorney.

On motion of Freeholder Roll, received, ordered to be spread upon the minutes and placed on file.

From the County Road Inspector as follows, viz.:

Westfield, N. J., December 1, 1899

To the Honorable, the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County, N. J.:

Gentlemen—The undersigned would respectfully report to your honorable body that the ten per cent. of the contract county road repair work for the year 1898, amounting to $1 015 82 is now due the contractor, William H. Weldon.

(Signed) Very Respectfully,
James W. Fink, Inspector

On motion of Freeholder King, received and referred to the County Road Committee.

NEW BUSINESS.

By Freeholder Adams:

"Resolved, That the bill of W. T. Kirk for $1,595, for bridge at Vreeland's Mills, Cranford, N. J., be paid when properly audited by the committee."

Freeholder Brucklacher moved the adoption of the resolution and on roll call it was unanimously adopted.

By Freeholder Adams:

"Resolved, That the bill of W. T. Kirk for $485,000 for bridge on South Avenue, Garwood, N. J., be paid when properly audited by the committee."

Freeholder Brucklacher moved the adoption of the resolution, and on roll-call it was unanimously adopted.

By Freeholder Hulskamper:

"Resolved, That balance of bill $4,150 for iron work on West Jersey Street bridge be paid W. T. Kirk, contractor, when approved by the committee."

Freeholder King moved the adoption of the resolution, and on roll-call it was unanimously adopted.

By Freeholder King:

"Resolved, That bill of W. H. Weldon, amounting to $1,015 82, be paid when approved by the Committee on County Roads."

Freeholder Swain moved the adoption of the resolution, and on roll call it was unanimously adopted.

The following bills, audited and approved were read, and on roll call unanimously ordered paid, viz:—

Members Pay Account—John Robinson $24, James A. Barnett $46 25 John F. Wahl $20, W. H. Swain $36, John Farrell $35.30, Frederick Miller $40, Benjamin King $36, Jacob Brucklacher $34, J. Martin Roll $48 25, W. H Hulskamper $46. Joseph Mc Candless $50.

Committee Expense Account—James A Burnett $11 75, John Robinson $5 50, W. H. Swain $10 John F. Wahl $10 75, J. Martin Roll $13.

Salary Account—E M. Wood $125, S. Rusling Ryno $25, F. W. Westcott $150.

Public Building Account—Charles W. Dodd $25, Suburban Electric Co., $56 97, Anthony Stein $10.55, Alaf Hansen $9 10, Laggren & Ball $28.80, L. F. Hersch & Bro., $4.25, Gustav Kann, $4.50, Elizabethtown Gaslight Co., $58.90, $39 60, James H. Faulks $11.56; Heald & Sauerbrunn $27 92, $43.18.

Coroner's Account — P. DuBois Bunting $25.

Boulevard Account—J. A Hubbard $200, James O. Clark $200.

Stationery Account—Advocate Publishing Co., $26.25, F. E. Norris & Co., $47 65, John C. Rankin Co., $114.75.

Jail Account — Eagle Shoe Store $9.73, Anthony Stein $1 70, James O. Brokaw $13.09, G. Purdy $2 88, Henry J. Schmidt $5 10, Berry & Co., $2 94, J. W. Hildebrandt & Co., $59 79, Moses Mendel $44 12, J. P. Hanifin $34 43.

Incidentals Account — S. Rusling Ryno $25.25, George McGhee $115 65, Wm. Howard $789 95, James C. Ogden $35, James Mitchell's Sons $75

County Road Repairs Account—Wm. H. Weldon $4 50, James W. Fink $60, Charles Spinning $2 62

Election Account—Elizabeth Daily Journal $378 08, Zerman K. Norman $10. James J. Manning, city clerk, $1,266 99, Charles Forster, clerk and rent, $26.50, J. Thomas Scott, clerk, $11; Daniel C. Day, rent, etc, $72, Union Democrat $5 40, Frank T. Young $15, Morris Koestler $2.

Court Account—John F Christ $2.32, Joseph Clark, justice peace, $2.05, 65 cents, $1 25, $2 05, Joseph Schick $1 95, James J. Carey $30, Henry J. Schoppe $30. Henry Smith $30, James Crann $42, A. B Crane $36, John Seeland $30, Vincent Daniel $30, Gustave Deinlein $42, Amos Moffett $38 50, Geo W Peck, Jr., $35 75, Wm. H. Sault $27 50 B. W. Karr $15, Fred C. Marsh $50; Herbert W. Knight $7.50, $100 J. E Marsh $75, Geo. C. Tenney $37.80, N. C J English $521.52; John K. English $25, B. A. Vail $373 33, Robert G. Houston, sheriff, $9.89, $1,349.40, W. B. Toucey, justice peace, $14 76.

Bridge Account—Isaac Terhune $17 90, C. C Winkle $43 86, B. Doyle $19 25, C. Vreeland $5, W W. Mendell $6 70, James Hobson $17. Hugh McGhran $2, A.S. Emmons $12 19. Mayer & Ellis $2 15, James Kennedy $49, $48, $48, John H. VanPelt $2 25, $133 33, Benedict Sulter $98.75, Wm. Farrier $656, Henry C. Meyer $6 25 J. E. Goodman $22, John M Bachmann $7 50, Thomas Gallagher $4, James G. Moore $48 $8 75. C. T Brown $5. Van S. Roosa $18 85, Joseph Frazer $12. W. H. Brokaw $75 57 W. R. Ayers $2 97, Fred Veader $20.85, J. W Hughes $47 05, Martin Manghan $44 25, Frank Murphy $35, George D Burrell $75, M. Perrine $50, J. M. French $12 50, E. W. Chamberlain $35, W. H. Burton $7.50.

Freeholder Wahl moved to adjourn, which was carried.

The director declared the board adjourned until Thursday, January 4th, 1900, at 2 30 p. m.

S. Rusling Ryno, Clerk.

One Man's Wisdom.

She—Why is it that you never take sides in any argument?

He—Because silence is the most difficult argument to beat.—Chicago News.

Worth Trying.

"Tell me," said the youth, "the secret of your happiness and contentment."

"'Tis simple," replied the sage; "I always discount my expectations 90 per cent."—Chicago News.

A Clever Foil.

"That automobile driver of yours smelled dreadfully of peppermint."

"That was my idea. You couldn't notice the gasoline, could you?"—Automobile Magazine.

Why He Wept.

"Oh, don't despair! If your wife has run away with your friend, can't you forget her?"

"Yes, I can do that, but my poor friend—to think what he's got to endure!"—Heitere Welt.

They All Repent.

"The Mohammedan religion," said the Sweet Young Thing, with a purpose of starting something, "says every man shall have four wives."

"Well, retorted the Savage Bachelor, "what of it? Did you ever know of a religion from which the idea of repentance was absent"—Indianapolis Journal.

Fifty Cents a Load.

"How mush'll you sharge t' kite us uptown to our happy, happy homesh?" the man who was being leaned on by his two weary friends asked the night liner.

"Fifty cents a load," replied the night liner, sizing up the three jags, and the bargain was made.

The Corn-Fed Philosopher.

"Too often," said the Corn-fed Philosopher, "the joyous flush of youth runs up against four of a kind before it has time to appreciate itself."—Indianapolis Journal.

Pessimistic Pa.

Teacher—Well, Tommy, have you found that definition of patriotism yet?

Tommy—Paw says it means judgin' a man's worth by the side of the river he lives on.—Indianapolis Journal.

Ladie Desiring . . .
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 208 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 45, 9 16, 9 45, 9 59, 10 27, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 25, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 54, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 00, 7 30, 9 24, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 7 29, 8 01, 9 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09 m., 12 09 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 15, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 29, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 3 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 30, 9 24, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 29, 9 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 15, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 3 20, 3 32, 4 32, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 05, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 9 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLDHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov, 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo, and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. L. Manning & Son,
STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

XXXX QUALITY
FINEST
LOFOTON COD LIVER OIL,
Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.
Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at 39c per Pint.
For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at
50c per Bottle,
or the Tasteless at
75c per Bottle.
THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
Henburn & Co.,
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,
213 WEST FRONT ST.
Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

FURNITURE for the Parlor . . . Library . . . Dining-Room . . . Bedroom . . .
Close at 6 o'Clock.
POWLISON & JONES,
149 and 151 E. Front St.

Annual January Sale of Ladies' Muslin Underwear.

An entirely new showing of muslin underwear is now ready for your inspection.

These Goods were bought many weeks ago, before the recent heavy advance in prices on cotton goods—Prices have been made accordingly.

Made by one of the famous underwear manufacturers of Massachusetts, in clean, well ventilated factories, insuring absolute cleanliness in manufacture.

Finely made garments, snowy white, beautiful dainty garments. By far the best elaborate assortment we have ever shown.

These goods have just been received, and placed on sale. As to prices, they conform to the regular January bargain prices, which are much lower than the ordinary.

I. LEDERER.

FALL OPENING.
WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.
OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy [in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5.00.

Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1,000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,
206 West Front Street.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

Our Attractive Holiday Display awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.
A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

FURS. Our assortment of Furs at the present time is larger and better than ever before. A few of the many special values. Each item is worthy of your special attention.

COLLARETTES.
Grebe, extra fine fur, satin lining, $6.00.
Sheared Coney, 12 tails, extra fine satin lining, $5.95.
Sheared Coney, extra long and extra fine satin lining, at $7.75.
Electric Kurmur, satin lined, $12.00.

BOAS. Stone Marten, $1.89 and $2.49. Bear skin, $3.25

MUFFS. Sable, $3.98. Astrachan $2.25.

CHILDREN'S FURS. Electric Seal, $1.49 to 4.75. Thibet sets, $1.00 to 1.49. Angoras, $1.98 to 2.98. Mink sets, $3.25. Stone Marten, $1.00 to 6.49.

UNTRIMMED MILLINERY. We will close out the balance of our untrimmed millinery at prices that will please you. All new goods. The bargains in this department must be seen to be appreciated.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

"SOROSIS!"
The most popular shoe sold for women. 3,000 pairs turned out of the factory each work day. The best $3.50 shoe in every respect made. We sell them, as well as other lines at a higher price, and also as low as 98c, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00, etc. Good winter shoes for men $1.25, $1.50, $2.00 and up to $5 and $6. Felt Slippers, Rubber Boots, Arctics, Rubbers, everything you need in the shoe line. Peddles, Trunks, Dress Suit Cases and Traveling Bags.
DOANE & EDSALL.

THE CADDY.

Golf, a Red-Headed Girl, and a Canning Factory.

Golf is a game known only on the report of enthusiasts whose biased criticism is printed. But they must employ the unelect as caddies, and the opinion of these, though so long unheard, is an expert judgment, too.

Three of them, ragged, barefooted urchins, burned brown on the links, were sitting on the wharf at a summer resort that has, with other attractions, golf links and a canning factory. The native youth of the village earn pocket money by picking fruit for the latter when it opens in the early autumn. In mid-summer they are caddies.

"Say, Jimmy," said one, "how much d'ye make?"

"Eighty-five," said Jimmy, inspecting his bare heel.

"Wot! Who'd ye go 'round with?"

"The red-headed girl."

"Her?" contemptuously. "She ain't no good."

"Ain't she?" Jimmy answered proudly. "She's a pippin. She can't swipe nothin', but she pays the price. Got a dime fer running' to the clubhouse fer her cape."

"Go'n!"

"An' 25 cents fer onct around."

The other eyed him enviously. "I went 'round with Whiskers," he said.

"Yep."

"He's a peach, I don't think. He learnt one feller to play, an' now he kin beat Whiskers all holler himself. Wot ye got?" That referred to Jimmy's foot.

"Fissels," Jimmy grunted. "Whiskers, he can't teach," he added.

The three were on a bench that had been set up for fishermen at the edge of the wharf. Jimmy, in the center, had drawn up his thistle-wounded foot on his lap for inspection. The pair, one on each side, assisted at the clinic.

"D'ye like goff, Jimmy?"

Jimmy spat in the water. "Rats!" he said expressively.

"D'ye wish the cannin' fact'ry was open?"

"Bet yer life."

Jimmy looked up to find a stately young woman coming toward them. He dropped his foot and nudged his comrades. "Here she is," he whispered.

It was the red-headed girl, one of the acknowledged beauties of the place. Her hair was a fashionable auburn. She smiled on the three boys with a maternal kindness, and they made clumsy attempts to remove their caps.

"Tell ye wot," he said, impressively, "goff'd be somethin' if they was all like her. She's a pippin." Then, after a moment's thought, he added: "Wish the cannin' fact'ry was open."—Exchange.

How a Handwriting Expert Reasons.

When a piece of disputed or suspected handwriting is submitted to an expert, his first care is to note its general appearance. He observes what seems to be the characteristic habits of hand in the writer, the style, shading, and connection of letters, their relation to the base line of the writing, and other significant points. The same process is applied to specimens of the alleged writer's genuine hand.

The next steps is to disintegrate the writing so that letters repeated in both specimens may be compared in detail when placed side by side. In this way divergences or resemblances, which might not appear to the eye in the body of a paper, are made perfectly clear. If any of the letters show signs of hesitation or retouching, as frequently happens in forgeries, they are photographed through the microscope. By this enlargement retouches or tracings are brought out so that they can be seen plainly by the untrained eye.

Having made his examination of the whole writing, step by step, the expert summarizes the results, numbering corresponding parts, and calling attention to discrepancies or resemblances as they occur. By this process his conclusions are made perfectly clear, in all ordinary cases, to anybody who reads his report. In exceptional circumstances, such as court trials, he may go before a jury with blackboard and pencil and show exactly how a forger wrote a certain letter as well as the way in which the persons whose writing was imitated habitually formed it. If his deductions are accurate, the results, presented in this graphic manner, usually are convincing to all intelligent and unprejudiced observers. It is one of the advantages of graphology that, ordinarily, its conclusions may be made as plain as the nose on a man's face.—Ainslee's Magazine.

Hay Fever Association.

The American Hay Fever association, so far as known, is the only society in the United States bound together by the ties of disease. There is no diphtheria club or pneumonia circle, or independent order of rheumatics, or other organizations where a common malady forms a bond of union. Only members of the American Hay Fever association blow their noses and wipe their eyes in unison. The Hay Fever association was first heard of a good many years ago, when Henry Ward Beeches was a leading spirit, and the gathering ground of the organization was said to be the White mountains in New Hampshire. Later New Mexico was proclaimed the sneezer's Mecca, and Captain Philip Reade, U. S. A., appeared as chief scribe. Now it is given out that Marquette, Mich., is the head center in place of Petosky, originally selected, and it is said that the fall meeting of the association will see a thousand members in attendance.—Kansas City Star.

Williams Learns to Yodel.

According to the London Chronicle, the Kaiser has been learning to yodel. His sons picked up the accomplishment from an old peasant on the shores of the Tegernsee, and when the Kaiser arrived he was fired with a fine spirit of rivalry, sent for the old warbler, and asked to be taught "the only thing I do not know," no doubt a libelous embellishment of the story. But the prospect is too awful. Next time the Kaiser has to raise his champagne glass we may have a full-throated yodel turned loose at the end instead of the customary "Hoch! hoch! hoch!" How in the world will Reuter represent that in telegraphing the speech? Perhaps the Kaiser will mercifully reserve his yodeling for telegrams. But, for the peace of the nations, the Germans at The Hague must not follow their emperor's example.

SEARCH FOR HER MOTHER

Leona Dare Has Traveled 15,000 Miles to Find Her.

A TRAPEZIST'S TROUBLES.

Long-Lost Brother Discovered as Prosperous Ranchman Near North Platte, Neb.—Story of a Waif Who Became World-Famous.

After having been the sensation of this country for years, Leona Dare, the famous trapeze performer, has just concluded a fruitless visit to this country in search of her mother, who disappeared years ago. She now seeks the aid of the press in finding her parent.

It is eighteen years since Miss Dare last visited this country, where she was born. She has retired from public life and is rich. Her life and quest form an extraordinary romance.

The story of it was told by Townsend Percy, an old friend, whose aid she sought in unravelling the mystery, which sounds like a novel. He said: "Nearly twenty years ago, when I was bolting down an executive position in a Pacific Mail Steamship Company in Panama, there arrived on a South Pacific steamer Leona Dare, the young trapeze artist. Having missed the north-bound steamer, she and her assistants were compelled to remain ten days on the Isthmus.

(Leona Dare.)

"She was slender and dark-eyed, of medium height and with a figure so slight that I was not astonished that South American journalists had frequently declared that she was a boy.

"Years passed, and I heard echoes from European newspapers of her balloon ascensions, and now here we were face to face in New York at luncheon. Her beauty was heightened by years, and she told me that from childhood until three years ago she was in constant training.

"'My father, Andrew Jackson Stuart, was a Scotchman by descent, born in Georgia. He served in the Mexican war and afterward settled at Iuka, Miss. He brought back from that war not only the rank of colonel but my mother, who was a Mexican.

"'When the war of the rebellion broke out I was a little girl and the last I saw of my father he rode away to join a cavalry regiment. He never came back, having been killed in battle. The Federal army coming to the vicinity of our home, my mother, with my two brothers and myself "refugeed" as we called it, into Indiana.

"'At the close of the war my mother went South to see if she could find any remains of our property, and I have never seen her since. She had left us in the care of neighbors, who turned us over to the poormaster, who promptly farmed us out.

"'The people with whom I was placed at eight or ten years of age beat me, starved me and compelled me to do menial work, and my soul and body revolted. One day a circus came to town and I got the ear of one of the performers. He happened—such are the accidents of life—to be a trapeze performer and his daughter, about my age, had recently died.

"'Encouraged by him, I ran away, and began to learn the business of a trapeze performer. He and his wife were kind to me and so began my new life.

"'I took my life into my hands daily. I invented new feats. I went abroad and toured all over Europe.

"'In Russia I began ascending on a trapeze suspended from the car of a balloon. The sensation was great, but my sensations and those of the spectators, were, I imagine, widely different.

"'When I came down in the country districts I was robbed, and my balloon was cut up to be made into wearing apparel.

"'I appeared before most of the royal families, and have souvenirs from them. Old Emperor William of Germany invited me to his box, and said to me: "You are a brave woman, and I admire courage."

"'A few years ago I retired. I had saved my money and was independent. Then I was seized with a desire to find my relatives. I suddenly found the world lonely. I closed my house in Paris and came to America. I travelled fifteen thousand miles searching for some trace of my people without success.

"'I found one place in which my mother had lived four years and she had then married again. She had returned to Indiana only to find that my brothers, like myself, had run away.

"'I was discouraged and about to return to Europe, when I went to see Buffalo Bill's Wild West. I had met Col. Cody in Paris in 1889, and after the afternoon performance he invited me to dine in camp. I told him my story briefly and he asked: "How would you know your brother if you found him?"

"'I described a birthmark on the breast which we both bore.

"'"Well," said Col. Cody, "your brother lives about fourteen miles from my ranch in Nebraska on the north fork of the Platte."

"'I took a train that night, went there and found him.

"'"You must imagine the meeting. He had prospered and had a nice wife and family." '

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—Columbia lodge, No. 58, A. O. U. W., will install officers tomorrow evening.

—John G. Bantle, the Watchung avenue tailor, has a telephone. The number is 1173.

—The Borough public schools reopened yesterday after being closed for the holiday season.

—Under the direction of Street Commissoner Gavett some street work is being done in preparation of stormy weather.

—If you want trading stamps and your laundry work done to suit you go to City Steam and Hand Laundry, No. 19 Somerset street.

—J. H. Tier & Son are sweeping the snow off the ice on their lake, and will commence cutting tomorrow. The ice is eight inches thick.

—Wednesday evening, January 17th, a business meeting will be held at the First Baptist church, at which time two deacons will be elected.

—B. W. Hand, the Front street stationer, is still well supplied with a good stock of goods. He makes a feature of fine writing paper.

—A class in penmanship will be organized at the Y. M. C. A., and all young men interested are asked to leave their names at the office.

—J. C. Storms, of 318 Liberty street, has a good stock of fresh killed poultry and game. He sells choice meats of all kinds at very reasonable prices.

—The office of secretary of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club left vacant on account of the death of Josiah Browne is being filled temporarily by A. H. Atterbury.

—Tickets for the Moody memorial service to be held at Carnegie Hall, New York, Monday, January 8th, at 2:30 p. m., may be obtained at the Y. M. C. A. building.

—Business of importance will be considered this evening at the meeting of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., and a full attendance of members is desired.

—Some of the women clerks at Woodhull & Martin's dry goods store are now enjoying their Christmas vacation. The men will receive their week off next month.

—Monday evening, February 5th, there will be held the annual meeting of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club, at which time the reports will be presented and officers will be elected.

—Next week Tuesday afternoon will occur the annual election of directors of the City National Bank. At the same time the First National Bank will also hold a meeting for the election of directors.

—One of the handsomest calendars yet seen is the one issued by the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York. It is large and portrays in several pictures some famous sketches made by Catline, the artist. The subjects are concerning Indian life. J. E. Henry is the local agent, with offices in the Marsh building.

THE COURTS

JUSTICE NASH.

Summons—Anderson against Vail, Jr. Contract. Returnable the 8th.

HOT AFTER NEW INDUSTRY.

Votey Organ Company's Plant is Much Sought After.

The Westfield Board of Trade and the Cranford Township Committee are in a friendly rivalry to secure the location of the Votey organ factory. A site was staked out some days ago at Garwood, on the Cranford side of the line. The Westfield Board of Trade, however, did not give up, and offered greater concessions in land if the company would build on the Westfield side of the line. The Cranford committee then sought for authority to remit taxes for a number of years, but found that it could not do so, and instead has offered special sewer inducements. Meanwhile, the officers of the organ company are non-committal, and are doing some sly flirting with S. D. Drake, of Plainfield.

HILLIER & CO.

Silk Waists Cleaned, $1.25 to $2.00

are the folks. Can't call? Then send and they'll call.

129 W. Front St.

Tel. 851.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	High Score.
Roselle Casino	5	1	911
Park Club	3	3	864
Westfield Club	3	3	826
Cranford Casino	1	5	765

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

By the conversion of one temperance Councilman to the side of license, all danger of a prolonged drought at Cape May during the coming summer has been averted. The member who flopped says he became convinced that a large majority of the voters desired license, an explanation which his former Prohibition colleagues flout with scorn.

* * * * *

South Jersey canners, who were caught last summer with a dearth of cans and the price of tin plate soaring skyward, are now laying in large stocks of tin and will devote the winter to making cans by the million. Should for any reason tin plate take a tumble between now and the beginning of the canning season, the canners will doubtless growl that it's "just their luck."

* * * * *

Among the many fraternal insurance organizations that appeal to the good judgment of the average citizen, there is none possibly that gives evidence of being on a more sound footing than the Knights of Honor, organized in 1873. This organization affords protection to its members at a slight cost in sums of $500, $1,000 or $2,000. Since its organization of a quarter of a century the Knights of Honor has paid in death benefits the enormous sum of $68,000,000 to the families of 35,000 deceased members. Besides this it it has also paid many millions of dollars in cases of special relief. No one is admitted under 18 years of age or over 50 years, and but one assessment is levied per month on the members. One of the flourishing lodges of the above organization in this city is that of Senate No. 3542.

SEWAGE COMMISSION LACKS POWER.

Wants Jersey Legislature to Enlarge Its Sphere.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, Jan. 4.—After wrestling a year with the problem of purifying the Passaic river, the State Sewerage Commission has submitted its report to Governor Voorhees, confessing that it is unable to suggest any one place in which it has absolute faith.

It thinks, however, that the Commission ought to be continued, clothed with executive power and equipped with money sufficient to enable it to carry on its investigation with the assistance of competent engineers.

The report says that it is evident that the Commission should be granted additional power to require from cities and towns having sewage systems measures which will prevent injury to the streams of the State and the owners of property along their banks.

Contest for Silver Chalice.

St. Peter's R. C. church, New Brunswick, is conducting a fair during this week and the great feature of it is the contest for a silver chalice, the contestants being Father Miller, of St. Joseph's church, in the borough; Father Deitrick, of Bound Brook, and Father Egan, of Toms River. These young priests were formerly connected with St. Peter's parish. The contest promises to exceed anything of the kind thus far held by that denomination in this section.

Remonstrants May be Called to Court.

H. P. Carroll, whose application for a license for the road house formerly conducted by George Thatcher, is opposed by the Citizens' League, of Scotch Plains, is prepared to resist the opposition with all his efforts. He declares that a majority of the signers to the remonstrance against his place are women and children, and it is said that many of them will be subpoened to testify as to the charges alleged in the remonstrance.

Progressive Euchre at Catholic Club.

The progressive euchre party at the Catholic Club last evening was one of the pleasant events that mark the social features of that popular organization. There were twenty tables used and many games were closely contested. The prizes were won by Chas. Ward, Margaret Day and Miss Studeman. After the games a collation was served and dancing enjoyed.

—Use Press want ads.

—Press want ads pay.

—Use Press want ads.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenues.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

Thrilling situations in rapid succession accumulate in "The Sleeping City," which will be seen at Music Hall tomorrow night, until a climax is reached in a daring escape from Sing Sing prison. The plot tells of the trials of Jack Morton, who, through the machinations of his arch enemy, is sent to prison; Lou Morton, an ubiquitous reporter, by the same person to an asylum; Michael Mulcahy, one of the finest; Maggie Riley, a vivacious soubrette; Widow Riley (with a big honest heart), and other diversified types of city life, and to the unwavering interest in a manner that wins enthusiastic approval from the audience. The performance requires the employment of a large cast and manager A. Q. Scammon, under whose direction the production is made, provided one which meets all requirements. Pleasing specialties are introduced during the four acts, and from first to last there is interest and amusement enough to entertain the most exacting.

* * * * *

One of the most remarkable circumstances attending the production of "Ben-Hur" at the Broadway theatre in New York is the fact that this massive production, with all its scenery, practical chariot race, horses and camels and 350 people, is effectively presented on a stage, but 70 feet wide by 40 feet deep. An important feature in the production is the incidental and entre act music by Edgar Stillman Kelley, which effectively reflects the spirit which pervades the entire entertainment. Many music critics pronounce it worthy of grand opera.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

E. E. Pope, of Duer street, is detained at his home with a slight illness.

Walter Dreier, of West Front street, is detained at home with a serious illness.

Miss Bessie Ross, of Bound Brook, is visiting Miss Stella Brooks, of Duer street.

Mrs. E. E. Pope, of Duer street, is visiting her parents at Mt. Horeb for a time.

Charles Bowden, of this city, has returned from a business trip to Philadelphia.

John Duffy, of the borough, is spending a few days in New York with friends.

Mrs. George VanNest, of West Second street, has been visiting relatives at Martinville.

Dr. J. H. Cooley, of Westervelt avenue, is detained home with an attack of the mumps.

Helen Woolley, of West Front street, has about recovered from an attack of whooping cough.

Patrolman Andrew Saffron is now doing duty in the West End for the first time in a year.

Miss Moynihan, of Bound Brook, has returned home after a short visit with Plainfield relatives.

B. A. Hegeman, Jr., of West Seventh street, is detained from business on account of a slight illness.

Deputy Grand Workman Nash will visit Earnest lodge, No. 61, A. O. U. M., this evening and assist in installation ceremonies.

Miss Evelyn Simonson, of Duer street, who has been visiting Miss Bowers, of Basking Ridge, has returned home.

Mrs. A. Hoffman, of Jackson avenue, is visiting her father at Asbury, and Peter F. Hoffman, of Annandale, Hunterdon county.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson, of Newark, who have been visiting Mr. Johnson's parents in the borough, have returned home.

John H. Tier, Sr., of Bank place, has secured a position as agent for the New York Life Insurance Company. He expects to travel.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thorn's daughter, of Orange, who has been visiting them at their home, East Second street, has returned home.

Miss Jessie Roberts, of Brooklyn, has returned home after a visit of a few days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Roberts, of North avenue.

Mrs. Fisher, of West Second street, the aged actress, has about entirely recovered from an accident which she had some time ago, when she fell down stairs.

The common malady of mumps has entered the home of Mayor Smalley, of the borough, where two or three members of his family are sufferers therefrom.

Tea at Mrs McCutchen's.

The Daughters of the Cross will give a tea Friday afternoon, January 19th, from 4 until 6 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Samuel St. John McCutchen, 85 Myrtle avenue. There will also be a sale of cake and candy. A silver collection will be received at the door.

GOVERNOR FAVORS CHANGE

Voorhees Approves of Having All State Elections on the Same Date in November.

Governor Voorhees has made a positive statement that he favors the proposed law changing the date of all elections in New Jersey to the date of the November election.

"I should favor the change from the spring to the fall, provided it were made to apply to all cities of the State," said the Governor. "There seems to be a growing feeling in favor of it. Camden favors it. So does Passaic, and I am informed that Essex, too, is in favor of the change. It is said, and justly, that the local issues should be kept separate and apart from National questions, but I believe that the people would give the same attention to the local affairs at the fall elections that they give at any other time. And, besides, there would be more votes. A greater percentage of the normal vote would be cast in that way than under the present system."

AUTOMOBILES.

Chicago is going extensively in the motor carriage business.

B. Altman & Co., of New York city uses the automobile delivery wagon.

St. Louis has an automobile street sweeper. It is said to be a great labor saver.

The Electric Vehicle company is about to put cabs in service in all parts of the country.

As a hill climber it is claimed that the steam carriage is the superior of the electric vehicle.

The Electric company, of New York, proposes putting 4,200 automobiles on the streets.

Some one proposes building an automobile in the shape of a torpedo. Speed is the object.

These vehicles will be used for carrying heavy burdens, although the horse may still be harnessed to the plow.

Postal authorities are about to substitute automobiles for horse-drawn vehicles in collection of the mails.

It is rumored that a course of instruction is about to be given in New York as to the manipulation of the automobile.

The Traction Truck company, of Trenton, N. J., has been incorporated with a capital of two and one-half million dollars.

$50,000,000 will be the amount of capital represented in the trust to be formed by the various air power and auto-truck companies.

In Berlin there are in use electric omnibuses, that weigh less than three tons and carry upwards of 20 people. It can be brought to a stop in the short space of six feet.

Who could enumerate all the things which automobiles can and are doing. Soon those who place them in operation will think it unnecessary to make mention of it.

In France it is a common thing to see children in their voiturettes. It is a very light contrivance, is easily manipulated and not liable to get out of order.

THE LITTLE FOLK.

"What is the meaning of the word lukewarm, Willie?" asked the teacher of a small pupil.

"Lukewarm," replied the little fellow, "is when it looks warm, but isn't."

"Why, Harry, what is the matter?" asked a lady of her small nephew, who was crying bitterly.

"M-mamma whipped m-me," sobbed the little fellow, "an' I'm cryin' c-cause I wasn't b-born a orphan."

"Why don't you get a pair of mittens for your dollie?" asked one little girl of another.

"'Cause," replied the other, "if I did then I couldn't make believe it's the cold that makes her fingers stiff."

Teacher—Now, little girl, I have told the class about the wicked place being paved with good intentions. Now, what do you suppose heaven is paved with? Little Girl (with delightful recollections of a fresh air picnic)—Ham sandwiches, bananas an' pie.

Hazel is just six years old. She goes to a kindergarten and is just learning her letters. The other day the teacher was endeavoring to teach her the latter part of the alphabet and held up a block with a big "T" painted on it. "Hazel thought a long time and called it "I."

"No, no, Hazel. You ought to know what this is. What does your father drink every night for supper?"

"Beer!" shouted Hazel, and she wondered why the teacher smiled.—Washington Post.

LEGAL NOTES.

A rule of a railroad company that a baggage master shall not receive baggage into the baggage room until a ticket shall have been procured is held, in Coffee vs. Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company (Miss.), 45 L. R. A. 112, to be an imposition on the public, unreasonable and void.

Standing on a platform of a cable car, with one's back against the dashboard, is held, in North Chicago Street Railway Company vs. Bauer (Ill.), L. R. A. 108, insufficient to constitute negligence on the part of the passenger, when he has gone out of the car as it approached his destination, and is thrown off by a sudden jerk of the car.

Liability of a sleeping-car company for the theft of a valise from a sleeping car is denied in Pullman's Palace Car Company vs. Hall (Ga.), 44 L. R. A. 709, where it did not appear that the persons in charge of the car were negligent, but the conductor and porter were guarding the open door in front, while the other door was locked, as the train was running slowly across another railroad, at the time that a thief caught on to the car from the outside and took the valise out through a window.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

A few nights ago A. I. Smalley, of the borough, gave an informal coon dinner to a few of his friends.

Miss Emma Giddie, of Duer street, who has been viting her parents at Martinville, has returned home.

Mrs. Joseph C. Martin returned to her home, 33 Park place, last evening after a two weeks' visit at her former home, Bangor, Pa.

Thomas Muir, of West Fourth street, has returned to his position as night operator at the local telephone office. He is assisted by Chas. McCann, who has been employed as operator for some time.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

TELEPHONE 722.

MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.

Friday Night, Jan. 5, 1900.

A. Q. SCAMMON'S COMPANY IN THE GREAT SUCCESS

"THE . . : : SLEEPING : : . . CITY."

Realistic Pictures of New York Life After Dark.....

Midnight Happenings in the Great Metropolis! Sensational Scenes! Humorous Complications! Up-to-Date New York Singing and Dancing Specialties!

PRICES—25, 35, 50 and 75c.

THE First National Bank, of Plainfield, N. J.

Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.

DIRECTORS.

Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Coriell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

BANK ELECTION.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this bank, for the election of nine Directors to serve for the ensuing year, will be held at the Banking rooms, corner of Park avenue and Front street, on Tuesday, January 9th, 1900, from 1 to 2 o'clock p. m.

WILLIAM F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., December 7th, 1899.

12-8 9 11 13 15 16 19 22 26 28 30 1-2 4 6 8

Massage, Manicuring, Hair Dressing, Shampooing, Facial Massage and Steaming.

MISS HOLMES, Graduate of New York Schools of Massage, Electricity and Dermatology.

440 W. Front St., near Washington Ave.

GEO. W. COLE,

UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER.

200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.

OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

DOG LOST—Large, cream colored mastiff, black nose. Liberal reward for return to Drake and Mundy's butcher shop.

FUR ROBES and blankets for sale. 403 West Seventh St. 1 4 2

RESPECTABLE woman wants situation as good plain sewer; to go out by the day or take home work. Call 109 Somerset St.

TO RENT in private house, a large, furnished front room, with hot-water heat; centrally located. Address M, care Press.

WANTED—A cashier in Plainfield store; wages to start three dollars per week. Address N. P. C., care Press. 1 4 2

WANTED—An experienced cook and laundress (white). Apply, with references, 31 Rockview Ave.

WANTED—Good second-hand safe. Send particulars to P. O. Box 301, Plainfield. 12 30 3 eod

FOR SALE or exchange for house and lot or small farm, a fine farm of 200 acres, well watered and timbered. Address Albert, care Daily Press. 12 15 eod tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney, cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Call, with references, at 429 Kensington avenue. 1 2 3

ONE comfortable room, with excellent table, at moderate terms 1121 Putnam avenue. 1 2 6

WANTED at once, cooks, waitresses, chambermaids and general houseworkers. Call Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place. 1 3 2

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish Intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

S. SCHEUER & CO.

—ARE OFFERING—

These Special Bargains

-:- FOR -:-

FRIDAY and SATURDAY.

Best XXXX Minnesota Flour, 24½ lb bag	55c
Best XXXX Minnesota Flour, per bbl	4.35
3 lb Package Prepared White Flour	9c
Aunt Jamima Pancake Flour	8c
Fig Bars (regular 15c cracker) per lb	10c
Best Ginger and Nic Nacs, per lb	5c
Uneeda Ginger Wayfers, per package	7c
Uneeda Crackers, per package	4c
Scheuer's Sweet Peas, per can	10c
Sweet Corn, per can	7c
Solid Packed Tomatoes, per can	7c
Pineapple Chunks (in heavy syrup) can	15c
Best California Peaches, per lb	12c
Best Evaporated Apples, per lb	10c
Fine California Prunes, per lb	6c
Cleaned Currants, per lb	8c
Shredded Codfish, per package	4c
New Salt Mackerel, per fish	5c
New Salt Herring, per fish	1c
Marshall's Imported Kippered Herring, can	13c
French Mixed Candy, per lb	10c
American Mixed Candy, per lb	8c
New Mixed Nuts, per lb	12c

- - - IN OUR - - -

MEAT DEPARTMENT.

Choice Young Fowls, per lb	12c
Fine Roasting Chickens, per lb	14c
Legs of Choice Lamb, per lb	12c
Legs of Choice Mutton, per lb	10c
Shoulder of Lamb, per lb	8c
Shoulder Lamb Chops, per lb	10c
Lamb for Stewing, per lb	5c
Best Sugar Cured Hams, per lb	10c
Lean Breakfast Bacon, per lb	10c
Taylor's Prepared Hams (whole) per lb	13c

S. SCHEUER & CO.

FANCY FORMS . . . .

of Ice Cream are becoming more in demand every day, because the price is now made popular. Call to see our wax models of their many shapes. Our popular price ONE DOLLAR a dozen delivered within 5 miles. Further away we pay express on large orders.

R. Healsh & Co. TWO STORES, 157 MARKET STREET, 677 BROAD STREET, NEWARK N. J.

m th

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,

Gramophones, Records and Supplies.

A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.

BROKAW'S . . .

The Piano Dealer. 123 East Front Street.

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

LOST—On Saturday evening in train 6:15 from N. Y., or in Plainfield, a gold, green and white enamel pin, with P. S., '98. Return to E. B. Clark, 131 Crescent Ave. 1 3 3

WANTED—White girl for general housework; references required. 330 East Fifth Street. 1 3 3

FURNISHED rooms to let. 322 East Fifth St. 1 3 4

ROOM to rent in my house; suitable for office. Dr. Knott, 157 Crescent Ave. 1 3 3

WOMEN can secure good home for winter, $10 per month. Call 114 New St., before 9 a. m. 1 3 3

FIRST CLASS Guernsey and Durham Cow for sale. Inquire Mrs. Gaghen, 318 Lee Place. 1 3 3

WANTED—Girl to assist in light housework. German preferred; reference. A. J. Hartman, 129 Broad street, Westfield, N. J. 1 2 3

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

WANTED—Experienced cook. Apply Superintendent Muhlenberg Hospital. 12 27 tf

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

Demulcent Cream

Will soften the skin.
Will prevent roughness.
Will please everyone.

"Is a Delightful Cream to use."

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscribers, executors of Lewis J. Denton, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the tenth day of January next.

EMELINE B. DENTON,
SARAH P. BLISS,
Executors.

Dated December 6th, 1899. 12 7 osw

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:24 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:48 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:48 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Threatening tonight; fair Saturday; stationary temperature. Ther. 34.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., FRIDAY, JANUARY 5, 1900. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

MISS ACKERMAN'S DEBUT IN SOCIETY.

Formal Reception Given by Mrs. E. R. Ackerman.

IMPORTANT SOCIETY EVENT.

RESIDENCE ON WEST EIGHTH STREET WAS HANDSOMELY DECORATED.

Formal "Coming Out" Reception Was Held Yesterday Afternoon and Evening—Society Was Present in Force—Dinner to Young Women of Receiving Party Afterwards—The Decorations.

The formal introduction into Plainfield society of Miss Lydia P. Ackerman, daughter of Mrs. J. Hervey Ackerman, of West Seventh street, was marked yesterday afternoon and evening by an elaborate reception, given in her honor by Mrs. Ernest R. Ackerman, at her handsome residence on West Eighth street. Invitations to the number of five hundred were issued and a representative assemblage of the elite of local society with guests from New York and other cities was present. It was a charming affair throughout and added to the list of important social events that make this season an unusually lively one for local society circles.

The reception was held from 4 until 7 o'clock and during those hours the parlors were thronged. The decorations were particularly elaborate and were arranged with very handsome effect. Red and green were the prevailing colors. Southern smilax was used in profusion and garlands of the green leaves were hung from the panels of the ceiling by large bows of red ribbon. Holly berries were also used to give just the touch of color needed to the green of the smilax. The stairway was hidden beneath a mass of floral decorations.

The guests were received by Mrs. J. Hervey Ackerman, Miss Ackerman and Mrs. Ernest R. Ackerman. They were assisted by Mrs. Robert Rushmore, Mrs. Marion S. Ackerman, Mrs. Wm. B. Wadsworth, Mrs. Rowland Cox, Miss Florence Waring, Miss Cox, Miss Schoonmaker, Miss Shepard, and Miss Richards, of Bloomfield, this State.

An orchestra was half hidden in a floral bower at one end of the large hall and there rendered a number of selections during the progress of the reception. The table in the dining room was handsomely decorated. Refreshments were there served to the guests.

After the reception a dinner was given to the young women of the receiving party by Mrs. Ackerman. Covers were laid for twelve. The decorations were of pink.

After the dinner, an informal dance was held in which the young people participated.

COMPETITION NOW ASSURED.

Mayor Hinchcliffe Will Sign Franchise for New Water Company.

The entry of the People's Water Company in the field in Paterson as a rival to the Passaic Water Company, a branch of the East Jersey Water Company, has aroused the old corporation, which has had a monopoly of the water business in Paterson.

It is said that the old company will begin proceedings in the Supreme Court to have the new franchise tested.

William B. Gourly, head of the new concern, is not alarmed over the declaration of war. He declared recently that the new company is a permanent institution. Mayor Hinchcliffe praises the Board of Aldermen for establishing the competition. He will sign the ordinance.

Will Make Short Cut.

At the suggestion of the board of governors of Muhlenberg Hospital the Common Council will no doubt have a crosswalk laid from the hospital property across the street to connect with the walk that runs from West Third street to West Fourth street. This makes a short cut to the trolley cars, and will be an improvement as in wet weather it is very disagreeable walking.

Mr. Lane to Sing.

Douglas Lane will sing a sole at the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. next Sunday at 4:15 p. m. Mr. Lane will be remembered as the bass soloist at the recent performance of the Messiah at the Crescent Avenue church. Though recently a resident of New York where he still has a vocal studio, Mr. Lane is now living at Plainfield.

After Requisition Papers.

Capt. Grant left this morning for Harrisburg, Pa., to secure requisition papers and bring back Frank McDonald who was recently indicted for robbing the store of Mantz Bros., of East Front street.

MAKES PAY DAY LATER.

City Employes Will Not Receive Salaries as Quickly as Under the Old System.

Regarding the payment of city employes of the city on the first day of the month, as spoken of in yesterday's Press, it has since been learned that the new arrangement will make the payment come later in the month and not as near the first as under the present system. The length of time will elapse between pay days, and no improvement is made. While the system is an improvement over those used prior to the election of City Treasurer Arnold, it is not just the kind that suits the employes of the city. There seems to be no good or sufficient reason why the employes should not be paid on the first of the month unless that day happens to fall on a Sunday or a holiday. It has been stated that it can be arranged so that the men can be paid on the first day, and if this is true the Council should arrange it and give the employes the benefit of it.

RED MEN LOST THE SUIT.

UNABLE TO COLLECT FROM LOAN ASSOCIATION, AMOUNT CLAIMED.

The Case Tried in the Circuit Court Yesterday and the Jury Rendered a Verdict Favorable to the Defendants.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, January 5.—The attempt of Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118, Improved Order of Red Men, of Plainfield, to recover the full amount paid into the Republic Savings and Loan Association, of Newark, through an action brought in the Union County Circuit Court did not result in a complete victory for the Red Men. The case was tried before Judge Vail and a jury yesterday morning.

In April, 1896, Miantonomo Tribe, wishing to invest a portion of its money, purchased 20 shares in the loan association. These shares were kept up until April of last year, when the order decided to withdrew.

The money the company had received from the association for dues, etc., during the time of its membership amounted to $370, which amount, together with interest, would have been returned to the retiring Red Men had it not been for the fact that about two years ago the constitution and bylaws of the loan association were so amended that a certain amount is taken from such claims in order to meet the expenses, etc., of the association.

On withdrawing the Red Men demanded the payment of $370, plus a dividend not exceeding 6 per cent., whereas the loan association refused to pay but $309.31; whereupon the Red Men, through William Newcorn, brought suit to recover the amount it was entitled to under the constitution of the association as it existed when it became shareholder.

The loan association was represented by R. V. Lindabury.

The case was called earlier in the day than was expected and none of the plaintiff's witnesses were present. Lawyer Newcorn finally succeeded in proving his case with the aid of the testimony of Luther Gadd, president and general manager of the loan association.

The judge decided that under the present rules of the association, that organization had the right to deduct a certain percentage from the amount withdrawn for expenses. The jury therefore brought in a verdict for $309.31, for the Red Men.

Used a Wooden Key and Escaped.

Some months ago Fred Slater, a prisoner in the county jail at New Brunswick, disappeared. There was no doubt that he had escaped, but how was a mystery. In overhauling the locks of the jail yesterday John Faulkner found a piece of a wooden key that had been cleverly made out of a bit of oak that came from a floor beam in Slater's old cell. With the key Slater had opened the door leading into the main corridor, and then walked out. The locks have since been changed.

Rahway's Former Mayor Dead.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Rahway, Jan. 5th—Alpheus G. Gibbons, formerly Mayor of Rahway, died yesterday. He was 81 years old. Born in Massachusetts, he went west and engaged in carriage building, constructing the vehicles for the first stage line between Buffalo and Chicago. He came to Rahway fifty years ago.

Before Grand Jury.

C. E. Hepburn and Charles Hall, druggists of this city, were called to Elizabeth yesterday before the Grand Jury in the case of Edmund Dantes, who is now serving a term on Blackwell's Island for forgery. When he completes his term he will no doubt have to answer to other charges in this State.

CHURCH CANNOT GET 30 YEAR OLD LEGACY.

Remarkable Case Just Decided in Court of Chancery.

VALUABLE LAND INVOLVED.

OUTCOME OF PURCHASE OF LINCOLN SCHOOL HOUSE SITE.

After Nearly Thirty Years a New Hampshire Church Tried to Collect a Legacy of $1,000 Which Had Been Willed to It by the Late Edward W. Marsh—Owners Protected.

Vice-Chancellor Stevens in the Court of Chancery has just rendered an opinion in a case that involved one of the most remarkable contests for the ownership of real estate yet recorded in New Jersey. Three years ago Robert D. Benedict, a lawyer in New York, sold to the Board of Education, of this city, the site for the Lincoln School building at the corner of East Second and Berkman streets. At the time of the delivery of the conveyance it was accepted by the Board of Education only on the condition that Mr. Benedict execute and deliver to the Board of Education his bond in the sum of $3,000 conditioned for the payment of any sum which certain legatees under the will of a former owner of the property might claim.

It was found that among the legacies was a conditional one bequeathing $1,000 to the Congregational church in White River Village, Vt. As the will of the testator, Edward W. Marsh, had been probated in 1866 and his estate long ago wound up and settled and the executors and residuary legatees dead, Mr. Benedict presumed that the legacies had been paid and that the executors had neglected to file the proper releases. Acting on this assumption he wrote to the minister of the Congregregational church in White River Village requesting him to have the proper release executed, as there could be no doubt but that the legacy had long since been paid.

Much to the surprise of Mr. Benedict, he received a reply from the minister to the effect that the church had never heard of the legacy but would at once take steps to recover the amount of legacy left them nearly thirty years before. Counsel was at once retained and the case taken into the Court of Chancery, the church claiming its right to the legacy bequeathed it by the late Mr. Marsh. Mr. Benedict and thirty-two other persons were made the defendants, all being owners of the land bounded by East Front and Berkman streets and Midway avenue in this city.

The principal claim of the plaintiffs was that they had never heard of the execution of the legacy to them, and having no knowledge of the fact the statute of limitations could not apply and prevent their recovery of the amount willed to them. The matter was argued with great force by McCarter, Williamson & McCarter, of Newark, for the plaintiffs, and by J. P. Powers, of Elizabeth, for the defendants.

In rendering his opinion dismissing the claim of the church, Vice Chancellor Stevens said that even if ignorance of the legacy had been clearly proven he would doubt whether it should avail, as against the previous standing of the defendants, who were neither trustees or volunteers, but purchasers of real value. He said that if ignorance of the church formed an equitable ground for the claiming of the property, then ignorance of the purchasers of the land ought, at this distance of time, to be regarded as an eqitable ground for maintaining it.

IT'S GYMNASIUM GIRLS NOW.

Daughters of New Brunswick's Best Families Interested in Their Muscles.

Athletic girls are the latest in New Brunswick, and last night at the Rutgers College gymnasium a club of 50 was organized, with Miss Ida VanMiddlesworth as captain. Prof. Frederick H. Dodge, of Rutgers, will have charge of the class.

The girls have decided to wear a uniform consisting of a loose blouse and full bloomers. The members will include daughters of the wealthiest families in New Brunswick.

Week of Prayer.

Commencing next Monday evening, January 8th and continuing until Friday, January 12th, the week of prayer will be observed at Hope Memorial chapel. Meetings will be held every evening.

Assistant at Jersey City Terminal.

Fred VanLiew, of LaGrande avenue, formerly baggagemaster on the Jersey Central, has secured the position of Assistant Superintendent of Terminal at Jersey City.

FRANCHISE TAX IS DUE.

WESTFIELD ALREADY SEES PROFIT FROM TROLLEY COMPANY.

Township Has Rendered Bill to Rikers for $155—Report That Mountainside Borough Will Not Get the Trolley.

The first sum of money is now due the township of Westfield from the Rikers for mileage under the terms of the ordinance granted the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company, which gave the company the franchise to operate the trolley through the township.

Township Clerk Charles D. Reese, by order of the Township Committee, has sent the Rikers a bill, the amount of which is $155, which is at the rate of $100 a mile per annum for every mile of street railway operated in the township. The first bill is for that portion of the road from Cranford to the corner of Broad and Elm streets in Westfield. The franchise for the balance of the line running to Scotch Plains was granted at a later date, the payment for which begins with the first day of this month.

It is now understood that the borough of Mountainside will be left out in the cold as far as the cross country trolley line is concerned. It is now stated that the Rikers will build from Mountain avenue over private right of way south of Echo Lake at Branch Mills, and thence through Branch Mills to Springfield and connect with the Essex county lines at that place. This cross country line will connect Springfield with Rahway and Boynton Beach, and branches off the main line of the road at the corner of Broad and Elm streets in Westfield.

AGAINST STAMP TAX.

Retail Druggists Ask Congressman Daly to Secure a Reduction.

Representative William D. Daly, of the Seventh New Jersey Congressional District, has been asked by the Jersey City Druggists' Association to secure the passage by Congress of a law amending the stamp act on propritary medicines, so that the burden may not fall as heavily upon the druggist as it does at present.

Under the present stamp act, they say, they are obliged to pay the Government one-quarter of their profits on more than one-half of their sales.

The manufacturers have in most cases increased the price more than enough to reimburse themselves for the cost of the stamps, and the druggists are unable to add any part of this increase to the selling price.

Three New Endeavor Members.

At the monthly business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Park Avenue Baptist church, held last evening at the home of Miss Elizabeth Runyon, on East Sixth street, three new members, Mr. Lloyd and the Misses Louise and Ernest Whitney, were received. Various reports were also submitted from the different committees regarding the work accomplished during the past month. The reports were highly satisfactory to all concerned. The next meeting will be held on February 2d—Christian Endeavor Day. After the meeting a collation was served the members and the evening passed in social intercourse.

Fire Inconveniences Court.

Elizabeth's big fire New Year's night has seriously inconvenienced business in the Union County District Court, as some of the principal lawyers in the city had their quarters in the Isham building, and lost valuable papers and most of their effects. In consequence of this there was no session of court yesterday, Judge Atwater announcing that he would not transact business until the lawyers who had suffered by the fire had had a chance to again prepare their papers. The January term of the Union County Circuit Court was also adjourned until next Tuesday.

Firemen Were Not Needed.

A telephone alarm was sent to fire department headquarters last evening at 6:10 o'clock from Hall's pharmacy. An oil stove was reported to be doing stunts at 147 East Fifth street. Second Assistant Chief Jennings and No. 2 hose wagon went to the scene. Chief Doane arrived soon after. There was nothing for the firemen to do. An oil stove had been lighted and suddenly blazed over. The flames were extinguished by the occupants of the house before any damage was done.

Mayor Fisk Had a Hand.

The credit for the changes in the in committees of the Common Council for 1900 is due to President Frank H. Smith and Former Mayor C. J. Fisk, who conferred in the matter. The suggestion was referred to the Council and was heartily agreed to. As regards the police committee there are five members of it. The three members together with the Mayor and President of the Council compose it, making the police board.

MINISTERS EXTEND CONGRATULATIONS.

A Happy Assembling of Members of the Cloth.

AT HOPE MEMORIAL CHAPEL

HANDSOME NEW EDIFICE CAUSE FOR AUSPICIOUS AFFAIR.

Pleasant Utterances for the Welfare of the Chapel Were Heard From Those Who Occupy the Pulpits in Other Churches—All Praise the Work Being Done by West End Society.

Last evening at Hope Memorial chapel there was a continuation of the dedicatory exercises, when the pastors gathered and offered their congratulations to Pastor Newell and his congregation upon securing such a handsome edifice and upon the grand work accomplished at that place in the past. Letters of regret were received from Rev. W. O. Snodgrass, Rev. W. O. O'Donnell, Rev. E. M. Dwight, Rev. Charles E. Herring, Rev. Floyd Appleton, but who sent congratulations, however.

Pastor Newell was in charge and introduced the speakers, the first being Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes, of the First Baptist church. Dr. Yerkes said that he was interested in the services because a house was being dedicated to God. He had stood in St. Peter's Cathedral in Rome, seen the grandeur of it, heard the grand music, but his feelings were more hallowed in a chapel such as is being dedicated than in such a grand edifice.

Dr. Rodman said that some people think that it makes little difference how common or mean a thing is it will be good enough in the service of God. He then related a circumstance when he was rector of a church. A woman entered the church one day prior to a service and was horrified to detect the smell of flowers therein, and she exclaimed, "What next?" He then told a story related by Dr. Dix, of New York, concerning a woman who had sent a floral cross to Trinity church at Easter time. The officials would not receive it and it was sent away. The speaker was thankful that in this day people had passed beyond that sort of thing.

Dr. Lewis dwelt upon the architecture of the building and compared it to the religious life. He thought it a beautiful idea that the name of the chapel was "Hope," as it expresses so much, and represents better things beyond.

Rev. C. L. Goodrich was glad to bring congratulations. He said that he inferred from the remarks of Dr. Yerkes that the Baptists might have located a chapel there if the Presbyterians had not done so at such a time.

Dr. Schenck said that after due consideration he had decided that he was a grandfather to the chapel, as the original building was used by the Dutch at the other end of the city years ago, and in that relation he congratulated all on the courage evidenced in establishing such a place of worship.

Dr. Main congratulated pastor and people on general principles of Christian fellowship and unity. He thought it no trifling matter to see the city pastors together on such an occasion, for it represented a strong feeling of unity. Rev. Mr. Love spoke concerning Christian unity. Rev. J. O. McKelvey said he was especially interested in the chapel, for, he said, "This is where I ran my trial heat, and I am now running a little further."

Dr. Richards closed the addresses by accepting on behalf of Pastor Newell and people the kind words spoken, and thanking the pastors for what they had said. He closed his remarks with prayer. After Pastor Newell had made touching reference to the late Dr. Lowry, the congregation sang "Shall We Gather at the River," after which the benediction was pronounced by Dr. Yerkes.

This evening Dr. Erdmad, of Morristown, will make an address on "The Bible."

Superb Express Service.

Beginning January 8th a superb express service will be introduced by the Jersey Central Railroad between New York and Atlantic City. The trip will be run in three hours and fifteen minutes. These trains will run by the way of Lakewood, and a train will leave New York at 3:30 p. m., and returning the train will leave Atlantic City at 2:10 p. m.

—Werner is making a special drive to close out his heavy garments designed for winter wear. There will be plenty of cold weather yet, so the purchase of winter goods will be money well placed.

AFTER DR. RICHARDS.

A Baltimore Church Wants Him, But There is No Likelihood of His Leaving Plainfield.

A dispatch to the New York Sun from Baltimore is to the effect that the committee of the Brown Memorial Presbyterian church, appointed to secure a successor to Rev. Dr. Maltbie D. Babcock, has been considering Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards, pastor of the Crescent Avenue church, of Plainfield, N. J. Members of the committee have just visited Plainfield to learn what the chances of securing Mr. Richards are. John B. Ramsey, one of those who went to Plainfield, said yesterday afternoon said that the party had not yet reached a decision.

The facts contained in the dispatch are true, although the members of the committee did not personally confer with Dr. Richards.

Whatever their decision may be, it is not believed by the friends of Dr. Richards that he could be persuaded to leave his present fold.

LITTLE JOHNNIE'S TRIP.

HE IS A FOUR-YEAR-OLD, BUT HE GOT HOME ALL RIGHT.

Traveled Along Railroad Tracks to North Avenue Station Where He Was Found by Roundsman Flynn.

Little Johnnie Uhler, the four-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Uhler, of 215 Spooner avenue, has a passion for seeing the cars. This great desire caused much anxiety to his parents and gave the police department and neigbors any amount of trouble. It all hapened yesterday afternoon. Shortly after dinner Johnnie conceived the idea of taking a trip down the railroad track. He wandered as far as the North Avenue station, where he appeared to be delighted with the scenes presented to his childish mind. It was about 4:30 o'clock that Roundsman Flynn came across the little chap at the station.

"I'se Johnny," he said, when asked his name, "and mamma's home's down dere," indicating by his stubby finger the direction of North avenue. The roundsman started with the child to find its parents. All the newsboys were appealed to, but none could tell who owned the child or where it lived. From North avenue Roundsman Flynn escorted the little fellow up Park avenue to Front, all the way making inquiries of passers by if they had heard of a lost child. No one had. Strolling up West Front street as far as Liberty the officer and his charge continued their search. To the surprise of the roundsman, when it was nearly dark, the infant turned over that street, telling the bluecoat that "his mamma lives over dis way." To humor the child the officer allowed it to lead him along. Inquiries about a lost child were frequently made, but no information was elicited. It was not until nearing the home of the child's parents that the roundsman learned that the neighbors were looking for a lost child.

When Johnny was turned over to his mother safe and sound the poor woman, who had been nearly distracted by the sudden disappearance of her little one, was profuse in her thanks to the officer for his persistent endeavors to restore her child.

Many in the neighborhood thought the child had been kidnapped and a general alarm had been sent throughout the vicinity, but no notification had reached the police, although Mrs. Uhler said she had sent a message to police headquarters, but that the station house was locked and no officer could be found there.

DANCE FOLLOWED EUCHRE.

Misses Reynolds and Freeman Entertained Club Members Pleasantly.

Miss Reynolds, of Madison avenue, and Miss Freeman, of LaGrande avenue, entertained the euchre club of which they are members, in the rooms of the Plainfield Camera Club, Babcock building, last evening. A portion of the evening was devoted to euchre, Mrs. F. H. Smith and Herbert Buxton winning the prizes. Then followed an informal dance.

The club will next be entertained Thursday evening, Jan. 18, by Miss Flimer, of Madison avenue.

Committed to Jail For Life.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, Jan. 5.—Patrick Lawler, a Hightstown farmer, was released from the County Jail on a writ of habeas corpus allowed by County Judge Woodruff. Lawler had been arrested for disorderly conduct, and Justice of the Peace Lavelle committed him to jail without specifying any particular term in the commitment papers. This made Lawler's commitment technically for life, and habeas corpus proceedings were necessary to get him out of jail.

—Press want ads pay.

ROSELLE STRENGTHENS LEAD FOR TROPHY.

Defeated Cranford Casino Twice In Daily Press League.

CRANFORD WON ONE GAME.

GAVE LEADERS A SURPRISE IN THE FIRST GAME.

But That Was Too Much For Cranford Team—Would Get Lead Only to Lose It—Mulford's Great Game—Bates Distinguished Himself in First Game—Games Rolled on Cranford Alleys.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Cranford, Jan. 5—Cranford rather surprised the leaders in the contest for the Daily Press Bowling League trophy last night. The team from the Roselle Casino came down here confident of winning three straight. For one game, the home team rolled in old time form but the sight of such a high score was too much for them and they rapidly fell to pieces as the evening progressed.

In the first game, it was anybody's for the first three frames. Then the Cranfordites opened out. What luck there was favored the local team. Bates did some great rolling and the pins were more than anxious to fall for him. On the other side Shangle was up against it, getting four splits. On the windup, Roselle was woefully weak. Cronford won by 68 pins.

Cranford started in to repeat the performance in the game. It was all right for two frames and then Roselle braced while the home team failed to find the head pin. Mulford did some great rolling for Roselle. Twice he made spares on seemingly impossible splits. A quadruple header gave him high score. Roselle won easily by 96 pins.

At the start of the third game, Roselle made a decidedly poor showing and Cranford took the lead. On the fifth frame, Cranford was fifty pins in the led. Then Roselle gave a magnificent exhibition of bowling, cut that lead right down and went ahead two frames later to win out in a strong finish by 71 pins.

The individual scores were as follows:

	1st game.	2d game.	3d game.
ROSELLE CASINO.
Patterson	148	174	179
Hammann	144	176	121
Shang e	129	123	191
Mulford	189	202	163
Smith, C. D.	165	178	178
	775	853	832
CRANFORD CASINO.
Dumont	176	171	172
Hilli-r	122	136	154
Barry	163	141	118
Bat-s	152	135	135
Sharp	180	150	182
	843	737	761

NEW JERSEY SENATORS.

Kean's First Appointment and Sewell's Notice of Hobart Eulogy.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Washington, Jan. 5.—Senator Sewell gave notice in the Senate Wednesday that on next Wednesday he will call up the matter of the death of the vice-president, and that eulogies will be delivered and resolutions adopted.

Senator Kean Wednesday appointed as the clerk of his committee, that of National Banks, John M. Biddle, of Elizabeth, son of Colonel Biddle of the regular army. Mr. Biddle for several years has been an employee of the State Department.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Roland Billingham to be Collector of Customs of the Burlington district, and that of W. G. Simpson to be postmaster at High Bridge.

Earl J. Decker, a clerk of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and a native of New Jersey, died suddenly from apoplexy Wednesday.

FELLOWS WERE HOSTS.

Young Ladies Entertained at First Presbyterian Church by the Sterner Sex.

The young men attached to the First Presbyterian church demonstrated last evening that they were not novices in the art of entertaining. At the social held in the Sunday-school room, the gentlemen did the honors, and catered to the demands of their lady friends in a manner that was as agreeable to the fair as it proved pleasurable to the young men. All the gentlemen wore white caps and miniature flags on their coats, while the ladies' toilets were embellished with carnations. The entertainment was of a musical discription, participated in by the men only. Among the features that are worthy of mention were the vocal solo by Fred Townley and the playing on the violin by William McKillip. After the entertainment refreshments were served by the men. The affair was one of the best of its kind that has been held by this church in sometime.

—Use Press want ads.

—Press want ads bring results.

GERMANY IRRITATED

British Seize and Search Another Vessel.

REPARATION FOR OUTRAGE DEMANDED

Indignation Meetings Called In Berlin—German Press Generally Denounces This High Handed Proceeding by Great Britain.

BERLIN, Jan. 5.—The imperial mail steamer, the General, has been detained at Aden and occupied by British troops, with the object of searching her cargo, which is to be discharged.

The General is owned by the German East African line, the owners of the Bundesrath, previously captured by the British cruiser Magicienne off Delagoa bay.

The seizure of the General has considerably aggravated the situation here, and the indignation against England is intensified. The government is still earnestly endeavoring to preserve correct official relations, but England will do well to hasten to make the amende honorable to Germany.

On absolutely reliable authority it is learned that Emperor William is now thoroughly aroused by the repeated seizures of vessels, not one of which, he has been assured, is guilty of carrying contraband. He regards the seizures as high handed proceedings which England would not have dared to undertake if the German navy were more powerful than it is.

His majesty is said to be particularly incensed because information has reached him showing that the seizures were not due to the blundering of British naval officers, but to strict orders from headquarters, which the officers are merely carrying out. He has, therefore, instructed Count von Bulow, the foreign secretary, to demand exact and full reparation for the outrage done to the German flag.

No answer that is considered satisfactory has yet been received from London, and according to advices here none is to be expected for several days longer.

The latest news, however, has induced the German government to send another and more strongly worded protest to London. Significant of the intensity of Germany's indignation against England in this matter is a declaration published by the German Colonial society, among whose 80,000 members are a number of reigning German princes, which says:

"England's recent proceedings against German vessels are an outrage. The fact remains that the small respect which the English people feel for Germany because of her deficiency in naval power has taken such deep root that the commanders of English warships hasten to commit breaches of international rights so long as only Germany is thereby touched. This lack of fear to touch the German flag must be thoroughly and speedily cured."

Indignation meetings have been called by branches of the Colonial society. The German press, with hardly an exception, thunders against England. Even the semiofficial Berliner Post says:

"It cannot be denied that the indignation aroused by the willfulness of the seizures by British commanders is spreading in wider and wider circles."

Will Help German Navy.

VIENNA, Jan. 5.—Diplomatists here seem to consider that Great Britain ought not to have searched a German steamer in the Suez canal. The Wiener Allegemeine Zeitung says; "It looks as if Great Britain cared less for the cargo in question than for demonstrating before the world that, although most unlucky on the land, she is the unchallenged mistress of the sea, a demonstration which will do more for the German navy than all the speeches of Emperor William."

New Elevator In Duluth.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 5.—A special from Duluth says: "The Pioneer Steel Elevator company has been organized for the construction of a very large grain elevator here. The men back of the enterprise are Walter Douglas, G. F. Piper, W. S. Archer and C. E. Thayer, all but the last named being formerly linseed oil men, who sold out to the American Linseed Oil company lately. They expect to begin construction the present year and then to erect their working house of about 500,000 business capacity, this to be followed as rapidly as possible by a warehouse of steel tanks to be ultimately of about 4,000,000 bushels capacity. This will give about 42,000,000 bushels capacity under the control of the Duluth board of trade, of which 18,500,000 bushels will be at Superior and the remainder at Duluth."

Governor Crane Inaugurated.

BOSTON, Jan. 5.—Hundreds of invited guests and many other spectators, together with nearly every member of the legislature, streamed upon Beacon hill, thronged the corridors of the statehouse and crowded into the great hall of the hall of representatives that they might witness the inauguration of Governor Elect W. Murray Crane of Dalton and Lieutenant Governor John L. Bates of Boston yesterday. Governor Crane's first official act was to appoint Mr. John B. Smith, a Boston newspaper man, as his private secretary. When the informal reception in the governor's chamber was over, Governor Crane's staff reported and paid respects to the commander in chief.

Suspicious Case at Boston.

BOSTON, Jan. 5.—An Austrian named Mapture who arrived here as a stowaway on the British steamer Fitzclarence on last Friday, is in the hospital at Galloups island suffering from a mysterious illness. He will be held until the nature of the disease is ascertained. The Fitzclarence came here from Antwerp, and she is bound from here for Baltimore to load cargo for Antwerp. She has been thoroughly fumigated and ordered to quarantine, where she will be held for several days while the man is under observation.

A Forger In Hiding.

LANCASTER, Pa., Jan. 5.—Charles Witmer, a young farmer and horse dealer residing at Windom, this county, disappeared from his home Wednesday, the cause of his flight being the discovery of three forged notes. One was for $1,950 in the name of his father-in-law, Levi B. Mann, and the two others for $2,170 on other parties. On Monday executions aggregating $3,500 were issued against Witmer by his father-in-law and D. H. Landis of Manor township. He has a wife and three children.

Weather Probabilities.

Threatening, with snow flurries; brisk southerly winds, increasing.

WAR NEWS SCANT.

No Light on the Situation In South Africa.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—This morning's news throws no further light upon the situation. The exact position at Moltene and Cuphergat is not yet clear, but in any case these little engagements are of small importance beyond proving that the British forces are beginning to attain a greater degree of mobility.

It is fully expected that next week will see a heavy battle on the Tugela river, which is now the real pivot of the campaign. The Boers appear to be working incessantly with shovel and pick.

Lord Methuen's scouting has developed the fact that the Boer intrenchments extend some 40 miles, far overlapping the British positions and making flank attacks exceedingly difficult. Military analysts affirm that the Boer trenches confronting General Buller stretch away some 17 miles and that work upon them is pushed unremittingly.

While the advance is delayed flank movements are rendered most difficult because long marches are not done with celerity, and it is hard to time an attack with certainty.

The extent of the Dutch rising may now be measured by taking a line from Prieska on the west to Herschel or Barkly on the east. Along the whole of this line, except at points actually occupied by the British, the population seems for the most part hostile.

New redoubts are being built at Kimberley, and 17 miles of works now encompass the town.

Mr. William Waldorf Astor has sent $25,000 to the fund for equipping the city of London volunteers. In a letter accompanying the check he suggests that the gift be devoted to the purchase of quick firers for the new battery to be attached to the corps. This brings Mr. Astor's total war contributions to $60,000.

An army order has been issued directing the embodiment of 16 additional battalions of militia.

Every White Man a Burgher.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 5.—Intelligence has been received here from the Free State to the effect that President Steyn has issued a proclamation declaring that every white man, irrespective of nationality, is to be considered a burgher and is liable to be compelled to fight for the defense of the country.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Count de Benomar, the Spanish embassador to Italy, died at Rome.

The new royal yacht Victoria and Albert was floated at Pembroke.

Mexican scientists predicted a series of earthquakes during the coming months.

Senator Mahlon Pitney was chosen leader of Republicans in the New Jersey senate.

The University of Chicago has decided to use the reformed spelling in its papers and magazines.

The wrecked Hamburg-American liner Patria was floated in English channel, but foundered again, drowning five.

Six villages in the Achalkalak district in Russian Transcaucasia have been completely destroyed by earthquakes, and 800 dead bodies have been recovered.

Carelessly Managed Mine.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Jan. 5.—The second day's probing by Coroner Taylor of the Brasnell mine disaster developed even more surprising testimony than ever regarding the apparently careless manner in which the mine was managed. Mine Foreman Thomas Jones was the first witness called. He was kept on the stand till noon, answering questions fired at him by the inspectors. The books of the foreman showed the same careless keeping as did those of the fire boss. He failed to make entry of the result of his work during the day as is required by law. When asked if he removed the danger as reported by the fire boss, he answered "No," and this was the case for days.

Against French Reciprocity Treaty.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—A meeting of representatives of the leading domestic underwear and hosiery manufacturers was held here yesterday to protest against the ratification of the reciprocity treaty with France, or that part relating to knit goods. A. S. Haight made a point that should the present treaty become operative it would open the door for reductions on imports from Germany, Switzerland and England and that in such case the country would be swamped with foreign goods and the position of the domestic manufacturer seriously menaced. It was also explained that the reduction would allow many goods to come in which are now debarred.

Boston Councilmen Locked Up.

BOSTON, Jan. 5.—Owing to the lack of a quorum the common council did not transact any business at the meeting called for last night. About 30 policemen were present prepared to quell any disturbance. Daniel J. Kieley called the meeting to order, and it was found that there were only 36 members present, two short of a quorum. It is said that the two missing Republicans were locked in a room at the Parker House while the council was in session.

Oil Makes Hot Fire.

BOSTON, Jan. 5.—Linseed oil in bulk and barrels, stored at the distributing plant of the Spencer-Kellogg company of Buffalo, at the rear of the old Fitchburg railroad depot, Causeway street, made a big fire, but plenty of fire apparatus saved surrounding property from damage. The loss on the oil cannot be ascertained until the remaining stock is checked up. It will probably be a large sum.

Mississippi's Senator Named.

JACKSON, Miss., Jan. 5.—The Hon. W. V. Sullivan has been nominated by a joint caucus of the two houses for senator for the short term ending March 4, 1901, he receiving 88 votes to 72 for ex-Governor Lowry. Senator Sullivan was introduced amid great applause and returned thanks for the honor.

Ice Palace In St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 5.—St. Paul will have an ice palace for the central feature of carnival week. This was decided when word came that Admiral Dewey will be unable to come here next month. It had been previously intended to have an ice representation of the cruiser Olympia.

Spanish Minister of Finance Resigns

MADRID, Jan. 5.—The minister of finance, Senor Villaverde, has tendered his resignation to Senor Silvela, the premier, as the result of differences between himself and the majority of the ministers regarding the government's budgetary proposals.

Every pair of genuine P & P. Gloves is stamped with our name.

REGISTERED BRANDS OF THE "P. & P." Kid Gloves

MANUFACTURED BY Chaumont PINGS & PINNER CO.

PERFECT FITTING — LATEST STYLES

MANUFACTURED BY Berthold PINGS & PINNER CO.

BEST VALUE — NEWEST SHADES

MANUFACTURED BY Fontaine PINGS & PINNER CO.

Don't take substitutes—There's none so good.
FOR SALE BY
Crosby & Hill,
Plainfield, N. J.
95 tu f

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

Ladie Desiring . . .
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 208 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

H. Eggerding,
131 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

Flynn Bros.,
SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods
Have stood the test for years.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.
Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .
Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot AND Tar is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

WANTED
The address of all AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS in Plainfield and vicinity. If you will send us your address on a postal card we will be glad to furnish you with our latest price list. Our line is complete, and goods are always fresh and our prices are the lowest.
Geo. W. Wrennick,
133 North Ave., Plainfie'd, N. J.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .
in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated
DOMESTIC FINISH.
Up-to-date Laundry Work Done. .
Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.
Trading Stamps given.
The City Steam & Hand Laundry
MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B
19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat store 126 Park avenue. 101

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING
is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job. That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.
MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor 2d ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635

A. KANE,
Proprietor of the EAST END FEED STORE.
Dealer in
Hay, Feed, Grain & Flour, Coal and Wood.
Also Dealer in
BLUE STONE, FLAGGING and CURBING.
The best goods and work at the lowest prices.
Store and Office
409 East Third St.,
Telephone 913.
A. McKeon, Manager.
Open evenings until 8 o'clock.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
81 Steiner place, North Plainfie
R. H. McCullough, Prop'r
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully furnished. Orders promptly attended to. 2 10

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 97 A.
Yard 726 to 737 South Ave.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats, Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DIVING BOOM
will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.
Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.
The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.
FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

GEO. O. STEVENS & CO.
OAL.
747 WEST FRONT ST.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, fruits, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 99 1 year

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS.
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . .
: SPECIALS :
For This Week.
U. S. club skates.
Shinny sticks.
Skate Straps.
Boys' sleighs.
" coasters.
Steel snow shovels.
Wood " "
Carpet sweepers.
Oil heaters.
Parlor stoves reduced.
The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

Irving Savings Institution.
115 CHAMBERS ST., NEW YORK CITY
The Trustees of this institution have declared interest on all sums remaining on deposit during the three and six months ending December 31, 1899, at the rate of FOUR PER CENT. per annum on amounts from $1 to $4,000, payable on and after Monday, January 15, 1900. Deposits made on or before January 10th will draw interest from January 1st.
W. H. B. TOTTEN, President
G. BYRON LATIMER, Secretary 12 26 10

TRY THE
QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No. 337 Park Avenue
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS.
CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

John G. Bantle,
First-class
Ladies' and Gent's
TAILOR.
428 Watchung Avenue.
Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
TELEPHONE 1163.

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS
For the Fire-place.
Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates.
Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIRE PLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 109 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.
Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.
We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.
A Big Assortment.

Choice Meats
of all kinds.
GAME IN SEASON.
My Market is first class in every respect and people who deal with me can depend upon being treated fair, courteous and with satisfaction.
ENORMOUS SAVING
in MONEY. Every man and woman who deals with me saves money.
Quick Sales and Small Profits
I handle only the very best and highest grade of meat money can buy.
Special attention is given to home dressed poultry, Jersey pork; also prime cuts of beef, veal and mutton.
IT WILL PAY YOU
to buy of me as I give you the best meat for the smallest amount of money.
J. C. STORM,
Meat Market,
318 Liberty St.,
Near Fourth St.

ESTATE of Sarah J. Kellaway, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made, on the application of the undersigned, executor of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the Eighth day of November, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.
CHARLES K. KELLAWAY,
11 10 9 oaw Executor.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
Paris for 1900.
Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.
Circulars at
181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.
A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

M. Molnar,
432 Watchung Ave.,
Ladies' and Gents'
FINE TAILORING
Graduate of
New York Cutting School.
Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83 A.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills
25c.
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

THREE GET 10 YEARS

French Conspirators Imprisoned and Banished.

TROUBLE CAUSED BY DREYFUS CASE.

The Convicted Ones Must Also Pay All Costs of the Trial—Condemned Men Hurried at Once to Their Destinations.

PARIS, Jan. 5.—The high court (senate), in secret session, has sentenced M. Guerin to ten years' confinement in a fortified place and condemned M. Buffet and M. Deroulede each to ten years' banishment.

This ended the famous conspiracy case before the senate sitting as a high court, and the tribunal adjourned. The cases were an outgrowth of the anti-Dreyfus agitation in France and at the time attracted wide attention. Out of the 75 alleged conspirators who were thrown into prison five months ago, and who have been since released in batches owing to want of evidence, only MM. Deroulede, Guerin and Buffet have been found guilty, and these three are accorded "extenuating circumstances," which reduces their punishment to detention in a fortress or banishment.

There were a few cries of "Vive Deroulede!" and "A bas Loubet!" from the audience after the sentences were pronounced, but the demonstration was quite insignificant. Although the anti-Semite press is making a fuss over the outcome, the tactics of the anti-Semites are shown by the sensational caption, "Murder of Deroulede," in their afternoon organ, La Cocarde, which secured a few purchasers, who were disgusted to find it only meant what the Nationalists affect to consider the legal murder of Deroulede.

JULES GUERIN.

The decision condemns the convicted men to pay the costs of the prosecution. The sentences took effect immediately.

It is asserted that M. Deroulede was hurried to the train and immediately dispatched toward the Spanish frontier, he having decided to reside at San Sebastian.

M. Guerin will be removed to a French fortress, probably on the island of Oleron, off the west coast. M. Buffet will go to Belgium.

MM. Buffet and Deroulede left Paris by the Northern railway at 5 o'clock this morning.

Mammoth Beet Sugar Plant.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—It is announced at Santa Fe railroad headquarters that the American Beet Sugar company has contracted for the establishment of a sugar beet plant at Rocky Ford, Colo., in the Arkansas valley. The plant will be next to the largest in the world and will have a capacity greater than the combined capacities of the plants in Nebraska. It will cost about $1,500,000 and will have an annual capacity of 18,000 tons of refined sugar, using 100,000 tons of beets. Farmers in the valley adjacent to Rocky Ford have arranged to plant 80,000 acres of beets the coming season, from which it is expected a profit of $40 an acre will be derived. The land is almost in the heart of what a few years ago appeared on the maps as the "Great American Desert." Irrigation has made it one of the most fertile places in the west.

French and Chinese Fight.

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 5.—News has reached Canton that a battle occurred between natives near Wang Chaun and the French forces stationed there. It is said that the Chinese routed the French and pursued them for some distance. The French loss was 30 killed. The Chinese losses are not stated. The battle occurred on the 10th and 11th of last month. On hearing of the affair the viceroy dispatched three gunboats, with 1,000 soldiers, to restore order. The viceroy also wired the tsung-li-yamen, asking what steps are to be taken, as he is quite unable to carry out delimitation to the satisfaction of the French. The news was brought by the Queen Adelaide, which reached here yesterday.

Dr. Schenk Retires.

VIENNA, Jan. 5.—Dr. Schenk, professor at the University of Vienna and president of the Embryological institute, who exactly a year ago published a book in which he claimed that after 20 years of experiment he had discovered the secret of exercising an influence over animals and men so as to fix the sex of the offspring, has received permission from the minister of the interior to retire on a pension as the result of a demand by the Vienna Medical faculty for his dismissal for the alleged frivolous publication of scientific matter constituting a form of self advertisement.

New York State Bar.

ALBANY, Jan. 5.—The committee having in charge the arrangements of the annual meeting of the New York State Bar association has announced that the meeting will be held in the common council chamber in the city hall on Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 16 and 17, at 2 p. m. At 8 o'clock in the assembly chamber the annual address before the association will be delivered by Mr. Justice Brown of the supreme court of the United States on "The Liberty of the Press."

Two Brothers Drowned.

NORFOLK, Jan. 5.—New Year's day, near Dunwille, Essex county, Va., John and Charles Wheely, 17 and 15 years old, sons of a leading farmer, went skating on Robinson's millpond. One of the youths went through, and his brother tried to rescue him. The result was the drowning of both.

Epidemic of Measles.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Jan. 5.—The epidemic of measles has spread so widely in Newburg that 300 cases are reported. Scarlet fever has also developed during the last few days.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anaesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$3
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

EDUCATIONAL

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
ADELLA C. PHELPS, ARTIST.
Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
PIANO AND THEORY
Home Studio,
136 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN,
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

Piano Instruction
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH,
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to

Pride's Tonsorial Parlor
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty.
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
WILLIAM J. PRIDE,
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John F. Emmon
Telephone 601

Don't be wasting you money and paying high prices for frames. Come and get your framing done with the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street,
where you will find a large assortment in ready-made frames and the latest styles in mouldings to make up frames to order at prices that will surprise you. Also fine drawings in crayons and pastels from all kinds of photographs.
Best Satisfaction Guaranteed.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.
Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.
HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Pron'r.
107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
E. H. BIRD, P. M.

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS.
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to dire for cnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.
T. M. INGRAHAM.

Wedding and Reception Decorations, Floral Designs & Bouquets A SPECIALTY.
Cut flowers fresh every day. Palms, ferneries, southern smilax at 10 days' notice.
MRS. L. J. DENTON, Florist,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 2c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

COLLIER
EYE SPECIALIST,
103 Park Ave.....
Established 1869. Eyes Examined Free.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
122 North Ave. Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 168 b.

OUR OYSTERS
ARE THE
---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

B. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

WANTED
25 Mechanics
and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.
Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.
Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.
. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,
Gramophones, Records and Supplies.
A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.
BROKAW'S . . .
The Piano Dealer. 123 East Front Street.

THIS IS THE TIME
to protect your feet from the cold and damp---We can shoe you with reliable shoes at a small cost.
VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.
Repairing Properly Done.

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.
Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.
Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.
at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Wieda's
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
Manufactured at the Premises,
144 West Front St. Phone. 1128.

No-Match Gas Burner,
SIMPLE, QUICK, SAFE.
No Matches. No Tape.
SEE IT : : :
The Miller Oil Heater.
JOS. W. GAVETT,
318 WEST FRONT STREET.

FIRE!!!
When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by
ELSTON M. FRENCH.
Largest agency in the city
163 Dort Ave., opp. Depot.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

THE ROBERTS TRIAL

Committee Hears Arguments In the Case.

GENTILE SCHROEDER IN OPPOSITION.

Afternoon Session Is Made Interesting by a Discussion of Polygamy by Senator Rawlins of Utah. Mrs. J. Ellen Foster Speaks.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—The Roberts investigating committee resumed its sessions yesterday. It was expected that ex-Secretary John G. Carlisle would be present to sum up the case against Roberts and that Mr. Roberts in person would make the argument in his own behalf. Word came from Mr. Carlisle, however, that he had not understood his personal presence was desired, but he was ready to submit written arguments on any of the questions involved.

Mr. Schroeder, head of the gentile delegation here to oppose Roberts, then opened the argument against Roberts. The argument was largely technical and was divided under three general heads—viz, first, whether or not the member elect has the constitutional qualifications, including citizenship; second, whether or not the constitutional provisions as to citizenship include one who has impaired his citizenship by crime or unlawful status and whether Mr. Roberts has so impaired his citizenship; third, whether a member elect has the statutory qualifications beyond those in the constitution. Mr. Schroeder read from many law books concerning these propositions.

The afternoon hearing was enlivened when Senator Rawlins of Utah was drawn into a discussion of polygamy. Mr. Schroeder had continued his argument, when Mr. Rawlins interrupted to correct a detail as to when certain testimony was given before a congressional committee relative to polygamy.

Chairman Tayler thereupon asked Mr. Rawlins, who was once a delegate from Utah, if it was not understood at the time the state was admitted that polygamy was at an end.

"It was my understanding," said Mr. Rawlins, "that the solemnization of polygamous marriages was interdicted by the Mormon church and that this would have a salutary effect in terminating the practice, but I did not hold out to congress that family relations already established would be broken up."

Mr. Tayler asked if it was expected that the law against polygamy would be violated.

Mr. Rawlins answered that it was thought there might be sporadic cases, but as a general system polygamous relations would gradually terminate.

"Do you think," continued Mr. Tayler, "that Utah would have been admitted if it had been understood that in a few years Utah would send to congress a man maintaining polygamous relations?"

Mr. Rawlins said he did not think congress believed the practice of polygamy would be continued. The course of events in recent years had clearly shown that the practice would end in time.

"Did you not believe and state at the time," asked Mr. Tayler, "that the polygamous system was dead and buried?"

Mr. Rawlins did not recall such statements.

Mr. Tayler read from the speeches of Mr. Rawlins of those days to the effect that while polygamy had once existed the world was progressing and that the discussion was becoming "ancient history."

Mr. Roberts here interrupted to put a question to Senator Rawlins, saying, "I will ask the senator if he thinks congress understood at the time Utah was admitted that the president of the United States would appoint to federal offices in the state of Utah men practicing polygamy?"

There was some question as to whether Mr. Rawlins should answer the question. He finally proceeded, saying that for years polygamy had prevailed in Utah. Under it many people had established strong conjugal relations and ties. But the proclamation of the Mormon church forbidding further polygamous marriages had given general satisfaction, and it was commonly accepted that the practice would come to an end.

Mr. Schroeder concluded his argument, which related mainly to the historical aspect of polygamy and the law in the case.

Mrs. J. Ellen Foster addressed the committee in behalf of the great number of women interested in the case and who were not represented before the committee. She spoke vigorously, dealing with the Roberts case and the general moral interests it involved.

This concluded the day's proceedings, and the committee adjourned.

Pine Exhibit at Paris.

NORFOLK, Jan. 5.—The North Carolina Pine association, composed of lumber manufacturers of Virginia and North Carolina, has accepted the invitation to make an exhibit in the forestry department of the United States at the Paris exposition. The exhibit will include hundreds of specimens of dressed and undressed long leaf pine lumber and will be forwarded on a special ship in about 30 days. The exhibit is now being prepared. A representative will be sent to Paris to take charge of it.

Italian War Minister Resigns.

ROME, Jan. 5.—Lieutenant General Mirri, minister of war, has resigned in consequence of attacks made upon him because of his efforts in 1895 to secure the liberation of Signor Palizzolo, member of the chamber of deputies for Palermo, accused of murdering Signor Notarbartolo, former director of the Bank of Sicily, in connection with the notorious bank frauds case.

Rescued From a Deep Well.

MACON, Jan. 5.—Miss May Hudson of Walden, a hamlet near here, while looking into a 70 foot well lost her balance and fell to the bottom. A young man who was with her at the time succeeded in rescuing her. Beyond a few scratches she was uninjured.

Mrs. Gordon Dead.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Mrs. Mary Gordon, who was stricken with apoplexy and cerebral hemorrhage while testifying to her husband's innocence in court yesterday, died at the hospital without regaining consciousness.

Postmasters Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—The following fourth class postmasters have been appointed: Massachusetts—West Farms, Lucy O. Scott. New York—South Durham, W. G. Van Orden.

Use as much of the fine, pure lather of Ivory Soap as you please, the more the better, and greater the pleasure. There's nothing in Ivory Soap to injure the most delicate skin. It improves the complexion by cleansing the pores of all impurities.

IT FLOATS.

COPYRIGHT 1899 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

CONGRESSIONAL DOINGS.

Finance Debate In Senate—House Adopts Sulzer Resolution.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—In accordance with the notice previously given by him, Senator Aldrich yesterday opened the discussion of the financial bill in the senate with a speech in explanation of the senate substitute for the house bill. The speech was carefully prepared and was read from manuscript. It was delivered in clear and distinct language, but without any effort at oratory. Senators present gave him careful attention, but no one interrupted him with questions or otherwise during the delivery, nor did any one manifest a disposition to reply after he had concluded. After Mr. Aldrich concluded the senate adjourned over until Monday for the purpose, it is understood, of giving those who may wish to reply to the Rhode Island senator an opportunity to study his presentation of the subject. The Pettigrew resolution concerning the Philippine war went over until Monday, when it is understood some senators will ask to be heard on the general Philippine question. Senator Beveridge also gave notice of a speech for Tuesday on the Philippine question, prefacing his notice with a resolution declaring his own position on the subject.

The house session was very brief again the only incident being the adoption of the Sulzer resolution introduced Wednesday calling upon Secretary Gage for all information regarding the deposit of government funds in certain New York national banks. The resolution as adopted was made more general in its scope and an amendment was added to cover information respecting the transactions relating to the sale of the New York custom house site. Secretary Gage's friends had been informed that he courted the fullest investigation and was prepared to submit all the facts to congress. Accordingly there was no friction over the passage of the resolution, which was unanimously adopted.

APPEAL TO M'KINLEY.

Peace League Meets In Brussels to Urge Mediation.

BRUSSELS, Jan. 5.—At the meeting held here convoked by leading members of the Universal League of Peace having in view a petition to President McKinley to mediate in favor of peace between Great Britain and the Transvaal it was decided to open petitions for public signature throughout the country. The proposed address to President McKinley is as follows;

"Painfully affected by the bloody and terrible struggle in which two of the most civilized peoples are brought into conflict in South Africa, the undersigned urgently appeal to you for mediation. You alone can offer to heal the breach, and in so doing you will fulfill the sacred duty of human brotherhood."

Senator Lejeune, former minister of justice and now member of the council of state, presided, and among those present were many former members of the senate and several professors of the University of Brussels.

General Otis' Army.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—With the arrival at Manila of the transport Grant, which left San Francisco on the 21st ult. with the Forty-eighth volunteer infantry (colored) General Otis will have command of an effective force of about 65,000 men. The army now in the Philippines aggregates 62,500 men, of which 31,000 are regular troops and 31,500 are volunteers. With the arrival of the Grant the entire volunteer strength of 34,000 men will be in the Philippines. This includes the Forty-eighth volunteer infantry, as already stated, and the Forty-first volunteer infantry, which left New York on the transport Logan Nov. 20 and is expected to arrive at Manila early next week.

President Cole Out on Bail.

BOSTON, Jan. 5.—Charles H. Cole, formerly president of the Globe National bank, who is charged with misappropriating funds of that institution, arrived in this city at 5:15 last night from Los Angeles in charge of the United States marshal. He was at once taken before United States Commissioner Fiske, waived the reading of the complaint, pleaded not guilty, and the case was continued until Jan. 18. Bail was fixed at $50,000, which was furnished by Godfrey Morse and Superintendent of Streets Benjamin W. Wells, and the prisoner was released.

Mules For British Army.

BOSTON, Jan. 5.—The Cunard steamship Carinthia left the East Boston dock for her second trip to South Africa in the service of the British government. The steamer goes direct to New Orleans, where a cargo of 1,500 mules will be taken on board. This shipment will exceed the previous lot taken out by the steamer by about 300 animals. Since the Carinthia arrived here last week from Cape Town she has taken on about 4,000 tons of coal, and 500 tons of feed was placed aboard for the mules.

Would Not Accept Sister's Aid.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Jan. 5.—Joseph Amo, a hotel keeper of this place, who had been found guilty of violating the excise law and fined $200, was taken to court and offered his liberty. When he learned that it was his sister of Saranac Lake who had offered to pay his fine, he refused to allow her to pay it and insisted upon going back to jail, where he will have to spend 200 days. He refused to let his sister pay the fine as, he said, she had earned the money by hard work.

Animal Ships Reach Honolulu.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Colonel Long, quartermaster at San Francisco, has notified the war department that the animal transports Victoria and Flintshire, on their way to the Philippines with horses and mules, arrived safely at Honolulu without the loss of a single animal. The Victoria left San Francisco Dec. 13 and is not due at Manila before the 15th inst.

Miss Roch Again In a Trance.

MONTREAL, Jan. 5.—The Montreal doctors are greatly puzzled over the case of Miss Eva Roch, a French-Canadian girl who has been in a trance since Christmas eve. All attempts to arouse her have failed. Last year Miss Roch had a trance which lasted for 38 days. She was finally aroused by the application of heated needles.

Kentucky Democrats Ahead.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 5.—The joint legislative committees which will sit in the contests for governor and lieutenant governor were drawn by lot yesterday, as provided by law. The Democrats were lucky, as the drawing gave them 10 out of the 11 members of the committee on the lieutenant governor's contest.

AN ELOPEMENT RECALLED.

Judge Refuses to Sentence the Man Without the Woman In the Case.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 5.—John Stephenson, who eloped with Mrs. Alice Jones to England last August, was arraigned in court yesterday to receive sentence for forgery. Before leaving this country Stephenson and Mrs. Jones forged a deed to the property of the woman's husband and secured $6,000. When the couple were arrested on landing at Liverpool, $450 was found in the possession of Mrs. Jones. Upon his return to this country Stephenson could not procure bail and was remanded to jail. When his case was called in court, he pleaded guilty to forgery, and sentence was deferred until yesterday. Mrs. Jones was more fortunate. She was arrested on the same charge, but her husband went her bail and took her back home. They are now living happily together. When Stephenson faced Judge Lynch yesterday, his honor said, "What has become of the woman in the case?"

District Attorney Martin replied, "She will be tried later."

"Very well," responded Judge Lynch, "I will not sentence the man until the woman's case is disposed of. There is no use of making flesh out of one and fish out of the other. Mrs. Jones was no child. She knew what she was doing."

Stephenson was then taken back to jail. Counsel for the prisoner say that he paid his own expenses of the eloping tour and that Mrs. Jones kept all the money.

Little Life In Ocean Depths.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 5.—Alexander Agassiz, director of the Agassiz museum at Harvard, has just sent a letter from the island of Tahiti, in the Pacific ocean, to the United States fish commission. Professor Agassiz left San Francisco in the Albatross, a vessel loaned him by the government, to study the bottom of the Pacific ocean. He made 72 soundings in the hitherto unknown basin at the bottom of the ocean. A large amount of animal matter was studied by dredging from the bottom of the ocean, with the general conclusion that there is but little life in the deeper parts of the sea far away from land. The last heard from President Agassiz was a cable to the museum on Dec. 21 from the Fiji islands.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

225 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week $5 a year—in advance.

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., JAN. 5, 1900

COMING EVENTS.

January 6—Social conference of leaders in boys' department of Y. M. C. A.

January 7—Wm. D. Murray will speak and Douglas Lane, 'a soloist at the Oratorio of the Messiah, will sing at Y. M. C. A. rally at 4:15 p. m.

Jan. 8—Public debate in large hall of Y. M. C. A. at 8 p. m. Subject: 'Resolved, That the U. S. should Own All Public railroads and Telegraphs Within Its Domain."

Preserving the Palisades.

With the convening of the annual sessions of the law-makers the preserving of the Palisades from the vandals who are rapidly defacing the historical and rugged scenery of the west line of the Hudson river, is again brought prominently to the public and the official mind. The agitation for the preservation of this beautiful stretch of imposing rocky formation originated principally in New Jersey, but the interest manifested in the cause by the citizens of this State has been imbued by those of our sister commonwealth, and New Yorkers are now evidencing as much appreciation of the Palisades in their natural state, and a desire to keep them from further demolition, as Jerseymen This is shown in Governor Roosevelt's message, in which he devotes considerable attention to the problem of saving the Palisades. He says:

The State should sedulously preserve for its people the natural beauties within its limits. Great good has been done by the Niagara Falls Reservation and its interests should be advanced in every way. I call the attention of the Legislature to the report of the Palisades commission, which has my hearty approval. The Palisades should be preserved. They form one of the most striking and beautiful features of nature in the entire country and their marring and ruin should be a source not merely of regret, but of shame. New Jersey is in reality less interested in their preservation than we are, although they are in their territory, for their beauty can best be observed from ours.

There are two miles of the Palisades in the State of New York and ten in the State of New Jersey. No further riparian rights along their base should be granted, and I suggest that a commission to represent the State of New York be appointed, and that the Governor be empowered to request the State of New Jersey to appoint a similar commission to serve with ours, and endeavor to provide for joint action by the two States to secure the permanence of this splendid natural monument.

New Jersey's position is reference to preserving the Palisades is unquestionably favorable to the project, and if the officials of the two States will co operate in a determined effort to suppress the conversion of the rugged ledges that rise up majestically from the Hudson river, into commercial purposes, then something succeseful can be accomplished. In this respect the recommendation of the Palisades Commission, appointed by Governor Voorhees last spring, is opportune. It says: "The first action to be taken would be the passage o an act by the Legislature constituting a permanent Palisades Park Commission, with power to acquire and hold for the State so much of the land between the edge of the cliffs and low-water mark as may be deemed necessary to prevent the further destruction of the Palisades. The land so acquired would constitute a park."

The Philadelphia Record points out that one of the results of improved trade and industry has been a large increase in the Federal revenue from customs and internal taxes. The surplus of receipts above expenses for the past six months has been over $21,000,000. This showing is in some part accounted for by a decrease in expenditures as compared with the corresponding six months of 1898. The heavy cash balance in the Treasury, which now amounts to nearly $284,000,000, will be the incitement to extravagant appropriations by Congress; and these, taken together with the exasperating prolongation of war expenditure in the Philippines, will operate to prevent any attempt to lessen the weight of Federal taxation, comments The Record.

The Denver Republican believes that Germany, England and America will yet rule the world, and says: "There is much waste of sentiment in behalf of the Boers. It is nearly all born of animosity toward Great Britain. But in this animosity Americans and Germans should be the last to participate. Whether we like it or not, the great contest of the future will be between Saxon and Slav. The strength of the former lies in the three great nations of common blood—Germany, Great Britain and the United States. The dominant element in each is Saxon."

Senator Braun, of Passaic, is going to introduce a bill in the coming session of the Legislature to keep Paterson out of the cities of the "first-class" till she gets 150,000 population. Evidently the Senator believes that the "first class" municipal garment is too stylish for Paterson, but this seems rather incongruous in view of the fact that Paterson is a great silk manufacturing center. Her local government certainly ought to keep pace with the high-toned industry of the town.

The Clinton Democrat, which seldom sees any good in Republican officeholders or the principles they espouse, pays Senator Reed a compliment by saying that he "has a reputation as one of the best practical legislators in the State." Senator Reed's proposed law for the publication of assessments in the newspapers is the magnet which draws the pleasant reference from The Democrat Representative Daly, of New Jersey, is preparing one of the strongest anti-trust bills which has yet been introduced in Congress. It will be referred to the Judiciary Committee, and must receive early consideration.

While New Jersey teachers are agitated over the security of the positions under the proposed new school law, the pedagogues of New York city are greatly worried over the problem of how to get their salaries.

Elizabeth citizens are advocating a paid fire department. It is time that they had such a municipal institution. A volunteer fire department in a city of 50,000 people is not up to date.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

That Camden posseesses a mysterious attraction for the youth of Philadelphia has long been known, but it has remained for the police census of the former city to reveal the reason. Camden has 1,266 more females than male, and as Camden girls are noted for both wit and beauty, and there are not enough men in Camden to go around, the lack is willingly supplied from across the river. It is a sort of combination of the attraction of gravitation and the law that nature abhors a vacuum.

* * * * *

Twenty years ago Samuel W. Goble, of Newton, was robbed of $25. A few days ago he received a letter from a deputy State prison keeper in which it was stated that an immate of that institution in order to secure peace of mind had confessed that he stole the money and now begged forgiveness. Mr. Goble replied that if the man returned the money he would be freely fully forgiven. One scarcely knows which to admire the more, the conscience which awakens after twenty years' slumber or the forgiveness which depends on restitution.

* * * * *

In the next Assembly young men will be in the front. Mr. Jones, the prospective speaker; Mr. Wakelee, who is to be the majority leader, and Mr. Lewis, who will be second in authority on the floor, are not yet 30 years of age. They make a trio of the youngest leaders the Assembly has ever had. And on the Democratic side the leaders, too, are young. There are Abbett, Benny, Murphy and Marks, each a little over 30. It is conceded that Mr. Benny is the ablest and sharpest debater of them all, and were the House numerically closer as between the two parties he would probably embarrass the majority to a considerable extent.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

—The January meeting of the Plainfield Board of Education will be held Monday evening. Officers for the year will be elected.

—Next week Tuesday evening there will be a joint installation of the officers-elect of Post No. 73 G. A. R., Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans.

GRAIN-O! GRAIN-O!

Remember that name when you want a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it. Grain-O is made of pure grain, it aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder and the children as well as the adults can drink it with great benefit. Costs about ¼ as much as coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Ask your grocer for Grain-O.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style glose-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,

122 East Front Street.

. . . SATURDAY . . .

THE LAST DAY OF OUR Anniversary Sale.

Men's Heavy Fleece Lined Underwear, 3 garments for - - - - 1.00
Men's 15c 4 ply Linen Collars - 10c ea
" 18c Suspenders - - 10c pr
" Heavy Mixed Cotton Socks, 3 prs 25c
" " All-Wool Camels Socks, 5 prs 1.00
23 in Plaid Glass Toweling, worth 15c 10c yd
18 in Heavy Cotton Huck Toweling, worth 9c 6c yd
4-4 Bleached Damask Hemstitched Lunch Cloths, worth 1.50 - - - 1.00 ea
4-4 Bleached Damask Hemstitched Lunch Cloths, worth 2.00 - - - - 1.50 ea
4-4 Bleached Damask Hemstitched Lunch Cloths, worth 2.50 - - - - 2.00 ea

ONLY A VERY FEW OF ABOVE.

All Our 8c Outing Flannels - - 6½c yd
" " Amoskeag Apron Ginghams 5c yd
Fruit of Loom Muslin - - - 8c yd
Lonsdale Cambric - - - 10c yd
Two Comfortables Specials at 1.25 and 1.48
9.00 12-4 Omega Blankets - 7.98 pr
Boys' 50c Cassimere Knee Pants - 39c pr
" Heavy Corduroy " " - 50c pr
" 3.50 Heavy Ulster Overcoats } to close 1.75
" 4.00 " " " } to close 1.98
" 5.00 " " " } to close 2.50
All Our Ladies' 25c Fast Black Hose, 5 prs for 1.00
" " Childs' 10c Ribbed Hose, 4 prs 25c
" " " 15c " " 2 prs 25c
Childs' Wool Mitts - - - 10c pr
Pear's Unscented Soap - 11c cake
Cosmo Buttermilk Soap - - 6c cake
Cuticura Soap - - - 20c cake
Dr. Lyons' Tooth Powder - - 19c box
85c Teachers' Oxford Bibles - 69c
1.00 " " " - - 79c
"David Harum" and "Richard Carvel" - 98c

In Our Basement.

Full Size No. 6 Floor Brooms - - 25c
15c Enamel Handle Whisk Brooms - 10c
25c Hand Lamps, Complete - - 15c
No. 0, 1, 2 Lamp Chimneys 3c
No. 0, 1, 2 " Burners 5c
No. 0, 1, 2 " Wicks 3c doz
Natural Grit Knife Sharpeners 10c
1 Pkge., 6 Silver Plated Tea Spoons } reg price 10c
" 3 Silver Plated Dessert Spoons } reg price 10c
" 3 Silver Plated Table Spoons } 25 cents 10c
3 Electric Silver Knives 49c
6 " " Teaspoons 49c
3 " " Table Spoons 49c
5 Ft. Solid Oak Extension Tables 4.50
Cane Seat Dining Chairs 98c
Hard Wood Kitchen Chairs 59c
A Few Brass Trimmed White Iron Beds 3.98

NEXT WEEK

A rare exhibition of New Wash Fabrics, New White Goods, New Hamburg Edgings, New Laces, New All-Over Laces, Embroideries, Etc., Etc.
Store is constantly being improved, Stock is constantly growing in size and variety.

TERMS FOR ALL SPECIALS - CASH.
Trading Stamps with each Cash Purchase.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,

234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

FINE MERINO UNDERWEAR, Suited to this Weather, SOLD AT PECK'S.

GOOD TIMES ARE HERE.

Now is the time to place your money in Real Estate at ground floor prices.

WOODLAND PARK will suit the aristocratic home-seekers.

DEWEY PARK and LINCOLN will suit the small investor and home-seeker.

SILAS D. DRAKE,

175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

An Annual . . . . Clearing Sale

of our entire stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's suits, reefers, overcoats, ulsters and heavy-weight trousers begins this Saturday and will last for a short time only.

All MEN'S OVERCOATS that were sold at 7.00 and 8.00, clearing sale price 4.25 and 4 75.
All MEN'S OVERCOATS that we sold from 8.50 to 10.00, clearing sale price 5 50.
350 extra fine OVERCOATS, former prices from 12.00 to 15.00, clearing sale price 6 50 and 7 00.
MEN'S ULSTERS reduced from 7.00 to 4.50.
Best Shamrock IRISH FRIEZE ULSTERS, reduced to 6.50, former price 12.00.
1,000 Men's and Youth's heavy weight suits of all descriptions, styles and qualities, which we must and will sell regardless of cost or value. 5.00 suits to be sold at 2 75. 7.50 suits to go at 4 50. 10.00 suits to go at 5 75, and all others in proportion. Children's Suits at 1.00, worth 2.00. 2.50 Child's Suits to go at 1.45.
2,000 pairs of Men's Trousers to be included in this sale at 1.00, 1.50, 2.00 and 2.25. Boys' Knee Pants with double seat and double knees at 20c.
Men's fleece lined underwear at 30c, worth 50c. Men's winter caps at 15c. Working shirts at 15c, and thousands of more bargains at this great clearing sale. Call early and avoid the great Saturday rush.

Will Pay Carfare to all Buyers of Clothing.

New York Clothing Company

M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.

214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.

Plainfield, N. J.

OVERCOATS & SUITS.

WE will close out all of our stock now at prices that defy competition; they must go. So if you need anything in the shape of the above call and be convinced of the fact. We have cut the prices in just half what we sold them for in the early season.

TRY A PAIR OF OUR 98c PANTS.
GET BRACED FOR 13c.
HATS, CAPS AND GENTS FURNISHINGS.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

Werner Clothing House, 206 W. Front Street.

THE BOOT SHOP AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 Park Avenue.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.

Capital, $150,000.

Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

Chas. Hyde, J. F. Hubbard, Jas. T. Closson, H. G Runkle, Walter Scott, W. F. Arnold, J. K. Myers, J. F. MacDonald, J. B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

CHARLES ARNOLD,

Dealer in all kinds of

Fresh and Salt Meats,

POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON

203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.

Telephone 238.

CLOVER HAY,

While costing less is worth more than Timothy for cows. Give the cow the BEST CLOVER and the horse the BEST TIMOTHY and the result will please you. We have all kinds at right prices.

In comparing prices it should be borne in mind that OUR GRAIN IS ALL RECLEANED and OUR FEEDS are ALL MADE ON THE PREMISES and ARE KNOWN TO BE PURE.

Mixed Oats	74c per bag	Middlings	90c per 100
Mixed Cups	76c per bag	Oat Feed	75c per 100
2 White Oats	78c per bag	Gluten	95c per 100
Regular Clips	80c per bag	Oil Meal	$1.45 per 100
X. R. Clips	82c per bag	No. 1 Grain Mixture	$1.10 per 100
Yellow Corn	79c per 100	Our Poultry Food	$1.15 per 100
Cracked Corn	84c per 100	Wheat	$1 25 per 100
Coarse Meal	84c per 100	Barley (96 lbs)	$1.15 per bag
Ground Feed	84c per 100	No. 1 Hay	85c per 100
Bran	90c per 100	Clover Hay	85c per 100
Buckwheat Middlings	70c per 100	Cut Hay	85c per 100

The above prices are for spot cash at our stores. If delivered add according to quantity as follows:

25 bags or over	2c per bag
5 bags or over	5c per bag
Less than 5 bags	10c per bag

THE PAUL T. NORTON CO.

Elizabeth, Elizabethport, Red Bank, Plainfield, Somerville.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, Jan. 5.—R. E. Humpston is one of the promoters of a proposed organization of a choral society for this place. A meeting will be held this evening at the Whittier school building to perfect plans. All those interested in such an organization are invited.

Among the subjects that may be taken up at the next meeting of the Board of Education is that regarding the sanitary condition of the public school building. Some complaint has been made that there is a perceptible odor of gas that is as distasteful to the scholars as it is detrimental to their health.

By the will of the late Runyon Walker, of Piscataway township, which was recently admitted to probate, the property is equally divided among the children and the sons, Lewis D., and Firman Walker, are made executors of the estate.

Rev. Frank Fletcher, D. D., pastor of the New Market Baptist church, officiated Wednesday at the funeral of Mrs. Forgo at Jersey City.

Miss Nancy Thomas, who spent the holidays at the home of her mother, has returned to school at Hacketts town Seminary.

The young men of St. John's Roman Catholic church are to hold an entertainment at Apgar's hall on the 17th inst.

Mrs O. A. Douglass has been visiting her old home at West New Brighton, Staten Island.

Mrs. E. W. Terry has had as her guest this week Miss Margery Thatcher, of Glen Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McGovern are the parents of a daughter, born yesterday afternoon.

There is considerable sickness in town, and several cases of tonsilitis have developed.

Miss Sadie Davis, of Newark, has been a guest at the home of Rev. E. M. Jamison.

Mrs. Fred. Dickerson, of North avenue, is confined to the house by illness.

Miss Edith Jamison has returned from a visit with friends at Hoboken.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Jan. 5.—The funeral service of David Hand, Jr., the seventeen year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. David Hand, of Netherwood, were held from the Baptist church yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The church was filled with the friends of the departed when Rev G. M. Shott began the services. Dr. Parks, a former pastor of the deceased, and one who had watched him grow from babyhood to the eve of manhood, followed and spoke of reminiscences of David as he had known him in life, the Sunday school and the church.

The members of the Citizens' League will be on hand to vigorously oppose the granting of Carroll's license at Elizabeth tomorrow morning.

John Patterson, who has been the guest of relatives in town for a few days, has returned to his home at Morris Plains.

The Literary Club of the Methodist church held one of their interesting weekly readings in the class rooms of the church last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John O. Stevens, of Fanwood, will leave shortly to take up their residence in New York for the winter.

There seems to be a light epidemic of chicken pox in the village, several children suffering with light attacks.

Ernest Humes, who has been visiting friends in town, has returned to his home in Jersey City.

The Township Committee met in their rooms last evening to transact routine business.

Goodwill Lodge, K. of P., held an important meeting in their rooms last evening.

Loftus Hollingsworth has began his annual harvest of ice for his private house.

Bon Ami

The New Cleaner

HAS MERITS THAT ARE UNEQUALED. THOSE WHO USE IT SAY, "COULDN'T DO WITHOUT IT."

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—Not to trade at Peck's store is to incur pecuniary misfortune.

—Columbia Lodge, No. 58, A. O. U. W., will install their officers this evening.

—Next week the Week of Prayer will be observed in all the Plainfield churches.

—There will be a regular meeting of Perseverence Lodge, Knights of Pythias, this evening.

—The Plainfield Board of Education will hold its regular monthly meeting next Monday evening.

—Washington Camp, No. 28, P. O. S. of A., will elect officers at their meeting next Monday evening.

—The recently elected chiefs of Miantonomo tribe of Red Men will be installed at the meeting of the tribe this evening.

—N. K Barnes, the Front street grocer, gives some interesting reading news to housekeepers in his advertisement in this issue.

—There is some talk of arranging a bowling contest to take place on the alleys of the Plainfield Catholic Club during the winter months.

—Fred Endress, the popular butcher, gives special attention to home-dressed poultry and Jersey pork, also prime cuts of beef, veal and mutton.

—The bicycle store of S. Frucht, of Park avenue, will be removed to the adjoining store, formerly occupied by James M. Dunn, the grocer, on or about March 1st. Mr. Frucht makes the change in order to get more room for his business.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, Jan. 4.—William Littlefield, a well-known and respected citizen of the town, was called before Justice of the Peace Toucey, and a jury of twelve men Wednesday to answer to a serious charge brought by the overseer of the poor in behalf of a colored woman named Mrs. Ella Shepard. The whole afternoon was taken up in examining witnesses and it was early evening when the jury was sent out. They rendered a verdict of not guility. L. E. Hart was attorney for the defence and Paul Q Oliver, the township attorney, acted as prosecutor.

A large number of Westfield property owners have signified their willingness to subscribe to the stock of the proposed people's light and water company, and steps looking toward the organization of such a company will be taken at once.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Mr. Crosson, of West Fourth street, is confined to his home by illness.

Miss Mirex, of the borough, is detained at home by a slight illness.

Miss Nellie Schutt, of New York, is visiting Plainfield friends for a short time.

Miss Dunham, of Sandford avenue, is slowly recovering from an attack of mumps.

William Morgan, of Albert street, has returned to his studies at Amherst College.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsh, of Plainfield avenue, have returned from their honeymoon.

Dr. Sutphen, of Bernardsville, who has been visiting in Plainfield, has returned home.

Bert Woodland, of Lambertville, has returned after a visit with Plainfield relatives.

A bright little fellow has arrived at the home of Matthew J. Cashin, of West Fifth street.

Former Councilman F. E. Marsh, of Madison avenue, is detained at home by a slight illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Sutphen, of New York, have returned after a visit with Plainfield relatives.

Irwin Cooley, of Westervelt avenue, has returned to the south after spending the holidays at home.

Miss Maude VanDyde, of East Front street, has been entertaining company from out of town.

The Game Club was entertained last evening by Miss Lucile Rockwell at her home on East Front street.

Mrs. George W. Lowerre, of Grandview avenue, will spend the remainder of the winter in New York city.

William L. Saunders, who has been traveling abroad for sometime past, expects to sail for home tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, of Patchogue, L. I., who have been visiting Plainfield relatives, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Rittenhouse, of East Sixth street, left this morning for Washington and Old Point Comfort.

Miss Hulburt, of West Front street, sister of Miss Edith Hulburt, is confined to the house with an attack of mumps.

Mrs. Maurice McGrath, of New Brunswick, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sheppard, of West Fifth street.

Miss Gertrude Snodgrass, of Central avenue, left yesterday to return to her studies at the Women's College at Baltimore.

A most excellent likeness of Rev. Father Westman, assistant at St. Mary's church, is to be seen at Monford's gallery.

Harry Campbell, of this city, sailed today by Steamer Comanche, for Florida, where he will spend some time on business.

Edward and Wm. Vanderweg, of this city, have returned from a visit with their brother, John Vanderweg, of Hartford, Conn.

Mrs Alonzo Pettit, of Elizabeth, addressed the members of the Young Ladies' Missionary Society at their meeting this afternoon.

D. N. Force and family, of Carlton avenue, have returned from Washington, N. J., where they attended the marriage of Willard Force to Miss Grace Barnes.

Ellery Leonard, of Wrentham, Mass., who is visiting Plainfield relatives and friends, will return home tomorrow Mr. Leonard is superintendent of the Public School at his home.

Christopher Staggard, the young man at the hospital suffering from an affection of the eye, is about the same. No operation has yet been performed, but the physician in charge believes that one will be a necessity.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—At the meeting of the Plainfield Medical Association Wednesday evening at the Hotel Kensington, Dr. H. V. Merrell, of Central avenue, was elected to membership.

—Fred Firstbrook, the Liberty street grocer, has another special sale for cash customers. See his prices for tomorrow in his advertisement. It will pay you to buy of him.

—It is reported that a railroad will be built from Wolferth's Station, on the Salem branch of the West Jersey & Seashore Railroad, to Mullica Hill, and will soon be commenced thereon.

—Ex Governor David G. Watkins, who was assigned by the Gloucester County Court to defend William J. Hough, who was recently tried for murder, has been allowed $350 for his services.

—The work of cutting ice on Tier's pond will no doubt be started in a few days. Mr. Tier is anxious to secure eight-inch ice if possible, and the frozen water has not quite reached that thickness.

LONG KNOWN - - - MUCH USED.

Randolph's Glycerine of Arnica.

for Cold Wind Chaps, Rough Skin and all Irritations of the Skin.

.....QUICK RELIEF GIVEN.....

25c per bottle -:- -:-

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for TELEPHONE CALL 109

Lowney's and Whitman's Chocolates and Chocolate Bon-Bons.

"PAY CASH AND SAVE MONEY" AT

V. L. FRAZEE'S,

THE PEOPLE'S CASH GROCER

151 West Front Street.

SPECIAL PRICES FOR

Friday, Saturday and Monday,

January 5th, 6th and 8th.

Best Elgin Creamery Butter	30c lb
Good Creamery Butter	25c lb
Best Full Cream Cheese	15c lb
Good Lard	6c lb
Fresh Jersey Eggs, guaranteed	22c doz
Best Fine Granulated Sugar	5c lb
Best Early Rose Potatoes	35c basket
Best Extra Fancy Seeded Raisins,	10c pkge
Best New Cleaned Currants, 1 lb package	9c
Best Vermont Maple Syrup	1 qt bottle 25c
Best Home-made Mince Meat,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best California Prunes	5c, 7c, 8c and 9c lb
Paris Sugar Corn	9c can
New York State Sugar Corn	7c can
Rose Bud brand, Early June Peas,	7c can, 4 cans for 25c
Fine Small Early June Peas	10c can
Best Solid Packed Tomatoes	7c can
Best Vanilla Drip Sugar Syrup	35c gallon
Best New Orleans Molasses	35c gallon
Best XXXX Minnesota Patent Flour	55c bag
Best Lemon Cakes, Ginger Snaps, Nic Nacs, Soda and Oyster Crackers	5c lb
Uneeda Biscuit	4c package
Best Mocha and Java Coffee	25c lb
Fresh Roasted Coffee, bean or ground	12c lb
Fine Fat Mackerel	8c each

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,

Made only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,

At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY, JANUARY 6.

Fancy Jersey Potatoes, per bus	35c	Fancy Corn, Tomatoes and Peas 3 cans	23c
Large Red Onions, per bus	38c	Best Leaf Lard, per lb	8c
Pillsbury's Flour, per bag	60c	Extra Fancy Cal. Prunes, 3 lbs for	25c
Cresota Flour, per bag	57c	Fancy Evap. Peaches, 2 lbs for	25c
White Swan Flour, per bag	52c	Firstbrook's Borax Soap 7 cakes	25c
Fresh Soda and Lemon crackers lb	5c	" Baking Powder, per lb	19c
Fresh Ging snaps and Nic Nacs lb	5c	Best Table Syrup, per gal	33c
3 lb can Fine Jelly, per can	11c	Best " Molasses, per gal	33c
3 lb can Pears, Plums and Gages	10c	13 Fine Oranges for	25c
Best Alaska Red Salmon, per can	12½c
Good Salmon, per can	10c

½ lb of 50c Tea - - - 25
1 lb of Old Plantation Coffee - 27
½ lb can Firstbrook's Baking Powder 10
62
all for 50c.

We carry a stock of the fanciest canned vegetables and fruits and bottled goods.

FRED. H. FIRSTBROOK,

312 Liberty Street, between 3d and 4th Sts.

GOODS DELIVERED ANYWHERE.

Advertised Mail Matter.

JANUARY 2, 1900.

Althouse, Mr W H	Mandeville, William
Barber, Mr A	Manning, Mrs Emilie T
Brown, Mrs B	Miller, Mr Fred
Carrington, Miss Louise	Naptha Renovating Establishment
Corbie, Mrs J E	O'Brien, Mrs Nellie
Cook, Mrs	Owens, James
Freeman, Mr and Mrs C D	Pall, Mrs W M
Frey & Co., N J	Peart, Mr H A
Gilsm, Miss Annie	Pizzi, Mr Mich.
Green, Mrs H G	Pollock, Mr Thos C
Harper, Mrs George	Robinson, Miss Grace Dean
Hoffman, Miss Francis	Rodie, Mr and Mrs A B
Hurst, Mr C N	Route, James
Jaeger, Miss	Ruso, Albert
Jansen, Mrs	Tanner, Mr F
Kunzleman, Mrs Pierce	Williams, Mr A P
Lane, Mr Norman	VanNest, Mrs Maggie
McCoy, Mr John.

E. B. BIRD, Postmaster.

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles.

CARDS and CALENDARS.

We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.

High Grade Cigars.

Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.

B. W. HAND,

205 W. Front Street.

CHAS. L. FORCE.

Architect and Superintendent.

208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 St ct.

S. SCHEUER & CO.

—ARE OFFERING—

These Special Bargains

-:- FOR -:-

FRIDAY and SATURDAY.

Best XXXX Minnesota Flour, 24½ lb bag	55c
Best XXXX Minnesota Flour, per bbl	4.35
3 lb Package Prepared White Flour	9c
Aunt Jamima Pancake Flour	8c
Fig Bars (regular 15c cracker) per lb	10c
Best Ginger and Nic Nacs, per lb	5c
Uneeda Ginger Wafers, per package	7c
Uneeda Crackers, per package	4c
Scheuer's Sweet Peas, per can	10c
Sweet Corn, per can	7c
Solid Packed Tomatoes, per can	7c
Pineapple Chunks (in heavy syrup) can	15c
Best California Peaches, per lb	12c
Best Evaporated Apples, per lb	10c
Fine California Prunes, per lb	6c
Cleaned Currants, per lb	8c
Shredded Codfish, per package	4c
New Salt Mackerel, per fish	5c
New Salt Herring, per fish	1c
Marshall's Imported Kippered Herring, can	13c
French Mixed Candy, per lb	10c
American Mixed Candy, per lb	8c
New Mixed Nuts, per lb	12c

- - - IN OUR - - -

MEAT DEPARTMENT.

Choice Young Fowls, per lb	12c
Fine Roasting Chickens, per lb	14c
Legs of Choice Lamb, per lb	12c
Legs of Choice Mutton, per lb	10c
Shoulder of Lamb, per lb	8c
Shoulder Lamb Chops, per lb	10c
Lamb for Stewing, per lb	5c
Best Sugar Cured Hams, per lb	10c
Lean Breakfast Bacon, per lb	10c
Taylor's Prepared Hams (whole) per lb	13c

S. SCHEUER & CO.

$1.23 French Felt Hats now 75c.

Bonn's 140 West Front St.

Pretty Trimmed Hats, $1.98 & 2.98.

EXCELLENT FLANNEL WAISTS, $1.75.

Black, all colors and sizes, some with braid trimming, others narrow tucks, diagonal straight and across, 20 styles to select from at $1.75.

Flannelette Night Gowns, 98c

Cut long and full, from soft closely woven flannelette, Empire style, torchon edging and insertion all around and at cuffs, 98c; Another with high neck, at 75c.

Taffeta Silk Waists, 4.98

See them anyway; for there is no such variety or such good values anywhere else. The very latest styles with fine cords and tucks, a reliable black and all the pretty shades.

HATS TRIMMED FREE OF CHARGE.

After Christmas.

We're getting ready to inventory. This the season for Broken Lots and probably Broken Prices. We have found one lot already that has got to go. We sold it for $10.00. You can buy it now for $8.50.

OVERCOATS . . .

are now in order, $5.00, $7.50, $10, $12, $13.50.

ULSTERS - - $4.50, 5.50.

Schepflin & Schultz,

CLOTHIERS.

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

The Delineator and Glass of Fashion for January Now Ready.

Ask for the January Fashion Sheet.

A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE, AGENTS,

214 PARK AVENUE, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas. Fine Coffee.

All the Seasonable Goods. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit.

Tel. 931.

C. E. GULICK & CO.,

THE PARK GROCERS.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Bayern.

München. Die letzte Münchener Gemeindewahl ergab, wie in den meisten bayerischen Städten, einen glänzenden Sieg des Liberalismus. Gewählt wurden 12 Liberale, 6 Klerikale, 2 Sozialisten. Das Gemeindekollegium besteht jetzt aus 33 liberalen und 27 antiliberalen Mitgliedern. — Geheimrath Professor Röntgen ist nunmehr entschlossen, den an ihn ergangenen Ruf an die Universität München anzunehmen.—Die Gemeindebevollmächtigten haben in geheimer Sitzung das Gehalt des ersten Bürgermeisters jährlich um 5000 Mark, des zweiten Bürgermeisters um 3000 Mark; der Rechtsräthe und technischen Mitglieder des Magistrats um je 1000 Mark erhöht. Es sind das gewissermaßen Theuerungs-Zulagen. Der erste Bürgermeister hat nur 21,000 Mark. Vor einigen Wochen haben sämmtliche magistratische Beamte einen beträchtlichen Wohnungsgeldzuschuß erhalten.

Aiblingz. Durch die hiesige Gendarmerie wurde der ledige Wirthssohn Hermann Munz von Großkarolinenfeld verhaftet, weil er dringend verdächtig ist, den jüngst beim Krämer Blaser in Großkarolinenfeld ausgebrochenen Brand gelegt zu haben.

Bamberg. Ein junger hiesiger Architekt Namens Robert Schmidt, der sich durch seine Denkschrift zum stilgerechten Ausbau der Altenburg einen Namen gemacht hat, wurde von Professor Georg v. Hauberrisser zur Rathhausbauleitung nach München berufen.

Eisenbach. Hier wurde der seit 30 Jahren im Amte stehende Bürgermeister Mammer einstimmig wiedergewählt.

Hof. Freiherr Ottomar v. Waldenfels, Rittergutsbesitzer auf Schloß Gumpertsreuth bei Hof, starb plötzlich in Folge Herzschlages während der Abhaltung einer größeren Treibjagd.

Ingolstadt. Die neue Pfarrkirche in Hohenwart ist, glücklicher Weise zur Nachtzeit, eingestürzt.

Kersbach. In der hiesigen Kirche entstand durch eine hinter der Orgel brennend zurückgelassene Kerze ein Brand, der die Orgel zerstörte, aber sonst keinen Schaden anrichtete.

Miesbach. Der bisherige Bürgermeister, Herr Apotheker Franz Salzberger, wurde wiedergewählt.

Oberdietfurt. Erhängt hat sich in Schernegg der Söldner Johann Eckereder am Stiegengeländer, nachdem er vorher seine Frau mit dem Kinde davongejagt und mit dem Messer bedroht hatte.

Straubing. Der kürzlich hier eröffnete neue Schlachthof ist nach dem einstimmigen Urtheil von Sachverständigen der besteingerichtete Schlachthof Bayerns. Der Bau erforderte eine Zeit von 13 Monaten. Die Baukosten belaufen sich auf etwa 350,000 Mark. Der Schlachthof bedeckt eine Fläche von rund 15,000 Quadratmetern und schließt neun Hauptgebäude in sich.

Tegernsee. Im benachbarten Orte Rottach brannte das Gewächshaus der Villa des Grafen Henkel-Donnersmark total nieder.

Würzburg. Der 24jährige Pharmazeut Walter Zschole aus Dresden erschoß sich hier, das Motiv zum Selbstmord war Mittellosigkeit.

Aus der Rheinpfalz.

Bergzabern. Bei der Reichstags-Ersatzwahl im Kreise Bergzabern ist der Liberale Lichtenberg gewählt worden.

Kaiserslautern. Der Tagelöhner Mattler unternahm einen Mordversuch auf seine Schwiegereltern. Er brachte den beiden betagten Leuten mehrere bedeutende Wunden bei und verletzte noch vier weitere Hausinsassen mehr oder minder schwer durch Messerstiche. Bei seiner Verhaftung setzte er sich verzweifelt zur Wehr und erhielt dabei von einem Kriminalbeamten eine tiefe Kopfwunde.

Ludwigshafen. Dieser Tage wurde die Gemeinde Mundenheim unserer Stadt einverleibt. Vor 50 Jahren wurde Ludwigshafen von Mundenheim, zu dem die ehemalige Rheinschanze gehörte, losgetrennt und zu einer selbstständigen Gemeinde erhoben. Nun hat die Tochter die Muttergemeinde derart überflügelt, daß diese gezwungen war, ihre Selbstständigkeit aufzugeben.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Die württembergische Regierung hat sich bereit erklärt, die Landesbriefmarken eingehen zu lassen und die neuen Reichsbriefmarken zu acceptiren.—Von dem Ministerium des Kirchen- und Schulwesens ist die Anordnung getroffen worden, daß Mädchen, welche den Nachweis der für die Zulassung zu den Apothekerprüfungen erforderlichen wissenschaftlichen Vorbildung führen wollen, auf Ansuchen einem Gymnasium oder Realgymnasium zu einer für diesen Zweck zu haltenden außerordentlichen Prüfung zugewiesen werden.

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE.
and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

WHY HE WOULDN'T

Had a Very Good Reason But Waited to be Asked What It Was.

"Will you be kind enough to take that sack off the seat?' 'said a gentleman who got into a train.

"No, sir, I don't propose to do anything of the sort," replied the traveler, who was sitting on the other side of the seat

"Do you say that you are going to let that sack stay there?"

"Yes, sir, I do."

"In case you don't remove that sack I shall be under the painful necessity of calling the conductor."

"You can call the conductor, engineer and all the brakemen if you want to. Perhaps you had better stop and telegraph to the general manager about it."

"The conductor will put you off the train."

"I don't care if he does. I'm not going to take that sack from the place where it is."

The indignant passenger went along the train, and soon returned with the conductor."

"So you refuse to remove the sack, do you?" asked he.

"I do."

"Why do you persist in refusing to remove the sack?"

"Because it is not mine."

"Why didn't you say so at once?"

"Because nobody asked me."

A New Ending.

Merritt—I had an awfully embarrassing thing happen to me this afternoon. I was walking with a girl when a sudden gust of wind blew off my hat and sent it kiting up the middle of the street.

Giles—You surely weren't fool enough to run after it? You know there is always sure to be some obliging stranger who will chase it for you.

Merritt—So I'd always heard. But the girl began laughing at my predicament, and said I'd have to do some scorching to beat the wind.

Giles—Well, of course, she was a girl and didn't know that some other fellow would do the sprinting for you.

Merritt—In the meantime a man had been chasing it up the block, and when the hat scurried around the first corner I knew he would catch it, for he was running like a Spaniard.

Giles—Just as I told you.

Merritt—I continued very leisurely, and when I got to the corner—

Giles—There was the obliging man with your hat.

Merritt—No. Both the man and the hat had disappeared.

A Long Shot.

Johnny—Paw, will you gimme a nickel?

Father—What for?

Johnny—I want to put it in a slot machine and see if I can't get a dollar.

Father—And what will you do with the dollar?

Johnny—Buy a ticket in a raffle for a bicycle.

Self-Sacrificing.

"Do you promise if we are married you'll give up smoking?"

"Yes."

"And drinking and card playing."

"Yes."

"And you'll give up your club?"

"Yes."

"Are there any other foolish things that you'll give up, too?"

"Yes. I'll give up marrying."

A Sure Thing.

Biggs—On my last trip to Europe I lost $200 betting on the ship's daily run.

Boggs—You must have been very unlucky.

Biggs—Yes, I found out afterward that I had been betting with the chief engineer.

Not a Tragedy.

Over the cobble stones, down the long street,
He heard not the sound of her flying feet.
Did she give up the chase? No, indeed, for he Was peddling the berries she wanted for tea. —Chicago Record.

How It Worked

Tom—He wanted to marry Miss Gotrox, and declared that it was solely an affair of the heart.

Jack—And when her father was financially ruined what effect did it have on him?

Tom—Heart failure.

An Object Lesson

Jaggles—Why do you call your boy patriotic?

Waggles—Because when the doctor got through covering him with strips of plaster he had enough stars and stripes on him to make a flag.

Continuous

Mrs. Sentimental (watching her sleeping child)—How true it is that "heaven lies about us in our infancy."

Her Cold-Blooded Husband—Yes, and somebody else keeps it up afterward.

Soared Too High

"Yes that's Guggenthorp. He made a fortune once by inventing a road-scraper."

"What did he do with his money?"

"He sunk it in a sky-scraper."

Waiting

"I tell you, it's no use to hang your head if you are guilty."

"No, that is what the sheriff is paid for."

He Knew

Teacher—What class of people are difficult to convince against their will?

Johnny Henpeck—Men and women.

A
AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED
Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

Yearly Clearance

time has come to this great store. Furniture and carpets at topsy-turvy prices—odd lines, yet new in pattern, and prices at lower marks than we've ever known them!
A great holiday trade left many, many broken lots—all to your profit.

Carpets, too!

Thousands of yards of carpets to go at the cut down prices—a 200-foot floor to show 'em on. Come!

Parlor Suits—over 100 kinds to pick from—beauties all—some are odd ones—all prices.

$9.98
A polished quartered golden oak desk with mirror and two drawers. Worth $14.00.

$18.75
Antique oak bedroom suit. Large French bevel plate mirror. Combination washstand, splasher back. Value $25.00.

$10.98
Solid Oak golden finish, 4 shelves. Value $15.00.

Oil Heaters
A great comfort—cost, 1 cent an hour to run. Odorless.

$3.98
High-armed cherry rocker—spindle back. Easily worth $5.00.

$5.49
A fine cherry frame corner seat—silk damask upholstered seat. Value 8.00.

$5.98
Good sized antique oak chiffonier—5 drawers. Value $9.00.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

E. J. Sultan, the New York druggist, whose place of business is at the northeast corner of 23rd Street and Third Avenue, recently said of Ripans Tabules: "If the sale increases as steadily as it has here, I shall have to order in larger quantities. They give universal satisfaction and I predict a great future for them."

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America Life INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,
THE GROCER.
Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.
Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

FASHION HINTS.

Street Costumes and Those For Evening Wear.

Street costumes are very simple—at least such as are of the best style. Simplicity of cut and decorations, but great elegance of fit and finish, are the desired qualities. All elaborate and striking effects are reserved for evening wear—for balls, dinners, theaters and the opera, where rich materials and colors and scintillating effects are employed in profusion.

Ball gowns may be divided into two distinct classes—those worn by dancers and by nondancers. The first variety is the simpler and is made of the lightest, most airy materials. Plain or broche mousseline de soie, crepes de chine, lace, striped gauze and spangled tulle and the most delicate taffetas are the goods employed, and the trimmings are of the same character—tiny ribbons, ruches or velvet, thin ruffles, plaitings and lace. The gowns for nondancers are much richer and heavier, moire de velours, fleur de velours, satins and silks of all kinds being used.

NOVEL BODICE.

Serpents are a fashionable decorative motive and are seen not only in the form of belt buckles, bracelets and other jewelry, but also in passementerie for the ornamentation of hats and gowns. The bodice illustrated is of marigold broche silk. The back is tight fitting, the front draped diagonally, forming a pointed waist. The half length sleeves are of mousseline de soie, and their edge, as well as that of the round decolletage, is trimmed with fine, fluffy plaitings of mousseline. A serpent of jet and spangled passementerie winds around the left arm and across the front of the decolletage. On the right shoulder is a cluster of flowers. JUDIC CHOLLET.

FASHION'S FANCIES.

Handkerchiefs, Hosiery and Other Pretty Things.

A decided novelty in lace handkerchiefs is of black chantilly, with a tiny square of lawn in the middle. The usual sort, in mechlin, brussels point and duchesse are seen, but the cipher is now embroidered on the lace itself instead of on the lawn middle.

Handkerchiefs for ordinary use are prettily embroidered with Louis Quinze bowknots, butterflies or fleur-de-lis. These are white or mauve, blue or pink, and sometimes the hemstitched border, which is now always narrow, is also colored.

Stockings of black or white silk have insertions of white lace or black chantilly running horizontally, vertically or spirally, or there are embroideries of small flowers in colors.

Short petticoats of silk are very tight at the top and have a flounce at the edge. They are lined with fine French flannel or soft wool en crepe to insure warmth. Outer petticoats are of silk, and may also be lined to increase their warmth if it is necessary. They continue to cling to the figure above the knees and expand below in numerous flounces and plaitings lavishly adorned with lace, ruches, applications, embroideries and gauzy fripperies of all kinds.

EVENING CORSAGE.

A cut is given which shows an evening bodice of liberty silk. It is fitted at the back and stretched in front, with a pointed belt of velvet. The half length sleeves are made to drop off the shoulder and around the decolletage is a drapery of embroidered silk edged with fringe. Wrinkled bands of velvet form shoulder straps. The sleeves are finished with plaited frills of mousseline de soie headed by a band of velvet. At the left side of the decolletage is a chou of mousseline de soie with long, floating ends.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

OUT OF DOOR COSTUMES.

Wraps For Walking and Carriage Wear.

At this season it is the wrap and the hat which constitute the out of door costume. The gown is of small account, particularly if the wrap is a long redingote. Black and white, so long in favor, continues to be a fashionable combination, both as trimming and for entire garments, and gray of all shades is also much worn. In opposition to these somber tones red of various bright shades is seen, and some very attractive wraps are made of red cloth. One, a loose, straight cloak of full length, is of scarlet cloth. It has a high, flaring collar and three little graduated capes and is lined throughout with black and white striped satin, the stripes being more than an inch wide.

VISITING GOWN.

Fur capes with rounded fronts are fastened at the throat by a rich clasp or buckle. They have a high, flaring collar and one ornamented with a capuchin lined with velvet or with satin veiled by antique lace.

The visiting gown shown in the illustration is of light chamois cloth. The skirt opens at the side with curved corners and is trimmed with stitched bands of the same cloth. Under the opening is a panel of the cloth plaited horizontally. The back of the skirt is laid in several plaits, which are stitched flat for several inches down from the waist. The bolero has a plain back, but the open fronts are diagonally plaited, as are the sleeves. The collar and revers are faced with widely striped yellow and white silk. The chemisette of sky blue surah has a yoke of guipure over yellow silk. The belt is of yellow velvet. The hat of golden brown is trimmed with plumes and a gold buckle. JUDIC CHOLLET.

HOUSEHOLD FASHIONS.

Fine Table and Bed Linen—A Pretty Gown.

The preferred table linen is of fine damask with an embroidered cipher. This device is no longer made very large and conspicuous and is not much greater for the tablecloth than for the napkins.

Sheets with ruffled tops are again used, after being long abandoned. Sheets and pillowcases, with the bolster cases if a bolster is employed, are made in sets to match. Yellow or grayish lace, now seen on underwear, is likewise adopted for bed linen. Hemstitching is another decoration which is much elaborated with drawn work for bed linen and towels. The laces which are chosen for trimming this class of household linen are mechlin, valenciennes and guipure.

OUT OF DOOR GOWN.

Bed covers of Richelieu embroidery over a lining of colored taffeta are seen. The most satisfactory ones, however, are those of fine white marseilles fringed or embroidered around the edge and always fresh by reason of their capability of being frequently laundered.

The costume illustrated has a skirt of Russian green velvet. The princess tunic of green cloth is bordered by a band of fur and a deep knotted fringe. The tunic is slightly draped at the side, and the bodice closes diagonally with large ornamented buttons. The plain sleeves have a band of fur at the wrists, and the collar is edged with fur. The draped toque is of green velvet and is trimmed with a green curled plume and a gold ornament. The muff of fur is decorated with an animal's head. Cream kid gloves are worn.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

TRICKS WITH EGGS.

Many Curious Things That May Be Done to Astonished Onlookers.

Rather a pretty experiment with a blown egg is to suspend it by means of a piece of cotton attached to it with sealing wax, and then cause it to swing without being touched, by means of electric attraction. The latter is supplied by a doubled sheet of brown paper, warmed and made electrical by being held tightly against the body with the upper arm, while it is drawn smartly out with the other hand.

The brown paper, which will give a bright electric spark to the knuckles, will make the egg swing briskly by its attraction, drawing the egg to itself as a very powerful magnet will attract a piece of iron, but in a much more striking manner.

An egg—that is, a complete egg, not the empty shell, such as we have just been using—will sink in water. But it will float in strong brine, made by adding to cold water as much salt as will dissolve in it. Cold water will dissolve a little more salt than hot.

If we mix a solution of salt with some pure water, trying the egg in it from time to time, we can obtain a mixture having the same specific gravity as the egg; and in this water we can make the egg float, by a little care, at any particular spot.

Thus if we take a tall jar full of the fluid mixed as above, and by means of a bent piece of tin carefully release the egg half way down, we shall have the curious phenomenon of an egg suspended, as though by magic, in the middle of the jar, as Mohammed's coffin hung in air between earth and heaven.

But if we had not wholly filled the jar there is yet a more curious trick greatly surprising to the unwarned onlooker. By means of a long funnel add some more brine to the water and the egg will gradually rise to the surface. Now add fresh water in sufficient quantity and it will slowly sink.

Take an empty eggshell and choose one in which the hole has not been made too large. If you now put the empty shell into the oven, so as to make it very hot, and then plunge it in a bowl of water for a few minutes, the shell will suck in some of the water, owing to the contraction of the contained air in cooling.

Do this once or twice until you have in the eggshell just sufficient water for this experiment, which requires that the shell shall just be able to float and no more—that is, that a very slight touch will send it down, to bob up again directly afterward.

Put it in a large, narrow-mouthed pickle jar, nearly full of water. Put the palm of your hand over the mouth of the jar and bear heavily upon it. The egg will sink to the bottom. Lift the hand and the egg will rise quickly to the surface. The compression of the air destroys the buoyancy of the partially filled eggshell. If you don't mind making rather a mess in the fireplace you can utilize this shell with the water in it for another striking trick.

Cover the hole with a piece of paper well gummed on and gummed over and put the shell in the fire. In a few minutes the shell will be blown violently to pieces by the steam from the water. Stand well back from the grate or you may be scalded.

In the next trick it is not necessary to allow the onlookers either to witness the preparations or to be aware of the fact that it is an empty egg that is being used. Take a little piece of good muslin and soak it in strong brine. Let it dry and repeat the process three or four times. Then, by attaching a piece of wire to each corner of the muslin, make a little cradle to hold the shell. Do not do this until the muslin is thoroughly dry.

If you now set fire to the muslin so that it may burn, the eggshell will not, as the bystanders expect, fall. The trick is a very surprising one and its explanation simple. The salting of the muslin causes t to leave an ash sufficiently strong to support a light object like the eggshell.

New Way to Hunt Tigers.

The latest use to which bicycles have been applied is tiger hunting. A paper published in British India gve an account of this startling innovation. A pig, it appears, was carried away by a tiger from a coffee estate at Castlewood, in the State of Johore. "The news having been sent to Johore," runs the report, "the Sultan's trackers were out on bicycles by midday and located the tiger in some low shrub within a half a mile of the shed. The Sultan himself rode out at 4 o'clock, and after a short beat of half an hour a large tiger was driven out of the shrub and fell to one well-placed shot by the Sultan through the tiger's forehead."

A Strange Pet.

Miss Daisy Keevil, of St. Louis, owns the strangest pet in that city. It is a catamount, which was captured near Wittenberg, Ill., and was then about a week old. Captain Byard Burton, of the steamer Cherokee, shot the mother, and Miss Daisy admired the bright little bundle of fuzzy fur so much that her father gave it to her. It goes where it likes about the house, and is very gentle with its mistress and the other members of the family, though it spits angrily when strangers come about.

Hens Hatch the Eggs.

In China hens are employed to hatch fish eggs. These are sealed in an eggshell and placed under the unsuspecting hen for a few days. The contents of the shell are then emptied into a shallow pool, where they can bask in the sunshine until the minnows are strong enough to be turned into a lake or river.

Cats.

Our papa loves cats,
But mother can't bear them
They sharpen their claws
On the curtains and tear them
They much prefer milk
To the mice in the dairy,
And yearn all the day
For a meal of canary.

Genius With a Cue.

Philadelphia has a boy champion pool player. His name is Thomas Benners, and he is only 9 years old, but he is a match for the oldest and nerviest of players. He is too small to reach the table and has to carry a stool around the table with him to stand upon while he makes his shots.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Jan. 7—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic—Prayer that obtains.—Luke ii, 5-13; xviii, 2-8.

The topical references give us three illustrations of prayers that obtained—prayers among men, each one illustrating the increased willingness of God to answer the prayers of His people.

1. The prayer of the friend at midnight (Luke ii, 5-9). In this parable Jesus describes one friend coming to another at midnight and asking for bread for a friend who has come to visit him. At first he refuses and calls out, "Trouble me not," but the other persists, and at last his perseverance prevails. Because of his importunity his friend hears him and grants his request. Now, if man thus answers the prayers of his fellow man, how much more may we expect God to answer the earnest, persistent, continued prayers of His people! It is true, He may delay the answer for our good, but if we persevere the answer, if for our good, will finally come. If we ask, we shall receive; if we seek, we shall find; if we knock, it shall be opened unto us.

2. The prayer of children to parents. Christ's second illustration is that of a son asking bread of his father and receiving bread and fish, and not a stone or a serpent. Earthly parents hear and answer the prayers of their children. They would not think of mocking their cries for bread by giving them stones or their cries for fish by giving them serpents. God is our Heavenly Father, and if earthly parents give good gifts to their children, in answer to their prayers, much more may we expect God, our Heavenly Father, to give His Spirit to them that ask Him.

3. The widow and the unjust judge. In this case a widow presents a petition to an unjust judge, one who neither regards God nor man. At first he refused her petition, but she came again and again, and at last he granted it, lest by her continual coming she should weary him. If an unjust judge would thus hear and answer the prayer of a poor widow, with what more reason can we expect our God, who is just, and not only just, but merciful and loving, to answer our petitions.

4. These three parables all teach one great, important truth—namely, that God will answer prayer; that if we are earnest and persevering in our petitions God will not turn a deaf ear to our cries. Let us be encouraged, therefore, to spend much time in prayer. Our prayers will obtain. Let us specially pray at this time for the outpouring of God's blessing upon the churches and people of God. If the prayers of individuals for temporal blessings prevailed, how much more can we believe that our united prayers for a great spiritual blessing will prevail.

THE PRAYER MEETING.—Make this a special prayer and praise service. Have special prayers for special objects, sentence prayers, silent prayer and a "prayer chain," a number standing and praying one after the other. Intersperse the praying with appropriate hymns and testimonies.

Bible Readings.—Gen. xxxii, 24-30; II Kings xix, 14-19, 35; I Sam. xii, 19-25; Ps. lv, 17; lxv, 1, 2; Isa. lviii, 9; lxv, 24; Math. vi, 6-15; vii, 7-11; John xiv, 14; xv, 16; Acts ii, 41-47; Eph. iii, 14-21; Jas. v, 16-20; I John iii, 22.

The Sanctified Ear.

How many bring a sanctified ear to the worship of God? They come to hear what? One wishes to hear what he terms good music. Music, after all, is only an attendant. God rises in the chariot, not in the rumbling of the wheels. Music is more than the harmony of sounds. It is a truth processional entering the brain. The average anthem is neither music nor sense. It teaches nothing. The advent angels not only sang well, but they sang something. The words lingered after the sound had vanished.—Presbyterian Journal.

A Child's Laugh.

Strike with hand of fire, O weird musician, thy harp strung with Apollo's golden hair; fill the vast cathedral aisles with symphonies sweet and dim, deft toucher of the organ keys; blow, bugler, blow until the silver notes do touch and kiss the moonlit waves and charm the lovers wandering midst the vine clad hills! But know your sweetest strains are discord all compared with childhood's happy laugh—the laugh that fills the eyes with light and every heart with joy!—Robert Ingersoll.

The Value of Adversity.

The air from the sea of affliction is extremely beneficial to invalid Christians. Continued prosperity, like a warm atmosphere, has a tendency to unbind the sinews and soften the bones, but the cold winds of trouble make us sturdy, hardy and well braced in every part. Unbroken success often leads to an undervaluing of mercies and forgetfulness of the giver, but the withdrawal of the sunshine leads us to look for the sun.—Spurgeon.

New Opportunities.

Each day, each week, each month, each year, is a new chance given you by God. A new chance, a new leaf, a new life—this is the golden, the unspeakable, gift which each new day offers you.—Canon Farrar.

The Master.

When earth's last picture is painted,
And the tubes are twisted and dried,
When the oldest colors have faded
And the youngest critic has died,
We shall rest, and, faith, we shall need it,
Lie down for an eon or two,
Till the Master of all good workmen
Shall set us to work anew.

* * * * * *

And only the Master shall praise us,
And only the Master shall blame,
And no one shall work for money,
And no one shall work for fame,
But each for the joy of the working,
And each in his separate star,
Shall draw the thing as he sees it,
For the God of things as they are.

—Selected.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning Jan. 7, "A Race For Life"—Text, Phil. iii, 7-15; Heb. xii, 1, 2.

"I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

In these days, when so much thought is given to athletics, the references of Paul to the ancient Greek games and comparison of the Christian life to their struggles should be well understood and thoroughly appreciated. There are force and beauty and deep significance in the use he makes of their various features.

"Pressing forward." The runner in the games needed to give all his attention to the goal and the course which lay before him. What other runners were doing must not detain him. The applause or hisses of spectators must not disconcert him. Fatigue must not overcome. Nothing must be allowed to distract or divert attention or cause him to relax effort. On, on, on, at highest speed, for the mark where the prize rested!

"Laying aside" all weight was one of the necessary preparations for the runner. He must have muscles free and limbs unincumbered. No one can make much progress or get up much speed in the Christian life if entangled with the obligations of worldly social life and customs and cumbered with its alliances. "Lay aside every weight and run with patience." There are rules for Christian conduct, and if one gets the prize he must needs keep them. No one ever yet made a success of loving the world and serving Christ at the same time. Each one requires all the time and care. One excludes the other.

"Looking unto Jesus" is the sure way of running successfully. Study Him. Keep the eyes and mind on Him. See how He did and do likewise. We need ever to look to Him also for encouragement on the course, for direction and commands. He once ran and won. We now run and can win.

He endured to gain the prize. It is worth all our effort. We need to fear lest we, by carelessness or relaxing our exertions or through pride and forgetfulness of Him, become castaways and driven from the track. Make this year tell for Jesus. Get somewhere. Make some gain. Watch your chances and make the next base. If we are to score, we must run. Better to slide for the plate than be put out on the base without trying for it.

Look Well to the Spokes.

A cracked or loose spoke is dangerous. It may "dish" the whole wheel, upset the wagon, spill the load, ruin the profits and endanger life. No wheel is stronger than its weakest spoke. As in the case of the notable "Deacon's One Hoss Shay,"

'Tis mighty plain
The weakest part must stan the strain.
And the only way, as I maintain, is jest
To make that part as strong as the rest.

Do the members sustain the church prayer meeting? No other service can replace this. It is not enough to have a League devotional meeting. Be loyal to all church services. There is no substitute for them. Keep the mercy and help work going. Hunt up the poor and sick. Visit, send flowers, fruit, jellies, delicacies and comforts. Keep your literary work alive. Lectures, readings, debates, discussions and study hours help. Have live sociables. Give systematically to the church funds as well as pay your League dues. Make every spoke strong. No bicyclist can afford to neglect a broken spoke lest he have to come home afoot and bring his wheel on his back. Don't make the church carry a broken down League on its back. Put your wheel in good condition, lubricate properly and pedal steadily. Don't gear up too high, but take the up grades firmly and not too fast.

A Busy Man and His Bible.

There are few persons who are more busy than was the late George Muller of Bristol, England. He was pastor of a church of 1,200 members and had charge of five immense orphanages and a publishing house issuing millions of pages of books and tracts. His correspondence amounted to 30,000 letters per year in all European languages, and most of them had his personal attention. For 50 years he never saw a day which did not bring more work than could be done in its hours.

In the beginning of his ministry he neglected to read the Bible regularly and was a babe in knowledge and grace. He then saw that the Holy Spirit is the instructor and the Bible is the medium by which He teaches. He began to read the book in course, both Old and New Testaments. He said: "I have since read it through 100 times and each time with increasing delight. When I begin it afresh, it always seems like a new book. I look upon it as a lost day when I have not had a good time over the word of God. The vigor of our spiritual life will be in exact proportion to the place held by the word in our life and thoughts. I can solemnly state this from an experience of 54 years."

No Room at the Inn.

No room in Bethlehem's crowded inn
For the infant Christ to lie,
Though heralded by shining ones,
Who greeted Him from the sky;
No home threw open its friendly doors
To welcome a Saviour born,
Though heaven rejoiced and angels sang
Their praise in the early morn.

No room for the Christ who came to save
A world enshrouded in sin;
No room—how it echoes adown the years—
For the Son of God within;
No room for Him who brought to man,
Through the Father's wondrous love,
The hope of a changeless better life
With Him in a home above.

O blessed Christ, Thy mercy and grace
Are as limitless as the sea!
Let Thy spirit incline us now to say
There is room in my heart for Thee!
Make room for Jesus! to all we cry.
His friendship is constant and true,
And when He gathers His people home
He will have a welcome for you.

—Ella A. Small.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 8 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 42, 9 55, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 55, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 09, 7 30, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 05, 11 10 22 m.; 12 00 m, 12 58, 1 45, 2 46, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 56, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 30, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 05, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 33, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 56, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN, General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN, General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR, General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE, General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.

FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. L. Manning & Son

STEAM GRANITE WORKS,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low

XXXX QUALITY

FINEST

LOFOTON COD LIVER OIL,

Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.

Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at

39c per Pint.

For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at

50c per Bottle,

or the Tasteless at

75c per Bottle.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,

Heaburn & Co.,

Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,

213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

FURNITURE for the Parlor . . . Library . . . Dining-Room . . . Bedroom . . .

Close at 6 o'Clock.

POWLISON & JONES,

149 and 151 E. Front St.

Annual January Sale of Ladies' Muslin Underwear.

An entirely new showing of muslin underwear is now ready for your inspection.

These Goods were bought many weeks ago, before the recent heavy advance in prices on cotton goods—Prices have been made accordingly.

Made by one of the famous underwear manufacturers of Massachusetts, in clean, well ventilated factories, insuring absolute cleanliness in manufacture.

Finely made garments, snowy white, beautiful dainty garments. By far the best elaborate assortment we have ever shown.

These goods have just been received, and placed on sale. As to prices they conform to the regular January bargain prices, which are much lower than the ordinary.

I. LEDERER.

FALL OPENING.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.

OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5.00.

Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1,000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,

206 West Front Street.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.

Sherwins,

149 W. Front St.

Our Attractive Holiday Display

awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.

A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

FURS.

Our assortment of Furs at the present time is larger and better than ever before A few of the many special values. Each item is worthy of your special attention.

COLLARETTES.
Grebe, extra fine fur, satin lining, $6.00.
Sheared Coney, 12 tails, extra fine satin lining, $5.95.
Sheared Coney, extra long and extra fine satin lining, at $7.75.
Electric Kurmur, satin lined, $12.00.

BOAS. Stone Marten, $1.89 and $2.49. Bear skin, $3.25

MUFFS. Sable, $3.98. Astrachan $2.25.

CHILDREN'S FURS. Electric Seal, $1.49 to 4.75. Thibet sets, $1.00 to 1.49. Angoras, $1.98 to 2.98. Mink sets, $3.25. Stone Marten, $1.00 to 6.49.

UNTRIMMED MILLINERY. We will close out the balance of our untrimmed millinery at prices that will please you. All new goods. The bargains in this department must be seen to be appreciated.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

"SOROSIS!"

The most popular shoe sold for women. 3 000 pairs turned out of the factory each work day. The best $3 50 shoe in every respect made. We sell them, as well as other lines at a higher price, and also as low as 98c $1 25, $1 50, $2 00, etc. Good winter shoes for men $1 25 $1 50, $2 00 and up to $5 and $6 Felt Slippers, Rubber Boots, Arctics, Rubbers, everything you need in the shoe line. Peddles Trunks, Dress Suit Cases and Traveling Bags.

DOANE & EDSALL. . . . .

CYCLING NEWS

A BICYCLE TENT.

It May Be Carried Strapped to the Wheel and Put Up Easily.

A tent to cover both rider and bicycle while touring may seem an idle fancy, but a simple waterproof covering which any one may make and carry without difficulty was found very serviceable by a writer of the New York Sun, in a trip made from New York to Quebec. This tent may be erected in less than three minutes, the bicycle acting as uprights and ridge pole, and when rolled up may be strapped back of the saddle or upon the handle-bars, making a package or roll about three inches in diameter and ten in length.

It may be constructed of any material which will shed water when stretched out—of course the thinner and lighter the better. Cossamer cloth has many desirable features—the thinness of the material insures compactness, its non-absorbance of moisture allows the tent to be packed up without having to wait for it to dry after exposure to dampness with no danger of its mildewing. This rubber cloth may be purchased for from twenty-five cents a yard upward.

To make this portable house turn the bicycle upside down, allowing it to rest on the saddle and handle bars, and measure the distance from the floor to the highest point of either of the wheels. Double the height of the wheel, add to the result 29 inches and cut two pieces of the material each the above length. Unite these side by side, overlapping half an inch. Turn up a hem half an inch at each end. You have now a piece of cloth six feet wide and more or less nine feet long, according to the height of the wheel. As the tent is to have a wall protection on each side, measure 18 inches from one hem and double the cloth upon itself, making a flap an inch in width upon the outer surface of the fabric. Three rings may now be fastened to this flap, one at each extreme end and one in the centre, to which cords can be attached eight feet in length. To the opposite hem, rings and loops, four in number, may be securely attached, 18 inches apart. Midway between this edge and the flap is the ridge of the tent, which should be reinforced on the inside by an extra piece of cloth two inches in width and four feet long. On each end of this strip fasten two rings, one on each corner. These will therefore be two inches apart. As the covering is now placed in position over the wheel, the rings of the reinforcing strip should straddle the rubber tires at their greatest distance from the ground. It will be noticed at this juncture that a portion of the roof of the tent between the wheels is without support. To overcome this fault attach strong cords to the two rings on each end of the reinforcement strip and join them six inches from the rings into one cord for each end. The top of the tent may be made rigid by these two guy lines, to be secured to stakes in the ground, in the same manner as those on the side. Trout line will be most serviceable.

These flaps or doors of the front and back can be cut and fitted with ease while the tent is standing. Leave a slit directly in the front of the wheel so the flaps may be thrown backward upon the roof out of the way upon entering or leaving. When closed they may be fastened securely by strings or tape attached to the two edges. Those delighting in trips through wild districts or where shelter is not rapidly found will see at once the usefulness of this novelty, if only in protection from thunderstorms. The ordinary tent, with its poles and stakes, of course, has no place in the bicyclist's outfit.

Compare the usual back-country roadside tavern, its stuffy room and questionable bed, with the bicycle tent and camp fire of the true sportsman, sleeping to the music of a trout stream and breathing good fresh air.

May Make It More National.

Several of the leading officials of the League of American Wheelmen are seriously considering the matter of so changing the form of the organization as to make it more national in character. The idea prevalent is that much of the strength of the League is wasted because of the many sub-divisions of working energy in it, and those who are of this mind would like to have a re-organization providing for an association more on the lines of many of the large secret societies; the difference being that there will be no secrets. It is probable there will be many suggestions on this line at the coming Assembly, and if the idea meets with sufficient favor to warrant extended discussion, another will be added to the many important topics that will be discussed before the annual meeting.

L. A. W. Notes.

There will be no regular election of officers in the Pennsylvania, New York and Massachusetts Divisions of the League of American Wheelmen this year, as there is no opposition to the official candidates.

The basis of representation in the National Assembly of the League of American Wheelmen is the membership of each division on the first of December. For this reason the division officers are watching the membership returns closely.

All the eastern and many of the western divisions of the L. A. W. will have good roads and cycle path bills introduced into the legislatures this winter. An added factor of strength in the fight for the passage of these bills will be the support of the farmers.

A man was riding in a tramcar. When he arrived at the place where he wanted to get off, the conductor was not in sight, so he gave the bell-strap a smart pull. "Here!" exclaimed the conductor, coming in; "don't do that! You are ringing the bell at both ends of the car!" "Well," exclaimed the man, "I want both ends of the car to stop!"

THE ART OF BOXING

A FEW SUGGESTIONS IN SELF-DEFENCE OR OFFENCE.

How to Lead and Get Away—Body Blows, Counter Blows and Swings—Lessons by the Greatest Boxer of His Weight in the World.

Boxing, like anything else worth doing, can't be learned in a day, says Young Terry McGovern. You will both learn much more quickly if you help and correct each other.

In boxing with each other, you and your sparring partner must remember that you are in merely friendly rivalry and are not enemies. Don't "slug," don't try to knock each other down or disfigure each other's faces. All such hard hitting proves nothing, and you have not yet reached the point where you can do it without injury to your boxing.

Go lightly. Strive to conquer by skill, not by slugging. You are in a friendly bout, not a prize-fight. Be a gentleman. If you are hit a little harder than usual, keep your temper. No one but a baby gets mad at an accidental hurt. Remember your opponent is your friend. Treat him as such. You would not knock down an opponent in baseball or try to black his eye. Don't try it, then, in friendly boxing.

Now let's practice the right and left leads for the face and their parries.

Lead for your face with my left. Move your head quickly to the right. Not too far. Just far enough to avoid my blow. At the same time lead with your left for my face. Good! You landed square on my mouth, while my blow passed harmlessly over your shoulder. That is the left counter for the face. It's very easy. Don't bend the knee. Be sure to move the head and lead at the same time.

Now for the right counter. I'll lead for your face again, with my left. Move your head again—to the left this time—and lead for my face with your right. Your right arm passes outside of my left and lands on my jaw. A dangerous blow in a fight is that cross counter. Practice both those counters carefully. They've knocked thousands of men out. Now for the body blows: In these you bend the left knee and throw the body forward to the blow.

Bend the knee and hit out for my wind with your left. Throw the left shoulder into it and hit straight out. Recover. Then, bending the left knee slightly again, hit in the same way with your right hand for my heart. Those are the two principal body blows.

To guard the blow for the wind, beat aside your opponent's glove with the right forearm, turning down the palm. The right hand being already across the stomach will make this easier. To guard the blow for the heart, put the left arm partly across your body in a V shape; elbow down, hand at height of throat. Catch the heart blow on your elbow or thereabouts. Now I'll lead for your face again with my left. Throw your head to the left, so my fist will pass to the right of it, at the same time bending your left knee and hitting with your right for my heart, as I've just shown. Thus my blow passes you and I run squarely onto your fist.

Let me lead again for your face with my left.

Move your head to the right this time, bending the left knee and leading for my wind with your left.

To lead and then to get out of the way before an opponent can return your blow is of the greatest importance. Let us go through all our blows and parries again or after delivering each blow back out of reach. Do it quickly, for as soon as your blow lands I am going to hit out at you and unless you're out of reach in time you are liable to get hit.

Now, then, lead a straight left for my face, then get back out of reach. Now come on again and lead with your right. Judge for yourself when you're within striking distance. You'll make fearful blunders at first in calculating the distance your reach will extend, but you'll soon learn it and it's a necessary thing to know.

(Right cross counter for the jaw.)

And so we go through the different blows; leading, getting quickly out of reach, getting back again, delivering your blow and getting out of the way once more.

And now we come to swings. Personally I don't care much for them. In all my fifty-five battles I never used a single swing nor saw the especial need of one.

However, others don't agree with me in that view; so I will show you how the thing is done, and let you see it or not as you choose.

Come to guard. Drop the right arm to the side. Then bring it around, and extended to almost its full length, in a semi-circle far enough away from the body to give it good leverage and to avoid your opponent's shoulder and turning the hand as you do so, so that the thumb will be downward and the back of the hand—at the knuckles, of course—will strike your opponent. Throw the right shoulder well into the swing. It must be delivered with speed and accuracy to be at all effective.

I will lead for your face with my left. Move your head to the left and swing with your right for my jaw. It is a terific blow when well struck. A left-hand swing is managed in the same fashion as a right-hand swing. When I lead for your face with my left move your head to the right and swing with your left for my jaw.

To guard or block a swing, bring up your arm parallel with the body, so that your wrist is on a level with your ear. Turn the palm outward, and catch the swing if you can on the fleshy part of the forearm.

PLAINFIELD, N. J.
WILMINGTON, Del.

The CROSBY & HILL United Stores

MORRISTOWN, N. J.
PERTH AMBOY, N. J.

WINTER STOCK-TAKING SALE.

This month all the winter stocks are greatly reduced. It's the regular clearing out sale of merchandise preparatory to stock-taking three weeks hence. The policy of this house is "No goods carried forward for another season." Hence unusual price reductions. Your confidence, comfort and convenience are valued very highly by us, and we are constantly striving to demonstrate our ability to serve you better and gain more of your confidence. This sale will serve better to demonstrate the liberal business policy of this house.

Sale of Women's Outer Garments, Including Coats, Capes, Skirts, Suits, and Waists.

The greater part of this season's coat-wearing weather has yet to arrive, and so it happens that the women of this vicinity are enabled to secure the choice of this season's coats and wraps at half actual value.

2.48 Coats reduced from 5.00.
2.98 Coats reduced from 6.00.
3.98 Coats reduced from 7.50.
4.98 Coats reduced from 10.00.
7.98 Coats reduced from 15.00.
2.48 Capes reduced from 5.00.
3.98 Capes reduced from 6.50.
4.98 Capes reduced from 9.50.
98c Dress skirts reduced from 1.39.
1.29 Dress skirts reduced from 1.98.
2.49 Dress skirts reduced from 3.98.
39c Flannelette waists reduced from 50c.
1.98 All-wool cloth waists reduced from 2.75.
2.49 All-wool cloth waists reduced from 3.98.
1.98 Velveteen waists worth 3.00.

The January Blanket Sale.

An important opportunity. The prices are far below the actual worth of these goods, basing the price on the present market values. No more handsome goods or more honest values are shown. Goods made by the best manufacturers in the country.

50c Gray Blankets, 10-4 size, worth 75c.
98c White blankets, 11-4 size, worth 1.25.
1.39 White blankets, half wool, 10-4 size, worth 1.98.
1.98 White blankets, 11-4 size, worth 2.50.
2.98 White blankets, 11-4 size, worth 3.75.
3.98 White blankets, 11-4 size, worth 4.50.
7.50 Full size California wool blankets.
10.00 Extra fine California wool blankets.
Horse Blankets at less than value.
Full-size shaped stable blankets, strong, heavy and serviceable, 1.39, 1.69 and 1.89.
Street blankets 1.39, 1.69, 2.00, 3.50 and 5.00.

The January Sale of Muslin Underwear has a Combined Goodness with Low Cost.

We occupy a wonderfully strong position by the purchase of about eight thousand pieces of muslin underwear last July before prices advanced, most of it at prices less than cost of raw material alone.

The achievement is particularly great when you find 17c drawers and the 39c night gowns just as correctly shaped as the finest.

10c Cambric corset covers, neck trimmed with narrow embroidery.
19c Cambric corset covers, in three styles, lace or embroidery trimmed.
25c Two different styles of cambric corset covers, embroidery or lace trimmed.
50c Corset covers, handsomely trimmed with fine Swiss or cambric embroidery, twelve different styles.
75c Corset covers, trimmed with fine Valenciennes laces and insertions or fine embroidery and ribbon, three different styles.
39c Gowns of good heavy quality muslin, yoke of insertion and clusters of tucking, cut full liberal size.
59c Gowns, good liberal sizes, muslin of a fine quality, handsomely trimmed with fine embroidery.
98c An assortment of nine different styles of gowns in a variety of shapes, lace or embroidery trimmed.
A choice line of gowns in various styles at 1.25, 1.39, 1.98, 2.50, 2.75 and 3.00.
17c Drawers, fine heavy muslin, cut full size, finished with hem and cluster of tucks.
25c Drawers in umbrella shape, with deep ruffle of cambric hemstitched and lace insertion.
49c Drawers in six different styles of lace or embroidery trimmed, plain or umbrella shape.
89c Drawers of fine cambric, deep ruffles of insertion and torchon lace trimming with cluster of tucks.

Some Special Hosiery Values in seasonable Weight Goods.

13c Women's heavy cotton hose; full regular made, fast black, worth 19c.
15c Women's heavy cotton seamless hose, fast black, double soles and ribbed tops,
18c Women's fleece lined hose, fast black, double heels, in fine quality and heavy weight, reduced from 25c.
17c Children's fine ribbed hose, sizes 6 to 9 inches, reduced from 25c.
10c Children's colored wool hose, sizes 6 to 9 inches, reduced from 25c.
39c Ladies' jersey golf leggins, fancy tops, reduced from 98c.
25c Women's corduroy and cloth leggins, reduced from 49c.

Particularly Interesting Prices on Men's Furnishing Goods.

25c Men's and boys' white shirts, cut full and large, good quality of muslin, three-ply linen bosoms, reinforced back and front, endless stay bands and split collar bands, worth 39c.
25c A lot of men's heavy merino undershirts (no drawers to match) white or gray mixed, reduced from 75c.
50c A lot of men's heavy merino and all wool undershirts in a variety of different qualities (no drawers to match) worth 1.00 and 1.25.
5c Men's fine cambric handkerchiefs, hemstitched with colored borders, reduced from 10c.

Interesting Special Prices in House Furnishing Department.

4.69 56 piece English decorated tea sets, worth 6.50.
10c Decorated coffee cups and saucers, worth 20c.
15c 2 qt granite sauce pans, worth 20c.
3c Cake turners, worth 7c.
9c Dover egg beaters, worth 15c.
3c Asbestos stove mats, worth 8c.
15c Wire sink baskets, worth 21c.
4c Flat iron cleaner and wax, worth 10c.
4c Scrub brushes, worth 10c.
13c Wooden pails, worth 20c.
25c Large round wash boilers, worth 35c.
4c Large Christy bread knives, worth 10c.
2c ft., Metallic weather strip.
3.50 "Brightest and Best" oil heaters.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

"My Mother-in-law." We all have one more or less. When she tries to rule the roost she can make it very warm for the poor husband. She will be here in Ullie Akerstrom's new comedy at Music Hall next Thursday night, and clever comedians will convulse you with laughter in portraying her moods.

* * * * * *

Plays with a heart interest having a bearing on some familiar spot or tradition always appeal largely to the average theatre goer. In "The Sleeping City," which comes to Music Hall tonight, the author has built around the various types of character to be found in the American metropolis after midnight a most interesting story. Battery Park, the Germania Club, Hudson River docks, and a typical East River den represent localities well known to every New Yorker and of no less interest to those who have never seen their like. The plot tells of the oppression of the poor by the rich, introducing character sketches of real life in a tanglible story of thrilling denouement. Picturesque stage pictures claim the attention of the auditor, and clever mechanical devices excite the wonder and admiration of all. The company engaged for this production includes dramatic talent of known reputation who have been thoroughly schooled in the different roles they essay. Specialties of a high order will be introduced.

* * * * * *

The success of "Chris and the Wonderful Lamp," the new extravaganza in which Jerome Sykes and Edna Wallace Hopper made their first New York appearance as stars at the Victoria Theatre, Monday night, was an event of importance to all who follow the theatre with discriminating taste. It has brought before the public an attraction which has justified every advance promise made for it, and has proved that, after all, to make a big spectacle appreciated, it is not necessary to descend to vulgarity. Of all the managers who have tried to woo fortune by means of extravaganza, Klaw & Erlanger and B. D Stevens alone have stood out consistently for clean performances. In the production of "Chris" they spent more money to make it a magnificent spectacle than had previously been expended on any two enterprises of corresponding aim and magnitude. The scenery alone forms a series of pictures worth a long journey to see, and is so elaborate in design and brilliant in coloring as to make most other stage settings look like canvas stencilled with leaden colors. The chorus is exquisitely costumed and is composed of pretty girls who actually have fresh young faces and can sing. Edna Wallace-Hopper is the ideal of the role of "Chris," who is a youth about town with an appetite for the gaieties of life which keeps busy the mystic lamp, upon which the story hangs. Jerome Sykes, the mischief-making genei, the best laugh-maker on the stage, is big, naturally funny and can really act and sing.

HILLIER & CO.

Silk Waists Cleaned.

are the folks.

Can't call? Then send and they'll call.

$1.25 to $2.00

129 W. Front St.

Tel. 851.

Only Three Indictments.

The Somerset Grand Jury found only three indictments last week, and the criminal business will be very light this term of court. Trials begin next Monday. "Mike" Manning, charged with assault and battery, pleads not guilty.

Lawyer Charles J. McNabb and family have taken up their residence in the Jackson building.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP DEBATE.

Important Topic to be Discussed by the Arguers of the Y. M. C. A.

The public debate and entertainment to be given next Monday evening by the Y. M. C. A. in the large hall promises to be a novel affair. The question to be debated will be: Resolved, "That the United States should own all public railroads and telegraph lines within its domains." O. S. Rogers and T. A. Cuming will take the affirmative and George S. Clay and J. H. Crane the negative. Besides the debate there will be a cornet solo by Robert W. Davis; recitation by Paul S. Whitall; oration, C. M. Dollver; vocal solo, T. A. Cuming; reading by C. R. Drange of one of Lord Bacon's essays. A. B. Meredith will be the literary critic to decide the debate.

TERRORIZED BY INCENDIARIES.

Flemington Orders New Fire Alarm—Reward for Firebugs' Arrest.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Flemington, Jan. 5.—The residents of this place and Three Bridges dread the approach of the hour between 7 and 8 o'clock at night. All the fires started recently by the firebugs have occurred at that time, and the citizens momentarily expect the fire alarm to sound when the time arrives. The Board of Village Trustees, of this place, have ordered a new fire alarm to be put in at once, so that no time will be lost in locating a conflagration.

No clue has been found to the incendiaries. A reward of $250 was offered by the trustees for the arrest of the guilty parties. This swells the reward to $750.

Big Fire at Cranford

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Jan. 5.—Fire was discovered on roof of the ice plant owned by Brady Brothers at Cranford this morning at 7:35 o'clock. The plant, barns and outbuildings with wagons were burned. The horses were saved. The loss is $10 000, partly covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—If you want trading stamps and your laundry work done to suit you go to City Steam and Hand Laundry, No. 19 Somerset street.

—The consecration service of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Park Avenue Baptist church tonight will be led by Miss Emma B. Fish.

—Borden's unsweetened condensed milk, fluid milk. Extra fine sweet cream and whipped cream made to order. Debele's creamery. Telephone or postal orders attended to.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Ethel Conkey, of Summit avenue, is recovering from a tedious illness.

Seymour G. Smith and family have moved from Putnam avenue to 323 Carlton avenue.

Willard Force and bride, who were married a few days ago at Washington, this State, are visiting Plainfield relatives for a short time.

Mrs. D. Kendall Smith and daughter, of Syracuse, are visiting Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Seymour G. Smith, of Carlton avenue.

Miss Katharyn Reinhart, of Netherwood, was one of the guests at the Wednesday cotillion given this week at Delmonico's in New York.

Mrs. Gilbert Fletcher, of Brooklyn, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Emmons, of Jackson avenue, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson, of Newark, have been visiting at the home of Mr. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson, of Duer street.

The Misses Minnie and Gertrude Mills, of Middletown, N. Y., are expected Monday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mills, of East Fifth street, for a few days.

A quiet wedding took place Tuesday at the rectory of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Flatbush, L. I. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Jackson. The bride was Miss Florence Edith Smith, and the groom Herbert C. Strong, both of Brooklyn. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. K. C. Philpott, of West Front street, this city.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	High Score.
Roselle Casino	7	2	911
Park Club	3	3	864
Westfield Club	3	3	826
Cranford Casino	2	7	843

WHIST

The inter-city whist tournament will be continued in the rooms of the New York Whist Club Saturday evening. There is every prospect that Arthur A. Freeman, one of the Park Club team, will win one of the individual prizes.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

TELEPHONE 722.
MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.

Friday Night, Jan. 5, 1900.

A. Q. SCAMMON'S COMPANY IN THE GREAT SUCCESS

"THE . . : : SLEEPING : : . . CITY."

Realistic Pictures of New York Life After Dark.....

Midnight Happenings in the Great Metropolis! Sensational Scenes! Humorous Complications! Up-to-Date New York Singing and Dancing Specialties!

PRICES—25, 35, 50 and 75c.

Thursday Night, Jan. 11,

ULLIE ACKERSTROM

in the Laughing Comedy

"My Mother-In-Law"

Presented by a well-selected

Company of Comedians.

Scintillating with Wit

and

Incessant Laughter.

Prices 25, 35, 50 and 75c.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm

cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

GEO. W. COLE.

UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER.

200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.

OFFICE OPEN D.Y AND NIGHT.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

FUR ROBES and blankets for sale. 403 West Seventh St. 1 4 2

WANTED—A cashier in Plainfield store; wages to start three dollars per week. Address N. P. C., care Press. 1 4 2

ONE comfortable room, with excellent table, at moderate terms. 1121 Putnam avenue. 1 2 6

WANTED—Girl for general housework in family of three. Mrs. E. B Smith, 2 Waynewood place, corner West Front St.

HOUSE and store, corner Plainfield avenue and Fourth street, for sale cheap. Apply R Frucht. 1 5 6

WANTED—Two competent white girls, one as cook and laundress, the other as chambermaid and waitress. Apply, with references, 31 Rockview Avenue.

TO RENT in private house, a large, furnished front room, with hot-water heat; centrally located. Address M, care Press. 1 5 2

COMPETENT nurse, best references. Address Mrs. Abbot, care Press. 1 5 2

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 22 tf

FURNISHED rooms to let. 322 East Fifth St. 1 3 4

ROOM to rent in my house; suitable for office. Dr. Knott, 157 Crescent Ave. 1 3 3

STORE to let, No 220 Park avenue. Apply R. Frucht. 1 5 6

WOMEN can secure good home for winter, $10 per month. Call 114 New St., before 9 a. m. 1 3 3

FIRST CLASS Guernsey and Durham Cow for sale. Inquire Mrs. Gaghen, 316 Lee Place. 1 3 3

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

WANTED—Experienced cook. Apply Superintendent Muhlenberg Hospital. 12 27 tf

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 2d

—Use Press want ads.

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

Massage, Manicuring, Hair Dressing, Shampooing, Facial Massage and Steaming.

MISS HOLMES, Graduate of New York Schools of Massage, Electricity and Dermatology.
440 W. Front St., near Washington Ave.

THE

First National Bank,

of Plainfield, N. J.

Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.

DIRECTORS.

Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Corlell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

Demulcent Cream

Will soften the skin.
Will prevent roughness.
Will please everyone.

"Is a Delightful Cream to use."

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:24 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:49 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:49 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday; temperature will continue about freezing. Ther. 50.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1900. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

NEW YEAR BUSINESS FOR BOROUGH COUNCIL

First Session Found Two of the Members Absent.

SENATOR REED'S REPORT

CONCERNS THE LOCATION OF CULVERTS IN THE BOROUGH.

Board of Freeholders Will Aid the Borough Officials in Making the Improvements — Dr. D. C. Adams Reappointed to the Board of Health — Report of Collector Brown — Other Business.

The Mayor and Borough Council did not make a good beginning last evening when they held their first meeting for the new year, as not all the members were present, Messrs. Swackhamer and Codington being among the missing. Another thing that urged against a good beginning was the fact that it was nearly 8:30 o'clock when the Mayor called the meeting to order. But inasmuch as that body has made no New Year resolutions they have broken none, and on that basis they are perhaps excused.

The report of Collector Brown, which includes that of Clerk Frank Bowley was presented as follows: Taxes and interest, $19 852.44; special school, $7,971.77; Board of Health, $245.83; Watchung avenue, $46.97; rent of property sold for taxes, $13; received from fines for November, $8.75; received from street railway, stone and labor, $33.65; balance, December 1st, $6,065 30; disbursements, $23,050.01; balance January 1st, $1,187.70; borough, $10 935 51; Watchung, $252.19.

Borough Council Charles A. Reed made a report concerning the Watchung avenue matter in dispute. He stated that the court had set aside five cases of assessments, but had reassessed them at the same figures, the only difference being that they had extended the line of limitation across the entire property instead of part way. He said that the property-owners reserve the right to carry their cases to the Court of Errors and Appeals if they desire to.

Mayor Smalley stated that January 15th the term of Dr. D. C. Adams, as a member of the Board of Health, would expire. He therefore re-appointed him for a term of four years and the Council confirmed the appointment.

A lengthy report was received from Counsel Reed regarding the location of culverts in the borough, according to a request of the Council at a previous meeting. He reported that the county is liable for them where they are neccessary to carry off water on the highway. He stated that the county is using iron pipes, and that they will furnish them in the borough. When the borough desires to lay culverts and crosswalks combined the county will furnish the culverts, dig the trenches and put up the side pieces, but the borough will have to pay for the flagging on top. It is for the Board of Freeholders to decide what shall be used for culverts. This proposition was considered a reasonable one and no doubt will be accepted. To save further trouble on the subject Mr. Reed's report will be placed on the minutes of the Council.

Clerk Bowley informally reported at this time that Recorder Long had reported to him the collection of $41 from fines for December. This was followed by the report of Mr. Clark, chairman of the street committee. This report showed that during the past month there was expended $74 21. With the receipt of $33 65 from the street railway company the total balance Dec 1st was $115 30, and the balance Jan. 1st was $374 74.

A resolution offered by Mr. Rogers was to the effect that Collector Brown be authorized to accept $170 45 1:98 tax on the property owned by J. J. Henderson. Mr. Clark introduced a resolution granting a crosswalk on Sycamore avenue at its intersection with Myrtle and Willow avenues. The matter was discussed at some length and finally deferred until a sidewalk is laid at a section in that vicinity known as "The Point." Mr. Valiant offered a resolution that Collector Brown be authorized to deduct such sums as have been collected from rent on the property at 106 Duer street. In connection with this Street Commissioner Doud remarked that there was a standing notice against that property for a sidewalk that has been ordered laid. This remark made some of the members feel sorry that they had said anything, but it is quite likely that the borough will lay the walk and pay for it, as the property is in their hands.

In connection with the above it was suggested the collector be allowed something for his trouble in taking

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 4.]

NEW YEAR STARTED WELL

MANAGER EDWARDS' ATTENDANCE WAS ENCOURAGING.

Good Entertainments are Promised for the Future—"The Turtle," a New York Success, Will be Seen the 19th

The new year began auspiciously with Manager Maze Edwards at Music Hall, and there was good attendance at the high-class vaudeville performances of that day, but not as large as that of the Christmas Day entertainment.

The favorable out door weather, the skating conditions, social gatherings and public dances, drew heavily from the play house, but there were good gatherings and the day as a whole was satisfactory alike to the manager and audiences. The Toozoonin Arabs proved to be all that was told of them and are truly wonderful performers. The other features of the programme were good, and the several artists participating therein acquitted themselves in a creditable manner. "The Sleeping City" was the offering last night, attracting a fair audience. It is a melodrama of considerable merit, well acted by a competent cast, interspersed with pleasing specialties, affording good entertainment.

"Shamas O'Brien," which was booked for Tuesday, 9th inst, will be seen probably at a later date. The company management had opportunity of playing a city engagement for a week, so postponement under these circumstances, is unavoidable. Two good attractions, however, are promised for the coming week. The first being the appearance of Miss Ulie Akerstrom in a laughable farce comedy, entitled "My Mother-in-law," Thursday, 11th inst. Miss Akerstrom is a very pleasing comedienne, who a few years ago was one of the most popular of actresses, her renditions being compared to those of Lotta and Maggie Mitchell. She made great success but retired for a time, reappearing with renewed success in her present play, which is said to be highly entertaining.

The great impersonator of Yankee character, J. C. Lewis, supported by a grand double company, is to appear at two performances—matinee and night—Saturday, 13th inst. The play is one of the most realistic pictures of country life ever drawn. It has four acts which are brim full of funny situations and comic specialties. The company has a brass band and full orchestra, of which every member is a solo artist, and make the famous Burlesque Farmer Street parade at noon Saturday, rain or shine. There will also be band concerts before each performance.

A probable change in management of an attraction booked for Tuesday, 16th inst., prevents positive announcement of same this week, but we are promised the famous New York and Paris sensation—"The Turtle"—on Friday, 19th inst. This play had a run of over two years at Theatre des Nouveates, in Paris, is still being played in Berlin, and had the unprecedented run of over 200 nights at the Manhattan theatre, New York, turning people away every night. It will be seen here with a splendid cast of New York artists. Vogel & Deming's great minstrel company, headed by the immitable Arthur Deming, will appear the following week and the balance of the month will witness some other pleasing novelties.

CHAS. TISCH MISSING.

Is Brother of Mrs. Chas. Denckiau, of East Second Street and Lives in New York.

Charles Tisch, of 227 East 84th street, New York, a brother of Mrs. Charles Denckiau, of East Second street, this city, is missing from his home in New York. He was last seen Sunday afternoon. He is fifty-nine years of age, dark complexion, gray hair, partially bald, has beard and moustache. When last seen, he was dressed in a black cheviot suit, black overcoat and black derby. He has a plain gold ring on the third finger of his left hand.

Trolley Company Has Downtown Office

The Plainfield Street Railway Company has established a downtown office on the second floor of the building at the corner of North and Watchung avenues. Inspector Charles C. Lister makes his headquarters there now. The system of signals regulating the movement of the cars on the Scotch Plains line will be established there.

Mr. Barrows Elected a Director.

Former Councilman E. T. Barrows has been elected a member of the board of directors of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club in place of the late Josiah Browne, and it is quite probable that he may be elected to fill the office held by Mr. Browne when the annual meeting of the club is held next month.

—Press want ads pay.

OVERHEAD BRIDGE CRUSHED HIS SKULL.

C. E. Chesterfield, Brakeman, Killed at Terrill Road.

IT HAPPENED YESTERDAY.

STOOD UP ON CAR JUST IN TIME TO MEET DEATH.

Was Brakeman on Local West Bound Freight—Had Only Been in Company's Employ a Few Weeks—Body Brought to Plainfield on Top of Car—County Physician Granted Burial Permit.

As the local freight train, bound from Jersey City to Bound Brook, passed under the overhead bridge at Terrill road, two miles east of the Plainfield station on the Jersey Central Railroad, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Brakeman C. E. Chesterfield met death suddenly and without warning.

He was climbing from the rear of the tender to the first of the freight cars. The warning ropes that tell of the approach of the bridge had passed over his head when he stepped on the top of the car. The firemen in the cab of engine No. 414, which was pulling the train, saw the edge of the bridge strike the brakeman on the side of the head and then saw him topple over on the top of the freight car.

The side of the skull was crushed in and he must have died instantly. When the crew saw that he was dead, they allowed the body to remain on the car until they reached Plainfield, when it was taken into the baggage room. The blood from the gapping wound flowed down the side of the car and froze, forming a grewsome sight. The body was afterwards taken to Cole's undertaking establishment. County Physician Westcott was summoned and he granted a burial permit.

Chesterfield lived in Bayonne with his wife and four children. He was thirty years old. He had only been in the employ of the company for a few weeks. The efforts of the railroad officials to find his family last evening were unavailing, but they were notified this morning. The remains will be taken to Bayonne today for the funeral and interment.

NEW MARKET WAKES UP.

Citizens Bestir Themselves in an Effort to Secure an Industry Employing 200 Men.

A meeting was held last evening at Casteline's Hotel to secure an expression of the citizens of New Market with regard to raising a sufficient amount of money to secure the location of the E. B. Colby & Co.'s plant at that place.

At a recent meeting of the Township Committee of Piscataway township, it was decided that the law prohibited the township from exempting a manufacture from taxation. To obviate this difficulty it is thought possible that a sufficient sum of money can be raised to guarantee the Colby Company.

The Colby Company manufactures iron and employes about 200 hands. Much interest is taken in the matter and it is believed that the company can be induced to move its plant to New Market if it can be assurred of fair treatment.

AT HOPE CHAPEL.

Rev. Dr. Erdman Delivered a Scholarly Address Last Night.

The interesting and scholarly address delivered by Rev. Dr. Erdman, of Morristown, at Hope Memorial chapel last evening, was listened to by a fair-sized audience. Before beginning his discourse Dr. Erdman said he wished to extend his hearty congratulations to the members of the congregation for their successful efforts in beautifying and making attractive their new edifice.

Dr. Erdman's theme was "The Christian's Use of the Bible," and his text was taken from Ephesians, 6:17, "The Sword of the Spirit is the Word of God."

Dr. Erdman expressed the opinion that the Bible was a finished revelation for a guidance to His people—to make them understand His purpose and the spiritual knowledge which He wished to convey to all mankind.

Expensive Language.

It cost James Slayne $3 in police court this morning for using abusive language on New Year's day towards Mrs. Thomas Fineran, of 213 Spooner avenue, where at that time they both occupied apartments in the same house. Slayne has since moved to 629 West Third street. The arrest was made by Officer Flanagan.

F. H. Martin will lead the meeting at the East Third Street Mission tomorrow evening at eight o'clock.

PREPARING FOR SNOW.

WHAT THE LOCAL TROLLEY COMPANY IS DOING.

Most of the Cars Have Scrapers—Two Open Cars Are Equipped With Large Plows at the Ends—Other Preparations.

The trolley system composed of the Plainfield Street Railway and the Elizabeth and Westfield Street Railway, is making quite extensive preparations to meet any snowstorm that may sweep across this section. When the Plainfield line was the only field of operation it was not so difficult, except when a young blizzard swept down, to keep the tracks clean. With the long line to Cranford to be looked after the advent of the snow promises some lively work.

Most of the cars are now equipped with the iron scrapers in front of the wheels, which may be lowered at will. These scrapers are expected to take care of a small fall of snow, provided it does not drift.

Two of the open cars have been equipped with large wooden plows on either end. These plows are set low so as to almost touch the rails. A moderate fall of snow up to a foot in depth can be removed by them unless the snow drifts.

In case of drifts, it will be necessary to shovel out the worst of them while the regular horse plows, such as were used by the trolley company last year, will be put into service to care for the smaller ones. In case of a big storm, an attempt will be made to keep the cars running as long as the storm lasts to keep the track open.

The experiences of the Brunswick Traction Company, last year, makes it possible that the local company will have plenty of work to do in keeping its tracks open in case of a heavy snow storm accompanied by high winds.

VETERAN MILKMAN GONE

DROPPED DEAD AT A NEIGHBOR'S HOME LAST EVENING.

Isaac Soper, Who Has Conducted a Milk Route in This City for Forty Years, Passed Away Suddenly—Was 66 Years Old.

Isaac Soper, the veteran milkman who was born and bred on a farm just outside of South Plainfield, dropped dead at the home of Henry Teeple, a neighbor, last evening at 8 o'clock. Soper was apparently in good health yesterday morning when he covered his milk route in this city as usual.

Passing by the home of Henry Teeple, he was asked to leave some milk. When he reached the Teeple home, complained of feeling faint and sat down. He asked for water and it was given it. His son, Albert, with whom he lives, was summoned, as was also Dr. Buchanan. He did not appear to grow any better and died almost immediately. He had suffered from similar fainting spells before. Heart trouble was the cause.

Mr. Soper was well known throughout Middlesex county and in this city as well. He ran a milk route in this city for forty years. He was born in South Plainfield 66 years ago. He was a professing Christian and belonged to the South Plainfield Baptist church. He leaves two sons, both married. He lived with Albert, who ran the farm. Charles is a section boss on the Lehigh Valley Railroad. His wife died a number of years ago.

It was his habit to tie his horse every morning on West Second street in front of Trinity Reformed church and eat his breakfast there. There were many in this city who knew him and exchanged a pleasant word with him as they passed.

HER SANITY QUESTIONED.

Mrs. Louis Kehl Will Be Examined by Physicians—The Police Took Charge of Her.

Mrs. Louis Kehl, of 150 East Front street, was brought down to police headquarters this morning to be examined as to her sanity. Two years ago the woman was an inmate of the Hudson County Asylum for the insane at Snake Hill. She was released Sept. 2d and returned to her home in this city. Of late Mrs. Kehl has given evidence of again being of unsound mind. She imagines that her relatives in Germany are trying to defraud her of her rights to some property in that country. Several days ago she began to cut up her clothing and do other acts that led her husband and friends to believe that she has again become insane. At the suggestion of Mayor Rockfellow a commission in lunacy will be appointed to examine her to determine whether it is best to have her returned to the asylum. She has a husband, but no childr n.

—W. R. Brokaw has rented the store at 207 Park avenue and will take possession about Febuary 1st. You can find some good bargains at his present store, 123 East Front street, before his removal.

ARMISTICE DECLARED IN LICENSE FIGHT.

Applicant Wasn't Ready and Hearing Was Adjourned.

ARMY OF WITNESSES THERE

FIGHT OF SCOTCH PLAINS CITIZENS' LEAGUE AGAINST H. P. CARROLL.

He Wants a License For Thatcher's Old Roadhouse, "The Gables"—Represented in Court by W. R. Codington—Citizens' League Had Lawyers Brady and Murray—Linden Application Refused

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, January 6.—The battle has not yet been won by either the Scotch Plains Citizens' League or H. P. Carroll, who is trying to secure a license for George Thatcher's roadhouse. It was expected that there would be a bitter fight in the County Court here this morning when Judge Vail had set down the hearing for the application. The applicant wasn't ready, however, and despite the objections of the legal counsel of the Citizens' League, the matter was deferred for two weeks.

The court first heard the application of Mrs Allan Petrus for an inn and tavern license at Linden. She was represented in court by Former Judge W. A. Coddington, of Plainfield. A very strong remonstrance, signed by many of the citizens of Linden, was presented. After consideration, Judge Vail refused to grant the license.

At 11 o'clock, the application of H. P. Carroll for a license for his road house on South avenue, just beyond the Plainfield city line, was called. Former Assemblyman W. R. Codington, of Plainfield, appeared in behalf of the applicant and declared that they were not yet ready to go ahead.

The Citizen's League was represented by Lawyers Irving Brady and Wiliam D. Murray, of Plainfield. Mr. Murray opposed the adjournment of the case as he said the League had gone to considerable expense to have the witnesses on hand. There was a small army of witnesses while Rev. Gideon M Shott was a conspicuous personage in the court room.

The Judge ruled that the applicant had the right to prove that his application and the signers to the same were legally all right and that he was entitled to apply for the licence. Therefore the objectors had nothing to do but wait until the applicant should do so. The consideration of the application was thefore adjourned for two weeks.

METHODISTS UNITE.

Will Hold Union Week of Prayer Services Next Week in the Different Churches Alternately.

Union Week of Prayer services of the three M. E. churches of this city and borough will be held next week. Monday and Tuesday evenings the services will be held in the Grace M. E. church North Plainfield. Wednesday evening the service will be in the First M. E. church on West Front street. Thursday and Friday evenings there will be services in the Monroe Avenue M. E. church. The Epworth Leaguers of the city will conduct the meeting Monday evening. The Friday evening service will be in the interest of Sunday-school evangelism.

AFTER TROUSERS THIEF.

Requisition Papers Have Been Secured From Gov. Stone and Chief Grant Has Gone After McDonald.

Chief Grant yesterday secured from Gov. Stone, of Pennsylvania, the necessary papers to secure Frank McDonald, who is wanted for burglarizing the clothing establishment of Mantz Bros., in this city some weeks ago. The Chief left this morning for Easton, Pa., to bring back McDonald, who has been serving a two months' sentence in jail there.

TELEPHONE WAR.

Plainfielder is Chief Electrician of New York's New Company.

New York has the prospect of a telephone war before it. The Knickerbocker Telephone Company has entered the field there with a big capital behind it. Its rates have just been announced and they promise to give the New York Telephone Company a lively competition. Willard M Miner, of East Sixth street, this city, is the chief electrician of the Knickerbocker Company.

A Missionary Address.

A union foreign missionary meeting, addressed by Rev. S B Rossiter, D.D., representative secretary of the McAll Mission, will be held in the chapel of the Crescent Avenue church Tuesday next at 3:30 p. m.

—Use Press want ads.

MORE HOSE IS NEEDED.

PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES OF PLAINFIELD FIRE DEPARTMENT.

There is Enough Hose for Ordinary Purposes But Special Emergency Would Find Department in Difficult Position.

One of the items that the fire committee of the new Common Council will try to place on its part of the city budget will be an appropriation for the purchase of a supply of new hose for the fire department. While the present supply is large enough for the ordinary run of affairs, a special emergency would find the city ill prepared to meet it.

According to the last report of Chief Doane, presented to the Council last December, the present stock of hose was reported to be 3,200 feet in fair condition and 1,500 feet in poor condition, 4,700 feet in all. The newest hose is now three years old and the rest has been in service five years or more.

The usual life of fire hose is five or six years. After that time it is not reliable and is apt to burst or split at any time. There is really only a little over 3 000 feet of hose that is in any condition for active service without the immediate danger of bursting. Each of the three hose wagons in use holds 1 000 feet of hose so most of the available hose is used in supplying the wagons.

An ordinary fire would not utilize all the 3 000 feet so there would be no trouble, but if Plainfield should have a serious conflagration there might be serious results from the lack of an extra supply in good condition. The old hose could be used, of course, but it is doubtful whether much of it could stand the strain for any length of time.

After being used it is now the custom to hang the hose up in the hose tower to dry while the hose wagons are loaded with dry hose. Especially in the winter when the hose freezes the moment the water is turned off and becomes very difficult to handle it is proper to have an extra supply of dry hose available that can be used to replace the hose on the wagons. At present this cannot be done. A rapid succession of fires, especially if they were at all serious, would find the department badly handicapped.

Last year the committee tried to get the necessary funds with which to purchase new hose, but failed. Another attempt will be made this year. It is believed that it will be a more economical plan to purchase a small amount of new hose each year rather than have to wait some time and then lay in a large supply.

WIDENING SOMERSET ST.

Special Meeting of Borough Council Will be Held Some Evening Next Week.

Next week some evening the Mayor and Borough Council will meet to consider the widening of Somerset street from the county line to Jackson avenue, and the property-owners along the line will be invited to attend and give expression to their opinion on the matter. All of the necessary data has been secured as to cost, etc., and this information will be given out at the special meeting. The improvement seems to be constantly growing in favor among boroughites in general. It is thought, however, that the borough should stand the expense and not those alone who live along the line. The expense will probably be in the neighborhood of $5,000, and if the borough stands it this will come very light on all, and thus a highly important improvement made possible.

No Trolley Before Springtime.

It is hardly possible for the Westfield and Elizabeth Railway Company to construct its tracks on Jersey avenue, from the Elizabeth line to West Jersey street, before spring sets in. The company has ample time under the provisions of the ordinances adopted by Roselle and the city council to complete its road, and set cars to running. It will be several months before the company can make connections with Aldene, where it crosses a branch of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, and at Cranford, where it will have to build an overhead bridge in order to cross the tracks of the B.&O. road.

Death of William Neill.

William Neill, who for over twenty-seven years conducted one of the most extensive meat establishments in Elizabeth, died yesterday at his home in Roselle, where for two years he had been leading a retired life. He was born and raised in New York city, where for many years prior to his removal to Elizabeth he conducted a meat business in Washington Market. He was seventy-five years old and is survived by a widow and an adopted daughter, Mrs. Hoagland, of Roselle, with whom he lived.

ALL WANT TO WIDEN SOMERSET STREET.

But There Were Lively Times When Discussion Started.

AFTER COUNCIL MEETING.

MAYOR AND BOROUGH COUNCIL EXCHANGED FRANK OPINIONS.

After Much Talking and Many Compliments, a Motion Was Made and Carried That the Improvement be Made—Question is Regarding How Expense is to be Met—Another Meeting to be Held.

The proposition to widen Somerset street is now as a patient received for treatment by the Mayor and Borough Council and after the regular business was considered at last evening's session of the Council, the Mayor and Councilman took up the case and after a lengthy and somewhat excited discussion, reached that point where they are now ready to diagnose it. This will be done at a meeting in the near future.

It required considerable time for the officials to determine when they wanted to discuss the subject. After a waste of much time someone suggested that the subject be taken up at once and thus secure an idea as to what could be done and how. Everyone favored the widening of the street. Mayor Smalley stated that the work of widening, installing a storm sewer, fixing the gutters, placing wires underground, would cost about $5,000, and he thought this amount should come out of the general fund. No doubt there would be some objection to this plan, but that was to be expected. He said it was the intention to widen the street five feet on each side. One advantage in doing the work, he said, was that there was established a building line which gives the borough certain rights. At present, the trolley controls the street, and he thought something should be done to relieve the congested state of affairs. In his mind there was no doubt but that the trolley injures the business of the merchants on Somerset street. In explaining the cost of the improvement he said the bulk of it would be for the storm sewer, which would be one of the greatest improvements. He suggested that the work be done this year, and the expense be put in next year's budget.

Borough Counsel Reed informed the Council that the proceedings would have to be according to law and that the work would have to be the same as that in opening a new street. He told the Council that they could not make debts in the future.

Then came a discussion as to whether the people of the borough would be willing to stand such a high pressure next year, if $5,000 was added to the budget together with the $10,000 on account of Watchung avenue. It was determined that it would increase the tax about 63 per cent, but that there would be no trouble in having the time extended on the Watchung avenue bonds.

Mr. Rogers criticised Mr. Reed's opinion. Mayor Smalley took occasion to inform the Council that if last year's Council had not left them a legacy in the form of a $5,000 note to pay, the present administration would be better off. To this Mr. Rogers took exception and said that it would be impossible for the present administration to escape leaving a legacy, that it wasn't in the wood. His Honor said it was in the wood and the people would see it when the annual report was presented.

Mr. Valiant entered the discussion and strongly objected to the aspersions cast on last year's Council by His Honor. He said that the people received value for every dollar spent by last year's Council.

The Mayor thought some of the returns of last year's Council were poor, and pointed out that up to the present time last year the Council had borrowed $26 000, while this year's Council had borrowed about $20,000 less. To this Mr. Valiant replied that if the Mayor had not persisted in reducing the tax rate this year the Council would have had more money to meet some expenses.

As things were becoming warm with the end of the meeting no where in sight, Mr. Reed suggested a motion to abolish the rule against smoking, but the Councilmen didn't see the joke.

Mr. Clark suggested that it would be a good idea to have a motion before the Council so that the members would have something definite to talk about. Mr. Valiant thought likewise and expressed the opinion that the Council was out of order.

Then followed a widely exciting time in getting the proper motion be-

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 6.]

GILLMORE RESCUED.

All Americans Held by Northern Filipinos Set Free.

LONG AND REMARKABLE PURSUIT.

The Lieutenant's Capture Recalled. American Flag Hoisted on Another Island, to the Pleasure of the Natives.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—General Otis has cabled the war department that Lieutenant Colonel Howze has rescued Lieutenant Gillmore and all of the other prisoners held by the Filipinos in the north.

Colonel Hare and Lieutenant Colonel Howze, with a picked force of several hundred men, has been on the trail of the insurgents for weeks. The official dispatch read:

"Colonels Hare and Howze just arrived at Vigan, northwest Luzon, with all American prisoners. Their successful pursuit a remarkable achievement. Generals Schwan and Wheaton now with separate columns in Cavite province. Affairs in Luzon north of Manila greatly improved."

Lieutenant Gillmore was captured last May. When the gunboat Yorktown was sent to Baler to relieve a Spanish garrison that had been besieged for a year and did not know that the war was over, Gillmore was sent in a small boat to land Ensign Standley, who was to steal through the Filipino lines to open communication with the garrison.

LIEUTENANT J. C. GILLMORE.

Hearing firing ashore, Gillmore, thinking Standley was attacked, took his boat up a creek and was captured with his crew of 14 men after a sharp fight.

Standley succeeded in making his way back to the shore and was taken off by the Yorktown's whaleboat.

For weeks it was not known whether Gillmore and his men had been massacred or captured.

The war department has received a cable message from General Otis saying that the troopship Logan and the naval transport Wyefield have arrived safely at Manila.

The United States navy has taken possession of another island in the east. The news of the seizure was contained in the following dispatch, dated Cavite, Jan. 5, and signed by Rear Admiral Watson:

"On Dec. 21 Wentzbaugh, commanding the Albay, a little gunboat, hoisted the flag on Sibutu island, and the chief dato provided and raised the pole. Natives and north Borneo authorities pleased."

Woolsey on the Flour Seizure.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 6.—Professor Theodore S. Woolsey of the chair of international law at Yale university, discussing in an interview the questions arising out of the British seizure of American flour and German vessels, said: "In the case of the seizure of American flour the one country cannot afford nor can the other country permit any such principle as this which Great Britain in its extremity seems to be clutching at. It is apparent that she is laying down a terribly dangerous precedent for herself." Professor Woolsey preferred not to express a detailed opinion as to the seizure of German vessels until the facts had become more manifest. He added that the seizure of goods alleged to be contraband in the Suez canal might give rise to a larger controversy than a mere ordinary seisure would occasion.

Boston Journal Changes.

BOSTON, Jan. 6.—Stephen O'Meara, the editor and publisher of the Boston Journal, has secured the majority interest in that property. Mr. O'Meara has bought for cash $100,000 in new stock and $50,000 in old stock. The old stock is bought pro rata from the stockholders already in the company, all of whom retain their interests. The majority now held by Mr. O'Meara is made up of these purchases combined with the original holding. The money paid for the new stock goes into the treasury of the company for development.

Paris Green In Cistern.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 6.—Quite a sensation occurred in Belpre, a small town across the Ohio river from here, when it was discovered that some one had emptied two gallons of paris green into a large cistern belonging to Sam Wilcoxen. Others in the neighborhood get water from this place, and it was just by chance that the poison was discovered. This is the third attempt made to ruin Wilcoxen. Detectives are working on the case.

Veteran Missionary Lunched.

BOSTON, Jan. 6.—Rev. Dr. Cyrus Hamlin, the distinguished missionary and educational worker of the American board, was lunched yesterday in honor of his eighty-ninth birthday. The secretaries of the American and Woman's boards and prominent members of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions were his hosts.

Poor Year For Foreigners.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The British fire insurance companies doing business in the United States, according to the financial expert of The Daily Chronicle, had a bad year in 1899, the competition being so hot that it is getting doubtful whether it is worth their while to attempt to get business in the United States.

Strike Quickly Settled.

SOUTH MANCHESTER, Conn., Jan. 6.—The strike among the weavers in the white silk department of the Cheney Bros. mills, in which 350 of the mill hands took part, has been adjusted, and the 700 looms that were at a standstill for a day are running again.

THE BRAZNELL HORROR.

Officers In Charge of the Mine Declared Incompetent.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Jan. 6.—The coroner's jury in the Braznell mine horror, after three hours' deliberation, rendered the following verdict:

"We find from the evidence that the mine foreman of said mine was negligent in failing to see that the mine was in a safe condition before permitting workmen to enter it. We also believe that the fire boss of said mine was negligent in failing to make a daily verbal report to the mine foreman, and we believe both the mine and fire boss to be incompetent to perform their respective duties."

There has been no action taken as yet toward prosecuting the incriminated officials. This will be decided upon by a conference of the inspectors with Chief Inspector Roderick at an early date. Yesterday's session of the coroner's inquiry into the Braznell mine disaster was largely devoted to expert testimony as to the cause of the explosion and remedies and preventives for similar disasters.

GERMANY STILL EXCITED.

Anti-British Feeling Grows Stronger on Account of Recent Action.

BERLIN, Jan. 6.—The seizure of the Bundesrath remains the dominant topic of the German press. Influential papers like the Berliner Tageblatt, Cologne Volks Zeitung, Berliner Neueste Nachrichten, Hamburger Correspondenz and the semiofficial Berliner Post strongly hint at the possibility of Germany's forming an anti-British coalition with Russia and France.

The anti-British feeling is clearly growing. A series of anti-British demonstrations in the various cities is being organized by the Pan-Germanic League.

A prominent official of the German foreign office said that Great Britain had not yet answered Germany's request for an explanation of the seizure, but that the reply was expected in the course of a few days. The foreign office, according to this official, has not yet concluded that Great Britain is trying to ride roughshod over Germany.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Governor General Davis of Porto Rico arrived in New York.

The cabinet has definitely decided to send additional troops to Alaska in the spring.

The Lawton fund reached $45,721. Subscriptions will be received up to about Feb. 1.

The Great Western steamer Ibex foundered off the island of Guernsey. The passengers were saved.

Secretary Wilson in an interview pointed out the importance of the "open door" agreement with regard to China.

Vast quantities of food and fodder for the British army in South Africa are being shipped from the port of New York.

Mail advices from southern China report the defeat of the French by the Chinese in a battle over the boundary line.

Railroad Superintendent Shot.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Jan. 6.—John M. Resley, 60 years old, a clerk, shot and seriously wounded Charles W. Galloway, superintendent of the middle division of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, in the latter's office and, walking to the courthouse, gave himself up. An inventory of cars in the yard made up by Resley and claimed to be incorrect by the superintendent brought about the trouble. Hot words were followed by blows, and then three shots were fired. Resley claims that Galloway drew his gun first, but friends of the latter deny this. One of the shots shattered Galloway's elbow, another wounded him in the breast, while the third went wide of its mark.

To Save Chicago Temple.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—At a meeting of the board of temple trustees held at the temple, Chicago, a letter from Marshall Field was read in reply to one addressed to him by the trustees asking that he extend the time of his gift of $100,000 conditioned on the trustees raising enough to pay off the issue of $300,000 temple trust bonds from January, 1900, to January, 1901. Mr. Field acceded to the request. The trustees during the meeting perfected details of a plan which will be put in operation at once whereby the trustees expect to secure during the coming year a sum sufficient not only to pay off the bonds, but to buy the entire stock of the building.

Railroad Shop Burned.

ALTOONA, Pa., Jan. 6.—The Pennsylvania Railroad company's Juniata blacksmith shop was destroyed by fire yesterday, causing a loss of $160,000, covered by insurance. The building was of brick, 225 by 75 feet, and thoroughly equipped with hammers and machinery. The fire was apparently caused by a live electric wire. There were 60 men at work when the fire was discovered, and they had only time to save their personal effects before the roof fell. Several hundred men will be thrown out of employment as a result of the fire.

Discharged Without a Reason.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Jan. 6.—Eight Philadelphia and Reading Railway company conductors and brakemen have been discharged here, and when they asked an explanation the officials would not grant it. The men were experienced employees, and they say that the only reason for their dismissal is that they are members of the Brotherhood of Trainmen and were arranging to organize a branch of the order here next Sunday. Four trainmen belonging to the order were also discharged at Newberry.

More Time For Boat Builders.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The board on naval construction yesterday decided to recommend to the department that extensions of time allowed for the construction of the torpedo boats now building be granted to the contractors on account of the difficulty experienced by them in procuring structural steel.

Once Lived Near Syracuse.

SYRACUSE, Jan. 6.—Fayetteville people say the Starr woman, who claims John F. Gaynor as her husband, lived in that village 12 years ago, boarding with one of Gaynor's foremen. She claimed Savannah as her home and said that her father was a colonel in the civil war.

Two Negroes Hanged.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 6.—Charlie Wilson and Zack Singleton, negroes, were hanged here yesterday. Wilson killed a white soldier in September, 1898, and Singleton killed a negro companion in a gambling quarrel last November.

O'Neill's.

Sixth Ave., 20th to 21st St., N. Y.

OUR GREAT ANNUAL SALE

-- OF --

Women's Muslin Underwear

Begins This Week.

A little earlier, but with even greater opportunities than last year.

We have been preparing for this sale for a long time, gathering the best "The Trade" produced, and now we are ready for you with the largest and best stock of muslin underwear ever presented by any house in the City of New York.

OVER 75,000 PIECES!!

Every one perfect in fit, finish and material, and are made in the clean, light and well ventilated factories of upper New York State. They must not be confounded with the yellow, ill-fitting garments, made in the Sweatshops of New York and which are so frequently offered at so-called "Special Sales."

☞ Our Prices this year are the lowest ever made in the History of the Retail Underwear Trade.

Sixth Ave., 20th to 21st Street, New York.

Purity and Power of Tone,

Durability and Tone-Sustaining Quality are marked characteristics of the world-renowned

FISCHER PIANOS

The Fischer Piano is the result of nearly sixty years of honest and intelligent construction along the most progressive lines of piano manufacture, through which it has reached a reputation permanent and unsurpassed.

OVER 110,000 Grand and Upright. SOLD

Exquisitely designed and cased in rare and choice woods.

Sold at moderate prices. Cash or easy payments.

33 UNION SQUARE, WEST, Bet. 16th and 17th Streets, NEW YORK.

A large stock of second-hand and slightly used Pianos of our own and other prominent makes, taken in exchange for new Fischer Pianos will be sold at very low prices.

Catalogue, terms, etc., mailed free on application.

WANTED

25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds!

SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

THIS IS THE TIME

to protect your feet from the cold and damp---We can shoe you with reliable shoes at a small cost.

VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.

Repairing Properly Done.

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.

Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

LAIRE'S . .

: SPECIALS :

For This Week.

U. S. club skates.
Shinny sticks.
Skate Straps.
Boys' sleighs.
" coasters.
Steel snow shovels.
Wood " "
Carpet sweepers.
Oil heaters.
Parlor stoves reduced.

The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,

Tel. Call 682.

Irving Savings Institution.

114 CHAMBERS ST., NEW YORK CITY

The Trustees of this institution have declared interest on all sums remaining on deposit during the three and six months ending December 31, 1899, at the rate of FOUR PER CENT. per annum on amounts from $1 to $4,000, payable on and after Monday, January 15, 1900. Deposits made on or before January 10th will draw interest from January 1st.

J. W. H. B. TOTTEN, President
G. BYRON LATIMER, Secretary 12 26 10

TRY THE

QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No. 337 Park Avenue.

(Miller Building.)

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS.

CIGARS.

108 NORTH AVE.

John G. Bantle,

First-class

Ladies' and Gent's

TAILOR.

428 Watchung Avenue.

Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

TELEPHONE 1163.

Your Valuables

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS

For the Fire-place. Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates. Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.

CURTIS M. THORPE,

310-312 PARK AVENUE.

"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIRE-PLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,

—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—

109 Park avenue. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87.

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 109 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711,
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 405 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,

Watchmakers and Jewelers.

219 Park Avenue.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.

A Big Assortment.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.

Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

Defective Eyes.

Overstrained and Defective Eyes are the cause of many a

HEADACHE.

Correctly-fitted Glasses will remedy the trouble. A Scientific Examination Free and Glasses Guaranteed.

STILES & CO.,

107 E. Front St.

EVERY THURSDAY.

Hours: 10:30 to 5:00.

BAD BLOOD

"CASCARETS do all claimed for them and are a truly wonderful medicine. I have often wished for a medicine pleasant to take and at last have found it in Cascarets. Since taking them my blood has been purified and my complexion has improved wonderfully and I feel much better in every way. MRS. SALLIE E. SELLARS, Luttrell, Tenn.

CANDY CATHARTIC Cascarets TRADE MARK REGISTERED REGULATE THE LIVER

Pleasant. Palatable. Potent. Taste Good. Do Good, Never Sicken, Weaken, or Gripe. 10c, 25c, 50c.

... CURE CONSTIPATION. ...

Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York. 319

NO-TO-BAC Sold and guaranteed by all druggists to CURE Tobacco Habit.

RECEIVER'S SALE.

The subscriber, the Receiver of the Union County Country Club appointed by the Chancellor, will, ON MONDAY, JANUARY 8th, A. D. 1900, AT THE CLUB-HOUSE, corner of West Seventh Street and Arlington Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey, at 10 o'clock A. M., sell at public auction to the highest bidder, all the goods and chattels of said Club now on said premises, consisting of ten-pins, ten-pin balls, 3 pool tables, pool balls, billiard balls, racks, cues, &c., carpets, rugs, sofas, tables, stands, chairs, shades, kitchen utensils, crockery, table linen, silver-plated ware, glassware, 3 sets scenery in Casino, folding theatre chairs, and all other goods and chattels belonging to said Club on said premises.
Terms cash. ROBERT A. MEEKER, Receiver.
12 30 1 2 6

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.

Paris for 1900.

Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.

Circulars at

181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

NEUMAN BROS.,

GROCERS,

Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

M. Molnar,

432 Watchung Ave.,

Ladies' and Gents'

FINE TAILORING

Graduate of

New York Cutting School.

Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

SMALLEY BROS.,

144 North Avenue.

BUTCHERS.

Everything usually found in a first-class market.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83 A.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills

—25c.—

A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.

MALLINSON'S

North and Watchung avenues.

SORTIE AT MAFEKING

A Brave Attempt to Dislodge the Enemy.

THE BOER POSITION IMPREGNABLE.

British Troops Pushed Close to the Fort, but Suffered Terribly From the Fierce Fire and Were Forced to Retire.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Mafeking, dated Dec. 26:

"At dawn today Colonel Baden-Powell organized an unsuccessful attack upon a strong position of the enemy at Game-tree, two miles from Mafeking, from which the Boers have been maintaining a desultory but annoying shell and rifle fire for several weeks. The railway has recently been reconstructed between the town and Gametree, where the Boers had destroyed it, the final repairs being made in preparation for the sortie.

"During the night the armored train, with Maxim and Hotchkiss guns, under Captain Williams, and troops, took up positions for attack from two sides. Captain Lord Charles Bentinck and a squadron were in reserve upon the left, while the extreme left wing was occupied by artillery under Major Panzera and a galloping Maxim of the Cape police, the whole being under Colonel Hore.

"Emplacements were thrown up during the night, the orders being to attack at dawn and the artillery fire to desist upon prolonged tooting from the armored train. At daybreak the guns opened fire and rapidly drew the reply of the enemy, our shells bursting within effective range. Captain Vernon gave the signal to cease firing and to advance, his squadron leading off.

"As our men engaged the position with their rifle fire, it was soon found that the strength of the fort was greater than we had supposed. The enemy concentrated such an exceedingly hot fire that the advance of Captain Vernon was almost impossible, but with remarkable heroism and gallantry Captains Sandford and Vernon, Lieutenant Paton and Scout Cooke, who guided the squadrons, and a few men actually reached the sand bags of the fort, within 300 yards of the area of the fort.

"But nothing living could exist there, since the ground was swept by Mauser and Martini bullets. The men who charged through this zone of fire suffered terribly, and in following their officers to the capture of the fort 20 lost their lives. Captain Sandford was the first to fall, and Captain Vernon, already twice wounded, and Lieutenant Paton were killed at the foot of the fort. These two officers, climbing a ditch which surrounded the fort, thrust their revolvers through the enemy's loopholes, only to be shot themselves the next minute.

"Gametree is surrounded with scrub, which contained many sharpshooters, and their accuracy of fire still further confused the men who had followed Captain Vernon and who saw him and his brother officers killed. Being without commanders, they were driven off at one point, but they endeavored to scale the fort at others. They found the position of the Boers, however, almost impregnable.

"When we retired under cover of the armored train, so many men had been wounded that a suspension of hostilities occurred under the auspices of the Red Cross. The veldt around the Boer position was at once dotted with flags of mercy, and it was seen that our wounded were scattered within but a short radius of the fort. We had almost completely surrounded it, and had it not been so extraordinarily well protected we should have been in possession.

"I went with an ambulance to Gametree. The fort itself is circular, with a wide interior and a narrow frontage between six and seven feet high pierced with triple tiers of loopholes and surrounded by a ditch."

A dispatch to The Daily Telegraph from Frere camp, dated Friday, Jan. 5, says:

"There has been firing today at Ladysmith and at Colenso. A strong cavalry reconnoissance, under Lord Dundonald, proceeded westward this morning toward Springfield, where firing is proceeding.

"There is a revival of the report that the Boers are short of provisions. General Buller's army is eager for the advance."

SEIZED SHIP RELEASED.

The Cargo of Flour Is Held at Port Elisabeth.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 6.—With reference to the Boer reports that Lord Cecil and Lord Charles Bentinck were recently wounded at Mafeking, inquiries have been made at Pretoria, with the result that it has been ascertained that neither took part in the sortie, and Lord Bentinck's troops were not engaged.

The supreme court has ordered that the British steamer Mashona, Captain Johnstone, which left New York on Nov. 3 for Algoa bay laden with flour for the Transvaal and which was captured by the British gunboat Partridge, be delivered to the claimants upon giving satisfactory surety and that the portion of the cargo claimed as prize be stored in the custom house at Port Elizabeth upon security approved by the authorities. The prize cargo consists of 17,000 bags of flour. The Mashona will proceed to other ports and discharge her unclaimed cargo.

More Pay For Steel Workers.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 6.—The American Steel and Wire company has posted notices in all of its plants notifying its employees of a general advance of wages of 7½ per cent, to take effect from Jan. 1. The advance affects 30,000 employees, 10,000 of whom are in the Pittsburg district, the balance being employed in the company's works in Chicago, Cleveland and Kokomo City, Ind. In addition to the 7½ per cent increase the company will establish a benefit fund.

Ex-Surgeon General Hammond Dead

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Dr. William A. Hammond, formerly surgeon general of the army, died at his residence in this city last night from an attack of heart disease, brought on by hurriedly ascending a flight of stairs. He expired before a physician could be summoned. Dr. Hammond had been in the house but a short time before the attack. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

A Wolf In Sheep's Clothing.

SYRACUSE, Jan. 6.—A warrant has been sworn out here for V. O. Wolff, who is charged with defrauding a member of a Masonic lodge out of $100. It is claimed that his specialty is victimizing Masons all over the country.

A VIRGINIA LYNCHING.

A White Man Pays Quick Penalty For His Crime.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Jan. 6.—The death of William W. Watts, white, at the hands of a mob between 4 and 5 o'clock yesterday morning signalizes the initial execution of a white man for rape in Virginia, legally or otherwise.

The crime that invoked mob violence was peculiarly atrocious. The victim was the benefactress of her assailant, having fed him, although a stranger, when he first appeared begging for charity three weeks ago, after reaching here penniless from Lynchburg, where his father is a policeman. Watts was 28 years of age and unmarried, a professional gambler and came of a respectable family, with extensive relationship throughout the state.

Thursday afternoon he visited the house of Mrs. Thomas M. Simpson, who had befriended him when he was in destitute circumstances, telling her he was about to leave the city and stating that he desired to thank her before going away. Mrs. Simpson failed to recognize in the well dressed man the mendicant upon whom she had bestowed charity almost three weeks before. She conversed with him for a few minutes at the door and then retired into the hallway. He followed, seized her by the throat, forced her into the sitting room and overpowered her after a desperate struggle.

Watts was captured on board the special train of C. P. Huntington as it was leaving the city for Richmond in the same afternoon and lodged in jail. Three masked men entered the station house at 4 o'clock yesterday morning and forced the jailer at the point of pistols to surrender the keys. Four companions received Watts when he was carried out and hurried him away, first to the house of Mrs. Simpson, who identified him, and then to the outskirts of the city, where a mob of several hundred men was congregated. He was bound by the wrists to a sapling and his body riddled with bullets.

AGAINST QUAY.

Senate Committee Opposed to Seating Pennsylvania Senator.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The senate committee on privileges and elections has decided by a vote of 4 to 3 to make an adverse report upon the resolution to seat Senator Quay. The resolution was as follows:

"Resolved, That Matthew S. Quay be admitted as a senator from the state of Pennsylvania in accordance with his appointment made on April 21, 1899, by the governor of said state."

The members of the committee voting for the resolution were Senators Chandler, Hoar and McComas and those opposing Senators Burrows, Caffery, Pettus and Harris. Senators Turley and Pritchard were paired, the latter for and the former against the resolution.

No definite time was set for the presentation of the committee's report to the senate. The minority will also present a report, and the understanding is that the minority shall be notified by the majority when it is ready to put in its report.

Senator Burrows, the only Republican on the committee who voted against the resolution, will prepare the report of the majority and Senator Hoar the minority report.

SIXTEEN ROUT HUNDREDS.

Insurgents Driven Back With Loss. Shells Tampered With.

MANILA, Jan. 6.—A brilliant reconnoissance was made yesterday by Captain Long and 15 men of the Thirty-ninth infantry from Brang to Carmota to drive 300 insurgents from their heavy intrenchments.

Twenty-five of the enemy were killed.

Our force was surrounded for hours, but there were no casualties among the Americans.

More than 100 artillery shells sent by the gunboat Laguna de Bay were tampered with en route from Manila. The fuses had been cut so that the projectiles would explode on contact. This was evidently an attempt to destroy a launch or the gunboat when the shells were being handled.

Suspicion points to spies in our service.

A Filipino paper published in Cavite province issued an extra fly sheet last month appealing to the people to resist the Americans and giving assurance that "Democrats under Dr. Bryan would give them indemnity."

Mayor Jones on "New Citizenship."

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—About 500 members of the Cevitas and Get Together clubs met in Brooklyn borough last night to hear an address by Mayor Samuel M. Jones of Toledo on "The New Citizenship." The speaker opposed parties, machines and bosses and said he was not in favor of nominations by conventions, denouncing the entire convention system. He advocated municipal ownership and nominations by petition rather than by bosses, machines or conventions, which would, he said, remedy existing political evils. Mayor Jones warned his hearers not to ally themselves with any cliques, organizations or machines if they wanted to be freemen.

Pullman Executors Get Large Fee.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—Robert T. Lincoln and Norman B. Ream, executors of the estate of the late George M. Pullman, have been allotted as compensation for their services the sum of $425,000. The order was entered by Judge Batten in the probate court. This is said to be the largest amount in fees ever allowed executors of any estate handled by the probate court here. Another order was made fixing the widow's award at $20,000. The final accounting of the above executors in the Pullman estate is expected to be made next week. It is said that the estate, which was listed at about $8,000,000 when the will was probated, will now figure up to nearly $14,000,000.

Much Tobacco Burned.

RICHMOND, Jan. 6.—The Merchants and Planters' warehouse, occupying half a block at the corner of Fifteenth and Cary streets, an old frame structure, caught fire at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from a carelessly thrown match, and in a half hour the building and 15,000 hogsheads of tobacco were destroyed. Kingan & Co.'s meat packing and refrigerating plant was badly damaged.

First Aluminium Telephone.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 6.—The world's first aluminium telephone system is in operation between this city and New Kensington, a distance of 18 miles, and is so much of a success that it is said the Pennsylvania company operating lines west of Pittsburg has ordered a similar system to be used in connection with the heavy copper system now in use.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anaesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed).....$8
Bridgework.....$5
Gold Crown, 22-k.....$5
Gold Filling.....from $1 up
Silver Filling.....50c. and 75c
Cement Filling.....50c
Cleaning.....75c
Extracting.....25c
Painless Extracting.....50c
Gas, first tooth.....$1
Each one after.....50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

EDUCATIONAL.

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
ADELLA C. PHELPS, ARTIST.
Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
::: PIANO AND THEORY :::
Home Studio,
192 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN,
Address—60 SANFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

.....Piano Instruction.....
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to

:: Pride's Tonsorial Parlor ::
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty.....
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmon
Telephone 601

Don't be wasting you money and paying high prices for frames. Come and get your framing done with the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street,
where you will find a large assortment in ready-made frames and the latest styles in mouldings to make up frames to order at prices that will surprise you. Also fine drawings in crayons and pastels from all kinds of photographs.
Best Satisfaction Guaranteed.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL,
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:20 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
R. H. BIRD, P. M.

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS,
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.
T. M. INGRAHAM.

Wedding and Reception Decorations, Floral Designs & Bouquets A SPECIALTY.
Cut flowers fresh every day. Palms, ferneries, southern smilax at 10 days' notice.
MRS. L. J. DENTON, Florist,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 781.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

COLLIER
EYE SPECIALIST,
103 Park Ave.....
Established 1869. Eyes Examined Free.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. E. Gayle, 48 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 148 b.

OUR OYSTERS ARE THE ---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

B. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist...
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

BAMBERGER'S
"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE"
MARKET & HALSEY STS.
The Largest and Most Perfectly Equipped
Mail Order Service
Presenting Unequalled Shopping Facilities
For Thousands of Out-of-Town Patrons.

A thoroughly experienced staff of buyers in this department will make selections for you, and satisfaction is guaranteed or money will be refunded. We prepay mail or express charges to any part of the State on all paid purchases, and on C. O. D.'s for amounts aggregating $5.00 or more. Try our system, and you will not only save money, but have the additional advantage of assortments not equaled in Newark or surpassed anywhere in the land. Samples sent postpaid to any address upon receipt of postal card.

L. Bamberger & Co.
Newark, N. J.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.
Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.
at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Wieda's
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
Manufactured at the Premises,
144 West Front St. Phone. 1188.

No-Match Gas Burner,
SIMPLE, QUICK, SAFE.
No Matches. No Tape.
SEE IT :::
The Miller Oil Heater.
JOS. W. GAVETT,
318 WEST FRONT STREET.

FIRE!!!
When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by
ELSTON M. FRENCH.
Largest agency in the city
163 North Ave., opp. Depot

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

RAILROAD CHANGES.

Pennsylvania Road Takes a Block of Chesapeake and Ohio Stock.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 6.—The Press today says:

"It is reported in railroad and financial circles that the Pennsylvania railroad has just completed negotiations for a large block of Chesapeake and Ohio railroad stock. It is stated further that other railroad companies have also secured interests in the Chesapeake and Ohio.

"A few weeks ago it was announced that the Pennsylvania railroad had made a considerable investment, amounting to several million of dollars, in stock of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and the purchasing of stock of the Chesapeake and Ohio is in line with a plan mapped out by the leading trunk lines to prevent cutting of freight rates and to bring about closer relations and more harmonious action in the conduct of these roads. The amount of money paid for the Baltimore and Ohio stock by the Pennsylvania is said to be between $8,000,000 and $10,000,000. While the amount of Chesapeake and Ohio stock purchased is not given out, it is said it will amount up into the millions.

The Chesapeake and Ohio for a long time has been considered a part of the Vanderbilt system. Its terminus at Newport News is fitted up with all modern improvements. It is also said that the Speyers and the Baltimore and Ohio have taken a slice of the stock.

PORTO RICO RELIEF.

A Delegation of Citizens Will Come to Washington.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Jan. 6.—Seventy delegates, representing the coffee, sugar, tobacco and agricultural interests of the island generally, met in convention here yesterday and pledged themselves to raise funds in their respective districts to pay the expenses of a delegation to Washington regarding the measures needed for the agricultural relief of Porto Rico.

Senores Lucas Amadeo and Eduardo Gonzalez were chosen to present the case to the United States government. They will probably sail on Jan. 11.

The San Juan Chamber of Commerce has chosen five delegates, who will sail by the same steamer, to advocate free trade and a loan of $10,000,000. The Republicans and Federals will also probably send two delegates to represent each party.

All these delegations will go upon virtually the same footing and in the interest of a common cause. They will urge upon the United States congress the importance of immediate action to relieve the depressing conditions now existing in the island. They will hasten their departure in the hope of getting a hearing before congress shall have adopted any measures as a result of the conferences between the administration and General Davis, military governor of Porto Rico.

Hawaiian Military Reservations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The president has issued an executive order designating all of lot No. 1, known as Emmes wharf site, at the head of Honolulu harbor; all of Esplanade lots 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10, as shown on government surveys, registered map No. 1,867, and all of that lot of land known as the "Barracks lot," shown on Hawaiian government surveys, registered map No. 937, as military reservations, subject to outstanding leases and private rights.

House Registry to Be Tried.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The residents of Brooklyn will have the opportunity, beginning Jan. 15, of having their letters registered at their houses by the letter carriers. It is an experiment, and Brooklyn has been selected as the first place to test the new scheme. The carriers are not to be much delayed in their work. The letter must be ready and the carrier is only obliged to wait long enough to sign the receipt.

A Florida Blaze.

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 6.—A fire yesterday destroyed three fine buildings, involving a loss of $60,500. It started in the Budge building, in the central portion of the city, and was clearly of incendiary origin. The work is attributed to a gang of robbers that for some time have been extensively operating in this vicinity. Several squads of citizens are now making a thorough search for these men, and if caught they will probably be lynched.

The Permanent Arch.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The committee having in charge the raising of funds for the erection of a Dewey permanent arch has received a note from John D. Rockefeller saying that he would give $5,000. They also got a check for $2,000 from a banker who does not wish his name to be known. Since Jan. 1 the committee has received more than $10,000 in pledges and cash, and the total amount now aggregates more than $200,000.

Three Perish In Tenement Fire.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Three persons are known to have been burned to death and several more are missing as the result of a fire which was discovered in a five-story tenement at 305 East Ninety-second street this morning.

Another Challenge From Lipton.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Sir Thomas Lipton has again challenged for the America's cup. He says he will build the finest yacht ever constructed.

Weather Probabilities.

Threatening today; probably fair tomorrow; fresh south to southwest winds.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—FLOUR—State and western dull and easy; Minnesota patents, $3.85a4.10; winter straights, $3.40a3.45; Minnesota bakers, $3.85a3.10; winter extras, $2.55a2.90.

WHEAT—No. 2 red opened easy and sold off under weak French cables and determined pressure from bear traders; toward noon it rallied on covering; March, 75½c.; May, 74¾a75 3-16c.; July, 75a75½c.

RYE—Steady; state, 56c., c. i. f., New York, car lots; No. 2 western, 60½c., f. o. b., afloat.

CORN—Dull and barely steady with the west, where receipts were liberal.

OATS—Inactive; track, white, state, 34a35c.; track, white, western, 34a35c.

PORK—Steady; mess, $10.25a10.75; family, $12a12.50.

LARD—Steady; prime western steam, $6.25.

BUTTER—Strong; state dairy, 20a27c.; state creamery, 24a30c.

CHEESE—Firm; fall made, fancy, small, 12¾a13c.; fall made, fancy, large, 12¾a13c.

EGGS—Firmer; state and Pennsylvania, 26a27c.; western, ungraded, at mark, 18a24c.

TALLOW—Firm; city, 5a5¼c.; country, 4¾a5¼c.

HAY—Steady; shipping, 65a75c.; good to choice, 80a85c.

BUSINESS OF A YEAR.

Failures of 1899 the Smallest Ever Reported.

INDUSTRIAL PROSPERITY GENERAL.

Great Demand For Woolen and Cotton Goods—Steel and Iron Trade Unprecedented—Large Railroad Earnings—Stock Operations.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Dun's Review contains an exhaustive report of the business of 1899, covering all leading markets. A resume of the situation follows:

Failures.—The failures of 1899 are the smallest ever reported since 1881, with the lowest average of commercial liabilities ever reported and with greater evidence of commercial soundness and industrial prosperity than has appeared in any other annual statement. It is one strong point that failures have been smaller than in 1898 or previous years not only in the aggregate, but in every section of the country, and, what is more, smaller also in both manufacturing and trading in every section except New England, where the closing troubles involved several connected concerns with heavy liabilities, though their failures had nothing to do with the condition of their trade.

The liabilities of commercial failures for 1899 were $90,879,889. In 1898 the total reached $130,595,094.

Woolen Goods.—The woolen goods division of the market opened the year in a depressed condition. Prices were declining, and there were reports of large unsold stocks of goods on hand. In most directions the tendency was still downward during the first two months of the year, but then the character of the market changed. The demand has been good enough to show that supplies had been overestimated, the market for raw material had been a strengthening influence, and rumors were afloat of an impending combination of woolen mills. The latter were confirmed by the incorporation of the American Woolen company, taking in mills with an aggregate of 5,000 looms. From March up to the close of the year the course of prices was steadily upward. During the closing months there has been a general scarcity of supplies in spite of the fact that production has been on a larger scale than for a considerable period.

Cotton Goods Market.—The improvement in industrial and trading conditions developed during 1898 had barely touched the textile divisions by the end of that year and in that had been confined to staple cotton entirely. The year just closed has shown a remarkable spread of that improvement. The year opened under the good influence of an extensive demand for export of cotton goods and with a rising tendency in prices of staples. Large stocks had been disposed of during the last quarter of 1898 and supplies were much reduced. Buying continued, and by the end of the first quarter of 1899 the majority of the mills manufacturing export goods had been sold months ahead. Meanwhile the home trade, growing apprehensive of shortage of supplies consequent upon the takings for export, operated throughout the summer heavily in these goods and in other directions also.

Iron and Steel.—The year began with the important works engaged by orders further ahead than at any previous date, but the excess or current demand over supply was not clearly realized until after the extraordinarily severe weather of February had stopped many works for a time and diminished production 15,000 tons weekly. Then began a rush to get orders accepted early, and on the other side to increase the output and manufacture. By about Nov. 1 it was found that the new demand for products, though still heavy, was no longer as large as the output, and as the works gained upon their orders in different lines with greater or less rapidity some were soon seeking more and accepting slightly lower prices. Yet only a small proportion of the works was seeking business at the end of the year.

The Stock Market.—Like its predecessor, the year 1899 brought some stirring times to Wall street. Stock Exchange operations were upon an enormous scale, and there was a nearer approach to a general and wild speculation by the public than had been seen for many years before. The market's periods of trouble, called out directly by the death of ex-Governor Flower in May and the monetary squeeze in December, were both the outcome of too rapid bullish manipulation a short time before, and both would have been escaped had there been men of conservatism in the lead of the market on the long side.

Railroad Earnings.—Gross earnings of all railroads in the United States reporting for the year to date are $1,175,180,952, a gain of 10.2 per cent over last year and 13.8 per cent over 1892. Roads reporting include nearly 160,000 miles, seven-eighths the total mileage of the United States, and earnings are practically complete for 11 months. The report shows enormous traffic on all lines—more than in any preceding year. The increase has been especially marked on anthracite coal roads, central western and grangers.

The year 1899 was a record breaker in bank exchanges. In each month exchanges were much larger than the corresponding months of previous big years. The average daily for the year of all leading United States cities was $291,846,000, whereas in 1898, the next to the highest, the average was only $2,69,249,000, and in 1892, the third highest, only $186,860,000.

Father Malone's Successor.

ALBANY, Jan. 6.—It is stated here on good authority that the successor of Father Malone as a member of the state board of regents will be Father Bidwell of Oyster Bay, who is a friend of the governor and who has just been appointed by Bishop McDonnell to succeed Father Malone as pastor of the Church of Sts. Peter and Paul of Brooklyn.

A Fever Ship.

HALIFAX, Jan. 6.—Ten cases of typhoid fever were discovered on board the steamer Montezuma, which arrived Tuesday from New Orleans for the purpose of embarking part of the second Canadian military contingent for service in South Africa. The vessel will be quarantined.

Four Killed by Dynamite.

CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 6.—Word has just reached here of the killing of four men on the Tennessee Central railroad eight miles from Pockwood. They were unloading dynamite when a quantity of it exploded. One man was killed instantly, and three others died in two hours.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

225 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance.
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district
Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., JAN. 6, 1900

COMING EVENTS.

January 6—Social conference of leaders in boys' department of Y. M. C. A.

January 7—Wm. D. Murray will speak and Douglas Lane, as a soloist at the Oratorio of the Messiah, will sing at Y. M. C. A. rally at 4:15 p. m.

Jan. 8—Public debate in large hall of Y. M. C. A. at 8 p. m. Subject: "Resolved, That the U. S. Should Own All Public Railroads and Telegraphs Within Its Domain."

What Advertising Does for Business.

No business place, no matter how pleasing its environment nor how gaudy its decorations, can survive without patronage, says the Philadelphia Record. There can be no supporting income where there are few sales, and there can be little selling where advertising is not invoked to bring custom. By advertising liberally the shrewd merchant secures patronage, sells freely, and not only maintains his business but is enabled to enlarge it.

Rev. Dr. W. S. Rainsford, one of the most brilliant ministers in New York, made a true observation, at the same time offering a gentle rebuke to a certain class of the brethern of the cloth, when he said: "From the echoes I hear from other places, and from errors of my own in this place of which I have been conscious. I feel that the clergy, moved by the stirring interest of the times, have a tendency to lay down the law to their people on secular matters. They are inclined to instruct the lawyer about his cases, the financier about the policy of his bank, to enter the labor unions where men are struggling with the problems of bettering their own condition and say 'do this' and 'do that,' to pass sweeping judgments on the Phillipine question and the Boer War. If I err in this way pay no attention to me. God knows I pray to be delivered from it." The power of the pulpit is very great, indeed, and much wisdom comes therefrom, but, as Dr. Rainsford points out, there is altogether to much secular advice expounded from Biblical text.

Next Tuesday will mark the passage of an even twelve month since the occurrence of the collision between two trains on the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company at West Dunellen, in which eighteen lives were lost—thirteen almost instantly and five by slow torture. The public desire to know what was the exact cause, or who was principally responsible for this great loss of life, is as much unsatisfied today as it was when it was first first realized that a grave and criminal error had been made which caused those two trains to come together with such frightful results. It is very unlikely that the public will ever be enlightened as to the responsibility for the wreck, which fact affords material for probing that might, if followed to the bottom, cause uneasiness where everything seems serene now.

Paterson is promised a cheaper and better water supply by the action of the Council of that city in granting a franchise to a new company of which William Gourley, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, is the head. A competitor will make the East Jersey Water Company, an old-time monopoly, grind its teeth and reduce rates, all of which will be grist for the people's mill. It would have been better for the Paterson officials to have established a municipal water plant, if possible, but as it was not thought that this could be brought about the next best thing was done in allowing a new company of local capitalists to become lively competitors in the field.

The insinuations that the State Teachers' Association has "become the simple tool and stool pigeon of the Hudson county element," thereby losing all its educational characteristics, causes Miss Elizateth Allen to rise and explain to the contrary. She declares that the Association "will be a field for controversy and the discussion of all questions and matters calculated to be helpful to the teachers and will tend to secure those objects for the realization of which the Association was primarily designated." This sounds as though Miss Allen might be heard from in the lobby of the State House whenever the interests of the pedagogues are at stake.

The proposition of openening Duer street into this city is being revived and it is believed that the improvement could be made at a nominal cost to borough and city. It is also believed that certain lands would be dedicated for the the opening, making the task a comparatively easy one. Borough officials are interested in the scheme.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The impression is prevalent in Atlantic City that most of the delegates to the Republican national convention will merely spend their days in Philadelphia and their nights and cash in the former place. So certain are the Atlantic City hotel-keepers of reaping substantial benefit that they have contributed largely to the fund. As each recurring quadrennial convention is largely made up of the same men it is not impossible that the visitors may be so impressed with Atlantic City's charms that future conventions may be held there by unanimous consent.

* * * * * *

The recent eclipse of the moon caused a sensation in Quakertown, Hunterdon County, according to a local correspondent, who says: "There were many opinions and conjectures in regard to the mysterious phenomenon Some thought the 'man in the moon' was holding an umbrella in his hand, which partially concealed him, and others wondered why his wife was not to be seen, and whether the little stars near by were some of their youngsters. Many appeared anxious to know the extent of the domain of this noted personage, and it was finally decided that it was as large as the 'hull' State of New Jersey and was a thousand miles away."

* * * * * *

It is now said that the new closed cars ordered by the Plainfield Street Railway Company will arrive in Plainfield in the spring of the year or about the time the people will want to ride in the open cars. A Plainfielder who knows what he is talking about informed a Press reporter recently that John Kean placed his order for new closed cars after the Plainfield company did, at the same factory, and that the cars for Elizabeth were delivered many weeks ago. A great many people blame the Plainfield company for this inconvenience on the ground that they knew they were to have an extension of their line, and that their cars were rapidly becoming useless, and therefore they had plenty of time to get new cars.

NEW YEAR BUSINESS FOR BOROUGH COUNCIL

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

care of the property now held by the borough for taxes.

Mayor Smalley inquired of Mr. Reed as to whether the borough could be held liable where they had placed electric lights on an accepted street, and as to what jurisdiction accompanied it. Mr Reed replied that the borough would not be expected to do any more than it is doing. The residents of Belmont avenue want an additional light on their street, and the Mayor felt as though they should have it, yet the street had never been accepted. The light was granted.

This concluded the regular business of the evening, after which the Mayor and Council discussed at great length the question of widening Somerset street. As this is special business an account of the conference appears in another column of the paper.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

—Next week Friday evening preparatory services will be held at Hope Memorial chapel, and the Lord's supper will be celebrated on the following Sunday.

—The work of building the storage depot for Ballentine & Co.s' place on West Second street will probably not be started before spring, as the weather at this time of the year is so uncertain.

TRY GRAIN-O! TRY GRAIN-O!

Ask your Grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. ¼ the price of coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Sold by all grocers.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it: no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

The Spring Campaign

Through all the rush and turmoil of the Holiday Season, just past—we have been making careful preparations for an energetic Spring Mercantile Campaign. Silent, but forceful influences have been steadily at work with one object in view, viz: The making of our establishment an ideal store. Many lines of goods have been carefully scanned; from some lines only the best selected; other lines entirely rejected. We have demanded the newest and best of everything, and insist the best is none too good. Our efforts have been rewarded by our securing the choicest and most desirable goods from the various lines represented in our store. Our business is conducted upon a high plane, but we welcome and propose to take good care of the most humble customer. This is to be in every sense "THE PEOPLE'S STORE"

Wash Goods.

Our new wash fabrics are arriving and already we are making a most delightful showing of dainty lawns, dimities, ginghams, percales, etc., etc.

Designers of the printed fabrics have surpassed all previous efforts by producing new and dainty effects in the most serviceable colorings. Corded ginghams, introduced last season for the first, will have a prominent place in this season's showing, and are worthy of the strongest recommendation for serviceable qualities.

Fine Domestic Dimities at 14c per yard.
Genuine English " 18c per yard.

Corded Gingham (madras effects) at 10c, 20c and 25c yd are worthy especial mention.

New Spring Woollens.

52-in Vicuna Serge made by the Broadhead Worsted Mills, at 98c per yard, cannot be surpassed. They are strong, wiry, do not crush, and are sponged and shrunken. Two beautiful black Cheviots, 54 inches wide, at 79c & 98c, are very desirable; excellent color and fine lustre. 52-in Broadcloths, in all colors, 98c yd. 38-in all-wool Homespuns, 50c. 54-in Homespuns, value $1.00, 89c. 40 in Black Crepons, guaranteed value $1.35, $1.00. 38-in Black Granite Suiting, 50c.

LACES, EMBROIDERIES, Etc., Etc.

Our showing in this line surpasses that of all former years in that we have more variety and finer goods. Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss Edgings, with insertings and beadings to match. All over effects in Cambric, Nainsook, and Combination Lace and Tucked effects, Applique Bands, Edging and all overs to match. New Point de Venise Lace Collars and Revers. New Braided and Spangled Nets. New Lace Ties, narrow. New Silk Ties and a thousand other new novelties equally attractive.

FOR THE MEN.

All our 1.25 Outing Flannel Pajamas, reduced to		98c
Men's Fine Camels Hair Underwear,	98c	garment
" " " " (double breasted)	1.25	"
" " Imported Natural Wool (German)	1.75	"
" " Camels Hair, ½ Hose		25c pr
Dent's "Breton Cape" Kid Gloves		1.85 pr
Myers' Cabretta Kid Gloves		1.00 pr
" Silk Lined Mocha Kid Gloves (gray)		1.50 pr
" Fleece Lined Castor, reduced to		1.25 pr

Full line men's, youths' and childs' wool gloves.
The newest of everything in gent's neckwear.

Dr. Denton's - -
SLEEPING GARMENTS
For Children,
2 yrs to 10 yrs.

In our Basement. The inevitable rise in the price of Furniture has taken place. Manufacturers everywhere have materially advanced prices, and state that further advances must come. Our stock as it is at present will be sold at the old prices. Our advice to those who need furniture is—buy it now.

Solid Oak Buffets
with double thick
FRENCH PLATE MIRRORS,
from 11.98 to 25.00.
If Bought Today Would Sell for 20 per cent. More.

5 drawer Solid Oak Chiffoniers, without glass, 4.98.

5 drawer Extra Finished, with glass, 7.98.

Better grades up to 17.98.

WHITE IRON BEDS.

1 in post, brass trimmed, heavy filling, 3.98.
Better ones at 4.98, 5 75, 6.48, 6 98, 7.98, 9 98, 14 98 and 16 75.
Iron Cribs with Spring Mattresses, 6 48, 7.75 and 11 98.
Full size soft top mattresses 2 25
" " 45 lb white cotton mattresses, one part 5.48.
Full size 45 lb white cotton mattresses, 2 parts, 5.98.
Genuine Cotton Felt mattresses, two pieces, 8 75.
Hair Mattresses made to order.

Facing the Inevitable. Prices in every line are on the jump. Cottons are higher. Woollens are higher. Manufactured goods of all kinds are higher and will be still higher. A pretty sum may be saved by early purchase. By all means make us a visit. We will appreciate it and you will be benefited.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,

334, 236, 238 and 246 WEST FRONT STREET.

PECK'S CORNER.

FINE MERINO UNDERWEAR, Suited to this Weather, SOLD AT PECK'S.

GOOD TIMES ARE HERE.

Now is the time to place your money in Real Estate at ground floor prices.

WOODLAND PARK
will suit the aristocratic home-seekers.

DEWEY PARK and LINCOLN
will suit the small investor and home-seeker.

SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

An Annual . . . . Clearing Sale

of our entire stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's suits, reefers, overcoats, ulsters and heavy-weight trousers begins this Saturday and will last for a short time only.

All MEN'S OVERCOATS that were sold at 7.00 and 8.00, clearing sale price 4.25 and 4 75.
All MEN'S OVERCOATS that we sold from 8.50 to 10.00, clearing sale price 5 50.
350 extra fine OVERCOATS, former prices from 12.00 to 15.00, clearing sale price 6 50 and 7 00.
MEN'S ULSTERS reduced from 7.00 to 4.50.
Best Shamrock IRISH FRIEZE ULSTERS, reduced to 6.50, former price 12.00.
1,000 Men's and Youth's heavy weight suits of all descriptions, styles and qualities, which we must and will sell regardless of cost or value. 5.00 suits to be sold at 2 75. 7.50 suits to go at 4 50. 10.00 suits to go at 5 75, and all others in proportion. Children's Suits at 1.00, worth 2.00. 2.50 Child's Suits to go at 1.45.
2,000 pairs of Men's Trousers to be included in this sale at 1.00, 1.50, 2.00 and 2.25. Boys' Knee Pants with double seat and double knees at 20c.
Men's fleece lined underwear at 30c, worth 50c. Men's winter caps at 15c. Working shirts at 15c, and thousands of more bargains at this great clearing sale. Call early and avoid the great Saturday rush.

Will Pay Carfare to all Buyers of Clothing.

New York Clothing Company

M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

OVERCOATS & SUITS.

WE will close out all of our stock now at prices that defy competition; they must go. So if you need anything in the shape of the above call and be convinced of the fact. We have cut the prices in just half what we sold them for in the early season.

TRY A PAIR OF OUR 98c PANTS.
GET BRACED FOR 13c.
HATS, CAPS AND GENTS FURNISHINGS.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

Werner Clothing House,
206 W. Front Street.

THE BOOT SHOP

AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.
Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.
Capital, $150,000.
Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.
Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson. H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

1007

No Man With a Family

has a right to subject them to the danger which always threatens the home not protected by Life Insurance.

Insure now in The Prudential.

WRITE FOR PARTICULARS

Home Office, Newark, N. J. THE PRUDENTIAL Insurance Co. of America.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President. LESLIE D. WARD, Vice-President.
EDGAR B. WARD, 2d V. P. & Counsel. FORREST F. DRYDEN, Secretary.

J. E. WOODLAND, Sup't., E. Front St. and Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, Jan. 6.—Rev. Dr. Jamison, pastor of the Methodist church, will preach tomorrow morning on "Deserving Invitation." Holy communion will be administered after the service.

The Methodist and Presbyterian churches will unite as usual in observing the week of prayer. The first service will be held in the Presbyterian church tomorrow night and Dr. Jamison will preach. Tuesday and Wednesday the services will be continued in the same place. Thursday, Friday and Sunday evenings the congregations will meet in the Methodist church. The closing sermon by Rev. A. I. Martine will be followed with the holy communion.

James R. Dunham, the newly-elected superintendent of the Seventh-Day Baptist Sunday-school, has been presented by the scholars with two volumes, "Around the World With Eyes Wide Open" and "Parallel Gospels."

At Thursday evening's meeting of the Choral Society Robt. E. Humpston was elected president. William J. Holmes, of Plainfield, will be the leader.

The week of prayer will be observed next week by the First Baptist church joining the Seventh-Day church at the former's house of worship.

The Epworth League Society will meet with the Christian Endeavor Society at the Presbyterian church tomorrow evening.

The teachers' class of the M. E. church Sunday-school last evening began its studies on the "Life of Christ."

John McNellis, of Lincoln, has moved his family to Bound Brook.

The Lincoln Incubator Works is being rushed with orders.

NEW MARKET.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

New Market, Jan. 6th—Miss Lulu Davis sustained painful injuries last Thursday afternoon. While skating on the pond she tripped over a bad spot in the ice and was thrown with considerable force. As a result she is detained at home. Her injuries are not serious.

The Misses Smalley, of South Orange, who have been visiting Miss Nelson, have returned home.

Miss Jennie Morris, of New Brunswick, who has been visiting relatives, has returned home.

Miss Walker, of New Brunswick, has returned home after a short visit with friends.

PLAINS AND FAIRWOOD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, January 6.—The recently elected officers of Twilight Council, No. 7, Jr. O. U. A. M., were installed at the council meeting last night. Ernest Clark, the senior past councilor, did the duties as installing officer.

The Township Committee at their meeting Thursday evening confirmed the election of G. A. Clark, as chief engineer, and John Radin and George Johnston, as assistant engineers of the fire department, for the ensuing year.

Rev. G. M. Shott will take for his subject tomorrow morning, "Christ Pre-eminent," in the evening, "Christ, the Ransomed." Prelude to the evening sermon will be "What Next."

Miss Reighnetta Marsh, who has been spending her holiday vacation with her parents, expects to return to her studies at Luray College, Luray, Va., Monday.

Several from the village are arranging to attend the Moody memorial meeting to be held in New York city Monday.

John Bormann expects to begin the erection of his new cottage on Westfield avenue in a few days.

Rev. Mr. Woodruff will lead the prayer meeting in the Methodist church this evening.

The Misses Squiers are spending today and tomorrow with their mother in Rahway.

WESTFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, Jan. 6th—The Board of Education will hold a meeting Tuesday evening for the purpose of getting matters in shape for the building of the new primary school to build which $70,000 was appropriated at the school meeting last week. The building to be erected will be three stories high and contain six class rooms on the first and six on the second floor, and the third floor will be occupied by a large assembly hall to seat 700 persons. There will also be a retiring room for the teachers, and a room for the kindergarten department. In the basement there will be a room fitted up for the use of the manual training school. The building will be of the colonial style and built of brick throughout. There will be fire proof stairways which can be shut off from other parts of the building. The building will be heated by the double fan hot air system. A feature of the school will be that the light will enter the room so as to fall over the right shoulder of each pupil.

WORKMEN INSTALLED

Public Installation at Meeting of Columbia Lodge, A. O. U. W., Last Evening.

The public installation of the officers of Columbia lodge, No. 58, A O U W., last evening proved a pleasant event. There was a large attendance including some of the members of Central lodge. The officers were installed by Deputy Grand Master Workman A. Y. Tomlinson of Elizabeth, assisted by Grand Guide Nash and other grand officers. After the installation speech-making was indulged in, while the members and visitors enjoyed a smoker. F. C. Lounsbury presented the lodge with a hundred calendars to be distributed among the members.

Thanks From Children's Home.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—Will you kindly say that the ladies of the Home return most cordial thanks to all the many friends whose gifts made the Christmas tree at the Home such a beautiful success.

M. S. Kimball.

—Douglas Lane, of this city, will sing "O Dream Divine" by Hartwell Jones at the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday at 4:15 p. m.

—An illustrated lecture on "Spanish Architecture" will be given before the Monday Afternoon Club in All Souls church next Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward White are registered at the Hotel VanNuys, Los Angeles, Cal.

A remedy for Nasal Catarrh which is drying and exciting to the diseased membrane should not be used. What is needed is that which is cleansing, soothing, protecting and healing. Such a remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. Price 50 cents at druggists or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York. The Balm when placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. A cold in the head vanishes quickly.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

James J. Bergen, of Somerville, was a visitor in Plainfield yesterday.

Harry Pennoyer, of Orchard place, has gone west on a business trip.

C. E. Hepburn, the druggist, is detained at home by a slight illness.

Mrs. Wilcox, of Dunellen, has been visiting Plainfield friends for a time.

Mrs. H. E. Needham, of Jackson avenue, is detained at home by illness.

Miss Backer, of Brooklyn, has been the guest of Plainfield relatives for a time.

Mrs. F. H. Smith, of Madison avenue, is detained at home by a slight illness.

Miss Powers, of Clinton avenue, has been entertaining company from out of town.

Miss Gassner, of Central avenue, has been entertaining company from out of town.

Sheriff Schoonmaker, of Somerville, was in the borough yesterday on business.

Miss Elsie Brokaw, of Washington Park, has recovered from an attack of the mumps.

J. P. Welles Taylor, of Park avenue, has returned to his studies at Trinity College.

Dr. J. H. Cooley, of Westervelt avenue, is much improved from a joyful attack of mumps.

A young son has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lorton, of East Third street.

Frank Marcley has resigned his position at Crosby & Hill's big store, to take effect tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevius, of Elmwood place, have been entertaining relatives from North Branch.

Miss Randolph, of West Eighth street, has been entertaining company from Bound Brook.

Miss Gilmore, of West Second street, has returned from a visit with relatives in New York.

Miss L. D. Snyder and Miss Mamie Casey have resigned their positions in Crosby & Hill's big store.

Mrs. Swackhamer, of Whitehouse, who has been visiting relatives in the borough, has returned home.

Patrolman James Totten, who has been on the sick list, is recovering and hopes to resume duty very soon.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred K. Willett, of East Second street, is ill with whooping cough.

Captain George D. Morrison, of Plainfield avenue, has been enjoying a visit from a friend from the west.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter VanFleet, of East Third street, have been entertaining company from New Brunswick.

John Angleman, of Bayonne, has returned home, after a visit with Mr and Mrs. I. L. McVoy, of East Front street.

Mrs. Fred W. Dunn, of Sandford avenue, who is at Southern Pines, S. C., for her health is greatly improved.

Charles Davis, of Park avenue, has gone back to the University of Pennsylvania after spending the holidays at home.

Miss Mary Pierce, of Wellesley College, has been the guest of Miss Adelaide Baxter, of Putnam avenue, for several days.

Miss Jessie Ulrich, of Newark, has returned home after spending a few days visiting Miss Lizzie Sneidecker, of New street.

Mr. and Mrs. Bohl, who were recently married, will soon take up their residence at the corner of Greenbrook road and Stone street.

Mrs. Harry Brokaw and son, Duke, of Somerville, have returned home after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Isaac Brokaw of the borough.

Miss Olive Newell, of this city, has secured a position as teacher in the Public School, Bound Brook. She is a graduate of the State Normal School.

Mrs. Pettit's Helpful Address.

Mrs. Alonzo Pettit, of Elizabeth, president of the Woman's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society of New Jersey, gave an interesting address yesterday afternoon before the Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Baptist church. With the fundamental principle that truth should be the basis of all learning and teaching, she argued that all who tell this truth should strive to make an impression on the mind that would result in expression in right words, obedient character and helpful life. This expression in telling, giving and service was applied to missionary work.

—Fred Endress, the West Front street butcher, will at an early date make some decided improvements at his place of business. He proposes to enlarge his shop so as to give him more room in front.

FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Books Added During Month of December, 1899.

Abel, Mrs. M. H., Practical sanitary and economic cookery.
Abel, W. J., School hygiene.
Allen, M. W., Almost a woman.
" " Marvels of our bodily dwelling.
Anderson, W., Mineral springs of San Francisco, Cal.
Barry, A. de, Comparative morphology of the fungi.
Baumeister, R., Cleaning and sewerage of cities.
Baye, J. de, Industrial arts of the Anglo-Saxons.
Billings, J. S., National medical dictionary.
" " and Hurd, Hospitals, dispensaries and nursing.
Billings, J. S., Some details of water works construction.
Binet, Psychic life of micro organisms.
Bissell, Household hygiene.
Blake, Care of infants.
Blyth, Foods.
Bradford, History of "Plymoth" plantation.
Brunton, Disorders of digestion.
Campbell, Language of medicine.
Carnegie steel, Pocket compendium on use of steel.
Crookshank, Photography of bacteria.
Domville, Manual for hospital nurses.
Engineering record, Water tower and pumping station designs.
Farrington & Woll, Testing milk and its products.
Fiske, Dutch and Quaker colonies in America.
Fothergill, Indigestion, biliousness and gout.
Frankland, Our secret friends and foes.
Fuertes, Water and public health.
Gathmann, American soaps.
Gerhard, House drainage and sanitary plumbing.
Gerhard, Sanitary engineering.
Gerhard, Sanitary engineering of buildings.
Gillespie, Natural history of digestion.
Gillespie, Sanitary code of the Pentateuch.
Gould, Elements of water supply engineering.
Gould, Illustrated dictionary of medicine.
Grimm, Deutsche worterbuch.
Hallock, Education of the central nervous system.
Hansen, Practical studies in fermentation.
Hart, Diet in sickness and health.
Heath, Dictionary of practical surgery.
Herrick—Cradle and nursery.
Hilton—Rest and pain.
Holbrook—Hygienic treatment of consumption.
Hopkins—Experimental science.
Jenkin—Healthy houses.
Kahler—How to treat your own feet.
Keen & White—American text-book of surgery.
Knauff—Athletics for physical culture.
Leonard—Hair: its growth and treatment.
London Royal Academy—Academy sketches
Lyman—Insomnia.
McKendrick—Text-book of physiology.
McMichael—Comp. of materia medica and therapeutics.
Marshall—The frog, an introduction to anatomy
Martin Physiological papers.
Meyer—Water waste prevention.
Migula—Introd. to practical bacteriology.
Mitchell—Doctor and patient.
Morrow—Sweet smelling myrrh.
N. Y. State Library—81st annual report.
N. Y. Tribune—Illustrated supplement.
Page—Railway injuries.
Paris salon, 1892—Catalogue.
Paris-Societe Nationale Des Beauxarts—Catalogue.
Pitman—Complete phonographic instructor.
Porter—Cycling for health and pleasure.
Powell—Personal remmisce ces.
Preece—System of physical culture.
Rafter—Microscopical exam. of potable water.
Rafter and Baker—Sewage disposal in the U. S.
Ricord—History of Union County, N. J.
Schreber—Home exercise for health and cure.
Seney—Catalogue of his collection of modern paintings.
Slater—Sewage treatment, purification and utilization.
Smith—Text-book of veterinary physiology.
Stevenson and Murphy—Treatise on hygiene.
Thayer—Human sacrifice among the Romans.
Tomlinson—The triangle.
Turner—Hints for treatment of common accidents.
U. S. 55th Congress—Parliamentary practice of the House.
U. S. Geol. Dep.—Monographs, 2 vs.
U. S. Inter-State Commerce—Statistics of railways.
U. S. Supreme Court—Reports of cases.
U. S. War Dept.—Official records, War of the Rebellion, 3 vs.
Washington, State—Brief history of State of Washington.
Wegmann—Design and construction of masonry dams.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The Lord's Supper will be celebrated at the Crescent Avenue church tomorrow morning.

—Some of the street lights connected with the underground system are now in operation.

—John Powers, the Somerset street druggist, is making some decided improvements about his store.

—W. J. Pride has given up his barber shop on Somerset street, adjoining J. K. Arnold's grocery.

—On Monday evening an important meeting of Washington Camp, No. 28, P. O. S. of A., will be held.

—A song service will be held at Hope Memorial chapel tomorrow evening at 7:45 prior to the regular evening worship.

—Excellent progress is being made on the new house being erected on West Eighth street by Colonel Mason W. Tyler, for his son.

—Patrolman Flanagan has been transferred from the business part of the city to the West End and Patrolman McCue has been put in his place.

—The committee from the W. C. T. U. on soldier and sailor work is arranging for a supper to be given to the G. A. R., of this city, at an early date.

—The Y. M. C. A. Literary Society will meet in the large hall Monday evening at 8 o'clock. An interesting programme will be presented. All invited including ladies.

BURGLARS WERE AROUND.

An Exciting Time at the Home of Morris Pollan—Police Were Notified.

There was an exciting time at the home of Morris Pollon at 803 North avenue about 11 o'clock last night. Mr. Pollan is employed as a fireman at the electric light station and works nights. His family is therefore alone until morning. It was shortly after 10:30 o'clock that Mrs. Pollan heard a noise as if some one was forcing a window. The sounds could not be mistaken. Mrs. Pollan became very much frightened and to make things more secure she placed an unused stove against the parlor door while she went to alarm the neighbors.

The police were notified by telephone and Patrolman McCarty went up to investigate. When the officer reached the house there were no burglars about. There was evidence, however, that the house had been entered.

Bureau drawers found opened and there was other signs apparent that the interior of the house had been searched for valuables. The only thing missed were $3 50 in cash which had been left in the top of a bureau. The police believe the burglary was the work of tramps, as some hoboes had been seen in the vicinity late in the afternoon.

Explanation Satisfactory.

Charles Miller, a fifteen-year-old boy, was cited to police court this morning to tell what he knows about breaking seals on freight cars at the freight house. The complainant was Alex. Frezee. The boy made a satisfactory explanation to the court and was discharged.

—Some sanitary improvements have just been completed at fire headquarters.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

—ON—

"Spanish Architecture."

by Mr. A. T. VanLaer,

Given under the auspices of the Monday Afternoon Club,

IN ALL SOULS CHURCH,

Monday Afternoon, Jan. 8.

Lecture Begins at 3:30.

Doors open to the public at 3:15.

Admission - 25 cents.

MILK ROUTE.

A. R. Soper, son of Isaac Soper, who died suddenly last evening, desires the names and addresses of his father's customers on his milk route. Kindly mail them to him at South Plainfield, and he will continue to serve you.

GEO. W. COLE,

UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,

210 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.

OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

DIED.

SOPER—At South Plainfield, Friday, Jan. 5, 1900, suddenly Isaac Soper, aged 66 years, 4 months and 21 days.
Funeral services Monday, Jan. 8th, from his late residence at 1:30 p. m., and from South Plainfield Baptist church at 2:00 p. m. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

WANTED—A colored girl would like position as cook in small family; good references. Annie Brown, 666 South Second St.

YOUNG man, married, wants position as driver on delivery wagon; grocer preferred; can give good reference. Address G. care Press.

SALESMEN—High rated factory appoints on uncovered ground. Free samples. Several earn to $25 weekly. Some with us twenty years. Corporation, P. O. 1371, New York.

PLEASANT furnished rooms with board. Mrs. J. B. Platt, 431 West Sixth street. 1 6 3

WANTED—Reliable girls to learn glove sewing. Room 316, Babcock Building.

SIX all-light-room flat to let. Inquire Jacob Voehl, 65 Somerset St.

A NEW piano for sale cheap, for cash. Address Music, care Press. 1 6 2

ONE comfortable room, with excellent table, at moderate terms, 1121 Putnam avenue. 1 2 6

HOUSE and store, corner Plainfield avenue and Fourth street, for sale cheap. Apply R. Frucht. 1 5 6

PURE cider vinegar for sale at C. J. Ackerman's, Clinton avenue. 8 5 w-s tf

FOR SALE or exchange for house and lot or small farm, a fine farm of 200 acres, well watered and timbered. Address Albert, care Daily Press. 12 15 eod tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney, cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

TO RENT in private house, a large, furnished front room, with hot-water heat; centrally located. Address M, care Press. 1 5 2

COMPETENT nurse, best references. Address Mrs. Abbot, care Press. 1 5 2

STORE to let, No 220 Park avenue. Apply R. Frucht. 1 5 6

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 2d

LONG KNOWN - - - MUCH USED.

Randolph's Glycerine of Arnica.

for Cold Wind Chaps, Rough Skin and all Irritations of the Skin.

.....QUICK RELIEF GIVEN.....

25c per bottle

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for TELEPHONE CALL 100

Lowney's and Whitman's Chocolates and Chocolate Bon-Bons.

W. R. BROKAW,

Will occupy the store 207 Park Avenue,

Marsh Building, next to Demarest's Grocery, About February 1st.

His line of MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS will be more complete than ever before, embodying everything in the music line. Don't fail to call on him at his new store for anything you want.

Velvet Hats Tam Crowns, $1.49

Bonn's 140 West Front St.

New Trimmed Hats, $1.98 & 2.98.

A SATIN SKIRT CHANCE

at half regular price, a few heavy rich Satin Skirts, wide sweep, fan back, percaline lined and velvet bound, early comers can get them for..... $5.00

After Christmas.

We're getting ready to inventory. This the season for Broken Lots and probably Broken Prices. We have found one lot already that has got to go. We sold it for $10.00. You can buy it now for $8.50.

OVERCOATS . . .

are now in order, $5.00, $7.50, $10, $12, $13.50.

ULSTERS - - $4.50, 5.50.

Schepflin & Schultz,

CLOTHIERS.

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT.

Made only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,

At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 9 23 tf

FURNISHED rooms to let. 322 East Fifth St. 1 3 4

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

TELEPHONE 722.

MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.

Thursday Night, Jan. 11,

ULLIE ACKERSTROM

in the Laughing Comedy

"My Mother-In-Law"

Presented by a well-selected

Company of Comedians.

Scintillating with Wit

and

Incessant Laughter.

Prices 25, 35, 50 and 75c.

Massage, Manicuring, Hair Dressing, Shampooing, Facial Massage and Steaming.

MISS HOLMES, Graduate of New York Schools of Massage, Electricity and Dermatology.

440 W. Front St., near Washington Ave.

THE First National Bank,

of Plainfield, N. J.

Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. BETTS, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.

DIRECTORS.

Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Corbett.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Betts.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codrington.
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

Demulcent Cream

Will soften the skin.
Will prevent roughness.
Will please everyone.

"Is a Delightful Cream to use."

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Advertised Mail Matter.

JANUARY 2, 1900.

Althouse, Mr W H	Mandeville, William
Barber, Mr A	Mannur, Mrs Emilie T
Brown, Mrs B	Miller, Mr Fred
Carrington, Miss Louise	Naptha Renovating Establishment
Corbie, Mrs J B	O'Brien, Mrs Nellie
Cook, Mrs	Owens, James
Freeman, Mr and Mrs C D	Pall, Mrs W M
Jaeger, Miss	Pearl, Mr H A
Frey & Co., N J	Pian, Mr Mich.
Gildem, Miss Annie	Pollock, Mr Thos C
Green, Mrs H G	Robinson, Miss Grace
Harper, Mrs George	Dean
Hoffman, Miss Francis	Rode, Mr and Mrs A B
Hurst, Mr C N	Route, James
Jansen, Nrs	Ruso, Albert
Kunsleman, Mrs Pierce	Tanner, Mr P
Lane, Mr Norman	Williams, Mr A P
McCoy, Mr John.	VanNest, Mrs Maggie

U. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles.

CARDS and CALENDARS.

We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.

High Grade Cigars.

Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.

B. W. HAND,

205 W. Front Street.

CHAS. L. FOROE,

Architect and Superintendent.

208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 18 tf

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Baden.

Karlsruhe. Hier starb im 75. Lebensjahre der Direktor der Amortisationskasse, Geheimrath Helm.—Der hiesige katholische Kirchenchor ist an den Streik gegangen, als statt des gewünschten Vizepräsidenten Kaeser ein unbeliebter Nachfolger des verstorbenen Präsidenten Gageur ernannt wurde.

Baden-Baden. Ein Sohn des Egyptiologen Georg Ebers, Dr. Ebers, der mehrere Jahre als zweiter Arzt im Sanatorium Martinsbrunn thätig war, verläßt am 1. Januar Meran, um die Leitung eines Sanatoriums dahier zu übernehmen.

Eberbach. Hier erstickte in Folge eines Gasröhrenbruches das Maurer Sack'sche Ehepaar nebst zwei Kindern im Schlafe.

Forchheim. Ein Großfeuer äscherte hier 16 Oekonomiegebäude ein.

Heidelberg. Hier wurde der Baurath Roberi Blankenberg aus Stettin wegen Betrugs verhaftet.

Mannheim. In unserem Vororte Käferthal starb nach längerem schweren Leiden ein eifriges Mitglied der deutschen Volkspartei, Herr praktischer Arzt Valentin Emanuel Fitt. Der Verstorbene war Mitbegründer und Vorstandsmitglied des demokratischen Bezirksvereins Käferthal.

Elsaß-Lothringen.

Straßburg. Die Maul- und Klauenseuche hat in den Reichslanden vom 1. Oktober 1898 bis Ende September 1899 973 Gemeinden mit 5877 Gehöften verseucht. Der direkte Schaden in den angezeigten Fällen beziffert sich auf 1,173,095 Mark. Die verheimlichten Fälle und die Hemmung des Handels und Verkehrs mitgerechnet, dürfte sich der Gesammtschaden bisher in Elsaß-Lothringen auf 1,500,000 Mark belaufen.

Ammerschweier. Der 15jährige Sohn des Winzers Johann Baptist Kur, der Futter vom Heuboden heruntergeworfen hatte, vergnügte sich auf einer daselbst angebrachten Schaukel. Im vollen Schwung glitt das Brett aus, und im Fallen verwickelte sich das Seil straff um Kopf und Hals des Jünglings. Wenige Minuten später fand ihn die Mutter leblos am Seile hängend.

Oesterreich.

Wien. Die Wiener Statthalterei hat die Vorstellungen der freien Bühne verboten.—Auf die Beschwerde des liberalen Gemeinderaths Brunner hat der Verwaltungsgerichtshof den Gemeindebeschluß aufgehoben, durch welchen für eine Kirchenbauanleihe 2,000,000 Gulden als Vorschuß bewilligt wurden.—Der bekannte Kapellmeister Kossel vom Burgtheater hat Selbstmord begangen. Kossel war von der Direktion wegen nervösen Schwindelanfalls suspendirt worden und nahm in seiner Nervosität sich dies so zu Herzen, daß er seinem Dasein ein Ende machte.

Bozen. Vor dem hiesigen Kreisgericht war Vigil Sanol aus Kurtatsch angeklagt, weil er durch Androhung der Ermordung des Landtagsabgeordneten Baron Widmann einen Erpressungsversuch verübt hatte. Er wurde zu 18 Monaten schweren Kerkers verurtheilt.

Belzen. Am Tschötscher Berge wurde der Taglöhner Josef Gasser mit zerschmettertem Schädel todt aufgefunden; er dürfte dem „Neuen" zu stark zugesprochen haben und dann abgestürzt sein.

Borsod. Im Dorfe Besenyö brach bei orkanartigem Sturm Feuer aus, durch welches 60 Häuser sammt den Nebengebäuden eingeäschert wurden. Menschen sind nicht verunglückt.

Budapest. Die neue Schiffahrtsschleuse Franzenskanal ist nach vierjähriger Arbeit fertiggestellt. Die Kosten betrugen 1,300,000 Gulden.—Hier ist der Erbauer des Parlaments, Weisenbacher, verschwunden.—Den abgeschlossenen Verhandlungen gemäß wird Ungarn eine Telephonverbindung zwischen Budapest und Belgrad herstellen, wofür es eine Kompensation bekommt in Form einer direkten Telegraphenverbindung mit Sophia und Uesküb durch Serbien.

Marburg. Dem Zögling Stephan Kende v. Kölese der Infanterie-Kadettenschule ist in Anerkennung der mit eigener Lebensgefahr bewirkten Rettung eines Menschen von dem Tode des Ertrinkens das silberne Verdienstkreuz mit der Krone verliehen worden.

Przemysl. Lieutenant Stumpf, der im vorigen Sommer den Wucherer Höpfinger erschoß, wurde zu zwei Jahren Festung und Degradation verurtheilt.

Schweiz.

Bern. Von einer in Bern wohnenden Dame, Wittwe L.-H., die den Kunstbestrebungen der Stadt stets eine thatkräftige Unterstützung angedeihen ließ, ist für den Theaterneubau ein Geschenk von 10,000 Francs gestiftet wor-

A AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

Yearly Clearance

time has come to this great store. Furniture and carpets at topsy-turvy prices—odd lines, yet new in pattern, and prices at lower marks than we've ever known them!

A great holiday trade left many, many broken lots—all to your profit.

Carpets, too!

Thousands of yards of carpets to go at the cut down prices—a 200-foot floor to show 'em on. Come!

Parlor Suits—over 100 kinds to pick from—beauties all—some are odd ones—all prices.

$9.98
A polished quartered golden oak desk with mirror and two drawers. Worth $14.00.

$18.75
Antique oak bedroom suit. Large French bevel plate mirror. Combination washstand, splasher back. Value $25.00.

$10.98
Solid Oak golden finish, 4 shelves. Value $15.00.

Oil Heaters
A great comfort—cost, 1 cent an hour to run. Odorless.

$3.98
High-armed cherry rocker—spindle back. Easily worth $5.00.

$5.49
A fine cherry frame corner seat—silk damask upholstered seat. Value $8.00.

$5.98
Good sized antique oak chiffonier—5 drawers. Value $9.00.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

R·I·P·A·N·S

I am willing that you use my name to indorse Ripans Tabules. I have a "complication of diseases," mostly due to kidney trouble, and I find they relieve that awful feeling of oppression around my heart whenever I eat a little more than I should, or am very tired. They are good every way. My son took a pocketful to Camp Black with him. I have given them to neighbors suffering from acute indigestion and they are good and do more than is claimed for them. My gardener asked me yesterday for another one of those "Ripanian Tabsola." You see that I am a missionary. Please send me some, and I shall send half to Camp Black.

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some first-class stores—FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. A family bottle (Twenty cartons, 120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL CO., No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents. RIPANS Tabules may also be had of grocers, general storekeepers, news agents and at liquor stores and barber shops.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER.
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.

Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life.
Telephone No. 672.

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,
THE GROCER.
Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.
Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job. That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor. 24 ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 625

A. KANE,
Proprietor of the
EAST END FEED STORE.
Dealer in
Hay, Feed, Grain & Flour, Coal and Wood.
Also Dealer in
BLUE STONE, FLAGGING and CURBING.
The best goods and work at the lowest prices.
Store and Office
409 East Third St.,
Telephone 913.
A. McKeon, Manager.
Open evenings until 8 o'clock.

McCullough's STEAM MILL
21 Steiner place, North Plainfield
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, etc. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 218

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.
Yard 725 to 727 South Ave.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in fresh and salted meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview avenue and Somerset street.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM

will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.

Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.

The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.

FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

GEO. O. STEVENS & CO.
COAL.
747 WEST FRONT ST.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
211 West Front Street.
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

Flynn Bros.,
SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.

Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .

Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot AND Tar is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

WANTED

The address of all AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS in Plainfield and vicinity. If you will send us your address on a postal card we will be glad to furnish you with our latest price list. Our line is complete, and goods are always fresh and our prices are the lowest.

Geo. W. Wrennick,
133 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 229 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

Ladie Desiring . .
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 203 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

H. Eggerding,
121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .
in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated
DOMESTIC FINISH.
Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.
Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.
Trading Stamps given.
The City Steam & Hand Laundry
MORRY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B
19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store, 126 Park avenue.

W. D. MANNING
sells superior
Coal, Wood, Gasolene and Kerosene.
Office, 153 North Ave. Yard, 929 South Av
Tel. 139 A.

BANK ELECTION.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this bank, for the election of nine Directors to serve for the ensuing year, will be held at the Banking rooms, corner of Park avenue and Front street, on Tuesday, January 9th, 1900, from 1 to 2 o'clock p. m.

WILLIAM F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., December 7th, 1899.

12-8 9 11 13 15 16 19 22 25 26 30 1-3 4 6 8

Receiver's Notice.

Robert A. Meeker, Receiver of the Union County Country Club, by director of the Chancellor of the State of New Jersey, hereby gives notice to the creditors of the said Union County Country Club to present to the said receiver, and prove before him under oath or affirmation or otherwise, as said Receiver shall direct, to the satisfaction of said Receiver their several claims and demands against the said Union County Country Club within three months from the second day of January, A. D. nineteen hundred, or they may be excluded from the benefit of such dividends as may hereafter be made and declared by the Chancellor upon the proceeds of the effects of said Union County Country Club.

Dated 201 Park Avenue, Plainfield, N. J., January 2, 1900.

ROBERT A. MEEKER, Receiver.
CRAIG A. MARSH, Solicitor. 16 stf

VARIOUS NOTES.

Interesting Facts Concerning the Fashionable Wardrobe.

Fur having come into so marked favor, most of the varieties which have been allowed to fall out of use are again coming forward. Otter is a noticeable example and is greatly used, being sometimes employed for entire jackets. Black, silver, blue and golden fox are in special demand, the entire skin, with head, claws and tail forming the boa, and another skin, with the head, being used for the muff.

The costume of bridesmaids is always light, blue, rose, straw, green, cream or white being used. Sometimes, even for winter weddings, the bridesmaids' gowns are of sheer nainsook or lawn. This gives a very fresh, dainty look to the wedding procession and is highly suitable where the bride and bridesmaids are juvenile.

SATIN COSTUME.

Stitching is the decoration of the moment. Skirts, bodices, wraps, belts and hats are all adorned with it, and all materials are thus treated.

The gown shown in the sketch is of black satin. The skirt has a slight train and is trimmed with bands of rose silk embroidered with jet, which form a deep point in front and oblique bands at the sides. The coat bodice has a postilion back and is short in front, with revers of rose silk embroidered with jet. Large jet buttons trim the fronts, and the vest of rose silk is fastened with small buttons. The hat is covered with stretched black velvet, the brim being faced with rose satin. It is trimmed with black ostrich plumes and a torsade of rose tulle which continues to form strings which tie under the chin. JUDIC CHOLLET.

FASHIONS IN FUR.

Gowns and Accessories of Expensive Pelts.

Costumes entirely of fur still maintain their vogue. They can never become common, of course, being very costly. The trimming is fur of another kind or velvet.

Boas composed of entire fox skins of blue, gray or red, with the head, legs and tail attached, are already old, but are still worn. On the same order, but new, are lynx boas, very large. The fur is reddish with white tips.

Velvet and fur in combination are much used for collars and little pelerines and are often very becoming, while far less costly than the larger and more imposing fur articles. Fur also is largely employed for the cellar and revers of cloth or velvet wraps. This admits of the utilization of old fur, provided it is presentable and has not been defaced by moths or great wear. A fur sewer can always piece together small bits so that they will look well for trimming.

FUR CAPE.

Regarding fur generally, it may be said that the long pile varieties look well upon slender women, the short pile for those of heavier build. Stout women should never wear fur at all, except perhaps as a high collarette in very cold weather or upon a hat.

The fur cape illustrated is composed of three rows of chinchillas, the edges forming scallops. There is a high collar of the same fur. The cravat and long stole ends are of black mousseline de soie shirred at intervals. The lining of the cape is of sky blue broche silk.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

His Wish.

Doting Mamma—Rodney, dear, tomorrow is your birthday. What would you like best?

Rodney, Dear (after a brief season of cogitation)—I think I'd like to see the schoolhouse burn down.—Melbourne Times.

WHY IT WAITED.

New Chimney Was Not Built as Soon as They Had Intended.

A new chimney was going to be built on grandma's house, and the boys were in a state of high glee. They were always delighted when there was something going on, and this would be "something like," Wayne said.

"Mike's coming to mix the mortar, you know, and carry it up the ladder to the mason. He'll tell us stories noontings—Mike's such fun!"

"Yes," echoed Casper, "I guess he is! You spell Mike's kind o' fun with a big F and a big U and a big N! I say, Wayne, let's go get his hod and play we're hodcarriers, with mud for mortar, you know—come on!"

"Come on!" shouted Wayne. "It's leaning up against the barn. Mike left it there last Friday, when he brought his things over."

On the way to the barn they saw grandpa harnessing Old Molly to the big blue cart. That meant a beautiful, jolty ride down the orchard, and the boys forgot all about playing hodcarrier. They climbed in and jolted away.

"Mike's coming to-morrow, you know, grandpa, and the mason," said Casper, his voice quiver-quavering over the jolts.

"Oh, goody!" cried Wayne.

But dear grandpa shook his white head.

"Not tomorrow, boys. You'll have to wait a bit longer. I sent word to Mr. Keet and Mike last night that they needn't come for a few weeks longer, I'd decided to put the chimney off."

"Oh, grandpa!"

Both clear little voices were shrill with disappointment. Both little brown faces fell. Grandpa did not speak again at once—he was guiding Old Molly carefully out at the side of the cart road. The boys saw a little crippled butterfly fluttering along in the wheel track—that was why grandpa turned out. Grandpa's big heart had room enough in it for every little live thing. Back in the track again, farther on, grandpa spoke.

"I'll show you why we must wait for the new chimney when we get home, boys," he said, cheerily. "You'll agree with me, I know. It's a case of necessity."

"But I don't see what made you decide to, grandpa," Wayne said soberly. Grandpa's eyes twinkled under their shaggy brows.

"A little bird told me to," he said, and that was all they found out until they got home. Then the same little bird told them. Grandpa took them up into the attic, with a great air of mystery. The old chimney had been partly taken away—half way down to the attic floor. Grandpa tiptoed up to it and lifted them, one at a time, to peer into it.

"Sh!" he whispered softly, "look sharp."

And there, on a little nest of mud, lined with thistledown and straws, that rested lightly on the projecting bricks sat the little bird! She blinked her bright eyes at the kind faces peering down, as if to say:

"Oh, dear, no; I'm not afraid of you! Isn't this a beautiful nest? So exclusive and safe! There are four little speckly, freckly eggs under me. When I've hatched them and brought up my babies in the way well educated little chimney swallows should go, then you can build your chimney, you know."

So that was why grandpa's new chimney had to wait.

In Swallow Land.

Dear little Maisie came to us one day
On the back of a swallow from far away,
Past the clouds of fleece in the upper air,
Straight through Swallowland, bright and fair.

There is wonderful music in Swallowland,
There are twittering birds on every hand,

And the whirr of their wings as the birds flash by
Made for our Maisie a sweet lullaby.

Wee Maisie is scarce old enough to say
The things that she saw as she came that way,
But we know she had been to that wonderful place,
For a smile always dimples her baby face
Whenever she hears the twittering note
That comes from the darting swallow's throat.

Why Wood Crackles.

Wood crackles when it is ignited because the air contained in the wood, as soon as it is heated, expands and forces its way through the pores of the wood with a crackling noise. Green wood makes less snapping or crackling than dry, because the pores of the green wood contain less air, being filled with sap and moisture, which extinguish the flame, whereas the pores of dry wood are filled with air, which supports combustion. Chestnuts contain a great quantity of air, and when one unslit is placed on the bar of the grate to roast, as soon as the air inside its rind becomes heated it expands and bursts through the rind with a loud report, whereas, if the chestnut be slit before putting on the grate, it will not make any report, because the heated air can escape through the rind as it expands.

Right-Handedness.

A professor who has made a study of children says he has discovered why the majority of people are right-handed. Infants use both hands until they begin to speak. The motor speech function controls the right side of the body, and the first righthanded motions are expressive motions, tending to help out speech. As speech grows, so does right-handedness.

BILLIARD LESSONS

SCHAEFER TELLS HOW TO MAKE SOME EASY SHOTS.

A Simple Bank, a Plain Follow and a Draw—All Not So Hard as They Seem, Yet They Require Careful and Continued Practice.

I assure you it's a very hard thing for a good billiard player to tell you what to do says Jacob Schaffer in the New York World. It's so much easier to tell you what not to do.

Especially is this so when you are telling boys what is good for them to learn in the way of playing. This time I am supposing that two of you were banked and one of you has earned the first shot. He tries and misses. Then he bangs his cue butt on the floor and says something he shouldn't while he leaves a set-up for his partner which is so easy that it adds to the bad temper of the first youth. Remember, I am watching the game, so I say to him:

"Young man, you will never make a good billiard player because you can't govern your temper, or if you can you are light-minded enough not to do so. I might lose a shot I have practised for months, but I wouldn't let my opponent know for a moment that I cared. He'd think I was worried. The best players are the men who never ask questions. They keep their eyes open, and what they see and learn they put away in that part of their brains reserved for billiards."

A time will come when the stored-away knowledge will prove valuable. Then it can be brought out and may win the game.

As I have told you of the draw shot, the masse, the follow and Englishing the balls, I can only tell you when to use them. I'm sorry in a way that I mentioned the masse, for you are liable to jab a hole in the table cloth unless you are very careful. That punch from above is a very destructive thing if your cue-tip hits the green cloth. When you practise this shot be gentle until you get the twist down fine and draw back quickly after hitting the ball. It's one of the most fascinating shots in the world and one of the easiest if you keep at it. But the best players fail at it often.

(Fancy round the table shot.)

My friend John Thatcher, who understands the game as well as any man I know, doesn't believe in safety plays. He says it takes a general to win through crippling his opponent. He believes that safety only injures the man who tries it.

I keep forgetting that you boys have opened the game. Let me see: Well, suppose that the balls are like this:

This is a simple draw shot. Hit the centre ball underneath with a quick movement of your cue, and it will return. Don't hit too hard, but just enough to bring it back.

In billiards, like everything else, there are lots of funny things nobody can understand. In your game later suppose the balls are placed one in each of the two lower corners. Now, if the veriest tyro hits the cue ball so as to strike the left hand one almost any way, it will gracefully curve over and hit the second ball, as I have indicated. Try it.

I'd almost forgotten to tell you both to stand as close to the table as possible. Save your fireworks for the Fourth of July. I hate to see a man on one leg, looking like a ballet dancer, curving even his toes to look pretty.

Practise angle shooting. Note the ivory diamonds sunk in the edge of the table. Start from the spot and hit your ball full in the centre, aiming at the last diamond on either side of the table. Hit it hard. Watch the progress of the ball as it bounds from cushion to cushion, and note where it finally stops. Then keep trying to make it stop as nearly as possible in the same place each time.

Try other diamonds. Get to know the exact strength in your arm. Keep to the same weight cue and the same size tip. A stroke with a 20-inch cue will upset all your 18-inch calculations, and a tiny tip will spoil your run when you have made your shot with a broader leather before.

If it isn't your turn to shoot keep out of the way. Don't rattle your opponent by walking all around him. Don't keep telling him that he ought to have made that shot, or that it was a good try. He knows you haven't any sympathy with him when you say "Too bad, old man."

I don't believe in sticking to one style of play. When I am practising for a championship series I am working at pin pool or fifteen-ball pool as well as trying bank shots and all sorts of things. They all give variety and train the arm to its work.

Of course, nursing the balls and keeping them together accounts for the long runs that are possible. To be sure, a slip will upset your calculations, but that is true of everything else in life.

You see the balls are nearly in the same position they were at first, yet they have been moved about considerably.

Some people believe that boys can't learn to play good billiards on a regulation size table with regulation balls. I say this is nonsense. People learn to play the piano and the organ as well as the violin when none of them fit the child's fingers. If they used smaller tables and cues where would they be when they grew up?

There is no royal road to success in billiards any more than there is in anything else. It's work and practice, and lots of both.

BASE BALL MATTERS

MANY STORIES AS TO WHAT THE LEAGUE WILL DO.

The Real Strength of the American Association—What the Treasurer of the Organization Says—Minor Base Ball News and Notes of Interest.

The base-ball magnates have again forced their way into the center of the stage, and what is worse, they promise to occupy that position for the remainder of the fall and winter months. While it looks highly probable that the ten year agreement will be lived up to, and that the National League will continue with a twelve-club circuit until 1901, cognizance must be taken of the recent reports sent out from New York, that something was surely doing. Reports are bound to be circulated that the magnates intend a reduction in their circuit from one of twelve clubs to one of eight, the idea being to drop Louisville, Cleveland Washington and Baltimore; but hardly anything more than talk is apt to develop from these stories. Of course, the Robisons would be pleased to pass up their Cleveland club and content themselves with reaping a harvest from their St. Louis be-ongings, and Messrs. Dreyfuss and Kerr would like to consolidate the Louisville and Pittsburg clubs, while the league buys up the franchises of the Washington and Baltimore clubs; but when the winter's talk is completed and the 15th day of next April rolls around a twelve-club league, with exactly the same cities representing it as have been since the Indianapolis agreement was entered into, will most likely be found.

The one thing that is probably worrying the big league magnates at the present time is the real strength of the American Association, as the new league has been named. That organization, which was born in St. Louis, has had two meetings during the past several months, one at Chicago and the other at New York, and though really nothing has been done, enough smoke has been caused to worry the powers that be in the base-ball world. The recent "hatchet-burying" between Messrs. John T. Brush, A. H. Soden and Andrew Freedman, who have been at daggers points for the past decade, and the promise that a one-two-three team will be placed in Gotham next year, is proof positive that the big league magnates saw they would have to gather together and build up their broken fences. With a winning aggregation in New York, the league will be strengthened a hundredfold. It means money for all the clubs when they visit that city, something they have not made since the days of the old Giants. The league has done kindred other things in the past month or two, and all signs point to an improvement in the game next year, even though the new association "dies a-bornin'."

George Schaefer, treasurer of the organization, and at the head of the St. Louis club, is an indefatigable worker in the cause. In a talk one evening recently, Mr. Schaefer said:

"We are sincere in our attention to set the ball a-rolling next April. Our league is not going to be a 'bloomer' and I stand ready to wager several thousand dollars that we will start. Will we finish? Well, that depends entirely on the support we receive from the public. We are sincere, and striving with might and main to put our organization on just as high a standing as the National League. Of course, they have the edge on us, but we intend giving 25c ball, treating the players fairly, and keeping in the background altogether.

"We have plenty of the right kind of people and all the money we need. This talk of needing $100,000 in every city to get started makes me tired. I know of one National League manager who began the past season with $600. He bought uniforms, took his team South, played a few exhibition games, and never had to secure funds from the management until the championship race was on. In fact, I doubt very much if he could have made a raise had he been forced to. There is only one thing troubling us, and that is rapidly being smoothed over. It is as to grounds. Of course, in St. Louis here we have what we want in Athletic Park. We have even gone so far as to design our grand stand and the plans have been drawn up. Anson expects to close for grounds in Chicago next week. At Milwaukee and Detroit we are all right. Going East, our 'millionaire friends' in Gotham have an option on a dead swell place, which is just as accessible as the present Polo Grounds. Frank Hough writes me from Philadelphia that the grounds in that city will most likely be situated at Twenty-ninth street and Columbia avenue, which is a better location than the Broad Street Park. If we go to Boston we will play at the old bicycle track at Charles River. In Washington, Scanlon may have Wagner's old place; if not, one just as handy, and in Baltimore there is a splendid place awaiting us. We're not particularly bad off as to locations at that, but really this is the only thing making us guess any. Just as soon as we complete this matter we will determine upon our circuit."

A Star Player.

To "Chic" Stahl should full credit be given for Boston landing in second place, ahead of the Phillies. Practically a youngster, he played far steadier ball this season than ever the peerless Hamilton or the mighty Duffy, and in the closing series with the Quakers, when defeat meant the loss of second place for his club, he batted and ran the bases in sensational style, and saved one game by a miraculous running catch. Stahl is one of the stars of the game and a player who will continue to be for many seasons to come.

When a gentleman complained of the choking dust of the road between Dublin and Blackrock, a well-known suburb, his driver remarked, "It's thrue for yer honour, but this road bates all the others for dust, for, by all accounts there was dust on it the day after Noah's flood."

He—"If there is anything a woman enjoys it is being a martyr." She—"And how willing some man is to help her to enjoy herself that way."

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 09, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 9 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 54, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 08, 7 30, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 2 14, 5 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09 m., 12 56 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 30, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 56, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 38, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked * change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 4, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket time-tables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.

FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. Manning & Son,

STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

XXXX QUALITY

FINEST
LOFOTON COD LIVER OIL,

Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.

Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at

39c per Pint.

For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at

50c per Bottle,

or the Tasteless at

75c per Bottle.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
Heoburn & Co.,
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,

213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

FURNITURE for the Parlor . . . Library . . . Dining-Room . . . Bedroom . . .

Close at 6 o'Clock.

POWLISON & JONES,

149 and 151 E. Front St.

Annual January Sale of Ladies' Muslin Underwear.

An entirely new showing of muslin underwear is now ready for your inspection.

These Goods were bought many weeks ago, before the recent heavy advance in prices on cotton goods—Prices have been made accordingly.

Made by one of the famous underwear manufacturers of Massachusetts, in clean, well ventilated factories, insuring absolute cleanliness in manufacture.

Finely made garments, snowy white, beautiful dainty garments. By far the best elaborate assortment we have ever shown.

These goods have just been received, and placed on sale. As to prices, they conform to the regular January bargain prices, which are much lower than the ordinary.

I. LEDERER

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,

Gramophones, Records and Supplies.

A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.

BROKAW'S . . .

The Piano Dealer. 123 East Front Street.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles
in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.

Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

FURS.

Our assortment of Furs at the present time is larger and better than ever before. A few of the many special values. Each item is worthy of your special attention.

COLLARETTES.
Grebe, extra fine fur, satin lining, $6.00.
Sheared Coney, 12 tails, extra fine satin lining, $5.95.
Sheared Coney, extra long and extra fine satin lining, at $7.75.
Electric Kurmur, satin lined, $12.00.

BOAS. Stone Marten, $1.89 and $2.49. Bear skin, $3.25

MUFFS. Sable, $3.98. Astrachan $2.25.
Electric Seal, $1.49 to 4.75.

CHILDREN'S FURS. Thibet sets, $1.00 to 1.49.
Angoras, $1.98 to 2.98.
Mink sets, $3.25. Stone Marten, $1.00 to 6.49.

UNTRIMMED MILLINERY. We will close out the balance of our untrimmed millinery at prices that will please you. All new goods. The bargains in this department must be seen to be appreciated.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

The Delineator and Glass of Fashion for January Now Ready.

Ask for the January Fashion Sheet.

A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE, AGENTS,
144 PARK AVENUE, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas, Fine Coffee.

All the Seasonable Goods. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit.

Tel. 931. C. E. GULICK & CO., THE PARK GROCERS.

"SOROSIS!"

The most popular shoe sold for women. 3,000 pairs turned out of the factory each work day. The best $3 50 shoe in every respect made. We sell them, as well as other lines at a higher price, and also as low as 98c $1 25, $1 50, $2 00, etc. Good winter shoes for men $1 25 $1 50, $2 00 and up to $5 and $6 Felt Slippers, Rubber Boots, Arctics, Rubbers, everything you need in the shoe line. Peddles Trunks, Dress Suit Cases and Traveling Bags.

DOANE & EDSALL. . . .

MILLIONAIRES.

Here Are the Latest Figures of Modern Croesuses.

John Bight, Kimberley, South Africa	$1,000,000,000
Li Hung Chang, China	500,000,000
John D. Rockefeller, New York	250,000,000
Prince Elim Demidoff, Russia	200,000,000
Cornelius Vanderbilt, New York (estate)	125,000,000
Wm. K. Vanderbilt, New York	100,000,000
Andrew Carnegie, New York	120,000,000
John J. Astor, New York.	100,000,000
William Rockefeller, New York	100,000,000
William Waldorf Astor, London	100,000,000
Lord Rothschild, Eng.	75,000,000
Duke of Westminster, England	75,000,000
Lord Iveagh, England	70,000,000
M. Heine, France, alka	70,000,000
Alphonse Rothschild, of Paris	70,000,000
Baron Albert Rothschild, Vienna	70,000,000
Archduke Frederick, Austria	70,000,000
Banker Mendelsshon, Berlin	60,000,000
Prince John Lichenstein, Austria	60,000,000
J. H. Flagler, New York	50,000,000
Brewer Anton Dreher, Austria	50,000,000
Duke of Devonshire, England	50,000,000
Duke of Bedford, Eng.	50,000,000
Duke of Norfolk, Eng.	50,000,000
Duke of Buccleuch, Eng.	50,000,000
Lord Derby, Eng.	50,000,000
Lord Bute, Eng.	45,000,000
Lord Cadogan, Eng.	45,000,000
Gunmaker Alfred Krupp, Berlin	45,000,000
Prince Pless, Germany	45,000,000
Count Henckel-Donnersmarck, Germany	45,000,000
Banker E. Rothschild, of Paris	40,000,000
Sir E. Blount, Eng.	40,000,000
Claus Spreckels, San Francisco	40,000,000
Archbishop Cohn, Aus.	40,000,000
Prince Schwarzenberg, of Austria	40,000,000
Prince Esterhazy, Aus.	40,000,000
J. B. Haggin, New York.	40,000,000
Senator W. A. Clark, New York	40,000,000
Henry O. Havemeyer, New York	40,000,000
P. D. Armour, Chicago	40,000,000
Collis P. Huntington, New York	35,000,000
Geo. J. Gould, New York.	35,000,000
J. Pierpont Morgan	35,000,000
H. M. Flagler	35,000,000
Alfred Beit, England	35,000,000
Alfred Rothschild, Eng.	35,000,000
Duc d'Arenberg, Belgium.	30,000,000
Capt. McCalmont, Eng.	30,000,000
Count Woronzoff Dashkoff, Russia	25,000,000
Angelo Quintieri, Italy	25,000,000
Baron Leitenberger, Aus.	25,000,000
Prince Montenuovo, Aus.	25,000,000
John D. Archbold, New York	25,000,000
Harold McCormick, Chicago	25,000,000
J. R. De la Mar	25,000,000
Marshal Field, Chicago.	25,000,000
Levi Z. Leiter, Chicago.	25,000,000
Leon Say, France	25,000,000
Prince Yousoupuff, Russia	25,000,000
W. C. Whitney, New York	25,000,000
W. L. Elkin, Phila.	25,000,000
Jas. J. Hill, St. Paul	25,000,000
Russell Sage, New York.	25,000,000

Our Amusements.

"There are five thousand theatres in the United States if we count all kinds," writes Franklin Fyles in the first of a series of articles on "The Theatre and its People," in the October Ladies' Home Journal. "More than two thousand are fairly classable as legitimate, and over 1,000 more are devoted to vaudeville. The two thousand others taper off in various ways. To estimate the capital invested in all this theatrical property is difficult. But about $100,000,000 is invested in the three thousand first-class legitimate theatres which will be considered in this article. That is an average of $33,333 each, which is low enough, some costing as much as $500,000 each. It is equally hard to compute the money paid by Americans for theatrical amusements. Separate audiences yield from absolutely nothing, in extreme cases of failure, to as much as $20,000 at exceptional performances of opera. A conservative calculation is that the aggregate reaches $70,000,000 a year. Not less than one in a half million persons sit in these theatres each week day night in the season of at least eight months.

A Tip Worth $17,000.

C. A. Jones, temporary receiver of the Atchison National Bank in Atchison, Kansas, which was closed by the Comptroller of the Currency, has made a formal demand upon Superintendent Todd, of the Chicago and Eastern Bridge Company, for the sum of $17,000, the company's deposit, which was withdrawn from the bank an hour before the doors were closed. Mr. Jones was appointed to take effect at 10 a. m. but the telegram did not reach Atchison until 11.40 a. m. The bridge people got a tip and withdrew their money at 10 o'clock. The receiver's position is that the money was withdrawn after a pact of insolvency had been committed, and must therefore be returned. The demand of Mr. Todd has been transferred to the head office of the bridge at Cleveland.

Why Dewey Cut the Manila Cable.

Being asked by an intimate friend if he really cut the cable between Manilla and Hong Kong, not to shut off the Spaniards from home orders, but rather to get beyond quick reach of the United States Navy Department, Dewey suavely said: "We had no apparatus for cabling on board ship. But even if we could have obtained it, the cable company would have been obliged to refuse to receive or transmit messages that way. It could not have afforded to do anything that would enable the Spaniards—in case they returned to power in Manila after the war—to withhold payment of their subsidy. Don't you think these reasons are good enough?"—October Ladies' Home Journal.

A FEW ANIMAL NOTES

THINGS A CLOSE OBSERVER HAS FOUND BY EXPERIENCE.

Something About Game Birds.—A Fox's Brush.—The Vixen.—Peculiar Acts of the Mother Fawn.—Ill Tempered Horses—Mules are Cads.

Every game bird, in its native haunts, has a habit of association which is differently expressed. Thus sportsmen who know, say a bevy of partridges, a covey of quail, a bunch of prairie chicken, a plump of wild fowl, a wisp of teal, either green or blue winged, a file of geese, a flight of pigeons, or woodcock, a line of snipe. Pheasants are so nearly domesticated they are said to come in clutches, rail and plover in balls, and cranes and heron in slants.

Everybody knows that a fox's tail is in hunting parlance his brush, but few perhaps know further that his scalp is technically a "mask," or that if he is superlatively game, it is torn off, nailed on the kennel door of the pack in at his death, and marked with three crosses to show that he died only at the end of a ringing run. The brush, of course, goes to whoever is present when it is taken. The trophy next in value is the right forefoot—in hunting phrase "pad thief." The left forefoot "pad mino," ranks next. After them the hind feet, "the pegs" [illegible] only very young or very avid hunters care much to claim.

One amazing thing regarding the vixen—she she fox—is that no dog will follow her trail while she carries young. It is uncertain whether she then leaves no scent, or whether the dogs obey some primal instinct, in passing over her track. A certain consideration for the female is apparent in most of canine species. One of the surest signs of rabies is for a dog to attack a bitch of his own species.

Fawns when first dropped are for some hours unable to stand. The dog does not remain beside them, but paces slowly around at a considerable distance. Every now and then she gives a little tremulous bloating call, at sound of which the fawn lifts its head and tries to struggle to its feet. Should a man or dog appear meantime, the doe runs away in a straight line, but laggingly and halting as though herself hurt unto death. When she thinks she has lured the enemy far enough away, she gives three great flying leaps, which take her at once out of sight and goes back to her baby upon seven-league boots. But if left undisturbed, she keeps up the pacing until she sees the fawn standing, then paces daintily away in a straight line, choosing always the easiest grade. As she paces she calls faintly and every now and then halts, looking over her shoulder, to see that she is followed.

Ill tempered old horses delight to attack very young foals and will kill them if permitted. Mules have the same cheerful habit, unless they are under the influence of "the bell mare." She is the queen of the herd—a kindly creature who has grazed and fed with them, wearing a tinkling bell about her neck. If she snorts defiance of anything, all her followers rush to the attack. If she sniffs tolerance, they pass it by. In all things they obey her abjectly. Back in the old days, when horses and mules throughout the southwest went to market in droves, the rough riding highwayman of that epoch always tried to capture "the bell" and make off with it, knowing that nothing could keep the drove from following. Similarly, drovers tried to save the "bell." She was led, never ridden, so that in event of attack, she might be fresh for a game run. A light lad led her—the owner or chief drover brought up the rear. The lad had strict orders at the first sign of trouble to go his very best, caring for nothing but "the bell."

Mules are on the whole something of cads. They are very proud of their horse kin-folk and very much ashamed of the other side of their ancestry. One horse in a lot full of mules is a royal personage. Poor Neddy, contrariwise, is kicked and cuffed, and nipped most cruelly.—Exchange.

OUR WEAKNESS.

According to the Verdict of a Well Known Physician.

"It's not the biggest accidents, bad colds and the germs of disease which are in every human being which are responsible for the pain and sorrow in the world which follows in the tracks of illness," said a leading physician, "but the crass foolishness of the ordinary man.

"Now, nearly every one knows that when he crosses his legs he is inviting dyspepsia. Yet, does he desist? You have a slight cough, and instead of trying to stop it you inflame your throat by coughing as hard as you can, although you have been told time and again that by so doing you are only aggravating it. To please your vanity you wear boots and shoes that do not fit you. Out of pure carelessness you sit in an unhealthy position at table and at your desk; you eat food which you know does not agree with you; you drink a large tumbler of water before a meal because, like a child, your reason is not stronger than your thirst; you go away from a hot fire into the night air, and then grumble at catching a cold; you smoke too much, stay indoors too much or take too much exercise, and then come grumbling to us doctors to make a new man of you. I often feel when some man, whose physique I can see must have been perfect, comes to me a hopeless wreck that the best kind of physic would be the rod, served very hot."

"Twenty-four Carats Fine."

Twenty-four carat gold is all gold; twenty-two carat gold has twenty-two parts of gold, one of silver and one of copper; eighteen carat gold has eighteen parts of pure gold and three parts each of silver and copper in its composition; twelve carat gold is half gold, the remainder being made up of three and a half parts of silver and eight and a half parts of copper.

Ten Accidents a Day.

The street accidents of London amount to about 3,500 a year—nearly 10 a day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J.
WILMINGTON, Del.

The CROSBY & HILL United Stores

MORRISTOWN, N. J.
PERTH AMBOY, N. J.

WINTER STOCK-TAKING SALE.

This month all the winter stocks are greatly reduced. It's the regular clearing out sale of merchandise preparatory to stock-taking three weeks hence. The policy of this house is "No goods carried forward for another season." Hence unusual price reductions. Your confidence, comfort and convenience are valued very highly by us, and we are constantly striving to demonstrate our ability to serve you better and gain more of your confidence. This sale will serve better to demonstrate the liberal business policy of this house.

Sale of Women's Outer Garments, Including Coats, Capes, Skirts, Suits, and Waists.

The greater part of this season's coat-wearing weather has yet to arrive, and so it happens that the women of this vicinity are enabled to secure the choice of this season's coats and wraps at half actual value.

2.48 Coats reduced from 5.00.
2.98 Coats reduced from 6.00.
3.98 Coats reduced from 7.50.
4.98 Coats reduced from 10.00.
7.98 Coats reduced from 15.00.
2.48 Capes reduced from 5.00.
3.98 Capes reduced from 6.50.
4.98 Capes reduced from 9.50.
98c Dress skirts reduced from 1.39.
1.29 Dress skirts reduced from 1.98.
2.49 Dress skirts reduced from 3.98.
39c Flannelette waists reduced from 50c.
1.98 All-wool cloth waists reduced from 2.75.
2.49 All-wool cloth waists reduced from 3.98.
1.98 Velveteen waists worth 3.00.

The January Blanket Sale.

An important opportunity. The prices are far below the actual worth of these goods, basing the price on the present market values. No more handsome goods or more honest values are shown. Goods made by the best manufacturers in the country.

50c Gray Blankets, 10-4 size, worth 75c.
98c White blankets, 11-4 size, worth 1.25.
1.39 White blankets, half wool, 10-4 size, worth 1.98.
1.98 White blankets, 11-4 size, worth 2.50.
2.98 White blankets, 11-4 size, worth 3.75.
3.98 White blankets, 11-4 size, worth 4.50.
7.50 Full size California wool blankets.
10.00 Extra fine California wool blankets.
Horse Blankets at less than value.
Full-size shaped stable blankets, strong, heavy and serviceable, 1.39, 1.69 and 1.89.
Street blankets 1.39, 1.69, 2.00, 3.50 and 5.00.

The January Sale of Muslin Underwear has a Combined Goodness with Low Cost.

We occupy a wonderfully strong position by the purchase of about eight thousand pieces of muslin underwear last July before prices advanced, most of it at prices less than cost of raw material alone.

The achievement is particularly great when you find 17c drawers and the 39c night gowns just as correctly shaped as the finest.

10c Cambric corset covers, neck trimmed with narrow embroidery.
19c Cambric corset covers, in three styles, lace or embroidery trimmed.
25c Two different styles of cambric corset covers, embroidery or lace trimmed.
50c Corset covers, handsomely trimmed with fine Swiss or cambric embroidery, twelve different styles.
75c Corset covers, trimmed with fine Valenciennes laces and insertions or fine embroidery and ribbon, three different styles.
39c Gowns of good heavy quality muslin, yoke of insertion and clusters of tucking, cut full liberal size.
59c Gowns, good liberal sizes, muslin of a fine quality, handsomely trimmed with fine embroidery.
98c An assortment of nine different styles of gowns in a variety of shapes, lace or embroidery trimmed. A choice line of gowns in various styles at 1.25, 1.39, 1.98, 2.50, 2.75 and 3.00.
17c Drawers, fine heavy muslin, cut full size, finished with hem and cluster of tucks.
25c Drawers in umbrella shape, with deep ruffle of cambric hemstitched and lace insertion.
49c Drawers in six different styles of lace or embroidery trimmed, plain or umbrella shape.
89c Drawers of fine cambric, deep ruffles of insertion and torchon lace trimming with cluster of tucks.

Some Special Hosiery Values in seasonable Weight Goods.

13c Women's heavy cotton hose; full regular made, fast black, worth 19c.
15c Women's heavy cotton seamless hose, fast black, double soles and ribbed tops,
18c Women's fleece lined hose, fast black, double heels, in fine quality and heavy weight, reduced from 25c.
17c Children's fine ribbed hose, sizes 6 to 9 inches, reduced from 25c.
10c Children's colored wool hose, sizes 6 to 9 inches, reduced from 25c.
39c Ladies' jersey golf leggins, fancy tops, reduced from 98c.
25c Women's corduroy and cloth leggins, reduced from 49c.

Particularly Interesting Prices on Men's Furnishing Goods.

25c Men's and boys' white shirts, cut full and large, good quality of muslin, three-ply linen bosoms, reinforced back and front, endless stay bands and split collar bands, worth 39c.
25c A lot of men's heavy merino undershirts (no drawers to match) white or gray mixed, reduced from 75c.
50c A lot of men's heavy merino and all wool undershirts in a variety of different qualities (no drawers to match) worth 1.00 and 1.25.
5c Men's fine cambric handkerchiefs, hemstitched with colored borders, reduced from 10c.

Interesting Special Prices in House Furnishing Department.

4.69 56 piece English decorated tea sets, worth 6.50.
10c Decorated coffee cups and saucers, worth 20c.
15c 2 qt granite sauce pans, worth 20c.
3c Cake turners, worth 7c.
9c Dover egg beaters, worth 15c.
3c Asbestos stove mats, worth 8c.
15c Wire sink baskets, worth 21c.
4c Flat iron cleaner and wax, worth 10c.
4c Scrub brushes, worth 10c.
13c Wooden pails, worth 20c.
25c Large round wash boilers, worth 35c.
4c Large Christy bread knives, worth 10c.
2c ft., Metallic weather strip.
3.50 "Brightest and Best" oil heaters.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

Ullie Akerstrom's name has been for several years a household word among the fun-lovers of New England. She has lost none of her chic and sprightliness. This season, in "My Mother-in-Law," which will be at Music Hall next Thursday night, she will present a different character, a clumsy, uncouth, pugnacious Dutch girl whose efforts to do the right thing at the proper time will amuse you. Well, she gets there finally, but if you go to see her on your waistcoat buttons, or you will lose them sure.

* * * * *

If you wish to enjoy the biggest and funniest vaudeville shows in New York city for many moons it would be well to visit F. F. Proctor's two theatres—the Twenty-third Street Theatre and Proctor's Palace. This applies particularly to the former, for such universal vaudeville favorites as the Four Cohans will head the bill week of Jan. 8th. They will appear in their latest farce-comedietta and are sure to be the screaming hit of the bill. At Proctor's Palace, week of Jan. 8th, the big features of the programme include the Rossow Midgets in their acrobatic feats; Carelie Rossow in his imitations of well-known soubrettes; three Markel Sisters, wonderful acrobats; Diana in her mirror dances; Seymour and Dupree, novely acrobats; Wm Cahill Davies, Irish comedian, and a dozen more.

HILLIER & CO.

Silk Waists Cleaned.

are the folks. Can't call? Then send and they'll call.

$1.25 to $2.00

129 W. Front St.

Tel. 851.

PARK CLUB FELL DOWN

WESTFIELD CLUB NOW SECOND IN DAILY PRESS BOWLING LEAGUE.

Three Games Rolled Last Night on Park Club Alleys and Westfield Won Two of Them—The Last Game Was Close.

The tie for second place in The Daily Press Bowling League has been settled. As a result of three games rolled in the league on the alleys of the Park Club, this city, last evening, the Park Club has dropped back to third place and Westfield stands alone at second. Of the three games, Westfield won two.

After the first frame of the first game, the Parks took the lead and held it until the fifth. Then Westfield began to roll and there was no stopping them. The Parks failed entirely to hold the pace set and were defeated by 81 pins.

The second game showed a determined attempt on the part of the local bowlers to retrieve their lost honors. There was good steady rolling by everybody and the Parks went way ahead from the start winning by 119 pins. VanBuren was subetituted for Townsend who rolled his first game in the league.

The Parks opened the third game with a clean frame, scoring 105, but the pace was too hot and Westfield went in front to stay there until the finish. On the windup, Hibbard only made four on his spare and Dr. Thiers missed a spare, thereby losing the Parks' last chance of winning.

The scores were as follows:

PARK CLUB.

	1st game.	2d game.	3d game.
F. O. Ball	147	192	176
M. T. Townsend	128	---	---
VanBuren	---	138	143
B. C. Ball	190	136	138
Hibbard	140	190	185
Thiers	180	168	152
	786	864	784

WESTFIELD CLUB.

	1st game.	2d game.	3d game.
Forster	191	133	164
Condit	187	119	---
R. I. Townley	---	---	116
W. S. Smith	184	195	169
W. M. Townley	195	122	192
C. D. Smith	169	176	161
	866	745	802

—Woodhull & Martin are now busily engaged in taking account of stock.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary corner Park and North avenues.

ALL WANT TO WIDEN SOMERSET STREET.

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

fore the Council. Mr. Clark moved that it was the sense of the Council that the project of widening Somerset street at an expense of $5,000 be carried out. Mr. Valiant objected to the amount and offered a substitute to the effect that the street be widened. Mr. Clark amended it so as to read approximating a cost of $5,000. After this motion was finally adopted, another one was offered by Mr. Clark to the effect that it was the sense of the Council that the street be widened, trees cut down, wires removed and placed in conduits, a storm sewer built and that the widening be five feet on each side.

Then followed a discussion as to the width of the street from Craig place to the brook. It was stated that the greatest difficulty would be experienced there as the Thorn building was over the established line. Mr. French would no doubt object to giving too much ground without damages as he had already moved his fence line twice, while no change had been made on the opposite side. Thus the discussion went on and no definite conclusion was reached. Another meeting will be held at an early date when the property-owners will be present to discuss the matter.

Danger Ahead.

The recent seizures of German vessels by the English have occasioned no little excitement, and it looks to many of us as if John Bull had gone too far, just as you may be going too far in neglecting your sight. It is easier for you to step into Colliers, 103 Park avenue, now and by a free examination learn the condition of your eyes, than to put off until the remedial treatment is a matter of much pain and expense.

—Press want ads bring results.

—For Sunday's breakfast smelts from Rogers.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

HEADED FOR STORE.

But an Electric Light Pole Stopped the Vehicle Just in Time—Livery Runaway This Morning.

A runaway occurred this morning on Park avenue, when Herman Klinsman's horse, attached to his baker wagon filled with bread, etc., ran down the street at a lively rate. Although the street was filled with wagons only one coach was damaged.

Mr Klinsman was about to get in his wagon when the horse became frightened at something and started. In a short time the horse broke loose from the wagon, wrecking the shafts. The wagon was thrown up against an electric light pole in front of A. Willett & Son's shoe store, preventing the wagon from going right into the store.

The horse continued his journey toward Front street and would have crashed into a passing trolley car had not Lawyer W. K. McClure stopped him. Mr. Klinsman soon came up and took charge. The rig in its flight collided with a coach owned by Mr. Sprague, of this city, which was standing in front of Estil's store, and a spoke was knocked out of a rear wheel. That was the only damage, and Mr. Klinsman sent the vehicle to Homan's to have it repaired.

Chas. Dupee is Better.

Charles Dupee, the young Plainfielder who is ill at the Yale University infirmary with typhoid fever, is reported to be slightly improved. His fever is somewhat reduced and it is hoped that he has sucessfully passed the crisis of the disease.

High School Cadets Drill Again.

The regular weekly drills of the cadet batallion of the Plainfield High School were resumed yesterday after the holiday vacation. The battallion is now divided into companies and most of the time was spent in practicing movements by twos.

Hackmen in Trouble.

Two hack drivers, who got into an alteration at the North avenue station, were before the City Judge this morning. Each claimed the other to be the aggressor. Judge Runyon gave them a reprimand and suspended sentence.

Began Cutting Ice Thursday.

The work of cutting the ice on the big pond of the Plainfield Ice and Cold Storage Company, at Watchung, was begun Thursday. The ice is as thick as nine inches in some places.

—Use Press want ads.

THE PULPIT SUBJECTS.

SERVICES IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES TOMORROW.

What Plainfield Ministers Will Talk About for the Elevation of the Minds and Morals of Their Congregations.

St. Mary's (R. C.) church, Rev. P. E. Smyth, pastor.—Masses at 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 2:30; evening devotions at 8.

St. Joseph's (R. C.) church, Rev. William H. Miller, pastor.—Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school at 3; evening devotions, 8.

Mission Church of the Heavenly Rest, Clinton avenue, William Winans Moore and Francis Gregory Moore, Lay Readers — 9:45, Sunday-school; 11, morning service.

Trinity Reformed church, Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph.D., pastor—Morning subject, "James, the Brother of Our Lord;" 2:30, Sunday-school; evening theme, 'Christ the Head of the Body, the Church."

First Presbyterian church. Rev. C. E. Herring, pastor—Morning, Holy Communion; evening, preaching by Rev. Mr. Snodgrass.

Filmore Baptist church, Rev. W. D. Johnson, pastor—Morning, covenant meeting; 3, Sunday-school; evening, sermon and Communion.

St. Peter's Ev. Luth. church, Rev. A. F. Shaffer, pastor—9:30, Sunday-school; 10:30, theme, "Epiphany;" 7:30, preaching by the pastor.

Calvary Baptist church, Rev. Scott Wallace, pastor—11, preaching by the pastor; 2:30, Sunday-school; 7:30, Christian Endeavor meeting; 8:15, sermon, subject "What a Rumbling."

Congregational church, Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor — Morning, sacrament of the Lord's Supper; 2:45, Sunday-school; 7:30, Christian Endeavor service.

Mt. Olive Baptist church, Rev. E. E. Jackson, pastor—11, sermon, subject, "The Gospel Invitation; 6:30, Gospel meeting, led by Deacon Wm. Philips and J. W. Reede; 7:30, theme, "Seeking the Lost;" 8:45, Communion.

All Souls church, Rev. A. C. Nickerson, pastor—10:30, sermon, subject, "Rejoicing With Those Who Rejoice;" 11:50, Sunday school. Topic for adult class, "Independent Religious Thinking in England in the Seventeenth Century."

First M. E. church, Rev. W. C. Snodgrass, pastor—10:30, Communion and reception of members; 2:30, Sunday-school: 7, Epworth League; 7:45, sermon by Rev. C. E. Herring in exchange with the pastor.

Swedish Mission Society, W. C. T. U. rooms—8 p. m., preaching by Rev. O. G Tinglof. Subject, "The True Relationship to Christ."

Y. M. C. A.—9:30, boys' Bible classes, also class for young men taught by the General Secretary; 4:15, W. D. Murray will speak and Douglas Lane will sing; 5:15, Physical Director's Bible class.

Park Avenue Baptist church, Rev J. W. Richardson, pastor—10:30, sermon, subject, "Lifted Up as a Malefactor, but Crowned a King;" 2:45 Sunday-school; 7:45, sermon, subject, "Goodness Which Evaporates."

Danish Lutheran service in German church Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

First Church of Christ—7:45 p. m., preaching by Brother Morse, of Westfield.

Monroe Avenue M. E. church, Rev. W. C. O'Donnell, pastor—11, baptism and reception of members; 3, Sunday-school; 7:15, Epworth League; 8, third anniversary sermon by Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis.

Grace M. E. church, Rev. G. W Gardner, pastor—10:30, reception of members, ordinance of baptism and sacrament of the Lord's Supper; 2:30, Sunday-school; 7, Epworth League; 7:45, sermon, subject, "Three Steps to Salvation."

Grace P. E. church, Rev. E. M. Rodman, rector, Rev. Floyd Appleton, curate—7:30, Holy Communion; 10:30, litany, sermon and Holy Communion; 2:45, young men's Bible class; 3, Sunday-school; 4, children's service; 7:30, evening prayer and sermon.

VANWINKLES GATHERED.

Surprise Party Given to Miss S. R. VanWinkle at Her Home Thursday Night.

A surprise party of unusual interest and pleasure was that tendered Thursday evening to Miss S. R. VanWinkle, sister of Lawyer John H. VanWinkle, at her home, corner of Mercer avenue and Duer street. It was arranged by members of the VanWinkle family, and was largely attended by them and by several intimate friends. The affair was very complete, the surprised not having so much as an intimation of it. During the evening there were several social features, including the serving of refreshments. All extended to the hostess their hearty congratulations and wished her many happy returns of the day.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	High Score.
Roselle Casino	7	2	911
Park Club	3	5	864
Westfield Club	3	3	826
Cranford Casino	2	7	843

CYCLING COMMENT.

Knowing that the only improvements to be made in bicycles must be in the line of detail, the big makers are bending all their efforts in this direction. Chief among the features of the 1900 wheel will be what is known as the "Free Wheel," combining a coaster and brake. One of the exhibitors at the Cycle and Automobile Show, to be held at Madison Square Garden, New York, during the week following January 20th, will exhibit a hub in sections demonstrating a new attachment for bicycles. The hub is so constructed that by back pedaling on a wheel fitted with it, a clutch is released in the hub and the rider can coast on his bicycle without removing his feet from the pedals. By back pedaling again, another clutch is put into motion which acts as a brake and the bicycle can be controled on the steepest hill. When the rider is through coasting a pressure on the pedals in the natural way releases the wheel and it can be driven the same as an ordinary wheel. The manufacturer claims a man can save the exertion of twenty miles out of every fifty by the use of this invention.

W. C. T. U. May Change Quarters.

In the near future the W. C. T. U. will make a change. They have practically decided to move from their present quarters on East Front street to the Babcock building on the Madison avenue side, where their accommodations will be somewhat better. They will have steam heat and other improvements which will make the new quarters more desirable. It is believed that the location will be just as good, and people desiring to attend the meetings can reach the place just as handily.

Now a Member of the Firm.

The many friends of William W. Dunn, for over sixteen years with George W. Rockfellow, the grocer, will be pleased to learn that he has purchased the interest of Mr. Dilts, in the grocery business of C. E. Gulick & Co., the Park grocers, Duer street, corner of Lincoln place, and is now a member of that firm.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:24 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:51 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:51 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair and much colder tonight; Tuesday fair. Ther. 38.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., MONDAY, JANUARY 8, 1900. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

SOME CONSOLATION FOR THE BENEDICTS.

Won Third of Bowling Matches With Bachelors.

BACHELORS WON TWICE.

EXCITING GAMES ROLLED ON PARK CLUB ALLEYS SATURDAY NIGHT.

Bachelors Took the Lead for the First Few Frames, but Fell Behind—After Once Getting the Lead the Benedicts Were Never Headed—A Close Finish—U. L. Murphy Won Honors.

The Benedicts declared that it could not be, but the Bachelors were hopeful. When Saturday night came the married men of the Park Club arose in their wrath and saved their reputation on the club alleys by winning out in the third of the series of bowling matches between the Bachelors and Benedicts. For the first time on record the Bachelors won two straight, and Saturday night's victory for the Benedicts was all that saved them from an unprecedented result.

It has been the custom in years past only to roll the third game in case the two teams should each win a victory, which was, however, usually the case. This year the bowling committee decided that the third game would be rolled despite the fact that the Bachelors won the first two. There was not as large an attendance at the club alleys, as most of the bowlers supposed the series was over. The teams were lined up six on a side and those who attended witnessed a match full of life and excitement.

The Benedicts opened the first frame four pins to the good. That lead was increased nine pins the next frame. Then the Benedicts began to do better and were only seven behind. There was no change in the fourth and then the Bachelors lost their gait. Some wonderful strikes sent the Benedicts ahead in the fifth, and there they stayed despite the efforts of the single men to get in front again.

Mr. Peck hit the head pin all right but there were many splits as a result. Dr. Thiers was rolling in great shape. Captain F. O. Ball missed several easy spares and lost thereby an opportunity for a two hundred score.

Among the Bachelors, Clarence L. Murphy was a bright and shining light. All the guying of his opponents simply gave strength to his arm and clearness to his vision. Ralph Willis developed into a marvelous bowler. B. O. Ball, who captained the Bachelors, and of whom so much was expected, failed to distinguish himself at all. The Benedicts cheerfully explained the reason of his downfall.

The individual scores were as follows:

BENEDICTS.		BACHELORS.
F. O. Ball	165	C. Murphy	176
Osborn	144	Willis	163
Peck	137	A. Murphy	134
F. H. Ball	129	Laing	133
Brown	148	Dupee	120
Dr. Thiers	183	B. O. Ball	130
	905		856

NOT FORBID BY PASTOR.

Trustees of Baptist Church Responsible for Non-Appearance of Santa Claus.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, Jan. 8.—The Christmas committee of the Baptist Sunday-school wish to correct an erroneous report which has become circulated through the newspapers and country in general, stating that Rev. G. M. Shott, pastor of the church, would not allow the Sunday school to have a Santa Claus at the Christmas entertainment held in the church recently. The committee state that it was their desire to have a quiet celebration so the Santa Claus part of the usual Christmas entertainment was omitted by the committee and not forbid by the pastor.

Water Flows on His Land.

W. F. Brower, a resident of New Providence, has complained to the Board of Freeholders that he has sustained damage to his lands by reason of water which is allowed to run upon his property. He alleged that on the property of the Presbyterian church in the borough there is a pond hole, which is an outlet for several sewers. The trustees of the church obtained permission from the county road committee to lay pipes to drain the pond, and the water flows on his land.

Think It Strange.

Some of Councilman VanHeiwerden's friends thing it rather strange that he should be taken off of the Councilmanic street committee. They think he is a most excellent member for that committee on account of the time he devoted to that work last year. They say that he evidenced ability in in that department, and it would have been a wise plan to keep him on the committee.

—Press want ads pay.

IS POLITICS IN IT, TOO?

REV. MR. SHOTT TAKES A NEW TACK IN HIS REFORM CRUSADE.

Says That "We Have a Fight Against a Combination of the Rumseller and Politician"—Believes Church Will Win.

Scotch Plains, Jan. 8.—Rev. Gideon M. Shott, who is fighting the granting of certain licenses in this place, expresses the belief that the outlook in regard to the fight against the granting of a license to the Carroll place is very hopeful. He said yesterday that he does not think the time has been spent idly. Things were shaping themselves in a manner that will prove beneficial to the Law and Order League.

"We are classifying ourselves," he said. "Those who run are cowards and afraid so go into the fight. They stand separated by themselves. We have a fight on against a combination of the rum seller and politician. But the arm of God will uphold us in the struggle.

"The minions of the evil one are combining their forces in everyway and during these two weeks of waiting the devil is going to put in his heaviest strokes to brace himself. During the time, the grind of the old mill is to go on, perhaps worse than ever. But if we are all right God will put his chariot to the work and we will come out victorious, for God still rules in the country.

"The hour for trial had hardly been arranged at court before we heard of new schemes being formed by the enemy. They are enlarging. So will we, and keep on praying and working. I can see no reason why the power of the church and public sentiment cannot win."

THE SOMERSET JUDGESHIP.

Senator Reed Characterizes the Story That Lewis Schenck Will Succeed Judge Bartine as Idle Gossip.

Senator Charles A. Reed, whose wishes Governor Voorhees will consult in the matter of appointing a new county judge to succeed John B. Bartine and a prosecutor to Succeed Nelson Y. Dungan, both of whom are Democrats, stated this morning that the story printed in the New York Tribune this morning that Lewis Schenck would be named to succeed Judge Bartine, was nothing but idle gossip. Mr. Reed said that there had been nothing done thus far about the appointment, and he refused to discuss the matter in any way.

The Tribune also says that for Prosecutor the choice seems to lie between Mr. Griggs, of Somerville, and H. C. Suydam, of Bound Brook, who also has an office in Plainfield with the probabilities in favor of Griggs, who is a counsellor at law of good standing and a stanch Republican. Mr. Suydam is an energetic and bright lawyer who has many friends, and he may show considerable strength.

"I do not think," said a well informed Republican to a Tribune reporter yesterday, "that the so-called factional fight will enter into this question. There is a general desire in the county for party harmony and a strong disposition to work for the continuation of Republican supremacy."

COUNTY REPUBLICANS.

Annual Meeting for Election of Officers and to Arrange a Smoker.

The Union county Republican executive committee will meet next Thursday evening. Election of officers for the ensuing year will take place. Arrangements will also be completed for the second of the series of smokers to be given under the auspices of the committee during the winter. The next one will probably be held in this city, with the others to follow in Westfield, Rahway, Cranford, etc.

Park Club Whisters in the Lead.

The intercity whist tournament was continued in the clubrooms of the Brooklyn Whist Club at Brooklyn, Saturday night. The team from the Park Club of this city now stands in the lead with 15 matches won and 22 tricks plus. There are 23 teams in the tournament. The Park Club was represented by Peter B. Matthews, Albert Woltmann, Fred H. Freeman and Arthur A. Freeman.

Making Proper Insulation.

Employes of the Plainfield Electric Light Company have been making the proper insulation between the underground system and the trolley rails, so that no damage will result to either when the currents come in contact.

Revival Will Continue

The revival in the Mt. Olive Baptist church will continue during this week. The pastor, Rev. E. E. Jackson, will preach each evening a twenty minute sermon from his series on "The Parables and Miracles of Christ."

—Press want ads bring results.

LOVERS ELOPING FELL INTO HANDS OF POLICE

Dubious End to Courtship of a Country Couple.

WILD RIDE TO GET AWAY.

CHASED BY HORSE AND BICYCLE WITHOUT SUCCESS.

After Eluding the Hired Man at Bound Brook, the Latter Resorted to the Telegraph and Succeeded in Heading Off the Elopers in This City—Girl Detained Till Mother Arrives.

After a wild and rather romantic ride over hill and through dale of Somerset county, in the hope of outwitting parental opposition, a young pair of lovers were captured in this city last night by the police at the solicitation of the objecting mother's emissary just before they reached the goal that they were seeking—an asylum where their love might be plighted for life. The eloping couple were Miss Mabel Frost, the fifteen year-old daughter of Mrs. Wilhelmina Frost, living near Liberty Corner, Somerset county, and Edward Howell, also a resident of that neighborhood.

The prospective husband is twenty years of age. The couple have been lovers for some time, and have been meeting clandestinely owing to the opposition of the girl's mother. The girl lives part of the time with her grandmother, Mrs. John Laire, on a neighboring farm. In the absence of the grandmother at Sunday-school yesterday afternoon young Howell met Miss Frost, and the latter complained of the treatment she received at home. Howell told the girl to wait a little while and he went away. Shortly after George Howell, the suitor's brother, appeared and suggested that Miss Frost go to Plainfield and there be married. The girl quickly agreed to the plan and hastily putting on her wraps was taken to Howell's home, where she met her lover.

Then the Howell boys and Miss Frost started for Plainfield, the latter receiving a kiss and well wishes for her future happiness from her prospective mother-in law. In the meantime, however, Joseph Hindershot, an employe of the eloping girl's mother, suspected what was going on. He hurried to Mrs. Frost and told her that Mabel was going away with Howell. Mrs. Frost told Hindershot to hitch up his horse and overtake the elopers and bring back the runaway daughter. Hindershot was soon hot on the trail of the elopers. When the latter saw that they were being chased they whipped their horse into a dead run, and for the two miles to Pluckamin it was a nip and tuck race between the two rigs. The elopers had the best horse, however, and were gaining ground when Hindershot's horse began to give out under the hot pace.

Then Hindershot met a man with a bicycle and hauling up his steed he borrowed the bicycle to continue the chase, leaving his rig as a security for the return of the wheel. This delay allowed the elopers to get a good lead, and Hindershot lost sight of them. He thought they were going to Somerville, but after following the road to that place for a mile he saw that the rig occupied by the elopers wending i s way along the "hill" road to Bound Brook. He retraced his course at a fast gait and finally got on the right trail again. The elopers found it out, too, and again the horse was whipped into a run. The road was up and down hill and very rocky in places, and Hindershot's course was a hard one.

The Howell boys were not quite sure of their ocurse, however, and they made a mistake and drove into a farm lane, believing it to be a public highway. They soon discovered the mistake and turned around and started back. By the time they got to the highway again, Hindershot was on hand. He jumped off the bicyle and rushed ahead of the rig in the hope of stopping the elopers then and there. Howell saw through the trick and whipped his horse vigorously and drove past Hindershot with a rush, almost knocking the man down. By the time Hindershot resumed the chase the elopers had got a good start on him, and when he reached Bound Brook he lost sight of the rig.

Thinking they might have gone on to Plainfield he telegraphed to Chief Grant, giving a description of the rig, and asked to have the occupants detained until he could arrive here. Roundsman Flynn apprehended the rig on Front street shortly after 6 o'clock.

The Howell boys were indignant at being stopped in this manner, claiming they had done nothing wrong.

"Why, I'm on my way to see my sister, Mrs. Phoebus, of East Front street," exclaimed George Howell, "and it's a great note that a man can't do that without being held up by the police."

The two young men and the girl were taken to the police station, and Hindershot notified at Bound Brook. He arrived in town at 7 o'clock, finishing his journey on a Central train. After the night detail of the police had gone out the girl was turned over to Sergeant Kiely, who questioned her severely and finally obtained a confession that she would not be sixteen years old till March 4th next. She said that she ran away from home to be married because her monther scolded her too much. In the meantime efforts were made to locate her mother, but after vain attempts up till 9 o'clock Senator Reed was consulted.

He said that there was no charge on which the police could hold the Howell boys. They were then allowed to depart.

Miss Frost was taken to McVey's hotel and there locked up in a room To prevent escape, her hat and shoes were taken away from her. Up till that time she had been very composed, but when locked up in the room alone she broke down and wept. This morning she refused to eat any breakfast. She was taken to Chief Grant's office to await the arrival of her mother.

Mrs. Frost arrived in town this afternoon at 1 o'clock. There was a weeping time between the mother and daughter when they met in the Mayor's office, but the daughter's tears were caused principally by her regret that she had been prevented from marrying her lover. She consented to return home with her mother, and they will go back this afternoon.

ENGINE STARTED QUICKLY.

Charles Hack Thrown Violently and His Life was in Serious Danger.

Charles Hack, of Dunellen, had a narrow escape from being killed Saturday morning in the yard of the Central Railroad in this city. Hack is employed on the shifting engine, which runs between Plainfield and Dunellen, and it is his duty to couple and uncouple freight cars that are shunted about.

Saturday morning Hack stood on the pilot of No. 68 engine and was in the act of uncoupling a car when his foot slipped off and his right leg came between the pilot and rail. The engineer, thinking he had finished uncoupling, started the locomotive. In consequence young Hack was thrown violently his head coming in contact with the framework of the locomotive with sufficient force to cut a severe gash in the forehead over the right eye. He was otherwise injured about the body and legs.

The injured man was at once placed on the shifting engine and taken to the office of Dr. Brakeley at Dunellen, where his injuries were dressed. He was then removed to his home on Washington avenue, where he will be confined for several days.

BOOTBLACK ARRESTED

Accused of Stealing $13 From Barber Pride—Boy to be Tried Tomorrow Evening.

Last Saturday John Scott, aged twelve years, colored, and formerly employed as a bootblack at the barber shop of W. J. Pride, on Somerset street, was arrested and arraigned before Justice Mattison on a charge of stealing $13 from his employer. The arrest was made at the instigation of Mr. Pride. The boy was held in $50 bail for trial tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock.

It appears that the alleged theft occurred about a month ago, and that Pride had the money returned to him through Chief Campbell, after which the boy continued to work for the barber. Recently the barber was ordered to leave his place of business by Mayor Smalley, who owns the building, and it is said that because the boy left the keys of the shop in the adjoining butcher shop where Mayor Smalley could get them, the barber harbored a grudge and opened the case against him. No doubt the trial will be an interesting one.

Death of John Kully.

The death of John Kully, aged 49 years, occurred yesterday at his home 355 Cottage place, after a long illness. He was for a long time employed in one of the local coal yards. He leaves a wife and daughter. The funeral services will be held at Bethel Mission, East Fifth street, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be at Hillside Cemetery.

C. H. Clark, the dentist, has removed his family and business to Bound Brook.

—"Moody, the Evangelist of God," will be the subject of Rev. Cornelius Schenck's address next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

NEW CLUB WILL RISE FROM WRECK OF OLD.

Successor for the Union County Country Club.

RECEIVER'S SALE TODAY.

MOST OF THE PROPERTY BOUGHT IN BY JUDGE RUNYON.

He Will Keep Property Together and It Will Eventually Be Turned Over to the New Club—Low Prices Prevailed—A Few Other Purchasers—Sale of Pool and Bowling Outfits Adjourned.

The Union County Country Club now exists only in name. The clubhouse equipment, the last of its property, was disposed of this morning at public auction. For several months the club has been in the hands of a receiver, Robert A. Meeker, who has arranged the affairs so that what little remained of the assets might be realized upon for the benefit of the creditors.

There is every prospect that a new club will rise up out of the wreck of the old organization. The men who stood by the club to the last favor a new organization. No formal action has yet been taken, but it is understood that an agreement has been made to start the new club as soon as the affairs of the old are entirely wound up.

It is probable that the corporate name of the Union County Country Club will be purchased by the new organization and changed to the Union County Club. The club house, which is now owned by those who are interested in the new club, will undoubtedly become the home of the Union County Club while the bulk of the furniture and fixtures of the old club will be retained.

The receiver's sale was held at the clubhouse this morning. W. N. Pangborn acted as auctioneer. The contents of the rooms were sold in groups as was much of the china, glassware and cooking utensils. All the furniture except a few stray pieces, the equipment of the Casino, and most of the crockery and glassware were purchased by City Judge William N. Runyon. It is understood that this property will be kept together and ultimately pass into the hands of the new organization.

With few exceptions, the prices were very low. In some cases, Mayor Smalley, Freeholder Andrew Lutkins and George J. Tobin took a hand in the bidding and made it lively for the Judge. They made several purchases. There were some other purchasers when the kitchen and dining ware was put on sale.

When the auctioneer adjourned to the basement, a protest was made by Craig A. Marsh at the selling of one pool table and most of the bowling balls and pins. The protest was made in the name of John B. Dumont claiming that those articles had been purchased by private subscription and did not belong to the club. Their sale was adjourned to allow the receiver to investigate the claim. The other two pool tables, with complete outfit, were sold at $55 and $45 respectively to Judge Runyon.

The total proceeds from the sale will amount to from $500 to $700. The exact figures are not attainable. The purchasers were given until tomorrow night to remove their goods. It is probable that the articles purchased by Judge Runyon will be allowed to remain in the club house.

COLLECTED $1,051.

Annual Christmas Contributions Announced at St. Mary's Church Yesterday Morning.

Two weeks ago the annual Christmas collection was taken at St. Mary's church for the benefit of the church, and it was the largest in the history of the church. At the morning service yesterday Rev. Father Smyth, the pastor, announced the result, which was $1 051. There is yet $127 to be received. This was very gratifying to Father Smyth and all connected with the church, showing the great devotion of all for the church and its interests.

Mrs. Tomlinson to Tell of Her Trip.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold a meeting at their rooms on East Front street Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 10th, at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson will tell of her recent trip to the W. C. T. U. convention held at Seattle, Wash.

Chance for People to be Heard.

There will be a special meeting of Mayor Smalley and the Borough Council next Thursday evening to discuss the widening of Somerset street. At that time the property owners along the line will be invited to attend and express their views on the subject.

PLENTY OF WORK AHEAD

DR. LEWIS TALKS ON THE TOPIC OF "PUSHING FORWARD."

Uplifting Sermon Delivered to the Members of the Monroe Avenue M. E. Church Last Night by the Religious Editor.

Dr. A. H. Lewis, editor of the Sabbath Recorder, delivered a sermon to the congregation of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church last night on the subject "Pushing Forward." He took his text from Phil. 3:13-14. In part he said:

"I had chosen my text and theme before I saw your program with its ringing watchword—Foreward. That is a clear-eyed and brave word. It calls for strength, action, wisdom and persistence. It is a word to be obeyed, not questioned. It implies great deeds to be done, great victories to be won. It is an imperative word. Love and obedience delight in such words.

"In moral reforms, and in work directly religious, issues are at hand, complex with difficulties, and surpassing estimation as to importance. Temperance reform, which includes the use of narcotics such as alcohol, tobacco, opium and the like, is a problem of world-wide reach and of untold power as to the physical and moral welfare of the race. Social purity reform hitherto much ignored, but a supremely important question, must be advanced if our civilization be saved from the suicide which brought Rome and Babylon to their burial.

"In matters religious, the years are throbbing with momentous influences and issues. Prominent among these is the relation of the Bible to religion. The high-land of religious life lies along the history of Judaism and Christianity. The source and standards of both these religions are found in the Bible. The ethical code of that book is the basis and source of our civilization, in all things which are good. The Higher Critic is not the worst enemy of the Bible, but rather he who holds it lightly, and talks of it as a "Jewish" book and of little account to our time. He who breaks away from the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount, courts ruin for himself and all things good.

"I commend your motto for the new year. But that you may go forward as you ought, each must seek deep abiding life with Christ. Obedience is the only road to that life. Go forward led by the highest motives. Listen for God's command. Go, or wait on the shore of the Red Sea until the waters part. Go obediently, or wait trustfully. Go forward."

NEW BANK FOR RAHWAY.

One Likely to be Opened Soon, with Senator John Kean as its Principal Backer.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Rahway, January 8.—Deputy Banking Commissioner Johnston and the bank examiners at the Union County Bank have not as yet finished their work, though they did not lay the ledgers and vouchers aside until 11 o'clock Saturday night.

The run on the bank last Thursday, when the examiners had nearly finished their labor, rendered it useless, and all had to be gone over again.

Four experts were at work there when a reporter called late Saturday night, and was told that the work could not be finished until today or tomorrow, when, Mr. Johnston said, he would have a statement ready.

It is said that the Commissioner would be asked to appoint a receiver and that a new National bank would be organized with United States Senator John Kean, of Elizabeth, as its principal backer.

The business men of Rahway are greatly inconvenienced by the closing of the bank, and now have to make their deposits and draw their checks on banks in Elizabeth until mercantile banking business is resumed here.

PUBLIC PARK FOR WESTFIELD.

Township Committee Accepts the Gift of G. Peckham.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Jan. 8.—The Westfield Township Committee has accepted the offer of W. G. Peckham to dedicate three acres for a public park and playground. It appears that the same plot of ground was dedicated to the town years ago, but was never opened to the public. It will be opened to the public next spring.

Union Missionary Meeting.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock there will be a union missionary meeting in the chapel of the Crescent Avenue church under the auspices of the McAll Auxiliary, at which time Rev. Mr. Bossiter, general secretary in this county for the Auxiliary, will be present and make an address. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Benjamin LaVere, of Bank place, left today for Washington, where he will spend a week of rest and pleasure.

FAILS TO KEEP THE PROMISES IT MADE.

No Five Cent Fare on Trolley From Westfield to This City.

WESTFIELD TAKES ACTION.

TOWNSHIP COMMITTEE HOT AFTER THE COMPANY.

In Comformity With Its Usual Way the Trolley Company is Trying to Wriggle Out of the Promise Made by One of its Representatives When Application Was Made for Franchise.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Jan. 8—The failure of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company to carry passengers from this place to Plainfield for a five cent fare, as its representatives promised to do when application was made for a franchise, has caused great dissatisfaction, and at the meeting of the Township committee Friday night the matter was taken up by the officials with the intention of compelling the company to live up to its promises.

Committeeman Martin Welles asked Representative A. A. Gaddis about the rate of fare to Plainfield, and desired to know when Westfield would get the five-cent fare. Mr. Gaddis replied that the company was at present ascertaining the fares taken over its line, and also over the line of the Plainfield Street Railway, and would endeavor to adjust matters satisfactorily at a near future date.

Mr. Gaddis informed the Committee that the line of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company only ran to Turrill road to the line of the city of Plainfield, and from that point on to the central and business portion of Plainfield the road was the property of the Plainfield line. Mr. Gaddis said that if that portion of the line belonged to his company there would surely be a five-cent fare, but at present his company could not make the fare five cents and carry passengers into Plainfield for nothing.

Mr. Gaddis said he considered that by the present arrangement, which allowed passengers to go to any point in Plainfield from this place or Cranford for ten cents, was an inducement, and he did not think many wanted to reach the Plainfield depot only.

Committeeman Wells stated that Colonel Hine distinctly stated that the fare to the Plainfield depot would be five cents Committeeman Harden said that when the question had been raised as to what portion of the city passengers would be taken for five cents, Colonel Hine informed the company that they would be landed as near as possible to the Plainfield, Rahway and Elizabeth depots.

Chairman Dennis stated that he had called on the Hon. Chandler W. Riker, the president of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company, and Colonel E. W. Hine, the secretary, on this subject, and was informed that the two companies were at work on the question of the five-cent fare, and hoped to reach some satisfactory arrangement. Mr. Gaddis said that the two companies were trying to arrange it, and statistics were now being made with which to work on.

SCRAPED HIS SHIN.

A Bill Board was the Victor in a Tussle with James Kane.

James Kane, the well known blacksmith, had an unpleasant and somewhat painful experience Friday evening. Mr. Kane was hurraying down Liberty street to meet a friend, when he ran foul of an obstruction lying in his path near the railroad bridge. Before Mr. Kane could check his speed his toe had caught and he at once became entangled and went down with a thud that shook his anatomy and badly bruised his face and body. On picking himself up slowly Mr. Kane examined his injuries. The inventory developed a badly torn ear, a lacerated face, barked shins and a $3 derby hat broken and smashed in a manner that will prove highly discreditable to a man of his good taste. The cause of the accident was one of the bill boards of the Plainfield Bill Posting Company that had become loose from its fastenings and lay directly across the sidewalk. In consequence of the casualty Mr. Kane is as sore as a defeated pugilist.

Mr. Ball the New Superintendent.

Charles Ball, formerly of this city, where he was employed by the Prudential Insurance Company, but late of Dover, where he has been holding a similar position, has been appointed superintendent of the local office to fill the place left vacant by G. Elston Woodland, who has been transferred to Trenton. Mr. Ball will take charge this week.

OUT OF DEATH'S JAWS

Lieutenant Gillmore Tells the Story of His Captivity.

TERRIBLE SUFFERING AND CRUELTY

Filipinos Hard Pressed by Relief Party Abandoned Prisoners to Starve—Found Two Days Later In a Destitute Condition.

MANILA, Jan. 8.—Lieutenant J. C Gillmore of the United States cruiser Yorktown, who was captured by the insurgents last April near Baler, on the east coast of Luzon, and rescued a few days ago by Colonel Luther R. Hare of the Thirty-third volunteer infantry, sat in the apartment of his sister, Mrs. Major Price, at the Hotel Oriente, in Manila and told a remarkable story of his eight months in captivity, ending with his dramatic deliverance from a death that seemed inevitable.

The steamer Venus came into the harbor Saturday evening from Vigan, province of South Ilocos, with Lieutenant Gillmore and 19 other American prisoners, including seven of his sailors from the Yorktown. Lieutenant Gillmore, after reporting, came ashore and hobbled along with the aid of a cane to the Hotel Oriente, where American officers and ladies were waltzing through the halls to the strains of "Aguinaldo's March."

Although tanned and ruddy from exposure, he is weak and nervous, showing the results of long hardships. He speaks warmly of Aguinaldo and very bitterly against General Tino, declaring that while in the former's jurisdiction he was treated splendidly, but that after he fell into Tino's hands he suffered everything.

Colonel Hare and Lieutenant Colonel Howze, the latter of the Thirty-fourth volunteer infantry, rescued Gillmore's party on Dec. 18 near the headwaters of the Abulat river after they had been abandoned by the Filipinos and were expecting death from the savage tribes around them. When the rescuing force reached them, they were nearly starved but were building rafts in the hope of getting down the river to the coast.

Lieutenant Gillmore made the following statement for publication:

"The Filipinos abandoned us on the night of Dec. 16. We had reached the Abulat river near its source that morning, and the Filipinos rafted us over. We then went down the stream along a rough trail, guarded by a company of Filipinos. That night we were separated from this guard, and another company, armed with Mausers, was put in charge of us. I suspected something and questioned the lieutenant in command. He said: 'I have orders from General Tino to shoot you all but my conscience forbids. I shall leave you here.'

"I begged him for two rifles to protect us from savages, adding that I would give him letters to the Americans, who would pay him well and keep him from all harm. He refused this, however, saying that he would not dare to comply. Soon afterward he left with his company.

"We had seen some savages in war paint around us, and we prepared to fight them with cobblestones, the only weapons that were available to us. The next morning we followed the trail of the Filipino soldiers, feeling that it was better to stick to them than to be murdered by savages, but we could not catch up with them. Then I ordered the men to build rafts in the hope of floating down the river. It was a forlorn hope, but I knew the river must empty into the sea somewhere. I was so weak myself that I did not expect to get out, but I thought some of the men could.

"On the morning of Dec. 18, while we were working on the rafts, the Americans came toward us yelling. One of my men shouted, 'They are on us.' He was lashing a raft of bamboos. I, however, knew it was not the yell of savages, but the yell of Americans. The rescuing troops thought we had Filipino guards and called to us in English to lie down so that they could shoot the Filipinos. That was the finest body of officers and men I ever saw."

Lieutenant Gillmore could not speak enthusiastically enough about the 140 picked men who had rescued him and his party.

The command spent the day in making rafts. Colonel Hare thought Lieutenant Gillmore too weak to live through the trip but there was no alternative. They shot many rapids, the men lashing all their effects and Lieutenant Gillmore some valuable papers. Only 14 out of 37 rafts survived the first night's experiences, and 80 men were practically unable to walk when Vigan was reached.

Describing the flight from Benguet when the Americans approached, Lieutenant Gillmore said:

"The Filipinos, completely terrified, left Benguet on Dec. 7. They hurried the prisoners from town to town, often retracing the trail, not knowing where the Americans would attack. After being almost without food for three days they killed several horses, and we lived on horseflesh for several days. I did not have a full meal from Dec. 7 until I reached Vigan. Indeed the rescuing party lived largely upon rice without salt. There was one day when I was reduced to chewing grass and bark.

"While we were in the hands of General Tino's men he issued an order that any person aiding an American by food or money should be treated as a criminal. One citizen of Vigan, Senor Vera, was probably killed for befriending us. We would have starved but for the kindness of some of the presidents of the towns and some of the Filipino colonels, but others treated us brutally. Whereve there was a prison we were kept there. When there was no prison, they would lodge us in a convent. We suffered greatly from want of exercise as well as lack of food."

For weeks Lieutenant Gillmore was covered with boils and in great pain. When the Filipinos found the Americans were approaching, the treatment became better. There was a sign painter in the party, and he painted advertisements on the rocks throughout the retreat with other emblems, like a skull and the word "vengeance," by means of which the Americans were able to follow.

"The Filipino treatment of the Spaniards," said Lieutenant Gillmore, "was brutal in the extreme. The insurgents had old grudges to wipe out against them. Many talk about the reconcentrados in Cuba, but I have seen Spaniards dying at the rate of two or three per day of starvation in the hospitals at Vigan. I have seen Tagalog officers strike Spaniards in the face with whips and revolvers."

Lieutenant Gillmore declined to speak regarding political conditions, except to say he thought the insurrection would last as long as there were any Tagalogs left.

Among the prisoners arriving with Lieutenant Gillmore were F. J. Hubert, Edward Burke and J. J. Farley, sailors from the Urdaneta; Von Galen of the Baltimore, A. H. Gordon and George Sackett of the Third infantry, Leland Smith and Frank Stone of the signal corps, Harry Huber of the hospital corps, William Bruce and Edward Honeyman of the Nevada cavalry, Martin Brennan and James Curran of the Sixteenth infantry, Albert Bishop of the Third artillery and John O'Brien and David Brown, civilians.

Charles Baker of the Third artillery was formerly one of the prisoners, but he became too weak to travel, and the Filipino guards bayoneted him during the last flight through the mountains.

The prisoners of Lieutenant Gillmore's party who escaped after leaving Vigan were MacDonald of the Twenty-first infantry, Von Galen of the Baltimore and Farley of the Oregon. They were captured by savages, recaptured by the insurgents, who had stripped and prepared to beat them, and ultimately rescued by the Americans.

Reconnoissances out of Imus, Cavite province, Sunday morning resulted in the loss of three Americans killed and 20 wounded. The enemy's loss is estimated at 60 killed and 80 wounded.

Colonel Birkhimer, with a battalion of the Twenty-eighth volunteer infantry, advanced toward Novaleta. Major Taggart, with two battalions of the same regiment, moved toward Perez das Marinas. A part of the Fourth infantry was engaged south of Imus.

CAPTAIN LEARY REPORTS.

Tells of His Work In Civilizing Guam.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The secretary of the navy has received a most interesting report from Captain Leary, governor of Guam, recording his achievements in the matter of civilizing the natives and cleaning up the island. The report begins with the statement that three of the marine guard, Privates D. O'Rourke, Paul Schoemig and William P. Brown, attached to the Guam battalion, have died and been buried with military honors. Captain Leary says there are other cases of sickness, but every possible care and attention is given them, and all precautions are being taken to improve the sanitary condition of the station.

"After issuing my proclamation setting aside thanksgiving day," says Captain Leary, "according to our national custom, the native priest at Agana informed me that he would on that day celebrate a special thanksgiving service, in which our station band will participate.

"The high esteem in which Padre Jose Palomo, the native priest, is held by every one in the island seems to be justly merited by him, as he has on all occasions shown himself to be a man of extraordinary moral qualities, and it is a pleasure to state that in my various local duties and decrees as governor he has promptly and energetically indorsed the government's action, thereby strengthening our influence with the people for good."

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Mrs. Langtry arrived in New York on the Lucania.

Julia Marlowe Taber, the actress, has been granted a divorce from her husband, Robert Taber.

Andrew Carnegie has promised the College of Emporia, Kan., $50,000 for a library building.

Major John S. Clark, the noted turfman and horse breeder, died of heart disease at Lexington, Ky. He was 59 years old.

Fred A. Newton, paying teller of the Fidelity Trust and Guaranty company, Buffalo, is an embezzler to the amount of $48,000.

Three Boys Drowned.

RALEIGH, Jan. 8.—About noon at Hinton's pond, eight miles northwest of this city, three boys, sons of prominent citizens, were drowned. They were: Mial Williamson, aged 15, son of Captain B P. Williamson, treasurer of Wake county; Edwin Lee, aged 14, only son of Mr Lee, a prominent leaf tobacco dealer, and James Hinton, aged 15, only son of Mr Charles Hinton, formerly executive clerk of Governor Cars. The boys had planned to spend the day hunting on Mr. Hinton's farm. Hinton's pond being frozen over they placed their guns on the bank and went out on the ice, but they had not gone far before it broke, and all three went under together. Four hours later they were found frozen and lifeless under the ice.

Diphtheria Baffles Christian Science.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 8.—The Dispatch today says: "Diphtheria and Christian Science have had a bitter battle in a New Brighton family for the past two weeks. Diphtheria has won so far. Two children are dead, while a third child and the father are dangerously ill with the same disease. Frank Martsolf and his wife have been believers in Christian Science for three years, and so confirmed in the doctrine are they that they have seen their two little ones die of malignant diphtheria and were willing to see their remaining child perish rather than take her case out of the hands of the Lord. Not until forced to do so by the health authorities would the parents permit a physician in the house."

Dewey to Get His Cup.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The formal presentation of the Dewey loving cup secured through The Journal by 70,000 persons, each of whom contributed a dime, will occur at the admiral's house tomorrow morning at half past 10 o'clock. A committee of public officials and naval officers will act for The Journal and the numerous donors. Among those who will be present are Senator Depew, who will present the cup to the admiral; Secretary Long, Senator Perkins of California, Rear Admiral Charles O'Neil, Rear Admiral R. B. Bradford and Rear Admiral M. T. Endicott.

Cars For Europe.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 8.—Lucien Marechal, chief engineer of the Paris, Lyons and Mediterranean railroad of France who is in this country on a tour of inspection, placed an order with the Pressed Steel Car company of this city for 500 steel gondola cars of a special design. This order marks the first introduction of American steel cars on the European continent and may be considered a new epoch in railway equipment in the old world.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair; colder; southwest gales, shifting to northwesterly and diminishing.

Flynn Bros.,
SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods
Have stood the test for years.

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET,
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 29 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A

Ladie Desiring . .
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 203 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

H. Eggerding,
131 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR,
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made of the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigar

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.
Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .
Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot & Tar is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

WANTED
The address of all AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS in Plainfield and vicinity. If you will send us your address on a postal card we will be glad to furnish you with our latest price list. Our line is complete, and goods are always fresh and our prices are the lowest.
Geo. W. Wrennick,
133 North Ave., Plainfie'd, N. J.

TRY THE
QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No. 337 Park Avenue
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

BANK ELECTION.
CITY NATIONAL BANK
The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this bank, for the election of nine Directors to serve for the ensuing year, will be held at the Banking rooms, corner of Park avenue and Front street, on Tuesday, January 9th, 1900, from 1 to 2 o'clock p. m.
WILLIAM F. ARNOLD, Cashier.
Dated Plainfield, N. J., December 7th, 1899.
12-8 9 11 13 15 16 19 22 26 28 29 1-2 4 6 8

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .
in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated
DOMESTIC FINISH.
Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.
Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.
Trading Stamps given.
The City Steam & Hand Laundry
MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B
19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store, 128 Park avenue.

Notice of Order to Limit Creditors.
SOMERSET COUNTY SURROGATE'S OFFICE.
Estate of Mary A. Cooper, deceased. Notice is hereby given that on the eighth day of December, A. D., 1899, on the application of the undersigned, as Administrators of Mary Ann Cooper, deceased; an order was made by H. N. Spencer, Surrogate, requiring the creditors of Mary Ann Cooper, deceased, to bring in their debts, demands and claims against the said decedent, under oath or affirmation, and present the same to the subscriber within nine months from the date of said order, and in default thereof any such creditor should be forever barred of his or her action thereof against the subscribers.
THOMAS NEWMAN,
EDWARD A. COOPER,
ANNIE PRATT,
Administrators.
12 11 9 caw

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING
is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job. That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.
MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor 24 ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635

A. KANE,
Proprietor of the
EAST END FEED STORE.
Dealer in
Hay, Feed, Grain & Flour, Coal and Wood.
Also Dealer in
BLUE STONE, FLAGGING and CURBING.
The best goods and work at the lowest prices.
Store and Office
409 East Third St.,
Telephone 913.
A. McKeon, Manager.
Open evenings until 8 o'clock.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
81 Steiner place, North Plainfield.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, etc. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets.
Interior decorating a specialty. Our paper-hanging first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 10

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in fresh and salted meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview avenue and Somerset street.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM

will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.
Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.
The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.
FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

GEO. O. STEVENS & CO.
COAL.
747 WEST FRONT ST.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
211 West Front Street.
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . .
: SPECIALS :
For This Week.
U. S. club skates.
Shinny sticks.
Skate Straps.
Boys' sleighs.
" coasters.
Steel snow shovels.
Wood " "
Carpet sweepers.
Oil heaters.
Parlor stoves reduced.
The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.
A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

John G. Bantle,
First-class
Ladies' and Gent's TAILOR.
428 Watchung Avenue.
Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
TELEPHONE 1163.

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS
For the Fire-place. Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates. Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park avenue. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87.

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 149 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.
We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1.25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.
A Big Assortment.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.
Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

Defective Eyes.
Overstrained and Defective Eyes are the cause of many a
HEADACHE.
Correctly-fitted Glasses will remedy the trouble. A Scientific Examination Free and Glasses Guaranteed.
STILES & CO.,
107 E. Front St.
EVERY THURSDAY.
Hours: 10:30 to 5:00.

Demulcent Cream
Will soften the skin.
Will prevent roughness.
Will please everyone.
"Is a Delightful Cream to use."
Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
Paris for 1900.
Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.
Circulars at
181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

M. Molnar,
432 Watchung Ave.,
Ladies' and Gents'
FINE TAILORING
Graduate of
New York Cutting School.
Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with o'd clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83 A.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills
25c.
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

The fat undertaker,
Who plants by the acre,
Poor victims of cough and cold,
Is sighing and crying,
For we've all stopped dying
Since Brazilian Balm was sold.
And for those who desire
Not just yet to go higher
It is worth its weight in gold.
For sale by all druggists. L. W. Randolph, Wholesale Agent.

NOTED DIVINE DEAD.

Dr. Edward McGlynn Yields to Long Illness.

CHAMPION OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Excommunicated From Roman Catholic Church, but Finally Restored Without Change of Attitude. Beloved by the Masses.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Jan. 8.—The Rev. Dr. Edward McGlynn, rector of St. Mary's church, died at the rectory at 5:20 Sunday afternoon after an illness of six weeks. Death was due to heart failure superinduced by Bright's disease.

All efforts toward prolonging life were made by the physicians, but at 4 o'clock the priest lapsed into unconsciousness, his last audible prayer being, "Jesus, have mercy on me." He passed away without recovering consciousness.

The citizens of the city were preparing a testimonial for Dr. McGlynn, who celebrated his first mass in St. Mary's church on New Year's day, 1895, and who had been in the ministry for 40 years. People of all denominations were to have united in honoring the priest, and a purse was to have been presented to him. He was beloved by Newburg people, and they purposed to show their affection for him. News of his death caused profound sorrow. Prayers had been offered in both Protestant and Catholic churches for his recovery.

Dr. McGlynn was first stricken with illness on Nov. 16 at the rectory. He was seized with a severe cold and was compelled to seek his bed. Though he was obliged to break engagements to lecture, no alarm was felt by his friends until the following Monday, when he suffered a severe chill. The first serious attack occurred Nov. 26, and a day or two later there was a consultation of physicians. It was announced that Dr. McGlynn was suffering from chronic kidney disease.

Early in December Dr. McGlynn suffered two attacks of heart failure, and his relatives were hurriedly summoned. He rallied, and until Saturday night he appeared to be holding his own and gradually regained strength. He was able to sit by his bedside for a few minutes each day, but was never able to leave his room.

Dr. McGlynn was 62 years old last September. When he was stricken, he was robust and of fine physique, but he became greatly emaciated by his long illness.

Edward McGlynn was born in New York city on Sept. 27, 1837. He was educated at the public schools and in 1851-60 studied theology at the College of the Propaganda in Rome, where he received his doctorate after public examination.

In 1860 he was ordained to the priesthood, and on his return to America he was made an assistant pastor and also became a hospital chaplain. In 1866 he was appointed pastor of St. Stephen's church in New York city and became very popular by his eloquence, heartiness and quick sympathy with the people.

Dr. McGlynn's unwillingness to establish a parochial school in connection with his church and his claim that the public schools were safe for the children of Roman Catholics brought him into disfavor with the authorities of the church. He supported Henry George during the mayoralty canvass of 1886, and his remarks in favor of Mr. George's land theories on public platforms resulted in his being censured by the archbishop of the diocese. He persisted, and the matter was referred to Rome for action. The archbishop meanwhile removed him from the charge of St. Stephen's, and he was summoned to appear at the Vatican, but, ignoring the papal command, he was excommunicated. During the spring of 1887 Dr. McGlynn helped to found and became the president of the Antipoverty society and was conspicuous by his Sunday evening lectures before that body.

When Mgr. Satolli came to the United States as apostolic legate in 1892 he examined Dr. McGlynn's case by the pope's special authority. The trial was held in the Catholic university in Washington. On Dec. 24 the following statement was given out by Father O'Gorman:

"To end the many contradictory telegrams sent out to the university for inquiry it is thought expedient to state that at 9 o'clock p. m. Dr. McGlynn was declared free from ecclesiastical censures and restored to the exercise of priestly functions after having satisfied the pope's legate on all the points in his case."

It was said later that Mgr. Satolli had said he did not find that the doctrines which Dr. McGlynn had preached were really opposed to the church's teaching. Archbishop Corrigan expressed his pleasure at the return of Dr. McGlynn to the communion of the church. Dr. McGlynn was allowed to officiate as a priest on Christmas morning in the small oratory attached to St. John's college in Brooklyn.

After saying three masses Dr. McGlynn went to Cooper Union, where an immense crowd was awaiting him. Many of these were old parishioners, who had been afraid to talk to him during the period of his excommunication, and they greeted him very heartily, and when he mounted the platform he was presented with a laurel wreath, and the great assembly sang Christmas carols.

In his speech that followed Dr. McGlynn did not utter one word of regret at his past course, but, on the contrary, he referred to what he called "the cause" as a holy one and to himself and his followers as martyrs and concluded that he would preach and lecture on the same topics every Sunday evening in the same old place.

His old parishioners hoped that he would be restored to them or appointed to some other church in New York, but Archbishop Corrigan appointed him to Newburg.

Goebel to Be Seated.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Urey Woodson of Kentucky, Democratic committeeman from that state and a member of the ways and means committee, who came to Chicago to attend the Jackson banquet, said: "Mr. Goebel will be in possession of the governor's office between Jan. 25 and Feb. 1. Senator Blackburn and not Mr. Goebel is the man who insisted on carrying the contest up to the legislature."

Cincinnati Educator Dead.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 8.—William H. Morgan, aged 63 years, is dead. He had been connected with the public schools of Cincinnati for very many years and was the superintendent for ten years until on account of his health he was succeeded last fall by Superintendent Boone. Mr. Morgan was a brother-in-law of Governor Bushnell.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

EDUCATIONAL

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
ADELLA C. PHELPS, ARTIST.
Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
PIANO AND THEORY
Home Studio,
182 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN.
Address—60 SANFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

Piano Instruction
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes
Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
449 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
36 Vine St. All work promptly attended to

Pride's Tonsorial Parlor
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
WILLIAM J. PRIDE,
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun John P. Emmon
Telephone 601

Don't be wasting you money and paying high prices for frames. Come and get your framing done with the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street,
where you will find a large assortment in ready-made frames and the latest styles in mouldings to make up frames to order at prices that will surprise you. Also fine drawings in crayons and pastels from all kinds of photographs.
Best Satisfaction Guaranteed.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:20 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
E. H. BIRD, P. M.

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS,
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.
T. M. INGRAHAM.

Wedding and Reception Decorations, Floral Designs & Bouquets A SPECIALTY.
Cut flowers fresh every day. Palms, ferneries, southern smilax at 10 days' notice.
MRS. L. J. DENTON, Florist,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 6c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

COLLIER
EYE SPECIALIST,
103 Park Ave.....
Established 1869. Eyes Examined Free.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing,
Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 168 b.

OUR OYSTERS ARE THE ---FINEST--- ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

E. B. Maynard, NEW SHOP NEW FURNITURE BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

WANTED
25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

FANCY FORMS . . . .

of Ice Cream are becoming more in demand every day, because the price is now made popular. Call to see our wax models of their many shapes. Our popular price ONE DOLLAR a dozen delivered within 5 miles. Further away we pay express on large orders.

R. Walsh & Co. TWO STORES, 157 MARKET STREET, 677 BROAD STREET, NEWARK N. J.
m th

THIS IS THE TIME

to protect your feet from the cold and damp---We can shoe you with reliable shoes at a small cost.

VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.
Repairing Properly Done.

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.
Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins, 149 W. Front St.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.
The Delineator and Glass of Fashion for January Now Ready. Ask for the January Fashion Sheet.
A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE, AGENTS.
144 PARK AVENUE, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.
Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.
at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Wieda's
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
Manufactured at the Premises, 144 West Front St. Phone. 1183.

FIRE!!!
When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by Largest agency in the city 163 Nort Ave., opp. Depot
ELSTON M. FRENCH.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

THE FIGHT DEEPENS

Boers Repulsed With Cold Steel at Ladysmith.

SUFFOLK REGIMENT LOSES SEVENTY

Imperial Troops Retreat From Dordrecht—Fighting Continues Around Colesberg—Garrison at Kuruman Surrenders to Boers.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The British public is at last face to face with a critical moment in the campaign. It may safely be said that at no previous time have there been such anxious hours of suspense as will be passed through until the arrival of further news regarding the fate of Ladysmith.

The week opens with only fresh additions to the disasters that have befallen British arms, and there is no longer any sustaining confidence to buoy up public opinion. The editorials this morning fully reflect the extreme gravity of the situation, with a painful undercurrent of ominous foreboding, mainly caused by the fact that, while the Boers have now changed their tactics and assumed the offensive, General Buller is apparently unable to do more to assist General White than to make a demonstration. The Morning Post says, "He might as well have ordered a display of fireworks."

As the heliograph ceased working yesterday it is presumed that General White's last message was sent by a pigeon or runner. Its purport is serious enough.

The Times publishes a dispatch from Ladysmith, dated Jan. 1, recording two night movements on the part of the Boers to assault the town. These had to be abandoned when the British defenses were reached, but the correspondent says it was apparent that the great attack would not be long delayed. He adds:

"Loyally supported by the civilians the garrison can hold out for a considerable period. We are not yet reduced to half rations. The greatest difficulty is proper accommodation for the wounded and sick."

A special dispatch from Frere camp, dated Jan. 6 at 7:20 p. m., says:

"General White heliographs that he defeated the Boers this morning. They crept up so close to the defending forces that the Gordon highlanders and the Manchesters actually repulsed them at the point of the bayonet."

A dispatch to The Daily Chronicle from Frere camp says:

"Saturday's bombardment of Ladysmith was the heaviest yet recorded. All the heavy guns were working, and the Boers seemed to be pouring in shell from every available lighter gun."

The war office publishes the following dispatch from General Forestier-Walker, commanding at Cape Town:

"General French reports, under date of Jan. 6: 'The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the First battalion of the Suffolk regiment.'

"From news just come to hand from them I gather that, with the authority and with the knowledge of General French, four companies of the First battalion advanced by night against a low hill one mile from their camp. They attacked at dawn. Lieutenant Colonel Watson, commanding, gave orders to charge. He was at once wounded. Orders for retirement were given.

"Three-quarters of the force retreated to camp. The remainder held their ground until they were overpowered by greater numbers, when they surrendered. Seventy were taken prisoners, including seven officers.

"General French reports that the Boer commando which made the attack on Jan. 4 lost 50 killed, besides wounded and prisoners. The commando was dispersed."

General Buller has wired the war office the following, dated Jan. 6, from Frere camp:

"The following message was received from General White at 1 p. m. today: 'Jan. 6, 11 a. m.—Attack continues, and enemy has been re-enforced from the south.'

"The following was also received from General White: 'Jan. 6, 12:45 p. m.—Have beaten enemy off at present, but they are still around me in great numbers, especially to the south, and I think renewed attack very probable.'

"The sun has failed, and I cannot get further information from Ladysmith until tomorrow."

General Buller sends the following from Frere camp, dated Jan. 7:

"This from White, dated Saturday, 3:15 p. m.: 'Attack renewed. Very hard pressed.'

"I have absolutely no more news, and there is no sun. There is a camp rumor that White defeated the enemy at 5 this afternoon and took 400 prisoners.

"I sent all available troops yesterday to make a demonstration at Colenso. The trenches were all occupied by the enemy."

A dispatch from Lourenco Marques, dated Jan. 4, gives the following:

"A dispatch from the Boer headquarters near Dordrecht says:

"'The British have been compelled to retreat from Dordrecht. Fighting continues around Colesberg, where the British occupy some of the outside kopjes. Bullets are dropping inside the town.'"

A special dispatch from Frere camp, dated Saturday, Jan. 6, 7 p. m., says:

"At 2 o'clock this afternoon the whole of General Clery's division marched out of camp to attack Colenso. General Hildyard's brigade was on the left and General Barton's on the right, with the cavalry on the extreme left.

"The attack was slowly developed, and at 4:30 the British field guns advanced on the center and commenced shelling the Boer positions on the flat land between Hlangwane hill and Fort Wylie. About this time a heavy thunderstorm raged over the enemy's positions.

"At 5:30 our troops were still advancing and had reached a point very near Colenso. The naval 4.7 and field guns were busily dropping shells into the enemy's trenches along the river, and the forts of the enemy had made no reply."

General Forestier-Walker, telegraphing from Cape Town, says:

"There is no change in the situation as regards Lord Methuen and General Gatacre.

"Referring to my earlier dispatch today, I have to report that General French reports, under date of Jan. 6 that a medical officer has been sent out to collect all the wounded to the north east of Colesberg. The exact list of persons missing French has not yet ascertained. Probably about 70. The First battalion of the Essex regiment has been sent to replace the First battalion of the Suffolk.

"The position of affairs, tactical and strategic, is without alteration. A Boer medical officer admits it was intended to leave Colesberg. The enemy's loss day by day from our fire has been heavy."

BRITISH GARRISON CAPTURED.

The Town of Kuruman Yields to a Boer Attack.

PRETORIA, Jan. 8. — Field Cornet Visser, under date of Tuesday, Jan. 2, reports as follows from Kuruman, British Bechuanaland:

"I commenced a bombardment of Kuruman yesterday morning, aiming at the police barracks. The fight lasted until 6 in the evening, when the garrison surrendered, issuing from the forts and yielding up arms.

"We took 120 prisoners, including Captain Bates and Captain Dennison, Mr. Hilliard, the magistrate, and eight other officers. We also captured 70 natives, together with a number of rifles and revolvers and a quantity of ammunition.

"Fifteen British were wounded. They are being attended by us with the help of Dr. Bearne, an English physician.

"The horses, oxen, mealies and flour taken from the prisoners have been sent to Pretoria by way of Vryburg."

A LONG WAR.

Boers Will Fight to the Last Ditch For Their Freedom.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Daniel J. Wessels, a brother of General Cornelius Wessels, the commander of the Boer forces besieging Kimberley, and cousin of President Steyn of the Orange Free State, said in an interview in Chicago:

"I expect to get back in time to have plenty of fighting. I am convinced the war will last at least another year, and while the Boers will probably be crushed, provided there is no foreign intervention, there is certain to be a protracted period of guerrilla warfare, for the Boers will fight to the last extremity.

"I think the present war might have been avoided but for England's oppressive demands, yet it would have been merely the postponement of an inevitable conflict, for the time would have come when the Boers and the English would have battled for supremacy in South Africa.

"One who has not personal knowledge of the fact cannot understand the bitter, undying hatred which the Boers have for the English. After the Jameson raid I met numbers of old men who prayed they might not die until they had first killed an Englishman in battle, and the children have become imbued with the same sentiment. Such a people will not be conquered easily."

A. W. GREELY ASSAULTED.

Drunken Man Pitches the General From Doorstep.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—General A. W. Greely, the chief signal officer of the army and the well known arctic explorer, lies in a serious condition at his home, 914 G street, northwest, as the result of an assault committed on him about half past 8 o'clock last night by Joseph C. Furnace, a messenger in the employ of the Adams Express company.

General Greely was thrown down a flight of stone steps and received a severe scalp wound, from which he lost a great deal of blood. He was stunned by the fall and remained unconscious for nearly an hour. A physician dressed the wound and applied restoratives. He found no fracture of the skull, and it is not believed that the injury will prove dangerous. His assailant was intoxicated.

Money Found In a Book.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 8.—John B Pankey, manager of the English hotel at English, Crawford county, while looking through the wareroom of the hotel found a book with the name of Philip McDonough of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., written on the fly leaf. Between the leaves of the book were four $100 bills, one $500 bill and two $1,000 bills, making a total of $2,900. The book is entitled "Protestantism and Catholicity Compared In Their Effects on the Civilization of Europe." Mr. Pankey has no idea how the book came to be in the wareroom of the hotel, nor does he recall ever having had a guest by the name of McDonnough at his hotel.

Ice Cream Man Takes an Island.

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 8.—News comes from Honolulu that Cocoanut island, famous for its picturesque seabeach and palm grove, has been seized by C. D Pringle, an ice cream merchant of Hilo and claimed by him on squatter sover eighty. The Hawaiian government sets claim to the island as having been set aside by the monarchy for a quarantine station for Hilo harbor. Minister of the Interior Young has notified Pringle to leave, but instead of doing so the ice cream man has thrown up a fortification within the cocoanut grove and is prepared to defend his claim by arms.

Use as much of the fine, pure lather of Ivory Soap as you please, the more the better, and greater the pleasure. There's nothing in Ivory Soap to injure the most delicate skin. It improves the complexion by cleansing the pores of all impurities.

IT FLOATS.

COPYRIGHT 1898 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

Colombia's President Dead.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Jan. 8.—Advices from Colombia report the death of President M. A. Sanclemente, which has created a new situation and greatly complicated the political outlook. The insurgents are making the most of the changed conditions. Additional calls for men and loans made upon the state of Panama will, it is thought likely, provoke an open adherence to the revolutionary movement, as was the case in 1885, the present situation being intolerable.

Jones For the Senate.

TOLEDO, Jan. 8.—The supporters of Mayor Samuel M. Jones in his nonpartisan campaign are organizing his strength into a party or movement which has for its object the control of several congressional districts in this corner of the state next fall and if possible the election of Mr. Jones to the United States senate in 1902. There will be a conference in furtherance of the plan between the mayor and leaders of the nonpartisan movement in Cincinnati and Cleveland as soon as Mr. Jones returns from New York.

Life Sentence For Lynchers.

PALESTINE, Tex., Jan. 8.—Bob Stevens, the second of a number of men to be tried for the murder of James Humphries and his two sons by lynching, has been convicted of murder and sentenced to prison for life. Edwin Cain was given a life sentence a few days ago. The cases of the other alleged lynchers has been continued by consent until next June.

Mansion Set on Fire.

WAVERLEY, Mass., Jan. 8. — The mansion on the estate of the late lawyer Nathan Morse, in Waltham, was burned Sunday morning with its furnishings. The loss is about $10,000, probably insured. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

Trolley Car Accident.

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., Jan. 8.—Car No. 17 of the Rapid railway, Detroit and Mount Clemens line, ran into an open switch at a gravel pit four miles south of this city last evening. Several persons were badly injured. Among them are: Mrs. Carrie Riley of Detroit, badly hurt; Mrs. Ed Shabman, broken arm and dislocated shoulder; Frank Newy, broken arm and dislocated shoulder. Several others were more or less injured.

Hibernians Favor the Boers.

ALBANY, Jan. 8.—The Ancient Order of Hibernians of Albany county, in convention here assembled, have adopted resolutions offering their heartiest congratulations to the Boers for the gallant fight which they are making for the protection of their lives and liberty and promising aid in case their national officers should see fit to order such a call to strike a blow at England, who is oppressing the Boers.

General Stanton Ill.

OMAHA, Jan. 8.—General T. H. Stanton, U. S. A., retired, is critically ill at his residence in this city. General Stanton, who for some time served in the position of paymaster at Washington and was later promoted to brigadier general, came to his home here last fall and just before Christmas was taken ill with an affection of the liver. He has been in bed ever since, and the case has not yielded to treatment.

A Kentucky Shooting.

LONDON, Ky., Jan. 8.—News has reached here of a general fight on Otter creek, Clay county, in which Lige Lewis and General May were shot and killed and four other participants seriously wounded. The fight occurred at a schoolhouse where one of the Jacksons was on trial before a magistrate for killing another Jackson.

Negroes Leaving Georgia.

COVINGTON, Jan. 8.—This section of Georgia is threatened with a labor famine owing to the fact that the negroes in large numbers are leaving for Mississippi, Arkansas and Louisiana, where there is said to be a big demand for negro labor. Almost daily two or three carloads of negroes westward bound leave this section.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

325 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance.
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district
Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., JAN. 8, 1900

COMING EVENTS.

Jan. 8—Public debate in large hall of Y. M. C. A. at 8 p. m. Subject: Resolved, That the U. S. Should Own All Public Railroads and Telegraphs Within Its Domain."

January 8—Board of Education meets to organize.

January 9—Joint installation of G. A. R., S. of V. and W. R. C.

January 11—"My Mother-in-Law" at Music Hall.

January 13—"Si Plunkard" at Music Hall.

January 14—Harry Gee will address the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. at 4:15 p. m. Mrs. John Manley will sing. Instrumental music.

January 15—Union Bible class of Rev. D. M. Stearns at the Y. M. C. A. Hall at 4.15 p. m.

January 18—Annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A.

Rahway Bank Failure.

The failure of the Union County Bank at Rahway is a hard blow to the material interests of that city, and especially so when the circumstances of the collapse of the institution are considered. The closing up of the bank is an echo of crash following the peculations of Valentine in Perth Amboy, and is indirectly traceable to that wrecker with whom the law has thus far dealt leniently with. The failure of the Rahway institution tends to add fuel to the fire of indignation against the worthless fellow who played fast and loose with the confidence and cash of the Perth Amboy bank, and will add to the chances of just punishment being meted out to him before he escapes from the criminal predicament into which he became involved when the crash came.

There is but trifling consolation, however, for the depositors of the Rahway bank in the hope that at sometime Valentine may be made to feel more severely the gravity of the crime he committed. The Rahway depositors' fund are at stake, and until their financial depression is remedied there will be no quietude among them. The run on the bank was caused, of course, by the involved state of affairs which followed the Valentine embezzlement, depositors becoming wary of the safety of an institution when the custodians of their funds were linked in a business way with the wrecked institution of the neighboring town. Such a condition of affairs leads the Newark Call to moralizthusly:

The Rahway bank run appears to be due to a distrust of men connected with the institution, who have been mixed up in transactions which have not been of a character to inspire trust, to say the least. There may be no good ground whatever for the uneasiness, but of all employments, except the ministry, personal character is most important in banking, and men who have become, in any way, however unjustly, objects of doubt, not to say suspicion, should get out of the management and give place to those who have full public confidence. This seems hard at times, but it is a fact which is a sufficient reply to protests from the interested parties.

Trolley Company's Tax.

No improvement contemplated for North Plainfield in several years will be more advantageous when consummated than the plan to widen Somerset street from forty to fifty feet through the most important part of place. The street is too congested at present, but with five feet added to its width on each side there will be a relief that will be a material increase in the convenience and accommodation of the traffic that is imposed upon the thoroughfare.

We do not know what share of the expense of the improvement will be assessed against the Plainfield Street Railway Company, but in appreciation of the extent to which the trolley company has contributed to necessitate the work of widening the thoroughfare there ought to be a big share of the expense paid by the company. The laying of the tracks and the operation of the cars in the street has caused the congestion that is complained of, and in consideration of this fact the trolley company should be compelled to pay a share of the tax in proportion to the manner in which it has made the condition that can only be relieved by the widening of the street.

There seems to have been a little misunderstanding concerning the origin of the proposition to increase the important committees of the Common Council from three to five members. The plan was first thought of by Councilman J. B. Dumont. Mr. Dumont mentioned the plan to former Mayor Charles J. Fisk and remarked that he was going to propose it at the caucus of the Council. In the course of a later conversation between Mr. Fisk and Councilman Frank H Smith, the subject was mentioned by Mr. Fisk and discussed by them. In that way, the report gained credence that the scheme had originated between Mr. Fisk and Councilman Smith.

The Paterson Guardian evidently does not put much hope in the success of the bill for the publication of assessments in the newspapers of the localities to which the apply, which Senator Reed intends to introduce in the Legislature at the coming session. The Guardian says: "If Senator Reed lives to see his bill enacted into law and if it accomplishes what he claims for it, one may well be pardoned for having believed in the theory that the world is coming to an end next year."

The Legislature will convene tomorrow noon. Everything is arranged for the organization and the work of effecting it will be but perfunctory. For the sake of having a little fun, it is too bad that the Hon. Roger Franklin Murray will not be on the floor to add to the gaity of politics. It is doubtful if there will be such a perpetual disturber of the plans of the leaders in the Assembly this year as there was at the last session in the person of the Honorable Roger.

It is nothing short of a disgrace that New Brunswickers should be seen going to theatrical performances in Plainfield. The Union county city is much smaller and much less important than New Brunswick, yet she supports an excellent theatre.—New Brunswick Home News.

Poor old Dutch town, the villain still pursues her.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest to Plainfield.

Recorder Senior, of Paterson, rules that shaving is a work of necessity and therefore barbers who keep their shops open on Sunday are not violators of the Sunday laws. Five miles nearer Newark Justice Bowker, of Passaic, decides that shaving is not a work of necessity and fines every Sunday-shaving barber that is brought before him. As both magistrates profess to be governed by the same law in making their diametrically opposite decisions it can only be inferred that there is in Paterson a higher standard of civilization, a keener sense of the decencies of life and a greater regard for personal appearance, which makes certain toilet attentions necessaries while in Passaic they are regarded as luxuries.—Newark News.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

"Always look on the bright side, never once despair." Ye husbands who have mothers-in-law who spoil your happy home, go see the comedy, "My Mother-in law," which will be at Music Hall Thursday night. There are mothers in law whom you are pleased to see, and then there are mothers in law whom—well—there are others. "My Mother-in law," which will be presented here by a clever company of comedians, headed by Ullie Akerstrom, will please you, although she causes lots of trouble in a once happy home.

* * * * * *

"Si Plunkard" the roaring, rousing rally of fun as presented by J. C. Lewis and his big company of comedians, will create barrels of laughter from those fond of fun at Music Hall, Saturday afternoon and night. So those who wish an evening to drive away dull care should be on hand to see "Si" and his funny comedians in his new version of the laughing success, "Si Plunkard." All new features, new novelties, everything new. There will be a grand street parade at noon also, in which "The Farmer Band" appear.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Thieves in Somerville.

Thieves stole 300 pounds of lead from George Anderson's barn, last week, and $30 worth of brushes belonging to P. W. Tunison, Jr., of Somerville.

—Use Press want ads.

THERE IS A CLASS OF PEOPLE

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over ¼ as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15c. and 25c. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it: no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

The Spring Campaign

Through all the rush and turmoil of the Holiday Season, just past—we have been making careful preparations for an energetic Spring Mercantile Campaign. Silent, but forceful influences have been steadily at work with one object in view, viz: The making of our establishment an ideal store. Many lines of goods have been carefully scanned; from some lines only the best selected; other lines entirely rejected. We have demanded the newest and best of everything, and insist the best is none too good. Our efforts have been rewarded by our securing the choicest and most desirable goods from the various lines represented in our store. Our business is conducted upon a high plane, but we welcome and propose to take good care of the most humble customer. This is to be in every sense "THE PEOPLE'S STORE."

Wash Goods.

Our new wash fabrics are arriving and already we are making a most delightful showing of dainty lawns, dimities, ginghams, percales, etc., etc.

Designers of the printed fabrics have surpassed all previous efforts by producing new and dainty effects in the most serviceable colorings. Corded ginghams, introduced last season for the first, will have a prominent place in this season's showing, and are worthy of the strongest recommendation for serviceable qualities.

Fine Domestic Dimities at 14c per yard.
Genuine English " 18c per yard.

Corded Gingham (madras effects) at 10c, 20c and 25c yd are worthy especial mention.

New Spring Woollens.

52-in Vicuna Serge made by the Broadhead Worsted Mills, at 98c per yard, cannot be surpassed. They are strong, wiry, do not crush, and are sponged and shrunken. Two beautiful black Cheviots, 54 inches wide, at 79c & 98c, are very desirable; excellent color and fine lustre. 52-in Broadcloths, in all colors, 98c yd. 38-in all-wool Homespuns, 50c. 54-in Homespuns, value $1.00, 89c. 40 in Black Crepons, guaranteed value $1.35, $1.00. 38-in Black Granite Suiting, 50c.

LACES, EMBROIDERIES, Etc., Etc.

Our showing in this line surpasses that of all former years in that we have more variety and finer goods. Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss Edgings, with insertings and beadings to match. All over effects in Cambric, Nainsook, and Combination Lace and Tucked effects, Applique Bands, Edging and all overs to match. New Point de Venise Lace Collars and Revers. New Braided and Spangled Nets. New Lace Ties, narrow. New Silk Ties and a thousand other new novelties equally attractive.

FOR THE MEN.

All our 1.25 Outing Flannel Pajamas, reduced to		98c
Men's Fine Camels Hair Underwear,	98c	garment
" " " " (double breasted)	1.25	"
" " Imported Natural Wool (German)	1.75	"
" " Camels Hair, ½ Hose		25c pr
Dent's "Breton Cape" Kid Gloves		1.85 pr
Myers' Cabretta Kid Gloves		1.00 pr
" Silk Lined Mocha Kid Gloves (gray)		1.50 pr
" Fleece Lined Castor, reduced to		1.25 pr

Full line men's, youths' and childs' wool gloves.
The newest of everything in gent's neckwear.

Dr. Denton's - - SLEEPING GARMENTS For Children, 2 yrs to 10 yrs.

In our Basement. The inevitable rise in the price of Furniture has taken place. Manufacturers everywhere have materially advanced prices, and state that further advances must come. Our stock as it is at present will be sold at the old prices. Our advice to those who need furniture is—buy it now.

Solid Oak Buffets with double thick FRENCH PLATE MIRRORS, from 11.98 to 25.00.

If Bought Today Would Sell for 20 per cent. More.

5 drawer Solid Oak Chiffoniers, without glass, 4.98.

5 drawer Extra Finished, with glass, 7.98.

Better grades up to 17.98.

WHITE IRON BEDS.

1 in post, brass trimmed, heavy filling, 3.98.
Better ones at 4.98, 5 75, 6.48, 6 98, 7.98, 9 98, 14 98 and 16 75.
Iron Cribs with Spring Mattresses, 6 48, 7.75 and 11 98.
Full size soft top mattresses 2 25
" " 45 lb white cotton mattresses, one part 5 48.
Full size 45 lb white cotton mattresses, 2 parts, 5.98.
Genuine Cotton Felt mattresses, two pieces, 8 75.
Hair Mattresses made to order.

Facing the Inevitable. Prices in every line are on the jump. Cottons are higher. Woollens are higher. Manufactured goods of all kinds are higher and will be still higher. A pretty sum may be saved by early purchase. By all means make us a visit. We will appreciate it and you will be benefited.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,

334, 236, 238 and 246 WEST FRONT STREET.

PECK'S CORNER.

FINE MERINO UNDERWEAR, Suited to this Weather, SOLD AT PECK'S.

GOOD TIMES ARE HERE.

Now is the time to place your money in Real Estate at ground floor prices.

WOODLAND PARK
will suit the aristocratic home-seekers.

DEWEY PARK and LINCOLN
will suit the small investor and home-seeker.

SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

An Annual . . . . Clearing Sale

of our entire stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's suits, reefers, overcoats, ulsters and heavy-weight trousers begins this Saturday and will last for a short time only.

All MEN'S OVERCOATS that were sold at 7.00 and 8.00, clearing sale price 4.25 and 4 75.
All MEN'S OVERCOATS that we sold from 8.50 to 10.00, clearing sale price 5 50.
350 extra fine OVERCOATS, former prices from 12.00 to 15.00, clearing sale price 6 50 and 7 00.
MEN'S ULSTERS reduced from 7.00 to 4.50.
Best Shamrock IRISH FRIEZE ULSTERS, reduced to 6.50, former price 12.00.
1,000 Men's and Youth's heavy weight suits of all descriptions, styles and qualities, which we must and will sell regardless of cost or value. 5.00 suits to be sold at 2 75. 7.50 suits to go at 4 50. 10.00 suits to go at 5 75, and all others in proportion. Children's Suits at 1.00, worth 2.00. 2.50 Child's Suits to go at 1.45.
2,000 pairs of Men's Trousers to be included in this sale at 1.00, 1.50, 2.00 and 2.25. Boys' Knee Pants with double seat and double knees at 20c.
Men's fleece lined underwear at 30c, worth 50c. Men's winter caps at 15c. Working shirts at 15c, and thousands of more bargains at this great clearing sale. Call early and avoid the great Saturday rush.

Will Pay Carfare to all Buyers of Clothing.

New York Clothing Company

M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

OVERCOATS & SUITS.

WE will close out all of our stock now at prices that defy competition; they must go. So if you need anything in the shape of the above call and be convinced of the fact. We have cut the prices in just half what we sold them for in the early season.

TRY A PAIR OF OUR 98c PANTS.
GET BRACED FOR 13c.
HATS, CAPS AND GENTS FURNISHINGS.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

Werner Clothing House,
206 W. Front Street.

THE BOOT SHOP

AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.
Capital, $150,000.
Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson. H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J. B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, Jan. 8.—Dr. P. W. Brakeley, a member of the Republican executive committee of Middlesex county, attended a meeting of that organization at New Brunswick Saturday.

All taxes unpaid by Jan. 30th are recorded in the County Clerk's office and a charge of $1 on each parcel of real estate is made to secure a discharge.

The members of the Methodist Sunday-school have presented Miss Emma Apgar, the efficient and faithful organist, with a handsome piece of furniture.

Rev. L. O. Grenelle, a former pastor of the First Baptist Church, of New Market, celebrated at Asbury Park his golden wedding last Monday.

The Knoxonale Club met at the home of William Hamilton Friday evening where a social entertainment was provided.

Master Jolie Giddis, who was taken to Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield, last Tuesday for treatment, is gradually recovering.

Miss Mildred Gaskill is assisting the choir of the Methodist church during the absence of Miss Ethel Jamison.

Miss Maude Thacher, of High Bridge, has been visiting at the home of Alvah Gray on Washington avenue.

Mrs. Joseph Marier has been entertaining Mrs. Mary Doyle and Mrs. John Cailigan, of Cranford.

Luther Henry and Miss Ethel Brown, of New Market, were married recently by Rev. Frank Fletcher.

The Misses Mary E. and Lizzie Martine have returned to their school at Northfield, Mass.

Ticket Agent T. J. Bonayne has been entertaining his sister, Mrs. A Boy, of Ranway.

Miss Estelle Trust has returned from a visit with friends in New York and Newark.

Miss Edna and Master Nellie Huff have been visiting friends in New York.

Miss Ethel Jamison is visiting friends in Newark and Irvington.

Percy Apgar is attending the Coleman Business College at Newark.

Miss Rose Haynes has returned from a visit with friends in New York.

S. C. Staples is recovering from a recent illness.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Jan. 8.—The membrs of the Baptist church will observe the week of prayer, beginning with to night, when the service will be devoted to a brief memorial service to the late Dwight L. Moody.

The trolley extension to Cranford did a rushing business all day Sunday. During Sunday afternoon standing room was at a premium but the patrons who had been drawn out by the pleasant weather took the crowding good-naturedly.

A number of church workers from the several churches are attending the Moody memorial meeting being held in Carnegie Hall, New York, this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston, of Netherwood, were the guests yesterday of Mrs. Johnston's sister, Mrs. John Marsh.

Mrs. Frank Gaskill and daughter, of New Market, were the guests of friends in town yesterday.

Miss Sadie Reger has been the guest of friends in Cranford for several days.

Miss Belle Mercein has returned from a visit with her sister in Plainfield.

Miss Katie Hart has been entertaining her sister from Newark for several days.

WESTFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, Jan. 8.—It now looks as though Westfield would have a golf club before another summer comes Paul Q. Oliver, the township attorney, W. G. Peckham, the well-known New York lawyer, ex-township committeeman, George H. Embree and several others, with residents of Scotch Plains and Fanwood, are said to be negotating for a tract of land near Graceland on which to erect a club house and locate their links.

Although not used to playing in doors, the Lincoln High School football team played a tie game with the strong Cameo Field Club team at the riding academy of the Brooklyn Riding and Driving Club Wednesday evening. The score was 5 to 5. The Westfield team defeated the same team on the Broad street grounds Thanksgiving Day by a score of 27 to 0.

At a special meeting of Bucket & and Engine Company it was decided to give their annual dinner this evening. It has not, as yet, been decided as to where the dinner will be held.

Bon Ami

The New Cleaner

HAS MERITS THAT ARE UNEQUALED. THOSE WHO USE IT SAY, "COULDN'T DO WITHOUT IT."

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—One week from tonight the Board of Trade will meet and elect officers.

—This evening the Common Council meet and will consider some important business.

—The Union County Medical Association will hold its regular quarterly meeting this month.

—The business at the postoffice has returned to its normal condition and the carriers are happy.

—The Week of Prayer will be quite generally observed this week in all of the Plainfield churches.

—Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. and A. M., will hold a regular communication tomorrow evening.

—The directors of the Plainfield Water Supply Company will meet tomorrow in regular session.

—At the meeting of Washington Camp, No. 30, P. O. S. of A., this evening there will be election of officers.

—The Board of Education will hold its regular meeting this evening, which was adjourned from last week Monday.

—Plainfield Council No. 711, Royal Arcanum, will meet this evening, and a full attendance of the members is desired.

—Wednesday evening Lucetta Council, Daughters of Liberty, will meet and a full attendance of members is requested.

—Stone Square Lodge, No. 38 F. and A. M., will meet tonight and consider business of importance to every member.

—One week from tonight Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., will hold a regular conclave and consider important business.

—Tomorrow evening there will be a joint installation of the officers-elect of the G. A. R., Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans.

—Charles VanMiddlesworth and H. J. Martin have formed a partnership in a laundry business, which they are carrying on in a small way.

—February 1st W. R. Brokaw, the music dealer, will move from Front street to the store on Park avenue formerly occupied by Moraller, the jeweler.

—It has been arranged that the painters shall start today to paint the letterboxes an aluminum color, a description of which was given recently in The Daily Press.

—Rev. W. C. O'Donnell, chairman of the Soldier's Monument Committee, has called a meeting of the committee for next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Mayor's office.

—Rev. E. Jackson, pastor of the Mt. Olive Baptist church, requests that those having envelopes for the hospital offering at that church will kindly bring them tomorrow as a report is to made Monday.

—The special committee appointed by the Legislature to revise the school laws has been holding special meetings of late. One was held in Newark and one in Trenton. In each case the attendance was large and a general expression of opinion was received from those present.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

J. W. VanHorn, of Duer street, is greatly improved from a tedious illness.

Mrs. E. P. T. Smith, of West Fourth street, is spending two weeks in New York.

Theodore A. Kurzhals, Jr., of West Sixth street, is detained at home by illness.

Walter Dreier, of West Front street, is slightly improved from his serious illness.

C. E. Hepburn, of East Second street, has recovered from his recent illness.

Miss Farenholz, of West Front street, has returned from a visit with Baltimore relatives.

Miss Lavinia French, of Brooklyn, has been visiting relatives in Plainfield for a short time.

The members of Mayor Smalley's family, who have been ill with mumps, are greatly improved.

Former Mayor B. A. Hegeman, Jr., who has been detained at home by illness, is greatly improved.

Editor Hugh Boyd, of the New Brunswick Home News, is spending the winter in southern California.

The Misses Mae and Stella Coddington, of New Brunswick, are visiting borough relatives for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Auten, of Perth Amboy, spent Sunday with Mrs. Auten's relatives on Central avenue.

Bessie VanWinkle, of West Fourth street, is recovering from a tedious illness, under the care of Dr. Currie.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Martell, of West Third street, have returned home after spending two weeks at North Brookfield, Mass.

Miss Lizzie Dunlap, of East Fifth street, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Pangborn, of Newark, has returned home.

Mrs. J. M. Smalley and family, of Watchung avenue, have returned from a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Randolph, at Brooklyn.

A recent letter received from Fred Leland, who is in the south for his health, says that he is doing very well. He has had no relapse for some time.

The young Stewart boy, of West Front street, who is suffering with blood poisoning as a result of vaccination, is apparently improved, although he still suffers greatly.

CANAL COMMISSION SAILS.

Gentlemen Named by the President Will Inspect Routes.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—The commission appointed by President McKinley to determine the most feasible and practicable route for a canal across the isthmus of Panama sailed from this city on the Atlas line steamship Alene.

The commission consists of Rear Admiral John G. Walker, retired; Samuel Pasco of Florida, Alfred Noble of Chicago, George S. Morrison of New York, Brigadier General Hains, U. S. A.; Professor William H. Burr of Columbia university, Colonel Oswald H. Ernst, U. S. A.; Professor Lewis M. Haupt of Philadelphia, and Professor Emory R. Johnson of the University of Pennsylvania.

According to their plans the members of the commission will go direct to Greytown and will proceed to make a full examination of the Nicaragua route. On reaching the Pacific side they will go down the coast to Panama and follow the route of the French canal back to the Atlantic side. It is expected that the work of the commission at the isthmus will take three months.

AT GAMBETTA'S TOMB.

Imposing Republican Demonstration In Paris.

PARIS, Jan. 8.—There was an imposing Republican demonstration yesterday on the occasion of the annual pilgrimage to Gambetta's monument at Ville d'Avray, a suburb of Paris. Despite the inclement weather an enormous crowd was in attendance. The premier, M. Waldeck-Rousseau, and the minister of war, the Marquis de Galliffet, sent representatives.

Senator Theodore Cazot delivered the principal speech, appealing in the name of Gambetta for "union and concord, of which France never stood more in need than she does today."

The meeting voted an address of congratulation to the premier upon his campaign in defense of the republic.

Aged Woman Burned.

WEBSTER, Mass., Jan. 8.—Mrs. Lucy Johnston, 105 years old, the only surviving member of the Nipunk tribe, was burned alive last night, and it is generally supposed that the fire which caused her death and burned the old Johnston homestead was the work of incendiaries. About 11 o'clock last night an alarm from box 32 turned in by William Fogarty brought the Webster fire department to the Johnston house in the Indian woods, about two miles from this place. Before the apparatus could get to work the flames had completely destroyed the house.

To Stop Sunday Performances.

TOLEDO, Jan. 8.—No arrests were made of actors at Sunday's performances at two theaters last night, but the Pastors' union had two constables and several detectives in the audiences, and arrests will be made. The actors will be taken before a country magistrate, and separate trials by jury of each will be insisted upon with a view to harassing and delaying matters so that even in the event of ultimate acquittal the managers will capitulate rather than continue the inconvenience.

LONG KNOWN - - - MUCH USED.

Randolph's Glycerine of Arnica.

for Cold Wind Chaps, Rough Skin and all Irritations of the Skin.

.....QUICK RELIEF GIVEN.....

25c per bottle -:- -:-

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for TELEPHONE CALL 199

Lowney's and Whitman's Chocolates and Chocolate Bon-Bons.

AT COST!!

All of our Men's Furnishings, Shirts, Collars, Cuffs, Etc., have been reduced to Actual Cost

We intend closing our Men's Furnishing Department and want to close it quick. Following are our prices while they last.

White Laundered Shirts, 39c, were 50 and 75c.
White Unlaundered Shirts, elegant, 39c.
Percale Shirts, laundered or soft bosom, 39c.
Fancy Percale Shirts, 75c, were 1.00.
Men's Dressy Kid Gloves, imported, 75c, were 1.25.
Men's Collars, 8c. Also a full assortment of Men's Socks, Ties, etc.

Hereafter we will confine our store to Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing only.

Schepflin & Schultz,

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

HATS Trimmed FREE!

Bonn's

140 WEST FRONT ST.

HATS Trimmed FREE!

1.23 French Felt Hats, now 75c.
98c Short Back Sailors, now 79c.
98c Trimmed Alpines, now 69c.
98c Ready-to-Wear Hats, now 59c.
Fancy Wings, Birds and Ornaments at reduced prices.

Annual January Sale of Ladies' Muslin Underwear.

An entirely new showing of muslin underwear is now ready for your inspection.

These Goods were bought many weeks ago, before the recent heavy advance in prices on cotton goods—Prices have been made accordingly.

Made by one of the famous underwear manufacturers of Massachusetts, in clean, well ventilated factories, insuring absolute cleanliness in manufacture.

Finely made garments, snowy white, beautiful dainty garments. By far the best elaborate assortment we have ever shown.

These goods have just been received, and placed on sale. As to prices, they conform to the regular January bargain prices, which are much lower than the ordinary.

I. LEDERER

"SOROSIS!"

The most popular shoe sold for women. 3 000 pairs turned out of the factory each work day. The best $3 50 shoe in every respect made. We sell them, as well as other lines at a higher price, and also as low as 98c, $1.25, $1 50, $2.00, etc. Good winter shoes for men $1 25, $1 50, $2 00 and up to $5 and $6. Felt Slippers, Rubber Boots, Arctics, Rubbers, everything you need in the shoe line. Peddles, Trunks, Dress Suit Cases and Traveling Bags.

DOANE & EDSALL....

JANUARY SPECIAL SALES.

Ladies' black cloth jackets 2.85, reduced from 5.00.
" " " " 3.85, " " 6.75.
Children's reefer jackets 2.85, former price 3.25.
" " " 5.00, " " 6.25.
Ladies' Golf Capes 5.00, worth 7.00.
" " " 8.75, " 11.75.
Misses' Golf Capes 2.98, usually sold for 4.25.
" " " 4.49, " " " 6.25.
Ladies' House Waists 25c, regular price 50c.
10 doz. Silk Velvet Brilliantine Sample Waists at half value.
2,000 yards 36 in Bleached Muslin at 7¾c, usually sold for 10c.

House Furnishings.

7-piece Berry Set, complete at 10c. Dover Egg Beater 5c.
Coal Shovel, extra long handle, 5c. Wash Boards 12c.

Millinery.

Our entire stock of Winter Millinery to be closed out regardless of cost.
Diss Shapes at 15c and 25c. Trimmed Hats from 75c up.

I. H. BOEHM,

109-113 WEST FRONT STREET.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,

Made only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,

At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.

The January Stock-Taking Sale.

This sale means a large saving to those shrewd buyers who know and appreciate values, and to people of taste and discrimination an opportunity to procure the very finest and choicest of merchandise at less than market values.

Sale of Women's Outer Garments, Including Coats, Capes, Skirts, Suits, and Waists.

The greater part of this season's coat-wearing weather has yet to arrive, and so it happens that the women of this vicinity are enabled to secure the choice of this season's coats and wraps at half actual value.

2.48 Coats reduced from 5.00.
2.98 Coats reduced from 6.00.
3.98 Coats reduced from 7.50.
4.98 Coats reduced from 10.00.
7.98 Coats reduced from 15.00.
2.48 Capes reduced from 5.00.
3.98 Capes reduced from 6.50.
4.98 Capes reduced from 9.50.
98c Dress skirts reduced from 1.39.
1.29 Dress skirts reduced from 1.98.
2.49 Dress skirts reduced from 3.98.
39c Flannelette waists reduced from 50c.
1.98 All-wool cloth waists reduced from 2.75.
2.49 All-wool cloth waists reduced from 3.98.
1.98 Velveteen waists worth 3.00.

The January Sale of Muslin Underwear has a Combined Goodness with Low Cost.

We occupy a wonderfully strong position by the purchase of about eight thousand pieces of muslin underwear last July before prices advanced, most of it at prices less than cost of raw material alone.

The achievement is particularly great when you find 17c drawers and the 39c night gowns just as correctly shaped as the finest.

10c Cambric corset covers, neck trimmed with narrow embroidery.
19c Cambric corset covers, in three styles, lace or embroidery trimmed.
25c Two different styles of cambric corset covers, embroidery or lace trimmed.
50c Corset covers, handsomely trimmed with fine Swiss or cambric embroidery, twelve different styles.
75c Corset covers, trimmed with fine Valenciennes laces and insertions or fine embroidery and ribbon, three different styles.
39c Gowns of good heavy quality muslin, yoke of insertion and clusters of tucking, cut full liberal size.
59c Gowns, good liberal sizes, muslin of a fine quality, handsomely trimmed with fine embroidery.
98c An assortment of nine different styles of gowns in a variety of shapes, lace or embroidery trimmed. A choice line of gowns in various styles at 1.25, 1.39, 1.98, 2.50, 2.75 and 3.00.
17c Drawers, fine heavy muslin, cut full size, finished with hem and cluster of tucks.
25c Drawers in umbrella shape, with deep ruffle of cambric hemstitched and lace insertion.
49c Drawers in six different styles of lace or embroidery trimmed, plain or umbrella shape.
89c Drawers of fine cambric, deep ruffles of insertion and torchon lace trimming with cluster of tucks.

FURNITURE for the Parlor...

Library...

Dining-Room...

Bedroom...

Close at 6 o'Clock.

POWLISON & JONES,

149 and 151 E. Front St.

W. R. BROKAW,

Will occupy the store 207 Park Avenue,

Marsh Building, next to Demarest's Grocery, About February 1st.

His line of MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS will be more complete than ever before, embodying everything in the music line. Don't fail to call on him at his new store for anything you want.

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas, Fine Coffee,

All the Seasonable Goods. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit.

Tel. 931.

C. E. GULICK & CO.,

THE PARK GROCERS.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Preußen.

Provinz Brandenburg.

Berlin. Gelegentlich der Einweihung des Denkmals des Kurfürsten Georg Wilhelm in der Siegesallee überreichte der Kaiser dem Bürgermeister Kirschner die langersehnte Bestätigung als Oberbürgermeister.—Die Landwirthschaftskammer der Provinz beschloß, den Preis für das Liter Rothlaufserum, der bisher 150 Mark betrug, auf 50 Mark herabzusetzen. Es soll dadurch der Schutzimpfung der Schweine die allgemeinste Verbreitung verschafft und jedem auch unbemittelten Manne ermöglicht werden, seinen Viehbestand durch Impfung vor Seuchen zu schützen. —Reichsbankpräsident Koch hat das unter der Hand an ihn gerichtete Anerbieten, ihm den Adel zu verleihen, abermals höflich aber bestimmt abgelehnt.—Das Projekt einer unterirdischen Bahn, das jetzt dem Berliner Magistrat vorliegt, umfaßt äußere und innere Gürtellinien, die durch Querlinien verbunden sind. Die Kosten des Baues sind auf 160,000,000 Mark veranschlagt. Kürzlich ist eine Tunnellinie nach Treptow, die unter der Spree weggeht, eröffnet worden.—Hier werden Jahrhunderts-Medaillen verkauft. Dieselben sind von Silber und tragen Stempel und Inschriften, die sich auf das neue Jahrhundert beziehen.

Perleberg. Das große Hünengrab von Seddin ist dieser Tage für den Preis von 2000 Mark von der Provinz Brandenburg käuflich erworben worden, um es als Nationaldenkmal für alle Zeiten zu erhalten; der Inhalt ist durch Kauf an das Märkische Provinzialmuseum übergegangen.

Spandau. Der Feldwebel Grahl vom Garde-Grenadier-Regiment Nr. 5 ist wegen Unterschlagung amtlicher Gelder verhaftet worden.

Stralau. Hier haben die Sozialisten des Niederbarnimer Kreises ihrem ausgewiesenen Vertrauensmann, dem Oesterreicher Kopp, zu Ehren ein Abschiedsfest veranstaltet.

Provinz Hannover.

Emden. Zum Bau von Arbeiterwohnungen bot die Hamburger Packetfahrt-Aktien-Gesellschaft der Stadt Emden ein Darlehn von 250,000 Mark zu 3.5 Prozent gewährt.

Horburg. Hier hat der arbeitslose Lohgerber Paulsen sein Söhnchen erdrosselt und dann seine Frau und sich selbst erschossen.

Osnabrück. Im Nachbardorf Evinghausen wurde ein Mord an dem Besitzer Barrenpohl durch zwei junge Leute verübt.

Provinz Hessen-Nassau.

Kassel. Einem Beschluß der städtischen Kollegien zufolge werden vom 1. April ab alle Steuerpflichtigen mit einem Einkommen von nicht mehr als 900 Mark jährlich von der Zahlung von direkten Gemeindesteuern entbunden. Der durch diese Aufhebung der untersten Steuerstufen für die Stadtkasse entstehende Steuerausfall beziffert sich auf circa 32,000 Mark.

Hanau. Nach jahrelangen Bemühungen der Stadt bezüglich Einführung der Fäkalien in den Main, ist auf Grund eines von Professor Dr. Fränkel erstatteten Gutachtens endlich dahin Bescheid ertheilt worden, daß die Fäkalien nach mechanischer Klärung in Sedimentirbecken in den Strom geleitet werden dürfen.

Wiesbaden. Der Magistrat beschloß in außerordentlicher Sitzung, baldmöglichst ein neues Kurhaus zu errichten.—Hier ist ein Füsilier Namens Drescher wegen sozialistischer Umtriebe zu längerer, auf der Festung Ehrenbreitstein zu verbüßender Haftstrafe verurtheilt worden.

Provinz Pommern.

Belgard. Als Deserteur verfolgt wird der Sergeant Eggert von der reitenden Abtheilung des 2. Feld-Artillerie-Regiments.

Grimmen. Sechzig Jahre Chausseeaufseher, das ist eine Leistung, die mindestens von eiserner Gesundheit zeugt. Der Aufseher Penning konnte dies seltene Jubiläum begehen, wobei er mehrfach beschenkt wurde.

Provinz Posen.

Posen. Die hiesige Provinzialtaubstummenanstalt, die seit 67 Jahren besteht, feierte dieser Tage ihr 25jähriges Jubiläum als selbstständiges Institut. Die Anstalt war ursprünglich nur für Knaben bestimmt und im Gebäude des Lehrerseminars untergebracht, 1840 wurden die ersten Mädchen aufgenommen. Bei Gründung der Anstalt im Jahre 1832 zählte dieselbe 3 Schüler und 1 Lehrer, doch die Zahl der Zöglinge vermehrte sich bald. Im Jahre 1874 waren schon gegen 50 Zöglinge beiderlei Geschlechts vorhanden. Da nun das Lehrerseminar von Posen nach Rawitsch verlegt wurde, so erhielt am 12. Dezember 1874 die Taubstummenanstalt das ganze Gebäude zur Benutzung und somit auch ihre Selbstständigkeit. Seit 1893 ist die Anstalt für 187 Kinder eingerichtet (Freistellen) und zählt mit dem Direktor 20 Lehrkräfte. Im Ganzen ist das Institut von 890 Katholiken, 78 Protestanten und 37 Juden besucht worden. Der Kursus dauert acht Jahre.

Rawitsch. Probst Dulinski, der bei der letzten Vereidigung der Rekruten die Entfernung der Fahnen aus der katholischen Kirche verlangte, hat auf die Probststelle verzichtet.

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

Yearly Clearance

time has come to this great store. Furniture and carpets at topsy-turvy prices—odd lines, yet new in pattern, and prices at lower marks than we've ever known them!

A great holiday trade left many, many broken lots—all to your profit.

Carpets, too!

Thousands of yards of carpets to go at the cut down prices—a 200-foot floor to show 'em on. Come!

Parlor Suits—over 100 kinds to pick from—beauties all—some are odd ones—all prices.

$9.98
A polished quartered golden oak desk with mirror and two drawers. Worth $14.00.

$18.75
Antique oak bedroom suit. Large French bevel plate mirror. Combination washstand, splasher back. Value $25.00.

$10.98
Solid Oak golden finish, 4 shelves. Value $15.00.

Oil Heaters
A great comfort—cost, 1 cent an hour to run. Odorless.

$3.98
High-armed cherry rocker—spindle back. Easily worth $5.00.

$5.49
A fine cherry frame corner seat—silk damask upholstered seat. Value 8.00.

$5.98
Good sized antique oak chiffonier—5 drawers. Value $9.00.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

A cotton-mill worker tells of some pretty expensive misery. "I am thirty-five years of age," he says, "and have been bothered with indigestion and dyspepsia about ... years. Have had several doctors, but none of them ever helped me any. I spent several hundred dollars for doctors and medicines, but instead of getting better I got worse. Finally I heard of Ripans Tabules, and decided to try them. After I had used them two weeks I commenced to get better. In three months I was like a new man. I believe Ripans are the only sure cure for dyspepsia.

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some druggists. PRICE, FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the cheapest cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL CO., No. 10 Spruce Street, New York.—Or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents. RIPANS TABULES may also be had of grocers, general storekeepers, newsagents and at liquor stores and barber shops.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America Life INSURANCE—New York Life.
Telephone No. 672

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,
THE GROCER.
Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.
[Park] Avenue and Fourth Street.

GRACEFUL GARMENTS.

The New Redingotes Inclose the Figure In Long, Sweeping Curves.

The long garments partaking of the redingote, newmarket and ulster are among the most convenient, graceful and stylish of this season's output. The long capes and mantles have their uses. So do the shorter garments in different jacket shapes, but the others certainly are the most often seen, and they deserve it.

The general form is a princess back, and the sides are also fitted, while the fronts are open from about the bust line down. Some, however, button under flies and others again fasten with horn or pearl buttons. But the best style is either a fly front or one where all fastening is invisible.

A glance at the illustration shows all the salient points of this form of coat. This one has a ripple bordering of the same material, which others do not always have. The strap stitching is used with good effect, and so is the applique in a lighter shade of the same stuff. The whole outline of this is slightly scalloped, the collar forming a short cape on the shoulders.

The full muslin tie gives a touch of elegance, and the pretty revers and sleeves make this garment something more than a mere redingote or newmarket. Some of them are tailor stitched in a manner that may well be called art. Others have narrow rouleaux of fur.

There are several special kinds of cloth for these garments. The richest is the heavy broadcloth in the light pastel shades. The most valuable is the cravanetted covert, and next to broadcloth it is the handsomest. It is proof against damp and rain. After these is a fine, closely woven, narrow wale cheviot, and there are several rough surfaced woolen stuffs, but they are not so handsome or dressy as the others. Some are in small, indistinct checks, with a sort of overthrow of fine hairs.

There are pelisses of velvet, of rich silk and also of some of the finest cloths. These are trimmed, it would seem, with everything that comes to the surface—lace, fur, beading, chiffon ruffles and ribbons. One queer idea is to have the outside rather plain and the inside finished with ruffles of lace, chiffon, silk mull or fur.

One very stylish new cape has a pointed fur yoke. The points reach to the waist line. There is then a deep ruffle sewed to this of velvet, sometimes a yard deep. This brings the whole garment pointed front and back. If it is of velvet it is often trimmed with fur, and sometimes fringe is added at the edge.

There was another redingote worth mention and copying too. It was of Havana brown broadcloth trimmed with bands of Alaska sable fur. It was cut in front so that it did not meet across the chest or waist. This part was filled in with heavy point de venise lace. There were very wide pointed revers on the vest which reached outside nearly to the shoulders. They were also covered with the lace. The fur bands reached from the neck down on both sides and around the whole bottom. Then from a point just in front of the side seam were other bands reaching to the bottom and losing themselves under the outer ones. The shape in the back is the newmarket.

NEW STYLE NEWMARKET.

The cravanette waterproofed newmarkets are of light pastel shades and tan and drab. The lower part is hemmed, and all inside seams are bound with satin, and the waist and sleeves are lined with satin. The shape and finish are most elegant and stylish.

Furs of any of the best kinds are extremely dear, but there are many imitations on the market, and these are worn to an extent hard to believe by wealthy women who can afford the real and ought to know better. Boas of every conceivable shape are seen, some of them being shaped like a victorine with stole ends reaching the feet.

There is now much handsome black lace used as trimming on such outdoor garments as are of a color to show up the design. Light tan, biscuit, mode geranium red and light green are all seen in velvet and in fine cloth with flat applique of black lace, generally used in connection with fur.

The new figured velvet that is being used for waists and very dressy wraps is handsome, but after all not so refined as the plain velvet.

HENRIETTE ROUSSEAU.

THE RAINY DAY CLUB.

Mrs. A. M. Palmer's Campaign In the Interests of Rational Dress.

Mrs. A. M. Palmer, the bright and pretty president of the Professional Woman's league, is also president of the Rainy Day club. "Rainy daisies" some call them. She is, with a large following of clever and determined women, working with all her heart for the propagation of this sensible plan.

"As a general rule, women do not care half so much for sensible things as the things they look prettiest in. The new movement frightens some, as all innovations do, but they will soon change their minds.

Mrs. Palmer was at the Federation of Women's Clubs at Rochester, and there she said some clever things regarding the object of the "rainy daisies." She held that it mattered little to women able to have their own carriages whether their dress was long or short from point of convenience or healthfulness, but to the business women and the mothers who must go out for their marketing it mattered much. Many now go to their work with wet skirts and stand or sit with them so all day, to their great injury. These women would gladly wear the short skirts which reach just to the ankles, but in nearly all business houses, large and small, the superintendents will not allow it.

Mrs. Palmer has prepared a paper containing a list of plain questions as to the why and wherefore of such a rule, and this she intends to offer to every storekeeper in New York to get his answer on the subject. This is the beginning of a campaign which has right for its motive and a determined woman at the back of it.

MRS. A. M. PALMER.

The rainy day costume is not only pretty, but modest. It ought to become general. It consists of a jacket, newmarket or cape of the prevailing style and a short skirt handsomely tailor finished at the bottom, like the bicycle skirts with which we are so familiar and which we do not dream of calling immodest. Gaiters or leggings are worn.

Thus, with good, stout waterproof shoes, a woman is less apt to develop into a wretched invalid. One house down town is manufacturing these rainy day suits and separate skirts by the thousand of the new cravanetted domestics, which means that they are waterproof in themselves as well as rain repellent. The stuffs are mostly small or broken checks in neutral tints and colors, and they are tailored in the most approved style.

SUFFRAGISTS TO MEET.

The Annual Convention to Open In Washington on Feb. 8.

The thirty-second annual convention of the National American Woman's Suffrage association will be held in Washington in the Church of Our Father Feb. 8-14, inclusive.

The nineteenth century was called by the poet prophet Victor Hugo "the century of woman." Since the dawn of history exceptional women have demonstrated by their high abilities as inventors, skilled workers, poets, artists, teachers and rulers that in the domain of intellect woman was not under the ban of nature, but under those of statute and custom. But for the mass of women the nineteenth century has been the only epoch in history which has given them rights as women or opportunities as human beings.

To state the difference in the position of women in all fields of activity between what it was at the beginning of the century and is now at its close would be to present a series of brilliant transformations surpassing the magic creations of Aladdin's lamp.

The way up the heights of woman's advancement has been long and steep, but it has not been dreary. The consciousness of giving the world a forward movement along the path of liberty is the highest reward vouchsafed to human effort. The greatest men of the century have walked with us. Poets have sung for us, prophets have inspired us with visions of success, statesmen have made courts and forums ring with eloquence in our behalf. Stones have blossomed into roses, scorn has become applause, timidity, opposition and indifference have changed into a grand chorus of appeal for woman's equality before the law.

Let us then close the nineteenth century with a convention which shall be a jubilee for our successes and preparation for the twentieth century, which is to be not man's nor woman's, but humanity's.

CARRIE CHAPMAN CATT.

THE LOON'S WAYS.

Bird With a Demon's Voice That Can Dodge a Bullet.

Of the feathered inhabitants of the northern lakes the most interesting and impressive beyond question is the loon. In comparison with him the wild goose is tame and prosaic, and even the wild swan in all his graceful beauty makes an impression on the beholder less vivid and enduring. The e is a reserve and mystery about the loon, a wonder in his strange journeys beneath the wave, his vanishings and reappearances, that set him apart from the other birds of the air and waters and invest him with a wierd interest. He has none of the gregariousness of the other waterfowls, but swims by himself or with his mate, and often the only token of his presence to the campers by the forest lake is a doleful, unearthly shriek from the darkness, a sound that has been compared to the cry of a soul in hell-fire. Seen afloat upon the water, the loon is a regal-looking bird, with color scarcely matched by those of any other fowl in the combination of simplicity with striking effect. An imperial purplish sheen crowns the deep bluish-green hue of head and neck, with silver band; the black bill, the splendid body-markings in black and white, the fierce, keen eye, with iris vivid red, the proud, alert carriage of the head, are unique and fitting features in this lonely haunter of the northern lakes.

Whether or not the loon is able to dodge a rifle bullet, as many sportsmen affirm, he is certainly the hardest bird to hit in all the category of water fowl. From his size and the beauty of his plumage he naturally is sought for by collectors of bird specimens, who find it a difficult matter to secure, after long effort, so much as a single bird. One amateur taxidermist in Maine owed the stuffed loon in his collection to the discovery of some winter hunters of the bird frozen in the ice of a mountain pond. The loon had evidently been belated in his autumn trip to the South, and either had paused to rest on the ice covering the pond or the ice had formed about him, holding him captive as he floated on the water. A loon can rise in flight only from the water, being unable to use his wings or spring aloft from a solid surface; hence from frozen pond he is helpless to escape. Loons have been captured on land while resting after long flights, a happening that occurs most frequently on the arid plains of the West, where water sheets are few and far apart. A loon taken this way on the arid plains east of Mexico, six years ago, was kept on exhibition in that city for some time before being liberated to continue his flight to the South. Rarely a hunter succeeds in killing a loon on the water with a rifle ball or charge of heavy shot.—Cor. N. Y. Sun.

Intensity of the Sense of Taste.

That the intensity of one sense is increased by the action of the other senses is a fact which is well illustrated by the sense of taste. A cold coin feels heavier than one that has been slightly warmed by being carried in the pocket, and what is true here of touch is just as true of taste. Warm vinegar, warm sugar, warm solutions of salt, taste less sour, sweet or salty than when cold. If you put a slight solution of salt or quinine into a sugar solution of a certain sweetness, the sweetness will seem much greater. Cooks and confectioners are well aware of this fact, for they always add to sweet confections some bitter substance, just as the perfumer puts into perfumes of all kinds at least a little musk.

The cook tries to "lift" or "fill" the taste, as they say, just as the perfumer tries to do with the sense of smell, and as in acoustics the base drum or bass viol forms a kind of background for the tone of coloring. On the other hand, if a mixture is made to sweet, without any contrasting elements, the quality of sweetness is lott, something like Milton's "darkness from excess of light." More than one man has been struck blind by a flash of lightning, and in the same way the sense of taste may be obscured by excess of sweetness. The effect of cold in reducing the intensity of sweetness is well known to anyone who has manufactured ice-cream at home. If you don't make the cream a litle too sweet before freezing, it will be sweet enough after the freezing process.

Hairs on the Head.

It has been stated that if the hairs on the head of a fair-haired person could be plaited together they would make a rope strong enough to support a weight of something like eighty tons, or of 500 people. This sounds rather a big statement, but the strength even of a single hair is indeed quite surprising when its fineness is considered, as anyone can test for herself by seeing the force that must be expended in breaking it.

Town of Exiles.

Manitou, Col., boasts of the fact that 75 per cent. of the population are exiles from their homes, who have found in Manitou health and strength. Its high attitude, its ozone, its persistent sunshine and its mineral waters are its proudest possessions. Among its adopted children are people from almost every state and territory and from nearly every civilized country in the world.

The Gaelic Tongue.

A Gaelic writer of the seventeenth century predicted that the Gaelic language would be once more held in great esteem in Ireland, and an Irish paper says the prediction seems in a fair way of being fulfilled in our time, and notes as proof that the District Councils, under the new local government bill are changing the English names of roads and streets into their Irish equivalents.

There is an animated controversy in in San Francisco over the fact that the new city hall, planned to cost $1,500,000, represents up to date a municipal investment of over $5,000,000. But is not completed.

The controversy in London over the 'buses and coaches has brought to light the fact that four descendants of Shillibeer, who introduced the omnibus in London seventy years ago, are now living in San Francisco.

STAIR CLIMBING.

How to Do It and Avoid Being Fatigued.

If one would avoid fatique in climbing stairs, a necessary act in a city like Chicago, where many buildings have no elevators, he must learn how to do it properly. A physician of repute tells how this should be done.

"Usually," he says, "a person will tread on the ball of the foot in taking each step. This is very tiresome and wearing on the muscles of the legs and feet. You should in walking or climbing stairs seek for the most equal distribution of the body's weight possible. In walking upstairs your feet should be placed squarely down on the step, heel and all, and then the work should be performed slowly and deliberately. In this way there is no strain upon any particular muscle, but each one is doing its duty in a natural manner. The woman who goes upstairs with a spring is no philosopher, or, at least, she is not making a proper use of reasoning faculties. The habit, too, of bending over half double when ascending a flight of stairs, is exceedingly reprehensible. In any exertion of this kind, when the heart is naturally excited to a more rapid action, it is desirable that the lungs should have full play. The crouching position interferes with their action, the blood is imperfectly aerated, and there is trouble at once. Give the lungs a chance to do their work everywhere and at all times."—Chicago Record.

No Place for a Poor Man.

"Cuba is no place for poor people who want to make money," said an officer recently returned from there. "Everything on the island is in an unsettled state, and it will be some time before it wil furnish a field for money hunters. But the climate is ideal, and I cannot imagine a more delightful objective point for rich people who are running about the world for amusement. The hotels, of course, leave much to be desired, but they are greatly improved over what they were just after the war, and later on will be equal to our best hotels in this country. Apropos of the lack of comfort to be had in Havana, some of my friends who vsiited there last spring complained bitterly of the primitive style in which they were forced to live. There were no locks on the doors of their rooms, the mirrors were broken, marks of bullets disfigured the walls, and the table was not pleasant to a palate unaccustomed to Cuban cooking. Imagine their surprise, therefore, to receive a bill when they were about to leave calling for $5 a day for each person in the party and containing charges for many extras.

" 'But I could live for that at one of the best hotels in New York,' expostulated the man of the family, 'and have every comfort. You know the condition everypthing has been in here. We have no bolts on our doors, no locks on our windows; the furniture is smashed up. I tell you your bill is perfectly exorbitant.'

" 'What would you have?' asked the proprietor; 'ef ze bolts was on ze door, ze locks on ze windairs, I would charge you $10 a day.' "

Dr. Tanner on Diet.

Dr. H. S. Tanner, who nineteen years ago went forty days and nights without food, is still in the flesh and chipper at the age of sixty-seven. He says: "My stomach, which Dr. Hammond said would never digest food again, is working regular time, and I wouldn't trade it for any similar digestive organ on earth. I keep pretty well for a man of my age and am lively on my feet." The doctor is as devoted as ever to his peculiar ideas on the subject of diet. By eliminating the use of meat he would reduce the cost of food to the limit fixed by Dr Dio Lewis at 12½ cents a day. He attributes ill-health largely to the use of pork and badly-cooked food. "We do not," he says, "eat the right kind of food, and we do not prepare it properly for the table. Why, look at the hotels. I find traveling agrees with me all right, except as to the hotel cooking, and that is terrible. It is unholy cooking. They think they have got to be up-to-date, and they have so many queer ways of fixing things in an indigestible way." But the fault, if there is any, lies rather with the guests of the hotels than their managers, since the former never ask, so long as their palates are tickled, whether hygienic principles have been consulted in the preparation of the food. The true idea of cooking is to retain the natural flavor of the viands, but the aim of the modern cuisine is to disguise it.—Rochester Post-Express.

King Solomon's Failings.

And yet this King (Solomon) with his magnificence and unrivaled power, this shrewd judge, this skilled statesman, this scholar with his wide culture, became a pessimist, and stands forth one of the saddest figures in all the history of melancholy. But if we analyze his misery we find that he was a pessimist, not because men are disciplined by conflict and trouble, but because he was a confirmed egotist. Had men used printing presses in those far-off days the first letter to be exhausted in setting up Solomon's copy would have been the capital letter "I." "I" builded these houses, "I" got me soldiers, "I" wrote proverbs, "I" had man servants, "I" had maid servants. Through insatiable egotism Solomon lifted up this "I" as a columnar hitch-post, and asked all creation to stand around and admire him. But simplicity is to a great man what sweetness is to a rose. A bloated and overwrought egotism makes happiness impossible.—Ladies' Home Journal.

College Graduates.

The college graduates of the country makes a pretty good part of the population, and Harvard takes the lead, with a total of 22,287 graduates. Yale has sent out into the world 18,180 men and Columbia 15,981. Princeton has graduated 7,500 students, Dartmouth 8,540, Brown 4,900, Bowdoin 4,619, Amherst 4,000 and Washington University 3,436.

Canada requires only 237,000 square miles to be as large as the whole continent of Europe. It is nearly thirty times as large as Great Britain and Ireland, and is 5,000 square miles larger than the United States, including Alaska.

QUEER FISH.

Have Skin Like an Eel, Identified as a "Shark Sucker."

Mr. James H. Gale, of Tolchester Beach, Md., recently submitted a queer looking fish for identification. It was caught near Tolchester.

The specimen was about 16 inches long and had a skin like an egg's, seemingly entirely devoid of scales. The body was elongated, tapering behind; the lower jaw was longer than the upper, with the head decidedly flattened. Above the head was quite a long, oval disk, presenting from the middle of both sides oblique transverse cartilaginous plates, arranged like the slats of a Venetian blind.

On the middle of the under surface were spine-like projections connected by short bands with the skull and vertebrae, partly suctorial and partly prehensile by the hooks, these fish attach themselves to rocks, ships and the bodies of other fishes, especially to sharks. They are thus when fastened to ships or fishes transported where food is abundant, and often from the tropics to temperate regions. They do not feed on the fish to which they attach themselves, but on small fish and floating animals.

Mr. George M. Bowers, United States Fish Commissioner, says of the specimen, which was forwarded to him:

"It is the species commonly known as 'shark sucker,' 'sucking fish,' and 'remora' (Echencis naucrates). It ranges from Cape Cod southward to the tropics, and is not uncommon on our coast and in the Chesapeake Bay. The peculiar structure on the upper side of the head, suggesting the sole of a rubber shoe, is a modification of the dorsal fin, by means of which the sucker attaches itself to sharks or other large fishes, apparently causing them no inconvenience, and feeding on the remnants of the shark's meals. There are a number of other species found on our coast, but this is by far the commonest and best known."—Baltimore Sun.

"Guinea Nigger" Fortune Teller.

She was a small, stout, very black darky, one of the kind that are called "Guinea niggers" down in southern Georgia, and she was charged with being a fortune teller. A striped 'kerchief was woven into a crown above her sable brow, and when she laughed a low, chuckling laugh she showed rows of great white teeth, which matched the white of her eyes when she squinted them at the witnesses who swore against her. That was Georgia Freeman as she stood up in the police court. Three damsels, with many a blush and simper, told how the woman had told their fortunes for 25 cents. A negro girl stated that she had had Georgia to tell her fortune for 10 cents.

All the while Georgia kept up her chuckle and showed the white of her teeth and eyes. Finaly she exclaimed: "Fer de lawd's sake, let dis ole nigger hab er chance ter say er few words, Jedge. Ise gwine ter permit dat I did run de cyards fed dese folks, but dey mostly made me done it. Yes see, I hab de power ob de second sight, and kin see heap morern some udder folks; and when dey comes ter me and axas me ter run de cyards, I aves 'em nuff money ter pay fer de trubble."

"Georgia," said Alderman Mitchell, who was wearing the ermine of the Recorder, "can you tell what's going to happen?"

"Sure kin, Jedge," replied the old woman. "Yer jest try me and see whedder I kin or no."

"Then tell me how much I am going to fine you."

"Yer is gwine ter make hit mouty light, fer yer has re good jedgment wid de right kind ob a heart."

The Alderman blushed and let the old woman go on payment of court costs—only 75 cents.—Atlanta Constitution.

The Cockatoo's Nut-Cracker Bill.

There is a wonderful cockatoo in one of the islands of the Indian Ocean, near New Guinea. It is as large as a full-grown pheasant, and it is of a jet black color. The bird is remarkable for its immensely strong bill and the clever manner in which it is used. The bill is as hard as steel, and the upper part has a deep notch.

Now, the favorite food of the cockatoo is the canary nut; but there is a wonderful ingenuity required to get at it, for the nut is something like a Brazil nut, but it is ten times as hard. In fact, it requires the blow of a heavy hammer to crack it. It is quite smooth and somewhat triangular in shape. Nature appears to have given the possesor of the wonderful bill some intelligence to direct its powers, for the cockatoo takes one of the nuts edgewise in its bill, and by a curving motion of its sharp lower beak makes a small notch on it. This done, the bird takes hold of the nut with its claws, and, biting off a piece of leaf, retains it in the deep notch of the upper part of the bill. Then the nut is seized between the upper and lower parts of the bill, and is prevented slipping by the peculiar texture of the leaf. A sharp nip or two breaks off a tiny piece of the shell of the nut. The bird then seizes the nut in its claws and pokes the long, sharp point of its bill into the hole and picks out the kernel bit by bit.—Savannah News.

Forgot to Weigh His Hand.

The advance in the price of meat probably works more hardships than the public is aware of among those who have little to live on. Here is an incident which occurred in a butcher shop on Hickory street recently. A small negro girl entered the shop and asked the butcher for five cents worth of "dog" meat. She added:

"Mamma said to ask you to please give me better meat than what you did yesterday, because the other dog meat made papa sick."

That was too much for the butcher, and he gave her a good piece of "chuck steak" and forgot to weigh his hand on the scales with the meat, so much was he engrossed thinking of her papa's appetite for meat.—St. Louis Republic.

While manufacturers and others throughout the United Kingdom are protesting against flooding their home market with goods marked "made in Germany," the Berlin Koelnische Zeitung appeals to the Germans to show their patriotism and assist home industries by buying German-made cloth in place of the English material.

LETTERS TO THE POPE.

How to Address Them So That He Will Open the Missives.

I met a prelate employed in the Vatican the other day, and in the course of our conversation began to deplore my hard lot in having to stay in Rome during the heat of the summer and work. "Oh, well," he said, "you are not worse off than we in the Vatican. Now that most of the employes are away, we who are left have to work hard."

"Work!" I exclaimed.

"Yes, walk in the Vatican gardens and count the grapes of the Pope's vineyard!"

"Do you know that every evening the mail brings to the bronze doors of the Vatican an average of 20,000 letters and newspapers, to say nothing of telegrams? All the latters have to be opened, sorted, and classified, while the newspapers are read, and selections cut or extracts made during the night to be ready for persnal by the officers of State early the next morning?"

"And where does the Pope come in?" I interrupted. "They say he also works so hard?"

"Much of this work is submitted to him, and he should read all the letters addressed Sanctitati Suae Leoni Papae XIII. feliciter regnanti. However, as the whole 24 hours of the day would not be sufficient for the Pontiff to even glance over them, he only sees what Cardinal Rampolla thinks necessary for his inspection."

"In other words, he knows only what they choose?"

"Oh, no; there are communications which really go direct to the Holy Father, namely, those through the diplomatists accredited to the Vatican. Still, the most secure way of having a letter read by the Pope is to address it as follows: 'To his Holiness the Pope. Prefect of the Holy Roman and Universal Inquisition,' as any other than the head of the church guilty of opening a document so addressed will be excommunicated, according to a bull promulgated by the Carafa Pope, Paul IV."

"And letters which contain Peter's Pence?" I asked, inquiringly, to which I got no answer but an expressive nod.

Another Model Town.

Undeterred by the fate of Pullman and Dolgeville, the owner of a coal tract near Pittsburg is building a model mining town. Each of its houses of brick and stone will stand on a quarter acre lot, with flower beds and an orange osage hedge in front. School houses, reading and club houses, churches and stores will be provided, thus leaving the miners and their families, to the number of three thousand, nothing to do but to move in and be happy. Some precautions are, however, to be taken against such an issue of the enterprise as has befallen other experiments of the same kind. The homes are to become the property of the individual miners, and they are to run the place as in the case of other villages. The stores are to be managed on the profit sharing plan. Club and reading room membership will involve the payment of dues. The sale of liquor in or near the place will be barred.

"The intention is," says the founder of the town, "to provide every benefit with which an employe can be supplied. On the other hand, the cost of producing coal must be made as low as it can be made legitimately." If the latter half of this declaration implies that the miners are to accept less pay than that given elsewhere in the same district for like labor, as an offset to the provision made in their behalf, the failure of the scheme, however carefully framed in other respects, can safely be predicted.—Rochester Post-Express.

Young Cornelius Vanderbilt.

Young Cornelius Vanderbilt's punishment for defying his father by marrying Grace Wilson is to be cut off with the portion of a younger son. The will of Cornelius Vanderbilt, just dead, makes his son, Alfred, although junior in years, the senior in riches and the successor to the power which the Vanderbilt millions wield. According to information given by a person who should know the facts, this is the ultimate division of $100,000,000, scheduled in the vest pocket memorandum, by which the late Cornelius Vanderbilt always knew how much he owned.

To Cornelius V., Gertrude Vanderbilt Whitney, Reginald and Gladys V., his children, $10,000,000 each.

There are large special bequests to relatives, to Yale, Columbia and Vanderbilt Universities, to the Metropolitan Museum of Art and to various charities. The remainder of the estates, in part subject to a life interest held by his widow, is left to Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, his second surviving son. All bequests to the five children are to be held in trust until after the majority of the youngest, and thereafter disposal of any share is subject to the consent of the other heirs.—New York Cor. Pittsburg Post.

Sugar Beets.

"There is an enormous crop of sugar beets in San Benito County, Cal., this year," said a gentleman who is largely intersted in that product in California, to the writer recently. "The average yield is about 12 tons to an acre, which will net $3.50 per ton. As an illustration of the big profits that there are in this crop I have only to refer to three brothers who arrived in San Benito County early last spring from Sweden, and as an experiment rented a farm of 270 acres, paying for it $7 an acre for the rent. They have raised not less than 18 and probably 20 tons of beets to the acre. The work of cultivation has been done by the three brothers, with the assistance of one hired man, and it is estimated that they will make $6,000 this year above all expenses.—Washington Star.

January and October of the same year always begin the same day. So do April and July, also September and December, February, March and November also beginning with the same day.

It is estimated that we use annally in the United States over 90,000,000,000 matches. These indispensable little articles were first used in this country over seventy years ago, and at that time a box containing twenty-five was sold for 25 cents.

STRANGE DEATH.

Young Woman's Parrot Turns on Gas and Asphyxiates Her.

There were things uncanny and unparalleled about the sad death from asphyxiation recently of Miss Alice Knott, in Washington. She was killed by a parrot, a little, evil-eyed, green thing, that cannot speak a word or fly a yard, but had learned the malicious trick of turning on the gas. Hating the rest of the world with a spite that makes its eyes gleam and its sharp beak spread threateningly at the approach of all but its late mistress, this parrot followed Miss Knott from floor to floor and from room to room with a constancy and affection remarkable in a bird of its ugly nature.

This parrot turned on the gas in Miss Knott's room early in the morning while she lay sleeping, and the young woman was suffocated. She was found dead about 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and the bird that had brought its mistress to an untimely end lay half suffocated at the foot of the door, instinctively seeking the fresh air that reached the death-laden room through that aperture only.

It seemed incredible that a parrot could have acquired a drug habit, but this parrot actually did so. The household that he has so sadly bereaved testifies to it. He had become a chronic victim of illuminating gas. How first he became infatuated with whatever charms the stupor of gas produces no one can say. He was destructive by nature and learned to pull the lava tips from gas fixtures as he sat upon them. Then he learned to reach down, and with his strong beak to turn on the gas. This the bird has done scores of times and filled the rooms of the Knott house with the noxious illuminant. But he was always serene. He would turn on the gas, pull out the lava tip, whet his bill on the brass sides of the aperture, where the gas escaped, inhale it, and soon fall into a sleep, which he seemed to find delightful, for he repeated the trick whenever he had the chance.

TINY WIDOWS.

The Fate That Comes to Many East Indian Girls.

Marriage for the East Indian girl can hardly be a desirable existence, yet each girl regards it as her proper finish as do girls in other countries. How can a girl who has been petted to a degree by an indulgent mother welcome the fate which comes to her when she steps into a tightly closed palanquin and is conveyed to her husband's home? There she becomes the slave to his mother, and look eagerly forward to old age, which gives her the privilege of ruling over her sons' wives in the same manner. Perhaps that is the one country on earth where old age is not a bugaboo.

To her husband a bride is just about as important as his dog or the family tabby. From him she receives the portion of food she eats at each meal, the remnants of his meal, mind you, and conveyed by a slave. He eats what he wants and then sends the rest on a platter to her and the children.

Little girls are married as young as three years of age, and if the little boys to whom they are bound by the marriage tie fall ill and die, these babies become widows, disgraced creatures, who never know a moment of comfort. They can never marry again, and can never witness a marriage ceremony. They eat only the coarsest kind of food and fast for one whole day every two weeks. They cannot even eat with other women, and cannot dress their hair, wear jewelry or even sleep upon a bed. A piece of matting on the hard floor is considered good enough for these creatures, and they are even denied the covering, no matter how cold the weather. If a woman forgets herself so far as to show the least bit of kindness to a widow, she is instantly placed among their ranks, for her whole future has been sacrificed by her yielding to an impulse of the heart.

Indian Blood.

The recent double tragedy in New Mexico, where an Indian murdered a woman because of unrequitted love, and then literally hacked himself to pieces, recalls the triple crime of Eugene Takahpner, a half-breed Indian of South Amherst, Mass. Because his fierce and selfish wooing of an innocent young white girl was checked, the Indian reverted to a more hideous savagery than his own untamed kinsmen would have done. Because the Indian could not marry seventeen-year-old Edith Morell he murdered her, burned his home and shot himself.

(Edith Morell.)

The Indian threatened to kill the girl if she did not marry him, but the townspeople did not believe him.

But now that Edith Morell's funeral hymns have sounded solemnly in their ears, now that they have seen among a heap of charred bones in the ruins of the Morell home the cramped skull of an Indian, the good people of South Amherst are saying soberly to one another that an Indian's word is good. Let no Indian ever show himself in that town again.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 28, 7 55, 8 00, 8 15, 8 30, 8 37, 9 45, 9 16, 9 45, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 32, 3 00, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 54, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 05, 7 39, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00 m, 12 58, 1 45, 2 46, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 28, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 45, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 00, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 12, 4 35, 5 05, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 8 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5 27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 18 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 03 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 56, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers for trains marked * change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN, General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN, General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket time-tables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR, General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE, General Passenger Agent.

26 Cortlandt St., New York.

FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. Manning & Son

STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 180 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low

XXXX QUALITY

FINEST
LOFOTON COD LIVER OIL,

Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.

Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at

39c per Pint.

For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at

50c per Bottle,

or the Tasteless at

75c per Bottle.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,

Heoburn & Co.,

Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S.

213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

AN EFFECTUAL EFFORT.

Three-Finger Sam's Eloquence Was Not to Be Withstood.

"Talkin' about oratory," said Broncho Bob, "you ought to have been out to Crimson Gulch last fall, so as to hear some of the real thing."

"We have some pretty luminous specimens in Congress," ventured the man who felt it incumbent on him to show a little local pride.

"Not a circumstance. I've read some of them kind o' speeches. I've heard 'em, too. A feller come from the East and started in to tell Crimson Gulch what it orter do. Some of the boys allowed things was gettin' ruther slack, an' they says anthin' fur a change; so they took his advice an' blazed away an' organized a city council."

"I see. You held an election!"

"Nary. We didn't want any bloodshed. We jest passed the word around that the city council was going to be held, an' made it an open game. Everybody was there except Nevada Bill, an' he didn't dare show up, because he was under suspicion of sittin' in a poker game with a private stock of blue chips which he had bought unbeknownst from a store in San Antonio. It wasn't long until, under the instructions of the tenderfoot, we had the city council going in good shape. Only officers were allowed to wear their weapons during the proceedin's, an' everybody was debarred from debate. The first business we took up was the case of Nevada Bill. We reckoned that it would be no more than decent local pride to prevent the importance of any poker chips except the duly recognized authority for said importance. Rattlesnake Pete said the only way to make the law bindin' was to pervide that anybody breakin' it should be shot at least once. The tenderfoot got riled in a minute. He jumped to his feet, an' got off the most long-winded talk about constitutionality an' the rights of citizenship an' whereas and therefore that I ever heard. He talked hard, and showed he had read books. But you orter have heard Three-Finger Sam's historic reply. It jes' showed how quick a man who has the gift of genuine eloquence kin end an argument. Crimson Gulch has not got through talkin' about it yet. Three-Finger Sam drawed himself up to his full hight and p'inted his finger at the tenderfoot. 'I don't desire to use no harsher words than is necessary,' says he, 'but I'd like to know what you mean, you low down, lop-eared jack rabbit, by comin' into this town an' tryin' to tell us whether a man needs shootin' or not. Have we got to wait fur some lantern-jawed coyote to come wanderin' in off the prairie an' tell us what's good fur us? Beware!' says Three-Finger Sam, still p'intin' his finger an' growin' more eloquent every minute. 'Beware, you bow-legged burro. Don't you think you come here an' overawe people because you wear specs. Have a care, or the fust thing you know you'll be travelin' out o' this town with a bunch of patriotic citizens on your trail, every one of whom is dead anxious to shoot a freckle off'n the back of your neck!' The tenderfoot didn't have another word to say, an' he left town the next mornin'."—Washington Star.

Docking Horses.

Docking horses took its rise in the dark days when bull and bear baiting were honored by a place in the category of sport rightly now relegated by law to the catalogue of outrage. This custom of docking was once generally applied to English roadsters hunters and harness horses. The only useful purpose it ever served was in the Peninsula war when English dragoons could be most easily distinguished from French by their cocktails. It fell into disuse with the decline of road coaches, and we owe its unwelcome revival to their partial disfiguring; it inflicts needless suffering upon brood mares and horses turned out to grass, depriving them of their natural defense against flies, besides the severe pain and shock caused by the operation itself. It should be discouraged in every possible way by influential persons, by those who lead the fashion in such things, and agricultural societies should be moved to refuse prizes to exhibits which have undergone this mutilation.

A Fish Wheel.

A curious fishing wheel is used on the Columbia River, near Portland, Ore. It is fixed near the bank of the river, a place being selected where the river is most rapid. The wheel consists of three receivers. These are enclosed on three sides by wire netting and, as the wheel revolves by means of the current, each receiver is submerged beneath the water, and scoops up the salmon as they jump in the rapids.

Costly Canals.

Canals, and particularly ship canals are costly undertakings. The Suez Canal cost $100,000,000, the Manchester ship canal $90,000,000, the North Sea canal $37,500,000, the north Holland and the Corinth canals $15,000,000 each, while the partly completed Panama canal has swallowed up over $250,000,000.

Unique Mine.

The iron mine at Bell Island, Newfoundland, which is the principal property of the company, is said to be one of the most unique in the world. It is an open deposit of ore, 300 feet wide, and three miles long, and all the labor required is to blast it with dynamite, and shovel it into cars.

Siamese Superstition.

The Siamese have so strong a superstition against even numbers that they will have none of them. The number of rooms in a house, of windows or doors in a room, even of the rungs on a ladder, must always be odd.

Bull Fights in Paris.

Paris is to have its bull fights to add to the excitement of its populace. The arena, however, will not be within the city walls, but at Enghien, which is some 12 minutes' journey by train.

Artificial Paving Blocks.

The newest artificial paving blocks to be adopted in Germany are made by combining coal tar, sulphur and chlorate of lime.

WHIST GOSSIP.

Discussion of the Matter of Discard in Doubtful Cases.

It is possible sometimes in whist to make a double play, as it were, a discard showing your weak suit, and at the same time declaring four trumps. The old masters used to state it as a general rule that when "strong in trumps" you should not ruff doubtful cards. It took some time for the authorities to define "strength in trumps" but they finally agreed that it was four or more. Modern players do not think it necessary to pass a doubtful tricks with five or more trumps, because with so many they are usually strong enough to ruff and lead. The exceptions are hands in which the fifth trump looks as if it might be useful as a card of reentry.

Discarding when you cannot win the trick, or it is already your partner's, and discarding second hand on doubtful tricks, are two different things. In the first case there is a good deal of judgment to be used as to the suit which you shall select to discard from, but in the second there is usually nothing to decide except whether to ruff the trick or pass it. There are times when it would doubtless be good policy to ruff a doubtful trick, even with four good trumps, but there are others when it would be very foolish to trump in, even with three small ones. This rule about trumping doubtful tricks, not because you have less than four trumps, should be made rather elastic. Many a fine hand has been spoiled and countless tricks have been lost by sticking in a little trump second hand on doubtful tricks when the player had no desirable continuation after taking the ruff and getting the lead.

There are also times when it pays better to get rid of the last card in a plain suit than to trump, especially if you see that by so doing you can overtrump next time, or can get into the lead to advantage, or perhaps stop a cross ruff. There are also many occasions in which it is very necessary to discard a certain losing card instead of trumping, especially if you see that you will be in the lead with that card after all your partner's trumps are gone.

The discard, when you can trump, can be made only when a plain suit is led. It therefore presupposes that you have in your hand some trumps, and at least one good suit, and that the card thrown away is the one you can best spare. It is very seldom that such a discard will be misleading, because it is not often that a player will have to discard from his best suit in order to keep a singleton ace or an honor guarded. If such a case arises, and the player is not averse to having trumps come out, it is better to discard some interior card, perhaps as high as a nine, so as to give the hand the appearance of strength, and so invite a trump lead. The same tactics must be followed if you have only one plain suit in your hand.

CYCLING CONDITIONS.

An English Cyclist Who Claims We Are On the Wrong Track.

Henry Sturmey, the secretary of the International Cyclist's Union, made a visit to this country last summer and was keenly observant of the cycling conditions existing in America. Abroad Mr. Sturmy is accepted as a power in cycling, and his long connection with the pastime has earned him a strong following. Since returning to England he has reviewed his experiences in this country with some caustic criticisms as follows: "In racing matters the sporting feeling is largely non-existent, especially in so far as professionalism is concerned, and not only the racing man but the public can see only 'dollars' as the aim and end of every action. It is this which has been largely responsible for the present position of cycle racing in America, when racing men and officials who have 'worked' the sport and their positions in the L. A. W. to their own ends and have been 'disciplined' accordingly, are able to openly defy the recognized authority, and to attract new adherents to their ranks by the bait of more dollars than the other fellows can provide.' In so far as the pastime is concerned, it may be said that there is none, for the spirit which actuated the riders of the 'ordinary' days is largely non-existent, and as, indeed, to a great extent with us, the safety has introduced to cycling an entirely new class of rider, to whom the idea has never appealed of riding the bicycle for its own sake and for the amusement, health and recreation to be obtained thereby. To him the bicycle is nothing more than a pair of boots, an umbrella, or a great coat—a means to an end. In his consideration of the almighty dollar, he has recognized that the bicycle as a time-saver is a profitable investment.

This recognition of the economic uses of the bicycle has, of course, had an enormous influence on the American people and was the cause of the 'boom' of a few years back, whilst the fact of the perception of the people not passing beyond this point has been largely responsible for the disaster which has attended many firms and the present unsatisfactory position of the trade in the States. So far as the American wheelman is concerned, looking upon his wheel as a mere means of locomotion, of its fine points he knows little and cares less. We can only deplore that the dominance of the dollar should have reduced the American bicycle to the level of the sewing machine, nearly ruined a great and promising industry, and deprived the American people of much of the value of their wheels."

Widows and Windows.—A little boy in the course of his reading came to the word "widow," and called it "window," a word more familiar to him. The teacher corrected the blunder, and then, wishing to improve the occasion, put the question, "What is the difference between 'widow' and 'window'?" The boy's answer began, "You can see through a window, but——" and then stopped.

The minister was at dinner with the Chaffie family. Johnnie spoke up and said: "Can a church whistle?" "Why do you ask, Johnnie?" said the clergyman, kindly. "Because pa owes two pounds back pew-rent, and he says he is going to let the church whistle for it." After the clergyman had taken his departure there was a vocal solo by Johnnie.

BILLIARD BEGINNERS

JACOB SCHAEFFER, EX-CHAMPION, ON THE GAME.

Holding the Cue, Striking and Banking—Things the Beginner Should Learn—The Value of Confidence—Little Things to Remember.

The great thing about billiards that the beginner needs is confidence in himself, says Jacob Schaefer, the well-known expert. Every young man who wants to be a good player must make up his mind that he is going to be the very finest in the world. Without confidence he won't amount to shucks.

Now, some billiard players, who call themselves great, believe in holding back help and advice from those who show signs of being real things. I take the opposite view. In fact, any man who wants advice or coaching has but to come to me. If I see he has great talent I'll help him all I can. I like to see folks take an interest in the game, which I consider the greatest on earth. The more good players there are, the more the public takes an interest in the game, I find.

In the first place, I don't believe that the atmosphere of billiards is immoral because you see tobacco smoke about the table and maybe a glass of beer on a table near by. The less you drink and smoke, boys, the better billiard player you will become. A steady brain, hand and nerves are needed. A man must, first of all, control his temper if he expects to be a billiardist of repute. The fellow who gets rattled will never arrive at the championship class. With this good quality goes the firm eye and the rigid hand.

(Schaefer at play.)

We will suppose that you two young chaps are about to bank for position. Now the four ball is a little old fashioned. It puts too many balls on the table, so I'll dwell on the up-to-date three-ball game. When you try for lead have a cue that fits your hand and isn't too heavy. I use one that weighs 18½ ounces. I'm not a big man. Ives used a 20-pound cue. He wasn't bigger than I am, but he was built like steel. Select a cue that doesn't tire you. One that you won't have to rest on the ground while you are waiting your shot.

Keep it chalked, not only the tip, but the wood part for nearly a foot back of the leather. Don't look annoyed because your friends sitting about watch your chalk efforts and make rude remarks. Go right ahead.

When you get a chance at a table alone practice banking. It shows you the value of force. Keep at it for hours until you can drive the ball from in front of you to the cushion far away and back again until the ball rests within an inch of the cushion under your elbow. A good banker may depend on the first shot and start in on a good string, while the young fellow who didn't practice bank shots is likely to lose the game.

When you are satisfied with making long shots try from side to side of the table.

It is simple enough, this counting, so it looks, but sometimes it isn't. All you've got to do is to hit one ball with a cue and make it strike another one afterwards. Every one knows the cushions or rails are of rubber, and with the elasticity of the ivory balls the height of life in inanimate things is reached. The cushions seem full of life and the balls appear bewitched.

You think there are only four corners to a biliard table. You are mistaken; there are four thousand. As a beginner you will think there is only one place to hit the ball with your eye. I suppose, really, there are hundreds—on top, on the sides and underneath. Each punch in a different spot means a difference in results. Then, too, the ball hit does different things, according to where it is struck by the cue ball, which is whizzing to the right or left, as the case may be when it encounters the ball it is sent after.

The wooden bridge, which is always in the way under the table, and which young players use, is a clumsy thing at best. Good players never use one. It is operated, as you may know, as a rest for the cue. It is absolutely rigid, and so is a bad thing. Never use one. Learn to play with both hands, and make your disengaged hand a bridge. It will be sensitive, where the wooden one is not. Another thing you must learn is to never have your cue tip further than ten inches from the hand on which the cue rests nor less than four inches off. It is clumsy and bad billiards. I always corral the balls at one or the other end of the table. By so doing I avoid the lengthy rail, as the side cushion is called. My system has been to keep the three balls, if possible, between the string or the string or the spot and the lower end of the table, thus reducing the size of the table from 5x10 feet to 2½x3 feet. The reason is obvious—the working space is cut in two. Striking the ball with the cue on the right or left side instead of the centre diverts its course when it hits the cushion, as well as when it hits a ball. This is called English; why not Irish or Prussian, I do not know.

Hitting the ball underneath makes it promptly come back to you after it has hit the ball it was aimed at. Striking the ball from overhead with the cue on one side makes the sphere perform little circulatory motions and go around the corners. The follow shot, consisting of striking the cue ball on top, makes it run after the ball it hits instead of coming back to you like the draw shot.

CLOVER HAY,

While costing less is worth more than Timothy for cows. Give the cow the BEST CLOVER and the horse the BEST TIMOTHY and the result will please you We have all kinds at right prices.

In comparing prices it should be borne in mind that OUR GRAIN IS ALL RECLEANED and OUR FEEDS are ALL MADE ON THE PREMISES and ARE KNOWN TO BE PURE.

Mixed Oats	74c per bag	Middlings	90c per 100
Mixed Oats	76c per bag	Oat Feed	75c per 100
White Oats	78c per bag	Gluten	95c per 100
Regular Oats	80c per bag	Oil Meal	$1.45 per 100
Y. R. Oats	82c per bag	No. 1 Grain Mixture	$1.10 per 100
Yellow Corn	79c per 100	Our Poultry Food	$1.40 per 100
Cracked Corn	84c per 100	Wheat	$1 85 per 100
Coarse Meal	84c per 100	Barley (96 lbs)	$1.15 per bag
Ground Food	84c per 100	No. 1 Hay	85c per 100
Bran	90c per 100	Clover Hay	85c per 100
Buckwheat Middlings	70c per 100	Cut Hay	5c per 100

The above prices are for spot cash at our stores.

If delivered add according to quantity as follows:

25 bags or over	2c per bag
5 bags or over	5c per bag
Less than 5 bags	10c per bag

THE PAUL T. NORTON CO.

Elizabeth, Elizabethport, Red Bank, Plainfield, Somerville.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	High Score.
Roselle Casino	7	2	911
Park Club	5	3	864
Westfield Club	5	3	826
Cranford Casino	2	7	843

CITIZENS WROUGHT UP.

New Market People Do Not Like the Way Piscataway Township Officials are Acting.

The citizens' meeting at Casterline's Hotel in New Market last Saturday night to obtain an expression of the people regarding the proposed movement to secure the establishment of the iron plant of Colby & Co., of Jersey City, was largely attended. It is the desire of the citizens to pay the taxes of the above company, but as the law will not allow an exemption the citizens interested in securing the removal of the plant to New Market, wish to have the township committee authorise its payment from surplus funds in the hands of the township committee. There was a very stormy meeting and various opinions were expressed. It is understood that the township committee expressed an opinion adverse to the feeling of the citizens and refused to allow town funds to be used for this purpose. In consequence nothing was done in the matter. The feeling against the township committee is quite bitter and much indignation was expressed by the citizens, who believe that the committee is standing in the way of the growth and prosperity of the town. Another meeting is to be held in the near future.

LIVED IN JERSEY 70 YEARS.

Mrs. Mary A. Wilson Passed Away Saturday at the Age of 94 Years.

Mrs. Mary A. Wilson, aged 94 years, widow of James Wilson, died Saturday at her home 447 West Seventh street. Death was due chiefly to old age. Mrs. Wilson was born in New York state, and has lived in New Jersey about seventy years. For thirty years she resided in this city with her grandsons, Louis and Harry McIntosh, since the death of her daughter, Mrs. McIntosh. Prior to her coming to Plainfield she lived at Paterson. The funeral services will be held from the late residence tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will take place in Cedar Lawn cemetery, Paterson.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Frank Marcley began his duties this morning in the men's furnishing department at Woodhull & Martin's big store.

E. D. Cutting, tenor, sang very acceptably yesterday morning and evening in Trinity Reformed church choir.

—Y. M. C. A. Literary Society will meet tonight and an interesting programme will be presented. Young men are invited to come and bring their lady friends.

HILLIER & CO.

Silk Waists Cleaned. $1.25 to $2.00

are the folks. Can't call? Then send and they'll call.

129 W. Front St. Tel. 851.

JERSEY RIFF-RAFF.

Odd Facts of Interest Gleaned From Various Sections.

Chief of Police Benjamin Murphy, of Jersey City, who has been critially ill with plouro-pneumonia for nearly two weeks, has been pronounced out of danger by his physicians.

The Hudson County Board of Health recently referred several cases of physicians and midwives who are alleged to have been delinquent in furnishing reports to Counselor Mulvaney.

The death of Jacob Somers at his home near Harrisonville, removes from Gloucester county one of its pioneer citizens. He was in his 85th year and had been in feeble health for several years. Two of his sons served in the Civil War.

Sheriff Chas. R. Fenton, of Mount Holly, refuses to heed the clamor for him to stop the gambling operations now going on daily in Burlington township. The Sheriff says he doesn't intend to suppress the pool selling there, on the ground that he has no right to interfere.

At a meeting of the members of the First Baptist church of Atlantic City Tuesday night, Rev. Charles H. Fitzwilliam, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church, of Pittsburg, received a unanimous call to the pastorate of the church, which has been vacant since Nov. 5th last.

The recent action of the passenger department of the Erie Railroad in increasing local commutation rates on its New York, Susquehanna and Western Division has resulted in vigorous protest on the part or patrons. The change affects about 150 regular commuters between stations west of Jersey City.

There was a stormy meeting of the Elmer Borough Council last week, brought about by the refusal of Councilman Jones to give his signature to an order to reimburse Collector William Johnson for interest on money that he had borrowed on his private account without authority from the borough, to pay borough bills.

Prize Choristers.

Prize choristers of Grace church for December: VanWyke Brooks, Albert Yarger and the Misses M. Smith, J. Little, B. Miner and M. Yarger.

Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes is attending the regular meeting of the Ministers' Association in New York today.

Mrs. Samuel Case filled the place of Miss Harris as soprano soloist at the First Baptist church yesterday in the absence of Miss Harris, who was detained at home by illness.

Former Councilman F. E. Marsh, who is critically ill at his home on Madison avenue, is slightly improved this afternoon. He was very low this morning but rallied during the day.

Dr. Fee Not Dead.

RICHMOND, Ky., Jan. 8.—The reports sent out last week that the Rev. John G. Fee, the founder of Berea college and a noted abolitionist, was dead were not correct. Dr. Fee is recovering. Many floral tributes were sent to Berea when reports were published that the noted divine was dead.

Cotton For Japan.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 8.—The Norwegian steamer Ansger, Captain Amundsen, will sail in a day or two for Kobe, Japan, with a cargo of 12,000 bales of cotton. This is the third steamer this season for Japan.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

TYPES OF ENGLISH COLONIAL CAVALRYMEN.

Almost unlimited variety in get-up is presented by the various branches of Great Britain's soldiery. The dissimilarity in equipment and general appearance of the mounted men is particularly noticeable. A mobilization of the forces employed in and on the way to South Africa would present a varied and picturesque scene. Three distinct types of colonial cavalrymen are shown in the illustration.

THE CAPTAIN'S SIDE OF IT

Says Public Is Really to Blame for the Loss of Some Steamships.

"There's another side to this question of the criminal carelessness of the commander, which we hear so much talk about whenever a liner is lost," said the Captain of a big ocean steamer the other day. "It's not the Captain who is really to blame in one case out of ten, even when he is running his ship at full speed through a fog. It's the public that's to blame, and I'll tell you how it is.

"To begin with, everybody knows of the rivalry between the different lines. Everybody knows what a difference there is, in the estimation of the public, between the rival boats of the same grade which start at the same time and come in twenty-four hours apart. The man who has travelled by the boat that comes in last is going to say to himself that next time he will go on the So-and-So, which must be a better boat, for didn't she come in a day ahead of the one he came on? The Captain of boat No. 1 is a hero for the time being, and the company he works for smiles on him. That he has run all the way at full speed, through heavy seas and fogs, and has taken all kinds of risks, he knows, but he doesn't say anything about that, and the company doesn't either. They have beaten the other line, and that is enough. The Captain of boat No. 2 which came in a day behind the other knows just what is in store for him before he reports at the office of his company. This is about what he hears:

"Why, how is this, Mr. Blank? You came in twenty-four hours behind the So-and-So. What was the matter, anyhow?'

" 'Well, you see,' says the Captain, 'we had storms part of the way, and when we got to the Banks we struck a fog so thick you couldn't see your hand before your face, and we had to run at half speed all day.'

" 'Ahem!' one of the owners will say. 'Ahem! It's a bad thing, Mr. Blank, for us to be beaten twenty-four hours by the So-and-So.'

"Capt. Blank says no more, but feels that he has been reproved, and he remembers it on the next trip. The sea may be running 'mountains high' and the fog may be so thick you can't see the funnel from the bridge, but he is bound to get in on time this trip, and he does. The owners of the line smile on him. So he knows what he is required to do and goes on making record trips. It is the public, you see, which the company has got to please if it is to exist, and the Captain has to please the company. Some day he does this once too often. He collides with another ship in a fog, maybe, or runs on the rocks. Perhaps the natural love of life or the thought of a helpless family keeps him from deliberately going to the bottom with the ship, but he knows that his career is at an end. The board sits on the case, and if there is any evidence to show that the accident was due to the carelessness of the commander in running at full speed in thick weather, or whatever the case may be, he is reprimanded and his certificate suspended for some months at least. When at last he gets the certificate back it has a hole punched in it.

"Now let us supose he has been a faithful servant of the company for a good while, and they like him, and decide to transfer him to another ship and give him a chance for existence. This new ship has to be insured, of course, before she goes to sea. The underwriters make their inquiries there comes up the question as to who is the Captain of the ship. When they hear the name they will probably say, 'Why, let us see Hisn't he the man who sunk the So-and-So? Yes? Oh, we can't take any risks on a ship comanded by Capt. Blank. Put another commander in his place and it will be all right.'

"The company is obliged to dismiss Capt. Blank. Then he starts out to find another situation. His certificate you remember, has a hole in it. He goes to see the owners of another line. As soon as they hear his name they say:

" 'Oh, yes. Didn't you command the So-and-So?'

" 'Yes, I commanded that boat.'

" 'Humph! Very sorry Captain, but we haven't anything just now. If we should have anything we will let you know.'

"This scene is repeated at one steamship office after another on both sides of the water."

The Captain leaned his elbows on the table. "Do you wonder," he said, after a pause, "that generally when a liner is lost at sea her commander isn't among the saved? But mark my words," he added, rising, "in almost every disaster, when the cry of negligence is loudest, it's the public that's to blame and not the Captain, who only does what he is obliged to do."

—Use Press want ads.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

"Jim," a fire horse, that for years drew No. 10 engine in Jersey City, was among the horses offered for sale by the Fire Commissioners recently. The men of the company had raised a fund, and bid until the figure of $28 was reached, at which sum the old horse was knocked down to Stoker Jones, of the company, custodian of the fund. Hereafter "Jim" will pass his days in clover.

* * * * * *

Historians as a rule admit that General Daniel Morgan, of Revolutionary fame, was born in New Jersey, but give different points as his birthplace. As proof that Morgan was born in Kingwood township, Hunterdon county, Daniel Heath, an uncle of ex-County Superintendent Heath, has told a correspondent of the Flemington Democrat-Advertiser and others that his father, when a boy, lived in the same neighborhood with the Morgans; played with young Morgan, and remembered the family removing from New Jersey to Virginia. Charles Sergeant, a soldier in the glorious old Revolutionary struggle (father of the late Green Sergeant), while yet living, frequently spoke of seeing Morgan at Valley Forge, talked with him there, and stated that the General expressed a desire to once more visit his boyhood home. New Jersey can never be robbed of the honor of calling General Daniel Morgan her son.

* * * * * *

This is the season of the year when the merchant is busy with his inventory. Do you realize what a job it is? There are any number of things to do. If it is the dry goods man he has hundreds of yards of cloth to measure and mark and other details that would serve to make him in anything but an agreeable frame of mind. Speaking of measuring cloth reminds one of a contrivance that is used now days to facilitate the work of the man who is intrusted with this work. The machine is called a measuring metre and is as simple as A. B. C. Attached to the metre is a spool of ordinary thread which connects with the dial of the metre. There is an index rod that is used to insert between the folds of the goods. The man engaged to do the measuring simply passes the index rod round and round the folds, carrying the thread along. The thread as it passes between the folds of the cloth becomes taut and causes the dial of the metre to work. As the index rod is moved between the folds of the cloth the dial registers the number of yards. The machine is a clever device and a great saving in labor. Heretofore it was necessary to unfold the cloth and after measuring, it had to be refolded involving a large amount of labor.

—There will be Danish services tonight at St Peter's Lutheran church. Rev. C. C. Mengers, of Philadelphia, is to preach.

—In consequence of the funeral of Mrs. Mary Wilson tomorrow the Ladies Aid Society of the First M. E church will meet at 4 p. m. that day.

Fifteen-Year-Old Old Boy Dead.

Word has been received in this city of the death of Henry E. Wilson, aged 15 years, son of Zachariah and Josephine Wilson, formerly residents of the borough, but now of Roselle. Death was due to spasms.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

CHICAGO PANCAKES

It Is Well to Measure Them Before Ordering Any.

"I don't feel very hungry," said the man from Michigan, as he sat at the table of a Chicago restaurant, and hastily glanced over the bill of fare. "Waiter, suppose you bring me half a dozen German pancakes."

The waiter allowed a look of polite astonishment to flit over his usually impassive face.

"Folks don't usually order more than one," he said, in an apologetic tone.

The man from Michigan looked angry.

"I guess I know what I want," he declared, bringing his fist down upon the table so that that the imitation cut-glass sugar bowl lid rattled. "City people may think it polite to eat only one flapjack, but I'm a native of Michigan, and when I was a boy I used to eat ten German pancakes for breakfast. Are you going to fill my order?"

The waiter bowed and disappeared. The man from Michigan read a paper for a while. Then he fidgeted. Finally he complained to the head waiter that he had not come to the city to spend the day in a public dining room. At the end of fifteen minutes six waiters approached his table. The first deposited a platter of the largest size. In the centre was a pancake eighteen inches in diameter. It was flanked by lemon and half concealed in powdered sugar. The second and third waiter bore duplicates of the first pancakes, as did the fourth, fifth and sixth. There was not room on the table for all of the pancakes, so two of them were placed on a side table. The waiters looked very serious, but the persons who were enjoying luncheon began to smile. One man laughed aloud.

The man from Michigan looked at his check, which called for $1.80. Then he surveyed about fourteen square feet of German pancake.

"These things seem to have grown since I was a boy," he observed.

Three men chuckled so audibly that they attracted attention. The owner of the pancakes frowned at them. Then he ordered the waiter to give each a pancake. Twenty persons stopped eating to express their merriment.

The man from Michigan immediately became good natured. He consumed two of the pancakes, gave the waiter who had taken the order half a dollar, and when he paid his bill remarked that hereafter he would get the measurements of things to eat before he picked them out from a Chicago bill of fare.

Missing All the Fun

"Foolish of you to tell those young men that you knew how to swim," said the girl in blue as they strolled along the beach.

"Why?" asked the girl in white.

"Why?" repeated the girl in blue, scornfully. "Well, it's evident you've never been to the seashore before. You miss all the fun of having them try to teach you."

From a Masculine Standpoint.

"It's queer," said the young widow, "that poor, dear John never said a word to me about remarrying. I really can't understand it."

"I don't see anything so very remarkable about that," rejoined her bachelor uncle. "I suppose you are not the one he thought it was his duty to warn."—Chicago News.

A Consultation of the Future

Dr. Skinnem—Have you made a careful X-ray examination of the patient?

Assistant—I have; here is the chart. It shows in all seventy-two cents in change distributed in various pockets. Also a key and a meal ticket.

Dr. Skinnem—Um, I see. Tell him we don't care to treat him.

When the Season Is Over.

Daughter—Papa, I shall have to have a new trunk before we go home.

Father—Nonsense! You haven't any more dresses than you had when we came here.

Daughter—No, but I have some engagement rings.

Science Among the Gamins

Jimmy (of the slums)—I tell yer, there's a wuss feller aroun' than Jack the Ripper.

Billy (his chum)—Yer don't say.

Jimmie—Yer bet there is. I heard a doctor up at the horspittle say that Mike Robes killed hundreds every day.

Prompt Retort.

"If the devil had his dues, how would you feel?"

"Jolly lonely, old friend." — Ally Sloper.

A Disappointment.

Little Silas—Didn't ye git no gold brick, paw?

His father—Wy, no, Si, I didn't git none this time.

Silas—Well, I want one. Rube Simmon's paw got him one, an' they're jest dandy to crack hick'ry nuts with.

Parental Pride

"Your baby seems to have good use of his arms and legs."

"I should say so. Jeffries won't hold on to that pugilistic championship more than twenty years and six months."

Spoiling a Graft.

Biggs—My cousin, who lives in the country, played me a mean trick.

Boggs—What was it?

Biggs—He advertised for summer boarders, and now I can't visit him unless I pay.

Unfortunate Inference

"My uncle grows strawberries so big that six will fill a quart box."

"I'd be ashamed to have an uncle who would use that kind of quart boxes."

INFORMATION.

Eggplants, with the inside scooped out and filled with bread crumbs and butter, are favorite vegetables for the table.

Dynamite was recently used as a detective for a wood thief in Wilson county, Kan. There is a large hole in the vicinity that would make a cellar for a new house.

The imports of American tobacco into Japan in 1898 amounted to 8,391,715 pounds, and were valued at nearly $485,000. It was used chiefly in the manufacture of cigarettes.

The division of forestry of the Department of Agriculture at the present time has sixteen men in the State of Washington gathering data regarding the growth of red fir and how best to keep the land in a productive condition.

The special expert sent abroad by the Agricultural Department in search of new seeds and edible plants has brought back an "everbearing strawberry." It is said to produce fruit for months on the same plants, and a small patch will supply a family table a whole season.

In regard to automobiles, France leads in gasoline vehicles and England in steam vehicles, while America, as was to be expected, is far in the lead in electrical conveyances of all kinds. Six different motive powers are now actually employed in this country—electricity, steam, compressed air, carbonic acid gas and alcohol.

In the savannahs of South America there grows a tree called by the natives chaparro, which not only is not injured but actually benefitted by prairie fires. The thick bark resists the action of the flames, and the hard seeds are supplied with a kind of wings, owing to which they are scattered broadcast by the strong wind which accompanies a fire.

An authority on the subject says: "It is a fact that such fruit as the apple, the pear and the plum, taken when ripe with sugar, diminish the acidity of the stomach rather than provokes it. The vegetable juices contained in these fruits are converted into Alkaline carbonates, which tend to correct acidity. A good ripe apple (raw) is one of the easiest vegetable substances for the stomach to deal with, the whole process of digestion being complete in eighty-five minutes."

A remarkable, yet simple operation was recently performed by a Brooklyn physician. A little girl swallowed a screw 1 1-2 inches long. A surgical operation would have endangered the child's life. The doctor took some fine strands of raw silk and mixed them with some bread, which the girl was induced to swallow. He waited eight minutes for them to revolve in the stomach. Then he pulled on the threads and the screw came out, having been enmeshed in the silk.

PLANTS and FLOWERS.

All the new and latest ideas in FLORAL DESIGNS, BASKETS and WEDDING BOUQUETS.

. . Ferneries at Short Notice . .

CHAS. L. STANLEY, 142 North Ave

Greenhouses, South Ave., Netherwood.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

TELEPHONE 722.

MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.

Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9 a. m.

Thursday Night, Jan. 11, 1900.

ULLIE ACKERSTROM

in the Laughing Comedy

"My Mother-In-Law"

Presented by a well-selected COMPANY OF COMEDIANS.

SCINTILATING WITH WIT and INCESSANT LAUGHTER.

Prices 25, 35, 50 and 75c.

LOCAL and CLIMATIC

Nothing but a local remedy or change of climate will cure

CATARRH.

The Specific is

Ely's Cream Balm

It is quickly Absorbed. Gives Relief at once. Opens and cleanses the Nasal Passages. Allays Inflammation. Heals and Protects the Membrane. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. No Mercury. No Injurious drug. Regular Size 50c. Family Size $1.00. at Druggists or by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

CATARRH

COLD IN HEAD

M. E. Stephenson,

- - CATERER - -

Tel. 624. 146 North Ave.

Established on West Front St., 30 years ago.

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles.

CARDS and CALENDARS.

We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.

High Grade Cigars.

Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.

B. W. HAND,

205 W. Front Street.

CHAS. L. FOROE.

Architect and Superintendent.

208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given. 1 31 tf

GEO. W. COLE,

UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER.

208 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.

OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

DIED.

KULLY—In this city, Sunday, Jan. 7th, 1900, John Kully, aged 49 years.
Funeral services at the Bethel Mission, East Fifth street, Wednesday, Jan. 10th, at 3 p. m. Interment in Hillside 1 8 3

WILSON In this city, Saturday, Jan. 6th, 1900, Mary A., widow of James Wilson, in her 94th year.
Funeral services at her late residence, 447 West Seventh street, Tuesday, Jan. 9th, at 3 p. m. Interment in Cedar Lawn Cemetery, Paterson. 1 8 3

WANTS AND OFFERS.

PLEASANT furnished rooms with board. Mrs. J. B. Platt, 431 West Sixth street. 1 6 3

A NEW piano for sale cheap, for cash. Address Music, care Press. 1 6 2

ONE comfortable room, with excellent table, at moderate terms, 1121 Putnam avenue. 1 2 6

HOUSE and store, corner Plainfield aven e and Fourth street, for sale cheap. Apply R Frucht. 1 5 6

STORE to let, No 220 Park avenue. Apply R Frucht. 1 5 6

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

FUR carriage robes for sale cheap, 403 West Seventh St.

BOARD wanted in the vicinity of Fanwood, N J, for a lady who is willing to assist with light household duties. Address E. L. A., Fanwood, N. J.

YOUNG colored woman wants work by the day; reference. 409 East Sixth St. 1 8 3

WANTED—Strong woman for general housework. Hoagland, 161 North Ave.

TO LET—One large store, and four large room flat, city water, stationery wash tubs and water closet. 304 Richmond street. 1 8 tf eod

WOMAN wishes laundry work by the day. 328 East Fourth St 1 8 3

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

BOARD WANTED, with two rooms, for three adults; rooms and board must be first-class; modern improvements; give terms and full particulars. Address R. F. G., care Press. 1 8 3

5 AND 6-room flat for rent; City water. L. M. French, 36 Somerset St. 1 8 2

FOR SALE—Germantown Rockaway, good make; will sell cheap. L. M. French, 36 Somerset St. 1 8 2

EXPERIENCED young lady wishes position as tutor in private family. Address T., care Press.

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place 2 23 tf

Massage, Manicuring, Hair Dressing, Shampooing, Facial Massage and Steaming.

MISS HOLMES, Graduate of New York Schools of Massage, Electricity and Dermatology.

440 W. Front St., near Washington Ave.

THE First National Bank, of Plainfield, N. J.

Capital ..... $200,000.
Surplus and Profits ..... $ 90,000.

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.

DIRECTORS.

Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Corlell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

Advertised Mail Matter.

JANUARY 8, 1900.

Adelson, Mr B	Knox, Miss Alice
Ainer, Mr A E	Laverty, Mrs D H
Banta, Miss A B	McCarthy, Miss May
Barr, Mr John 2	Mamie Miss
Parliett, Mr Phillip	Martin, Mr John H
Fatchelor, Rufus W	Mathewson, Mrs El'th
Bolize, Mrs Bessie	Murphy, E L
Bourern, Miss Mary	Peterson, Miss Marion
Borden, Miss Helen	Pendergart, Mr E
Bowman, Miss Clara	Parrott, Miss B
Binten, Mr William	Person, Mrs M
Co bert, Miss Eliza	Presberger, Mr M
Cotton Miss Bessie	Rogers, Mrs Willis H
Drake, Mr C	Ryno Mr Emily
Drake, Mr Fred V	Schaunenburg, Mrs
Ecoreth, Egbert C	Scott, (Col') Mr Ben
Fernald, Mrs Lizzie	Smalley, L M
Gratten, Miss Annie	Thomas, Miss C D
Grant, Ida M	Thompson, Mr J H
Hawkins, Mrs W A 2	Tolvor, Mrs Silvie
Hemming, Esq, J C	Weeks, Mrs Edw F
Hennessey, Mrs M'y 3	Yale, Mrs C H
	Yale, Mrs C M

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:24 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:52 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:52 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Increasing cloudiness tonight; warmer Wednesday, with snow in afternoon, turning to rain. Ther. 31.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, JANUARY 9, 1900. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

AFFAIRS OF THE STATE.

Governor Voorhees' Message to the Legislature.

FRANCHISE TAXATION.

IMPORTANT SUBJECT DWELT ON BY GOVERNOR.

He Recommends That Franchises of Corporations Using Public Privileges be Put in a Special Class for the Purpose of Taxation.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, January 9.—When the Legislature convenes this afternoon and is formally organized, the annual message of Governor Voorhees will be read to both the Assembly and the Senate. The message is as follows:

Gentlemen of the Senate and General Assembly:

As required by the constitution, I desire herewith to submit to you this my first annual message. In it reference will be made to the condition of the state and your attention invited to such measures as seem to me worthy of your consideration and action.

The annual report of the various officials of the state furnish detailed information concerning their respective departments and the character and results of the work done therein. They are full of instruction and interest and are worthy of your careful study in order that the duties awaiting you may be discharged with intelligence and satisfaction to yourselves and the people whom you represent. It is believed that these reports will disclose in the conduct of our state affairs a large measure of honesty, competency and conscientious zeal. This desirable result is chiefly due to the nonpartisan control of our institutions and their conduct upon a nonpartisan basis.

For the needs of the various departments, to which a particular reference may not herein be made, sufficient information will be found for your enlightenment and guidance in the statements which have been submitted.

As affording evidence of the general prosperous conditions which characterized the last fiscal year and the careful and prudent conduct of this important branch of our government, I desire to lay before you the financial transactions of the state for the year ending Oct. 31, 1899.

FINANCES.

It is with justifiable pride that your attention is called to these transactions. A clear and comprehensive statement thereof is to be found in the reports of the treasurer and the comptroller. Some idea of the varied and important duties of these officers may be formed when it is recalled that during the last fiscal year they had charge of the collection and disbursement of about $6,000,000.

INCOME OF STATE FUND.

The income of the state fund for the year ending Oct. 31, 1899, was	$3,049,700 82
For the year ending Oct. 31, 1898, it was	2,354,622 05
Showing an increase in the income for the year of 1899 over that of 1898 of	695,078 77

The increase and decrease of income of the fund for the year 1899, as compared with that of 1898, are found in the following items:

	Decrease from 1898.	Increase over 1898.
From secretary of state		$30,746 27
From miscellaneous corporations		140,212 70
From state prison		17,578 68
From war with Spain		15,371 77
From commissioner of banking and insurance		3,008 59
From clerk of the supreme court		1,689 78
From state dairy commissioner		1,650 00
From commissions		700 00
From clerk in chancery		226 04
		$757,283 83
From sinking fund	29,000 00
From collateral inheritance tax	27,411 71
From judicial fees	5,392 28
From railroad corporations	66 96
From minor sources	284 11
		62,155 06
Net increase		$695,078 77

ORDINARY DISBURSEMENTS OF STATE FUND.

The ordinary disbursements for the year ending Oct. 31, 1899, were	$3,197,273 15
For the year ending Oct. 31, 1898, they were	3,019,364 94
Showing a decrease during the year of	$87,908 21

EXTRAORDINARY DISBURSEMENTS.

For the year ending Oct. 31, 1899, extraordinary disbursements were made on account of

War with Spain (additional compensation to volunteers—maintaining troops, medals, ordnance stores, etc)	$295,957 68
Morris Plains hospital (new building, etc)	160,329 41
Newark armory	79,478 72
Home for disabled soldiers, sailors, marines and their wives	48,997 37
Village for epileptics	21,500 00
Refunded taxes on exempted miscellaneous corporations (Singer Manufacturing company)	21,052 50
Reform school for boys (chapel)	15,000 00
State prison (laundry, etc)	9,830 40
Pollution of the rivers and streams	4,332 59
State reformatory	5,000 00
Transportation of prisoners	4,258 75
Home for disabled soldiers

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 6.]

OWNED BY GOVERNMENT

THE GREAT QUESTION DEBATED BY Y. M. C. A. YOUNG MEN.

Two on Each Side of the Question—Many Strong Points Made by Both, but Judges Are in Favor of Negative.

The public debate at the Y. M. C. A. last evening did not attract a very large attendance. The debate, however, proved interesting. The question debated was: "Resolved, That the United States should own all public railroads and telegraph lines within its domains."

O. S. Rogers and T. A. Cuming had the affirmative and J. H. Crane and George S. Clay the negative. The judges were Ira W. Travell, Clarence Davis, Ph.D., and O. W. Dunham. A. B. Meredith was the critic.

Mr. Rogers for the affirmative opened the debate by advancing the argument that it would be of great benefit to the public for the Government to own all the railroads and telegraphs, because it would have a tendency to develop the country much faster than under the present private ownership. Rates of fare on the railroads and telegraph lines would be much cheaper, and the advantages to the poorer classes would be manifold.

George S. Clay for the negative claimed that the Government had not the right under the constitution to operate either the railroads or the telegraph lines. Two-thirds of the population, he said, was engaged in farming, and but comparatively few farmers had occasion to use the telegraph lines. As regards the railroads statistics showed that the railroads paid a large proportion of the taxes, while there was shown to be a large deficit last year in the postal system.

T. A. Cuming, the second man to speak on the affirmative side, said it would not be necessary for a deficit in the postal system to exist if the railroads were owned by the Government. He referred to the cheap fares in Europe, particularly in Germany, and argued that by cheaper rates of fare people would be able to travel more extensively and by so doing would become better educated.

J. H. Crane, the second man for the negative, advanced the best argument of the debate. He said it would be necessary for the Government to buy the railroads and telegraph lines before it could own them and that would cost something like eight hundred millions of dollars, which with the immense war debt now on the hands of the Government would plunge the country into a debt from which it would never recover. He also expressed the opinion that with the Government owning the railroads and telegraph lines there would be a great liability of political corruption and Congress would have its hands more than full in efforts to regulate lines of business of which it knew nothing about.

The leaders in the debate were then given five minutes to sum up when the question was submitted to the judges who decided in favor of the negative, though they expressed the opinion that the gentlemen of the affirmative had advanced some clever arguments.

SPANISH ARCHITECTURE.

Lecture Delivered Before Monday Afternoon Club by A. T. Van Laer.

A lecture of unusual interest was given yesterday afternoon before the Monday Afternoon Club at All Souls church by A. T. Van Laer, on Spanish architecture. The lecture was illustrated with a stereopticon, the pictures from the slides being of rare excellence and beauty, taken this past summer during the lecturer's travels in Spain. Beginning with the early Roman architecture, Mr. Van Laer gave some fine specimens of Moorish architecture from the Alhambra and Mosque at Cordova, followed by gothic views and styles borrowed from the Italian Rennaissance. The speaker held the undivided attention of a large audience, who were enthusiastic in their admiration of the views and the accompanying description of them.

Methodists Unite.

This week the prayer services are being divided among the Methodists of the city and borough. Last evening it was held at Grace M. E. church, and it will be held there this evening. Wednesday it will be held at the First M. E. church, and on Thursday and Friday evenings at Monroe Avenue church.

Funeral at Warren Chapel.

The funeral services of the late Henry E. Wilson, aged 15 years, who died at his home, Roselle, Saturday, will be held tomorrow afternoon from Warren chapel at 3 o'clock. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. Interment will be in North Plainfield cemetery.

—Press want ads pay.

IN STAR CHAMBER AGAIN.

NEW BOARD OF EDUCATION COMMENCES EXECUTIVE SESSIONS.

Dr. Probasco Chosen President Again and Fred C. Lounsbury Secretary—Report of Tax Collector Received.

The Plainfield Board of Education followed the example of its predecessors at its first meeting last evening by dispatching the regular business of the Board in fifteen minutes and then going into executive session. The Board succeeded, however, in getting together at 7:55 o'clock, the first time for several years. At the open session of the Board the only business of importance was the re-election of the old officers.

When the meeting was called to order Mr. Lovell was made temporary chairman. Then Dr. J. B. Probasco was unanimously re-elected president and Fred C. Lounsbury secretary.

After the usual batch of bills, the report of the tax collector was read. It showed a total collection of $2,368.49, which included $35 64 interest. A communication was read from the city treasurer telling of the receipt of the city's share of the State school appropriation amounting to $1,492.13.

Superintendent Maxson had nothing to bring before the Board. Neither had any of the members. So they went into executive session at 8:10 o'clock.

TARGETS OF TRAINMEN.

Lives of Baltimore and Ohio Employes in Cranford in Peril From Shot Gun in Hands of Lunatic.

Trainmen in the Baltimore & Ohio freight yard, at Cranford, are up in arms against the action of an apparent lunatic, who has chosen to make targets of them. He carries a double-barrelled shot gun, and shoots at them nightly while they are making up their trains.

The man lives in a hovel in the rear of the Lehigh Valley tracks at Cranford. He is sixty years old. He always succeeds in getting away after he has fired in the dark. He is apparently never at home.

On New Year's night he opened fire on the trainmen, and several narrowly escaped. They saw him standing on the track and approached him. He stood his ground, and commanded the men to keep off or he would kill the first who laid hands on him. They retreated. Trainmen now work in the yards with their lights out. The old man has terrorized the township for several years. The officials have decided to hire men to search for and arrest him.

WEEK OF PRAYER SERVICES.

Large Attendance at the Congregational Church Last Night.

The Week of Prayer services at the Congregational church began last evening. Rev. C. L. Goodrich, the pastor, presided. The topic was "Choosing His Will." There was a large attendance. Miss M. G. Morse sang a solo with autoharp accompaniment.

The topic of the meeting this evening will be "Living As God Lives." There will be a solo by Miss Charlotte Messersmith. Tomorrow evening the topic will be "Walking With God." Miss Bertha V. Willis will sing. There will be no service Thursday evening. Friday evening the topic will be "Working with God."

Interesting Reports Expected.

The annual reports of the borough officials will not be presented before spring, but it is said that they will be marvels of revelation. Chief Campbell says that his report will show a most satisfactory condition of affairs, and how few have been sent to Somerville to be kept at the expense of the county. From what can be learned the reports will be the most interesting yet presented.

Running on New Tracks.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth January 9.—The Central Railroad Company has begun running its trains between here and Newark over the new route. The line branches off of the main line at Spring Street and follows the Broadway tracks to the New York and Long Branch tracks, over which it goes to the Elizabethport station and thence on to Newark as before.

Officers of Gesang and Turn Verein.

The following officers have been elected by the members of the Gesang and Turn Verein: President, Herman Klinsman; vice-president, Jacob Grant; corresponding secretary, Jos. Haurand; financial secretary, F. Bergen; treasurer, Charles Felver.

To Lose One Eye.

An operation will be performed on Christopher Staggard this week at the hospital, when his eye, which was seriously injured, will be taken out. The boy's condition is greatly improved and he now suffers very little pain.

COUNCIL TAKES UP THE CITY HALL IDEA.

Mr. Buckle Acts on the Recommendation of the Mayor.

TO LOOK INTO THE SUBJECT.

POLICE AND FIRE COMMITTEES TO ACT JOINTLY IN THE WORK.

Commissioners Appointed by Judge Vail to Assess Benefits and Damages for Certain Street Improvements, Decline to Serve—Judge Vail Will Appoint New Ones—Other Business Was Transacted.

The Common Council met last night with all the members present. The bonds of Constables S. R. Hope, Amos Moffett, W. R. Mattox and Peter Weaver were reported as approved by the corporation counsel, and they were filed. Constable Gjettiesen's bond was received, referred to the finance committee and then referred to the corporation counsel for his approval. Three petitions were received from taxpayers begging the Council to take proper steps toward the erection of a city hall and suitable city jail. The petitions were signed by a large number of people and the lists were started by Andrew McCardell, Charles L. Moffett and Elston M. French.

The annual message of Mayor Rockfellow was received at the time and read, after which on motion of Mr. VanHerwerden a copy was ordered sent to each member. The message will be found in another part of the paper.

A communication was presented by Mr. Tolles to the effect that Wm. M. Sandford, A. J. Gavett and J. T. Fritts, who were appointed by the Court of Common Pleas to assess benefits and damages in the case of a certain street which had been macadamized during the past few months, had declined to serve as they are interested parties. A resolution was then offered by Mr. Tolles that application be made to the Court that January 24th next they appoint other commissioners to serve in place of those who declined.

Mayor Rockfellow appointed Isaac E. Houston as a special policeman and the appointment was confirmed.

Mr. Buckle offered a resolution that the fire and building committee, together with the police committee, be authorized to select a site and the probable cost for a city hall and jail, and that they report to the Council.

Mr. Dumont thought it would be wise to place an advertisement in the city papers asking for proposals for sites, etc., but to this proposition Mr. Buckle took exception on the ground that the work of the committee might be hampered in selecting a place. This committee will go to work at once and report as soon as possible. It was evident from what was said at the meeting that it is the intention if possible to secure a city hall this year.

Mr. Dumont wanted to move that the rules of the 1899 Council be made the by-laws of the present one, but there was a little misunderstanding as to whether it was a regular or adjourned meeting and whether such action could be taken. There was no particular hurry about the matter, however, and it was allowed to go over to the regular meeting in February. The meeting then adjourned to February 12th.

JERSEY CENTRAL DIVIDENDS

Directors Surprise Wall Street by Advancing the Annual Rate to Five Per Cent.

Jersey Central directors surprised Wall street yesterday by declaring a quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on the stock, thereby advancing the dividend rate from 4 to 5 per cent. The advance was unexpected, for although rumors of it have been in circulation for several days, the failure of the Delaware and Hudson directors to advance their rate was regarded as indicating the improbability of any such action on the part of Jersey Central.

Announcement of the increase in the company's dividend figure was well received and attracted much attention to the coal trade and the coal stocks. This revival of interest, however, did not lead to any new activity in the group. Strangely enough, there was not a single transaction in Jersey Central during the day. Its quotations advanced, and from 114 the bid rose to 118. This, however, brought out no stock, although offerings were made at the close at 118½.

—Martin Roth Jr., has taken the long established business formerly conducted by his father at 124 Exchange Alley, rear of Leifke bakery. The same high standard of work will be turned out as heretofore. Look at his advertisement in another column.

GO TO THE PENITENTIARY

THE PLAINFIELD SHOPLIFTERS SENTENCED BY JUDGE FORT.

Bowers and Garrettson Women Each Given Six Months—Made a Scene in Court—Mrs. Bowers Fell in a Faint.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, Jan. 9—In the Court of Special Sessions yesterday the case against Mrs. Annie Bowers, Mrs. Ida Carrell and Eliza Garrettson, of Plainfield, who had pleaded guilty to shoplifting in stealing from some of the large stores in Newark, was disposed of. Judge Fort sentenced the Bowers and Garrettson women to six months in the penitentiary. Mrs. Carrell's sentence was postponed owing to her physical condition, and she was given her freedom.

When the Bowers and Garrettson women received their sentences they made a scene. Mrs. Bowers uttered a scream and fell to the court room floor in a dead faint. Mrs. Garrettson also screamed and became hysterical. Both women were taken in charge by the court attendants and carried into a side room, where they were brought around by the aid of restoratives.

When the women were brought into court they were accompanied by some well-dressed people, among them being Mrs. Bowers' father. Judge Fort said that he had been appealed to by certain people more or less prominent in Newark, who had implored him to be lenient in passing sentence. He had decided, however, to show no favors and would impose a like sentence upon both women, as they had confessed their crimes and he had no other alternative but to carry out the law.

BELIEVED THEIR STORY.

Judge Runyon Released Three Young Men for Stealing a Ride on a Central Passenger Train.

Three young men, bound for the Erie basin, Brooklyn, to get work in the shipyards there, were arrested on the 2:08 express from Philadelphia this morning for stealing a ride on the cars. The railroad officials telegraphed here from Bound Brook and Sergeant Kiely and Patrolman McCarthy made the arrests. The prisoners appeared to be very well-behaved young men and told a straightforward story.

They were arraigned before City Judge Runyon this morning, giving their names as Wm. Hallowell, Harry Linewebber and Charles Cropp. They had worked in Cramp's shipyard until the strike began.

The court was impressed with their story and suspended sentence. Then Judge Runyon gave them a little good advice and the young men were allowed to go.

WOMAN SNATCHED WATCH.

Somerville Lawyer Robbed While in New Brunswick.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, Jan. 9.—The police are trying to locate a colored woman who robbed John Frech, a Somerville lawyer and former counsel of the Board of Freeholders of Somerset county, of a watch worth $250. Mr. Frech and a colored man employed by him came to New Brunswick Saturday night. The two separated, and Mr. Frech attended to some business. When he arrived at the trolley station to take the Somerville car, the colored man had not shown up.

Frech started to look for him, and heard that he was at Ruck's saloon, at the corner of Somerset and Neilson streets. Frech went there. His man was in the hall talking to several colored women. Just as Frech entered the door one of the women snatched his watch and ran. Frech and his man pursued her, but she eluded them. When they returned to the saloon her companions had gone.

SILK COMPANY OFFICERS.

Annual Meeting of the Stockholders Held Last Night.

There was a meeting of the Watchung Silk Company last evening when the following persons were elected as directors: W. R. Codington, J. F. MacDonald, W. R. Stanbery, Willis T. Vail, H. C. Runyon, E. M. Laing and F. S. Runyon. From the above number the officers were selected as follows: President, J. Fred MacDonald; vice-president, E. M. Laing; secretary, H. C. Runyon; treasurer, W. R. Codington. The officers report the condition of the company to be first-class and a large amount of business on hand.

A New House.

D. N. Force, the builder, has secured the contract to build a new house for Joseph F. T. Fuller on Union street. The plans have been made by Charles L. Force, of the borough. The house when completed will be one of the most convenient and attractive in this vicinity.

LEGISLATURE IS READY.

ANNUAL SESSION WILL CONVENE THIS AFTERNOON.

After the Organization the Standing Committees Will be Announced—Five Per Cent Interest Bill Again.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, Jan. 9.—Everything is in readiness for the opening of the Legislature this afternoon. The organization will occur at 3 o'clock, and the standing committees will be announced in each house as soon as the members are sworn in.

Although no caucusses were held last night there was a large gathering of members at the Trenton House. Senators Sewell and Kean gave a reception in room No. 100, and about three-score legislators paid their respects. President Johnson, of the Senate, Speaker Jones and Governor Voorhees were in the throng.

The Republican members of the Senate held a caucus this morning to complete the list of doorkeeper, pages, etc.

It was announced last night that the 5 per cent. interest bill will be among the first measures introduced, and that a vigorous effort will be made to put it through both houses. Last year it passed the House, but was defeated by a close vote in the Senate. Assemblyman Cooper, of Somerset, introduced and pushed the bill last session.

Speaker Jones has selected for his private secretary Malcolme McLear, of Essex, and for assistant private secretary Herbert Matts. The assistant supervisor of bills for the House will be Solomon H. Rogers, of Mercer.

President Johnson will appoint Arthur Van Buskirk, of Hackensack, as his private secretary.

HE KNOWS.

Ramon Reyes Lala, of Manila, will Speak in Music Hall Tuesday Night—An Illustrated Lecture.

There is so much to say about the United States' new possessions in the east, and so comparatively few who are qualified to speak with authority on the situation there that all are glad of the opportunity to listen to one thoroughly acquainted with life in the Philippines and who can speak from the standpoint of a native of that country. Ramon Reyes Lala, of Manila, will lecture at the Stillman Music Hall Tuesday evening. His talk will be illustrated with a series of views taken especially for him.

Signor Lala was educated in Europe, but has spent many years in his own home and is perfectly qualified to deal with the subjects that are now so particularly interesting to all Americans. Wherever he has spoken he is highly commended by the newspapers.

THEY'LL GET BUT LITTLE.

Creditors of the Country Club Will Get But Small Percentage of Their Claims.

It will be a very small percentage that the creditors of the Union County Country Club will receive when there comes a division of the assets. The liabilities of the club amount to nearly $17,000. The only assets were the furniture and fixtures at the club house, which were disposed of yesterday morning at public auction. The results of the sale amounted to $500. City Judge William N. Runyon, who purchased the bulk of the club property, paid in $467.90 for his share. This will eventually pass into the hands of the new club that is to be organized shortly.

Republicans Elect Officers.

The Middlesex Republican county committee met yesterday, and, after hearing reports which they noted as very encouraging, elected a committee for 1900. The officers are—C. A. Prickett, of Metuchen, president; A. H. Selover, South Amboy, vice-president; Wm. Richardson, New Brunswick, secretary; Chas. W. Russell, New Brunswick, treasurer.

Young Militia Men.

A number of boys living in the vicinity of Grant avenue have organized a military company. These young Americans may be seen almost any afternoon going through the evolutions of the drill. They have supplied themselves with wooden guns with bayonets. They show considerable skill in manipulating the arms.

Paul T. Norton Company to Move.

The Paul T. Norton Company, flour and feed dealers, have secured control of the property formerly occupied by C. H. Rugg on Madison avenue as coal yards, and the firm will remove their business to that place from East Front street in the course of time, probably around April 1st.

Unlucky Thirteen.

There are thirteen patients at Muhlenberg Hospital at present, and all are doing very well. It has been some time since any new patients have been received.

CITY HALL IS NEEDED.

Important Recommendation in Mayor's Message.

WILL SAVE CITY MONEY.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS DISCUSSED AT LENGTH.

Compliments Fire and Police Departments—Council Should Oversee All Taxation Matters—Mayor Always Willing to Aid Other City Officials.

The following is the annual message of Mayor Rockfellow communicated to the Common Council last night:

To the Honorable the Common Council of the City of Plainfield:

Gentlemen—Reference to the full and detailed reports of officers and committees, filed as late as December 27th last, will fully inform the newly-elected members of your honorable body, and refresh the recollections of the other members, as to the business transacted during the year 1899, the present condition of the several departments and the recommendations of officers and committees therein made for the ensuing year. These reports practically brought down to date and prepared by those, who, by reason of their experience during the year, were most thoroughly conversant with the subjects dealt with, are of great value to the city, and render it unnecessary for me to do more at this time than call attention to such special matters as I desire to submit for your early consideration.

CITY HALL A NECESSITY.

In my judgment, the time has arrived when we can no longer defer the erection of a City Hall without sacrificing vital public interests and endangering the reputation of the city. The pressing needs for such a building have been pointed out in prior messages, are referred to in the official reports on file, and need not be recapitulated. It is enough to say that it seems to be conceded by all that a City Hall is now a matter of imperative necessity. We have not even the plea of economy left as justification for further delay, for it is easily demonstrateable that the present expenditure for rentals exceeds the annual interest charges on the money that would suffice for the purchase of land and the erection of the building, and it is manifest that the longer the purchase of the necessary land is put off, the greater will be its cost. I recommend that among the first measures to be taken up, be the appointment of a special committee with power to procure and submit plans and specifications, to solicit a suitable lot and to advise the Council under what statute the city should take final action in the premises.

STREETS.

The matter of laying down a pavement on Park avenue from Front street to the railroad, on Front street from Watchung avenue to Central avenue, and on Somerset street from Front stret to the city line, has long been under discussion, and was deferred last year, partly because of the other more pressing needs and the desire to keep down the tax levy, and partly to enable underground sewer, gas, electric light and telephone conduits to be first laid, and to procure legislation to prevent the pavement from being torn up for any purpose without special permission first obtained from the Common Council or its duly appointed agents. Most of the permanent conduits have been laid through the streets referred to and the city has secured the enactment of chapter 189 of the session laws of 1899, under which the city is authorized to pass an ordinance to require all persons and corporations to complete the laying and repairing of wires, pipes, or other conduits beneath the said streets within ninety days from the date of approval, or final adoption of said ordinance, and to provide that the pavement shall in no manner be disturbed for the space of at least five years without express permission. The same statute requires all property owners along the lines of such streets to connect leaders with pipes under the sidewalks so as to conduct water from the roofs of buildings into the storm sewer.

The importance of this legislation, and it value to the city will be apparent when it is remembered that prior

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

ALLEGES TREACHERY

Pettigrew Says Government Is Fighting Its Allies.

SENATOR MORGAN ON RACE PROBLEM

Discussing Pensions, Mr. Teller Says No Political Party Can Afford to Deny Justice to the Nation's Defenders.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—During a discussion yesterday of a resolution of inquiry offered by Mr. Pettigrew of South Dakota some sensational statements were made in the senate regarding the attitude of the United States toward the Filipino insurgents. Mr. Pettigrew declared that this government had attacked its allies and thereby had been guilty of the grossest treachery. This statement was resented warmly by Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts, who declared that this government had done nothing of the kind and that not even remotely had it recognized the so called government of the Filipinos.

Mr. Morgan (Dem.) of Alabama discussed at length the race question in the south, basing his remarks upon a resolution offered by Mr. Pritchard (Rep.) of North Carolina. He deemed it imperative that some course should be adopted which would prevent a repetition of the Hayes-Tilden controversy and discussed fully the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the constitution. He maintained that to attempt to force the black race into a social and political equality with the white race was only to clog the progress of all mankind. The speech was a strong appeal for action that would benefit both races and a defense of the new constitutions of Louisiana and North Carolina.

At the conclusion of Mr. Morgan's speech Mr. Pritchard gave notice that he would address the senate on the resolution on Jan. 22.

A bill amending the dependent pension act of June 27, 1890, was called up and explained by Mr. Gallinger of New Hampshire. The two amendments proposed by the bill were that widows who have an income of $250 in excess of daily wages should be pensioned under the act and authorizing the commissioner of pensions to aggregate the disabilities of an applicant in fixing his pensionable status.

In the course of a protracted discussion of the general pension question, a discussion which took a wide range, Mr. Teller of Colorado said he was not appalled by the fact that $140,000,000 annually was paid by the government to pensioners. He was certain that more men were off the pension rolls who ought to be on than were on and ought to be off. No political party, he thought, could afford to hesitate to do ample justice to those who had fought for the country.

The bill was amended so as to provide that in case the widow should have "resources" instead of an "income" from which $250 a year is derived or derivable she should be pensionable and further that the bill does not apply to widows who have married former soldiers since June 27, 1890.

The bill as amended was passed.

A bill was also passed providing that a widow's pension shall commence with the application and not at the date of the soldier's death and construing a section of the dependent pension act.

At 3:55 p. m. the senate went into executive session and at 5 o'clock adjourned.

The house ordered two investigations as a result of resolutions introduced by Representative Lentz of Ohio. The first is to be an investigation by the committee on postoffices and postroads into the charge that two federal appointees of the president, Postmaster John C. Graham of Provo City, Utah, and Postmaster Carson Smith of Logan, Utah, are under indictment as polygamists and whether affidavits to that effect were on file at the time of their appointment. The other is a general investigation of the military committee into the conduct of General Merriam and the United States army officers during the Wardner (Ida.) riots and subsequent thereto. The house adjourned until Wednesday.

Naval Movements.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The Porter has arrived at Norfolk. The Monadnock and the Solace have arrived at Hongkong from Manila. The Detroit has gone from Key West to Dry Tortugas. The Brutus has arrived at Manila towing the disabled storeship Victoria, about whose safety apprehension has been felt in San Francisco. The flagship New York, with Admiral Farquhar aboard, has arrived at San Lucia. The Waban has sailed from Port Royal for Havana via Key West. The Potomac has sailed from Key West for Hampton Roads.

Naval Contracts Awarded.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The contract for the erection of an electric lighting plant at the Norfolk navy yard, for which bids were opened at the navy department Saturday last, was awarded to the firm of L. L. Leach & Son of Chicago at their bid of $73,371. Henry Dubois' Sons & Co. of New York were awarded the contract for 160,000 cubic yards of dredging at New London, Conn., at their price of 9 cents a cubic yard.

Fire In an Ohio Village.

FOSTORIA, O., Jan. 9.—Prairie Depot, an oil village 12 miles north of here, has been visited by a fire, entailing a loss of from $100,000 to $150,000. Eleven business houses and one dwelling house were destroyed and a number of other buildings scorched. The fire broke out in the oil well supply store. The insurance will not cover one-third of the loss.

Thirty-five Saved at Sea.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Thirty-five lives were saved at sea on Saturday by the British steamship Georgian. The rescued were Captain Stange, his wife, two children, a nurse and the crew of 30 men of the German steamship Ella. The Ella was in a waterlogged condition when the Georgian met her and took off the imperiled persons.

Lace Weavers Get an Advance.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 9.—The weavers of the Wilkesbarre lace mills have had their wages increased 12 per cent. About 350 hands are affected. The increase was voluntary upon the part of the management.

Riot In San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—There was a riot at the city hall at noon yesterday, when Tax Collector Elect Scott attempted to take his office. One man was shot and others bruised in the fight that ensued.

DROWNED IN THE MOHAWK.

S. D. Greene and Wife of Schenectady Skate to Their Death.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Jan. 9.—S. Dana Greene, an official of the General Electric company, and his wife were drowned last evening while skating on the Mohawk river. The body of Mrs. Greene was recovered before she died, while that of her husband was found three hours later.

Screams were heard by men at work on the Bellevue shore shortly before 6 o'clock, and a boat was immediately dispatched to the rescue. The body of Mrs. Greene was found, life not being extinct when it was taken from the water. She died, however, in a few moments. It was then discovered that Mr. Greene also was missing, and searching parties were sent to drag the river for his body, which was recovered shortly before 9 o'clock.

Mr. Greene was the general sales manager of the General Electric company and was the leading spirit in the works of the company in this city. He served with distinction in the auxiliary navy as navigating officer on board the Yankee and was well known in New York club circles. His father was lieutenant on the Monitor during the civil war.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Independent sugar refiners advanced the price of refined sugars.

Hugh John Macdonald accepted the task of forming a government at Winnipeg.

Comptroller Dawes announced that the Broadway National bank of Boston would not resume business.

The foreign bankers of Caracas offered the government of Venezuela a loan, with the salt mines as security.

The French warship Cecille has arrived at Santo Domingo to support the French claim against the republic.

Alaska has been constituted a new military department and Colonel George M. Randall assigned to its command.

Governor Nash of Ohio, in his inaugural address, urged that all corporations be required to make reports to the state.

Prosecution May Close This Week.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—There was but little weighty testimony produced in yesterday's proceedings in the trial of Roland B. Molineux for the murder of Mrs Katharine J. Adams, and the developments brought the hope that the prosecution would get through with its case by the end of the present week. The most important witnesses placed on the stand were Morris Herrmann, a member of the firm in Newark for which Mr. Molineux was superintendent, and Edwin B. Hay of Washington, who gave testimony as a handwriting expert. It was expected that Emma Miller of Newark, who sold the bottle holder, would be placed upon the stand, but she did not put in an appearance at the call of her name.

A Valuable Library.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.—The trustees of the University of Pennsylvania have received the library of the late Dr. Daniel G. Brinton, the distinguished anthropologist of this city. This collection of books is probably the most valuable of its kind in the country. It contains about 2,300 volumes on the aboriginal American languages and American archæology. Besides a large number of texts, etc., there are unique manuscripts of the early Spanish missionaries obtained by Dr. Brinton at various times, which furnished the basis of some of his most valuable contributions to the study of the native American languages.

Roosevelt Appoints Kellogg.

ALBANY, Jan. 9.—Governor Roosevelt has designated Justice S. Alonzo Kellogg of Plattsburg as an associate justice of the appellate division of the court of appeals, third department, to fill the vacancy caused by the designation of Justice Landon as an associate judge of the court of appeals. Governor Roosevelt, in announcing the appointment, stated that he had made it at the unanimous request of the judges of the appellate division bench in the third department. The governor says that he will probably appoint Justice Pardon C. Williams to the appellate division bench in the fourth department.

The Volumes of Names For Dewey.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The Dewey home fund committee has received from the binder three large quarto volumes which contain the names of the 44,000 subscribers to the fund. The volumes are superbly bound in green levant, with gold edges, and on the cover of each is an appropriate legend. The work of writing in the names was done after office hours by volunteers among the clerks in the treasurer's office. The books will be formally presented to the admiral within the next few days. The total amount subscribed to the fund was about $56,000.

Great Demand For Small Bills.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—United States Treasurer Roberts states that the demand for small notes still continues beyond all precedent and has resulted in reducing the supply on hand to a point where an increase is absolutely necessary. To meet this increased demand the bureau of engraving and printing has begun to print $300,000 additional in new fives and tens, and this increase will be kept up as long as the needs of the country require it.

Large Brewery Combination.

ALBANY, Jan. 9.—The Albany Argus prints a story to the effect that 80 per cent of the brewery interests of Troy, Albany, Hudson and Cohoes will be consolidated in one big plant. The report says that the new company to be formed will have a capital of $9,000,000. The present breweries are to sell out to the trust at prices compatible with their present output.

Postmasters Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The following fourth class postmasters have been appointed: New York—Clayburg, John Redmond; Hartwood, Willis Butler; Selden, Samuel Dare. Pennsylvania—Deckerville, Martha Carpenter; Mahanoy Plane, E. C. Carey.

General Greely's Condition.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The condition of General Greely, the chief signal officer of the army, who was assaulted by a drunken man Sunday night, continues favorable, and it is stated at his home that his recovery, while tedious, is believed to be fairly assured.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair and warmer; increasing cloudiness; high north to northwest winds, diminishing.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE CURED.

Dr. Holtin's Kidney Tablets have cured many cases of early Bright's Disease. The cases are on record.

Any one afflicted with any form of kidney or bladder ailment needs no better recommendation for a remedy than that.

Dr. Holtin's Kidney Tablets are made from the prescription of a practicing physician, and are for sale everywhere in drug stores.

Beware of counterfeit preparations; get the genuine. Sold in two sizes of packages—25c. and 50c.

Prepared only by
HOLTIN CHEMICAL CO. 93 Malden Lane, N. Y

FOR SALE BY
JOHN P. POWERS,
Druggist,
tu th 45 Somerset St.

Ladie Desiring . .
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 208 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

H. Eggerding,
131 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.

Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .

Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot and Tar is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

BEST FOR THE BOWELS
If you haven't a regular, healthy movement of the bowels every day, you're sick, or will be. Keep your bowels open, and be well. Force, in the shape of violent physic or pill poison, is dangerous. The smoothest, easiest, most perfect way of keeping the bowels clear and clean is to take
CANDY CATHARTIC Cascarets TRADE MARK REGISTERED
REGULATE THE LIVER
Pleasant. Palatable. Potent. Taste Good. Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken, or Gripe. 10c. 25c. 50c. Write for free sample, and booklet on health. Address Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York. 322a
KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN

WANTED
The address of all AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS in Plainfield and vicinity. If you will send us your address on a postal card we will be glad to furnish you with our latest price list. Our line is complete, and goods are always fresh and our prices are the lowest.
Geo. W. Wrennick,
133 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

TRY THE
QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No. 337 Park Avenue
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .
in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated
DOMESTIC FINISH.
Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.
Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.
Trading Stamps given.
The City Steam & Hand Laundry
MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 235 B
19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store, 126 Park avenue.

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING
is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work to our hands—we'll see that you get a good job. That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor. 2d ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635

A. KANE,
Proprietor of the
EAST END FEED STORE.
Dealer in
Hay, Feed, Grain & Flour, Coal and Wood.
Also Dealer in
BLUE STONE, FLAGGING and CURBING.
The best goods and work at the lowest prices.
Store and Office
409 East Third St.,
Telephone 913.
A. McKeon, Manager.
Open evenings until 8 o'clock.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
at Steiner place, North Plainfield
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, etc. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 211

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.
Yard 726 to 737 South Ave.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in fresh and salted meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview avenue and Somerset street.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM
will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.
Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.
The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.
FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

GEO. O. STEVENS & CO. OAK 747 WEST FRONT ST.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores.

J. G. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . .
: SPECIALS :
For This Week.
U. S. club skates.
Shinny sticks.
Skate Straps.
Boys' sleighs.
" coasters.
Steel snow shovels.
Wood " "
Carpet sweepers.
Oil heaters.
Parlor stoves reduced.
The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.
A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

DOBBINS.
CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

John G. Bantle,
First-class
Ladies' and Gent's
TAILOR.
428 Watchung Avenue.
Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
TELEPHONE 1163.

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $2.50 to $10 a year

GAS
For the Fire-place. Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates. Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park avenue. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87.

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 109 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.
We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1.25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.
A Big Assortment.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.
Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

Every pair of genuine P. & P. Gloves is stamped with our name.
REGISTERED BRANDS OF THE
"P. & P." Kid Gloves
MANUFACTURED BY Chaumont PINGS & PINNER CO.
PERFECT FITTING LATEST STYLES
MANUFACTURED BY Berthold PINGS & PINNER CO.
BEST VALUE NEWEST SHADES
MANUFACTURED BY Fontaine PINGS & PINNER CO.
Don't take substitutes—There's none so good.
FOR SALE BY
Crosby & Hill,
Plainfield, N. J.
95 tu f

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
Paris for 1900.
Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.
Circulars at
181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

Defective Eyes.
Overstrained and Defective Eyes are the cause of many a
HEADACHE.
Correctly-fitted Glasses will remedy the trouble. A Scientific Examination Free and Glasses Guaranteed.
STILES & CO.,
107 E. Front St.
EVERY THURSDAY.
Hours: 10:30 to 5:00.

Advertised Mail Matter.

JANUARY 8, 1900.

Adelson, Mr B
Alner, Mr A R
Banta, Miss A B
Barr, Mr John 2
Bartlett, Mr Phillip
Batchelor, Rufus W
Botce, Mrs Bessie
Boorom, Miss Mary
Borden, Miss Helen
Bowman, Miss Clara
Binten, Mr William
Colbert, Miss Eliza
Cotton, Miss Bessie
Drake, Mr C
Drake, Mr Fred V
Ecoreth, Egbert C
Ferrald, Mrs Lizzie
Gratten, Miss Annie
Grant, Ida M
Hawkins, Mrs W A 2
Hemming, Esq, J C
Hennessey, Mrs M'y 3
Knox, Miss Alice
Laverty, Mrs D H
McCarthy, Miss May
Mamie Miss
Martin, Mr John H
Mathewson, Mrs El'th
Murphy, H L
Pearson, Miss Marion
Pendergart, Mr E
Parrott, Miss E
Person, Mrs M
Presberger, Mr M
Rogers, Mrs Willis H
Ryno, Mr Emily
Schaunenburg, Mrs
Scott, (Col'd) Mr Ben
Smalley, L M
Thomas, Miss C D
Thompson, Mr J H
Tolvor, Mrs Silvie
Weeks, Miss Edw F
Yale, Mrs C H
Yale, Mrs C M

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

CHAS. L. FORCE.
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 141 tf

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83 A.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills
25c.
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc.
Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 27 A.

BOERS HELD IN CHECK

White Successfully Repels an Attack on Ladysmith.

BULLER REPORTED ACROSS TUGELA

British Garrison Sadly In Need of Relief, Which Cannot Be Given. England Is Preparing Fresh Armaments For Service.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—General White still holds out, or did so 60 hours ago, when the Boers, ousted from their foothold inside the works, suspended their assault at nightfall. England has taken heart. The situation, however, is worse. The beleaguered force must have expended a large amount of ammunition, which cannot be replenished, and must have lost a number of officers and men, which is counterbalanced, so far as the garrison is concerned, by the greater loss of the Boers.

General White still needs relief, and the difficulties confronting General Buller are as great as before.

The former's unadorned sentences, as read and reread, suggest eloquently the peril in which the town was for 14 hours and how barely able his 9,000 men were to keep from being overcome.

The chief concern for General White is in respect of ammunition. Sixty-eight days ago, at the beginning of the siege his small arm ammunition was vaguely described as "plenty." His artillery then had 300 rounds per gun. Some of the batteries have been in action frequently since then, and all were probably engaged last Saturday. His stock of shells consequently must be low, and this will make it difficult for General White to cooperate in a movement by General Buller.

The intrenchments at Ladysmith, as described in a message that left a day or two before the fight and has just come through, are fortified hills, well covered with rifle pits and trenches, down which the infantry move in single file to the various posts in absolute safety. Full rations are still served.

Mr. Spencer Wilkinson, in The Morning Post, points out that there is one division only at Chieveley, another at Frere and a third at Estcourt. As Chieveley is seven miles from Colenso, the Second division would have had to march 12 miles to get into action and the Third division 22 miles. General Buller's 30,000 men and 70 guns were therefore almost inactive on Saturday, and when General White heliographed General Buller could really make no move but an ineffective demonstration.

England is preparing fresh armaments and 22 transports will be on the way to South Africa during the present month. According to the programme, 25,000 additional troops and 72 guns will soon be afloat. The government has ordered Vickers' Sons & Maxim, Limited, to manufacture as many 4.7 inch and 6 inch quick firers as can be turned out until otherwise notified.

The Times publishes the following, dated Jan. 6, from Modder River:

"News from Belmont shows that the Queensland and Canadian volunteers have been so energetic in that neighborhood that a large belt of the Free State across the border has been deserted by the Boers."

Lord Dunraven, in The Times this morning, returns to his arraignment for the inferiority of British artillery. He says:

"It is useless for the government to contend that our artillery is equal to that of foreign nations, since the Boers have longer range mobile guns."

The war office has received the following from General Buller:

"The following is from White, dated 2 p. m., Jan. 7:

"'An attack was commenced on my position, but was chiefly against Cæsar's camp and Wagon hill. The enemy was in great strength and pushed the attack with the greatest courage and energy. Some of our intrenchments on Wagon hill were three times taken by the enemy and retaken by us. The attack continued until 7:30 p. m. One point in our position was occupied by the Boers the whole day. But at dusk, in a very heavy rainstorm, they were turned out of this position at the point of the bayonet in a most gallant manner by the Devons, led by Colonel Park. Colonel Ian Hamilton commanded on Wagon hill and rendered valuable services. The troops have had a very trying time and have behaved excellently. They are elated at the service they have rendered the queen.

"'The enemy was repulsed everywhere with very heavy loss, greatly exceeding that on my side, which will be reported as soon as the lists are completed.'"

A rumor was current in the city last night that General Buller had crossed the Tugela river, captured 12 guns and was marching on Ladysmith.

Nothing has been received corroborative of the rumor that General Buller has crossed the Tugela river, so the report must be taken with all reserve.

Steyn Predicts Victory.

LOURENCO MARQUES, Jan. 9.—The Standard and Diggers' News publishes President Steyn's New Year's address to the burghers of the Free State. The address concludes as follows:

"Next year the Afrikander nation will enjoy peace and rest, and that peace will be established on the basis that the enemy who has oppressed and persecuted us during the whole of the past century shall no longer be in a position to spill innocent blood. May God in his infinite mercy grant this."

Offer to Equip Battery.

MONTREAL, Jan. 9.—A cablegram from London states that Sir Charles Ross, Bart., of Balnagown castle has made an offer to the secretary of war to equip at his own expense a machine gun battery, with four horses for each gun for service in South Africa.

Senator Gear Renominated.

DES MOINES, Jan. 9.—Senator John Henry Gear was renominated without opposition by the Republicans in joint caucus here. A. B. Cummins' name was not presented. The senatorial election will take place on Tuesday next, when the houses will meet separately, and on the next day they will meet in joint convention and take a joint ballot. The Democratic caucus named Cato Sells of Vinton as Democratic candidate for senator, and he will receive the complimental vote of his party's vote. The inauguration of Governor Shaw for a second term will take place at the capitol Thursday afternoon.

INDEMNITY DEMANDED.

Germany Will Not Be Satisfied With Release of Seized Ships.

BERLIN, Jan. 9.—The foreign office has authorized the following statement:

"Germany recognizes the right of search within certain specific limits. Among the points enumerated in the protest filed in London is one contending that England has exceeded those limits. No answer has yet been received to this protest."

On being asked whether it was correct that joint action on the part of the powers in the matter of the seizures was under way a high official of the foreign office replied that such action might have to be taken if the seizures do not cease. He admitted that Russia was asking such joint action in regard to the interruption of telegraphic communication with South Africa, but he denied formally the report that Germany had sounded Washington about the feasibility of such joint action. The foreign office official ended the interview with this significant assertion:

"Germany will not be content with the mere liberation of the steamer General and the other vessels seized by British warships, but will demand indemnity in these and all similar cases."

The Berlin Neueste Nachrichten publishes a communication advocating the seizure of all British vessels in German ports as an act of revenge. Other papers talk about the "unbearable humiliation of the foreign office."

At the same time the official organs and a large section of the more influential papers mildly continue to preach moderation.

Bill Cook Dying.

ALBANY, Jan. 9.—Bill Cook, the famous outlaw who was captured in 1895 in Indian Territory, is said to be slowly dying at the penitentiary here. Cook was the leader of a terrible band of outlaws and was associated with Cherokee Bill. Cherokee Bill was tried and hung. So excited was the community in which the highwaymen had been working that no sort of mercy was shown Cook, and he received a sentence of 45 years. The sentence is said by ex-Chaplain of the Penitentiary the Rev. George B. Sanderson to be the longest sentence he has ever come across in his experience. There not wanting those who believe that Cook's sentence was out of all proportion to his crimes. He never killed any one, and it has been thought in some quarters that his crimes and Cherokee Bill's were mixed and that Cook is now bearing the burden of some of Cherokee Bill's sins. He is still very young, not being over 25. He is said by Superintendent Dearstyne to be a model prisoner, and since his health has entirely given out he has been allowed to work or not, as he pleased, and to lie in his cell if he desired. Cook has never asked for a pardon, but he has asked for a commutation of sentence.

Another Victim of Faith Curists.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Jan. 9.—The coroner's jury which has been investigating the death of Ethel Yates returned a verdict that death was due to neglect. The post mortem showed that the cause of death was appendicitis, and doctors testified that with proper care there was every reason to believe that her life could have been saved. The physician who attended her before her mother returned home from a visit and dispensed with his services for that of a faith healer testified that at that time she was improving. No warrants were issued for the parties involved, but the matter will be presented to the grand jury, which meets today.

End of the Plague.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—The Pacific Mail company's chartered steamer Algoa, the largest steamer that ever entered this port, has arrived from China and Japan via Honolulu and was sent to quarantine. She brought no passengers, but carried twice as much freight as ever entered the Golden Gate in a single vessel. She left Hongkong with 12,000 tons of cargo, left part of this at Honolulu and reached here with 9,614 tons on board, consisting chiefly of rice, tea, dates and matting. The Algoa reports that the plague at Honolulu has been stamped out.

Brave Seamen Rewarded.

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., Jan. 9.—For the daring and heroic rescue of William Forrest from the schooner F. H. Smith in the height of the great storm of Nov. 27, 1898, 11 of the sturdy seafaring men of this town have been presented by Congressman Greene with bronze medals from the treasury department of the United States. The recipients were Captains R. M. Lavender, Benjamin T. Benson, Charles Foster, James Worth, Everett Horton, Antone Souze, Charles Forrest, James Burke, Joseph Brown, Joseph Settes and James Lopez.

The Recent Bond Purchase.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—A statement prepared at the treasury department shows that the bonds purchased under the offer of the secretary of Nov. 15, 1899, amounted to $19,300,650, as follows: Four per cent consols of 1907, coupons, $1,022,700; registered, $13,287,650; 5 per cent loan of 1904, coupons, $991,200; registered, $3,999,100. The interest anticipated amounted to $97,715 and the premium paid $2,373,502, making a total expenditure of $21,771,867.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—FLOUR—State and western was quiet and barely steady. Minnesota patents, $3.85a4.05; winter straights, $3.40a3.45; winter extras, $2.55a2.90.

WHEAT—Opened steady on cables but drifted into weakness through foreign selling and talk of a visible supply increase; March 75¾a75¾c.; May, 74 3-16a74¾c.

Rye—Steady; state, 56c. c. i. f., New York, car lots; No. 2 western, 60¾c., f. o. b. afloat.

CORN—Opened steady with wheat, but sold off under big receipts west and reports of cancellation of export orders.

OATS—Dull and easy; track, white state, 31a35c.; track, white, western, 31a35c.

PORK—Quiet; mess, $10.25a10.75; family, $12a12.50.

LARD—Steady; prime western steam, $6.15.

BUTTER—Firm; state dairy, 20a23c.; state creamery, 25a30c.

CHEESE—Firm; fall made, fancy, small, 12¾a13c.; fall made, fancy, large, 12¾a13c.

EGGS—Steady; state and Pennsylvania, 25a28c., loss off; western, ungraded at mark, 16a23c.

SUGAR—Raw firm; fair refining, 3 13-16c.; centrifugal, 96 test, 4¼c.; refined firm and higher; crushed, 5.40c.

TURPENTINE—Steady at 52½a53c.

MOLASSES—Firm; New Orleans, 32a40c.

RICE—Steady; domestic, 4a6¼c.; Japan, 4¾a5c.

TALLOW—Firm; city, 5¼c bid; country, 5¼a5¾c.

HAY—Steady; shipping, 70a80c.; good to choice, 80a87½c.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

EDUCATIONAL.

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
ADELLA C. PHELPS, ARTIST.
Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
::: PIANO AND THEORY :::
Home Studio.
132 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN,
Address—80 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

.....Piano Instruction.....
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes Elementary Classes.
Also, Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty .....
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun' John P. Emmon
Telephone 602

Don't be wasting you money and paying high prices for frames. Come and get your framing done with the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street,
where you will find a large assortment in ready-made frames and the latest styles in mouldings to make up frames to order at prices that will surprise you. Also fine drawings in crayons and pastels from all kinds of photographs.
Best Satisfaction Guaranteed.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.
Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

THE ORESCENT HOTEL.,
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:55, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
E. H. BIRD, P. M.

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS.
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.
T. M. INGRAHAM.

Wedding and Reception Decorations, Floral Designs & Bouquets A SPECIALTY.
Cut flowers fresh every day. Palms, ferneries, southern smilax at 10 days' notice.
MRS. L. J. DENTON, Florist,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

COLLIER
EYE SPECIALIST,
103 Park Ave.....
Established 1869. Eyes Examined Free.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
129 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 145 b.

OUR OYSTERS ARE THE ---FINEST--- ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

B. B. Haynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

WANTED
25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

"SOROSIS!"

The most popular shoe sold for women. 3,000 pairs turned out of the factory each work day. The best $3.50 shoe in every respect made. We sell them, as well as other lines at a higher price, and also as low as 98c, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00, etc. Good winter shoes for men $1.25, $1.50, $2.00 and up to $5 and $6. Felt Slippers, Rubber Boots, Arctics, Rubbers, everything you need in the shoe line. Peddles Trunks, Dress Suit Cases and Traveling Bags.

DOANE & EDSALL. . . . .

THIS IS THE TIME

to protect your feet from the cold and damp---We can shoe you with reliable shoes at a small cost.

VAN ARSDALE, 127 East Front St.
Repairing Properly Done.

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.
Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.
The Delineator and Glass of Fashion for January Now Ready.
Ask for the January Fashion Sheet.
A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE, AGENTS.
144 PARK AVENUE, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.
Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.
at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Manufactured at the Premises,
Wieda's
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
144 West Front St.
Phone. 1188.

FIRE!!!
When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by
ELSTON M. FRENCH.
Largest agency in the city
163 Nort Ave., opp. Depot.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

DRIVING OUT TAGALS.

Otis Reports Several Successful Encounters In Luzon.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The war department has received the following from General Otis:

"Manila, Jan. 8.—Bates pursuing enemy in south with vigor. Schwan's column, moving along shore Laguna de Bay, struck 800 insurgents under General Noriel at Binen 6th inst. and drove them westward on Silang; captured place, from which point cavalry pushed through to Indang. Schwan captured three of Noriel's six pieces artillery and will take remainder; also his transportation, with records and large quantity of ammunition. Two battalions Twenty-eighth, part of Wheaton's column, struck enemy near Imus yesterday, killing and wounding 140.

"Berkheimer, with battalion Twenty-eighth, struck enemy intrenched west of Bacoor yesterday morning. Enemy left on field 65 dead, 40 wounded and 32 rifles. Our loss thus far Lieutenant Cheney, Fourth infantry; four enlisted men killed, 24 enlisted men wounded. Expected that Schwan's troops will cut off retreat of enemy's Cavite army. Wheaton moving on Das Marinas. Boyd, Thirty-seventh infantry, moved east from Las Banos, surrounded troops of General Risal at daylight, capturing Risal and considerable property. It is expected that Cavite and Batangus provinces will be cleared up soon. In the north Leonhauser, with three companies Twenty-fifth, attacked robber bands in Arayat mountains, dispersed them; destroying their barracks and subsistence. Found there five of our prisoners, whom they had picked up on railroad; three killed and two seriously wounded. These northern robber bands will be actively pursued."

MANILA CROWDED.

Foodstuffs Higher Than For Many Years Past.

MANILA, Jan. 9.—The bubonic plague is yet sporadic. There have been six cases and four deaths. Preparations are being made to establish hospitals for disinfection and quarantine.

Great numbers of provincial natives are coming to Manila, with the result that the city is overcrowded, the supply of accommodations being inadequate, and the rice necessary for foodstuffs is more expensive than at any period during the last 12 years. The plague is dangerous to the overcrowded, underfed and unwashed natives and Chinamen. Americans avoiding direct contact with the disease are safe.

A force of Filipinos charged 12 men of the Third cavalry who were scouting behind San Fernando de Laubon. One trooper and three horses and carbines were captured. The enemy then fled.

General Schwan has occupied Silang and Indang, Cavite province, meeting with but slight resistance.

He captured three guns and a quantity of ammunition.

The roads in that section are very heavy.

General Wheaton is at Perez das Marinas.

Ohio Coal Lands.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Jan. 9.—Thousands of dollars will flow into the pockets of farmers in this county in payment for coal lands in the next 30 days. Most of the options were taken last fall, and they all expired Jan. 1, but notices are coming in to the landowners that the contracts are closed. The deals take in coal lands in all parts of the county and are held by various parties. In most instances the coal is being secured for shipment to the lakes. About 25,000 acres have been leased and purchased in this county, and the work of developing will be carried on in an extensive manner.

Bank of Rahway, N. J., Will Pay All.

RAHWAY, N. J., Jan. 9.—Following the bank examiner statement, President E. S. Savage issued a statement to the depositors asking for presentation of claims and saying: "The state banking department has concluded the examination up to the close of business, Jan. 6. It finds the bank has assets sufficient to pay its depositors in full and return 120 per cent to its stockholders. The board of directors has voted to go into voluntary liquidation."

No Answer From Salisbury.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—The United States embassador, Mr. Joseph H. Choate, has not yet received from the British government an answer regarding the seizure of American flour by British cruisers in South African waters. Lord Salisbury has a note in preparation, but a few days may elapse before it is delivered. It is believed that the flour will be released, and possibly a ruling will be made differentiating between foodstuffs for field and domestic purposes.

Prominent Republican Dead.

UTICA, N. Y., Jan. 9.—William P. Dodge, financial clerk of the state senate, died yesterday afternoon at his home in Prospect. While in Albany at the opening of the senate last Wednesday he contracted a severe cold. The next day he came home, and his illness developed into pneumonia, which proved fatal. Mr. Dodge was 57 years old. He had been prominent in Republican politics in Oneida county for the past 25 years.

Big Sale of Coal Lands.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Jan. 9.—Another big sale of coking coal lands in southern Fayette county was closed here on Saturday by which the Republic Coke company of Pittsburg bought 2,400 acres for $549,585.46. The land lies in Redstone and Menallen townships in the new addition to the coke field. It is understood coke works will be built on the property at an early date.

Nominations Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The senate has confirmed the following nominations: To be consul general, J. G. Lay of the District of Columbia at Barcelona; to be consuls, H. W. Diederich of the District of Columbia at Bremen and W. P. Atwell of the District of Columbia at Roubaix, France.

Insurance Man Dead.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Jan. 9.—John C. French, president of the New Hampshire Fire Insurance company, of which also he was the founder, is dead at his home here of Bright's disease. He was 68 years of age. He was prominent in social life.

Boutelle's Condition Encouraging.

BANGOR, Me., Jan. 9.—The latest reports from Congressman Boutelle are of an encouraging nature. He sleeps well, takes a liberal amount of nourishment and shows decided improvement.

PORTO RICO'S NEEDS.

General Davis Before House Insular Committee.

ATTEMPT AT POPULAR GOVERNMENT

Industrial Situation Gloomy—Bananas and Coffee Plantations Destroyed. Revenues Inadequate—Means of Education Greatly Needed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—General Davis, governor general of Porto Rico, appeared before the insular affairs committee of the house yesterday and made a general statement regarding the situation of affairs in that island. The people of Porto Rico, he said, were accustomed to arbitrary control, control of the king through ministers or secretaries in charge of several departments. He had believed when he came to the administration of the affairs of the island that things could be bettered by eliminating these intermediaries and getting closer to the people. He had made a step in that direction by substituting mixed boards for these secretaries, and the result, General Davis said, had been very satisfactory from his point of view.

The civil administration was now entirely in the hands of these boards—boards of health, charities, education, public works, etc., in all of which the natives had representation. The customs were collected by army officers, assisted by natives. Natives were everywhere the principal employees. One of the great problems which had confronted him was that of making the receipts and expenditures balance. This had been accomplished by readjustment of salaries and other economies.

Regarding the political situation General Davis described the fury with which the natives plundered and murdered the Spaniards after the war closed. They sought to even up old scores. This had been stopped by the military, and civil disorders had ceased. The elections in the towns shortly after the United States assumed military control, he said, were farces. No election was ordered until the result had been previously ascertained. General Davis said that under his discretion suffrage had been limited to those who could read or write or who had paid $1.50 in taxes in two years. Under these terms less than 5 per cent of the inhabitants had been able to qualify. In half the towns elections had been held, and there had but 30,000 voted out of about 500,000 people. The elections had been held under military supervision and had given eminent satisfaction so far as their fairness was concerned. General Davis said he regarded the election as an education of the people.

The industrial situation on the island, General Davis said, was not satisfactory. He sketched the discouragement which had resulted from the trade and tariff discriminations against the products of the island both in the United States and Cuba before the great hurricane devastated the island last August, when coffee plantations had been ruined and every banana plant on the island had been destroyed. For five years preceding 1898 the average exports had reached about 16,000,000 pesos. In 1898 they were cut in half, and this year General Davis figured that they would hardly exceed 3,500,000. The people were discouraged. They lacked the Anglo-Saxon energy to face a gloomy outlook.

Speaking of the need of many things in the island, General Davis pointed out the fact that the island was without debt. Unless a loan could be made, he said, the present industrial paralysis must continue. The revenues of the islands were inadequate to meet its wants. For instance, 300,000 pesos had been allowed in the budget for education. That sum provided a very limited education for 30,000 children. There were, he said, 250,000 other children who had not the slightest chance of receiving an education. In his opinion 1,000,000 pesos a year should be expended on the roads for 20 years.

General Davis said he thought less than 1 per cent of the inhabitants understood the responsibilities of government. Continuing, he said that about 70 per cent of the population of the island were Caucasians in the sense that the Spaniards were. There were 70,000 negroes and 250,000 mulattoes. The native Spaniards were in the best condition. They were faithful, industrious, temperate and thrifty.

Every Porto Rican was either actively or passively a Catholic. The Porto Ricans were not a dying race. They had doubled in 30 years. A large portion of the population was of illegitimate birth. But illegitimacy did not involve crime. In many cases there were obstacles. "The natives," said he, "are married, but not parsoned."

He thought any railroad built in Porto Rico to pay would have to be subsidized by the state.

General Davis believed that all the coffee that can be produced can be disposed of in New York city alone at prices equal to that paid for the best Java and Mocha.

Religious Census of Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.—A big enterprise has been formally launched by representatives of all the Christian denominations and organizations in this city, who announce a religious census of the city for Feb. 22. The census will be a complete one, covering the 1,125,000 people of Philadelphia, and the work will all be done in one day. An army of workers, representing all denominations, will be employed on Feb. 22 in gathering statistics. The entire city has been divided into districts and subdistricts. This is the first time a complete religious census has been undertaken in this city.

The Klondike Snowbound.

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 9.—Heavy snow falls and slides have blocked the line of the White Pass and Yukon railroad, and traffic to the Klondike and other districts is suspended indefinitely. The rotary snowplow has broken down in endeavoring to clear a passage through the accumulated heaps.

French Mine Troubles Over.

ST. ETIENNE, France, Jan. 9.—The miners' strike in this district is now practically at an end. The figures show that virtually all the men descended into the pits yesterday in accordance with the arrangement made by the arbitration committee last Saturday.

Engineer and Fireman Killed.

ROANOKE, Va., Jan. 9.—The west bound passenger train on the Norfolk and Western was wrecked near Pulaski last night. The engineer and fireman were killed.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

225 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week

$5 a year—in advance.

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., JAN. 9, 1900

COMING EVENTS.

January 9—Joint installation of G. A. R., S. of V. and W. R. C.

January 11—"My Mother-in-Law" at Music Hall.

January 13—"Si Plunkard" at Music Hall.

January 14—Harry Gee will address the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. at 4:15 p. m. Mrs. John Manley will sing. Instrumental music.

January 15—Union Bible class of Rev. D. M. Stearns at the Y. M. C. A. Hall at 7.45 p. m.

January 18—Annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A.

Gov. Voorhees' Recommendations

The annual message of Governor Voorhees, to be communicated to the Legislature after it has convened this afternoon, is published entire in to-day's Press. Topics of State affairs receive thorough consideration at the hands of the Governor, but those of the most lively interest to the general public include the work of the Riparian Commission and what should be done to conserve the interests of the State in the matter of the inestimably valuable water rights within the domain of the commonwealth; the preservation of the beautiful Palisades, New Jersey owning three-fourths of this majestically rocky stretch of ground skirting the lower Hudson; and the taxation of franchises.

This last subject comes in for attention from the Governor at the end of his message, but it loses none of its importance because of trailing along after the other topics have been disposed of. The equitable taxation of corporations, using public privileges granted them by municipal authorities, is a problem which is far from being solved. It is generally conceded that companies using public property as a very important part of their plan of operation do not pay taxes in proportion to the benefit they receive from such privileges. But it is a complex question to adjust in a satisfactory manner.

The Governor's contribution to the ideas current on the subject are therefore of importance. His suggestion that the most practicable way of dealing with the franchise tax question is to classify by legislative enactment the franchises that would seem to be most amenable to further taxation, and then to have a State Board decide the amount that the corporarions operating under them should pay to municipalities wherein they are located, seems to be a good one. The Governor closes his consideration of the subject by recommending that the Legislature take up the franchise tax question at the earliest possible moment, as "It is probably the most important that will engage your attentions during the present session." The Governor thus speaks wisely and well.

Need of a City Hall.

That portion of Mayor Rockfellow's message, communicated to the Common Council last night, which refers to the city hall project, deserves consideration from the Councilmen. The recommendation of the Mayor has already been heeded, and no time should be lost in taking definite steps to provide Plainfield with a fit building for her municipal offices.

The need of such a structure in the face of the fact that at the present time the city is paying more in rents than the interest on the money necessary to provide a city hall would amount to—with the additional drawback that the city officials are scattered about in various office buildings with none of the conveniences that they should have—is too patent to require much argument.

As pointed out by the Mayor, the plea of economy cannot be brought into play to stifle the project, because it is easily demonstrated that it would be money gained for the city to have a building of its own. Even though there would be no pecuniary advantage in the possession of a suitable building for the quartering of the city offices permanently, the civic pride that is so evident in Plainfield at nearly all times ought to be sufficient to create a favorable sentiment that would approve of the construction of the building.

We cannot too strongly approve of the Mayor's recommendation of a city hall, and we trust that the Councilmen will take up the subject in a thorough manner before much time has passed.

Mayor Howe has asked The News to ascertain why the Plainfield Council refused to grant a franchise to ex-Mayor McLean and Dr. Chisholm for 50-cent gas, and chartered a local company which agrees to give $1 gas. He thinks it must indicate that Plainfield had some inside facts about the SanFrancisco experiment.—Passaic News.

The query of the Passaic Mayor is answered very easily. Messrs. McLeen and Chisholm have never applied for a franchise from the Plainfield Council to furnish gas for fifty cents or for any other price. Officially, the Common Council is in entire ignorance of Messrs. McLean and Chisholm.

Judge J. Franklin Fort, one of the big guns of the Essex county G. O. P., is laying his plans to be nominated for Governor as the successor of Foster Voorhees. Mr. Fort's name has been linked with Gubernatorial ambitions before this, but he never seemed able to gather quite enough influence to become a formidable candidate for a nomination. This time he has better hopes.

A year ago today the Lehigh Valley collision occurred at West Dunellen. Eighteen lives were lost, but as yet the public is in total ignorance as to who was responsible for the two trains coming together. It is a sad commentary upon the vigilance of the officials of Middlesex county, who should never had rested till the cause of the accident had been proved to the bottom.

The session of the Legislature which convenes in Trenton today will be of short duration, says the observers of affairs at Trenton. The same story is heard every year, but it is a fact that when you get a lot of New Jersey legislators together it is a pretty hard problem to decide when they will get through.

The Russian manufacturers of lead pencils have formed themselves into a trust to compete with the German product. The Russians ought to find it easy to make their mark in the undertaking.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

Thomas Kelly, of Merchantville, Camden county, found a $2 50 gold piece in the crop of his New Year's turkey. Mr. Kelly is now convinced that the man who wrote the story about the goose that laid the golden egg made a mistake in the fowl.

* * * * * *

Saturday's New York Herald contains an illustrated report of an address by Mrs. Julia Ward Howe before a gathering of Unitarian women in All Souls church, New York. Mrs. Howe, the mother of Mrs. Florence Howe Hall, of Madison avenue, was introduced as St. Julia and when she was asked if she could raise her voice she replied frankly that she could not, that she had said she should not kill herself even for that august body, adding, "You can't expect an old lady of eighty to explode in one gigantic effort." Then an unusual tribute was paid this remarkable woman. Old and young left their seats in the rear and coming to the front when the seats and platform were already crowded, they deliberately sat on the floor listening to the address on "The Manners of the Century." Mrs. Hall's remarks on progress savored of a retrograde movement in the manners of some but a decided advance on the whole, especially in the consideration of the rich for the poor, helpfulness extended to the erring and an increase of spirituality over the animal nature.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Miss Edith Clapp, of Mercer avenue, is spending several weeks with New York friends.

William Cook, of Chicago, has been visiting his brother, Harry M. Cook, of North avenue.

Bert Gardner, formerly of this city, but now of New York, has been visiting Plainfield friends for a short time.

Clarence T. Brokaw, son of W. H. Brokaw, of 661 West Front street, is confined to his home with an attack of appendicitis.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about ¼ as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,

122 East Front Street.

The Spring Campaign

Through all the rush and turmoil of the Holiday Season, just past—we have been making careful preparations for an energetic Spring Mercantile Campaign. Silent, but forceful influences have been steadily at work with one object in view, viz: The making of our establishment an ideal store. Many lines of goods have been carefully scanned; from some lines only the best selected; other lines entirely rejected. We have demanded the newest and best of everything, and insist the best is none too good. Our efforts have been rewarded by our securing the choicest and most desirable goods from the various lines represented in our store. Our business is conducted upon a high plane, but we welcome and propose to take good care of the most humble customer. This is to be in every sense "THE PEOPLE'S STORE."

Wash Goods.

Our new wash fabrics are arriving and already we are making a most delightful showing of dainty lawns, dimities, ginghams, percales, etc., etc.

Designers of the printed fabrics have surpassed all previous efforts by producing new and dainty effects in the most serviceable colorings. Corded ginghams, introduced last season for the first, will have a prominent place in this season's showing, and are worthy of the strongest recommendation for serviceable qualities.

Fine Domestic Dimities at 14c per yard.
Genuine English " 18c per yard.

Corded Gingham (madras effects) at 10c, 20c and 25c yd are worthy especial mention.

New Spring Woollens.

52-in Vicuna Serge made by the Broadhead Worsted Mills, at 98c per yard, cannot be surpassed. They are strong, wiry, do not crush, and are sponged and shrunken. Two beautiful black Cheviots, 54 inches wide, at 79c & 98c, are very desirable; excellent color and fine lustre. 52-in Broadcloths, in all colors, 98c yd. 38-in all-wool Homespuns, 50c. 54-in Homespuns, value $1.00, 89c. 40-in Black Crepons, guaranteed value $1.35, $1.00. 38-in Black Granite Suiting, 50c.

LACES, EMBROIDERIES, Etc., Etc.

Our showing in this line surpasses that of all former years in that we have more variety and finer goods. Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss Edgings, with insertings and beadings to match. All over effects in Cambric, Nainsook, and Combination Lace and Tucked effects, Applique Bands, Edging and all overs to match. New Point de Venise Lace Collars and Revers. New Braided and Spangled Nets. New Lace Ties, narrow. New Silk Ties and a thousand other new novelties equally attractive.

FOR THE MEN.

All our 1.25 Outing Flannel Pajamas, reduced to		98c
Men's Fine Camels Hair Underwear,		98c garment
" " " " (double breasted)	1.25	"
" " Imported Natural Wool (German)	1.75	"
" " Camels Hair, ½ Hose		25c pr
Dent's "Breton Cape" Kid Gloves		1.85 pr
Myers' Cabretta Kid Gloves		1.00 pr
" Silk Lined Mocha Kid Gloves (gray)		1.50 pr
" Fleece Lined Castor, reduced to		1 25 pr

Full line men's, youths' and childs' wool gloves.

The newest of everything in gent's neckwear.

Dr. Denton's - - SLEEPING GARMENTS For Children,

2 yrs to 10 yrs.

In our Basement. The inevitable rise in the price of Furniture has taken place. Manufacturers everywhere have materially advanced prices, and state that further advances must come. Our stock as it is at present will be sold at the old prices. Our advice to those who need furniture is—buy it now.

Solid Oak Buffets

with double thick

FRENCH PLATE MIRRORS,

from 11.98 to 25.00.

If Bought Today Would Sell for 20 per cent. More.

5 drawer Solid Oak Chiffoniers, without glass. 4.98.

5 drawer Extra Finished, with glass. 7.98.

Better grades up to 17.98.

WHITE IRON BEDS.

1 in post, brass trimmed, heavy filling, 3.98.

Better ones at 4.98, 5.75, 6.48, 6.98, 7.98, 9.98, 14 98 and 16.75.

Iron Cribs with Spring Mattresses, 6 48, 7.75 and 11.98.

Full size soft top mattresses 2.25

" " 45 lb white cotton mattresses, one part 5.48.

Full size 45 lb white cotton mattresses, 2 parts, 5.98.

Genuine Cotton Felt mattresses, two pieces, 8.75.

Hair Mattresses made to order.

Facing the Inevitable. Prices in every line are on the jump. Cottons are higher. Woollens are higher. Manufactured goods of all kinds are higher and will be still higher. A pretty sum may be saved by early purchase. By all means make us a visit. We will appreciate it and you will be benefited.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,

334, 236, 238 and 246 WEST FRONT STREET.

PECK'S CORNER.

THE LARGEST VARIETY OF -:- Good Corsets -:- AT PECK'S.

LIBERTY SILK, Extra Quality 79c yd.

Bonn's 140 WEST FRONT ST.

SILK VELVETS, colors and black, 98c yd.

Buckram Hat Frames, 10c, all shapes, large and small, best frames made, special for to-morrow, each 10c.

GOOD TIMES ARE HERE.

Now is the time to place your money in Real Estate at ground floor prices.

WOODLAND PARK

will suit the aristocratic home-seekers.

DEWEY PARK and LINCOLN

will suit the small investor and home-seeker.

SILAS D. DRAKE,

175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.

Telephone 605.

An Annual . . . . Clearing Sale

of our entire stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's suits, reefers, overcoats, ulsters and heavy-weight trousers begins this Saturday and will last for a short time only.

All MEN'S OVERCOATS that were sold at 7.00 and 8.00, clearing sale price 4.25 and 4 75.

All MEN'S OVERCOATS that we sold from 8.50 to 10.00, clearing sale price 5 50.

350 extra fine OVERCOATS, former prices from 12.00 to 15.00, clearing sale price 6 50 and 7 00.

MEN'S ULSTERS reduced from 7.00 to 4.50

Best Shamrock IRISH FRIEZE ULSTERS, reduced to 6.50, former price 12.00.

1,000 Men's and Youth's heavy weight suits of all descriptions, styles and qualities, which we must and will sell regardless of cost or value. 5.00 suits to be sold at 2.75. 7.50 suits to go at 4 50. 10.00 suits to go at 5 75, and all others in proportion. Children's Suits at 1.00, worth 2.00. 2.50 Child's Suits to go at 1.45.

2,000 pairs of Men's Trousers to be included in this sale at 1.00, 1.50, 2.00 and 2.25. Boys' Knee Pants with double seat and double knees at 20c.

Men's fleece lined underwear at 30c, worth 50c. Men's winter caps at 15c. Working shirts at 15c, and thousands of more bargains at this great clearing sale. Call early and avoid the great Saturday rush.

Will Pay Carfare to all Buyers of Clothing.

New York Clothing Company

M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.

214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.

Plainfield, N. J.

N. K. BARNES, Grocer,

No. 245 WEST FRONT STREET,

SPECIAL FOR TEN DAYS.

GRANULATED SUGAR 5c lb.

Best Butter, lb	30c	10 cakes Laundry Soap for	19c
Best Eggs, dozen,	22c	3 lb package Prepared Buckwheat,	10c
Best Flour, 24½ lbs,	55c	Large bottle of Catsup	5c
Best Potatoes, basket,	35c	3 lb can Pineapple	10c
Best Hams, per lb,	10½c	3 lb can Bartlett Pears	10c
Best Molasses, gallon	35c	Lemon Cakes, lb	5c
Best Syrup, gallon	35c	Soda Crackers, lb	5c
Fine Drinking Tea, lb	35c	Nic Nac Crackers, lb	5c
Fine Drinking Coffee, lb	12c	Ginger Snaps, lb	5c
5 gallons Best Oil	50c	Corn Starch, package	5c

TRADING STAMPS ALSO.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT.

Made only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,

At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, Jan. 9.—The Republican executive committee of Middlesex county met at New Brunswick last Saturday and perfected an organization by the election of C. A. Prickett, of Metuchen, as president; William Richardson, of New Brunswick, secretary. P. W. Brakeley, of Dunellen, has been made chairman of the legislative committee; Charles W. Russell is chairman of the finance committee and Theodore Strong chairman of the executive committee.

Preparations are being made by the members of the Epworth League of the M. E. church to hold a fair at Apgar hall on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, February 15th, 16th and 17th. There will be an orchestra present each evening and other entertainments will be furnished.

Julius Damereau, an inmate of the Soldiers' Home of Virginia, is visiting at the home of George Shaffer, on Fairview avenue. Mr. Damereau may decide to make his home here permanently.

Next Sunday evening the Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church will meet with the Epworth League at the Methodist church.

Rev. Thomas Houstan, the blind evangelist, will lecture at the M. E. church during the first two weeks in February.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oakeley, of New Brunswick, spent Sunday with Mayor and Mrs. Swackhamer.

The Forest Comedy Company will hold forth at the borough hall this week beginning this evening.

Miss Annie Fenner, of Plainfield, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Harry Swackhamer.

Mrs. W. H. Carman led the meeting of the Epworth League at the M. E. church Sunday evening.

Three children of Paul Kratzel are afflicted with scarlet fever. The house has been quarantined.

Miss Lulu Adams is visiting relatives in Staten Island for a few days.

Miss Annie Abbott is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Bell at Metuchen.

Walter Runyon took a trip to Metuchen yesterday.

PLAINFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Jan. 9.—Wm. VanWalkenburg led an interesting young people's meeting in the Baptist church last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grant, of Plainfield, have been the guests of Mrs. Grant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Paff, Sr.

Miss Dora Phillips, who has been visiting Miss Josie Marsh, has returned to her home in Plainfield.

The board of trustees of the Baptist church met in the parlors last evening and transacted routine business.

Fanwood Council, R. A., will meet in their room this evening and install the recently elected officers.

No service was held in the Methodist church Sunday evening owing to Rev. Mr. Wilson's illness.

The local branch of the Building and Loan Association met at the home of Dr. Parks last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hand are entertaining friends from out of town.

Thomas S. Whitenack is detained at home suffering from a severe cold.

A $200 Blaze.

William T. Newman noticed a merry little blaze in the second story of the home of Mrs. M. J. Seals, of 439 West Second street, shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon. After telling the occupants of the house not to be alarmed, he notified the fire department by pulling Box 46, Liberty and West Second streets. The fire caught from a stove in an upper front room. The damage will reach $200, which is covered by insurance. The house is owned by Mrs. DeForest, who lives next door.

Miss Nellie Love, of Brooklyn, who has been visiting Miss May E. Howlett, of Elmwood place, returned home yesterday afternoon.

Mr. D. S Roberts, of North avenue, and her neice, of Chicago, who have been visiting relatives at Scranton, Pa., have returned to Plainfield.

It has been fully demonstrated that Ely's Cream Balm is a specific for Nasal Catarrh and cold in the head. This distinction has been achieved only as the result of continued successful use. A morbid condition of the membrane in the nasal passages can be cured by this purifying and healing treatment. Sold by druggists or it will be mailed for 50 cents by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York. It spreads over the membrane, is absorbed and relief is immediate.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—Just received—a large shipment of prime oysters. They are fine. Rogers.

—There will be no meeting of the Junior Endeavor Society of the Congregational church this week.

—Rev. Dr. Gates assisted at the communion service at the Congregational church Sunday morning.

—You can always buy at Peck's store with the complete feeling that you are getting value for your money.

—Gavett sells only one kind of oil heater, the Miller. He has handled it for years and it gives good satisfaction.

—Last Sunday morning at Grace M. E. church there was one baptism and one person was received on probation.

—The Week of Prayer is being observed at Warren chapel. Meetings every evening, except Saturday, at 8 o'clock.

—The observance of the Lord's Supper will take place next Sunday for the first time in the new Hope Memorial chapel.

—W. Holub, the barber, formerly of Watchung avenue, has opened a shop on Somerset street in the place formerly kept by W. J. Pride.

—The regular meeting of the Woman's Parliamentary Club will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. building.

—Boehm, the dry goods merchant, is making a special drive on goods which he wants to clean out to make room for his spring display.

—M. E. Stephenson, caterer, 146 North avenue, supplies weddings, dinners and receptions at short notice. Established over thirty years.

—Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., will hold an important meeting Friday evening next and a full attendance of members is requested.

—D. N. Force, the contractor, has been engaged to remodel J. D. Loizeaux's house on East Second street. The work will be started at once.

—Tomorrow afternoon the Sunshine Mission Band of the Crescent Avenue church will meet in the parlors at 4 o'clock. The subject will be "Persia."

—On Thursday evening, February 8th, the S. S. C. Club., will give a masquerade dance at the Fanwood club house. A number from this city will attend.

—Prayer meeting in the lecture room of Trinity Reformed church tonight at 8 o'clock, and every evening this week except Saturday. Everybody welcome.

—One week from Friday evening there will be a rally of Epworthians from this vicinity at Grace M. E. church, when an interesting programme will be presented.

—For floral design work and decorating for all occasions and headquarters for cut flowers, ferns and palms, and other plants, go to C. L. Stanley, 142 North avenue.

—The illuminated star that was used at the First Baptist church during the holiday season still remains in its place, making a very attractive sight. It is suspended over the organ.

—The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Crescent Avenue church will meet as usual Friday afternoon for sewing. There will be baptism at the Crescent Avenue church next Sunday morning.

—The painting of the letter boxes about the city was started yesterday and where some have been completed the comment is of the most favorable sort. The improvement is certainly a most pleasing one.

—In the annual almanac issued this year by the Unionist Gazette, of Somerville, there is a column devoted to a list of pastors in Somerset county. For North Plainfield only one church is mentioned, St. Joseph's, and T. J. Hanlon is named as the pastor. There are a few other pastors in the borough, and Father Hanlon has not been located at S. Joseph's church in several years past.

ELECTION AT THE BANKS

First National and City National Choose Directors for the Ensuing Year.

The annual election of directors at the First National Bank was held this afternoon and resulted as follows—I. W. Rushmore, W. M. Stillman, W. R. Codington, H. M. Estil, R. M. Stelle, J. W. Johnson, P. M. French, J. A. Hubbard and J. A. Smith.

The annual election of directors was held at the City National Bank this afternoon. There were 1486 shares voted out of 1500. The result is as follows: Charles Hyde, J. T. Closson, J. F. Hubbard, J. F. MacDonald, J. B. Coward, H. G. Runkle, W. F. Arnold, J. K. Myers, Walter Scott.

Mr. Van Leer, of New York, the art lecturer, who addressed the Monday Afternoon Club yesterday afternoon, was entertained at the home of Thompson Randolph, of Central avenue.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Miss Fritts, of Park avenue, is visiting at Hawley, Pa.

Miss Mattie Merrill, of Newark, has been visiting Plainfield friends.

Laurence Whitall, of East Second street, has recovered from the mumps.

Miss Caspar, of East Front street, has been visiting relatives in Newark.

Miss Alice Morgan, of Albert street, is out again after an attack of the mumps

Mrs. Robert Randolph, of Elmwood place, has been visiting relatives at Elizabeth.

Frank Alexander, of Rutland, Vt., is visiting relatives in Plainfield for a short time.

Charles Dellahunt, of this city, has secured a position on the Brooklyn trolley road.

Miss Grace Carroll, of Westervelt avenue, has entirely recovered from a recent illness.

Wilbur F. Cornwell, of New York, was the guest of Plainfield friends over Sunday.

William Thorn, of East Second street, has secured a position as a sub-letter-carrier.

Rhey T. Snodgrass, of Central avenue, returned to his studies at Dickinson College today.

Mrs. Connolly, of Manning avenue, has returned from a visit with relatives at Basking Ridge.

Mrs. John Mosher, of Fifth street, who has been visiting at Alfred, N. Y., has returned home.

William K. Dwight, of Rockview avenue, has returned to his studies at Princeton University.

Miss Lillian Mirex, of Steiner place, who has been detained at home by illness, is greatly improved.

Miss Irwin, of Brooklyn, has returned home after a pleasant visit with Miss Benton, of Fifth street.

Miss Alice Higgins, of West Front street, entertained a number of friends Sunday from Hartford, Conn.

George Richards, of East Front street, returned to his studies at Yale University yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Millar, of Madison avenue, have returned after a two weeks' vacation spent in Florida.

Ellery Leonard, of Wrentham, Mass., who has been visiting Plainfield relatives, has returned home,

Nathan Lane, of Brooklyn, was a guest at the home of Edward Overton, of Rockview avenue, over Sunday.

Miss Grace VanSickel, of Madison avenue, returned to her studies at Miss Dana's School in Morristown today.

—The annual meeting of the Epworth League Society of the Grace M. E. church will be held Friday evening.

The condition of George A. Moore, of East Fifth street, who has been seriously ill for sometime past, is not improved.

Charles and Fred Squires, of Williams College, returned to their studies today after spending the holidays in Plainfield.

Miss Marsh, of Scotch Plains, returned to her studies at Lauray, Va., after spending the holiday season with her parents.

Henry Leal, of Central avenue, left yesterday to resume his studies at Yale University after spending the holidays at home.

Carroll L. Runyon, of East Ninth street, returned to his studies at Yale University yesterday after spending his vacation at home.

James Patterson, of the Potter Press Works, has returned from Philadelphia, where he has been doing some work for the company.

Dr. A. E. Main, pastor of the Seventh-day Baptist church, was called to Ashaway, R. I., on Sunday to attend the funeral of a friend.

Miss E. J. Hughson, of Ironia, Morris county, is spending the remainder of the winter at the home of Mrs. E. H. Cory, 55 Somerset street.

Mrs. Seely Edsall, of Sandford avenue, who has been detained at home for some time past with a severe attack of rheumatism, seems to be slighly improved.

The Daily Press of yesterday printed an item to the effect that Fred Leland, who is in the south for his health, is improving. This was true until Saturday. That evening Mr. Leland received a telegram from friends of his son that Fred was worse and was sinking rapidly.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

LONG KNOWN - - - MUCH USED.
Randolph's Glycerine of Arnica.
for Cold Wind Chaps, Rough Skin and all Irritations of the Skin.
.....QUICK RELIEF GIVEN.....
25c per bottle -:- -:-
L. W. RANDOLPH,
Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.
PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for TELEPHONE CALL 109
Lowney's and Whitman's Chocolates and Chocolate Bon-Bons.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

Ullie Ackerstrom, who will present "My Mother-in-law" at Music Hall Thursday night, has surrounded herself with a very excellent company who will assist her to enterpret the many funny situations. Her support will include Miss Flora Stanford, Miss May Florence, Miss Bertha Livingston, Miss Amele Baird, Richard Lyle, E. S. Moreley, Frank Christy, Joseph Clealand, J. S. McEnery and others. All of the players have appeared with prominent companies, and have been selected and fitted to the parts. 'Never trouble trouble, till trouble troubles you." The troubles of the troubled man, troubled by the troublesome mother-in-law portrayed in Ullie Akerstrom's roaring comedy of trouble, will make you forget troublous troubles caused by any troubler.

• • • • •

"Si Plunkard" and his famous farmers will be at Music Hall Saturday afternoon and night. "Si" will bring his famous farmer's band with him and show you city chaps the pride of Fairview. Si says, 'Gosh, him and his buglers are right in it,' and will parade about noon, rain or shine, no difference, cause all him and his boys have got to do is tuck their trousers in their boots and wade in the mud knee deep. "Si" will lead the band whistling "the mocking bird," so don't fail to see this novel and amusing street parade.

Miss Weaver, who has been the guest of Miss Eda Beekman, of West Eighth street, has returned to her home near Pawtucket, R. I.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.
TELEPHONE 722.
MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.
Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9 a. m.
Thursday Night, Jan. 11, 1900.
ULLIE ACKERSTROM
in the Laughing Comedy
"My Mother-In-Law"
Presented by a well-selected COMPANY OF COMEDIANS.
SCINTILATING WITH WIT and INCESSANT LAUGHTER.
Prices 25, 35, 50 and 75c.
Saturday, January 13, 1900.
2 Performances—Matinee and Night.
The young character comedian, J. C. LEWIS, and his Big Comedy Company in the rural farce comedy,
"SI PLUNKARD."
Entirely Re-written. New Dialogue. New Situations. New Novelties and New Scenic and Mechanical Effects. A strong and efficient comedy company.
SEE The great R. R. Scene. The Threshing Machine Scene. The County Fair Scene.
LOOK OUT! For "Si" and his Country Band Parade. For the Funniest Street Parade ever seen.
Prices—Matinee, children 12 and under, 15c. Adults, 25c. Night, orchestra, 75 and 50c; dress circle, 75 and 50c; balcony, 35 and 25c.

Parlor and Heating . . .
STOVES
AT A DISCOUNT OF 20 per cent.
—AT—
A. B. THORN'S,
33 Somerset St.

Corporation Notice.

of application to the Court of Common Pleas for the appointment of Commissioners to assess benefits for street improvements.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to Chapter 200 of the laws of 1898, entitled "An Act to authorize the improvement of streets and highways in cities of this state and to provide for the payment of the expense of the same," approved June 13th, 1898 and the amendments thereof and supplements thereto, that application will be made by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield to the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Union at the Court House in the City of Elizabeth on Wednesday, the twenty-fourth day of January, A. D., 1900, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as the said Court can hear the said application, for the appointment of three Commissioners, who shall be freeholders and residents of the City of Plainfield, as Commissioners to estimate and assess benefits respectively conferred by the permanent improvement of streets under the several ordinances of said City, respectively entitled:

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Sixth Street between Watchung Avenue and Richmond Street, excepting where already macadamized," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing Franklin Place between LaGrande Avenue and East Fifth Street," approved October 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Ninth Street between Park Avenue and Watchung Avenue," approved October 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Fourth Street between New Street and Monroe Avenue," approved Feb. 9, 1899.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Third Street between Madison Avenue and Monroe Avenue, excepting where already macadamized," approved Feb. 9th, 1899.

and to perform the duties and execute the powers conferred by said acts of the Legislature.

By order of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield.

Dated December 18th, 1899.

JAMES T. MacMURRAY,
City Clerk of the City of Plainfield.
193 tu

DIED.

WILSON—At Roselle, N. J., Saturday, Jan. 6th, 1900, Henry E., Son of Zachariah and Josephine Wilson, aged 15 years, 9 months. Funeral services Wednesday, Jan. 10th, at Warren Chapel, North Plainfield, at 3:00 o'clock p. m. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. Interment North Plainfield.

KULLY—In this city, Sunday, Jan. 7th, 1900, John Kully, aged 49 years. Funeral services at the Bethel Mission, East Fifth street, Wednesday, Jan. 10th, at 3 p. m. Interment in Hillside. 1 8 2

WILSON—In this city, Saturday, Jan. 6th, 1900, Mary A., widow of James Wilson, in her 94th year. Funeral services at her late residence, 447 West Seventh street, Tuesday, Jan. 9th, at 3 p. m. Interment in Cedar Lawn Cemetery, Paterson. 1 8 2

WANTS AND OFFERS.

LOST—Pocketbook on Somerset street, between Front street and Craig Place. Reward if returned to Manning Ave. and Franklin Ave.

FOR SALE—A new upright steam engine, 5 horse power; used only one month. C. Schepflin, 320 West Front St. 1 9 3

WANTED—Girl between 18 and 20 years to do general housework. Address E. care Press. 1 9 2

WANTED—Office assistant. Apply by letter, VanDeventer Carpet Co., 629 South Avenue. 1 9 3

FOUND—Gentleman's gold ring. Owner can have it by proving property and paying for advertising charges. Apply Daily Press office.

GIRL wants situation at general housework; good references. 621 South second St.

WANTED—By young man, position as coachman; reference. B. S., care Press. 1 6 2

A SIX-YEAR-OLD bay horse, one buggy and harness complete, sound and gentle, good traveler. Inquire A. Kane, 409 East Third St. 1 9 2

PLEASANT furnished rooms with board. Mrs. J. B. Platt, 431 West Sixth street. 1 6 3

YOUNG man (Swede), lately landed, wants situation; understands horses, or would do anything. Mrs. Day's office, 216 West Second St.

WANTED—Cooks, chambermaids and general houseworkers. Mrs. Day's office, 216 West Second St.

HOUSE and store, corner Plainfield avenue and Fourth street, for sale cheap. Apply R. Frucht. 1 5 6

STORE to let, No. 220 Park avenue. Apply R. Frucht. 1 5 6

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

YOUNG colored woman wants work by the day; reference, 409 East Sixth St. 1 8 3

FOR SALE or exchange for house and lot or small farm, a fine farm of 200 acres, well watered and timbered. Address Albert, care Daily Press. 12 15 eod tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney, cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

WOMAN wishes laundry work by the day. 328 East Fourth St. 1 8 2

BOARD WANTED, with two rooms, for three adults; rooms and board must be first-class; modern improvements; give terms and full particulars. Address R. F. G., care Press. 1 8 3

5 AND 6-room flat for rent; City water. L. M. French, 36 Somerset St. 1 8 2

FOR SALE—Germantown Rockaway, good make; will sell cheap. L. M. French, 36 Somerset St. 1 8 2

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish Intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

THE
First National Bank,
of Plainfield, N. J.
Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.
DIRECTORS.
Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Coriell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.
Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.

The January Stock-Taking Sale.

This sale means a large saving to those shrewd buyers who know and appreciate values, and to people of taste and discrimination an opportunity to procure the very finest and choicest of merchandise at less than market values.

Sale of Women's Outer Garments, Including Coats, Capes, Skirts, Suits, and Waists.

The greater part of this season's coat-wearing weather has yet to arrive, and so it happens that the women of this vicinity are enabled to secure the choice of this season's coats and wraps at half actual value.

2.48 Coats reduced from 5.00.
2.98 Coats reduced from 6.00.
3.98 Coats reduced from 7.50.
4.98 Coats reduced from 10.00.
7.98 Coats reduced from 15.00.
2.48 Capes reduced from 5.00.
3.98 Capes reduced from 6.50.
4.98 Capes reduced from 9.50.
98c Dress skirts reduced from 1.39.
1.29 Dress skirts reduced from 1.98.
2.49 Dress skirts reduced from 3.98.
39c Flannelette waists reduced from 50c.
1.98 All-wool cloth waists reduced from 2.75.
2.49 All-wool cloth waists reduced from 3.98.
1.98 Velveteen waists worth 3.00.

The January Sale of Muslin Underwear has a Combined Goodness with Low Cost.

We occupy a wonderfully strong position by the purchase of about eight thousand pieces of muslin underwear last July before prices advanced, most of it at prices less than cost of raw material alone.

The achievement is particularly great when you find 17c drawers and the 39c night gowns just as correctly shaped as the finest.

10c Cambric corset covers, neck trimmed with narrow embroidery.
19c Cambric corset covers, in three styles, lace or embroidery trimmed.
25c Two different styles of cambric corset covers, embroidery or lace trimmed.
50c Corset covers, handsomely trimmed with fine Swiss or cambric embroidery, twelve different styles.
75c Corset covers, trimmed with fine Valenciennes laces and insertions or fine embroidery and ribbon, three different styles.
39c Gowns of good heavy quality muslin, yoke of insertion and clusters of tucking, cut full liberal size.
59c Gowns, good liberal sizes, muslin of a fine quality, handsomely trimmed with fine embroidery.
98c An assortment of nine different styles of gowns in a variety of shapes, lace or embroidery trimmed. A choice line of gowns in various styles at 1.25, 1.39, 1.98, 2.50, 2.75 and 3.00.
17c Drawers, fine heavy muslin, cut full size, finished with hem and cluster of tucks.
25c Drawers in umbrella shape, with deep ruffle of cambric hemstitched and lace insertion.
49c Drawers in six different styles of lace or embroidery trimmed, plain or umbrella shape.
89c Drawers of fine cambric, deep ruffles of insertion and torchon lace trimming with cluster of tucks.

GEO. W. COLE,
—UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,—
208 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

MARTIN ROTH, Jr.,
(Successor to Martin Roth, Sr.)
SHOEMAKER....
Repairing a specialty. First-class work. Only best material used. A trial is all that I ask.
124 EXCHANGE ALLEY,
Rear of Liefke's Bakery....

THE BOOT SHOP AROUND THE CORNER.
Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?
Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.
Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.
A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.
Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.
Capital, $150,000.
Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.
CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.
DIRECTORS.
Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson.
H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold.
J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J. B. Coward.
General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON.
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

PLANTS and FLOWERS.
All the new and latest ideas in FLORAL DESIGNS, BASKETS and WEDDING BOUQUETS.
. . Ferneries at Short Notice . .
CHAS. L. STANLEY, 142 North Ave.
Greenhouses, South Ave., Netherwood.

Massage, Manicuring,
Hair Dressing, Shampooing,
Facial Massage and Steaming.
MISS HOLMES, Graduate of New York Schools of Massage, Electricity and Dermatology.
440 W. Front St., near Washington Ave.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Provinz Ostpreußen.

Königsberg. Von einem schweren Mißgeschick ist der bekannte General-Adjutant des alten Kaisers Wilhelm, General der Kavallerie Graf von Lehndorff, betroffen worden, indem ihm in Folge einer Zehenverletzung, zu der der Brand trat, das rechte Bein amputirt werden mußte. Graf Lehndorff lebt zur Zeit auf seiner Besitzung Lehndorff in der Nähe von hier.

Allenstein. Bei dem hier in Garnison liegenden 150. Infanterie-Regiment hat der junge Lieutenant Rau den verheiratheten Oberlieutenant Stielow desselben Regiments im Duell erschossen.

Gerdauen. Im Wassereimer ist das 1½jährige Söhnchen des Arbeiters Neumann ertrunken. Die Mutter hatte sich während einiger Minuten aus der Stube entfernt. Bei ihrer Rückkehr fand sie das Kind im Eimer todt vor.

Insterburg. Dem Kaufmannslehrling Richard Kurrat hierselbst ist die Medaille für Rettung aus Gefahr verliehen worden. Kurrat hat in Tilsit drei Schüler vom Tode des Ertrinkens gerettet.

Provinz Westpreußen.

Bahrendorf. Käthner August Kirschke ist dadurch, daß ihm beim Reinigen von Getreide Staub in die Augen gerieth und eine Erkältung hinzutrat, völlig erblindet.

Graudenz. Der Redakteur Majewski von der polnischen „Gazeta Gradzionska" wurde wegen Beleidigung des Vorsitzenden der Graudenzer Strafkammer in Graudenz zu 200 Mark Geldstrafe verurtheilt.

Rheinprovinz.

Köln. Fabrikant Lammert, welcher zur Nachtzeit von einem Soldaten des 16. Infanterie-Regiments überfallen worden war, ist in Folge der erhaltenen Verletzungen gestorben. Der mehrere Tage unentdeckt gebliebene Thäter hat sich dadurch verrathen, daß er einen Kameraden, der um das Geschehene wußte, kniefällig bat, ihn nicht zu denunziren. Ein Dritter hörte das zufällig und machte dem vorgesetzten Offizier Anzeige von der Sache. Der Thäter, Soldat Rokosty, und der Mitwisser, Soldat Keisler, wurden verhaftet. In Folge dessen wurde das vom Regimentskommandeur verhängte Neujahrsurlaubsverbot aufgehoben.

Kalk. Wie verlautet, haben die Akkumulatorenwerke von Gottfried Hagen mit der englischen Regierung einen Vertrag auf Lieferung von 40 Tonnen Bleikugeln abgeschlossen. Dieselben sollen sofort geliefert werden. Man ist nun sehr neugierig, ob die Regierung die Lieferung ungehindert passiren lassen werde.

Krefeld. Hier hat sich unter dem Namen „Vulcan" eine Gesellschaft gebildet, welche die Errichtung von Eisenwerken und anderen industriellen Etablissements bezweckt. Das Betriebskapital beträgt 50,000,000 Mark.

Provinz Sachsen.

Halle. In Oberröblingen sind vier Schulknaben, die sich auf's Eis begeben hatten, in Folge Brechens der Eisdecke eingebrochen und ertrunken.

Weißenfels. In Folge eines aus der Bürgerschaft gekommenen Protestes haben die Stadtverordneten die Stadtverordnetenwahlen der dritten Abtheilung am 14. November für ungiltig erklärt, da ein Druckfehler in der Ankündigung des Magistrats über diese Wahlen vorgekommen ist, und man eine Wahlzeit von vier Stunden für 2595 Wähler für unzureichend hält.

Provinz Schlesien.

Breslau. Der Kultusminister genehmigte nach Ablehnung des Mädchengymnasiums die Einrichtung von Gymnasialkursen für Mädchen. Die Eröffnung der Kurse findet hier Ostern 1900 statt.

Gleiwitz. Die hiesige Strafkammer verurtheilte die 70jährige wegen Kuppelei mit Zuchthaus vorbestrafte Wittwe Mägiera wegen Majestätsbeleidigung zu neun Monaten Gefängniß.

Provinz Schleswig-Holstein.

Kiel. Howaldts Werft erhielt von der Reichsregierung den Auftrag des Baues des Schiffes für die Südpolar-Expedition.—Vom 1. April ab wird auf der kaiserlichen Werft die Akkordarbeit abgeschafft; gleichzeitig tritt eine allgemeine Lohnerhöhung ein.

Flensburg. Die preußischen Behörden haben eine Prämie für die Vertilgung der Ratten in den Hafenstädten der Nord- und Ostsee ausgesetzt. Hier wird für jede todte Ratte, die zur Strecke gebracht wird, 5 Pfennige bezahlt.

Scherrebeck. Der Wasserarm zwischen hier und der Nordsee-Insel Röm ist zum ersten Mal seit 20 Jahren wieder vollständig zugefroren.

Provinz Westfalen.

Dortmund. Ein bedeutendes Geschenk ist der Stadt zugefallen von einer früheren Dortmunderin, der Gattin des verstorbenen Geheimen Kommerzienraths Duden in Brüssel. Sie schenkte mit ihrem Gatten schon früher 250,000 Mark für die Errichtung eines Wöchnerinnenasyls; jetzt hat sie der Stadt 40,000 Mark überwiesen für den Bau eines eigenen Gebäudes für die Stiftung.

Hagen. Fabrikant Korfluer, Theilhaber der Firma Korfluer u. Minssen in Hagen, wurde wegen bedeutender Unterschlagungen, die er zu Ungunsten seines Kompagnons begangen hat, verhaftet.

(B)

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

Big With Bargains

—honest true-blue bargains in furniture and carpets here, for 'tis the great yearly clean-up time, when goods must go to make way for complete lines, and to make the stock-listing task easier. Credit terms just the same as ever—or cash, if you'd rather.

Get Carpets Now

while they're to be had at these close-out prices—it's an amazing chance for you! Thousands of rolls of pretty patterned weaves.

$28.98'

Golden oak combination desk—French plate mirror, neat carvings. Worth $35.00.

$49.00

Full over-stuffed suit—heavy fringe, corded tapestry coverings. Worth $65.00.

$17.98

Solid oak—heavy carving, lined drawer for silver. Worth $25.00.

$13.98

Carved arms, claw feet, upholstered seat, velour cushions. Worth $18.00.

$9.98

for a green velour deeply tufted couch, full spring edge. Worth $15.00.

$6.23

Solid golden oak desk—swell front drawer, French legs. Worth $8.50.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,

LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,

Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.

Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

R·I·P·A·N·S

I am employed as saleslady in one of the largest department stores. After being on my feet all day I am too tired to walk home, and get very little outdoor exercise. For the past year and a half I was troubled with a bad attack of dyspepsia and constipation, caused, I suppose, by eating cold lunches. My blood was also out of order, for which I had the close atmosphere of the store where I worked to blame; in a word, I was "all run down." I used a number of blood remedies and regulators beside home remedies and prescriptions of our family physician, but none did me much good, and I felt so discouraged that life had little charm for me. About two months ago I was induced by a lady friend, who has a similar position to mine and had much the same trouble, to try RIPANS TABULES. I had but little faith in them at the start, but tried them on the principle of "catching at straws." Their action was so gentle and they did me so much good from the start that I was very much pleased and determined to give them a thorough trial. I started taking four Tabules a day—one after each meal and one at bedtime. I kept that up for three weeks and then took smaller doses—taking a half a Tabule after each meal and one upon going to bed. For the past two weeks I have taken three a day—one after dinner and supper and one at bedtime, and cannot remember the time when I felt better than I have during the past month, and I have RIPANS TABULES to thank for it. I can now eat a hearty meal and do not dread the after effects. I have recommended the Tabules to a number of my friends and am yet to hear of their not giving great satisfaction. It does seem that almost every one needs them occasionally. I always carry a carton of them in my pocket, and whenever any of the girls at the store, or in fact any friend, tells me that they feel out of sorts, I produce my RIPANS TABULES, and think I have made a great many friends for them, for once used by a person in need of something of the kind they are sure to be sought after again.

A new style packet containing THE RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some druggists—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents. RIPANS TABULES may also be had of grocers, general storekeepers, news agents and at liquor stores and barber shops.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER

ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.

169 NORTH AVENUE.

Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,

THE GROCER.

Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.

Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

AFFAIRS OF THE STATE.

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

(burial plot)		 25
Town of Kearney		2,964 05
Commissions		2,409 22
Andersonville monument		2,063 47
Farnum preparatory school (repairs, etc.)		980 95
		980 95
		$778,706 91
During the preceding year they amounted to		191,170 34
Showing an excess over the year of 1898 of		$587,536 57

A very large part of this increase is due to expenditures made on account of the war with Spain, the most of which (except additional compensation paid to volunteers) will be refunded by the national government. It will also be noticed that many of these expenditures were made for improvements of a permanent character.

Notwithstanding the unusual extraordinary disbursements, the cash balance on hand at the close of the fiscal year was greater than at any time in the history of the state.

BANK BALANCE.

On Nov. 1, 1898, it was	$1,001,324 45
The total receipts during the fiscal year were	3,049,700 82
Making a total of	$4,051,225 27
There was paid on account of both ordinary and extraordinary items	2,789,071 85
Leaving on hand Oct. 31, 1899, a balance of	$1,253,153 42
The bank allowance on Oct. 31, 1898, was	1,051,324 45
Showing an increase of	$201,828 97

ESTIMATED REVENUES.

The comptroller has estimated the receipts from all sources for state uses during the fiscal year ending Oct. 31, 1900, to be	$2,606,370 00
The balance on hand Nov. 1, 1899, was	1,253,153 45
Making the total of estimated revenues	$3,859,523 42
The amount necessary to pay the appropriations made for the year 1900 is	2,434,096 23
Leaving available the sum of	$1,425,427 19

Against this sum there will be charged the amount of appropriations made in the "supplemental" bill. The school tax, which is the only direct tax levied upon the people of the state, amounted to the sum of $2,284,310. This, together with the additional sum of $670,060.53, representing various other funds, was also received and disbursed as directed by law.

According to the provisions of chapter 39 of the laws of 1897 there was allotted to various taxing districts out of the taxes on railroads the sum if $201,631.13. This sum was until recently collected and retained by the state for state purposes. Its distribution serves to relieve the burden of local taxes to that amount.

SCHOOL FUND.

INCOME OF SCHOOL FUND—RECEIPTS.

From income		$184,308 53
Loan from state fund	$190,000 00
Less amount returned	150,000 00	40,000 00
Total		$224,308 53
Balance in bank Nov. 1, 1898		3,924 54
Total		$228,233 07

DISBURSEMENTS.

For free public schools	$200,000 00
Premium and interest on securities purchased	28,086 21	228,086 21
Balance in bank Oct 31, 1899		$146 86
The school fund securities at the close of the year were valued at		$3,023,271 76
Showing an increase over the previous year of		38,217 50

STATE DEBT.

The last of the bonds of the state, amounting to $71,000, issued for war purposes, fall due Jan. 1, 1902. One of the bonds of the denomination of $1,000, payable in 1896, has not yet been presented for cancellation, and there is due about $1,500, for coupons outstanding; $48,000, represented by certificates issued to the commissioners of the agricultural college, are also due, but for all indebtedness there is an ample fund.

The wisdom of the law authorizing a change in the policy of the state with reference to some of its oyster beds and the appointment of a commission to take charge of the same has been fully demonstrated in its practical operation during the first year since its enactment. All the oyster grounds, lands and beds under the tidal waters of the Delaware bay and Maurice river cove, south of an established line, were placed under the exclusive regulation and control of the commission. Its members were invested with authority to lease the lands, license boats and take all steps necessary for the preservation and improvement of the beds and grounds and the protection of those engaged in the cultivation and gathering of oysters.

The commissioners are authorized by the act under which they are appointed to cause the lands which they lease to be measured and mapped in such manner that the same may be accurately fixed and easily located. I would respectfully urge that your honorable bodies comply with their recommendation and authorize an appropriation for the purpose, fully believing as I do that the best interests of the state will be served thereby.

RIPARIAN COMMISSION.

The commission, during a large part of the year, suspended the making of grants and other conveyances while it had under consideration a change in the method of dealing with the state riparian lands. Its receipts, therefore, have been less than they would have been had the old policy been pursued. They report having received:

From grants in fee	$11,884 17
From leases	1,726 00
From licenses	710 00
From conversions	41,813 50
From rentals from leases	46,609 85
Total	$102,743 52

The state has realized in all from the sale of its lands under waters about $4,000,000 and from rentals therefor about $1,000,000. There yet remain undisposed of many lands which, in comparison with those already sold or leased, seem to be far less valuable. They are located on waters where there is no likelihood of an early demand for them. Naturally the demand has been for those situated near the centers of population and on the highways of commerce, where the rapid development of material interests and commercial enterprises make necessary the occupation and improvement of lands of this character.

And yet the value of those still unsold is estimated by reliable authorities to be worth at least $20,000,000. The manner in which they should be disposed of with the greatest benefit to the state is a subject worthy of thoughtful consideration.

The nature of the proposed change which the board had in view and the reasons for its temporary abandonment are set forth in the resolutions adopted by them on the second day of November last and are as follows:

"Whereas, This board had had under consideration a change in its policy whereby the practice hitherto followed of giving absolute grants and perpetual leases convertible into grants should be discontinued, and in place thereof a plan should be adopted of giving leases for a long or perpetual term, with no provision for conversion into grants, but upon such an annual rental as should be fixed from time to time by arbitration between the state and the lessee; and

"Whereas, This board had been advised by the attorney general and by its counsel that the board has no power under the law to adopt and carry out such proposed plans;

"Be It Resolved, That the further consideration of the said proposed change in the policy of the board be postponed until the power of the board shall be enlarged by act of the legislature and that the board proceed with the applications and business before it in accordance with the practice hitherto followed."

Such a scheme has much to commend it. In the light of experience had with similar leases, far less fair and liberal in their provisions, which had been made and are now in force in other places without serious objection or inconvenience, it is not to be hastily condemned as contrary to the best interests of the state. If, in your judgment, the interests of the state would be promoted by the change which has been under consideration, you should adopt such measures as will clothe the commissioners with the necessary power.

NATIONAL GUARD.

The present strength of the national guard is: 238 officers and 3,455 enlisted men. No companies or troops have been organized during the year. A commission, consisting of Major General William J. Sewell, Brigadier General Bird W. Spencer, inspector general of rifle practice, and Brigadier General P. Farmer Wanser, commanding the first brigade, was appointed for the purpose of examining into the practicability of consolidating and improving the present organization of the national guard. The scheme of reorganization recommended by them was approved, and under general orders No. 6, dated May 2, 1899, was ordered to be carried into effect. Pursuant thereto there were created 4 regiments of 12 companies each, 2 field batteries, 2 troops of cavalry and 2 battalions of the naval reserve, consisting of 2 divisions each. In order that the recommendations of the commission might be carried out, 12 companies were disbanded, 2 new regiments were organized and 3 regiments consolidated with existing regiments. It is confidently believed that by such reorganization the efficiency of the guard will be enhanced and the necessary annual expenditures on its account reduced. The entire force of the state has practically been uniformed, armed and equipped during the year, and the guard is now in good condition for any need that may arise requiring its services within the borders of the state.

The adjutant general has been busily engaged in preparing a revised compilation of the officers and men of the state in all the wars in which New Jersey has been engaged, excepting the civil war, record of which has already been printed. He has gathered together much valuable historical material and is rapidly preparing the same for publication. The printing of the compilation has been ordered and is proceeding as rapidly as a careful supervision will allow. The commission to whom the matter was intrusted decided that the records of the soldiers of the Spanish-American war should also be included, and the volumes when completed will contain the military history of the state complete from 1740 until the present time.

The quartermaster general has, in addition to the usual duties of his office, paid to the regularly accredited volunteers in the Spanish-American war the additional compensation allowed to them by the act of the last legislature. The amount so paid is $157,106.85. Some payments are yet to be made to those who have thus far failed to present their claims. Such failure is due to the fact that many reenlisted in the volunteer army and the navy and are now serving with their commands in the Philippines, Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and elsewhere.

Your favorable action upon the recommendations of the quartermaster general relative to needed and desirable improvements and additions to the state camp grounds is respectively urged.

THE PALISADES.

Pursuant to a joint resolution of the legislature passed at the last session and approved March 21, 1899, I appointed Miss Elizabeth B. Vermilye, Mrs. Cecilia Gaines Holland, Franklin W. Hopkins, William A. Linn and S. Wood McClave as a commission to report upon the present condition of the Palisades and to suggest some remedy or remedies to preserve them from defacement and depredation.

As a result of their deliberations and investigations, the commissioners appointed for New Jersey recommend as the first step to be taken the enactment of a law creating a permanent Palisade commission for the state, the members whereof shall serve without compensation. Such a commission should be invested with power to acquire by gift, devise, purchase, condemnation or otherwise the land necessary to prevent further defacement. It should be authorized to receive and expend for that purpose any sums of money that might be given to it or appropriated for its use. Power should be given to it to acquire lands for park purposes and boulevards or driveways in the immediate vicinity. It is represented that such a commission, permanent in its character and invested with these powers, might be able in time to secure not only all of the land between the edge of the cliffs and low water or at least so much thereof as would be necessary for these purposes; but, in addition thereto, it might acquire title to portions of the upper plateau whereon to establish parks and driveways whereby the public could gain access to the cliffs and be enabled to enjoy therefrom the scenic beauties for which this locality is famous. Against the plan thus recommended fewer objections can be urged than against those heretofore proposed, and it does not necessarily involve the state in a large appropriation of money at this time. A measure embodying the recommendations of the commission will be laid before you during the session.

THE HOSPITALS FOR INSANE.

During the year there were admitted to the hospital at Morris Plains 272 patients, and 206 were discharged. Two hundred and sixty-seven were sent to the hospital at Trenton and 216 discharged therefrom. The total number under treatment during the year was 1,508 in the former and 1,386 in the latter. At the close of the hospital year there were 1,302 inmates at Morris Plains and 1,170 at Trenton, an increase of 66 in the former over the previous year and of 51 in the latter. There are accommodations for about 1,000 only at Morris Plains, and at Trenton there are 272 more than the buildings are designed to accommodate.

To meet the crowded condition in the first mentioned hospital the legislature has already made liberal appropriations, and work on the new buildings has progressed as rapidly as possible. Some delay has resulted from the impossibility of obtaining the neccesary building materials, but early completion of the new structures is assured.

Your attention is called to what is said by the managers with reference to the county asylums. Indigent patients are supported in the state hospitals at the expense of the county from which they are committed. The maximum price paid for such support is fixed at the sum of $3 weekly for each patient. In addition thereto, there is paid out of the state treasury on their account the sum of $1 each week for each patient. But under existing laws the sum of $2 weekly is given to each county for the care of each insane patient supported in its own asylum. This is manifestly unfair to the taxpayers of those counties where there are no asylums and tends to encourage the erection of local asylums where sufficient facilities for the proper care and treatment of the insane cannot in the nature of things be furnished. The burden imposed upon the state is no inconsiderable one, for the reports submitted show that 1,548 patients were in the various county hospitals on the 31st day of October last.

Another element of injustice is found in the fact that in some cases the cost of maintenance is less than the sum received by the counties.

The attention of different legislatures has been called to this matter in the past and the wish expressed that the practice should be changed. In the hope that something may be done to reduce the large annual expenditure for the support of the insane—about 16 per cent of the ordinary expenses of the state—your attention is once more invited to the subject.

Either state aid should be withdrawn altogether or the weekly payments reduced to $1 per week, the sum now contributed by the state toward support in the state hospitals.

STATE SEWERAGE COMMISSION.

The public agitation which resulted in the enactment of the law of the last session authorizing the appointment of a state sewerage commission is of too recent occurrence to require more than passing reference. Considerations for the health and safety of districts of the state already thickly settled, the future welfare of a population constantly and rapidly increasing, differing methods arising from want of uniformity of laws and the lack of some central authority, alike demanded the immediate creation of a body invested with powers of general supervision over our sewerage systems. The proper disposal of the waste of crowded municipalities is a problem the wise solution of which is most intimately connected with their future welfare and prosperity. There was needed some properly constituted commission with large general powers. The legislature accordingly created such a body, and the following named gentlemen were appointed commissioners: William T. Hunt, president; John Hinchcliffe, treasurer; Charles A. Fuller, Charles T. Harrington and David L. Wallace. From motives of caution the legislature clothed these gentlemen with only a veto power upon new sewerage systems which they might deem injurious to the public.

They report among other things that they have, during the first year of their labors, been able to exercise this power, limited as it is in its operation, with benefit to the interests of all. They have sought to insure a reasonable protection to the public from ill effects without making their requirements so severe as to discourage all plans of sewerage. The commission suggests that its powers be enlarged in certain directions. If it is to accomplish all that is to be desired, its functions ought to embrace more than the mere power of negation. It should be clothed with authority to require from the localities which now have sewerage systems such measures as will prevent further injury to the streams of the state and the owners of property on their banks. It is true, as they say in this report, remedies for such injuries may be had from the courts, but these involve large cost and follow rather than precede the injury. They ask to be invested with power to regulate existing sewerage so far as to prevent nuisances which will sooner or later involve communities in costly litigation.

The necessity of prompt action in the matter is so urgent and the demands for relief (which under existing law is either impossible or extremely slow of accomplishment) so pressing as to require from you your immediate attention. The report very fully and convincingly sets forth the reasons for which the commissioners make this request.

The pollution of the Passaic river has also engaged their attention, and their conclusions with respect thereto are summarized by them as follows:

"The pollution of the Passaic river should be stopped.

"The first step is to make it obligatory for those polluting the river to make some other disposal of their crude sewage than putting it into the river.

"A reasonable time should be given for building suitable disposal works.

"No limit of time should be given beyond five years from the date of the approval of the act.

"Discretionary power should be given the state sewerage commission to fix the time when pollution shall cease within the five years' limit.

"The method of sewage disposal is one which belongs to the municipality or drainage district, subject to the approval of the state sewerage commission.

"The sewerage commission should investigate the different plans and the approximate cost under either.

"The commission should be provided with funds to pay the cost of making surveys, estimates of costs and the conducting of such experiments as will enable them to make recommendations and give advice that will be of value."

It is needless to assure those of you who have a personal knowledge of existing conditions and surroundings that the subject is one of paramount importance, and speedy and effective action is required.

Upon its proper solution depend not only the present comfort and health of the inhabitants of a large and populous district of the state, but the future growth and prosperity of a region destined within a few years under wise laws to furnish the home and field of labor for millions of people.

The report of the officers of the state prison affords satisfactory evidence of the successful conduct of its affairs. The number of prisoners on the 31st day of October, 1899, was 1,119, instead of 1,228 at the end of the preceding year.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

This school has during the past year gained an unpleasant and unfortunate notoriety. Exaggerated and sensational accounts, spread broadcast over the country, have created a deeply erroneous impression as to the purposes of the school, the methods of its management and the results there attained. Officious intermeddlers, seeking a cheap notoriety and influenced by no honest purpose or pretending to speak officially for some well meaning but wholly irresponsible and self constituted organizations, with a prejudice born of ignorance and the assumption of an authority which the legislature has wisely withheld from them voluntarily and without any special demand for their views or an investigation of facts from reliable sources, have rushed into print with their ill considered criticisms and suggestions.

The public, not informed of the true character of their utterances, which are neither sacred nor infallible, has attached to them an undue weight. From this mistaken zeal and unwarranted conduct there has come incalculable harm to an institution which is doing great good and to the state an undeserved disgrace.

Some self appointed censors have never visited the school. Others have not been there for a number of years, and others still have barely an idea of its actual location. Of the nature and character of its inmates and of the work actually done there they seem to have had no correct idea. Some of the regulations recommended by them for adoption have been in force for a number of years, and inquiry from the proper authority would have disclosed the fact. Evils which excited their indignation and against which they bitterly complained had been removed by the old board of trustees. Some of the reforms demanded were al

Demulcent Cream

Will soften the skin.
Will prevent roughness.
Will please everyone.

"Is a Delightful Cream to use."

Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.

Flynn Bros.,

SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,

Near Music Hall,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

Union County Orphan's Court.

In the matter of the assignment of George L. VanEmburgh and Frederick M. VanEmburgh, partners in trade under the firm name and style of George L. VanEmburgh and Son of the City of Plainfield, County of Union and State of New Jersey. — Order

Upon reading and filing the petition in the above entitled matter:

It is hereby ordered that all creditors of the estate of George L. VanEmburgh and Frederick M. VanEmburgh, partners as G. L. VanEmburgh and Son do appear before the Orphan's Court of the County of Union at the courthouse in the City of Elizabeth on the 24th day of January next at ten A. M. and show cause why the agreement of compromise made and entered into by and between the said G. L. VanEmburgh and Son, partners as aforesaid and their said creditors should not be confirmed, and why their said assignee should not reconvey and reassign to said assignors all the trust estate remaining in the hands of their said assignee.

And it is further ordered that this order be published in the Plainfield Daily Press and the Plainfield Courier-News for three weeks successively, once each week, and that copies of this order be mailed at least ten days before the return day thereof, with postage prepaid to every creditor of said assignors addressed to such creditor at his usual postoffice address so far as said assignors can ascertain the same.

1 2 3 oaw B. A. VAIL, Judge.

ESTATE of Sarah A. MacDonald, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made, on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the thirteenth day of December, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

JAMES FREDERICK MacDONALD,
WILLIAM F. ARNOLD,
12 26 9 oaw Executors.

eady instituted, and others were impossible. Naturally those in authority hesitated to adopt many of the recommendations until the wisdom thereof had been demonstrated by the test of actual experience. Their reluctance has since been justified by happenings in schools where the methods advised were tried under the personal supervision of those favoring their adoption, with unfortunate results, it must be sadly confessed. There has been no occasion to quell riots among the inmates of this school with the aid of policemen's clubs and pistols, and there have been no riots.

DISCIPLINE INDISPENSABLE.

All right minded persons agree that in a school of this character discipline is indispensable. Obedience to wise rules must be enforced. Vicious and uncontrollable tempers, which will brook no correction or interference, cannot be allowed to set up the standard of conduct. Mistaken kindness and pampering indulgence cannot fail to work grievous wrong to the inmate. Love and obedience rather than hate and willful disobedience must be the prevailing rule.

The records of the school afford the strongest proof that a wise care and faithful attention have marked the conduct of the officers and board of trustees and managers. It is to be regretted that the members of the old board felt obliged to resign rather than submit to the unfair imputations and unjust criticism which characterized the attack made on their official conduct. They are men of eminent respectability and high standing in the community and had served the state for many years with faithfulness and zeal. Their sole aim was the advancement of the interests of the institution, which had become to them an object of love and pride. If attacks of the character under consideration from persons or associations irresponsible for what they say or do are to go unrebuked, it will soon be impossible to secure the services of citizens competent to act as trustees or managers of our institutions.

At no time has the claim been made that the school has reached the full measure of perfection, but under the management of the trustees, aided by the intelligent and suggestive help of the board of women visitors and of the officers, decided and, under the circumstances, astonishing reforms and advances have been made. Their nature and extent are fully discussed in the report of the principal, a careful reading of which will do much to remove existing prejudices and give a correct view of the purpose and scope of this very important school.

The new board of trustees have devoted much time and labor to the study of its affairs. They have conscientiously endeavored to discharge their duties in a manner to promote the well being and reformation of the inmates and at the same time protect the honor of the state. Their efforts are entitled to the encouragement of fair minded people, and they especially invite your personal inspection of the school at any time.

They recommend an appropriation for an additional building, which seems to be necessary in view of the crowded condition of the school. It is impossible to receive new inmates, and the various judges have been requested to withhold further commitments until new accommodations are provided or the present number is reduced. The appropriation of last year for this purpose was not used and fell back into the treasury, executive approval of the plans being withheld because the cost of the proposed building exceeded the amount set aside.

The wise policy inaugurated by my predecessor in revising and codifying different subjects dealt with in our statutes has been continued with great advantage. The work has been done gratuitously by public spirited commissioners appointed for that purpose by the governor. The result of their labors is found in the revisions of the borough laws, district court acts, mechanics' lien laws, crimes act, township laws, conveyances and orphans' court act. No laws, however, are in greater need of revision than those relating to the public school system of the state.

STATE BOARD OF TAXATION.

The board cannot be too highly commended for its usefulness. It commands at present the confidence and cheerful aid of the local authorities and has greatly increased its efficiency. The results of its labors fully justify the expenditure of the amount annually appropriated in its behalf. Since its creation, and as its field of operation has been enlarged, the demands made upon it have increased to such an extent that the compensation allowed for its services now seems hardly commensurate with their value.

From the report which the board has presented it appears that the total assessed value of real and personal property taxable locally for all purposes in the state for the year 1899 was as follows:

Real estate, $758,461,054; personal property, $141,456,749, making the total value thereof, less the deductions for debts, $866,030,061.

The increase of assessments of 1899 over those of 1898 shows a net gain of $21,664,863, that in personal property being $2,042,016 and in real estate $17,803,683. The total valuation of property in the state, including real and personal property taxable locally, railroad and canal property, exempt property and deductions for debt under the act of April 11, 1899, was $1,223,815,062.

The counties which reported an increase in valuation were Hudson, Camden, Essex, Mercer, Monmouth, Morris, Ocean, Passaic, Somerset, Sussex and Union, while in the agricultural counties of Bergen, Burlington, Cumberland, Gloucester, Hunterdon, Middlesex, Salem and Warren and the seaside properties of Cape May there is a decrease.

The value of the real estate represents 84.2 per centum and the personal estate 15.8 per centum of the total assessed valuation of the property in the state. It is a suggestive fact that the proportion of personalty assessed in the agricultural counties is greatly in excess of its proportion in counties containing large cities.

The most important branch of the work of the board and the one to which it has given much of its time and attention is the equalization of the assessments in the various taxing districts throughout the state. On behalf of some townships allegations were made that lands therein situated were assessed at their value, while in other taxing districts located in the same county they were assessed at less than their value, thus compelling the complainants to pay an undue proportion of the county and state school tax. So glaring were these irregularities in some cases that the courts took judicial notice of them and called the attention of the grand juries to the failure of assessors to make proper assessments. In one case at least a presentment was made. The board also investigated complaints that were made. As a result of this action, the assessments complained of have been equalized, and an increase of several millions of dollars in taxable values has resulted. In many cases former methods have been changed, and valuations are now made in accordance with the standard required by law. The assessors of various other taxing districts throughout the state have had their attention called to the action of the board and of the courts, and there will no doubt follow a stricter compliance with the express mandate of the constitution.

TAXATION OF FRANCHISES.

The board in its report discusses at considerable length a problem of grave importance—namely, the taxation of franchises enjoyed by certain classes of corporations. The members suggest no special remedies by way of legislation, contenting themselves with calling your attention to the following facts:

Four elements of taxable property value are found in corporations: First, franchises; second, corporate property; third, bonds and shares of the capital stock in the hands of the individual stockholders, and, fourth, capital stock in the hands of the corporation. Upon each and all of these the state may impose taxes unless forbidden by constitutional prohibition.

The state requires from all corporations when they are organized the payment of a certain fee, and annually thereafter a moderate tax is payable, except by such companies as are engaged in manufacturing in the state. This cannot, however, they rightly say, be considered a property tax. It is merely a license fee exacted by the state for the right granted by it to the corporation to exist and to do business as such. All citizens may avail themselves of the provisions of the law. Compliance with the established requirements is all that is necessary to incorporate. Property acquired is assessed in the same manner as property of the individual. Corporations so organized do not acquire special or exclusive rights. They cannot use any of the public property, such as streets or highways, in furtherance of the objects of their incorporation. They have no more rights than the individual in this regard.

HAVE RIGHT TO SUCH USE.

But corporations organized for certain purposes have the right to use such. Street railway companies, telephone and telegraph companies and gas, water and electric light companies under the law have and exercise such rights. Their use of the public property may not, in a strict sense, be deemed a monopoly, but practically it is such. In so far as they use the public property to the exclusion of others, they may be regarded as having a special and peculiar franchise. Upon its exclusive character depends in large measure their successful and profitable operation.

The question pressing upon your attention and demanding answer is, Do the franchises of corporations of a quasi public nature, enjoying special privileges in the use of public property, possess a value which should be the subject of taxation, and, if so, are the laws defective in not subjecting them to such taxation?

This special privilege or exclusive right is as much an element of value as the rest of the property of such corporations and is so regarded by those interested therein and by the public. Ample proof of this fact is found in the vast increase of the amount of their interest bearing securities and stocks, a large part whereof have been issued upon the basis of the value of the franchises referred to, and find their security in the possession thereof by the companies issuing them. The rapid growth of our cities, thus affording greater patronage and income, the diminished cost of constructing and extending quasi public works, inventions that facilitate and decrease the expense of operation, have each contributed to the enhancement of the relative value of the franchise. Shall that element of value be subject to taxation?

HOW TO DEAL WITH PROBLEM.

In my judgment, the fairest and most practical way to deal with the problem is to classify by legislative enactment these special franchises for the purpose of taxation by one of the state boards. This, I think, is particularly necessary in view of the fact that many of the corporations referred to are exercising franchises in more than one municipality. It is obviously impracticable for the local assessors of a municipality in which part of a plant of such a corporation is located to estimate the value of the fraction of the franchise therein exercised. The proceeds of the taxes levied should be distributed among the municipalities in which the property of the corporation is situate and in which it exercises its franchises, on the basis of earnings in each municipality if practicable, or according to some other method that would secure a substantially equitable distribution of the money.

Some corporations exercising special franchises now pay part of their receipts to municipalities under agreements made when the franchises were granted. In order that such taxation should be proportionate and not open to the objection of being double, the amount paid in pursuance of such agreements should be deducted from the taxes assessed on the franchises of the corporations so paying.

This subject is probably the most important that will engage your attention during the present session, and I suggest that it be taken up for consideration as early as practicable, to the end that something definite and satisfactory may be accomplished before adjournment. In the justice and fairness of your action I have all confidence.

Your attention is directed to the reports of those departments in which the general public have an especial interest—notably, the department of agriculture, banking and insurance, education, geology, health, labor and industries and public roads. In each there will be found evidences of very gratifying advancement in the amount of efficient work and results accomplished. This much may also be said of those who have had in charge the educational interests of the state and the care and custody of the delinquents and defectives.

All legislative measures of the last session received executive consideration and were disposed of on or before the day of adjournment. This departure from the old practice met, I believe, with very general approval and should be adhered to. Your honorable bodies can, and I have no doubt will, make this much easier of accomplishment by the prompt consideration and early passage of such measures as shall receive your approval. The harmonious relations which marked our intercourse last year are recalled with pleasure, and it will be my constant aim to promote their continuance during the session upon which you now enter.

FOSTER M. VOORHEES.

WE MUST REPEAT.

When Everybody in Plainfield Tells the Same Old Story.

It is hard to say new things about Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure the lame and aching back, the sufferer from kidney disorders, and the troubles of those whose organism is wrong in its action, that they do this is so easy to prove that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public endorsement of local citizens is easily proven. Read this case: Mr. Jepp Zensen, of 728 West Front street, pattern-maker by trade, says: "For a year I had a sort of grinding pain across my back at times extended up to my shoulders, and there was a lameness over my kidneys and severe headaches. When I stooped I always felt dizzy and sometimes I was fairly blinded. In the mornings I felt stiff and sore until I got some exercise. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in my city paper and so highly recommended for kidney complaint that I went to L. W. Randolph's drug store and got a box. They did me a great deal of good. From my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills I cannot do otherwise than endorse them.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

M. E. Stephenson,

- - CATERER - -

Tel. 624. 146 North Ave.

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles.

CARDS and CALENDARS.

We make a specialty of

FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.

High Grade Cigars.

Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.

B. W. HAND,

205 W. Front Street.

ESTATE of William H. Brower, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the fourteenth day of November, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

SARAH J. BROWER,
JOHN L. BROWER,
11 21 9 oawjtu Executors.

ESTATE of Maggie Cash, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made, on the application of the undersigned, administrator of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the twenty-first day of December, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

JEREMIAH CASH,
12 26 9 oaw Administrator.

Advise Gratis.

Mr. Buyer—"Mr. Green, there seems to be something serious the matter with the horse I bought of you yesterday. He coughs and wheezes distressingly, and I think perhaps he is windbroken. What would you advise me to do?"

Jay Green (promptly)—"Sell him as quickly as you can. I did."—Tit-Bits.

Beneficial Exercise.

Mr. Pinkle (10 p. m.)—"My dear, the doctor says a brisk walk before going to bed will insure sleep to insomnia sufferers like myself."

Mrs. Pinkie—"Well, my dear, I will clear the room so you can walk. Please carry the baby with you." —New York Weekly.

Hence These Tears

"Mamma," said the happy young wife, "do you think it was just the thing to sit there and weep as you did at our wedding? If I had been going to my funeral you could not have acted more heartbroken."

"Oh," replied the distressed lady, applying her handkerchief to her eyes, "I'm sorry I made such a spectacle of myself, but I couldn't help it. I have always thought so much of George and he was so kind to me."

"Why, mamma!" exclaimed Alice Saint Claire, "what do you mean! Am I to understand that you are sorry for George because he married me? The idea! Do you mean to insinuate that I am not——"

"There, there, my child," the mother interrupted, "do not misjudge me. You know how George has always been in the habit of taking me with you and him to the theatre and upon excursions and how considerate he has been of me in every way. He has always insisted on paying my carfare; he has sat out on the porch and discussed things with me that he knew I was interested in, and he has always brought the kind of candy that he knew I liked. If George had been my own son he could not have been more anxious to promote my happiness."

"Well, was that any reason why you should sit there and blubber all through the ceremony?"

"My darling, don't you understand? I was becoming his mother-in-law."

"That new actress does very well, but she can't faint worth a cent."

"She can't? Well, go out and get a caterpillar and put it on her frock."

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 12th, 1899

For New York 2 34, 5 27, 5 27, 6 25, 6 58, 7 28, 7 58, 8 05, 8 28, 8 30, 8 57, 9 45, 9 15, 9 45, 9 58, 10 27, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 25, 2 12, 2 28, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 27, 5 54, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 05, 7 30, 9 24, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 2 14, 5 27, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09 m. 12 58 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 18, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 27, 6 29, 6 50, 7 28, 7 47, 8 13, 8 27, 9 45, 9 58, 10 27, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 27, 6 21, 6 45, 7 30, 9 24, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 46, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 5 05, 2 20, 3 32, 4 58, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 27, 10 28, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5 27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 08 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 2 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 28 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 28 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 8, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent.
218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. L. Manning & Son.

STEAM GRANITE WORKS.

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

XXXX QUALITY

FINEST

LOFOTON COD LIVER OIL,

Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.

Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at

39c per Pint.

For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at

50c per Bottle,

or the Tasteless at

75c per Bottle.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,

Henburn & Co.,

Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,

213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

JANUARY SPECIAL SALES.

Ladies' black cloth jackets 2.85, reduced from 5.00.
" " " " 3.85, " " 6.75.
Children's reefer jackets 2.85, former price 3.25.
" " " 5.00, " " 6.25.
Ladies' Golf Capes 5.00, worth 7.00.
" " " 8.75, " 11.75.
Misses' Golf Capes 2.98, usually sold for 4.25.
" " " 4.49, " " 6.25.
Ladies' House Waists 25c, regular price 50c.
10 doz. Silk Velvet Brilliantine Sample Waists at half value.
2,000 yards 36 in Bleached Muslin at 7½c, usually sold for 10c.

House Furnishings.

7-piece Berry Set, complete at 10c. Dover Egg Beater 5c.
Coal Shovel, extra long handle, 5c. Wash Boards 12c.

Millinery.

Our entire stock of Winter Millinery to be closed out regardless of cost.
Diss Shapes at 15c and 25c. Trimmed Hats from 75c up.

I. H. BOEHM,

109-113 WEST FRONT STREET.

Annual January Sale of Ladies' Muslin Underwear.

An entirely new showing of muslin underwear is now ready for your inspection.

These Goods were bought many weeks ago, before the recent heavy advance in prices on cotton goods—Prices have been made accordingly.

Made by one of the famous underwear manufacturers of Massachusetts, in clean, well ventilated factories, insuring absolute cleanliness in manufacture.

Finely made garments, snowy white, beautiful dainty garments. By far the best elaborate assortment we have ever shown.

These goods have just been received, and placed on sale. As to prices, they conform to the regular January bargain prices, which are much lower than the ordinary.

I. LEDERER

FURNITURE for the Parlor . . .

Library . . .
Dining-Room . . .
Bedroom . . .

Close at 6 o'Clock.

POWLISON & JONES,

149 and 151 E. Front St.

W. R. BROKAW,

Will occupy the store 207 Park Avenue,

Marsh Building, next to Demarest's Grocery, About February 1st.

His line of MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS will be more complete than ever before, embodying everything in the music line. Don't fail to call on him at his new store for anything you want.

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas. Fine Coffee.

All the Seasonable Goods. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit.

C. E. GULICK & CO.,

Tel. 931. THE PARK GROCERS.

OVERCOATS & SUITS.

WE will close out all of our stock now at prices that defy competition; they must go. So if you need anything in the shape of the above call and be convinced of the fact. We have cut the prices in just half what we sold them for in the early season.

TRY A PAIR OF OUR 98c PANTS.
GET BRACED FOR 13c.
HATS, CAPS AND GENTS FURNISHINGS.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

Werner Clothing House,
206 W. Front Street.

HEAT THAT COLD ROOM

with a

. . Miller Oil Heater . .

JOS. W. GAVETT,

318 W. Front St.

Varieties In Cuban and West Indian Waters of Evil Reputation.

There is a belief among the fishermen of Cuba that some of the fish there are poisonous. If asked the cause, one reply is that there is so much copper in the water that it poisons the fish. This is a fisherman's reason, yet the fact holds that in all waters there are fish that are poisonous. In Cuban waters the jack—Caranx—is a common table fish. On the Florida reef all kinds are eaten, and one rarely hears of a poisonous fish, yet in Havana there is a law which prevents the sale of jacks of over two pounds, for the reason that a poisonous Caranx exists which attains a weight of twenty-five pounds. This, when the law is enforced, cuts out of the Cuban dietary a number of fishes.

The poisonous jack is known to science as Caranx fallax, its common name in Cuba being juvee. It is difficult for the laymen to distinguish between the poisonous and non-poisonous jacks. Another jack, Caranx plumiera, commonly seen in the Havana market under the name of chicaro, is readily eaten, but according to Dr. Hornemann the natives of the West Indies are afraid to eat it at certain seasons. At Guadaloupe, as an example, it is eaten at times without ill effect, while at other times the flesh assumes a coppery hue, the bones turn red and it is exceedingly poisonous, so much so that Dr Hornemann states that it is used to poison rats.

Dr. Oscar Tybring has collected much interesting information on this subject, and special attention is given to emphasize the fact that some fishes are poisonous at certain times. The writer's belief is that locality has much to do with it. During several years' residence at Garden Key, seventy miles from Cuba, an instance of any one's being poisoned by the local fishes was never heard of by him. The barracuda was at all times considered a fine table fish, but a fisherman from Cuba who fish down the the channel islands, could hardly be induced to take large specimens of the fish, which he said were poisonous around Cuba. One form, which attains a length of twelve or more feet, was considered especially poisonous. This fish, which was invariably found to be a good table fish in Florida, was regarded with suspicion in Bahama. One of the signs of poison given is "black at the roots of the sharp teeth," but this sign has no meaning in Florida. The barracuda is common in Rio, and, according to Mericourt, some of the men of a French frigate were badly poisoned by eating it.

The murries in Florida, snake-like eels of ferocious appearance and nature, are often said to be poisonous, but the writer experimented with them and found them palatable if one could forget the snake-like mouth, white, leopard-like markings and the certainly disagreeable features of the fish. This was the fish that was so esteemed by the old Romans; yet it was impossible to induce a fisherman on the outer reef to eat a murry, and some affirmed that those around the Bahamas were deadly poison.

Certain localities have become notorious for their poisonous fish, as the Cape of Good Hope, where the crews of vessels are invariably warned not to eat the fish; and in cases observed here the symptoms were remarkably like those of cholera. The richly colored fishes have an evil reputation everywhere, but this certainly does not apply to the Florida species. According to Hornemann, poisonous species are known at the Isle of France, in the Antilles, and in China and Japan. He mentions two species in the waters of the Seychelles. At Guadaloupe one of the gar fishes—belone cariboea—is known as a poisonous fish; yet the writer preferred it to all the small fishes and never heard the fish mentioned in Florida as being poisonous. That it is so in other localities there can be no doubt, as Dr. Hornemann says that it is especially dangerous during the spawning season, and that the roe should be avoided. He quotes cases where people in San Domingo have died from eating the fish, and advises sailors to avoid fishes of this kind.

In Japanese waters several fish are said to be poisonous, especially Engraulis japonica, which is dangerous from July to September, and in almost every foreign country fish will be found that are avoided. On the American coast true cases of poisonous fish are undoubtedly very rare and, putting prejudice and legend aside, the list of so-called poisonous fishes would be very materially reduced.

Newsboys of Manila.

Manila now has the newsboy, for the first time in her history. They are a cosmopolitan lot—Filipinos, Chinese, Japs, Hindoos and representatives of races from all the islands—but quite like the newsboy, wherever found. "These urchins are rapidly picking up and acquiring an English phaseology which is surprising," says "Freedom," an American newspaper published at the island capital, "but an equal amount of curiosity is aroused in the American when he suddenly hears such tunes sung and whistled as "Hot Time in the Old Town To-night,' 'After the Ball,' and all the other popular and unique airs of the Americano, and then see a little Filipino youngster (with a bundle of papers under his arms) do it all.

"We are amused and laugh at the ragged, yes, here the almost naked, newsboy, but their training will be valuable to most of them, and it will, no doubt, add to them the experience and training which is the foundation of all public and business affairs, and they will be the better for the work they are doing. We are within sight and earshot of the ocurrences and events that are making history for the Nation, but often the newsboy making haste up the street with his papers gave us the first intimation of such notable happenings and events as 'Malabon has fallen,' 'Malolos has been taken,' 'All about the Americanos at Pasig.'

"Our pet, Manuel de Lalinde, a young Spanish lad of fourteen years, whose father was killed in the war, supports his mother, four sisters and one brother by his earnings as a newsboy and by doing office work at odd hours. His earnings have averaged $20 gold per week, which equals $40 in Mexican money."

1011

THE HOUSE . . .

founded upon the rock of Life Insurance will stand —for a policy of Life Insurance in

THE PRUDENTIAL

is a guarantee of security to the family.

WRITE FOR PARTICULARS

Home Office, Newark, N. J. THE PRUDENTIAL Insurance Co. of America.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President. LESLIE D. WARD, Vice-President.
EDGAR B. WARD, 2d V. P. & Counsel. FORREST F. DRYDEN, Secretary.

J. E. WOODLAND, Sup't., E. Front St. and Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

CITY HALL IS NEEDED

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.

to its enactment, the city possessed little power to prevent arbitrary interference with permanent pavements by corporations possessing easements in the public streets.

The streets in question, having been once paved at great expense to the adjoining property owners, it would be inequitable to order a second assessment to be made upon them for the proposed re-paving, especially, in view of the fact that the streets in question form the principal business streets of the city, and are called upon to bear a greater share of public traffic than other city streets. The Legislature has recognized this principle, and has provided in Chapter 24 of the Session Laws of 1898, and supplement in 1898, for the proper method of meeting the expense of such re-paving, and I recommend that proceedings be taken under that act of the Legislature to cause the portions of streets above described to be repaved as follows, viz., for the space of three feet on each side next to the curb, with vitrified brick laid in cement, and the rest of the roadways with best quality of macadam.

When the macadamizing, now in process of construction, shall have been completed, I recommend that no new streets shall be macadamized during the present year, unless the adjoining property owners shall first deposit with the City Treasurer their fair proportion of the estimated expense so that the city may be spared the expense of commissioners to assess benefits, court expenses, extra advertising and proceedings to collect assessments.

It is more important to keep in repair the many miles of streets already macadamized than it is to do more macadamizing, and to this end, I recommend that a competent man be employed, to be furnished with a horse and wagon, whose duty it shall be, under the direction of the Street Commissioner, to devote his whole time to the task of cleaning and repairing streets, and particularly the task of discovering and promptly repairing defects in the road-beds of macadamized streets.

Another thing essential to the durability of the macadam already laid is that it should be thoroughly sprinkled once each day, except during the winter season, and where such sprinkling is not done by the abutting property owners, the City should, in some way, cause it to be done as a matter of self protection.

FIRE AND POLICE.

The fire and police departments of the City have reached an admirable degree of efficiency, and while not abating one jot of the established discipline, we will do well to rest content with their present advanced state of development without changing the systems established or enlarging the personal, so as to incur increased expense in the maintenance of either department during the current year.

TAXES.

Complaints have been made by prominent citizens that the assessments for school and school-bond taxes have been heavier in this City than in other similar cities, and that apparently the Common Council has had no supervision or control over the amount ordered assessed. While it is true that the Board of Education has the power within well-defined limits, to determine the amount to be assessed for such purposes, and if the amounts ordered do not in fact exceed the percentage allowed by law, the Common Council would be powerless to order a reduction, yet it is proper that before the assessors act upon any requisition for the assessment of such taxes, the requisition, or a copy thereof, should be submitted to the Common Council as the governing and fiscal body of the City, to the end that if that body should be of opinion that the amount ordered is in excess of the statutory limit, appropriate action may be taken to make correction, or to promptly test the question, and determine the duty of the Assessors. I recommend, therefore, the adoption of a resolution directing the Assessors to lay before the Common Council at the first opportunity, copies of all requisitions that may hereafter be delivered to or served upon them, or any of them, respecting the assessment of such taxes.

The Common Council having on December 28th last directed the Collector to proceed to advertise and sell the fee of all real estate on which taxes assesed by the Martin Act Commissioners remain unpaid, a most important duty devolves upon the Common Council and the Collector to see to it that every step is taken in strict accordance with the law. It is likely that, as in other cities, this city will become the purchaser in many cases. In every such case, the city is required to ascertain what liens or encumbrances are upon the property and to serve notices to redeem upon holders of mortgages, etc. If these steps are all properly taken, the property so acquired by the city is sure to make the city good for at least every dollar of tax interest and costs, since before the deed is delivered, the city may assign its bid, or after delivery of the deed and expiration of notice to redeem, the city may sell the property and convey good title in fee and give actual possession to the purchaser. This is the most important year under the Martin Act proceedings, and the city should realize therefrom handsome returns.

The first year's experience under the ordinance providing that taxes shall become finally due a month earlier than formerly has abundantly justified the course of the city in obtaining the necessary legislation and adopting the ordinance. I recommend that the ordinance be now followed up by a resolution or ordinance allowing a discount under chapter 201 of the session laws of 1899, which statute was adopted at the instance of this city, to such persons as make payment of their taxes prior to the date of taxes becoming delinquent.

Under the laws governing second-class cities and now applicable to Plainfield, there is more necessity than was formerly the case for joint and concurrent action by Council and Mayor. In the spirit of these laws I invite the freest drafts upon my time and attention by the members of your honorable body, collectively and individually. We are equally interested in the successful conduct of the city government, and I take it that we are equally in favor of economy in all departments; not that false economy which, by indiscriminate reductions and omissions drives away the best men, makes it impossible to secure the best work, and, by neglect, causes impairment of public property and improvements; but that economy which, while employing the best means and the wisest methods, incurs no unnecessary expense, undertakes no superfluous labor, allows no work to be slighted, and gets for the city for every dollar expended full value received.

HILLIER & CO.

Silk Waists Cleaned.

$1.25 to $2.00

are the folks.

Can't call? Then send and they'll call.

129 W. Front St.

Tel. 851.

DIED IN FLORIDA.

M. F. Webb, Formerly a Resident of This City, Has Passed to His Maker.

The many friends of M. F. Webb, aged 60 years, will be pained to learn of his death which occurred yesterday in Florida, where he has been in the habit for many years of spending the winter months. Mr. Webb resided in this city at the City Hotel for fourteen years, and he had a host of friends who admired him for his many excellent qualities. Many years ago Mr. Webb lived in New Brunswick, where he was associated with one of the banks. The only surviving relative is a son who is president of a bank in Texas. The body will be sent to Jersey City on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and it is believed that the funeral services will be held at New Brunswick. Word of Mr. Webb's death was received this morning by J. E. Beerbower, proprietor of the City Hotel.

WILL PAY TAXES.

Middlesex Land Co. Offers Colby & Co Free Factory Site and Will Pay The Taxes.

A proposition has been made to the iron manufacturing firm of Colby & Co., of Jersey City, by S. D. Drake in behalf of the Middlesex Land Company. A factory site is offered to the company free, and the land company agrees to pay the taxes for a limited period. The factory site offered is on the property of the Middlesex Land Company, situated west of the Dunellen borough line and just north of the Jersey Central Railroad. Mr. Drake is sure that the proposition will be accepted.

Mr. Drake says that the Middlesex Land Company will start tomorrow to open up North avenue from Dunellen to Lincoln.

DEATH OF MRS. A. L. TITSWORTH.

It Occurred Suddenly in a Brooklyn Sanitarium This Morning.

Mrs. A. L. Titsworth, of 415 West Seventh street who has been seriously ill for some time, and who has been a patient at the private sanitarium of Dr. Munsey in Brooklyn for the past six weeks, died at an early hour this morning.

Mrs. Titsworth underwent an operation some time ago, and it was thought to have been successful. A turn for the worse occurred during the night, however, and the end came suddenly.

Mrs. Titsworth was a woman of lovely character and was highly esteemed among her circle of acquaintances, who will be shocked to hear of her death. Their sympathy goes out to the bereaved relatives in a most sincere manner:

Mrs. Titsworth was Miss Frances VanHoesen, and formerly resided in Syracuse, N. Y. She was married to Mr. Titsworth twelve years ago. The remains will be brought to Plainfield for the funeral and interment. Details of the funeral will be announced tomorrow.

Trinity's Turkey Supper.

An event always looked forward to with a great deal of interest is the annual turkey supper at Trinity Reformed church. It will be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work Society in the lecture room of the church Thursday and Friday evenings, January 25th and 26th. Supper will be served from 6 to 9 o'clock.

District Session of Great Chief.

William Newcorn will go to Oceanic this evening to attend the district session of the board of great chiefs of the I. O. R. M. when the past sachem's degree will be conferred.

To Raise up Chiefs.

Deputy Great Sachem W. A. Westphal and staff will go to Rahway this evening to raise up the recently elected chiefs of Rahwack tribe of Red Men.

Enjoys Outdoor Trips.

William Cosgrove, the Californian, who is at the hospital as the result of broken back, is now enjoying frequent outdoor trips in his chair.

Miss Nora Doyle, of Richmond street, is confined to her home with an attack of mumps.

Miss Nicher, of Washington, is visiting at the home of James Middledith, of Mercer avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Westphal, of Brooklyn, have been visiting their daughters in the West End.

Miss Graff, of Newark, Delaware, is a guest at the home of Charles W. McCutchen of Rockview avenue.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenues.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

CITY OF PLAINFIELD.

1899.

GENERAL FUND.

RECEIPTS.

Balance on hand January 1, 1899, First National Bank		$ 3,141.41
STATE SCHOOL AND COUNTY TAXES.
Year 1889	$ 10.50
" 1891	.94
" 1892	.84
" 1894	70.54
" 1895	79.86
" 1896	630.93
" 1897	3,230.51
" 1898	6,506.21
" 1899	52,908.97
Martin Act Collections	4,975.07	$70,482.37
CITY TAXES, INCLUDING POLLS AND DOGS.
Year 1889	$ 5.75
" 1891	.62
" 1892	.50
" 1894	45.04
" 1895	54.30
" 1896	216.09
" 1897	2,661.46
" 1898	6,791.57
" 1899	43,254.04
Martin Act Collection	2,395.95	$ 55,545.12
LICENSES.
Hack, Peddler and Show	$ 938.00
Liquor	10,700.00
Plainfield Street Railway Co., 1899	650.00	$ 12,288.00
STREETS.
Sale of Pipe		21.20
BOARD OF EDUCATION.
Proportion of Collector's and Assessor's salary for 1898		819.84
SEWERS.
Permits	$104.00
Sale of Pipe	4.07
Replacement, etc.,	7,654.70	7,762.77
PRINTING AND STATIONERY.
Plainfield Street Railway Advertising	$373.50
Advertising Licenses	93.50	$ 467.00
ASSESSMENTS.
Collected under Martin Act		373.72
Westervelt Avenue Assessment	$ 27.38
Watchung Avenue Assessment	200.86	228.24
Bills Payable		$4,500.00
Fines—City Judge		932.70
Penalties		2,244.43
Railroad and Canal Tax, 1898		1,278.57
Martin Act Taxes Collected		23,550.66
Tax Searches		69.00
Snow and Ice Collection		90.90
Flagging and Curbing—Property Owners		232.32
Board of Education, Apportion of State School Tax		21,626.95
Transfer from Sewer Bond and Interest Account to General Fund		1,000 00
Street Improvement Bonds		12,000.00
		$208,005 20

DISBURSEMENTS.

STREETS.
Storm Sewers, Inlets, etc	$ 328.62
Culverts	675.96
Crosswalks	956.96
Street Cleaning, Opening Gutters, Culverts, Catch Basins, etc	2,584.07
Macadamizing, Repairs, Grading	17,776.52
Removing Snow	371.67
Tools, Supplies and Repairs, Repairs to Roller, Blacksmithing	1,081.37
Assistant	257.19
Removing and Trimming Trees	195.98
Care Gravel Pit	152.70	$ 24,361.04
SEWER MAINTENANCE.
Labor on Disposal Beds	$2,245.20
Tools and Supplies	216.77
Repairs and Improvements	220.31
Water, Flushing and Inspecting	569.22
Engineer in Charge	600.50
Inspecting House Connections	56.50
Insurance and Repairs of Building	140.63	$ 4,049.33
POLICE.
Regular	$ 12,652.90
Special	241.20
Station House	300.00
Miscellaneous	1,349.76	$ 14,443.86
SALARIES.
Collector	$ 2,000.00
Street Commissioner	1,200.00
City Clerk	1,200.00
Corporation Counsel	1,250.00
Treasurer	700.00
Inspector of Buildings	500.00
City Judge	650.00
Janitor	200.00
ASSESSORS.
First Ward	309.90
Second Ward	317.00
Third Ward	312.90
Fourth Ward	318.54
Clerk for Board	404.50
Commissioners of Appeal	75.00	$ 9,437.84
BOARD OF EDUCATION.
State School Tax		$21,626.95
MISCELLANEOUS.
Bills payable		$ 58,500.00
Snow and Ice charged to 1899 taxes		103.00
Transfer to Sewer Bond and Interest Account		1,000.00
Street Lighting		11,619.10
Printing and Stationery		1,837.90
Elections		879.90
Rent Offices and Council Chamber		720.00
Board of Health		1,000.00
Martin Act Expenses		6,514.42
Macadamizing East 9th street and Franklin place		2,290.48
Macadamizing West 3rd and West 4th streets		10,698.50
Library, difference in assessment		400.00
State School and County Tax		65,952.75
Martin Act Tax Division		12,774.42
Sundry Expenses		187.38
Corporation Counsel expenses, Court Fees, etc		162.20
Registering Vital Statistics		44.40
Memorial Day		100.00
Bank Discount		1,686.21
Care City Park		100.00
City Maps		729.00
City Proportion Sewer Assessment		531.19
Flagging and Curbing		79.42
Return of Taxes—
J. Bichnell	4.60
G. J. Toblin	16.94
J. Emmons	2.42
J. Walsh	27.83
J. Finley	12.49
Home Building & Loan Association	18.76
R. Ryer	1.38
A. P. Eddy	26.66	113.08
Bills Payable, Sewer Replacement Account		1,676.54
Park Avenue Sewer, Sewer Replacement Account		7,934.12
Balance on Hand—
First National Bank, General Fund		4,764.72
City National Bank, General Fund		12.06
Street Improvement Account		1,301.50
Martin Act Tax		373.88
		$ 208,005.20

Summary—General Fund.

ASSETS.		LIABILITIES.
Cash on hand, General Fund	$ 4,776.78	Notes payable	$ 28,500.00
Due from Sewer Bond and Interest Account	600.00	Balance	29,931.01
Board of Education, Proportion of Collector's and Assessor's salary	876.62
Street Railway Advertising	189.70
Plainfield Gas and Electric Light Co., use of New Street Sewer	25.00
Macadamizing Franklin Place, etc., to be raised by assessment	2,290.48
Flagging and Curbing	357.95
Uncollected Taxes—
Year 1896	$ 2,620.55
" 1897	4,638.08
" 1898	10,906.95
" 1899	29,148.90
	47,314.48
Uncollected Taxes, 1888 to 1895, inclusive, collection doubtful	$ 19,067.91
Uncollected taxes, whole amount under Martin Act	$ 32,844.07
	$ 56,431.01		$ 56,431 01

LIABILITIES.
Street Improvement Bonds. To be provided for by assessment.	$ 12,000.00
Special Sewer Bonds. To be provided for by Tax Levy from one to five years.	$ 7,654.70

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

January 1, 1899, Balance			$ 7,907.99
RECEIPTS.
Sale of Manure			15.00
Sale of old hose			5.00
Insurance Loss			9.50
Bills Payable			23,600.00
TAXES COLLECTED:
Year, 1889	$ 2.25
" 1891	.17
" 1893	.26
" 1894	21.37
" 1895	24.66
" 1896	94.28
" 1897	923.61
" 1898	2,141.52
" 1899	14,194.93
Collected under Martin Act	615.40		18,018.43
			$49,555 92

DISBURSEMENTS.

Bills of 1898		$ 589.56
EXPENSES.
Salaries	$ 7,492 33
Extra help	170.64
Repairs building	644.68
Repairs Apparatus	191.26
Supplies	452.11
Keep Horses	1,329.76
Rent of Lot	30.00
Rent of Horses	340.00
Lights	294 86
Fuel	271.80
Care Fire Alarm, including two new Boxes and Wire	956.68
Printing and Stationery	225.60
Incidentals	410.29
Hose Wagon	300.00
Bank Discount	550.88
Insurance	256 80
Equipment	302.19	14,220 06
Hydrants		3,140 00
New Building, West Fourth Street		1,488 87
Bills Payable		28,100.00
Balance on hand, First National Bank		2,017.43
		$49,555 92

Summary.

ASSETS.		LIABILITIES.
Cash	$ 2,017,43	Bills Payable	$ 4,800.00
Uncollected Taxes—		Balance	1,059.40
Year, 1896	$ 159.37
" 1897	398 04
" 1898	1,366 06
" 1899	4,018.63
	5,841.97
Uncollected Taxes, 1888 to 1895 inclusive—Considered Doubtful	$ 2,619.25
	$7,859.40		$7,859.40

REAL ESTATE VALUATION.

Headquarters Real Estate	$ 13,406.82
West Second Street Real Estate	9,550.00
West Fourth Street Real Estate	5,462.97
	28,419.79
Equipment and Personal Property	15,867.40
Fire Alarm System	7,718.58
	$52,004.37

POOR FUND.

January 1, 1899, Balance		$ 1,838.94
RECEIPTS.
Overseer of the Poor		69.70
Bills Payable		1,200.00
TAXES COLLECTED.
Year 1889	$ 1.06
" 1891	.07
" 1893	.04
" 1894	5.13
" 1895	11.83
" 1896	25.11
" 1897	209.51
" 1898	535.15
" 1899	3,226.36
Collected under Martin Act	450.05	4,564.21
		$ 7,672.85

DISBURSEMENTS.

Supplies	$ 1,786.25
Insurance	40.80
Burials	81.50
City Physician	365.00
Superintendent, Matron and Cook	472.00
Nurse for C. Jones	21.00
Overseer	250.00
Board and Care of City Poor	333.21
Rent, City Poor	453.00
Steam Heat, Industrial Home	1,037.24
Electric Wiring, Industrial Home	70.00
Building Cesspool	35.00
		$ 4,944.00
Bills Payable		1,200.00
Balance, City Nat'l Bank		1,528.85
		$7,672.85

Summary

ASSETS.			LIABILITIES.
Cash on hand		$1,528.85	Balance	$2,940.08
Uncollected Taxes,—
Year, 1896	$ 43.67
" 1897	134.93
" 1898	319.47
" 1899	913.16	1,411.23
Uncollected Taxes, 1891 to 1895 inclusive, collection doubtful	189.93
		$2,940.08		$2,940.08

LIBRARY FUND

January 1, 1899, Balance,		$7,114.20
RECEIPTS.
Fines and Dues, J. B. Dumont, Treasurer		187.89
Return Insurance Premium, J. B. Dumont, Treasurer		28.68
TAXES COLLECTED.
Year, 1889	$ .57
" 1891	.05
" 1893	.04
" 1894	3.85
" 1895	4.92
" 1896	20.44
" 1897	614.53
" 1898	428.25
" 1899	4,516.22
Collected under Martin Act	214.78	$5,803.65
Allotment by City Council, difference in assessment		400.00
		$13,534.42

DISBURSEMENTS.

Expenses		$3,575.79
Building Expense		6,843.25
Balance, City Nat'l Bank		5,115.38
		$13,534.42

Summary

ASSETS.			LIABILITIES.
Cash on hand		$3,115.28	Balance	$4,952.65
Uncollected Taxes,—
Year, 1896	$ 38.07
" 1897	267.07
" 1898	253.26
" 1899	1,278.97	1,837.37
Uncollected Taxes, 1891 to 1895 inclusive, considered doubtful	119.63
		$4,952.65		$4,952.65

SEWER BOND AND INTEREST ACCOUNT.

January 1, 1899, Balance		$ 105.76
RECEIPTS.
Sewer Assessment, New Assessment	$ 1,957.95
Old Assessment	156.98
Collected under Martin Act	738.70	2,853.63
Principal on Bond Taxes, Year, 1897	$ 220.86
" 1898	535.88
" 1899	3,236.15
Collected under Martin Act	26.86	4,009.75
Interest on Sewer Obligations, Year, 1896	$ 33.49
" 1897	309.45
" 1898	642.79
" 1899	3,870.86
Collected under Martin Act	56.70	4,913.29
Transfer from General Account		1,000.00
		$12,882 43

DISBURSEMENTS.

Bills Payable (old construction)		$ 1,000.00
Bills Payable (new construction)		1,638.57
New Construction		240.25
Bonds 9, 10, 11, 12		4,000.00
Interest on Bonds	$4,640.00
Interest on Bills Payable	172.28	4,812.28
Transfer to General Account		1,000.00
Balance City Nat'l Bank, Sewer Account	$ 75.98
M. Honan & Sons	115.48	191.46
		$12,882.43

Summary.

ASSETS.		LIABILITIES.
Cash on hand	$ 191.33	Sewer 4 per cent Bonds	$ 112,000.00
Sewer Plant, etc., as carried on books	120,516.15	M. Honan & Sons	115.48
Uncollected Taxes, Bonds		General Fund Transfer	600.00
Year, 1897	$ 96.79	Surplus Created by Payment of Bonds 1 to 12 inclusive	12,000.00
" 1898	317.54	Balance	8,994.36
" 1899	913.26
	1,327.59
Uncollected Taxes, Sewer Interest,
Year, 1896	$ 61.69
" 1897	134.55
" 1898	381.91
" 1899	1,096.44
	1,674.59
	$133,709.66		$133,709.66

Dated, Plainfield, N. J., December 30, 1899.

WM. F. ARNOLD, City Treasurer.

AT COST ! !

All of our Men's Furnishings, Shirts, Collars, Cuffs, Etc., have been reduced to Actual Cost.

We intend closing our Men's Furnishing Department and want to close it quick. Following are our prices while they last.
White Laundered Shirts, 39c, were 50 and 75c.
White Unlaundered Shirts, elegant, 39c.
Percale Shirts, laundered or soft bosom, 39c.
Fancy Percale Shirts, 75c, were 1.00.
Men's Dressy Kid Gloves, imported, 75c, were 1.25.
Men's Collars, 8c. Also a full assortment of Men's Socks, Ties, etc.
Hereafter we will confine our store to Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing only.

Schepflin & Schultz,

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

Use Daily Press Want Ads.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:24 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:53 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:53 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Rain tonight; threatening Thursday, with snow in north portion; stationary temperature. Ther. 36.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 10, 1900. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

LEGISLATIVE WHEELS NOW ON THE TURN

Part That Union County Men Will Play in It.

REED GETS GOOD PLACES.

CHAIRMAN OF SEVERAL IMPORTANT COMMITTEES.

Senator Cross Will Have Great Influence—In the Appointment of Places Faithful G. O. P. Followers in Somerset and Union Are Rewarded—A Short Session is Expected Now.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, January 10.—There are some new faces, but it is mostly the same old crowd that are to be seen again about the State House now that the Legislature has convened for the winter session. The opening session yesterday afternoon of both Senate and Assembly passed off without a hitch and the officers were chosen according to the programme laid out at the Republican caucus. It was altogether an auspicious opening with the prospect of a fairly short session for the state legislators hope to complete their labors before the first of March.

Union and Somerset counties have been well remembered in the distribution of patronage but the largest slice has gone to Essex. Aside from its solitary Assemblyman in the State House, Plainfield has no representative here as yet. Senator Charles A. Reed is a prominent figure in the Senate but otherwise North Plainfield is now without any official positions at present.

Senator Johnson, of Bergen, was made president of the Senate, the position held last year by Senator Reed. Senator Pitney, of Morris, will be the leader of the majority on the Senate floor. Senator Reed may be expected to play a prominent part. His brother, Louis T. Reed, of Somerville, is bill clerk of the upper house while John W. Clift, of Summit, is assistant journal clerk.

In the appointment of the Senate committees the Senators from both Union and Somerset counties fared particularly well. One term has served to acquaint Senator Cross with the methods of the higher branch of the State Legislature, and he is now prepared to be quite an important factor. He is one of the brightest men in the Senate and will keep Union county in the foreground this session. So it is not surprising that he and Senator Reed have been well treated.

Senator Cross is chairman of two regular committees and one joint committee. He heads the committee on public health and the one on the revision of laws, quite an important one. The chairmanship of the joint committee on the Industrial School for Girls was also given to him. While ordinarily that joint committee has little to do, it may become quite important as a result of the recent investigation there.

Senator Crose is a member of the appropriations committee, one of the most important of all, and also of the committee on elections. His name was also included in the joint committee on the Reform School for Boys.

Senator Reed is chairman of the committee on townships and boroughs, always a prominent one, and the committee on the State militia, who will attain unusual prominence this year owing to the recent reorganization of the military arm of the State. He is the chairman of the joint committee on the State library. He is also a member of the commmittee on corporations, the committee on the revision of the laws, and the joint committee on the treasurer's accounts.

According to the decision of the Republican caucus, Benjamin F. Jones, of Essex, was chosen Speaker of the Assembly. Among the officers of the Assembly elected were John C. Cooper, of Somerville, as one of the assistant sergeants-at-arms and Noah F. Morrison, of Elizabeth, for journal clerk.

As all of the Union county Assemblymen are new, it is not surprising that no very important positions on committees were alloted to them. The greatest was for Charles S. Foote, of Plainfield, who was made chairman of the committee on ways and means. That committee in the Jersey legislature does not assume the importance, however, that is given it in Congress at Washington. Edward E. Cooper, Somerset's representative, stands at the head of the committee on claims and Revolutionary pensions.

The representation of the Union and Somerset couhty Assemblymen on the various committees is as follows: Charles S. Foote, of Plainfield, chairman of ways and means, elections.

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

HOW TO CURB TRUSTS.

THE REMEDY THAT CONGRESSMAN DALY PROPOSES.

Introduces a Bill in Congress to Have Articles Made or Dealt in by Combines Placed on the Free List.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Washington, Jan. 10—Congressman William D. Daly, of New Jersey, has introduced in the House his bill to restrict the influences of trusts. Mr. Daly said, after presenting the measure, that he had already received many promises of substantial support in the attempt he will make to have it become a law.

The bill is as follows:

"A bill for the protection of the public against the operation of trusts, combinations, associations and agreements to unduly enhance or diminish the value of articles of commerce.

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That whenever ten or more persons, being citizens of the United States shall present a petition signed by them, and verified by the oath of at least five of said signers, to the Judge of any Circuit Court or District Court of the United States for the district in which said petitioners reside, alleging that within said district there exists any trust, combination, association or agreement of any kind among manufacturers of articles of public necessity, or dealers therein, to unduly enhance the value of said article, or to prevent the sale thereof, by any person not interested in said trust, combination, association or agreement aforesaid, or to in any other way wrongfully promote the advantage of the manufacturer at the expense of the consumer, the said Judge shall in a summary way inquire into and report to the President of the United States his opinion as to whether said trust, combination, association or agreement ev[illegible]

"2. The Judge may [illegible] the attendance of w[illegible] and examine them under oath, and require the production of books and papers, and shall have such other necessary powers as are now conferred upon him by law for the trial of any cause over which said court or courts have jurisdiction.

"3. If said Judge reports that such trust, combination, association or agreement exists, then the President of these United States shall issue his proclamation to the several collectors of customs directing them to place such article or articles on the free list in order to give the public the benefit of reasonable competition on such articles."

MISSING LINK TO A FORTUNE.

Case Heirs Now Hope to Secure the Estate in Cleveland.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Flemington, Jan. 10.—The one hundred or more heirs of the estate of Leonard Case, Sr., valued at $25,000,000, now feel confident of proving their right to the property in dispute. They say the missing link has been discovered, and next month the case will be taken into the Ohio courts.

The land in dispute lies in the heart of the city of Cleveland. The grandfather of Leonard Case came to this country from England about 1740 and settled near Flemington. Joseph, Leonard Case's father, settled at Vienna, Warren county, where Leonard was born. When about twenty years old Leonard journeyed to Cleveland and took up many acres of Government land. He had two sons, but they having left no heirs, his wife's relatives, the Gaylords, several years ago, brought suit against the estate and received as their share $400 000. The balance of the estate, $25,000 000, is now claimed by the heirs of the second wife of Joseph Case, Leonard's father.

The Case School of Applied Sciences valued at $2,000,000, is included in the estate.

A More Modest Name.

The recent experiences of the members of the Millionaire's Club have led them to prefer a more modest name for their organization and they have therefore decided to change it to the Columbia Social Club. Incidentally, they have added twelve new members on the strength of the change, making a total of thirty-two in all. An election of officers was held with the following result: President, William Dowd; vice president, Harry Batten; treasurer, George Apgar; secretary, Walter Higgins.

Fell From a Scaffold.

Andrew Huff, of Prospect avenue, fell from a scaffold Monday last while at work on Frank Vail's house on Park avenue near the Baptist church, and fractured his leg. The break is a bad one and he will be laid up for sometime.

—Press want ads pay.

SPARK THE CAUSE.

W. T. Newman Places His Loss at Yesterday's Fire at $200—$400 Insurance.

The lively little blaze that threatened the property 439 West Second street with destruction early yesterday afternoon, was caused by a spark from a passing locomotive instead of from an overheated stove as was first supposed. The shingle roof was old and dry and burned readily. The house was owned by William T. Newman, a member of the fire department, who lives next door.

The loss is placed by Mr. Newman at $200, and is covered by $400 insurance. The loss to the contents of the house, the property of Mrs. M. J. Sealls, will amount to $25. There was no insurance. The fire was extinguished with the two streams from the chemical engine.

NEW UNIFORMS HERE

PLAINFIELD HIGH SCHOOL CADETS ARE NOW EQUIPPED.

Uniforms Arrived Yesterday—Three Fourths of the School Will be in Full Uniform—Bought of New York Firm.

The sudden appearance of cadet uniforms on the street yesterday afternoon and today was occasioned by the arrival of the new uniforms for the members of the cadet batallion of the Plainfield High School. The uniforms were made by a New York firm and reached here yesterday in charge of a representative of the firm. They were distributed at once.

Considering that there were so many to be made, they fitted very well. What few alterations necessary will be made by a Plainfield tailor at the expense of the makers. Regarding the officers' uniforms there was some misunderstanding regarding the style and some changes may be necessary.

As the State laws do not permit the use of shoulder straps by any organization outside of the State militia, the officers will be designated by the cheverons on the sleeve. It has not yet been decided what color the cheverons will be.

Three-fourths of the boys of the High School have purchased complete uniforms. Most of the others will get uniform caps and coats. The low price at which the uniforms can be procured make them advantageous purchases. Most of the boys will wear them everyday as well as at the times for drill.

MORE TROLLEY TALK.

Riker to Ask for Modification of Ordinance—Two Routes for Reaching Elizabethport.

Elizabeth, Jan. 10.—Since accepting the city's ordinance the Westfield & Elizabeth Street Railway Company has seemingly made no move toward taking possession of the right of way over Jersey avenue.

President Ryan said that he understood the company is waiting for favorable weather, and will begin very early in the spring to lay the tracks. He expected to learn before this that the company was engaged in getting consent for a belt line, or route to the lower part of the city. One route is to be as outlined recently through East Broad street, Magnolia avenue, Division street and Court street, to Front street. The other route is to be to the sound front by way of Bayway. Mr. Ryan said the company would make application for these franchises, he believed, in a short time.

The Council will be asked to remove the section providing for a five-cent fare to Cranford after five years, and, it is alleged, the amendment to be proposed is to extend the time for 15 years before the low fare shall go into effect.

A COMPLETE SURPRISE.

A Jolly Party Invade the Home of Mr. and Mrs. MacPherson.

Mr. MacPherson, assistant manager at Crosby & Hill's, and wife, were surprised last night by a number of their friends at their home, 431 East Fifth street. The evening was spent in playing games, singing and recitations, at the end of which refreshments were served. The surprise was complete in every particular, and after Mr. and Mrs. MacPherson had recovered they proved to be an entertaining host and hostess.

The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Martin, the Misses Kathryn Daly, Mamie Casey, Anna Searing, Daisy Snyder, Sadie Searing, Josie Murphy, and Messrs. John Gaffney, J. O'Keefe and Elmer Cutting. Mrs. Coolbaugh, of Paterson, assisted her sister, Mrs. MacPherson, in entertaining the guests.

To Fill Place of Late Charles Potter.

The election of J. A. Smith as a director of the First National Bank, at the meeting held yesterday, was to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Charles Potter, Jr.

SWELL RESORT WHERE POKER IS THE GAME.

High-Toned People are Sponsors for the Gambling.

ONE YOUNG MAN LOST $180.

ONLY THE SELECT ARE ABLE TO OBTAIN ENTRANCE.

The Game is Politely Called "Whist," but it is Real Draw Poker Played for as High a Limit as $5—As an Extra Attraction an Elaborate Lunch is Served Those Who "Buck the Tiger."

A startling disclosure has just been made in high life in this city, which has caused quite a sensation in certain circles. The people interested are among Plainfield's best known, and are highly connected in society and church. They have been faithful in their atttndance at church Sunday morning, but the afternoons have been spent in going up against the seductive game of poker, but in this case politely called "whist" In fact those who have been invited to the secret place were given to understand that a quiet game of whist was to be played.

From time to time various young men have spent their time and money at the place in question, and for some time things were kept very quiet. How the thing happened to leak out was through the fact that several of those participating in the game lost a great deal of money. These facts reached the ears of their parents. One young man lost $180 according to his own admission; another lost $43, another $37.50 and still another his week's wages. These are only a few of those known, but it is said that there are many others who have lost smaller and greater amounts.

Those who have been conducting the resort are few in number, but of very pleasant manner and ability. It is said that out of their number selections are made as to who shall invite certain ones to the parlor of the "spider and the fly," and it is even said that the church is visited for the purpose of meeting certain people who are to be asked to have a quiet game of "whist."

After the uninitated have been playing a short time someone suggests that they try a little poker, just for fun. This lasts a little while, and then they begin to play for money. Of course, each man has a certain amount of confidence in his hand, and he is soon betting anywhere from $1 to $5. The joke is that none of the outsiders have been known to come out ahead. They are allowed to win for a few times and then they begin to lose until everything they have is gone.

An extra attraction at the place of meeting is the most excellent "lunch" provided, which is served gratuitously and which is a great inducement to the young men. It is understood that while the game is in progress a man is kept on duty at the door and no one is allowed to enter unless he is "all right." For some little time past the police have been on to the place, and it is understood that investigations are being made.

V. L. FRAZEE WAS HOST.

A Number of Friends Entertained in Hospitable Manner Last Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent L. Frazee entertained a number of friends at their residence in West End Park last evening. There were twenty-five present and a delightful evening was spent. Progressive euchre occupied the attention of the guests for a time. Miss Anna Vollin, of New York, and Francis J. Blatz won the first prizes. The second prizes went to Miss May E. McLaughlin and John G. McLoughlin. Miss Sheppard and John Powers carried off the booby prizes. A collation and dancing occupied the remainder of the evening.

Pleaded Not Guilty to Murder.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Jan. 10—A special session of the Union County Court was held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of arraigning Fred, alias Philip Davis, the negro who is charged with the murder of John Monks, and who was brought out from New York at noon by Chief of Police Tenney on a requisition. Judges VanSyckel and Vail were on the bench. A plea of not guilty was entered for the prisoner, who was then remanded for trial, which will take place at this term of court.

Mr Vail's Old Partner Dead.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Vail, of West Eighth street, were called to White Plains, N. Y., this week on account of the death of Mr. Vail's former partner, Mr. Gardner, which occurred a few days ago.

WELL RECOMMENDED.

Important Men Vouch for High Standard of Senor Lala's Lectures—At Music Hall Tuesday Night.

Plainfield is offered an unusual opportunity in the illustrated lecture that Ramon Reyes Lala will deliver in Music Hall Tuesday evening. Senor Lala has had great opportunities to study the land of his nativity, the Philippines, and he is particularly well qualified to speak with authority on the subjects that are now of great interest to all Americans, however they may view the expansion policy of the present administration.

Senor Lala, whose book on the history of the Philippines has attracted much general attention, has received letters of commendation from Governor Theo. Roosevelt, Admiral Dewey and many of the other prominent men of the country.

BIG JOB FOR THE CHIEF.

HE MUST SEE 200 TAX DELINQUENTS IN THE BOROUGH.

Warrants Turned Over to Chief Campbell by Justice Smalley for Those Who Have Not Paid Their Poll Tax.

There is a small war on in the borough. It started today and from now on there will be trouble for the two hundred or more persons who have failed to pay their delinquent poll or personal tax. Justice Smalley has just made his return of the warrant to Chief Marshall Campbell, and that official started in this morning to hunt up the delinquents. It will be a case of pay up or go to jail, and most all of them would rather settle then be locked up.

There are about 200 delinquents on the list and it will require considerable time to get around, but Chief Campbell is doing very well. Prior to 10 o'clock this morning he collected over $10 and thus far he has met with no reverses, but he is looking for trouble and will be ready for it when it comes. In placing the warrant in Chief Campbell's hands it relieves Collector George F. Brown of a great deal of work, which, with his present amount of work, would be too much for one man to attend to. Several persons who have heard of the new procedure have called at the collector's office and quickly settled their several accounts, and others are expected to do the same thing.

DELAYED AN HOUR.

Broken Eccentric Rod Delayed a Blue Line Flyer Yesterday Afternoon.

The Royal Blue Line flyer, that usually passes through Plainfield at a rate of sixty miles an hour shortly after 2 o'clock, was delayed in Plainfield yesterday afternoon for over an hour. The delay was occasioned by the breaking of the eccentric rod on one side of the locomotive. It was necessary to remove the rod and the train then continued its way, the locomotive using only one side. Drill engine, No. 67, pushed the train over the Fanwood hill and then it continued its way to Jersey City without further aid.

GRIGGS AND VICE-PRESIDENCY.

Would Not Decline the Nomination, But Doesn't Expect It.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Washington, Jan. 10—Attorney General Griggs yesterday intimated that he would not in the least be displeased if the nomination for Vice-President should be tendered him at the Republican National convention, but he said he thought that such a possibility was very remote.

The Attorney General said that he thought he ought not express any personal views in respect to the matter, and more than this he declined to say.

It was learned from an official, whose relations with Mr. Griggs are close, that the Attorney General has but little faith in the boom that is being made in his behalf by friends in New Jersey. He believes firmly in the sincerity of the friends who are pushing his name to the front, but he knows that New Jersey alone cannot nominate him, and he has not yet learned that his name is being boomed by any other State.

Westfield Bank Directors.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Jan. 10—The stockholders of the First National Bank here held their annual meeting yesterday, and elected directors as follows: A. D. Cook, J. B. Connolly, C. G. Endicott, H. L. Finck, Dr. J. B. Harrison. The officers are: A. D. Cook, president; C. G. Endicott, vice-president; and J. B. Connolly, cashier.

Reception to Newly Married Couple.

Col. and Mrs. Mason W. Tyler will give a reception to their son and his bride Friday afternoon and evening at Col. Tyler's home on West Seventh street. It will be followed by a dance for the younger set.

GOVERNOR NAMES THEM

APPOINTMENTS THAT MR. VOORHEES WILL HAVE TO MAKE.

List of Retiring Officials Suggests the Gradual Disappearance of Democratic Officials That Once Ruled Jersey.

Governor Voorhees will have quite a bit of patronage at his disposal during the present year. The list of retiring officials suggests the gradual disappearance of Democratic officeholders throughout the State. A few years ago every county judge and every prosecutor of the pleas was a Democrat. It seems now as if the day is rapidly approaching when not a Democratic head will be left in the 21 counties. The only Democratic judges are Woodruff in Mercer, Conover in Monmouth and Bartine in Somerset, and the only Democratic prosecutors are Stagg in Bergen, Budd in Burlington, Acton in Salem and Dungan in in Somerset. These retire this year, and their successors will be Republicans. Following is a list of the appointments which the governor will make this winter, subject to the approval of the senate.

Circuit Court Judges—Francis Child and Richard T. Miller; terms expire March 11th. The report is that Judge Child will be reappointed and that ex-Governor Werts (Dem.) stands a chance of the other place.

Supervisor of State Prison—E. J. Anderson (Rep.); term expires June 11th. Likely to be reappointed.

Commissioner of Banking and Insurance—William Bettle (Rep.); April 1st. Will be reappointed.

State Board of Assessors—Robert S. Green; term expires March 3d. Stephen J. Meeker; term expires March 10th.

Commissioners of Pilotage—Henry W. Miller, John R. DeWar, Henry C. Gulick, Mark Townsend, Daniel C. Chase, John C. Weaver, all May 11th.

Reform School For Boys—Nathaniel S. Rue, Horace L. Dunham, May 25th.

Girls' Industrial School—This board has undergone a complete shake up during the year. Four vacancies occur in May.

Managers of the New Jersey Home for Feeble Minded Women—Benjamin F. Lee, Z. K. Pangborn, Barton F. Thorne, all May 17.

County Judges—Mercer, Robert S. Woodruff, April 1; Monmouth, J. Clarence Conover, April 1; Somerset, John D. Bartine, April 4; Essex, J. Franklin Fort, April 1.

Prosecutors of the Pleas—Bergen, Peter W. Stagg, March 18; Burlington, Eckard P. Budd, April 4; Camden, Wilson H. Jenkins, deceased, vacancy being now filled ad interim, March 22; Salem, Jonathan W. Acton, April 22; Somerset, Nelson Y. Dungan, Feb. 19.

State Board Medical Examiners—Aaron K. Baldwin, George F. Wilbur, Edwin De Baun, July 5.

The governor also has several appointments independent of the senate, including a police justice for West Orange and members on the state boards of pharmacy, dentistry and health.

FOWLER HOLDS THE KEY.

New Jersey Congressman Seeks to Enjoin Rapid Transit Scheme.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Jan. 10—Next Monday the Rapid Transit Commissioners of New York city are to open bids for the construction of the road, but a legal battle will yet remain to be fought before any contract can be awarded.

Congressman Charles N. Fowler, of this city, has filed a bill of complaint against the city of New York and the Rapid Transit Commissioners in the office of the clerk of the United States Circuit Court for the southern district of New York.

Mr. Fowler, through his attorneys, Gifford, Sterns & Hobbs, of 58 Pine street, alleges that the adoption by the Rapid Transit Commissioners of the plans for a four track road on which bids are asked constitutes a violation of devices and rights covered by letters patent held by him.

In the bill he prays that the respondents may be required to make answer, and that during the pendency of the suit and petpetually they may be enjoined from infringing on the letters patent.

Washington Camp Officers

The following officers have been elected by Washington Camp, No. 30, P. O. S. of A.: President, Harry Leek; vice-president, Robert Sowden; master of forms, Fred Rose; recording secretary, C. McMurtrie; financial secretary, George Allen; treasurer, N. H. Saxton; conductor, D. J. Smith; inspector, J. Ayres; outside guard, Walter Stewart; trustee, Frank Bailey.

A Chance to Be Heard.

The property owners on Somerset street interested in the widening will meet tomorrow evening at the Council rooms and discuss the subject. It is to be hoped that everyone will be present.

OFFICERS TAKE THEIR CHAIRS FOR THE YEAR.

Joint Installation at G. A. R. Hall Last Night.

MANY PERSONS PRESENT.

DR. BERG INSTALLED AS COMMANDER OF WINFIELD SCOTT POST.

Installation Ceremonies Were Conducted by Past Department Commander Smith—W. R. C. and S. of V. Officers Assume Their Duties—An Interesting Programme Carried Out After Business.

A large number of people assembled last evening in G. A. R Hall to witness the joint installation of the officers-elect of Post No. 73, Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans, and also to enjoy a pleasing programme of music and recitation. Past Commander E. C. Morse was master-of-ceremonies.

The officers of the G. A. R. were installed first by Past Department Commander W. C. Smith, as follows: Commander, Dr. Joseph F. Berg; senior vice-commander, Francis Whiteley; junior vice commander, Augustus Runyon; surgeon, Israel Compton; officer of the day, I. L. McVoy; chaplain, John Goodwin; officer of the guard; John Finley; adjutant, E. C. Morse; quartermaster, John Naylor; quartermaster-sergeant, W. Townley; delegates to department encampment, Francis Whiteley, Israel Compton; alternates, V. W. Nash, William Alpaugh; trustees, W. C. Smith, William Hand, M. C. Dobbins.

Then followed the installation of the officers of the Women's Relief Corps by Past President, Mrs. W. C. Smith. The officers are as follows: President, Mrs. Caspar Bolsterli; senior vice-president, Mrs. W. R Mattox; junior vice-president, Mrs. Charles Stephens; chaplain, Mrs. M. C. Dobbins; conductor, Mrs. E C. Morse: assistant conductor, Mrs. Isaac Brokaw; guard, Mrs. Alex. Sergeant; color bearers, Mrs. Devine and Mrs. Huntington.

Last came the installation of the Sons of Veterans by Past Captain H. C. McVoy, as follows: Captain, E. P. T. Smith; first lieutenant, George Bedford; second lieutenant, Frank Perry; chaplain, Rev. W. C. O'Donnell; first sergeant, Willard V. Sutton; quartermaster, H. C. McVoy; color sergeant, Clifford Compton; sergeant of the guard, Raymond McVoy; corporal of the guard, Edward Devine; picket guard, W. Perrine; camp council, Raymond McVoy, Frank Perry and Clifford Compton. Two or three of the above officers were absent and they will be installed at the next meeting.

In addition to the installation exercises which were of a very satisfactory order, an interesting programme of music and recitation was given which included instaumental selections by Miss Berg, cornet; Mrs. Pfender, piano; G. T. Dunham, trombone; Martin Korff, violin, and there were patriotic songs by Dr. Berg, accompanied by Mrs. Pfender, piano, and Miss Berg, cornet. There were recitations by Miss Mertie Randolph, and a pleasing vocal solo by Miss Etta Raybert, accompanied by Miss Emma Nelson on the piano. A fine piano selection was given by Miss Symons, and a thrilling recitation was given by John Becker which brought down the house. Among the vocal soloists that won applause was Mrs. John Manley, who gave some of her best selections. The artists were all remembered and received handsome bouquets. After the rendition of the above there were short patriotic addresses by members of the Post, Corps and Sons of Veterans in the good of the order. There were a number of out of town veterans present who spoke, including James Atwood, of Trenton. The affair throughout was very enjoyable, and closed with the singing of "My Country 'tis of Thee."

SLATER'S ASSAILANT GOES FREE.

Rahway Young Man Does Not Appear to Press the Complaint.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New York, Jan. 10.—Walter Rosser, the medical student, who shot Frederick Slater, of Rahway, at Madison Square Garden a month ago last night, in the presence of five thousand people, was yesterday discharged by Magistrate Pool in the Jefferson Market Police Court.

The Magistrate said because Slater did not appear to prosecute the prisoner there was nothing to do but dismiss Rosser from custody. The young man, who had been in the Tombs, walked out of the court room a free man.

—Special sale of two baskets of choice Baldwin, Greening, Northern spy and Smith's cider apples at Neuman Bros. Prices to suit all.

BEVERIDGE AND HOAR

Senate Listens to Eloquence on Philippine Question.

BOY SENATOR OF INDIANA IMPRESSIVE

Senator From Massachusetts Says Courts, Schools, Churches, Peace and Order Were Maintained by the Filipinos.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—"That man little knows the common people of the republic, little understands the instincts of our race, who thinks we will not hold it (the Philippine archipelago) fast and hold it forever, administering just government by simplest methods."

This sentence was the keynote of the speech delivered in the senate yesterday by Mr. Beveridge, the junior senator from Indiana. It was the maiden speech in the senate of about the youngest member of the body. The announcement that he would deliver an address embodying his observations in the Philippines attracted an unusually large number of auditors to the galleries. On the floor of the senate every member in the city was in his seat, and scores of representatives came over from the house. The occasion was inspiring, and Mr. Beveridge rose to it brilliantly. His oration—for properly it was an oration—was deeply interesting. It was replete with striking sentences and well arranged information. He spoke with all the earnestness, vigor and eloquence of a fine orator enthusiastic in his subject, who rose at times to his subject with the power of passionate dramatic utterance. The speech created a profound impression upon all who heard it.

Mr. Beveridge is scholarly and refined in appearance, with a striking face and figure. Throughout his speech he was easy and natural and entirely free from mannerisms. He spoke rapidly and with great earnestness. When he declared with deep solemnity to those "whose voices in America have cheered those misguided natives on to shoot our soldiers down that the blood of those dead and wounded boys of ours is on their hands, and the flood of years can never wash that stain away," there was a deep although suppressed sensation among his auditors.

At the conclusion of the speech tremendous and unrestrained applause swept over the galleries, and it was notable that Secretary of the Treasury Gage, who occupied a seat in the senators' gallery, was a participant in it.

Mr. Hoar (Republican of Massachusetts) replied briefly to Mr. Beveridge. Although he did not enter fully into the merits of the question under discussion, he did not feel that some of the Indiana senator's statements ought to go to the country unchallenged. He declared that not the American opposition to the war, but the president's proclamation to the Filipinos, was responsible for the hostilities. He ridiculed Mr. Beveridge's statement that the Filipinos were incapable of self government and quoted General Otis' reports to show that they were.

He thought it would be necessary to revise the constitution before those Filipinos could be bought and sold. He did not believe Mr. Beveridge would advise the American people to do this thing or to do anything so base as to strike down the infant Filipino republic.

The Massachusetts senator made frequent references to and quotations from the reports of General Otis and Admiral Dewey and other officers in the Philippines. These showed that when Aguinaldo arrived in Luzon from Hongkong the insurgents had an army of 30,000; in the island of Luzon the Filipinos maintained courts, schools, municipal governments and churches and that peace and order prevailed pretty generally. Spanish prisoners were kindly treated. "This," declared Mr. Hoar, "is the condition of things which it is proposed to crush under our heels. And that," he commented, "you call glory."

Mr. Hoar declared that practically every statement of fact in the speech was refuted by government reports received from Admiral Dewey, General Otis and from other official sources. Where did Spain get the right to sell her rights in the Philippines? Mr. Hoar asked. Where did the United States get the right to buy and sell people like sheep? He was certain that for all the wealth and commerce and glory which he had eloquently depicted the senator from Indiana would not have a great injustice done.

Newfoundland Legislature.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Jan. 10.—The governor, Sir Hugh McCallum, by proclamation has prorogued the Newfoundland legislature until Feb. 1. This means that the negotiations with the British cabinet over the French shore modus vivendi have not yet been completed, but that they are likely to culminate very soon. Otherwise the prorogation would have been for a longer period. Should the matter be amicably arranged by the end of next week the governor will then issue a further proclamation summoning the legislature to meet on Feb. 1 for the dispatch of business.

A Collector Killed.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 10.—Wood E. Mitchell, a collector for a furniture company, tried to foreclose a mortgage on some stock on the farm of C. D. French, near Grandview, south of this city, when Thomas Westlake, a hired hand, emptied the contents of a shotgun into Mitchell's breast, killing him instantly. Westlake had ordered Mitchell to leave the farm but the latter refused, when Westlake procured a gun and deliberately fired Westlake surrendered.

A State Bank Closed.

MITCHELL, S. D., Jan. 10.—The State bank of Plankinton, owned by D. D. Stevens, failed to open its doors yesterday owing to Stevens' absence. Stevens went east Saturday, presumably to secure assistance, and wired his cashier not to open the bank. Stevens owned a drug store, which he transferred to his head clerk. It being the only bank here, nearly every business man was caught in the failure.

Electricity Fires a Building.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 10.—The three story brick dye house of O. J. Meinhart's Sons in the northeastern section of the city was destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of $15,000. An uninsulated electric light wire is supposed to have caused the blaze.

A Gift For Oberlin.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 10.—L. H. Severance, formerly treasurer of the Standard Oil company, has given $60,000 to Oberlin college laboratory.

ELMIRA REFORMATORY.

Serious Reflections Concerning the Management of the Institution.

ALBANY, Jan. 10.—Serious reflections upon the methods employed in the Elmira reformatory are made by State Comptroller Morgan, who has been investigating the institution. Among other things he says:

"A recent inspection of the Elmira reformatory by this department disclosed the presence in a storeroom, which was in a very untidy, dirty condition, of 4,304 pairs of pants, 1,580 coats, 425 vests, 1,116 pairs of shoes, 1,138 shirts, 1,612 pairs of drawers, 1,273 caps and much other clothing, such as jumpers, overalls, aprons, blankets, etc., all in an unwashed dirty condition and apparently abandoned. They had been used somewhat, but if properly cared for they were still fit for service. The superintendent professed to know nothing of these supplies and had made requisition for a large quantity of new cloth to make up into clothing.

"The average number of inmates reported for last year was 1,475. Experience has shown that 1,000 is the outside number that can be properly cared for in such an institution.

"The reformatory is organized and maintained at great expense with a view of reclaiming offenders against the law who have not become confirmed in vice yet all shades, grades and conditions of male criminals may be found within its walls. Murderers and old offenders are there, mixed in with young men and boys who with proper surroundings and care might be reclaimed. And this is not all. Large numbers of the inmates are chronically affected in mind and body. On the 1st of December there were 100 well defined cases of tuberculosis in the institution. During the year 42 insane inmates were sent from there to Matteawan, and 24 hardened criminals were recently transferred to the state prison at Auburn Some imbeciles are also there."

Doctor Kills a Child.

HAMPTON, Ia., Jan. 10.—Dr. G. W Appleby, for several years the leading physician at Bristow, Butler county, last night in a fit of insanity killed a 10-month-old child of Henry Wearley of this place while making an examination of it in Dr. Hobson's office in this city. The parents had brought the child to Dr Hobson's office to be treated for some trifling ailment and before he had time to attend to it was called out. Dr. Appleby who was visiting Dr. Hobson, was in the office, and the latter suggested that Dr Appleby should make the necessary examination, which, as soon as Dr. Hobson had left the office, he proceeded to do He took the child in his arms and handled it so roughly that the parents protested, but to no avail. Suddenly he put his thumbs under its chin and, with his fingers on top of its head, crushed its face in so that the blood gushed out of its nose and mouth. Then, jumping up, he seized the child by one foot and began swinging it around his head, resisting all efforts of the terror stricken parents to stop him, and it was not until help was called is that the child was taken from him. It was quite dead. Appleby declared that God had taken the child.

Three Mississippians Shot.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Jan. 10.—Oakridge, a little hamlet 18 miles northeast of this city, was the scene yesterday of a pistol fight in which three of the best known residents of the county were killed. The dead are A. D. Rolland, R. S Stephenson and Dr. Otho Austin. Only meager details of the encounter are obtainable, but it transpires that Dr. James Austin, his son, Otho Austin, and his son-in-law, R. S. Stephenson, had been arrested on an affidavit sworn out by Rolland charging them with whipping one of Rolland's negro tenants. The trial was set for yesterday morning in Justice Griffin's court at Oakridge. The trial had hardly opened when the shooting began. When the smoke had cleared away Rolland, Stephenson and Otho Austin were stretched on the floor dead, and Dr James Austin and a young son of Rolland were seriously wounded.

Democrats In Caucus.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—A well attended caucus of the Democratic members of the house of representatives was held last night. Mr. Newlands of Nevada of the silver party was present by invitation of Mr. Richardson, the Democratic floor leader, for the purpose of presenting a plan for united action by all of the elements opposed to the Republican organization. The actual business transacted by the caucus was confined to the adoption of a resolution for the appointment of the usual committee of one member from each state to look after congressional elections.

Lawyers Fined For Contempt.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 10.—Judge Cantrill has fined General P. Wat Hardin and Theodore Hallam, attorneys for John H. Whallen, $20 each for contempt. The court held that the petition filed by them demanding an immediate trial of Whallen was contempt and entered an order dismissing the petition.

Fifty Thousand to Tufts College.

BOSTON, Jan. 10.—Walter Scott Dickson, a retired shoe manufacturer of Salem, has given Tufts college $50,000 for the purpose of establishing a new professorship.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—FLOUR—State and western was inactive and rather weak. Minnesota patents, $3.80a4.05; winter straights, $3.40a3.45; winter extras, $2.55a2.90.

WHEAT—Market opened weak under cable news, but subsequently rallied slightly on foreign buying; March, 74 9-16a 74⅝c.; May, 73 11-16a73 13-16c.

RYE—Steady; state, 55a56c, c. t. f., New York, car lots; No. 2 western, 60½c, f. o. b. afloat.

CORN—Market opened weak through the influence of cable news and the drop in wheat and was dull all the morning.

OATS—Quiet; track, white, state, 31a 35c; track, white, western, 31a35c.

PORK—Firm; mess, $10.25a10.75; family, $12a12.50.

LARD—Easy; prime western steam, $6.15.

BUTTER—Steady; state dairy, 20a28c, state creamery, 25a30c.

CHEESE—Firm; fall made, fancy small, 12¾a13c.; fall made, fancy, large, 12¾a13c.

EGGS—Weak and lower; state and Pennsylvania, 24c.; western, 24c., loss off, western, ungraded at mark, 16a22c.

SUGAR—Raw strong; fair refining, 3⅝c.; centrifugal, 96 test, 4 5-16c. Refined firm; crushed, 5.45c.

MOLASSES—Quiet, but firm; New Orleans, 32a40c.

RICE—Steady; domestic, 4a6¼c.; Japan 4¾a5c.

TALLOW—Steady; city, 5⅛c., bid; country, 5¼a5⅝c.

HAY—Firm; shipping, 72½a80c.; good to choice, 80a87½c.

Demulcent Cream

Will soften the skin.
Will prevent roughness.
Will please everyone.
"Is a Delightful Cream to use."

Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.

M. E. Stephenson,
- - CATERER - -
Tel. 624. 146 North Ave.

STATIONERY and TOYS.
We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles.
CARDS and CALENDARS.
We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.
High Grade Cigars.
Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.
B. W. HAND,
205 W. Front Street.

CHAS. L. FOROE.
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 21 tf

H. Eggerding,
131 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made of the purest tobacco from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.
Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .
Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot AND Tar is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

WANTED
The address of all AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS in Plainfield and vicinity. If you will send us your address on a postal card we will be glad to furnish you with our latest price list. Our line is complete, and goods are always fresh and our prices are the lowest.
Geo. W. Wrennick,
133 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

TRY THE
QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No 337 Park Avenue
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .
in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated
DOMESTIC FINISH.
Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.
Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.
Trading Stamps given.
The City Steam & Hand Laundry
MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B
19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store, 128 Park avenue.

The fat undertaker,
Who plants by the acre,
Poor victims of cough and cold,
Is sighing and crying,
For we've all stopped dying
Since Brazilian Balm was sold.
And for those who desire
Not just yet to go higher
It is worth its weight in gold.

For sale by all druggists. L. W. Randolph, Wholesale Agent.

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING
is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.
MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor 2d ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates Furnished. Telephone call 635

THE East End Feed Store.
—:—PRICE LIST—:—

Best Mixed Oats	78c	bag
Best White Clipped Oats	84c	bag
No. 1 Timothy Hay	85c	100 lb
No. 2 Timothy Hay	84c	100 lb
Best Bran	90c	100 lb
Wheat	1.90	100 lb

Flour, Feed, Straw, etc., at low prices; satisfactory to all.
Call at once and leave your orders at the office:
409 East Third St,
and you will go away with the feeling of recommending us to your friends.
We also deal in
Blue Stone, Flagging and Curbing
with the neatest and best work.
Stone arrangements will be made by
A. KANE, PROPRIETOR.
Hay and Feed arrangements with
A. F. McKEON, Manager
TELEPHONE 913

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
81 Steiner place, North Plainfie
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, etc. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.
Yard 736 to 737 South Ave.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in fresh and salted meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview avenue and Somerset street.

COPYRIGHT 1899
THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM
will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.
Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.
The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.
FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

GEO. O. STEVENS & CO.
COAL.
747 WEST FRONT ST.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
211 West Front Street.
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . .
: SPECIALS :
For This Week.
U. S. club skates.
Shinny sticks.
Skate Straps.
Boys' sleighs.
" coasters.
Steel snow shovels.
Wood " "
Carpet sweepers.
Oil heaters.
Parlor stoves reduced
The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS.
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.
A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

DOBBINS.
CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

John G. Bantle,
First-class
Ladies' and Gent's
TAILOR.
428 Watchung Avenue.
Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
TELEPHONE 1163.

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS
For the Fire-place. Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates. Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park avenue. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87.

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 140 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.
We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc,
A Big Assortment.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.
Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

Flynn Bros.,
SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods
Have stood the test for years.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscriber, executor of Elizabeth D. Baker, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the twenty-seventh day of December next.
Dated November 22d, 1899.
11 22 5 oaw SAMUEL C. MOUNT.

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
Paris for 1900.
Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.
Circulars at
181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

Defective Eyes.
Overstrained and Defective Eyes are the cause of many a
HEADACHE.
Correctly-fitted Glasses will remedy the trouble. A Scientific Examination Free and Glasses Guaranteed.
STILES & CO.,
107 E. Front St.
EVERY THURSDAY.
Hours: 10:30 to 5:00.

Advertised Mail Matter.

JANUARY 8, 1900.

Adelson, Mr B	Knox, Miss Alice
Alner, Mr A R	Laverty, Mrs D H
Banta, Miss A B	McCarthy, Miss May
Barr, Mr John 2	Mantie Miss
Bartlett, Mr Phillip	Martin, Mr John H
Batchelor, Rufus W	Mathewson, Mrs El'th
Bolce, Mrs Bessie	Murphy, E L
Boorom, Miss Mary	Pearson, Miss Marion
Borden, Miss Helen	Pendergart, Mr E
Bowman, Miss Clara	Parrott, Miss E
Binten, Mr William	Person, Mrs M
Colbert, Miss Eliza	Presberger, Mr M
Cotton, Miss Bessie	Rogers, Mrs Willis H
Drake, Mr C	Rynd, Mr Emily
Drake, Mr Fred V	Schauenburg, Mrs
Ecoreth, Egbert C	Scott, (Col'd) Mr Ben
Fernald, Mrs Lizzie	Smalley, L M
Gratten, Miss Annie	Thomas, Miss C D
Grant, Ida M	Thompson, Mr J H
Hawkins, Mrs W A 2	Tolyor, Mrs Silvie
Hemming, Esq, J C	Weeks, Mrs Edw F
Hennessey, Mrs My 3	Yale, Mrs C H
	Yale, Mrs C M

B. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue
BUTCHERS.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83 A.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills
25c.
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, Etc.
Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 27 A.

WAR NEWS HELD UP.

Nothing Heard From Natal Since Sunday.

RUMORS OF JOUBERT'S INJURY

Great Britain's Loss Now Amounts to Nearly Eight Thousand—Great Anxiety For Ladysmith Garrison and Blame For Buller.

LONDON, Jan. 10.—The war office has not contributed the least particular as to what is taking place in Natal since Sunday. Neither has it allowed the dispatches of correspondents to get through. Consequently the facts of the situation are replaced by conjectures, and the impatience of the public pours itself into a discussion of the conduct of the war and of what might have been done or ought now to be done.

The Morning Post demands that the forces afield, afloat and in preparation shall be increased by 65,000 men. To this end it urges that all the trained men the country possesses, militia and volunteers, shall be called out, asserting incidentally that, although the attitude of other powers is correct in the diplomatic sense of the word, an invasion, if attempted, would be sudden and that now is the time to apprehend contingencies.

The Daily News editorially defines the public opinion of the continent as "in a state which should not be ignored." It calls for "greater vigilance than ever on the part of those responsible for the efficiency of the navy."

The Daily Mail's Estcourt (Natal) correspondent states that Commandant General Joubert has been seriously injured and will take no further part in the war His horse was shot from under the general and rolled over on him, causing a rupture and serious injury to the spine.

Great Britain's losses since the war began are fast approaching 8,000. A war office compilation of casualties issued last evening shows a total of 7,213—1,027 killed, 3,675 wounded and 2,511 missing These do not include 140 who have succumbed to disease nor the casualties at Ladysmith last Saturday.

Major General Prior, commanding the Fifteenth brigade, under orders to proceed to South Africa, died on Monday.

A dispatch to The Daily Chronicle, dated at Frere camp, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, says:

"There has been no bombardment of Ladysmith today, nor any shelling at Chieveley by the British guns."

The Berlin correspondent of The Daily Mail gives under reserve a report that 45,000 lyddite shells have been turned out by the Krupp works, which are not destined for England, but were ordered some time ago by Dr. Leyds.

The Daily Mail has the following dispatch, dated Sunday, Jan. 7, from Cape Town:

"Dordrecht is now garrisoned by 1,000 rebels, thus releasing the Orange Free State troops for service elsewhere."

The Daily Graphic makes the following statement regarding the seizures of German vessels by British warships:

"Germany has addressed two notes to the British foreign office challenging Great Britain's right to detain any vessels traveling between two neutral ports. These notes have been duly answered.

"The queen's government find themselves wholly unable to acquiesce in Germany's contention. Germany cited a case in support of her contention, but on examination this so called precedent proved to be quite inapplicable to the seizures under discussion.

"The correspondence between the two governments rests there, pending a decision by the prize court."

The remarkable revolution in Boer tactics has been another complete surprise to the British, who had not reckoned on the weakened garrison of Ladysmith being subjected to such a courageous assault, and it is realized that General White's troops cannot be expected to lengthily prolong such an arduous defense. In some quarters it is considered unaccountable that General Buller did not press his attempt to effect a passage of the Tugela river while the Boers were engaged northward, and the comments on his apparent supineness are nowise complimentary.

Advices from the Modder river say the Boers continue to extend their works, and it is estimated that 30,000 men are required to defend them.

Little change is apparent in the position at Colesberg. General French reported to the war office Sunday morning, Jan. 7, that he had reconnoitered with a squadron of the Household cavalry on the Boers' east flank, two miles from Achtertank, and drew a considerable force of burghers, who, being anxious for their communications with Norval's Pont, withdrew.

The casualties of the Suffolks near Colesberg were: Killed, Colonel Watson and Lieutenants Wilkins, Carey and White and 23 men; missing, Captains Brett, Thomson and Brown and Lieutenants Rants, Allen, Wood-Martin and Butler and 107 men; wounded, 21 men.

General French further reports that the casualties of the other regiments to Jan. 4 were 12 men killed and 44 wounded.

German Steamer Released.

ADEN, Jan. 10.—The imperial German mail steamer General, detained here by the British authorities since Jan. 4 on suspicion of having contraband of war on board, has been released. After her cargo had been examined it was found that she only had a few chemicals and axletrees on board. Nothing else was disclosed. A quantity of Triest flour, brought by a Lloyd's steamer supposed to be bound for the Transvaal, has been held pending the decision of a prize court.

Newark City Home Burned.

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 10.—The Newark City Home, a reformatory for children at Verona, N. J., was burned to the ground last night, involving a loss of nearly $100,000. Three hundred inmates were got out in safety and about 275 were marched a couple of miles to the other institutions, where they were placed in confinement. About 25 boys are missing, but they are all known to have got out of the building in safety.

Another Arrest In Montreal.

MONTREAL, Jan. 10.—Ernest Fellowes, a brother of the bucketshop man of that name already arrested in connection with the Ville Marie bank wrecking case, surrendered himself yesterday and was remanded in the custody of the detectives. The charge against him is the same as that against his brother—namely, receiving money known to have been stolen. This is the tenth arrest in the case.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anaesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

EDUCATIONAL.

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
ADELLA C. PHELPS, ARTIST.
Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
PIANO AND THEORY
Home Studio,
136 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN,
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

Piano Instruction
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
925 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to

Pride's Tonsorial Parlor
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty.....
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
WILLIAM J. PRIDE,
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmon
Telephone 601

Don't be wasting you money and paying high prices for frames. Come and get your framing done with the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street,
where you will find a large assortment in ready-made frames and the latest styles in mouldings to make up frames to order at prices that will surprise you. Also fine drawings in crayons and pastels from all kinds of photographs.
Best Satisfaction Guaranteed.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.
Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:20 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:20 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
E. H. BIRD, P. M.

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS.
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Fires for Picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.
T. M. INGRAHAM.

Wedding and Reception Decorations, Floral Designs & Bouquets A SPECIALTY.
Cut flowers fresh every day. Palms, ferneries, southern smilax at 10 days' notice.
MRS. L. J. DENTON, Florist,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaBue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

COLLIER
EYE SPECIALIST,
108 Park Ave.....
Established 1869. Eyes Examined Free.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing,
Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly
TELEPHONE 148 b.

OUR OYSTERS
ARE THE
---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

E. B. Maynard, NEW SHOP NEW FURNITURE BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist...
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.
In Use For Over Thirty Years
CASTORIA
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

"SOROSIS!"
The most popular shoe sold for women. 3,000 pairs turned out of the factory each work day. The best $3.50 shoe in every respect made. We sell them, as well as other lines at a higher price, and also as low as 98c. $1.25, $1.50, $2.00, etc. Good winter shoes for men $1.25, $1.50, $2.00 and up to $5 and $6. Felt Slippers, Rubber Boots, Arctics, Rubbers, everything you need in the shoe line. Peddles Trunks, Dress Suit Cases and Traveling Bags.
DOANE & EDSALL . . . .

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.
Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.
The Delineator and Glass of Fashion for January Now Ready.
Ask for the January Fashion Sheet.
A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE, AGENTS.
144 PARK AVENUE, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.
Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.
at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Wieda's
Manufactured at the Premises,
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
146 West Front St. Phone. 1152.

FIRE!!!
When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by
ELSTON M. FRENCH.
Largest agency in the city
163 Nort Ave., opp. Depot.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

TAX LAW CHANGES.

Real Estate Should Be Relieved of Its Burden.

VIEWS OF NEW YORK'S COMPTROLLER

Would Raise Funds by Indirect Taxation, Induce Corporations to Come to the State by Reducing Tax and Tax Foreign Capital.

ALBANY, Jan. 10.—State Comptroller William J. Morgan, in his first annual report to the legislature, makes some highly important recommendations for legislation and advocates radical changes in the state's attitude toward corporations and in the financial system of the state.

Briefly enumerated, they are as follows:

The elimination of a direct tax on real and personal estate, because real estate bears an extremely unfair proportion of the burden, and the providing of money for support of the state government by indirect tax, as is done in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

The making of a tax rate large enough to provide a sufficient sum to pay state expenses during the early part of each fiscal year, so as to avoid the necessity of borrowing money at high rates of interest.

The elimination from the supply bills of items except such deficiencies as occur through oversight in making up the general appropriation bill.

The taxation of capital "invested, employed or held" in this state so as to prevent corporations from escaping a state tax by alleging that their capital is invested but not employed.

The prevention of corporations from escaping direct taxation locally on personal property through the payment of a small indirect tax to the state.

Providing that every incorporated company, regardless of the business engaged in, except quasi public corporations, such as transmission companies, now paying on gross earnings, shall be taxed on their authorized capital, the tax to increase as dividends increase.

The reduction of the organization tax in this state so as to encourage companies to organize here instead of in other states.

The enactment of an amendment to the corporation laws that will be less onerous than the present one as to liability of directors of corporations, without permitting wrecking or swindling.

Compelling religious and charitable institutions to pay the inheritance tax on bequests, the same as widows and children.

The completion of the nine foot improvement to the canal, the installing of hydraulic locks and the introduction at once of electricity for propulsion, to be furnished by the state and sold for transmission at cost.

Undoubtedly the most important part of Mr. Morgan's recommendations are those which he makes in regard to the tax laws of the state. He says in his opening paragraph that the present laws are replete with inconsistencies and that they do not distribute the burden of taxation fairly and justly among the taxpayers. He points out that while it is conceded that personal property is greater in value in the state than real property yet real property stands seven times as much taxation as personal. He demonstrates, by citing an instance in which a piece of real estate showed a practical loss on the investment, and continues:

"This is no exaggerated statement of the desperate condition which real estate in the interior cities is in at the present time. It will hardly pay carrying charges on the average and hence is practically worthless for investment purposes. Should the direct tax be removed by the suggested revision, it would lift about $11,000,000 a year from the overburdened back of real estate, which would be a great measure of relief."

Valuable Christmas Presents.

DENVER, Jan. 10.—Daniel H. Moffat the millionaire mine owner and banker has again attracted public notice, this time through his gifts to two employees George Ross Lewin, cashier of the First National bank, and Thomas Keely, assistant cashier of that institution, are the lucky men. If they ever entertained a doubt that Mr. Moffat appreciated their services the doubt was dissolved on Christmas day when they received their gifts. There was $100,000 for Mr. Lewin and $75,000 for Mr. Keely as "tokens of Mr. Moffat's regard." The matter was kept very quiet and has just leaked out.

New Jersey Legislature.

TRENTON, Jan. 10.—The One Hundred and Twenty-fourth New Jersey legislature convened at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The corridors, galleries and floors of both houses were crowded, and there was a profuse floral display. The two houses organized by the election of the officers recently decided upon by the Republican caucuses. Senator Johnson of Bergen, taking the chair in the upper house, made a short speech thanking the members for the honor. Assemblyman Jones of Essex, speaker of the assembly also thanked the members of that body.

Five Million to Charity.

BOSTON, Jan. 10.—By the will of the late Robert Breck Brigham, a veteran hotel keeper of this city, filed for probate here, the bulk of an estate estimated at $5,000,000 is given to charity. The chief feature of the document is the provision made for the establishment of a new hospital in Boston to be known as the Robert B. Brigham Hospital For Incurables.

Two Officers Shot.

RIPLEY, Tenn., Jan. 10.—Marvin Turner and W. D. Turner, officers, arrested a desperate negro named Gingerly five miles north of here and were escorting him to the Ripley jail when two negroes, brothers of the prisoner, shot both officers in the back, killing them. A posse is in pursuit of the murderers, and if caught a lynching will follow.

Roosevelt Appoints Williams.

ALBANY, Jan. 10.—The designation by Governor Roosevelt of Justice Pardon C. Williams of Watertown as a justice of the appellate division bench, fourth department, to succeed Justice Walter Lloyd Smith, has been filed with the secretary of state.

Woodchopper Killed.

UTICA, N. Y., Jan. 10.—Alfred Thibadeau, a French-Canadian, was killed by a falling tree in the woods about seven miles from Nehasane in the Adirondacks. He was a member of a gang of wood choppers.

"I want a good soap for washing the clothes; they wear out too fast, and I believe the damage is done in the laundry."

"Let me send you a box of Ivory Soap. We know it is pure, and will not injure anything. Many of our customers will not have any other for their laundry work."

The box was sent, and one more family uses no other. Try it for one week in your laundry, and ask your laundress what she thinks of it.

Copyright, 1898, by The Procter & Gamble Co., Cincinnati.

SCHWAN ROUTS FILIPINOS.

American Troops Under Fire For First Time Act Bravely.

MANILA, Jan. 10.—After a long and tiresome march from San Pedro Macats General Schwan's brigade reached Muntinlupa on Friday evening.

The enemy left a half hour prior to the arrival of the Macabebe scouts. They were then retreating to the south. A cavalry scouting party was sent southward and reported that the insurgents were a short distance off. The insurgents opened fire, and the cavalry returned to camp, having had orders not to engage the enemy.

General Schwan early on the morning of Jan. 6 divided his command, sending two battalions of the Thirtieth regiment and Forty-sixth regiment, with a wagon train, along the coast toward Binang. The general himself proceeded along with the Macabebe scouts and Steele's battalion of the Thirtieth regiment, Colonel Hayes' cavalry and three mountain guns. He took the trail inland toward Binang.

When a short distance from the town, the Macabebe scouts and Hayes' 50 cavalry scouts encountered the enemy. The insurgents were soon routed. Two Americans were wounded. The enemy retreated across the mountain region of Silam. Major Nolan's squadron of the Eleventh cavalry went several miles to the westward, but failed to develop anything.

San Pedro Tunacan was deserted, and three gun carriages found in a cane field bore evidence that the guns had been recently removed. After our troops had reached the broad rice field near Benan the enemy were discovered calmly watching the advancing troops. They then occupied a position with the protection of a low stone wall along the creek a quarter of a mile long.

The Macabebe scouts deployed, followed by Steele's battalion of the Thirtieth regiment. The enemy were in plain view. A formation was effected, and the Americans were soon within range. When they were about 100 yards distant, the enemy opened fire, killing Corporal Johnson, Company E, and wounding two men of Company F of the Thirtieth regiment.

The men were never before under fire, but advanced cheering. The insurgents retreated to the town. When our troops reached the outskirts, they observed the enemy down the road in the plaza. Hayes' 50 cavalry scouts charged and were received with only a few shots. The enemy disappeared, but the presence of many amigos indicated that they were resorting to the old tactics.

CUBANS TALK FIGHT.

Advised to Prepare For Another Struggle For Freedom.

SANTIAGO, Cuba, Jan. 10.—Generals Rabi, Miro, Lara and Castro were received on their arrival from Havana with great enthusiasm. More than 5,000 persons met them at the wharf. They attended receptions at the Cuban clubs, and in the evening a large crowd gathered in the plaza to hear speeches detailing the result of the conferences with General Wood.

General Miro criticised the governor general, but said he had faith in President McKinley.

General Castro, in an incendiary harangue, advised the Cubans to prepare if necessary to renew the struggle against a new and stronger enemy.

General Rabi, on the other hand, said he had confidence in the purpose of the intervening nation to establish an independent Cuban republic.

All four of the returning delegates, on being interviewed, said that with the appointment of General Wood there was fresh ground for hoping that the independence of Cuba would soon be attained.

The local press, particularly the Cubano Libre, is very violent, advocating a "stiff policy." The Cubano Libre says, "All Cubans are ready to shed the last drop of blood to expel the intruders."

South Carolina Prosperous.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 10.—The general assembly of South Carolina assembled yesterday. In his annual message Governor McSweeney congratulates the general assembly upon existing conditions. There is no bitter political factionalism in the state, and South Carolina has advanced wonderfully in the year just closed. There has been no mob violence, and good order has prevailed. The condition of the state's finances is encouraging. The net income of railroads in the state for 1899 was $2,701,430.16.

TWO WOMEN CREMATED.

Perished In the Burning of Joseph Pulitzer's New York House.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Two women were burned to death today in a terrible fire that destroyed the palatial city house of Joseph Pulitzer, Nos. 10 and 12 East Fifty-third street. There were many thrilling escapes. At the risk of her own life Mrs. Pulitzer fought her way through smoke and heat up stairs to the nursery and rescued her 3-months-old baby, Herbert.

The fire started in the conservatory in the rear on the first floor. All the inside of the house is ruined. It was a storehouse of costly works of art. The loss will be at least $200,000.

Mrs. Jellett Was From Toronto.

TORONTO, Jan. 10.—Mrs. Jellett, who was burned to death in the fire that destroyed the Pulitzer home in New York, was a Toronto woman and was well known here. Her son, Morgan Jellett, is in the Dominion bank and very prominent in athletic circles, notably on the football field. A daughter also resides here.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

The Fifteenth United States infantry arrived at New York from Cuba.

The Prussian diet was opened with the speech from the throne read by Prince Hohenlohe.

The engineers have struck, and the entire railway system of Western Australia is tied up.

The United States cruiser Albany had a successful official trial trip at Newcastle, England.

Princess Irene, wife of Prince Henry of Prussia, brother of the emperor, gave birth to a son at Kiel.

A silver loving cup made from the melted dimes of over 70,000 contributors was presented to Admiral Dewey.

The Commercial Trust company of Philadelphia is said to be preparing for rivalry with the biggest banks of New York city.

The session of the French chamber of deputies was opened. M. Paul Deschanel was re-elected president of the chamber by a majority of 87 votes.

A Regiment to Aid the Boers.

OMAHA, Jan. 10.—John C. Mayer of Chadron, this state, prominent in political circles, is raising a regiment to go to the Transvaal in aid of the Boers. Mr. Mayer already has the names of 1,000 men who are ready to go as soon as the means can be raised to transport them thither. The plan is to embark them as citizens emigrating to the Transvaal to go into farming or mines and thus avoid interruption by the federal authorities under the requirements of international law.

Addicks Versus Gas Company.

BOSTON, Jan. 10.—Before Judge Lowell in the United States circuit court a hearing has begun in the case of J. Edward Addicks versus the Boston Gas Light company and the Massachusetts Pipe Line company. The plaintiff has filed bills of complaint in four suits, in each of which the Massachusetts Pipe Line company is named as one of the defendants. The other gas companies included in the Bay State company are also included.

Low Water Closes Factories.

WINSTED, Conn., Jan. 10.—The manufacturers in New Hartford, Pine Meadow, Collinsville and Unionville are seriously inconvenienced by the scarcity of water in the Farmington river, and the several factories have to be closed down every other day, running but three days in the week. In this city some of the firms that heretofore depended upon water power have been forced to resort to steam in order to get out their emergency orders.

Receiver For Boston Bank.

BOSTON, Jan. 10.—Colonel George W. Moses, president of the First Ward National bank, has been named by Comptroller of the Currency Dawes to be permanent receiver for the Broadway National bank. Colonel Moses will not take charge of the bank for at least 30 days. Mr. Wing, the temporary receiver, expects to pay a dividend of 50 per cent within 30 days.

Weather Probabilities.

Threatening and warmer, with probably rain tonight and clearing tomorrow afternoon; brisk southwesterly winds, increasing.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

205 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance.
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district
Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., JAN. 10, 1900

COMING EVENTS.

January 11—"My Mother-in-Law" at Music Hall.
January 13—"Si Plunkard" at Music Hall.
January 14—Harry Gee will address the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. at 4:15 p. m. Mrs. John Manley will sing. Instrumental music.
January 15—Union Bible class of Rev. D. M. Stearns at the Y. M. C. A. Hall at 7.45 p. m.
January 18—Annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A.

To Regulate Lobbying.

With the annual session of the Legislature at hand those who are anxious to see clean an honest legislation enacted are confronted with the realization that the "Third House" is on hand at the State Capitol, with all its intricate wires in good working shape, and that whenever important matters come up for consideration the influence of the old gang of lobbyists will make itself felt. Honest lobbying is not to be decried, but such outside persuasion as is usually brought into play by professional members of the "Third House" is almost always a cause for regret on the part of lovers of good government. How to lessen the influence of the lobby and place its practices in the open, is a problem that is not easy to solve considering the manner in which the lobbyists are intrenched at Trenton.

It is timely, therefore, that the attention of the Legislators at Trenton should be called to a bill that is already a law in Wisconsin, where it works with satisfaction, and is about to be introduced into the New York Legislature. This measure provides that a public register is to be kept containing the names of all lobbyists, the various bills to oppose and promote which they are employed and the names of the individuals or corporations by whom they are employed. Within thirty days after the adjournment of the Legislature persons or corporations employing lobbyists must make a detailed statement of expenditures to the Secretary of State.

The passage of such a law, and its strict enforcement, in New Jersey would undoubtedly act like a bomb shell in certain quarters of great influence now.

It seems that North Plainfield is not the only place where the problem of how to reduce to a minimum the chances of contagious diseases spreading is being considered by health officials. As has been pointed out by the local health authorities, Dr. Allen, of the Scranton Board of Health, calls attention to the fact that in too many instances children in whose home infectious diseases exist are permitted to associate with other children in the neighborhood. The laxity in regard to quarantine regulations is a common offense in most communities, and it is pointed out that in some instances health authorities and sanitary officers meet with great difficulty in the enforcement of laws and ordinances relative to contagious diseases, and occasionally find themselves obliged to resort to physical force in the performance of their duties. The only remedy lies in holding those who violate the law to strict accountability.

It is probably his belief in the old axiom that "a stitch in time saves nine" that caused Mayor Rockfellow to make the suggestion in his annual message that a man and a cart be employed the year around to traverse the macadamized streets of the city and repair the little defects in the roadbed as soon as noticed. The Mayor's idea is a good one. Many breaks in the macadam which cost considerable to repair under the present could be fixed at comparatively small cost if taken in hand as soon as they occur.

In the selection of available sites for the proposed city hall, it should be remembered that the law which permits Plainfield to build a structure of this sort provides that there must be twenty-five feet of open space on each side of the building—the idea being to ensure plenty of light and air for the interior of the rooms. The plot finally selected will therefore have to possess fifty feet more frontage than the width of the building measures. It is a wise provision in the law.

In the Legislature of New Jersey which assembled at Trenton yesterday there are only twenty-three Democrats—seven in the Senate and sixteen in the House—out of a total joint membership of eighty-one. Of the twenty-three one Senator and eleven Representatives are from Hudson county—the rest of the State, formerly so rockribbed in Democracy, being almost entirely unrepresented in the ranks of the minority party.

Senator Reed lost no time yesterday in getting before the Legislature his bill for the publication of assessments made by assessors in the newspapers of the localities to which they apply, in the hope of securing more equitable taxation. The bill was the third one introduced. It is understood that the members of the Legislature are favorable to the measure, and Mr. Reed will make extra efforts to secure its passage.

According to the satement of the War Department, showing the exact number of volunteers called into service in the War with Spain, the total number of American losses, including deaths, desertions, dismissals promotions and transferrals, were 36,692. The statement does not include the volunteers now in service or enlisted under the act of the second of last March.

Governor Voorhees evidently has it in for the critics of the State Industrial School management. He does not even give them the benefit of a doubt and allow that they were misguided, but openly charges them with being meddlesome and influenced by no honest motives. The dander of the Governor is up.

Long Branch's political fight over the election of the City Solicitor is over and former United States Senator Rufus Blodgett has carried the day in the election of his candidate, Thomas P. Fay, a well-known Monmouth county lawyer.

JERSEY RIFF-RAFF.

Odd Facts of Interest Gleaned From Various Sections.

Mrs. Mary Kopuct was struck by a Lehigh Valley train at Valentine's station, four miles from Perth Amboy, and instantly killed. She was picking up coal.

Rev. J. O. Ferris, assistant rector of Christ church, East Orange, has accepted a call to become rector of Christ church, Newark. He will assume his new duties immediately.

Bartholomew Sorroco, on trial the last two days in Paterson, for murdering Pasquale Marquetti last September, was found guilty of murder in the second degree yesterday afternoon. The jury was cut half an hour.

Plans for the new skyscraper building for the Commercial Trust Company, on the site of the old Taylor's Hotel, Jersey City, were filed yesterday with the Building Inspector. It will be eight stories and cost about $350,000.

The citizens of Princeton are indignant over the granting of three new liquor licenses and threated to petition the Legislature for a charter giving the power of licenses to the Mayor and Commissioners instead of the County Judges.

About fifty of the 200 machinists ordered out last week left Paterson yesterday to accept places secured for them by the union. The men drew lots to see who would take the outside jobs. Enough men will be left to keep up the fight at Watson's and Eastwood's shops.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Shot an Otter.

John Welch, of Central avenue, has been particularly fortunate on his shooting excursions during the past two weeks. He shot an otter over three feet long close by the New Market pond, and it is now being stuffed for him by Frank Hedden. Otters are very rarely found in this part of Jersey. Then he also succeeded in tracking to cover a fox right after the light snow that marked the first of the year. He shot the fox.

—A very choice assortment of Indian river grape fruit at Neuman Bros.

GRAIN-O! GRAIN-O!

Remember that name when you want a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it. Grain-O is made of pure grain, it aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder and the children as well as the adults can drink it with great benefit. Costs about ¼ as much as coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Ask your grocer for Grain-O.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

The Spring Campaign

Through all the rush and turmoil of the Holiday Season, just past—we have been making careful preparations for an energetic Spring Mercantile Campaign. Silent, but forceful influences have been steadily at work with one object in view, viz: The making of our establishment an ideal store. Many lines of goods have been carefully scanned; from some lines only the best selected; other lines entirely rejected. We have demanded the newest and best of everything, and insist the best is none too good. Our efforts have been rewarded by our securing the choicest and most desirable goods from the various lines represented in our store. Our business is conducted upon a high plane, but we welcome and propose to take good care of the most humble customer. This is to be in every sense "THE PEOPLE'S STORE."

Wash Goods.

Our new wash fabrics are arriving and already we are making a most delightful showing of dainty lawns, dimities, ginghams, percales, etc., etc.

Designers of the printed fabrics have surpassed all previous efforts by producing new and dainty effects in the most serviceable colorings. Corded ginghams, introduced last season for the first, will have a prominent place in this season's showing, and are worthy of the strongest recommendation for serviceable qualities.

Fine Domestic Dimities at 14c per yard.
Genuine English " 18c per yard.

Corded Gingham (madras effects) at 10c, 20c and 25c yd are worthy especial mention.

New Spring Woollens.

52-in Vicuna Serge made by the Broadhead Worsted Mills, at 98c per yard, cannot be surpassed. They are strong, wiry, do not crush, and are sponged and shrunken. Two beautiful black Cheviots, 54 inches wide, at 79c & 98c, are very desirable; excellent color and fine lustre. 52-in Broadcloths, in all colors, 98c yd. 38-in all-wool Homespuns, 50c. 54-in Homespuns, value $1.00, 89c. 40-in Black Crepons, guaranteed value $1.35, $1.00. 38-in Black Granite Suiting, 50c.

LACES, EMBROIDERIES, Etc., Etc.

Our showing in this line surpasses that of all former years in that we have more variety and finer goods. Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss Edgings, with insertings and beadings to match. All over effects in Cambric, Nainsook, and Combination Lace and Tucked effects, Applique Bands, Edging and all overs to match. New Point de Venise Lace Collars and Revers. New Braided and Spangled Nets. New Lace Ties, narrow. New Silk Ties and a thousand other new novelties equally attractive.

FOR THE MEN.

All our 1.25 Outing Flannel Pajamas, reduced to		98c
Men's Fine Camels Hair Underwear,	98c	garment
" " " " (double breasted)	1.25	"
" " Imported Natural Wool (German)	1.75	"
" " Camels Hair, ½ Hose		25c pr
Dent's "Breton Cape" Kid Gloves		1.85 pr
Myers' Cabretta Kid Gloves		1.00 pr
" Silk Lined Mocha Kid Gloves (gray)		1.50 pr
" Fleece Lined Castor, reduced to		1.25 pr

Full line men's, youths' and childs' wool gloves.
The newest of everything in gent's neckwear.

Dr. Denton's - -
SLEEPING GARMENTS
For Children,
2 yrs to 10 yrs.

In our Basement. The inevitable rise in the price of Furniture has taken place. Manufacturers everywhere have materially advanced prices, and state that further advances must come. Our stock as it is at present will be sold at the old prices. Our advice to those who need furniture is—buy it now.

Solid Oak Buffets
with double thick
FRENCH PLATE MIRRORS,
from 11.98 to 25.00.
If Bought Today Would Sell for 20 per cent. More.

5 drawer Solid Oak Chiffoniers, without glass, 4.98.

5 drawer Extra Finished, with glass, 7.98.

Better grades up to 17.98.

WHITE IRON BEDS.

1 in post, brass trimmed, heavy filling, 3.98.
Better ones at 4.98, 5.75, 6.48, 6.98, 7.98, 9.98, 14.98 and 16.75.
Iron Cribs with Spring Mattresses, 6.48, 7.75 and 11.98.
Full size soft top mattresses 2.25
" " 45 lb white cotton mattresses, one part 5.48.
Full size 45 lb white cotton mattresses, 2 parts, 5.98.
Genuine Cotton Felt mattresses, two pieces, 8.75.
Hair Mattresses made to order.

Facing the Inevitable. Prices in every line are on the jump. Cottons are higher. Woollens are higher. Manufactured goods of all kinds are higher and will be still higher. A pretty sum may be saved by early purchase. By all means make us a visit. We will appreciate it and you will be benefited.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,

334, 236, 238 and 246 WEST FRONT STREET.

PECK'S CORNER.

THE LARGEST VARIETY OF -:- Good Corsets -:- AT PECK'S.

GOOD TIMES ARE HERE.

Now is the time to place your money in Real Estate at ground floor prices.

WOODLAND PARK
will suit the aristocratic home-seekers.

DEWEY PARK and LINCOLN
will suit the small investor and home-seeker.

SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

An Annual . . . . Clearing Sale

of our entire stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's suits, reefers, overcoats, ulsters and heavy-weight trousers begins this Saturday and will last for a short time only.

All MEN'S OVERCOATS that were sold at 7.00 and 8.00, clearing sale price 4.25 and 4.75.
All MEN'S OVERCOATS that we sold from 8.50 to 10.00, clearing sale price 5.50.
350 extra fine OVERCOATS, former prices from 12.00 to 15.00, clearing sale price 6.50 and 7.00.
MEN'S ULSTERS reduced from 7.00 to 4.50.
Best Shamrock IRISH FRIEZE ULSTERS, reduced to 6.50, former price 12.00.
1,000 Men's and Youth's heavy weight suits of all descriptions, styles and qualities, which we must and will sell regardless of cost or value. 5.00 suits to be sold at 2.75. 7.50 suits to go at 4.50. 10.00 suits to go at 5.75, and all others in proportion. Children's Suits at 1.00, worth 2.00. 2.50 Child's Suits to go at 1.45.
2,000 pairs of Men's Trousers to be included in this sale at 1.00, 1.50, 2.00 and 2.25. Boys' Knee Pants with double seat and double knees at 20c.
Men's fleece lined underwear at 30c, worth 50c. Men's winter caps at 15c. Working shirts at 15c, and thousands of more bargains at this great clearing sale. Call early and avoid the great Saturday rush.

Will Pay Carfare to all Buyers of Clothing.

New York Clothing Company

M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

Ready-to-Wear HATS 59c.

Bonn's
140 WEST FRONT ST.

French Felt Alpine HATS 69 and 98c

Stylish Trimmed Hats, 1.98 and 2.98

for the latest shapes and most fashionable materials, 50 to select from, made up since the first of the year.

Flannel Waists, 1.00 and 1.75.

most of our domestic Flannel Waists are bunched in two lots, a choosing from fifty styles, all colors and black, sizes up to 44, now 1.00 and 1.75.

FURNITURE for the Parlor . . . Library . . . Dining-Room . . . Bedroom . . .

Close at 6 o'Clock.

POWLISON & JONES,

149 and 151 E. Front St.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT.
Made only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,
At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, Jan. 10.—The new house of Mrs. Louise Terry is nearly completed. Workmen are finishing the interior as rapidly as possible. The heaters will be put in this week and the finishing touches put on preparatory to its occupancy early in the spring.

It is possible that the iron plant of Colby & Son., of Jersey City, which it was expected would be brought to New Market, may be secured by another town. The efforts of the citizens to secure the factory have not been abandoned, however. Some new arrangements may yet be made to secure it. The citizens feel that the establishment of the plant would be conducive to the business welfare of the town.

The marriage of Miss Mary Cooper, daughter of John Cooper, of Madison avenue, to Wm. Zeilenbach, of Jersey City, but who has been living at the Myers' hotel for some time, will take place at St. Joan's Roman Catholic church next Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. P. W. Brakeley was in Bound Brook yesterday attending the annual meeting of the Dunellen Electric Light Company, of which he is a stockholder.

Owing to the cold weather but little building is being done in the borough at present. Several new houses are being planned for next season, however.

Another child of Paul Kratzel has been stricken with scarlet fever. This makes the fourth member of that family to be taken sick within a few days.

A large quantity of wire has been received at the railroad station, which is to be used in fencing in the property of the Central railroad.

There is considerable sickness in the borough. A case of smallpox is said to have developed at South Plainfield.

The work of harvesting the annual ice crop on the New Market pond is being pushed along vigorously.

There is a letter advertised at the postoffice for Mrs. J. C. Bush.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, January 10.—The suit of the Township against the New York and Philadelphia Traction Company, which was to have been tried before Judge Strong, at New Brunswick, yesterday, was adjourned for one week. The suit is a reminder of the attempt of the first company to ask for a franchise to construct an electric road through the township. A franchise was granted, but shortly afterward the company went to pieces and the township was out about $200. Suit was begun shortly afterwards to recover this amount in Justice Storms' court, at New Market. A verdict for the full amount was awarded the township. The company immediately gave bonds and appealed the case to the higher court and the thing has been dragging ever since. It is expected that the verdict of the New Market court will be sustained.

No meeting of the Sacred Literature Society of the Baptist church will be held this evening on account of the members of the church desiring an uninterrupted week of prayer.

Mrs. George Schick is spending several days with relatives and friends in Bordentown, this State.

Richard Hunt, of Brooklyn, has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Stiliger.

Fanwood Council, R. A., held an interesting meeting in their rooms last evening.

Mrs. John R. Haskard was the guest of relatives in Westfield yesterday.

Duncan Monroe has resigned his position at Emery's Hotel.

WESTFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield Jan. 10.—Rev. Chas. Fiske, who has been rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church for several years and who has built it up from one of the weekest to one of the strongest parishes in the diocese, has, against the wishes of his congregation, tendered his resignation, the same to take effect February 1st. Mr. Fiske stated to a Press reporter this morning that he did not think he was doing as much missionary work here as he should and for that reason had decided to go to Baltimore, Md., as curate of Mt. Calvary church, where he would be in charge of the colored chapel which has over 500 members. The people of Westfield are very much surprised at Mr. Fiske's action in giving up a position which carried with it a salary of about twice what he will get in Baltimore. Mr. Fiske is a young man who for several years was a reporter employed on the staff of a New Brunswick daily paper.

Bon Ami

The Finest Cleaner

MADE. IT WILL NOT SCRATCH OR WEAR ANY SURFACE, YET IT CLEANS THE DIRTIEST PERFECTLY.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—Use Press want ads

—Unity Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will hold its regular meeting this evening.

—Charles Palmer, of East Second street, has accepted a position in New York.

—Cypress Commandery, K. T., will appropriately celebrate Washington's Birthday.

—Tomorrow evening Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., will hold an important meeting.

—This evening Unity Lodge, No. 102, K. of P., will install officers at their regular meeting.

—The Bible study class will meet tonight at the Crescent Avenue church after the regular prayer service.

—A. M Runyon & Son have just received a rubber tired undertaker's platform wagon of the latest pattern.

—Patsey Christmas, the contractor, has established a fruit store on Richmond street, between Second and Third streets.

—Next week the regular business meeting will be held at the First Baptist church at which time two deacons will be chosen.

—There will be a meeting of the Woman's Parliamentary Club in the Y. M. C. A. Hall next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

—Customers get full value for their money and are well satisfied when they patronize the Queen City Laundry, 337 Park avenue.

—The officers recently elected in Central Lodge, A. O. U. W., will be installed at the meeting of that lodge Thursday evening.

—Alex. Lusardi, of 211 West Front street, has just received to replenish his stock after the holidays a carload of fresh fruit of all kinds.

—If you are looking for a well-equipped stationery store, where you will find a good stock, go to B. W. Hand, 205 West Front street.

—Lewis VanNess, of the borough, has purchased the hotel business formerly kept by Mr. Deike, corner Lincoln place and Somerset street.

—The annual meeting of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club will be held Monday evening, Feb. 5th, when the election of officers will take place.

—The members of Lucetta Council, Daughters of Liberty, have changed their meeting place, and hereafter will meet in the Exempt Firemen's rooms.

—The New York Musical Club will give an entertainment for the benefit of the Park Golf Club at the Park club-house Friday evening of this week.

—The City Steam and Hand Laundry, 19 Somerset street, do all kinds of up-to-date laundry work. They do family washing and give trading stamps.

—Friday evening the Christian Endeavor Society of the Crescent Avenue church will have charge of the prayer meeting. The subject will be, "Prayer That Obtains."

—There has been a notable increase in the members of the Sunday-school of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Clinton avenue, and the workers there are very much gratified.

—What has become of the proposed railroad station that was to have been erected on the opposite side of the North Avenue Station? This is a question that many are asking.

—G. Elston Woodland, superintendent of the local office of the Prudential Insurance Company, and who has been transferred to Trenton, will not enter upon his new duties before next week.

—Manager Charles Randolph, of the Paul T. Norton Company, says that with the change mentioned in yesterday's Press, the present place of business on East Front street will be retained for the present.

—Vail & Gardner, the Park avenue grocery firm, have about decided to move to the store now occupied by the W. C. T. U. on East Front street. The change will be made about April 1st, when their present lease expires.

Iron Company Incorporated.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Jan. 10.—The North American Iron Company filed articles of incorporation yesterday with the clerk of Union county. The company is capitalized at $5,000,000 and will engage in the iron mining business. The incorporators are John Ralston, James A. Pierson and William S. Bigelow, all of this city.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Mr. and Mrs. Paul, of Central avenue, are visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Dr. Zeglio, of Somerset street, was called out of town yesterday on business.

Miss Grace Snyder, of West Front street, is visiting relatives in New York.

Mrs. Sutphen, of Central avenue, who has been very ill, is slightly improved.

James MacCrackin and wife, of Brooklyn, have been visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. I. P. Allen, of Jackson avenue, is slightly improved from a very severe illness.

Miss Addie Fenner, of Elmwood place, is visiting relatives at Pluckamin for a time.

Miss Julia Clark, of New York, who has been visiting Plainfield friends, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matthews, of Grove street, have gone to New York to spend two weeks.

Miss Clara Long, of Park avenue, is visiting her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Long, of Somerville.

Miss Tooker, of Chicago, has been visiting her friend, Miss Louis Wilbur, of East Front street.

Mrs. Arnold, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting Miss Wilson, of "Tunlaw," has returned home.

The Misses Frentz, of Scotch Plains, have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Frank Putnam, of Fifth street.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. James Albert Love, of Fifth street, is recovering from a slight illness.

Dr. Main, of Central avenue, has returned from Ashaway, R. I., where he attended the funeral of a friend.

Miss Randolph, of West Eighth street, who has been visiting Bound Brook friends, has returned home.

Mrs. Fisher, of West Second street, who has been detained at home by illness, is now able to go out occasionally.

Charles Graves, of Liberty street, has about recovered from an accident he had a few weeks ago and is able to go out.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scheuerlein, on Somerset place, has been brightened by the arrival of a baby girl.

Dr. Willard Force and bride, who have been stopping in this city for a few days, returned home Monday afternoon.

Mrs. William Chamberlain, of Westfield, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. McIntyre, of North avenue.

Theodore Kurzbals, Jr., of Sixth street, who has been ill with symptoms of pneumonia, is greatly improved and able to be out again.

Donald Stuart, who was ill with typhoid fever at Chester, Pa., has returned to his home on Park avenue and is spending a few days there.

Grace Vail, of Elmwood place, who for so long a time did not have the use of her legs owing to a distressing affection, has about recovered the use of them.

Miss Daisy Snyder, of West Front street, has resigned her position as assistant in the millinery department at Crosby & Hill's, to accept a position in Trenton.

Monday last Mr. and Mrs. Julius Williams, of Plainfield avenue, celebrated the tenth anniversary of their wedding in a quiet manner. They received many congratulations from their friends and relatives.

EDISON GETS LAND.

His Portland Cement Company Buying up Stewartville.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Phillipsburg, Jan. 10.—The Edison Portland Cement Company has purchased about all the land it needs in the vicinity of Stewartville and Newvillage for its big cement plant. It was stated yesterday that farms valued at about $54,560 had been purchased. This represents a little over one-half the real estate the company will use. The plant will be one of the largest in the country.

A railroad will be built from near Riegelsville, Pa., across the Delaware, and up through the Musconetcong Valley to the plant, and connecting the Pennsylvania and the Delaware and Lackawana Railroads. Thomas Edison is at the head of the company.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

THE PORT AT DELAGOA BAY.

Delagoa Bay has come quickly into prominence, because of the seizures of cargoes of provisions there by the English. The bay and the narrow strip of land which forms its shore are Portuguese possessions. From this port a railway runs to Pretoria, the Boer capital. The English claim that the flour and other merchandise seized was intended for the Boers and is therefore contraband of war. The state department at Washington has taken steps to protect American shippers whose goods may be seized at Delagoa Bay.

LONG KNOWN - - - MUCH USED.

Randolph's Glycerine of Arnica.

for Cold Wind Chaps, Rough Skin and all Irritations of the Skin.

.....QUICK RELIEF GIVEN.....

25c per bottle -:- -:-

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for TELEPHONE CALL 109

Lowney's and Whitman's Chocolates and Chocolate Bon-Bons.

AT COST!!

All of our Men's Furnishings, Shirts, Collars, Cuffs, Etc., have been reduced to Actual Cost.

We intend closing our Men's Furnishing Department and want to close it quick. Following are our prices while they last.
White Laundered Shirts, 39c, were 50 and 75c.
White Unlaundered Shirts, elegant, 39c.
Percale Shirts, laundered or soft bosom, 39c.
Fancy Percale Shirts, 75c, were 1.00.
Men's Dressy Kid Gloves, imported, 75c, were 1.25.
Men's Collars, 8c. Also a full assortment of Men's Socks, Ties, etc.
Hereafter we will confine our store to Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing only.

Schepflin & Schultz,

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

WANTED

25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

W. R. BROKAW,

Will occupy the store 207 Park Avenue,

Marsh Building, next to Demarest's Grocery, About February 1st.

His line of MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS will be more complete than ever before, embodying everything in the music line. Don't fail to call on him at his new store for anything you want.

THIS IS THE TIME

to protect your feet from the cold and damp---We can shoe you with reliable shoes at a small cost.

VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.

Repairing Properly Done.

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.

The January Stock-Taking Sale.

This sale means a large saving to those shrewd buyers who know and appreciate values, and to people of taste and discrimination an opportunity to procure the very finest and choicest of merchandise at less than market values.

Sale of Women's Outer Garments, Including Coats, Capes, Skirts, Suits, and Waists.

The greater part of this season's coat-wearing weather has yet to arrive, and so it happens that the women of this vicinity are enabled to secure the choice of this season's coats and wraps at half actual value.

2.48 Coats reduced from 5.00.
2.98 Coats reduced from 6.00.
3.98 Coats reduced from 7.50.
4.98 Coats reduced from 10.00.
7.98 Coats reduced from 15.00.
2.48 Capes reduced from 5.00.
3.98 Capes reduced from 6.50.
4.98 Capes reduced from 9.50.
98c Dress skirts reduced from 1.39.
1.29 Dress skirts reduced from 1.98.
2.49 Dress skirts reduced from 3.98.
39c Flannelette waists reduced from 50c.
1.98 All-wool cloth waists reduced from 2.75.
2.49 All-wool cloth waists reduced from 3.98.
1.98 Velveteen waists worth 3.00.

January Sale of Muslin Underwear has a Combined Goodness with Low Cost.

We occupy a wonderfully strong position by the purchase of about eight thousand pieces of muslin underwear last July before prices advanced, most of it at prices less than cost of raw material alone.

The achievement is particularly great when you find 17c drawers and the 39c night gowns just as correctly shaped as the finest.

10c Cambric corset covers, neck trimmed with narrow embroidery.
19c Cambric corset covers, in three styles, lace or embroidery trimmed.
25c Two different styles of cambric corset covers, embroidery or lace trimmed.
50c Corset covers, handsomely trimmed with fine Swiss or cambric embroidery, twelve different styles.
75c Corset covers, trimmed with fine Valenciennes laces and insertions or fine embroidery and ribbon, three different styles.
39c Gowns of good heavy quality muslin, yoke of insertion and clusters of tucking, cut full liberal size.
59c Gowns, good liberal sizes, muslin of a fine quality, handsomely trimmed with fine embroidery.
98c An assortment of nine different styles of gowns in a variety of shapes, lace or embroidery trimmed. A choice line of gowns in various styles at 1.25, 1.39, 1.98, 2.50, 2.75 and 3.00.
17c Drawers, fine heavy muslin, cut full size, finished with hem and cluster of tucks.
25c Drawers in umbrella shape, with deep ruffle of cambric hemstitched and lace insertion.
49c Drawers in six different styles of lace or embroidery trimmed, plain or umbrella shape.
89c Drawers of fine cambric, deep ruffles of insertion and torchon lace trimming with cluster of tucks.

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

MARTIN ROTH, Jr.,
(Successor to Martin Roth, Sr.)
SHOEMAKER....
Repairing a specialty. First-class work. Only best material used. A trial is all that I ask.
124 EXCHANGE ALLEY,
Rear of Liefke's Bakery....

THE BOOT SHOP AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.

Capital, $150,000.

Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.
DIRECTORS.
Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Cheesman.
H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold.
J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J. H. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

PLANTS and FLOWERS.
All the new and latest ideas in FLORAL DESIGNS, BASKETS and WEDDING BOUQUETS.
..Ferneries at Short Notice..
CHAS. L STANLEY, 142 North Ave.
Greenhouses, South Ave., Netherwood.

Parlor and Heating . . .
STOVES
AT A DISCOUNT OF 20 per cent.
—AT—
A. B. THORN'S,
33 Somerset St.

chrichten aus der m Heimath.

Sachsen.

Dresden. Zwei im Löbtauer Prozeß zu je vier Jahren Gefängniß verurtheilte Zimmerleute, Geißler und Hecht, sind vom König begnadigt worden.—Die sächsische Staatsregierung hat das Projekt eines Großschiffahrtskanals Leipzig-Riesa—eine Verbindung Leipzigs mit der Elbe und Hamburg—wegen der voraussichtlichen Unrentabilität des Kanals und wegen des zu befürchtenden Ausfalles der Eisenbahneinnahmen abgelehnt.—Dem Gesuch, an einem Felsen unweit der kleinen Bastei einen Bismarck-Kopf aus dem Gestein herauszuarbeiten, ist die behördliche Genehmigung versagt worden; auch der Gebirgsverein hatte sich gegen den Plan ausgesprochen.—Die sächsische Regierung ist wieder einmal mit auffallender Strenge gegen die Sozialisten vorgegangen. Sie hat jetzt 20 bei den Staatseisenbahnen angestellte Arbeiter hier kurzer Hand entlassen, weil dieselben trotz vorhergegangener Verwarnung an einer sozialistischen Versammlung theilgenommen hatten.

Crimmitschau. Bürgerschuldirektor Karl Kummer feierte sein 40jähriges Ortsjubiläum. Der Gewerbeverein errichtete aus diesem Anlaß eine „Karl Kummer-Stiftung" in Höhe von 1000 Mark.

Frankenberg. Am 7., 8. und 9. Juli soll hier ein Heimathsfest gefeiert werden.

Leipzig. Der hiesige Rauhwaarenhändler Landau ist nach Hinterlassung riesiger Wechselschulden flüchtig geworden. Die Höhe der Wechselschulden soll 250,000 Mark übersteigen.—Im Vororte Eutritzsch ist die Militärtuchfabrik von Alois Schumpeter ein Raub der Flammen geworden.

Merkwitz. In einer Scheune des Gutsbesitzers Paul Kasten brach Feuer aus, das bald auf die übrigen Gebäude übersprang. Das Seitengebäude des Gutsbesitzers Jentzsch fing ebenfalls Feuer und wurde gänzlich eingeäschert. Sämmtliche Gebäude und alles Mobiliar des Kasten'schen Gutes verbrannten.

Thüringische Staaten.

Altenburg. Eine kleine Nachstaaroperation, die sich bei dem Herzog Ernst nothwendig machte, wurde vom Medizinalrath Dr. Pause unter Beihilfe des Leibarztes Geheimen Medizinalraths Dr. Frommelt mit gutem Erfolge vollzogen.

Gotha. Der Landtag genehmigte den Ankauf des städtischen Krankenhauses für den Staat und bewilligte hierfür 165,000 Mark.

Gräfenthal. Die neue Porzellanfabrik im nahen Meernach ist vollständig ausgebrannt, so daß nur noch die Umfassungsmauern dastehen. Das Feuer verbreitete sich mit solcher Eile über das große Gebäude, daß aus dem Innern auch nicht das Geringste gerettet werden konnte. Es wird Brandstiftung vermuthet.

Jena. Für die Staaten Thüringens soll hier eine neue technische Hochschule errichtet werden.

Seebergen. Pfarrer Steurich, welcher am 1. Juli aus dem Amte schied, schenkte der Kirche einen prachtvollen Teppich. Ferner hat Steurich auch die große Glocke, welche unlängst umgegossen wurde und 700 Mark kostete, aus seinen Mitteln bezahlt.

Freie Städte.

Hamburg. In Verbindung mit einem hier ausgebrochenen Brande, bei dem die Ehefrau, die Mutter und ein Töchterchen des Schneiders Wippekli im Rauche erstickten, ist der Blumenhändler Schroeder wegen Brandstiftung verhaftet worden.—Eine große Anzahl von Legaten zu wohlthätigen Zwecken enthält das Testament des kürzlich verstorbenen Marcus Nordheim, Chefs eines großen Wollgeschäfts, der keine Leibeserben hinterlassen hat. Verschiedene hiesige Wohlthätigkeitsanstalten erhalten zusammen 50,000 bis 60,000 Mark. Der israelitischen Gemeinde Hamburg wurden zu gleichen Zwecken etwa 100,000 Mark überwiesen; 20,000 Mark fallen nach Memmelsdorf in Bayern, woher der Verstorbene stammte. Ferner sind den alten Angestellten der Firma, den Dienern, Kutschern u. s. w. erhebliche Summen ausgesetzt. Endlich erhalten die Verwandten große Theile des Vermögens. Die Summe, über die das Testament verfügt, beläuft sich auf 10,000,000 Mark.

Bremen. Das „Tivolitheater," das einer Aktiengesellschaft gehört, ist geschlossen worden, weil das Defizit während des nur einjährigen Bestehens dieser Bühne die Summe von 100,000 Mark überschreiten soll.

Lübeck. Ungemein hart vom Schicksal verfolgt wird die Familie des verstorbenen württembergischen Konsuls Theodor Friedrich Harms. Während dieser auf dem Sterbebette lag, starb plötzlich der Schwiegersohn des Verstorbenen, Amtsrichter Bruns, und bei der Beerdigung des Konsuls Harms wurde ein naher Verwandter desselben, der ehemalige Direktor der Lübecker Feuerversicherung, Ed. Neuendorff, am Grabe von einem Schlaganfall betroffen. Bald nach dem Eintreffen in seiner Wohnung gab Neuendorff seinen Geist auf.

Ladie Desiring . .

KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING

done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 329 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

(B)

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

Big With Bargains

—honest true-blue bargains in furniture and carpets here, for 'tis the great yearly clean-up time, when goods must go to make way for complete lines, and to make the stock-listing task easier. Credit terms just the same as ever—or cash, if you'd rather.

Get Carpets Now

while they're to be had at these close-out prices—it's an amazing chance for you! Thousands of rolls of pretty patterned weaves.

$28.98

Golden oak combination desk—French plate mirror, neat carvings. Worth $35.00.

$49.00

Full over-stuffed suit—heavy fringe, corded tapestry coverings. Worth $65.00.

$17.98

Solid oak—heavy carving, lined drawer for silver. Worth $25.00.

$13.98

Carved arms, claw feet, upholstered seat, velour cushions. Worth $18.00.

$9.98

for a green velour deeply tufted couch, full spring edge. Worth $15.00.

$6.23

Solid golden oak desk—swell front drawer, French legs. Worth $8.50.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,

LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,

Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.

Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

A practicing physician in Shelbyville relates that his attention was first directed to

R·I·P·A·N·S TABULES

by a brother doctor while on a visit to the National Capitol at Washington, D. C., some years ago. "I first used the Tabules myself experimentally," says the Illinois doctor, "and derived such benefit from them that I at once adopted them as a part of my medical armormentarium. They have given great satisfaction and in one case where the stomach was infected by large stomach worms, the Tabules destroyed the worms and expelled them, greatly to my surprise and also to the permanent relief of my patient."

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER.

ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.

169 NORTH AVENUE.

Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW, THE GROCER.

Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.

Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

HINTS FOR THE HOME-MAKER.

BY ELIZABETH LYON.

With a little artistic talent, some water color paints and a few yards of denim, a most effective and original hanging or portiere can be made at comparatively little cost.

Take the required length of green denim—that rather bright shade with an underweave of red. At the top of the curtain allow the border for decorating to be 18 or 25 inches in depth if the portiere is composed of two pieces a yard wide. Should the space where the fabric hangs be unusually long the border, of course, will be made deeper in proportion.

On this border space draw irregularly Indian figures, the more grotesque the better, but be careful not to have the figures the same size, as that would give too stiff an appearance. Aztec idols look well and are easier to make than the Indian figures.

AN AZTEC PORTIERE.

Use only primary colors—red, yellow and blue. When placed on the dark green denim, they stand out conspicuously.

The greatest difficulty will be found in laying on the colors, the denim absorbing the paint so freely that it is necessary to go over the figures several times. All one requires is a good share of patience, and the beautiful effect repays one for the work.

Something unique and different is the result and reward—a hanging not seen in the shops or every home you visit.

● ● ●

The Possibilities Of a Shoe Box.

A limited purse often causes much self sacrifice to the economical furnisher. Many pass a cabinet shop with a longing glance at the elaborate cabinets and chests that form a feature of furniture show windows. Their use and beauty are evident to all, but the cost of necessary and plainer pieces of furniture often puts these decorative articles beyond present calculation.

If the restless energy of our boys be properly directed in the use of a few tools and inexpensive materials, many problems in economy would be solved and the youth benefited by the skill and mental application acquired.

A simple cabinet design requires a couple of shoe boxes or any oblong boxes of equal dimensions. Turn one on its side and stand the other upon it at the left. Get a planed pine board as wide as the depth of the boxes. Fit two pieces into the middle of the boxes for the division below and the shelf above. Measure the back, one edge being one and one-half inches less than the length of the box and the other three inches more than the height of the shelf. Saw out the curve with a keyhole saw and nail on the shelf.

The upper part consists of a round topped back and narrow shelf between two side pieces. Before setting up the cabinet glue on the square panels of pressed veneer resembling carved work. Quite cheap or homemade poker work designs on holly wood will answer.

A narrow soft wood molding is needed for the edge of panels, another for the blocks which serve as feet, a corner molding for the edges of the boxes and a two inch molding for top and bottom. A square beaded strip forms the rails, with bits of chair round or spools beneath. A round stick will do for the pillar supports if a lathe is not at hand. Wooden or brass knobs finish the angles.

Put brackets beneath the shelves and a curtain with brass rod in front. Frame two drawers for the lower space with brass fittings, stain or paint to suit the fancy, and your cabinet is complete.

The most difficult work is joining the moldings. A miter box will be necessary to saw them at the proper angle.

Another chest may be made from a shoe box. The panels and moldings are like those in the cabinet. The top molding is set sufficiently high to be flush with the veneer glued on top of cover. The border is inlaid with pieces of different kinds of wood obtained at any printers' supply store. Cut them in lengths equal to twice the width.

Lay out your border a certain number of pieces in width and, beginning at the corner, smear the surface with glue and press these bits of different colored wood down upon the glue, forming any chosen pattern, working toward the center of each side. A molding outlines the border.

The cover is strengthened by transverse boards on the underside fitting into the box and finished on top with a russet leather cushion fastened with brass tacks and a strip of bright morocco, leaving a loop at each corner to raise the cover, which is hinged to the molding at the back. Stain, oil or varnish the chest to suit the purpose desired.

● ● ●

To Make an Artistic Lamp Shade.

Lace applique in either black or white is one of the fancies of the hour. It is quite easy and rapid of execution, affords an excellent opportunity of perpetuating the graces of some elegant but torn treasure and is peculiarly adapted for ornamenting a lamp shade, as the sides of the shade form a ready frame for the embroidery during the course of construction.

This new shade is in one instance of frequent reversion to old time things, as it is in the old fashioned lantern shape. The requisite wire frame is sometimes difficult to meet with, as the shape is not common yet, but it can readily be made at home from medium weight bonnet wire by the aid of a pair of pliers, some wire nippers or a pair of strong old scissors. A band or support of the same wire or a mica collar is arranged on the inside for general protection and to keep the shade from touching the hot chimney.

After the frame is made the wires are first wound round with narrow ribbon or silk. Then yellow or rose colored gauze is stretched over each division and sewed evenly to the covering of the wires. Floral sprays of black or white lace are then placed irregularly in the different divisions of the shade. These are first caught to keep them in position, then all the edges tacked down to the silk or gauze with very fine but good cotton or silk. When this is done, the covered wires are again concealed by a ruching of silk, feather trimming or chiffon.

Fringe or a ruffle of lace is placed round the lower edge, and finally as many spangles as time, taste, patience and purse will permit are added on the lace applique, fringe or lace ruffle. These give a particularly rich effect when lit up, if chosen of oriental and iridescent colors.

There are two important points to be remembered in making lamp shades.

LAMP SHADE IN LACE APPLIQUE.

One is to proportion their weight to the lamp which is to carry them so as not to get a top heavy shade on a lightweight lamp, which is both dangerous and in bad taste; the second is the choice of color. If rose color is not desired, yellow, soft green or some pretty shades of pink or tan might be considered. Blues and grays are always risky. They have a cold effect and suit very few complexions, while the soft rose tinted light makes nearly all women feel and look their best.

Lady Sykes, wife of Sir Frederick Henry Sykes and a woman of prominence in English society, goes to South Africa to act as a nurse in connection with the British army.

Princess Nektya Ninye of Japan, who is said to be the most beautiful woman in the mikado's empire, is passing through the United States on her way to the Paris exposition.

Mrs. Minoria Stearns Fitts of Chicago, president of the Women's Ownership league of that city, has organized a band of women for the purpose of making men courteous in the street and at the same time improve the transportation service. Cards like this are distributed: "Gentlemen—Get up and give the ladies seats. You can vote to stop this thing; she cannot."

THROWING THE LASSO.

Methods of Men Who Are Expert in the Art.

The lasso is a creation of a certain environment and need. Its place is on the broad prairies and grazing lands, and its chief utility lies in the stock business. It is almost useless in a wooded country, by reason of the obstructions afforded by branches and bushes. The finest lassos are of rawhide, cut into thin strips, and braided, six ply, into a rope of from three-eights to one-half inch in diameter. They are quite expensive, a good forty-foot rope costing about $7. On this account, of late years, hard-twisted grass rope is used; but the rawhide rope is the best in a wind, as it is heavier, and when filled with oil it is not affected by wet weather. A braided rope, also, has less tendency to kink than a twisted rope. Cowboys have a mixture of lard and beeswax with which they dress their hemp or linen ropes, to keep out the dampness, and also to prevent them from getting too dry. The most celebrated of the genuine "riatas" are made in Chicago, which produces an article much superior to the rougher ones turned out in Mexico.

[Ready for a Throw.]

There are three general methods of throwing, with many minor variations of individual habit. The rope is held in practically the same way in every case. First is the plain, straight cast, noose swinging around above the head from right to left, by a rotating wrist movement. Some "ropers" throw a small loop, hard and fast, almost on a level; others a larger, lazier kind, which nevertheless "arrives."

The aim is somewhat to the right of the object to be roped—say a foot and a half on a twenty-five-foot throw, the exact instant of release being governed by weight of rope, wind, velocity of swing, etc. Judgment comes instinctively with practice. The rest of the rope is held coiled in the other hand and released as fast as desired, two or three coils being retained.

To "snub" the rope (wind it about the pommel after casting) in the instant of time allowed is a trick quite as difficult as throwing properly. The Mexicans, with their large-diameter pommels, have to take only one turn; the American pommels, being smaller, require two. The pommel very often smokes from the friction created, and is frequently deeply grooved and almost burned by the rope. The important part played by the trained cow pony is obvious. He is taught to settle back on his haunches the instant the rope begins to tighten, and in many other ways materially to assist his master.

The second method of throwing is exactly the reverse, i. e., the noose is swung from the left to right above the head before release. This is called the "California throw," and possibly gives a little greater range.

The third cast is the "corral drag," which, as its name implies, is for use afoot and in confined quarters. It consists in trailing out the loop on the ground behind one and snapping it forward by an underhand motion.

The lasso's greatest effectiveness, as a weapon, is when the wielder is mounted. When both adversaries are afoot its value is very slight. With cattle or horses it is an entirely different thing. The whole essence of the matter is to tighten the noose around an opponent with a jerk sufficient to dismount him or take him off his feet. To that end you may ride past him swiftly, or, if pursuing him, stop your own horse suddenly. Or, if he is stationary, and you cannot ride past him, you can wheel your own horse and retire after a successful cast. In lassoing a man, if done skillfully, the instant of time is too brief for him either to throw off the tightening noose or cut it. And it is one of the most deceptive things to attempt to dodge.

Fortunes in Patents.

A patent is a queer kind of property, anyhow. It is an intangible thing, in its last analysis merely a thought, an idea, an abstraction. But the idea may have immense value. The idea of putting the eye of a needle near its point instead of at the other end made the sewng machine possible. That simple idea, protected by a patent, is said to have brought $13,000,000 in royalties to Howe, and it certainly formed the basis for $100,000,000 of profit made by the sewing machine manufacturers. Mere ideas protected by patents have to-day in the United States a market value of more than a billion of dollars.

Political economists have discounted our patent system, but it is probable that it has done more to make the United States the leading manufacturing country of the world than protective tariffs or financial policies. Almost every industrial institution in the country depends more or less on patents, and as shares in such institution are held by most all investors the subject of patents is of interest to many besides the inventor and manufacturer.

The Bird That Tells.

The military man walked nervously back and forth till his spurs jingled like sleigh bells. Stopping abruptly before the woman who had confronted him, he asked:

"How do you know all these things about my past?"

"A little bird told me."

"Sdeath!" he hissed. "Another round robin!"—Washington Star.

MURDER IN GERMAN ARMY

Trivial Punishment for Officers Who Kill Men for "Discipline."

A correspondent sent us the following translation from a German paper of the recent killing of a sergeant by his officer, Count Stolberg-Wernigerode, captain in the 15th Regiment of Uhlans, in Saarburg, Alsace, who cut down Sergeant Steinhardt of his regiment. Steinhardt was quartermaster, and was ordered off to forage. The soldiers engaged in cooking forgot, in the sergeant's absence, to insert the rubber rings in the covers of the pots, in consequence of which the food got spoiled. Capt. Count Stolberg called Steinhardt to account for this. The sergeant excused himself from blame on the ground of his enforced absence. Later on the captain renewed his reproaches, and told Steinhardt he was the lowest cur and greatest blackguard in the regiment. Steinhardt answered that he did not think he deserved to be called that. On this Count Stolberg gave him a box on the ear that made him reel over against the wagon. Steinhardt said to two of his comrades: 'You saw how I was struck.' Count Stolberg immediately drew his sword and first gave Steinhardt a cut on the leg and then a thrust on the left side of the head. Steinhardt fell down unconscious. (Another account adds how Steinhardt, on first coming to, tried to stop the blood with his handkerchief, and to stand at 'attention' till he fell unconscious again!) He was taken to Hagenau, where he died without recovering consciousness. The funeral took place with full military honors, according to the 'B. N.' (Badische Nachrichten), which demonstrates that Steinhardt innocence is recognized officially. The parish priest in his funeral oration before the whole body of officers denounced the act perpetrated by Stolberg as one of the most brutal violence. The father (of the murdered man), himself a veteran, wearing the medals for the campaigns of 1864, 1866 and 1870-71, looked as if he would sink into the grave of his son for sorrow and pain. The son had supported the old pensioner from his pay. Count Stolberg has been arrested and taken to the military prison in Strasburg. It is said that he has already killed an orderly of his."

A year ago a Lieutenant von Brusewitz, in Karlsruhe, pursued, cut down and killed a civilian who had bumped against his chair at a cafe. He was sentenced to two years' simple imprisonment, of which the emperor remitted eighteen months.

Odd Superstition

It has been said recently that opals were coming into fashion again, and that in the opinion of leading jewelers the old superstition that they bring bad luck to their owners was dying out. I have made inquiries among the principal dealers in gems in this city, says the New York correspondent of the Boston Herald, and have not found any substantial foundation for the statement. A Maiden Lane jeweler thought there might be something in it. Holding up a beautiful specimen, which he admired greatly, he exclaimed: "I should like to see the lady who would refuse to wear that opal because of a fear that it would bring ill-luck. Twenty years ago I remember that I could not sell an opal at any price. Now I sell one occasionally. I have disposed of a dozen Mexican opals within a year. One of the best ones I ever had is now worn by one of the greatest land owners in the country. I don't care to mention her name, but she lives in Texas and owns many square miles of rich lands there, and thousands of head of cattle. They say she is worth $5,000,000 or $6,000,000. She is one of my best customers and I suppose she has more fine opals than any other woman in this country. Every time she closes a good deal she adds one to her fine stock of opals. The old superstition does not trouble her at all; on the contrary, she claims that the opal is her lucky stone."

At a Broadway jeweler's they say the demand for opals is about the same to-day as it was years ago; in fact, the trade does not vary much in volume from year to year. "We have some customers," said a salesman at this house, "who have been collecting these stones for a number of years. One well known society woman in New York, has an opal necklace, very handsome pink and pearl stones, which to my knowledge she has worn at several swell functions, and I never heard that any ill-luck had befallen her. I know of men who wear opal rings and cravat pins just because of the prevailing superstition that they bring bad luck to the wearer; they prefer diamonds and can afford to wear good ones, but instead display opals to show their indifference to what they call a silly superstition. Every member of the Thirteenth club wears one or more opals, and there are some very thrifty fellows among them."

How They Raise Men in Georgia.

During a recent visit to the Army camp in Savannah General Joseph Wheeler was entertained by a party of Northern men at the De Soto, when, in the good humor of after-dinner cigars, one of the men said laughingly:

"How is it, General, that the sleepy farms of the South produce such whirlwind fighters in such small packages?"

"Well, gentlemen," said the little General, puffing at a large man's cigar. "I believe I'll have to give you the answer an old 'cracker' woman once gave me when I asked her a similar question. Not many years ago I had occasion to make a saddle journey through the pine barrens of Georgia, where most everybody is a 'cracker' and mighty shiftless. One day, however, I rode into a little community that showed such signs of thrift as to be quite out of keeping with the general character of the barrens, I do assure you, gentlemen. I rode up to a cabin where a gaunt old woman stood in the doorway and asked her who owned these little farms that were so well kept.

"'That farm on the left belongs to my son Jabez,' said she, 'and the next one to my boy Zalim, and the next to my lad Jason, and the next is my boy Potiphar's place, and——'

"'Hold on, sister,' said I 'How did you manage to raise such a fine lot of boys way off here in the woods?'

"'Wal, stranger,' she answered, 'I am a widdy woman, and all I had to raise 'em on was prayer and hickory, but I raised 'em powerful frequent.'"—Philadelphia Saturday Post.

DREAMS MAKE ONE FAT.

Nervous or Mental Maladies Cured by Them.

An English physician claims to have discovered a new and efficacious cure for persons afflicted with nervous or mental maladies. If such persons, he says, can only procure pleasant dreams, they will soon regain their health, and his aim is, therefore, to furnish them with delightful dreams.

For this purpose he uses a soft leather cap, which covers the patient's head and ears, and leaves only the face uncovered. Beside the ears are placed two metal plates, which are joined by a rubber tube to a phonograph. The patient rests on a divan in a dark room and in front of him is a sort of magic lantern, from which are projected at brief intervals various enjoyable pictures. In this way, it is claimed, the eyes of the sick person are delighted, while at the same time his ears are soothed by the vibrations of the phonograph.

As a result, weariness comes upon him and is soon followed by slumber, and it is while he is dozing in this manner that happy dreams are evoked, thanks to the phonograph and the stereopticon. After this light slumber comes a deep sleep, which, we are assured, is always most beneficial.

Several tests of this kind have been made with success, and it is said that not only are tired nerves refreshed by this method, but that the patient's body also rapidly increases in weight. That pleasant sounds and sights are soothing to the nerves we have all known for a long time, but that pleasant dreams have a tendency to make persons fat will certainly be news to the general public.—Exchange.

The Treating Custom in Haiti.

Of course there is in Haiti a small circle of native-born creoles, who are naturally born ladies and gentlemen, exquisite in their courtly manners and most desirable as friends. Then the white men who are living there, as I have already mentioned, are characters. If they take a liking to you, all they have or can capture is yours. The following will illustrate this characteristic:

Mine host and a friend were walking through the leading thoroughfare of one of the towns, when the friend suddenly came to a standstill, and placing his long nervous index finger on mine host's breast, remarked:

"My dear boy, in here they make the best cocktails in Haiti. I have spent three fortunes in assuring myself of the truth of this. Let's go in and try one."

There was a prompt adjournment from the pathwalk to the interior of the building, a few minutes of delightful, expectant silence as the ingredients were shaken together, a mutual bow, followed by disappearance of the liquids.

Friend—How do you like that?

Mine Host—Delicious!

Friend—Let us have another.

Mine Host—Certainly, only this second one is on me.

Friend—Make no mistake, my oy; they are both on you. I've no money.

It is the unexpected that happens—especially in Haiti the unknown.—Harper's Magazine.

Teaching Muskrats to Swim.

At the pool our attention was attracted by a comical picture made by an old muskrat trying to teach her babies to swim. It struck us as strange that she should go to such trouble; the little rats should have known instinctively how to navigate, but they clung to the bank and to shallow water, above which arose their fluffy backs, bright eyes and sharp noses. The mother set them the example by swimming across and back. She endeavored to coax, and finally she pushed them over their depth and let them make their own way to the shore, though, you may be sure, she stayed close by. When we were seen the old lady shrieked "Tramps!" in characteristic muskrat language and fled to her sub-aquatic vestibule, I suppose to call the police. The little ones did not attempt to escape. Ostrichlike, they hid their heads among the roots, and left their naked tails waving above the water like a new species of juncos waiting to be examined. The madam could not quite ignore the maternal instinct, as she returned and conducted her happy family to the nursery, where they received their first lesson in misanthropy.—Forest and Stream.

A Beetle in a Man's Ear.

Dr. William S. Gardner, of New York, has extracted from the ear of Alfred Lum, colored, a common black beetle, an inch long. Lum was found unconscious and writhing in spasms in the ditch along a highway leading to Cleverack, by two Hudson wheelmen. They stopped the drag of Mr. and Mrs. Hackett, of New York, and Lum was brought to the village. Dr. Gardner was puzzled for a time, but on close examination he discovered the beetle protruding from the man's ear, and extracted it.

After an hour's rest, the man revived. He said he had been hunting, and was returning to his home in this city, when he suddenly experienced a sensation as though he had been shot in the ear, and then he knew no more until resuscitated. Dr. Gardner says it is the most remarkable case he ever heard of.—Phila. Ledger.

Aguinaldo's Build.

Aguinaldo stands about 5 feet 4 inches in height, is slightly built and was dressed in a coat and trousers of drab tusore silk. He is a pure Philippine native, though showing a slight trace of Chinese origin, of dark complexion, and much pock-marked. His face is square and determined, the lower lip protruded markedly. On the whole, a man of pleasant demeanor, even-tempered, and with strong character. Slow of speech, and perhaps also of thought, his past career has hallmarked him as a man of prompt decision and prompter action. Many people, and among others Admiral Dewey, were much puzzled to find so quiet and apparently unintelligent and listless a young man the acknowledged and undisputed head of so great a movement."

Suicide Commendable.

Suicide at one time was very common among the Brahmins of India, who held the body in contempt, regarding it merely as a covering for the soul.

In the African elephant both sexes have ivory tusks, while in the Asiatic they are generally restricted to the male.

CAPT EVANS TALKS.

Luck and Skill of the Navy in War With Spain—Iowa's Picket Duty a New Thing.

Capt. Robley D. Evans who commanded the Iowa in the Santiago naval battle, says:

"We had two excellent bosses—the clear-headed Ohio man, McKinley, and the practical Yankee Long; the latter of whom let the navy attend to its own business while he attended to his. We of the navy felt for two years that war was inevitable and had been quietly preparing for it at your expense and at the risk of being court-martialed out of the service if it should not come. About the only difference between the condition of the navy a very few months before the declaring of war and when it was on a war footing was that it had increased by a second or two the speed at which it could load and fired a shotted gun. Twenty hours after the declaration of war the last cargo of spring chickens had passed into Havana harbor from Florida for many a long day. If one of the three or four shots fired by the Spanish at us or as a warning when we were first sighted off Havana that night had struck us Havana would have been taken before morning. We had been ordered not to fire on the city, but we did not interpret this as an order not to return fire.

"I consider it a remarkable record in seamanship that during all our manoeuvring then no two ships collided. Luck seemed to be with us, too. As an instance of the latter is the fact that Spanish gunners one day landed and exploded three heavy calibre shells on the Iowa in the very midst of my crew of 600 men, just as if the missiles had been thrown into a closely crowded hall or lecture room, and not a man was seriously hurt. One of the explosions blew off the hats of sixteen of my men and I was amazed to discover no bloodshed when the smoke cleared away.

"An experience new to me, was having the Iowa put on picket duty when we were watching Cervera. All the fellows who have written that kind of books say that battleships must be taken thirty or forty miles from shore at night, anchored first at one point and then at another, so that the enemy cannot locate them. Admiral Sampson signalled me to take the Iowa up the harbor mouth. 'How far up must I go?' I signalled back, I confess, with considerable anxiety, as besides Cervera's fleet, the forts and batteries, there were doubtless countless torpedoes in there. 'Go in until you can distinguish the movements of a small rowing boat in the harbor, came back the answer. 'How long must I stay?' I again anxiously signalled. 'All night,' was the answer. I went up that harbor until I could not only plainly follow the movements of any small boat ahead of me with my glass, but could notice the blinking eyes of the Spanish sentries as my searchlight struck them. For thirty-nine nights we kept that kind of watch on Cervera. The answer to the oft-repeated question of why did Cervera try to come out in the daytime is found in that nightly vigil. Had he tried it at night his squadron would have been blown into toothpicks by the watchful Sampson before he had fairly left the harbor.

"We all regretted that the Merrimac had to be sunk in the harbor. We felt that sooner or later we would have to go in there after Cervera and the wreck would of course, be in our way. Therefore we were all deeply thankful when we learned that she had sunk in a way not greatly to interfere with a passage up the harbor. The reason the Merrimac was sunk there at all was that Admiral Sampson received orders to hurry to the Mediterranean to intercept Camara's fleet and the blockading fleet at Santiago would necessarily be greatly weakened accordingly.

A Valorous Deed

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, in his history of the Spanish war in Harper's, declares the cutting of the cables at Cienfuegos ranks with the sinking of the Merrimac in bravery and desperate valor. The gallant work of the men who under a galling fire performed the task assigned them has been lost sight of by reason of more important and decisive battles of the war. A brief resume of it will certainly not be out of place.

The same day that the Winslow, the Hudson and the Wilmington were having their action at Cardenas, far away on the southern coast of Cuba another fight was taking place, in the progress of the work of separating the great island from the rest of the world. On the night of May 10, Captain McCalla of the Marblehead called for volunteers to protect the cable cutters in their work. The roll was soon filled, and the next morning the steam launches of the Marblehead and Nashville, towing the two sailing launches under command of Lieutenants Winslow and Anderson, started into the harbor of Cienfuegos about a quarter before 7. They carried a squad of marines picked for proficiency as marksmen, and a machine gun in the bow of each boat. The Nashville and Marblehead then opened fire on the Spanish batteries, and under cover of this, and that of the steam launches, the crews of the other boats went to work. It was a perilous business, but the sailors grappled and cut successfully the two cables they had been ordered to destroy. They also found a small cable, but the grapnel fouled the bottom and was lost. Meantime the Spanish fire grew hotter, pouring out from the batteries and machine guns, and the boats began to suffer. The well directed fire from the rifles of the marines and from the one-pounders kept the Spaniards from reaching the switch house which controlled the submarine torpedoes, but launches could not contend with batteries at close range, and when the work for which they came, and which had all been performed under a heavy fire, was done, they withdrew to the ships. Nine men, including Lieutenant Winslow, had been wounded, some seriously, and three, as was reported later, mortally. It was a very gallant exploit, coolly and thoroughly carried through, under a galling fire, and it succeeded in its purpose of hampering and blocking in the enemy at the important port of Cienfuegos, which was the road to Havana from the southern coast. It was another twist in the coil which the United States was tightening about Cuba.

It may serve as a comfort to us in all our calamities and afflictions, that he who loses anything and gets wisdom by it is a gainer by the loss.—L'Estrange.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 28, 7 29, 7 55, 8 03, 8 12, 8 30, 8 37, 8 44, 9 16, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 54, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 06, 7 39, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12.00 m, 12 58, 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 28, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 25, 4 25, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 05 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 3 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked * change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.
LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.

Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.

Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.

Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.

Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.

Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent,
218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. L. Manning & Son,

STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

XXXX QUALITY

FINEST
LOFOTON COD LIVER OIL,

Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.

Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at

39c per Pint.

For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at

50c per Bottle,

or the Tasteless at

75c per Bottle.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
Heyburn & Co.,
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,

213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

JANUARY SPECIAL SALES.

Ladies' black cloth jackets 2 85, reduced from 5.00.
" " " " 3 85, " " 6.75.
Children's reefer jackets 2 85, former price 3.25.
" " " 5 00, " " 6.25.
Ladies' Golf Capes 5.00, worth 7.00.
" " " 8 75, " 11.75.
Misses' Golf Capes 2 98, usually sold for 4.25.
" " " 4.49, " " " 6 25.
Ladies' House Waists 25c, regular price 50c.
10 doz. Silk Velvet Brilliantine Sample Waists at half value.
2,000 yards 36 in Bleached Muslin at 7¾c, usually sold for 10c.

House Furnishings.

7-piece Berry Set, complete at 10c. Dover Egg Beater 5c.
Coal Shovel, extra long handle, 5c. Wash Boards 12c.

Millinery.

Our entire stock of Winter Millinery to be closed out regardless of cost.
Diss Shapes at 15c and 25c. Trimmed Hats from 75c up.

I. H. BOEHM,

109-113 WEST FRONT STREET.

You Should See

the store in its dress of WHITE.

Particularly handsome is the showing of

--: New Embroideries, :--

of cambric, nainsook and Swiss. Edgings with insertings to match. All-over effects in embroideries and laces.

New White Dress Fabrics.

and remember that now is the time for bargain prices on

Muslin Underwear.

A most elaborate assortment of finely made garments—all marked at prices much below prevailing values.

I. LEDERER.

OUR SPECIALTIES } Choice Teas. Fine Coffee.

All the Seasonable Goods. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit.

Tel. 931. C. E. GULICK & CO., THE PARK GROCERS.

OVERCOATS & SUITS.

WE will close out all of our stock now at prices that defy competition; they must go. So if you need anything in the shape of the above call and be convinced of the fact. We have cut the prices in just half what we sold them for in the early season.

TRY A PAIR OF OUR 98c PANTS.
GET BRACED FOR 13c.
HATS, CAPS AND GENTS FURNISHINGS.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

Werner Clothing House,
206 W. Front Street.

Brazilian Balm

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN BALSAM!
...CURES...
Coughs, Colds, Croup & Grippe
LIKE MAGIC.
RADICALLY CURES
CATARRH!

It clears the head of foul mucous; heals the sores and ulcers of the head and throat; sweetens the breath, and perfectly restores the senses of the taste, smell and hearing. Stops headache and dropping into the throat. Also destroys the germ which causes making a perfect cure in a few days. Never fails! No fatal case of LA GRIPPE ever known where Brazilian Balm was fully used. It destroys the grippe germ and quickly removes all the after bad effect.

HAY FEVER,

INFALLIBLE in ASTHMA, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, PLEURISY, PNEUMONIA, DYSPEPSIA, RHEUMATISM, TYPHOID and SCARLET FEVER, MEASLES, and any disease where there is Inflammation, Fever or Congestion. Greatest relief in Consumption ever discovered.

Cures a Fresh Cold in one day. Stops EARACHE in 2 minutes. Stops ringing in the head and relieves deafness. As an injection invaluable in female troubles. For outward use heals Cuts, Sores and Burns like magic. Prevents lock-jaw from wounds. QUICK CURE FOR CONSTIPATION AND PILES.

Its Healing Power is Almost Miraculous. The Best Family Medicine in Existence.

50 Cent Bottle contains 100 Doses, or Two Weeks Treatment for Catarrh.

$1.00 BOTTLE EQUALS THREE 50c. BOTTLES.

HOME TESTIMONIALS:

"Brazilian Balm cured me of inveterate catarrh which I had for over 20 years. It is the most wonderful triumph of medical science."—Gen. J. Parke Postles. "In croup, cold and the worst form of gripp we have found Brazilian Balm invaluable."—Jno. W. S. Boothe, D. D., Pastor Del. Ave. Bap. Ch. "Mrs. Lore has used the Brazilian Balm and thinks it did her much good."—Hon. Chas. B. Lore, Chief Jus. of Del. "One bottle of Brazilian Balm cured a friend of mine of hay fever."—Thos. M. Culbert. "I was very deaf for 10 years from catarrh. Brazilian Balm applied warm in my ears every day soon restored my hearing."—Mrs. John Scotten, Chester, Pa. "It is the best thing for dyspepsia I ever saw tried."—Judge Edward Wootten. "I was worn almost to the grave with a racking cough that all the remedies and the doctors failed to relieve. It was cured with one bottle of Brazilian Balm. It shall be my doctor through life."—Mrs. J. Galloway, Pottstown, Pa. "I was fearfully crippled up with rheumatism, could not get my hand to my head. I took ten 50-cent bottles of Brazilian Balm in six months. Am now entirely cured and as nimble as I was at forty."—Anson Burrell, aged 84. A lady in Cincinnati was so afflicted with asthma that during the winter for seventeen years she was unable to sleep lying down, was entirely and permanently cured with Brazilian Balm.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS.

B. F. JACKSON & CO., Indianapolis, Ind.

L. W. RANDOLPH, Wholesale Agent.

FEATURES OF CEBU.

This Is the Place Where Magellan Landed to Take Possession for Spain.

Cebu, on the eastern side of the long, narrow island of the same name, in the heart of the Visayas and of the whole archipelago, is a much more attractive place than Iloilo, though it has been commercially eclipsed by the latter on account of advantages as a shipping place for sugar. Cebu is the place where Magellan landed in 1521 to take possession of everything within reach for Spain, and opposite is the little island of Mactan, where the navigator was killed, having imprudently interferred in a native quarrel. Here, too, Legaspi, landed in 1565, and first made the Spanish possession effective. Until he discovered the advantages of Manila, a few years later, the colonial government was established here, and Cebu continued to be the capital of Visayas to the end of the Spanish dominion. It also continued to be a seaport of some importance, though the bulk of the sugar shipment had been drawn to Iloilo by its more convenient location for the collection of the product, and it is still, next to Manila, the chief point for the export of hemp. Moreover, its situation is attractive, and it is a well-built town.

The island of Mactan, in front, has a picturesque aspect, while behind the city is a ridge of verdant hills. It is the seat of a bishopric, and has a cathedral and several other churches, including that of the Santo Nino, or Sacred Child, whose image is an object of reverence, not to say adoration, to the whole island. The triangular fort is of stone, painted red, and the government buildings are solid looking, while there are stone residences that indicate comfort and taste as well as comparative wealth. The whole island of Cebu, which is a hundred miles long and somewhat mountainous, is not only fertile and verdant, but it is healthy and is occupied by a people of peaceable disposition and civilized tendencies. It is doubtful if they know Aguinaldo, or would be much enticed by his emissaries. Several foreign consuls and commercial agents have long lived at Cebu, and when we get ready to take possession it ought to be a favorable centre from which to diffuse a better understanding of our purposes and of the character of American sovereignty.

Glimpses at Manila.

Manila at night is very dull. After 10 o'clock the city is dead, and only the sentries are seen in the streets. There is no theater there. The soldiers are not allowed out of quarters after 10 o'clock unless on duty; the saloons are closed and the night life of Manila is behind closed doors. It is almost impossible to imagine a great city of 300,000 being as quiet as Manila is at night. The Spaniards retire to their homes and the Americans to their barracks.

The few foreign residents who spend their evenings at the clubs return home long before the small hours. Most people there go to bed early, because nearly all the city's business is done in the forenoon, and people get up pretty early to do it. At noon all the stores are closed for two hours, and in the afternoon those who can do so seek refuge from the sun beneath the spreading balconies of their homes and do not appear in the escolta unless it is necessary. And if it is necessary, they put it off until to-morrow.

The Philippine girls are interesting, but only a few are pretty. They are extremely graceful, as straight as arrows and always picturesque. A girl becomes a young lady at 12 or 13, a mother about three years later and a grandmother at 35, but even at the advanced age of 50 she is still supple and graceful and picturesque.

The skin is yellow or brown, the hair straight and shiny black the eyes soft and lustrous and the teeth white except where the habit of chewing the betelnut has left them red and repulsive. The women are modest to the last degree, do not know what flirting is and are hospitable and womanly. The practice of smoking is general, and even little girls scarcely 8 years old may frequently be seen smoking enormous cigars. The children go naked until they are 6 or 7 years old, and then they graduate into a short skirt, and a little while later into about the same style of clothes as are worn by the grown people. The mothers carry their children astride on their hips.

The Proof of It.

The war correspondent who had returned from the scene of action in Cuba, or who said he had, was giving the crowd of listeners a lurid account of a fight he had witnessed on the skirmish line in the vicinity of Sevilla. Everybody in the crowd was taking the story right down without the least sign of a doubt as to its absolute accuracy, until a long, slim party, with a smooth face and a ruffled shirt front, became an interrogator after the facts:

"Did I understand you to say that it was Kentucky battalion that had gone right up the hill over the brush and rocks in the very muzzles of the enemy's guns?"

"That's what," asserted the narrator.

"And they threw away their knapsacks on the first jump?"

"You bet they did. They didn't want any handicap in a race like that."

"Then they threw away their coats?"

"Indeed they did."

"And their hats?"

"They went into it bareheaded, like the daredevils they were."

"And dropped their cartridge belts?"

"Every one of them, and went for the foe with their cold bayonets."

"And their canteens?"

Everything. By George, they went into the scrap stripped like prizefighters."

The smooth-faced man coughed and shuffled his chair.

"That's all right," he said firmly. "They were not Kentuckians. That's their style of fighting, but you can bet a farm that Kentuckians never would have thrown their canteens away."

It has been decided by the United States judge in Oklahoma that when a man makes a round disk, not pretending to be money, and beats a slot machine with it, there has been no violation of the law. The disks are not counterfeit, and it is not swindling to rob an illegal game.

SOME GIANT SCALES.

New Ones That Will Weigh a Load of 150 Tons.

Everybody is perhaps aware that the large scales upon which entire freight cars with their loads of many tons are weighed are considered immense, but with all their immensity Uncle Sam has gone all the railroads in this country one point better, says the Washington Times, by installing at the navy yard one of the largest pair of scales in the country. This machine can outweigh the largest railroad weighing machine by fifty tons, and its results must be accurate to the pound, while railroad scales are considered good enough if they approach anywhere near fifty pounds of being correct. The new scales are placed on the track going south from the great gun shops and just opposite the forge shop. They are forty-eight feet long and twelve feet wide, and rest upon a cement base built upon long piles. The ground is somewhat low, and it was necessary to utilize the services of pile drivers to secure a stable foundation, which is one of the requisites of an accurate weighing machine. The cost was about $1,200.

Much of its fine and sensitive balancing apparatus was manufactured for special use in the new machine, and the completed structure is considered a model and marvel of modern mechanism and American ingenuity.

In order to illustrate the accuracy of the counterpoise of the machine to a reporter the superintendent of the yards and docks picked up a half brick that was lying on the ground near by and tossed it on the huge platform of the machine. He then consulted the long brass lever in the reading box along the side of the scales and found that the record of the of the brickbat was just a pound.

Turning to the reporter he said that the machine was so sensitive that it could weigh anything from a pound of sugar to a trio of 13-inch naval guns, and weigh them accurately, though it will probably eke out a long existence at the famous gunshop without having the chance to weigh an ounce of the former. The capacity of the new scales is 150 tons, or double the capacity of the old scales, which has just been replaced. A 13-inch gun weighs about 55tons, and it can be readily seen that the new scales can weigh two of the monsters, reclining on a forty-eight foot track, and not tax its capacity to any great extent. All the new guns of the navy yard will be weighed upon these colossal scales.

Story of "The Lost Chord."

In London, in the early part of this decade, Col. Wentling was a frequent visitor at the houses of many of the nobility, and became acquainted, through his excelent knowledge of music, with many of the best musicians of the English metropolis.

"It was while there," said Col. Wentling, "that I first heard the story of the birth of 'The Lost Chord,' a song that has been sung in every quarter of the globe, and which will live forever. If ever there was such a thing as inspiration, the song was inspired.

"There are very few Englishmen who do not remember Fred Sullivan, the great comic star and brother of Sir Arthur Sullivan. He played in all the original Gilbert and Sullivan operas, and has never been equalled. He was later followed by George Grossmith.

"One day Sir Arthur Sullivn was notified that his brother Fred was very ill. He made every effort to reach the house where his brother was lying at the point of death, but arrived too late to see him alive. The two brothers were devoted to each other, and the blow was a bitter one for Sir Arthur. He was closeted with the body of his brother for two hours, at the expiration of which time he came down stairs and went to the piano. Throwing the instrument open he began to play, and the bar, 'The Lost Chord,' was evolved. The composer sadly put his new composition on paper and stored it away.

"The song is the wail of a throbbing heart, the grief of desolation. All through its beautiful harmony can be heard the strain of grief. So profound an impression did the association of the song with the death of his brother make on Sir Arthur that he is said to have, even at this late day, an aversion to hearing it performed. New York Sun.

A Quaint Ceremony in Madrid.

The Queen Regent held at the palace in Madrid the ceremony of the investigation of eleven Grandees of the first class, who have succeeded to Dukedoms, Marquisates and Earldoms created between the years 1368 and 1610. They were invested in the order of their precedence, the Duke of Medina Coeli, the Premier Duke and Premier Peer of Spain, possessing twenty titles and £150,000 income, coming first, followed by the Marquis Astorga, Count Oropesa, Dukes Arcos, Luna, Alag, Hnescar, Baena and Arion, the Marquis Santa Cruz and Count Castrillo.

The Queen stood surrounded by the high dignitaries and ladies of the court in the royal anti-chamber, where the new Grandees, accompanied by their sponsers, who are Grandees of the same class, were successfully ushered in by the Lord Chamberlain and the Lords-in-Waiting. All the Grandees present uncovered when a new Peer entered, and remained so until the sovereign said to the new Grandee, "Cover your head and speak," which he had to do in a short discourse on the merits of his ancestors who preceded him in title. After the investiture the Grandees passed before the Halberdier Guards drawn up on the palace stairs, in order that the Guards might know them and pay them the usual honors when they enter the precincts of the palace, where alone they have the right to remain uncovered in the presence of royalty.—Pall Mall Gazette.

"To prove my love," he cried desperately, "let me tell you during how many weeks I have scarcely closed my eyes in sleep, during how many days I have eaten only——"

Here, with an imperious gesture, she waved him to silence.

"Statistics prove nothing!" she said. Ah, but what a cold dictum! It was like an icicle plunged into his throbbing heart!—Detroit Journal.

Little Edwin—Mamma, what is liquid air?

Mamma—I don't know. Ask your papa. He's always going out between the acts "to get a little air."

CLOVER HAY,

While costing less is worth more than Timothy for cows. Give the cow the BEST CLOVER and the horse the BEST TIMOTHY and the result will please you We have all kinds at right prices.

In comparing prices it should be borne in mind that OUR GRAIN IS ALL RECLEANED and OUR FEEDS are ALL MADE ON THE PREMISES and ARE KNOWN TO BE PURE

Mixed Oats	74c per bag	Middlings	90c per 100
Mixed Clips	76c per bag	Oat Feed	73c per 100
2 White Oats	78c per bag	Gluten	95c per 100
Regular Clips	80c per bag	Oil Meal	$1.45 per 100
X. R. Clips	82c per bag	No. 1 Grain Mixture	$1.10 per 100
Yellow Corn	79c per 100	Our Poultry Food	$1.15 per 100
Cracked Corn	84c per 100	Wheat	$1 25 per 100
Coarse Meal	84c per 100	Barley (90 lbs)	$1.15 per bag
Ground Feed	84c per 100	No. 1 Hay	88c per 100
Bran	90c per 100	Clover Hay	83c per 100
Buckwheat Middlings	70c per 100	Cut Hay	8c per 100

The above prices are for spot cash at our stores.

If delivered add according to quantity as follows:

25 bags or over ..... 2c per bag
5 bags or over ..... 5c per bag
Less than 5 bags ..... 10c per bag

THE PAUL T. NORTON CO.

Elizabeth, Elizabethport, Red Bank, Plainfield, Somerville.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	High Score.
Roselle Casino	7	2	911
Westfield Club	5	4	866
Park Club	4	5	864
Cranford Casino	2	7	843

The next game to be rolled in the Daily Press Bowling League will be between the teams of the Cranford Casino and the Westfield Club on the latter's alleys Friday evening. When those teams met on the Cranford alleys, Westfield had no trouble in winning all three games. Naturally, Westfield ought to be able to repeat the performance on her own alleys. It doesn't always happen that way, however. Cranford now occupies the tail end of the procession but the showing made against the leaders from Roselle last week was not bad and Cranford may be able to show Westfield a thing or two Friday evening.

It certainly does not look as if The Daily Press Bowling League trophy was going to stay in Plainfield. Up to last Friday the Park Club team was tied with the Westfield Club. When Westfield came to Plainfield that day it was expected that the Parks would win at least two of the three games. But alas for expectations. The Parks were not in the running at all. For a single game they woke up and rolled in old time form. The other two Westfield had no difficulty in winning quite easily. If the Park Club wants to make any showing for the trophy this year the bowlers of that club will have to take a decided brace and without delay. The tournament is half over and the Park Club is a poor third. Their next game is against Cranford Casino on the latter's alleys. Defeat there will be sad indeed.

BASKET BALL.

The basket ball team of the local Y. M. C. A. will play the team from the Summit Y. M. C. A. next Monday evening. There may also be a game of bowling the same evening between these teams.

Arrangements are being made by basket ball teams of the local Y. M. C. A. for games with the Lafayette King's Sons; the Bedford Athletic Club of Brooklyn and New Brunswick Y. M. C. A. teams for match games of basket ball in the near future.

AT THE TRAPS.

There will be a live bird shoot at the farm of Scott Terry tomorrow afternoon, when the principal event will be a match between ten-men teams from the Climax Gun Club and the Middlesex Gun Club. Each man will shoot at ten live birds. A special match for $25 has been arranged between Chas. Howard and Albert Calloway at 25 live birds each.

ON THE GRIDIRON.

A delegation of the players from the Alis team of this city went to New York Saturday evening to witness the indoor game of football between the Bedford A. C. and the Westfield A. C. Bedford won easily by a score of 24 to 5. Last season the Alis team defeated both Westfield and the Bedford eleven.

If "clothes make the man"—

$1.50 GETS A NEW MAN

—at Hillier's.
Suits Cleaned and Pressed:

Coat, 75c; Vest, 25c; Trousers, 50c
Suits dyed, $2.75.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 W. FRONT ST.
Tel. 851.

TO DECIDE OWNERSHIP.

Litigation Growing Out of Failure of Bard Cycle Company Carried Into Court Today.

The well-known and somewhat noted litigation of the Bard Cycle Company and the First National Bank of this city came up for trial in the Circuit Court at Elizabeth today. The action on trial today is on the court calendar as the First National Bank against William R. Mattox in replevin. Some months ago several parties obtained judgments in Justice Nash's court against the Bard Cycle Company. Upon this property the First National Bank held chattle mortgages. When Mattox, as constable, levied upon the property the bank claimed ownership and the goods were replevined. The action now being tried is to set aside the replevin proceedings and to establish the rightful title to the property. Craig A. Marsh and William M. Stillman represent the Bank and W. S. Angleman the defendants. The case has excited considerable interest and a number of lawyers are in attendance.

BRAVE JERSEYMAN.

General Lawton Recommended Captain Butler for Promotion.

Governor Voorhees said Saturday that a recommendation had been received, made by General Lawton before his death at the Philippine Islands, for the promotion of Captain William C. Butler to his majority for gallantry in the field. The recommendation was forwarded to Washington.

Captain Butler is a Jerseyman, and lived at New Brunswick, and was instructor of military tactics at Rutgers College, and was mustering officer at Sea Girt when the Third and other regiments of the State were mustered into service.

Governor Voorhees, in referring to the incident, said that New Jersey was being liberally recognized by Grand Army officers for heroic conduct in action, and that it pleased him greatly to tell of it.

An Appeal Suit.

The action of Mrs. Mary Coriell against E. E. Milligan was tried in the Circuit Court at New Brunswick yesterday. The action is an appeal from a decision rendered by a jury in Justice Warden's court at Dunellen last fall, when a judgment for $30 was awarded Milligan, who brought suit to recover the balance due on a heating furnace which had been placed in Mrs. Coriell's house on North avenue, Dunellen. H. C. Runyon represented the plaintiff and S. S. Swackhamer the defendant.

Policy Men's Fines Paid.

Thomas Williams and Louis Haas, policy men, were released from jail in New Brunswick yesterday on payment of fines and costs of $620 04. The men were arrested Sunday. Policy men sent yesterday two checks for payment of the fines. Ex-Sheriff Litterst cashed them and the men were released.

Seriously Injured.

James Kane, the blacksmith, who was so severely injured several days ago by falling over a bill board on Liberty street near the railroad bridge, is confined to the house. Mr. Kane thinks that when he fell he injured himself internally.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

To those who enjoy an evening of continued mirth, when care is forgotten and troubles of the day are banished, the announcement that Ullie Akerstrom and her new laughable comedy, "My Mother-in-law," will appear at Music Hall tomorrow night will be read with pleasure. This little lady has always kept faith with the public and her name has become a household word throughout the land. "My Mother-in-law" generally suggests trouble of some kind in the family. The poor husband is usually the one that has the most fault to find. He objects to any interference with his domestic arrangements. All mothers-in-law are not peace disturbers. There are some who are lovable. The one in question causes trouble by insisting that her son-in-law resume his profession as a doctor, and resorts to strategy to secure him patients. Fills his house with sick people. Letters received from lady patients arouse his young wife's jealousy. Causes the doctor to prevaricate in explaining his absence from home. The situations are extremely funny. And when portrayed by a clever company mirth prevails. Pleasing specialties add not a little to the interest of the comedy.

* * * * *

J. C. Lewis, the Yankee character actor, and a company of 20 people, will be at Music Hall Saturday afternoon and night. An exchange says—"Whenever the name Si Plunkard is mentioned where he has been before, the dullest face becomes bright with the thought of the good-natured Yankee farmer, who has caused so many to hold their sides in laughter at his peculiarities. He is not an imaginary character, but one which you can meet every day by visiting small country towns. He is not a man of education, but, simply, a Simon pure Yankee farmer, whose home is always open to the weary traveler." "Si Plunkard" is not a jumble, but a well-devised and exceptionally strong and interesting comedy, with a plot taken from every day life. It shows the traps and snares set for the innocent and unsophisticated public. "It is a play that anyone can take a lesson from." The company carries an orchestra and band and will give a concert on the street each day, as well as a parade.

* * * * *

David Higgins' picturesque drama of the Cumberland mountains, entitled "At Piney Ridge," will be presented with all its beautiful scenery and effects at Music Hall Saturday, Jan. 20th.

LIPPINCOTT RE-APPOINTED.

Governor Voorhees Names the Eminent Supreme Court Justice to Succeed Himself.

Governor Voorhees, as was expected, has nominated Justice Job Lippincott, a Democrat, as Supreme Court Justice, to succeed himself. The Governor has made out Justice Lippincott's commission, feeling assured that the appointment would be confirmed by the Senate.

Justice Lippincott's term does not expire until Wednesday, January 17th. He has presided over the court of Hudson county of seven years.

He was born near Mount Holly, November 12, 1842, and began the study of law with Ewan Merritt at Mount Holly, January 1, 1863. He subsequently attended the law school at Harvard University, at Cambridge, Mass., and graduated in July, 1865. In the February term of the Supreme Court in 1867 he was admitted to the bar of New Jersey and made his home in Hudson county.

While Law Judge of the County of Hudson the ballot box stuffers of 1889 were brought for trial before him. They were of his own party, but his conduct won him commendation from all unbiased citizens without regard to party affiliations. The men appealed to the higher courts, but in every case the rulings of Judge Lippincott were upheld and the appeals dismissed.

Lost Her $10,000 Suit.
(Special to The Daily Press).

Newark, Jan. 10.—Mrs. John R. Carter, who appeared on crutches in the Circuit Court yesterday to press her claim for $10,000 damages against the New Jersey Street Railway Company, lost her suit. The defense proved that her injuries, which were caused by a fall from a car, resulted from her own carelessness.

The Fund for the Hobart Monument.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Paterson, Jan. 10.—The fund for the erection of a monument to the memory of the late Vice-President Garret A. Hobart, which is in the hands of L. A. Piaget of this city, has reached a total of $2,227.

Funeral of Mrs. Titsworth.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Frances S., wife of Arthur L. Titsworth, will be held from her home, 415 West Seventh street, next Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

An amusing story is related concerning the painting of the letter boxes about the city to a silver or aluminum color. A friend, who happened to notice the change, asked if the postmaster was a silver man. As anyone who knows Mr. Bird will testify, the thought is an absurd one, as he is one of the strongest gold men to be found anywhere.

* * * * *

A fact in connection with unwritten Hunterdon county history has been kept alive by tradition which has it that the rollicking Captain Kidd, when compelled in 1701 to hang for his many crimes, had in his crew a youth named Ticknor Lewis, who, on account of his youth, was pardoned by the authorities at Boston—where Kidd was hanged—but was told to "git" and he "got" back into the wilderness of New Jersey, and squatted on the farm now owned by Elisha Alward, just north of Sergeantsville. As the country was then a vast forest, filled with bears, wolves, panthers and other savage "varmints," and the waters teeming with fishes, young Lewis passed his time in hunting and fishing. It is stated that Lewis frequently made trips to the seashore, always going and returning at night to bring home his share of "the many bars of gold dollars manifold" that Captain Kidd and his jolly old cut-throats had salted down there. After the death of Lewis many a search was made for buried treasure over the above-named farm, but none has ever been unearthed.

* * * * *

There will be one page in the State Senate this year about whose selection there is a bit of story-book glamor. One day last summer a messenger boy carried a telegram to the home of Senator Louis Evans, at Atlantic City. The Senator gave the lad some change and he went away on his wheel. An hour later the boy was back. "You made a mistake," said the lad, politely.

"Did, eh?" asked the Senator, disinterestedly.

"You gave me a $5 gold piece for a penny, and here it is."

Senator Evans recalled that he had had a gold piece, and investigation showed that it was gone. He told the boy that he appreciated his honesty and the lad rode off somewhat richer and gladder. The other day Mr. Evans stopped in the telegraph office in Atlantic City and told the manager he wanted to see Charley O'Donnell.

"Anything I can do for you?" asked the manager.

"No; this is a personal matter between the boy and me."

The messenger stepped forward and directed the Senator to his home, where the lad's father was interviewed, and as a result Charley O'Donnell will be a page in the Senate.

* * * * *

In view of the Mayor's recommendation in his annual message that the needs of the city demand a new city hall, the question of a site is being discussed by those interested in the matter. Several sites have been suggested, but possibly the most feasible and eligible one is that owned by Woolston & Buckle on North avenue. It is understood that these gentlemen are willing to dispose of the property to the city at a fair figure. The lot has a frontage of about three hundred feet on North avenue and extends back to East Second street. This would indeed make an ideal site for a city hall, being in the centre of the business section of the city and available for all purposes, besides being convenient to the railroad station. A substantial building erected on this site would make an imposing appearance and add to the beauty of the street and the surrounding business houses. Of course, it is yet too early to predict what style of building will be erected or how costly a structure. But it is believed that the site spoken of above will be satisfactory to the citizens generally, who are anxious to see a new city hall built at an early date.

Minerva Temple Elect Officers.

At the regular meeting of Minerva Temple, No. 4, Rathbone Sisters, held last evening, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Most Excellent Chief, Mrs. W. J. Ford; excellent senior, Mrs. J. B. Higgins; excellent junior, Mrs. E. Bounsville; manager of temple, Mrs. Saide Bowman; mistress of finance, Mrs. Mattis; M. of R and C., Mrs. E Hallard; protector of temple, Mrs. L. Bird; outside guard, Miss Mattox; past chief, Mrs. Chamberlain; installing deputy, Mrs. Hallard.

Coal Dealers to be Indicted.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, January 10.—A careful investigation of three months into alleged "short weight" sales of coal has resulted in the placing of evidence before the Grand Jury, and indictments are likely to follow. The investigation has been conducted quietly by the City Sealer of Weights and Measures.

Silas Dewey Drake, Mayor of Lincoln, has been elected a member of the Asbestos Club.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—The Union Gospel meeting in the W. C. T. U. room Thursday evening at 8 o'clock will be led by Seely Edsall.

—Neuman Bros. report a special sale of choice Baldwin, Greening, Northern spy and Smith's cider apples at very low prices.

—J. Goff & Co. have opened a store at 124 West Second street, where they are selling oysters at 30 cents a quart, and fresh fish at equally low prices.

—At the Crescent Avenue church prayer meeting this evening the subject will be, "Prayer for Nations." A cordial invitation is extended to all.

—Thomas McGann, of the borough, started the work this morning of digging the cellar for the large building that is to be erected at the corner of Central avenue and West Second by Ballentine & Co.

—There is a good reason why there are so few bald headed people in Newark, and that is that L. W. Randolph, the West Front street druggist, is constantly shipping quantities of his celebrated glycerine hair tonic there. This morning another shipment was made.

BLACKFORD IS SANE.

Decision of Physicians Who Examined Him Made to Judge Vail Today.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Jan. 10.—John L. Blackford, the Central Railroad detective who pleaded guilty to the charge of bigamy in having married Miss Alice Morgan, of Westfield, while his first wife was living on Putnam avenue in Plainfield, was declared to be perfectly sane by the physicians appointed to examine him by Judge Vail in Union County Court.

The report of the physicians was made today. The examination as to his his sanity was brought about by application of former Judge W. A. Coddington, who was employed by his first wife, who is devoted to him despite his infidelity.

Mrs. Blackford has a petition signed by many prominent Plainfielders asking the court to extend clemency to the prisoner when he is brought up for sentence next Saturday morning.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

B. S. Braider, of Manning avenue, who fractured his leg some time ago, is now able to go out most every day.

James Atwood, of Trenton, has been visiting Plainfield friends for a short time. He returned home today.

Deputy Grand Master Workman Nash assisted in the installation of the newly elected officers of Upchurch Lodge, A. O. U. W., at Westfield last night.

Miss Vail, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Vail, of West Eighth street, will go to Boston next week where she will be bridemaid at the wedding of an intimate friend.

Westfield Bowlers.

There are twelve members of the local Y. M. C. A. who live at Westfield. They are so much interested in bowling that Physical Director Heywood is considering the feasibility of forming them into a bowling team by themselves under the name of the Westfield Bowling Club. If this is done a team composed of players living in this city who attend the association will be formed to contest with them.

A Paper on the Holy Spirit.

On Monday afternoon last the Plainfield Ministerss' Association met at the home of Dr. A. H. Lewis and listened to a highly interesting and instructive paper on the "Holy Spirit," prepared and read by Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph.D. Kindly and touching reference was made at the meeting to the late Dr. Lowry.

M'GOVERN BEATS DIXON.

Is Now the Bantam and Feather-weight World Champion.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—After holding the featherweight championship of the world, which he won from Cal" McCarthy nearly nine years ago, George Dixon had to relinquish it to the little Brooklyn "terror," Terry McGovern, last night at the Broadway Athletic club. McGovern in defeating Dixon possesses double championship honors. He is now the bantam as well as the featherweight champion of the world. The fight only lasted eight rounds.

Terry won the former title in short order by defeating "Pedler" Palmer in less than half a round at Westchester a few months ago, and his defeat of Dixon stamps him as a wonder in either class.

In fact, McGovern stands now in a class by himself. He has met everybody of any note under 122 pounds and has dismissed each one of them in such a decisive manner that some new phenomenon will have to be brought to the surface to wrest his honors from him.

Dixon went down to defeat after the hardest battle of his life, but while beaten the dusky Nova Scotian had the sympathy of everybody and is as much thought of, though despoiled of his championship honors, as he ever was. Dixon's career in the ring during the last 12 years is a most enviable one. Only once during that time was he knocked out.

LEGISLATIVE WHEELS NOW ON THE TURN

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

judiciary, public health, joint-committee on sinking fund.

Chester M. Smith, of Westfield, corporations, joint committee on State prison, joint committee on treasurer's accounts.

Ellis R. Meeker, of Elizabeth, chairman of joint-committee on Reform School for boys, bill revision, incidental expenses, riparian rights, joint-committee on Industrial School for girls.

Edward E. Cooper, of Warrenville, chairman of committee on claims and Revolutionary pensions, boroughs, printed bills, stationary, chairman of joint-committee on sinking fund.

WORKING DESERTED MINES.

Wave of Prosperity Gives Employment to Thousands of Men.

Flemington, Jan. 10.—The business outlook for Hunterdon and Warren counties is most encouraging. The once deserted mines are being rapidly reopened, and the idle industries throughout this section have nearly all started up, giving employment to thousands of men. Nearly all of the factories are increasing their capacity and taking on more hands.

The gold and silver mine at Woodglen is now in operation. The percentage of the precious metal to the ton has now reached $50, which surpasses the most sanguine predictions of the prospectors. The Flemington copper mines will no doubt be re opened within a short time. The analysis of the ore shows a large percentage of both copper and silver.

Dislocated Elbow.

Harrison Coddington, of Mountain avenue, dislocated an elbow joint yesterday afternoon while superintending the harvesting of the ice at the Watchung ice pond. Dr. Probasco attended the injured man.

LOCAL and CLIMATIC

Nothing but a local remedy or change of climate will cure

CATARRH.

The Specific is

Ely's Cream Balm

It is quickly Absorbed. Gives Relief at once. Opens and cleanses the Nasal Passages. Allays Inflammation. Heals and Protects the Membrane. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. No Mercury. No Injurious drug. Regular Size 50c. Family Size $1.00. at Druggists or by mail.
ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

CATARRH
COLD IN HEAD

WANTED.

Day's work by good gardener. Handy at anything. Cesspools and sub-cesspools built. Best of work guaranteed. Call or address C. T., 99 Westervelt Ave. 1 10 3

FREE TRIAL.
ARE YOU SICK?

A sure cure for Bronchitis, Croup, Catarrh, Whooping Cough, Diphtheria, Consumption or any disease of the lungs or throat. Medicine taken into the stomach will not cure these diseases, because it is impossible to reach the affected part through the stomach. Doctors know this.

These diseases are cured by

DOWNING'S CHLORIDES.

Why? Because it cures by inhalation and reaches the affected parts. Ten to thirty drops poured on a plate and allowed to evaporate gives you immediate relief, and every breath helps to cure. The cure is positive and quick. Downing's Chlorides are breathed naturally into the lungs and throat, and is a germicide which kills all microbes, the cause of all troubles of the lungs and throat. This cure is so simple as to be perfectly safe for the youngest infant or for the aged person. There is no apparatus, smoke or danger. Unlike medicine, it cannot upset the stomach and nerves. If you have any form of lung or throat trouble, we guarantee to cure you. It is recognized and recommended by eminent specialists as the proper treatment for lung and throat troubles.

A free trial will be given by applying to the regular physician in charge of the office at 241 West 51st St., New York City. Descriptive booklet will be mailed free.

Sold by all druggist, $1 per bottle.
C. N. CRITCENTON & CO., Wholesale.

Fish and Oysters.

Look at these prices before you buy. Everything warranted as represented.

Codfish ..... 6c lb
Haddock ..... 6c lb
Herring, 6c lb, 5 lbs for 25c
Smelts, 3 lbs for 25c
Oysters, ... 30c qt

J. GOFF & CO.,
near Park Ave. 124 W. Second St.

THE CELEBRATED
NEW YORK MUSICAL CLUB
will give an entertainment for the benefit of
The Park Golf Club
—at the—
PARK CLUB HOUSE,
Friday Evening, January 12th, 1900,
at 8:30 o'Clock.
ADMISSION - ONE DOLLAR.
1 10 3

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.
TELEPHONE 723.
MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.
Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9 a. m.

Thursday Night, Jan. 11, 1900.
ULLIE ACKERSTROM
in the Laughing Comedy
"My Mother-In-Law"
Presented by a well-selected COMPANY OF COMEDIANS.
SCINTILATING WITH WIT and INCESSANT LAUGHTER.
Prices 25, 35, 50 and 75c.

Saturday, January 13, 1900.
2 Performances—Matinee and Night.
The young character comedian, J. C. LEWIS, and his Big Comedy Company in the rural farce comedy,
"SI PLUNKARD."
Entirely Re-written. New Dialogue. New Situations. New Novelties and New Scenic and Mechanical Effects. A strong and efficient comedy company.
SEE The great R. R. Scene. The Threshing Machine Scene. The County Fair Scene.
LOOK OUT! For "Si" and his Country Band Parade. For the Funniest Street Parade ever seen.
Prices—Matinee, children 12 and under, 15c. Adults, 25c. Night, orchestra, 75 and 50c; dress circle, 75 and 50c; balcony, 35 and 25c.

DIED.

TITSWORTH—Entered into rest at Brooklyn, N. Y., Tuesday morning, Jan. 9th, 1900, Frances S. VanHoesen, wife of Aurthur L. Titsworth.
Services at her home, 415 West Seventh street, Plainfield, Friday afternoon, 12th inst., at half-past two o'clock. 1 10 2

WANTS AND OFFERS.

PURE cider vinegar for sale at C. J. Ackerman's, Clinton avenue. 6 5 w-s tf

TO LET—One large store, and four large room flat, city water, stationery wash tubs and water closet, 304 Richmond street. 1 8 tf eod

FOR SALE or exchange for Plainfield property; fine new 11-room house, all improvements, hard wood finish, open nickel plumbing; located at Upper Montclair, N. J. For particulars apply to W. A. Woodruff. 1 10 3

WANTED—Two competent white girls, one as cook and laundress, the other as chambermaid and waitress. Apply, with references, 31 Rockview avenue.

FOR SALE—A new upright steam engine, 5 horse power; used only one month. C. Schepflin, 320 West Front St. 1 9 3

WANTED—Office assistant. Apply by letter, VanDeventer Carpet Co., 629 South Avenue. 1 9 3

WANTED—By young man, position as coachman; reference. B. S., care Press. 1 9 2

WANTED—Colored girl for general housework; reference required. Apply 177 North Ave.

WANTED—Girl for general housework; reference required. 330 East Fifth street.

GIRL for general housework wanted; small family; references. 223 East Sixth St. 1 10 2

GIRL wanted to assist in general housework; 219 East Fifth St.

A SIX-YEAR-OLD bay horse, one buggy and harness complete, sound and gentle, good traveler. Inquire A. Kane, 409 East Third St. 1 9 2

HOUSE and store, corner Plainfield avenue and Fourth street, for sale cheap. Apply R. Frucht. 1 5 6

STORE to let, No. 220 Park avenue. Apply R. Frucht. 1 5 6

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

YOUNG colored woman wants work by the day; reference. 409 East Sixth St. 1 8 3

BOARD WANTED, with two rooms, for three adults; rooms and board must be first-class; modern improvements; give terms and full particulars. Address R. F. G., care Press. 1 8 3

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

Massage, Manicuring,
Hair Dressing, Shampooing,
Facial Massage and Steaming.
MISS HOLMES, Graduate of New York Schools of Massage, Electricity and Dermatology.
440 W. Front St., near Washington Ave.

THE
First National Bank,
of Plainfield, N. J.
Capital ..... $200,000.
Surplus and Profits ..... $ 90,000.
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.
DIRECTORS.
Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Coriell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:23 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:54 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:54 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Snow, turning to rain tonight, with warmer in north portion; rain and warmer Friday; clearing at night.
Ther. 27.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., THURSDAY, JANUARY 11, 1900. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

JUDGE BARTINE'S FRIENDS ACTIVE.

Circulating Petition Asking for His Reappointment.

GOVERNOR WILL NOT DO IT.

COUNTY JUDGESHIP VACANCIES TO BE FILLED BY REPUBLICANS.

Voorhees Says That He Will Make no Exception to the Rule—H. C. Suydam Anxious to Succeed Judge Bartine, but Senator Reed's Endorsement Must be Secured by Appointee.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, January 11.—The petition that was prepared by the friends of County Judge J. D. Bartine, of Somerset county, asking that he might be reappointed by Governor Voorhees, has been generally circulated among the leading men of Somerset county. The movement has been brought to the attention of the Governor who has spoken definitely on the subject.

Governor Voorhees made the statement yesterday to a prominent resident of Somerset county that he would not reappoint a Democrat to any of the county judgships which were to be filled this year. The statement was made decisively. It will include Somerset county as well as the others.

Even if the present incumbent should be a Democrat and a very successful county officer, the big Republican majority that was given by Somerset at the last election would have a great influence in putting in a Republican judge. The name that is most prominently mentioned at present is Lawyer Henry S. Suydam, of Bound Brook, who has an office in Plainfield. It is understood that Senator Reed is favorable to his appointment Whoever is appointed, however, will have to have the backing of Somerset's popular Senator as that will undoubtedly be a very important influence in the eyes of the Governor.

MUSIC TO BE THE ATTRACTION.

Entertainment to Be Given for Benefit of the Park Golf Club.

A musical entertainment of unusual excellence will be given in the Park Clubhouse Friday evening. It will be the first of a series of three entertainments for the benefit of the Park Golf Club. The programme will be provided by the New York Musical Club. The programme will be as follows:

Fantasie—"Il Trovatore".....Verdi
Messrs. Willard and Bartlett.
Recital—"Little Sister"..... Sarah Winter
Miss Loretta T. Greene.
Soprano Solo "Si, Ever" (Yes, 'tis true)
Miss Edith Hirschmann. [Mattei
Saxophone Solo—"Could I But Dream of Her"
Clarence Bartlett. [Miller
Recital—"There Were Ninety and Nine."
Miss Greene. [Davis
Violin Solo—"Cavatina".....Raff
Harry Willard.
Soprano Solo—"Good bye".....Tosti
Miss Hirschmann.
Piccolo—Banjo Duet.....Selected
Messrs. Willard and Bartlett.
Recital—"The Kindergarten Tot."
Fred Emerson Brooks
Miss Greene.
Mandolin, Harp, Guitar—"Polish Dance."
[Scharwanka
Messrs. Willard and Bartlett.

Lecture on Philippines.

A lecture extraordinary by Ramon Reyes Lala, on "The Philippines," will be given in Music Hall Tuesday next. Mr. Lala is a native of Manila and a member of a wealthy native family. At an early age he was sent to England for education and graduated at St. John's College, London. Returning to Manila he was for many years prominent in business and social life, until forced to leave because of Spanish persecution. A few years ago he transferred his allegiance to the United States, being the first Filipino admitted to American citizenship. The lecture will be accompanied by some hundred or more beautiful photographic views of our new possessions.

Substitutes Learning the Routes.

When the force of carriers at the Plainfield postoffice was increased to fourteen last September, it became necessary to secure more substitutes. There are now four new substitutes. For the last few weeks William H. Thorn, who fills the position of substitute left vacant by the resignation of Edward T. Lynch, and Frank Clarkson are going over the routes with the regular carriers learning them so as to be ready for work in case anything should prevent the regular men from attending duty and to be prepared for the summer vacations.

Mr. Johnson Again President.

The First National Bank directors have organized by electing J. Wesley Johnson, president; H. Mulford Estil, vice-president, and F. S. Runyon, cashier.

COLONEL HOPE IS DEAD

HE WAS ONE OF THE FOUNDERS OF ROSELLE.

A Pioneer in the Express Business and Has for Many Years Been Connected With the Central Railroad.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Roselle, Jan. 11—Colonel Aaron D. Hope, one of the first residents of Roselle, died suddenly of heart failure yesterday at the residence of his son, William C. Hope, in Fifth avenue. He enjoyed his supper Tuesday night and retired at his usual hour. The members of the family were at his bedside when the end came.

Aaron D. Hope was born December 14, 1817, at Clinton, Hunterdon county, and has always been a resident of New Jersey. He received his title during the Civil War, through which he served as Lieutenant-Colonel on Governor Charles S. Olden's staff.

Colonel Hope was the founder of Hope's express, which operated over the lines of the Lackawanna and Central Railroad of New Jersey, and was later bought by the Adams Express Company. Colonel Hope operated the first through express car on the Pennsylvania Railroad from New York to Washington, going by way of Allentown and Harrisburg, during the Civil War. He was for many years in the real estate department of the Central Road. For the last ten years he has been engaged in the real estate business in New York city.

Colonel Hope was one of the founders of Roselle thirty-five years ago, and was one of the organizers of the Roselle Land and Improvement Company. Colonel Hope was also one of the founders of the First Presbyterian church. He has been an elder of the church oversince. Colonel Hope was a life-long Republican, and was elected twice as a member of the Board of Education of Roselle. He was a widower, and is survived by two daughters and one son, Mrs. Charles D. Miller, of Roselle; Mrs. Peter Stryker, of Bound Brook, and William C. Hope, of Roselle. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon.

$1,500 TO CATCH FIREBUGS.

Additional Rewards Offered for the Arrest of Incendiaries.

(Special to The Daily Press).

Flemington, January 11.—The reward for the arrest of the firebugs who have been operating in Flemington and Three Bridges, has been increased from $750 to $1,500. The Board of Village Trustees increased its reward of $250 to $500, and the Fire Underwriters' Association from $500 to $1,000.

So far there have been no arrests. Several suspicious characters have been shadowed and their whereabouts on the nights of the conflagration investigated, with the result that they are in no way implicated in the burning of the buildings.

The Board of Trustees has purchased 500 feet of hose, two new hose carts and a fire engine, which arrrived today.

When the fire last Saturday night had been gotten under control, the steamer gave out and the trustees decided to be in readiness for all emergencies and procured another engine. The old one will probably he repaired and placed in working condition. A strong guard has also been stationed about the town.

PERTH AMBOY BANK AFFAIRS.

Some Ordinary Claims Paid, Preferred Ones Not Allowed.

Edward S Campbell, of Newark, receiver for the wrecked Middlesex County Bank, of Perth Amboy, whose cashier, George W. Valentine, is serving a seven-years' sentence in State Prison, passed on and allowed yesterday claims against the bank amounting to $400,000.

This sum represents ordinary claims that were proved, according to law.

Preferred claims to the amount of about $50,000 were not allowed by Receiver Campbell. The preferred claimants include the National Newark Banking Company, Essex County National Bank, Lehigh Valley Railroad and the Raritan Hollow and Porous Brick Company.

An appeal to the Chancery Court was taken by counsel for the preferred claimants.

Trinity Commandery Officers to Attend.

Tuesday evening, January 16th, York Commandery, No. 55, K. T., of New York, will hold their twenty-seventh annual reception at Madison Square Garden, and at that time Detroit Commandery, No. 1, K. T., will give the drill that made them world famous when they secured 98.2-5 per cent., the highest record ever made by any drilled body on earth. The officers of Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., this city, will attend in a body in full uniform.

—Press want ads bring results.

ORGAN TRUST FIXES SITE IN GARWOOD.

Will Locate Factory on Cranford Side of Line.

WILL BUILD AT ONCE.

CONTRACT GIVEN TO WALES, LINES CONSTRUCTIVE COMPANY.

Daily Press Had Exclusive Announcement Several Weeks Ago That Organ Trust Would Locate at Garwood—Only Question Was as to the Exact Site—Cranford and Westfield Both Wanted the Factory.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Garwood, Jan. 11.—The fact that the Organ Trust had definitely decided to locate its combined factories at Garwood was exclusively told in The Daily Press several weeks ago. The only question was whether the plant should be located in the Cranford or the Westfield end of Garwood That has now been decided and work will be started at once on the big factory which will be in Cranford township.

Garwood is peculiarly situated. The dividing line between the township of Westfield and the township of Cranford runs through the middle of the main street. The officials of both townships were anxious to have the factory within the limits of their respective territories.

The site finally selected lies just north of the tracks of the Jersey Central Railroad and only a few hundred feet east of the Garwood station. It includes an area of ten acres. The land was staked out Monday by Surveyor Frank Ham, of Cranford.

The factory buildings of the Organ Trust, which now goes under the corporate name of the Aeolian Organ Company, will when completed accommodate the present equipment of three factories that have been united in the trust. The first to be moved will be the Votey Organ Company, of Detriot, Mich. After the entire equipment is transferred and all is in running order, the other two factories will be moved in turn.

The contract for the erection of the buildings has been given to the Wales Lines Construction Company, of Meriden, Conn. The representatives of that company arrived on the ground yesterday ready to begin operations at once. President Votey, of the Votey Organ Company, arrived here Tuesday and will have general charge of the construction in behalf of the Trust.

The contract for the brick has been given to Hand, of Netherwood. George Brown, of Cranford, will furnish the sand. Arrangements for the other supplies will be made later.

The engineers of the Jersey Central Railroad visited here yesterday with a view of putting in a siding to facilitate the transportation of materials. The switch will be put in at once.

One of the inducements that the Cranford Township Committee wanted to offer was a sewer from the factory to connect with the present system at Cranford. It was discovered, however, that the Township Committee had no legal right to exempt the Organ Trust from the assessments that would have to be levied to pay for the construction of the sewer. The Cranford Township Committee has now made formal application to the Union County Board of Freeholders for permission to lay a sewer 2,000 feet long from the western terminus of the present system west. The assessment will have to be levied on the Trust's property according to law, but there has been some talk of raising the funds in Cranford to meet that expense.

The coming of this new concern will materially advance the prosperity of the place. The company promises to have a plant in operation within twelve months that will employ 600 hands, many of them skilled workmen. In two years, there will be 8,000 employes.

Messrs. Arthur and Campbell, who built 140 houses at New Orange recently, are looking over the ground with a view of making a proposition to build fifty to a hundred houses at once to accommodate the new arrivals that will come with the advent of the organ manufactory.

Westfield, Cranford and even Plainfield will offer homes for many of the newcomers while a large proportion of the trade will go to the Westfield and Plainfield merchants. The trolley will make communication easy.

—Press want ads pay.

—A very choice assortment of Indian river grape fruit at Neuman Bros.

—Pompano Spanish mackerel and Maine green smelts will be the leaders of a great variety of seafood at Rogers' for Friday. Come early.

ONE WHO WILL OBJECT.

BIG PROPERTY OWNER SAID TO BE OPPOSED TO WIDENING STREET.

Mayor and Council Hope to Overcome Opposition That Will Develop — A Public Hearing to be Held Tonight.

This evening Mayor Smalley and the Borough Council will meet the property owners on Somerset street for the purpose of securing an expression of opinion concerning the widening of the street. It is stated by Mayor Smalley that fully seventy-five per cent. of those affected have signified their willingness to help the project all that is possible, but it is understood that one very large owner of property on the street has said that he opposes the project strongly. It is known that this owner has encroached on the line and his building is over the established line. If this is true, and there seems to be no doubt but what it is, it is suggested that the owner might better agree to the widening and give the necessary portion of his land. If the Mayor and Council should compel him to set his building back, which right they have by law, it would cost the owner a great deal more money and trouble, and the easiest way is always considered the best. Mayor Smalley has a determined mind in this project and he together with the Council have about decided that the widening must be made at an early date.

There are people along the street who will have to sacrifice considerable, but rather than defeat such a worthy improvement they would gladly give all that they could and help the matter in every way possible. The removing of trees, poles, wires, etc., and the installation of a good storm sewer will be of incalcuable value to the borough and one which the whole borough cannot but help be benefitted by. At present Somerset street is always in an undesirable condition, owing to the very poor drainage, and the time has come when something must be done.

PRO-BOER MASS MEETING

FRIENDS OF THE TRANSVAAL RE PUBLIC TO EXPRESS SYMPATHY.

Meeting Will be Held Monday Evening January 22d—Prominent Speakers Will Discuss the War That is Now Raging.

Steps are being taken in this city for holding a public mass meeting of those whose sympathies are pro-Boer for the purpose of discussing the causes that led up to the war between England and the Transvaal Republic, and to express the sympathy of the meeting with the Boers.

It is known that there are a large number of Boer sympathizers in Plainfield, and it is expected that they will attend the meeting and make a demonstration of considerable proportions. The meeting will be held Monday, January 22d, probably in Washington Hall.

A prominent New Yorker will be the principal speaker, but among the Plainfielders who are taking an active interest in the meeting is James E. Martine, the well-known Democratic politician.

Robert Jahn, of Scotch Plains, is one of the most pronounced Boer sympathizers in this section, and he is the one who first started the movement for holding the meeting.

FIRE DESTROYS GREENHOUSES.

Six Conservatories, or One-Third of Extensive Floral Plant at Summit Destroyed.

Fire destroyed a large section of the greenhouses on the DeForest estate at Summit, yesterday morning. The greenhouses extended over an area of about six thousand feet, and constituted one of the largest establishments of the kind in New Jersey.

The flames were first discovered in the office over the boiler room, and as the firemen were handicapped by frozen hydrants the fire spread rapidly. Six greenhouses, or about one-third of the extensive plant, were destroyed. The total loss is estimated at about $15,000, partly covered by insurance.

Frederick A. Potts, of New York, owns the plant, which is conducted by W. M. DeForest.

Motorman Powers Was Hurt.

John Powers, a motorman on the Somerset street line of the Plainfield Street Railway, was severely cut last night by falling through the glass of one of the doors of the car. Powers was running car No. 1, which broke down caused by the shoe of one of the rear trucks breaking as the car was going out Somerset street. The sudden stopping of the car hurled Powers through the window. Dr. Fritts, the trolley company's physician, dressed Powers injuries. He was then removed to his home in Sampton.

Bank Officers Chosen.

The directors of the City National Bank organized yesterday by electing Charles Hyde, president; J. Frank Hubbard, vice president, and William F. Arnold, cashier.

LATE VICE-PRESIDENT EULOGIZED BY KEAN.

Jersey's Junior Senator Pays a Beautiful Tribute.

PICTURED HIM A GREAT MAN

SENATOR SEWELL OPENED SERIES OF SPEECHES.

Public and Private Life of the Jerseyman Reviewed at Length—Words of High Praise from Senators Daniel, Depew, Cockerell, Cullom, Berry, Davis, Morgan, Chandler, Lodge, Allen, Mason.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Washington, Jan. 11—The members of the United States Senate, many Representatives and a well-filled gallery yesterday listened to eulogies in the Senate upon the life of Garret A. Hobart.

The list of speakers who sought this opportunity to pay a last tribute to the memory of the late Vice President of the United States contained thirteen names and the remarks were delivered in the following order: Senators Sewell, Daniel, Depew, Cockerell, Cullum, Berry, Davis, Morgan, Chandler, Lodge, Mason, Allen and Kean.

The opening remarks were made by Senator Sewell and the closing ones by Senator Kean, thereby giving to New Jersey the most prominent positions in the list.

Senator Kean spoke in part as follows: "Mr. President—The State of New Jersey mourns with the Union of all the States in the untimely death of her distinguished son, Garret A. Hobart. Great as the loss has been to the Nation the blow has fallen with heavier force and with the sense of a personal and intimate loss upon the people of the city and State among whom his busy and useful life has been spent. He was born in the State of New Jersey.

"If the State gave him birth and education, training and experience, home and success, he, too, was generous to New Jersey, for he brought new honors to the old Commonwealth, he reflected new glory upon its career, already bright with the achievements of the distinguished patriots who had preceded him, and he returned, with thousandfold interest, the bounty of his generous parent.

"His was a life of usefulness, all his abilities centred about that pivot of action and conduct. He believed that the only aristocracy and the true aristocracy was the aristocracy of useful men and useful women. He lived loyally by that principle through all his days. He exemplified it in his boyhood among the farmers of Monmouth county.

"He had not only the desire to be useful, but he knew how to be useful. There was no waste of effort either in his intentions or in the application of it. He was not led aside into bypaths. He followed the direct road to usefulness by the shortest route. Thus he accomplished great deeds of usefulness for his city, his State and his country. It was the legacy he most desired to leave for his fellow-citizens.

"Loyalty was no less striking a feature of his character. He came of a loyal, patriotic ancestry, and the influence of that heritage was manifested in all the phases of his busy, useful life. He was loyal to his home, to his city, to his State and to his country.

"He was loyal to the great principles of liberty, upon which the fathers founded the Government. From his early youth he was led to believe in the wisdom, the justice and the patriotism of the Republican party. He never swerved in his loyalty to that belief, and all the activities of his energetic, political career were devoted to the maintenance and the strengthening of that party and its principles.

"From his young manhood he had taken a deep interest in public affairs. In the legislative halls of his own State he rapidly made an enviable reputation as a faithful legislator, a wise public servant and a man whose integrity and honesty of purpose no man ever questioned. He was barely over thirty when he was chosen Speaker of the Assembly; a few years later he became President of the Senate. In both of these positions he displayed the same grasp of parliamentary practice, the same dispatch of public business, which were so strongly revealed in his career as presiding officer of this body.

"I am here today to testify to the love that New Jersey bore for her distinguished and lamented son, gone, alas, to his long rest; to testify to the honor and distinction that Vice-President Hobart conferred upon a State which mingles tears over his untimely departure with pride for his illustrious career. Well might New Jersey and the Nation engrave this epitaph over his grave:

"To live in hearts we leave behind,
Is not to die."

MAYOR WENT BOY'S BAIL.

A PETTY AFFAIR CAUSES MUCH TROUBLE IN THE BOROUGH.

Bootblack Accused by Barber Pride is Held to Await Grand Jury, But Secures His Liberty by Favor of Mr. Smalley.

A colored boy, John Scott, Jr., a bootblack, formerly employed by William J. Pride, the Somerset street barber, is guilty of stealing $13, according to his own admission to Chief Marshal Campbell and Justice Mattison. The money was returned to Mr. Pride and everything seemed to be satisfactory. In the meantime Mayor Smalley, who owns the building where Pride had his shop, ordered the latter out of the place. Scott closed the shop one night and left the keys in the meat market adjoining, where His Honor secured them. This incensed Pride, and he brought action against the boy on the charge of petty larceny. Last Friday he was arrested and arraigned in Justice Mattison's court, where he was released in $50 bail, furnished by Mayor Smalley, for his appearance for a hearing Tuesday evening.

When the hearing was called there was a large crowd of interested spectators present. Pride was represented by Lawyer Robert M. Clark. William DeMeza represented the boy. The charge was petty larceny, that of stealing $13 and four cigars valued at 40 cents. The story brought out at the trial is that on Saturday evening, Dec. 23, Pride sent the boy to his house on Somerset street to get his supper, and while Mrs. Pride left him in the front room alone he opened a bureau drawer and took $13. Mrs. Pride hastened to her husband's shop and told him what had happened. Chief Campbell was called in.

The officer finally succeeded in getting the boy to admit that he took the money. He told the Chief where the money was, and it was found on the top of a beam in an outhouse back of the barber shop.

At the trial Pride was the only witness. Mr. DeMeza admitted to the Court that the boy was guilty and asked to have him committed. The boy was committed to Somerville to await the action of the Grand Jury. He was taken up by Constable Pangborn, and was accompanied by Mayor Smalley. He did not stay along, however, for His Honor returned on the next train and had the boy with him. He must have given bonds at Somerville for the appearance of the boy when wanted.

A DIFFICULT MOTION.

Judge Van Syckle Will Not Attempt to Decide it Alone.

Ex-Senator J. J. Bergen Tuesday made a motion before Judge Van Syckle at Elizabeth for an order to strike out certain pleas filed by W. S. Angleman, as counsel for the defendants in the case of Rice against Hand. The suit grew out of the ownership of Washington hall. Mr. Angleman opposed the motion. Judge Van Syckle said the case appeared to be of considerable importance and a difficult one to determine, and he advised that a motion should be made before the full bench of the Supreme Court at the February term.

THEY PAY UP NOW.

Chief Campbell Encounters but Little Trouble With Delinquents.

Chief Marshal Campbell is still busy hunting delinquent personal and poll taxpayers, and he is meeting with good success. People who on previous occasions had told him that they would not pay and threatened to throw him out of their house, are now paying up quickly and very little trouble is experienced. Up till today noon quite a sum money was turned over to Collector Brown. If the present success is continued it will not be long before the whole amount will be collected.

Automobiles Foiled Wedding Party.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Jan. 11—John Joseph Harley and Miss Agnes Rose Murphy, daughter of the late Captain Joseph Murphy, were married yesterday at St. Patrick's church. It was the intention of the bridal party to ride to the church in automobiles, but they could not secure them in time. The church was crowded with guests and 200 invitations were sent out for the reception, which followed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Julia Murphy, 176 First street.

Vacancies Were Filled.

At this morning's meeting of the Woman's Parliamentary Club, held in the small hall at the Y. M. C. A., the resignation of three members were accepted. Some vacancies existing in the officers, their places were filled by Mrs. S. R. Crum being elected recording secretary and Mrs. F. C. Budlong treasurer. Hereafter the club will meet on the second and fourth Thursdays of the month.

WILL MAKE A PLEA FOR LIGHT SENTENCE.

Final Effort to Secure Mercy for the Bigamist.

WIFE STILL STICKS TO HIM.

SHE HAS STRONG PETITION TO PRESENT TO THE COURT.

Judge Coddington Will Appear in Behalf of the Prisoner and Ask for Clemency—Will Argue That He Was Mentally Unbalanced When He Entered Into the Second Marriage.

Now that John L. Blackford, the bigamist, has been declared sane by the physicians appointed by Judge Vail to examine into his mental condition, there is nothing that can save him from going to State Prison—except the extreme clemency of Judge Vail, but such an outcome of so serious an offense as Blackford pleaded guilty to, is among the improbabilities.

The result of the medical report presented to Judge Vail is a hard blow to Mrs. Blackford, of this city, who is devoted to her husband's interests with as much love as though he had never committed the infidelity which got him into the present predicament.

The petition that Mrs. Blackford circulated, asking the Judge to extend mercy to the bigamist, has been signed by over 200 prominent citizens of this city, including the Mayor, all the members of the police force and nearly every other city official. Mrs. Blackford interviewed all the signers herself, and it had to be a pretty hard-hearted man that could refuse her request for their name to the petition.

Former Judge Coddington, who was engaged by Mrs. Blackford as counsel for her husband, was seen by a Press reporter this morning, and he said he would appear in court Saturday morning and make a plea for clemency for the prisoner. Notwithstanding the fact that the physicians' report was adverse to Blackford's chances of escaping a felon's cell, Judge Coddington will argue that he was not in his right mind when he committed the offense. To prove his line of argument he will present affidavits from those who were associated with Blackford during the past two years, in which it will be said that he acted queerly at times and seemed to be mentally unbalanced and full of fickle ideas.

The extreme punishment that Blackford can receive is ten years in State prison. The Judge can also send him to the county jail for a period less than six months, or he can impose a fine or discharge the prisoner. It is not thought that the prisoner will escape State prison, however.

Dr. Baily, the examining physician who was first called, stated that he had visited Blackford in jail, and after making every test which would tend to divulge his mental condition, was unable to discover in him the least evidence of insanity, and that his investigation he was positive that the prisoner was perfectly sane.

Dr. Green, who appeared later, expressed himself as being of the same opinion. He had visited the jail and had watched Blackford's every movement, and he had examined him both as to his physical and mental condition.

Physically he found the prisoner to be in perfect health, and in conversation with him found that he possessed an excellent memory, being able to call up reminiscences in the far and near past with perfect ease. He, however, showed a marked disinclination to discuss his recent actions. He had not fixed delusions of any kind, and that Blackford was sane he had no doubt.

During his report, Dr. Green spoke of Blackford having passed through the same school as he had, and said that while chatting with Blackford, the latter spoke of things which occurred during their school days, relating incidents of those days with perfect accuracy.

Verdict in Favor of Bank.

In the action of the First National Bank vs. William R. Mattox in replevin, which involved the Bard Cycle Company, tried at Elizabeth yesterday, the Court directed a verdict in favor of the bank, which it claimed had a right to the goods in question. The case hinged on when the distress warrant was removed from the goods.

Skating at Hyde's Pond.

Many of the young people of the city congregated at Hyde's pond yesterday afternoon to enjoy the skating. In the evening there was a large attendance as well, the moon adding to the pleasure of the evening outing.

—Use Press want ads.

ENGLISH TAKE HOPE.

Roberts and Kitchener Arrive In Cape Town.

MANY FRESH TROOPS SOON DUE.

A Resume of the Campaign In Africa Shows Small Results—All Quiet on the Tugela—Boers Rejoice Over Successes.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—During the interlude of apparent military inactivity and official secrecy Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener have arrived at the seat of war. It is assumed that their clearer vision, supported by 25,000 fresh men who are due to arrive in South Africa within 30 days, will alter the situation and that the fourth month of the campaign will witness the beginning of victories for the British arms.

They are not, however, expected to produce definite results for some days, but their mere presence will restore the shaken confidence of the men at the front in their generals.

Lord Roberts finds 120,000 men on the defensive or watching for an opening. Lord Methuen's health, according to The Daily Mail, has "broken down," and the field marshal may relieve him. Possibly some others will be relieved.

The Standard summarizes the general situation thus:

"Well, the campaign has lasted three months. We have something like 120,000 troops in South Africa. With this huge army distributed over the country we are still powerless to relieve three garrisons from investment. We have still to see large portions of both colonies in the hands of the enemy.

"We have driven the invaders back at no signal point. We are actually further from the hostile frontiers than we were on the day that the ultimatum was delivered. The work which ministers believed could be effectually performed with 25,000 men has not been done, has not even been begun, by four or five times that number. Can any one fail to admit that this is evidence of a grave miscalculation of forces and facts?"

The war office announces that the list of British casualties at Ladysmith last Saturday has not yet been received.

The following dispatch, dated Frere Camp, Jan. 10, noon, has been received from General Buller:

"A Transvaal telegram gives the enemy's loss at Ladysmith on Saturday as four killed and 15 wounded, and this after, as is admitted, they had endured a withering fire from six masked batteries and been defeated at all points.

"Natives here assert that the Boer loss in one commando alone was 150 killed and wagon loads of wounded. The heaviest loss is said to have been among the Free Staters, who were forced by the Transvaalers into the most dangerous places."

This curious dispatch is all the war office has issued. It makes not the slightest mention of the position or doings of the British forces. It may be interpreted to mean that Ladysmith is safe, but it is more likely intended to prepare the British public for a terrible list of casualties.

The Daily Mail has the following dispatch, dated Jan. 8, from Frere Camp:

"With the exception of the usual shelling of the Boer positions by the naval guns the British force remains inactive.

"Eight Boer camps were seen today by a patrol along the Tugela in a westerly direction. All were quiet.

"Natives say that when the British reconnoitered near Colenso on Saturday the Boers hurried from Springfield. This supports the belief that Colenso was weakened to attack Ladysmith."

The Cape Town correspondent of The Daily Mail, telegraphing Monday, says:

"The Boer successes have been followed by a tremendous outburst of enthusiasm and Boer sympathy in the western part of the colony. Reports from Paarl say the whole district is made hideous at night by bands of young men parading in the villages and singing the Transvaal volkslied, while the children are everywhere practicing the national songs of the republics. The following are specimens of statements believed by the western Dutch, 'Buller and Rhodes are prisoners' and 'Two thousand Boers secretly sailed and captured Cape Town.'"

The Suffolk Regiment Disaster.

RENSBURG, Cape Colony, Jan. 11.—It is reported here officially with reference to the disaster to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment that Lieutenant Colonel Watson marched the regiment in close column to the top of the hill at midnight. He assembled the officers and was addressing them just at daybreak when the enemy volleyed at a distance of 80 paces. The colonel, his adjutant and two other officers were killed. The Suffolks, who had scarcely fired a shot, fled back to the pickets, about 1,000 yards away, some one having shouted "Retire." About 150, however, remained, lost heavily and finally surrendered. Our operations since have been unimportant. Several reconnoissances have been made, and these show that the enemy is jealously guarding his communications to the north.

American Flour Released.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—Premier Salisbury has notified Embassador Choate that the government has decided that foodstuffs will not be deemed contraband of war unless intended for the enemy. The American flour seized by the British warships off South Africa was ordered released. The premier called on the embassador yesterday afternoon to inform him that the British government had come to a decision in answer to the American protest that would be satisfactory. Soon after the premier left a note was received at the embassy in which England formally conceded the point raised by the United States.

Bryan Defines His Position.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 11.—In an interview here W. J. Bryan said: "I am a firm believer in the enlargement and extension of the limits of the republic. I don't mean by that the extension by the addition of contiguous territory nor to limit myself to that. Wherever there is a people intelligent enough to form a part of this republic it is my belief that they should be taken in. Wherever there is a people who are capable of having a voice and a representation in this government, there the limits of the republic may be extended. The Filipinos are not such people. The Democratic party has ever favored the extension of the limits of this republic, but it has never advocated the acquisition of subject territory to be held under colonial government."

MILES—REBER.

Daughter of General Miles Weds an Army Captain.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Miss Cecelia Sherman Miles, daughter of the general commanding the army, and Captain Samuel Reber, U. S. A., were married yesterday at St. John's church, Rev. Alexander Mackay-Smith, D. D., officiating, assisted by Rev. Dean Davis of St Louis. A breakfast, at which several hundred guests were present, followed at the residence of General and Mrs Miles, after which Captain and Mrs. Reber left for a southern trip.

They will go later to Governors island where the former is stationed.

This marriage, to which fashionable Washington has looked forward since the announcement last autumn, as the first important nuptial event of 1900, realized all the anticipations formed of its brilliancy. St. John's church was far from being large enough to accommodate the guests comfortably. The wedding attracted not only official, diplomatic and resident friends of the Miles family, but also kinsfolk and celebrities from several other cities.

MRS. REBER, NEE MISS MILES.

When the bride and General Miles arrived, the ushers led the bridal procession to the chancel. The bridesmaids followed in couples—Miss Reber, sister of the groom; Miss Sherman of Cleveland, Miss Jessie Gary of Baltimore, Miss Gilmore, Miss Deering, Miss Marion Lowery, and Miss Rosina Hoyt. Last of all came the maid of honor, Miss Annie Hoyt, preceding the bride and her father.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

The influenza epidemic continued to spread in England.

The Hamburg-American liner Deutschland was launched at Stettin.

A French court refused to punish a newspaper artist for a gross cartoon of Queen Victoria.

Lady Alice Montagu, sister of the Duke of Manchester, died at Davos-Platz, Switzerland.

The state board of charities will apply to the court of appeals for a reargument of the Gerry society case.

Mortgages representing the indebtedness of all the Methodist churches in Albany were publicly burned.

In a letter to Henry C. Payne Secretary of War Root declared he was not a candidate for the nomination for vice president.

In New York city the National Bank of Commerce has absorbed the National Union bank and will have a capital of $10,000,000.

Monument to a Composer.

CHILLICOTHE, Mo., Jan. 11.—The Nelson Kneass Monument association, just organized in Chillicothe, has for its object the erection of a monument over the grave of Nelson Kneass, who wrote the music for "Ben Bolt." His body is buried in the Chillicothe cemetery. Kneass died here in 1869, and the slab which marked his grave has been chipped away by relic hunters until nothing remains of it.

A New Ocean Record.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, Captain Engelbart, has established a new eastern record by covering the distance between New York and Cherbourg in 5 days, 15 hours and 50 minutes. She steamed 3,077 knots at an average speed of 22.61 knots per hour and lowered the best previous record by two hours and six minutes.

A Mint Thief Released.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 11.—Henry S. Cochran, the aged chief weigher of the United States mint who was sentenced to the Eastern penitentiary on March 11, 1893, to serve a term of 7 years and 3 months for robbing the gold vaults of the mint, has been released. Cochran served 6 years and 1 month, his time being commuted for good behavior.

Big Fire In Wilmington.

WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 11.—The works of the Delaware Hard Fiber company were destroyed by fire last night, causing a loss of $125,000; partially covered by insurance. Aside from the loss on the property the company also will lose on account of big contracts on hand.

Father Malone's Successor.

ALBANY, Jan. 11.—Rev. Father Dolan of Fonda is a candidate for election to the state board of regents to succeed the late Father Sylvester Malone. Former Senator Murphy has conferred with Governor Roosevelt in his behalf.

Willing to Take Payn's Place.

ALBANY, Jan. 11.—Senator Feeter has presented to Governor Roosevelt for his consideration the name of Titus Sheard of Herkimer county as a candidate to succeed Louis F. Payn for state superintendent of insurance.

Greely Not Out of Danger.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—It is reported at the home of General Greely that while the attendant physician does not pronounce the general yet out of danger his condition is slightly better than it was.

Mexican War Secretary Dead.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—United States Minister Clayton at Mexico has telegraphed the department of state that General Felipe Berriozabal, secretary of war of Mexico, died Tuesday night.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair and much colder; northwest to north gales.

WE MUST REPEAT.

When Everybody in Plainfield Tells the Same Old Story.

It is hard to say new things about Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure the lame and aching back, the sufferer from kidney disorders, and the troubles of those whose organism is wrong in its action, that they do this is so easy to prove that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public endorsement of local citizens is easily proven. Read this case: Mr. Jepp Zensen, of 728 West Front street, pattern-maker by trade, says: "For a year I had a sort of grinding pain across my back at times extended up to my shoulders, and there was a lameness over my kidneys and severe headaches. When I stooped I always felt dizzy and sometimes I was fairly blinded. In the mornings I felt stiff and sore until I got some exercise. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in my city paper and so highly recommended for kidney complaint that I went to L. W. Randolph's drug store and got a box. They did me a great deal of good. From my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills I cannot do otherwise than endorse them.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Demulcent Cream

Will soften the skin.
Will prevent roughness.
Will please everyone.

"Is a Delightful Cream to use."

Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.

TRY THE
QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No 337 Park Avenue
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

Lazy Liver

"I have been troubled a great deal with a torpid liver, which produces constipation. I found CASCARETS to be all you claim for them, and secured such relief the first trial, that I purchased another supply and was completely cured. I shall only be too glad to recommend Cascarets whenever the opportunity is presented." J. A. SMITH, 2320 Susquehanna Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
TRADE MARK REGISTERED
REGULATE THE LIVER

Pleasant. Palatable. Potent. Taste Good. Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken, or Gripe. 10c. 25c. 50c.
... CURE CONSTIPATION. ...
Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York. 320

NO-TO-BAC Sold and guaranteed by all druggists to CURE Tobacco Habit.

WANTED

The address of all AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS in Plainfield and vicinity. If you will send us your address on a postal card we will be glad to furnish you with our latest price list. Our line is complete, and goods are always fresh and our prices are the lowest.

Geo. W. Wrennick,
133 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles.
CARDS and CALENDARS.
We make a specialty of
FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.
High Grade Cigars.
Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.
B. W. HAND,
205 W. Front Street.

CHAS. L. FOROE,
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 31 tf

H. Eggerding,
131 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR,
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

THE
"Know How"
—IN—PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job. That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor 2d ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 655

THE East End Feed Store.

—:—PRICE LIST—:—

Best Mixed Oats	78c	bag
Best White Clipped Oats	84c	bag
No. 1 Timothy Hay	88c	100 lb
No. 2 Timothy Hay	84c	100 lb
Best Bran	90c	100 lb
Wheat	1.90	100 lb

Flour, Feed, Straw, etc., at low prices; satisfactory to all.
Call at once and leave your orders at the office:
409 East Third St.,
and you will go away with the feeling of recommending us to your friends.
We also deal in
Blue Stone, Flagging and Curbing:
with the neatest and best work.
Stone arrangements will be made by
A. KANE. PROPRIETOR.
Hay and Feed arrangements with
A. F. McKEON, Manager
TELEPHONE 913

McCullough's
STEAM MILL.
81 Steiner place, North Plainfield
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, etc. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in fresh and salted meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview avenue and Somerset street.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM

will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.
Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.
The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.
FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

GEO. O. STEVENS & CO.
OAK.
747 WEST FRONT ST.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
119 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . .
: SPECIALS :
For This Week.

U. S. club skates.
Shinny sticks.
Skate Straps.
Boys' sleighs.
" coasters.
Steel snow shovels.
Wood " "
Carpet sweepers.
Oil heaters.
Parlor stoves reduced.

The J. P. LAIRE
Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS
GROCERY STORE.

DOBBINS.
CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

John G. Bantle,
First-class
Ladies' and Gent's
TAILOR.
428 Watchung Avenue.
Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
TELEPHONE 1163.

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS
For the Fire-place.
Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates.
Agendy for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park avenue. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87.

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 149 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

PUTNAM
& DEGRAW.
We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1.25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.
A Big Assortment.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.
Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

Oh My Poor Back!

Thousands upon thousands suffer from weak and lame back and do not know the cause. Keep this fact firmly fixed in your mind: When your back begins to ache, your kidneys have become infected with disease, and when your kidneys are affected, your very life may be in immediate danger.
Watch your kidneys; they are the keystone of the arch of health. With good, healthy kidneys you should not know a sick day from any cause, because they are so vital to the general health.
Dr. Holtin's Kidney Tablets are beyond doubt the surest cure for any and all forms of kidney and bladder ailments now before the public. They are made from the private prescription of a physician who thoroughly tested them in his practice, and with them saved hundreds of lives. They are purely vegetable, easy and pleasant to take, and can readily be carried about with you, thereby enabling you to take them at exact intervals—a rule so necessary to be observed in ailments of the bladder and kidneys.
Dr. Holtin's Kidney Tablets are a sure and certain cure for backache, diabetes, gravel, Bright's Disease, congestion of the kidneys and inflammation of the bladder. They act quickly and cure speedily, and can be thoroughly relied on in every way. Be sure to remember to get
Dr. Holtin's Kidney Tablets.
Prepared only by
HOLTIN CHEMICAL CO. 93 Maiden Lane, N. Y.
FOR SALE BY
JOHN P. POWERS,
Druggist,
tu th 45 Somerset St.

Flynn Bros.,
SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods
Have stood the test for years.

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
Paris for 1900.
Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.
Circulars at
161 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

Advertised Mail Matter.

JANUARY 8, 1900.

Adelson, Mr B
Ainer, Mr A R
Banta, Miss A B
Barr, Mr John 2
Bartlett, Mr Phillip
Batchelor, Rufus W
Boice, Mrs Bessie
Boororn, Miss Mary
Borden, Miss Helen
Bowman, Mrs Clara
Binten, Mr William
Cobert, Miss Eliza
Cotton, Miss Bessie
Drake, Mr C
Drake, Mr Fred V
Ecoreth, Egbert C
Fernald, Mrs Lizzie
Gratten, Miss Annie
Grant, Ida M
Hawkins, Mrs W A 2
Hemming, Esq, J C
Hennessey, Mrs M'y 3
Knox, Miss Alice
Laverty, Mrs D H
McCarthy, Miss May
Mamie, Miss
Martin, Mr John H
Mathewson, Mrs El'th
Murphy, E L
Pearson, Miss Marion
Pendergart, Mr E
Parrott, Miss E
Person, Mrs M
Presbetger, Mr M
Rogers, Mrs Willis H
Ryno, Mr Emily
Schaunenburg, Mrs
Scott, (Col'l) Mr Ben
Smalley, L M
Thomas, Miss C D
Thompson, Mr J H
Tolvor, Mrs Silvie
Weeks, Mrs Edw F
Yale, Mrs C H
Yale, Mrs C M

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83 A.

Mallinson's
La Grippe Pills
—25c.—
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung Avenues.

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats' Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, Etc.
Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

MR. GAGE EXPLAINS.

Secretary of the Treasury Answers His Traducers.

CONGRESS GIVEN ALL THE FACTS.

Reason For Choosing Certain Banks For Depositories Was That They Were the Only Ones Then Offering Sufficient Security.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Secretary Gage has sent to congress his reply to the resolutions recently introduced in the senate by Mr. Allen of Nebraska and in the house by Mr. Sulzer of New York. The text of his reply, which is an exhaustive exposition of the management of that branch of the treasury finances under his administration relating to national bank depositories, contains about 9,000 words, which is supplemented by special reports from department officials relative to special inquiries in the resolutions, including copies of over 1,000 letters on the subject under consideration. In summing up his reply to the inquiries the secretary says:

"First.—The reason for utilizing national banks as depositories for public moneys, as authorized by law, when the receipts of the treasury were exceeding its expenditures has been to avoid the disturbance to business which the withdrawal of large sums of money from active circulation to the treasury vaults must inevitably cause. The policy thus pursued by me has been the established policy of the government for many years, and a departure from it under similar conditions would certainly cause disastrous results.

"Second.—The reason for directing the internal revenue receipts into depository banks at this time is that the revenues are now largely exceeding disbursements from month to month and seem likely to do so for an indefinite time. This condition would be a menace to the business world if assurance were not given that this surplus would be diverted from the treasury vaults to public depositories, where, while secure to the government, it would remain available to business use.

"Third.—The reason for directing all of the internal revenue receipts to one depository was that it is more convenient to first collect the receipts of numerous offices into one place and make the desired distribution from it than to give new instructions daily to 113 collectors. The most convenient agency to effect such distribution is a bank which is a member of the New York clearing house.

"Fourth.—The reason for selecting the National City bank as such distributing agent was that at the time the order was issued it was one of but two banks which had offered bonds sufficient to cover the amount of the daily deposit. Its bond deposit was $4,000,000 and that of the Hanover National bank $1,910,500. The National City bank was therefore the one most naturally chosen. Of the 68 banks applying for a share of the deposits the National City bank, the Hanover National bank and three others, applicants for over $800,000 each, are the only ones out of the 68 constituting group 1 which have not been supplied the full amount for which they had offered security.

"Fifth.—The custom house property was sold to the National City bank as the highest bidder on July 3, 1899. Under the terms of the sale it had the option of paying in all of the purchase money at any time or any part it might elect above $750,000, which sum it was absolutely obliged to pay. It exercised this option by choosing to pay $3,215,000, leaving $50,000 yet due. No deed will be executed until full payment has been made.

"The payment received was turned into the treasury by deposit in the National City bank, it having been the established custom of treasury officials, under the counsel of their legal advisers, supported by decisions of the supreme court, to consider moneys on deposit to the credit of the treasurer of the United States in designated depositories as moneys in the treasury.

"Finally, under my administration of the treasury department no discrimination in favor of one bank against another has been made. Generally speaking, when an increase in depository banks was desired all have been invited to qualify themselves for receiving such money and have been equally and equitably considered in their respective relations to the treasury."

Boy Murderer on Trial.

WICHITA, Kan., Jan. 11.—John Kornstett, a 15-year-old boy, who murdered his 9-year-old cousin, Nora Kornstett, in the country south of Anthony, June 20, is on trial in the district court here. He swung the girl's head against a peach tree and then threw her into an old dry well, where she was found alive, but dying. The boy confessed the crime and had to be taken out of the county to prevent lynching. The case has attracted the attention of criminologists all over the country.

School Building Burned.

MILAN, Mich., Jan. 11.—Fire destroyed the Milan public school yesterday. There were 300 pupils in the building, and the fire obtained a good headway before it was discovered. The children became panic stricken, and but for the work of Preceptress Clara Eayes and Professor C. H. Marriack great loss of life might have resulted. Two pupils, Edith Cavanagh and Emma Bentley, were badly burned and may die.

Farragut's Flagship Sails.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—The Hartford, Admiral Farragut's historic flagship, has sailed on a cruise to New York in charge of Commander Hawley. The old warship has a complement of 546 men on board. The Hartford will first call at San Diego and then proceed to Valparaiso and Montevideo and from there to New York.

Charged With Buying Girls.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 11.—Barnet Grinberg, formerly a well known Jewish business man of this city, has been arrested in Tarnapoli, Galicia, Austria, on a charge of buying girls for export from Austria to the United States. Grinberg was in business here for eight or nine years. He is a naturalized citizen of the United States.

"In His Steps" Dramatized.

TOPEKA, Jan. 11.—Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In His Steps" and other religious novels, has received notice from London to the effect that his work "In His Steps" has been dramatized and will shortly be put upon the stage in London.

TRIBUTE TO HOBART.

United States Senate Eulogizes the Late Vice President.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Beautiful and impressive tributes were paid by the senate yesterday to the memory of the late Vice President Hobart. His intimate personal relations with many senators and his close official affiliation with all of them rendered his death a distinct loss to every member of the body, as well as to the country. It was in commemoration of his illustrious career and of his distinguished public service and of his private character that the senate set apart the session yesterday for the pronouncement of eulogies upon him. Personal friends and associates and party friends and party interests joined in paying such sincere and eloquent tribute to the memory of Mr. Hobart, to his character and public services as have been seldom paid to any public man. Addresses were delivered by Senators Sewell and Keane of New Jersey, Daniel of Virginia, Depew of New York, Cockrell of Missouri, Cullom of Illinois, Davis of Minnesota, Morgan of Alabama, Chandler of New Hampshire, Lodge of Massachusetts, Caffery of Louisiana and Allen of Nebraska.

Early in the session Mr. Hale of Maine introduced a resolution of inquiry addressed to the department of state as to the seizure of American flour by the British authorities, which aroused more than usual interest because of the attitude toward Great Britain. It was not acted upon.

Miscellaneous business of minor importance occupied the attention of the house until 1 o'clock, after which an hour was devoted to eulogies upon the life and public services of the late Representative Green of Nebraska. The house then adjourned until Friday.

ODELL ON BOXING.

Chairman of Republican Committee Says Horton Law Must Go.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—B. B. Odell, chairman of the Republican state committee, has declared positively that the Horton boxing law must be repealed at once. "I will exert all my influence to get this law off the statute books," he added. "It should never have been passed, and the sooner it is repealed the better."

In reply to the question, "Have you become convinced that these so called boxing bouts are brutal?" Mr. Odell exclaimed:

"Brutal? No; they are 'fakes.' That is why I think the Horton law should be repealed. The fights are 'fixed' beforehand, and the spectators are humbugged. Take, for instance, the McGovern-Dixon fight at the Broadway Athletic club Tuesday night. I went down to the club to see the fight, and I found it was a fake all through. Dixon could have won easily, but the betting was arranged the other way, and Dixon tried his best to let himself get hit at every opportunity.

"I never saw such a farce. There wasn't a stage of the game at which the negro could not have gone in and finished his man. I was disgusted with the whole business. It was a fake all through, and when I left the club I was satisfied that the Horton law should be repealed immediately."

The Colombian Revolution.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Jan. 11.—Colombian advices announce that the revolution in that republic is now thoroughly organized and uniformly successful in the interior. All the government forces are retreating toward the capital, whence come further and persistent reports of the death of President Saclemente and of political disputes. But the censorship is so rigid and direct communication with the coast is so interrupted that no authentic details regarding the actual situation are known even at Cartagena. Business consequently is paralyzed along the coast. The reports add that the insurgents' sudden accession of strength is due to the receipt of re-enforcements and arms through Venezuela.

A New Coal Route.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 11.—The much talked of route for coal shippers from the coalfields of western Pennsylvania and the great lakes to the Atlantic seaboard via the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg, the New York Central and the Philadelphia and Reading roads will soon be realized. President Arthur G. Yates of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg, with a party of officers of the other lines mentioned in the new traffic arrangement, have arrived in Pittsburg to complete the details of the plan.

Julia Morrison Acquitted.

CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 11.—The jury finds Julia Morrison James not guilty of the murder of Frank Leidenheimer. The spectators were in the circuit courtroom when the verdict was rendered. A tumult of applause went up from every person, and for ten minutes it was impossible for the court officers to preserve order. The fair defendant, with eyes filled with tears, dramatically addressed the jurors, thanking them for their acquittal. She will go to New York and write a history of her life.

Reception to Diplomats.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The reception to the diplomatic corps, the first of the evening receptions at the White House this season, was held last night from 9 till 11 o'clock and was well attended. Invited to meet the guests were the members of the cabinet, of both branches of congress, the supreme court, officers of the army and navy and a contingent of resident society. About 2,000 invitations had been issued.

Kingsley Gets Yale Medal.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 11.—It is announced that the Yale literary medal, for which there is annually much competition, has been awarded to Randolph Kingsley of the class of 1901 of New Rochelle, N. Y. His theme was "The Spirit of French Poetry In the Nineteenth Century." The medal is of gold, valued at $25 and traditionally a prize of worth.

Flames Sweep a Mississippi Town.

OXFORD, Miss., Jan. 11.—News has reached here of a disastrous fire at Taylor, ten miles south of here, on the Illinois Central railroad, which occurred Tuesday night. The flames swept away every store in the little town, destroying 17 houses. There is no communication with Taylor, and details of the conflagration are lacking.

Cleveland Goes a Hunting.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Ex-President Cleveland passed through Washington last night en route to Georgetown, S. C., where he will spend a few days duck shooting.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

EDUCATIONAL

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
ADELLA C. PHELPS, ARTIST.
Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
::: PIANO AND THEORY :::
Home Studio,
132 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN,
Address—60 SANFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

Piano Instruction
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes
Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :
94 SOMERSET STREET.
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty .....
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmon
Telephone 601

Don't be wasting you money and paying high prices for frames. Come and get your framing done with the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street,
where you will find a large assortment in ready-made frames and the latest styles in mouldings to make up frames to order at prices that will surprise you. Also fine drawings in crayons and pastels from all kinds of photographs.
Best Satisfaction Guaranteed.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

THE ORESCENT HOTEL..
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30, a. m.; 2:00, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
R. H. BIRD, P. M.

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS,
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to hire for picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.
T. M. INGRAHAM.

Wedding and Reception Decorations, Floral Designs & Bouquets A SPECIALTY.
Cut flowers fresh every day. Palms, ferneries, southern smilax at 10 days' notice.
MRS. L. J. DENTON, Florist,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

COLLIER
EYE SPECIALIST,
103 Park Ave.....
Established 1869. Eyes Examined Free.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

J. W. VANSICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 168 b.

OUR OYSTERS
ARE THE
---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

BAMBERGER'S
"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE"
MARKET & HALSEY STS.
The Largest and Most Perfectly Equipped
Mail Order Service
Presenting Unequalled Shopping Facilities
For Thousands of Out-of-Town Patrons.

A thoroughly experienced staff of buyers in this department will make selections for you, and satisfaction is guaranteed or money will be refunded. We prepay mail or express charges to any part of the State on all paid purchases, and on C. O. D.'s for amounts aggregating $5.00 or more. Try our system, and you will not only save money, but have the additional advantage of assortments not equaled in Newark or surpassed anywhere in the land. Samples sent postpaid to any address upon receipt of postal card.

L. Bamberger & Co.
Newark, N. J.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

FANCY FORMS . . . .
of Ice Cream are becoming more in demand every day, because the price is now made popular. Call to see our wax models of their many shapes. Our popular price ONE DOLLAR a dozen delivered within 5 miles. Further away we pay express on large orders.
R. Walsh & Co.
TWO STORES,
157 MARKET STREET,
677 BROAD STREET,
NEWARK N. J.
m th

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.
The Delineator and Glass of Fashion for January Now Ready.
Ask for the January Fashion Sheet.
A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE, AGENTS.
144 PARK AVENUE, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Manufactured at the Premises,
Wieda's
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
144 West Front St.
Phone. 1132.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
110 East Front Street.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.
Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.
at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

FIRE!!!
When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by
ELSTON M. FRENCH.
Largest agency in the city
163 Nort Ave., opp. Depot.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.

Speaker Nixon Announces His Committees.

ALBANY, Jan. 11.—The session of the senate was opened at 8:30 o'clock last night with prayer by Rev. W. W. Battershall of St. Peter's church, Hon. Timothy E. Ellsworth presiding in the absence of the lieutenant governor. Conspicuous among the floral decorations was a gift of Bridesmaids' roses on the desk of Senator Ford from the Twenty-first assembly District Republican organization. Senators Donnelly, Grady and Stranahan were also the recipients of flowers. The governor sent in for confirmation a number of appointments, which were referred to the proper committees. They were all appointments heretofore made and announced. The senate adopted resolutions of respect to the memory of William P. Dodge of Utica, late financial clerk of the senate, and adjourned.

Speaker Nixon, in the assembly, announced his committees for the session of 1900, which created quite a little stir among the members.

The more important chairmanships are as follows:

Ways and means, Mr. Allds of Chenango; judiciary, Mr. Fish of Madison; general laws, Mr. Burnett of Ontario; revision, Mr. Hatch of Steuben; codes, Mr. Weekes of New York; taxation, Mr. De Graw of Kings; canals, Mr. Hill of Erie; cities, Mr. Kelsey of Livingston; railroads, Mr. Bedell of Orange; commerce, Mr. Brennan of Kings; banks, Mr. McEwan of Albany; excise, Mr. Rogers of Broome; education, Mr. Lewis of Monroe; privileges and elections, Mr. Fallows of New York.

Assemblyman Harburger of New York attempted to introduce from the floor a resolution condemning the Raines liquor tax law as a blot on our civilization and urging its repeal from the statute books. He was declared out of order by the chair, Monday nights only being devoted to the introduction of resolutions.

A Mysterious Railroad.

LEWISTON, Ida., Jan. 11.—The Pacific and Idaho Northern railroad, now being built from Weiser in the southern part of the state north to Seven Devils, is the most mysterious piece of railroad building in the country. It begins nowhere and ends nowhere. Yet over 100 miles of the finest roadbed have been built, and cash is paid for everything and only the best material is purchased. No one knows who is furnishing the cash or why the road is being built. It is believed, however, to be the Vanderbilt connecting link between the east and west. The Oregon Railway and Navigation company is to build 37 miles from Riparia to Lewiston, and eventually this piece of road will connect the Oregon Railway and Navigation company with the Oregon Short Line. This will make it possible to start a car at New York city and pull it to Portland, Or., on tracks owned by the Vanderbilts.

Erie Canal Improvement Favored.

BUFFALO, Jan. 11.—A large and enthusiastic meeting in the interest of the enlargement and improvement of the Erie canal and the improvement of the Buffalo harbor and terminal facilities was held at the Merchants' Exchange yesterday. Hon. George Clinton presided. After a full discussion of the subjects a series of resolutions were unanimously adopted declaring that the welfare of the state demands the immediate and adequate improvement of the Erie canal; that the capacity of the canal be made such that the immense traffic from the lakes can be economically and adequately handled without fear of competition from the Canadian waterways or of diversion from this state by railroads; that the governor and legislature be urged to put in operation without delay a plan of improvement which will meet the exigencies of the situation.

Explosion In Gas Works.

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 11.—One of the meters in the meter, purifying and condensing house of the Essex and Hudson Gas company's works in this city blew up last night and caused about $25,000 damage to the building and property in the vicinity. No one was injured further than a few bruises. The walls of the building were left standing, but the roof was blown hundreds of feet away and windows in buildings for some distance were broken by the concussion. A peculiarity of the explosion was that, although the meter builing was a mass of ruins, a large part of the machinery continued to run and supplied its part of the city gas consumers with their usual flow of gas.

Boatman Heir to Thousands.

NYACK, N. Y., Jan. 11.—Cornelius Ackerman, a poor boatman of Piermont, has received notice that he is heir to several thousand dollars, enough to keep him and his family in comfort and ease the remainder of their lives. The sum was left by a woman named Mrs. Moriarty, who died recently. Ackerman had saved the lives of Mrs. Moriarty and her three daughters 20 years ago, when they were passengers on a steamer which blew up.

Negro Wrecks a Train.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Jan. 11.—Steel rails tied across the track wrecked a passenger train on the Illinois Central near Hopkinsville Tuesday. Price Gary was captured while skulking in the bushes near the road and was identified as a negro who had one night before been put off the same train and had sworn vengeance.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—FLOUR—State and western market quiet and lower to sell; Minnesota patents, $3.90a4.05; winter straights, $3.40a3.45; winter extras, $2.55a2.90.

WHEAT—Opened weak and 1c lower on bearish cables and local unloading. Trade all the forenoon was quiet and prices unchanged; March, 74¾a75c.; May, 73¾a73 15-16c.

RYE—Steady; state, 55a56c., c. i. f., New York, car lots; No. 2 western, 60½c., f. o. b. afloat.

CORN—Quiet, but steady on stormy weather west, prospects of good clearances and light offerings.

OATS—Dull; track, white, state, 31a35c., track, white, western, 31a35c.

PORK—Firm; mess, $10.25a10.75; family, $12a12.50.

BUTTER—Steady; state dairy, 20a28c.; state creamery, 25a30c.

CHEESE—Firm; fall made, fancy, small, 12¾a13c.; fall made, fancy, large, 12¾a13c.

EGGS—Weak and lower; state and Pennsylvania, 20c.; western, 20c., loss off.

SUGAR—Strong, fair, refining, 5¾c.; centrifugal, 96 test, 4 5-16c.; refined firm, crushed, 5.45c.

MOLASSES—Steady; New Orleans, 22a40c.

RICE—Quiet, but firm; domestic, 4a6¼c.; Japan, 4¾a5c.

TALLOW—Steady; city, 5⅛c.; country, 5¼a5½c.

HAY—Steady; shipping, 72½a80c.; good to choice, 85a87½c.

TAGALS TURN AMIGOS

They Refuse to Fight or Be Cornered.

AMERICANS HALT FOR SUPPLIES.

Island Inhabitants Suffering From Lack of Food Because of Filipino Confiscations—Armed Forces Terrorise Peaceable Inhabitants.

MANILA, Jan. 11.—Reports from the movements of the American commanders south of Manila show that General Bates and General Wheaton are at Peres das Marinas and General Schwan at Silang, all awaiting the arrival of provision wagons. Reconnoissances have shown that 2,000 armed insurgents have retired to the mountains from the district between Indang and Maig and that others have retreated along the coast from Novaleta toward Batangas.

Nolan's squadron of the Eleventh cavalry drove a body of insurgents from Maig. One American was killed and two wounded. Thirteen dead Filipinos were found.

The movement largely resembles General Schwan's experiences in the same country, except that the towns are now being garrisoned and that the insurgents refuse to fight, retreating southward and dividing into small bands, with the apparent intention of reassembling later. The plan of catching a large number between two brigades has failed. About 100 insurgents have been killed, but comparatively few arms have been taken.

The region is full of amigos, who doubtless have been bearing arms which they have hidden. The women and children remain in their homes, and the insurgents as they fall back release all prisoners they have captured.

The inhabitants of the islands of Leyte and Samar are suffering from lack of food resulting from the long blockade, the arbitrary confiscation of property and the levying of tribute by the so called government of the Filipinos. The governors of both islands are Tagalogs who were appointed by Aguinaldo, and they hold the territories completely in their power, administering local affairs according to their own whims and accountable to no one. They have armed forces which terrorize the peaceful inhabitants.

The rebel forces, on the other hand, have never lacked food nor money. The inhabitants, driven to desperation by the necessity of having to pay four times the normal price for foodstuffs, organized against insurgent depredations; but, having no arms, they were unable to resist their oppressors.

Dedication at Tuskegee.

TUSKEGEE, Ala., Jan. 11.—The Slater-Armstrong memorial trustees building at the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial institute was dedicated yesterday. The building is a memorial of John J. Slater, who gave $1,000,000 to constitute the Slater fund, and of General Armstrong, the founder of Hampton institute, from which Booker Washington graduated. The total cost of the building aside from equipment is $65,000. The 1,000,000 brick and the lumber used in construction were made by the students; in fact, the building throughout is a product of student labor. C. P. Huntington of New York city gave an engine and boiler to run the machinery.

Second Group of Banks Closed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The secretary of the treasury has closed the second group of banks which have deposited bonds and asked to participate in the temporary deposits of internal revenue funds. This group contains about 75 banks and represents about $10,000,000 in bonds deposited, making approximately $27,000,000 in all. The secretary's offer has been open since Dec. 18, and it is not now expected that any additional banks will be designated. This determination, however, may be reconsidered if the demand warrants such action.

Mother Kills Children and Self.

M'PHERSON, Kan., Jan. 11.—Mrs. Joseph Christie of this city last night cut the throats of her two children, both under 6 years of age, then cut her own throat and set fire to the house. The children died at once, and Mrs. Christie died soon afterward. On Monday Joe Christie, her husband, was arrested for drunkenness and is now in jail because he could not pay his fine. He is a laborer and has not been working steadily. It is supposed that worry over their condition led the woman to commit the deed.

Mrs. Eilenberger a Dreamer.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Jan. 11.—Mrs. Henry E. Eilinberger, sister of the dead wife of Professor Alfred Morrison, whom he claims to have shot in a dream, declares that she has had a dream in which Mrs. Morrison appeared to her. The apparition declared that her husband was guiltless of crime and begged her not to prosecute the husband. Mrs. Eilinberger was to go to Mount Vernon to appear against Professor Morrison, but she says now she will not go.

Gales on French Coast.

PARIS, Jan. 11.—Heavy gales are blowing along the entire French coast, and a number of small vessels with their crews have been lost, although several lifeboat rescues are reported. A fishing boat foundered off Boulogne-sur-Mer, nine of the crew perishing. The bark Jeanne Eugenie sank near Cherbourg, and five persons were drowned. Heavy weather is reported from all Mediterranean ports.

Murder and Suicide.

WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 11.—Charles W. Pickel shot Mrs. Lizzie A. Graham, at whose house he boarded, three times with a revolver, inflicting wounds that the doctor says will prove fatal. Then he shot himself in the head, dying instantly. The tragedy occurred in the sitting room of the Graham house. The cause of the tragedy was Pickel's infatuation for the woman.

Alabama Judge Killed.

FLORENCE, Ala., Jan. 11.—Judge W. B. McClure of the probate court of Lauderdale county has been assassinated. Early yesterday morning his body was found in the street. Judge McClure had been riddled with buckshot. Bloodhounds have been put on the track of the murderer.

Lawton Fund Still Growing.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—About $2,000 was added to the Lawton fund yesterday, making the total subscriptions now in General Corbin's hands $72,436.47.

THE DAILY PRESS.

E. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

206 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week $5 a year—in advance.

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., JAN. 11, 1900

COMING EVENTS.

January 11—"My Mother-in-Law" at Music Hall.

January 12—"Si Plunkard" at Music Hall.

January 14—Harry Gee will address the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. at 4:15 p. m. Mrs. John Manley will sing. Instrumental music.

January 15—Union Bible class of Rev. D. M. Stearns at the Y. M. C. A. hall at 7.45 p. m.

January 16—Annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A.

Work For The Legislature.

The following comprehensive forecast of the important work that the Legislature will be called upon to consider during the present session, has been compiled by a Trenton correspondent who is a careful and well-posted observer of legislative affairs:

Among the bills which will be introduced early in the session will be the one proposed by the State Sewerage Commission, which is designed to empower that body to compel municipalities to dispose of their sewage without polluting the streams of the State.

The bill for the abolition of spring elections in all cities will be prepared within a few weeks, as will also the bill for the abolition of grade crossings, under which Newark will proceed to bring about the elevation of railroad tracks in that city.

The proposal to abolish Boards of Chosen Freeholders will take the form of a bill to provide for the government of counties by commissioners elected at large.

There is curiosity as to the form of the bill to enable the Morris Canal to abandon navigation and retain its rights and privileges.

There are likely to be a number of measures aimed at the taxation of franchises for the use of public streets and roads, and an abundance of anti-trust amendments to the co-poration laws will be offered.

The codification of the school laws will be one of the time consuming measures before the Legislature, and it will provoke many debates. The bill to apply a portion of the treasury surplus to the reduction of the school tax will have smoother sailing.

An important codification will be that of the National Guard laws, which is now being put into shape for submission to the Legislature.

The Riparian Commissioners will ask for power to grant lease of riparian rights upon an annual rental to be fixed from time to time by arbitration.

Among many measures to secure equal taxation, one of the simplest and most important will be Senator Reed's bill to require the publication of valuations.

There will be the usual attempt to secure a constitutional convention, an effort to repeal the Delaware Dam law, a revival of the "camel-back" engine bill and bills to reform the management of the penal and corrective institutions of the State.

Large items in the appropriation bill will be for the rebuilding of the Senate wing of the State House, so as to provide proper quarters for the Senate and additional room for the courts; for the building of an addition to the State Prison and a combined armory and arsenal at Trenton; for the erection of additions to the State Industrial School for Girls and the State Normal School, and for the development of the State Village for Epileptics.

There will, of course, be many other measures that will demand more than passing attention from the leaders in the Legislature, but the above list provides enough subjects for the Assemblymen and Senators to busy themselves about until they are ready to adjourn.

One of the matters that the present Legislature may be called to act upon is a measure which will tend to relieve purchasers of property on the installment plan of some of the harsh results which it is possible to bring down upon the heads of those who fail to comply with the contracts made by installment houses. Under the iron-clad agreement used by these firms, which was drawn by former Governor Bedloe for a New York installment house, it is possible to bring proceedings which will result in the debtors being locked up in jail, and the possibility of such an outcome is regarded as too harsh a punishment, since, under the law which the action is brought, a debtor of this class who once gets in jail can only obtain his freedom by payment of the judgment or by use of the bankruptcy or insolvent debtors' law.

In proportion to her population, New Jersey has fewer routes of rural free delivery of mail than many other States. According to statistical information given out in Washington, New Jersey, with a total population of 1,444,933, has only ten free delivery routes, costing $4,000, serving 6,785 persons, while South Carolina, with a population of 1,151,148, has 21 rural routes, at a cost of $8,400 per annum, serving 45,832 people, and Maryland, with a population of 1,042,390, has 48 routes, at an annual cost of $19,200, serving 53,811 people. Only five applications from New Jersey for rural delivery remain unacted upon. From Ohio the number is 83; Indiana, 139; Pennsylvania, 79; New York, 29, and Wisconsin, 47.

The attention of Congress will shortly be called to the necessity for an increase in the number of heavy guns and the forces of men on the seacoast defences. Secretary of War Root devoted much space in his annual report to the subject of seacoast defences urging that action be speedily taken to strengthen them. The secretary will also urge a large increase of the number of men and officers in the artillery branch and that the artillery be given an official head to direct its affairs.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Judge John D. Bartine's term as Law Judge of Somerset will expire this year, and there is a movement on foot to obtain his reappointment. Judge Bartine is a Democrat who has a host of friends in Somerset, but it is conceded by Republicans that his position should go to a Republican as in all similar appointments. A petition is being circulated for presentation to the Governor, asking him to establish a precedent by reappointing Judge Bartine. This petition, it is hoped, will receive the signatures of more than half the voters in Somerset as a convincing argument that a majority of the people of the county want Judge Bartine retained.—New York Press.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The careless manner in which the various ash and garbage carters about the city carry their stuff is a source of great annoyance and nuisance to many. Papers are allowed to blow from the uncovered wagons all over the street, and ashes and other dirt are permitted to drop along the street It seems as though some steps should be taken to compel these people to exercise the utmost care in collecting this stuff. Many streets are in an unsightly condition most of the time as a result of pure carelessness, and it seems to be the duty of no one to see that any improvement is made.

* * * * * *

In speaking recently about the plan to pay the city employes on the first day of every month, unless that should fall on Sunday or a holiday, a city official remarked that the employes most affected by delay are the laboring men on the street, those who have no means of telling how many days they will be able to get in a month, and who can ill afford to wait very long for their money. It was remarked that the "regulars," such as the firemen and policemen, know what they will get and even if they have to run accounts they are always sure of a certain amount and can settle very soon after the month arrives. The laboring man should be looked after as he is constantly in need of all the money he can earn.

* * * * * *

The historic house at Roselle, which in the days of the American Revolution was owned and occupied by Abraham Clark, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, and which was recently destroyed by fire, has been perpetuated in a model, constructed for William M. Crane, the present owner of the farm. The model is now at the factory of William M. Crane & Co., 447 West Fourteenth street, New York. It represents the homestead as it appeared more than 100 years ago, with the barn, the old-fashioned well and sweep, the garden, barnyard, orchard and several fields. In one of the fields is a miniature of a plow drawn by a pair of horses about as large as mice. Although the model occupies a space of about four feet square, it is wonderfully minute in its details. It was constructed by D. C. Crane, a brother of William M. Crane. There is talk of sending it to the Paris Exposition, as a reminder of the days when France assisted the American Colonies to gain their independence from Great Britain. It will probably find a final resting place in the rooms of the New York Historical Society.

Bessie VanWinkle, of West Fourth street, has about recovered from a severe and tedious illness.

TRY GRAIN-O! TRY GRAIN-O!

Ask your Grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. ¼ the price of coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Sold by all grocers

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? Not Well, try it: no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,

122 East Front Street.

The Spring Campaign

Through all the rush and turmoil of the Holiday Season, just past—we have been making careful preparations for an energetic Spring Mercantile Campaign. Silent, but forceful influences have been steadily at work with one object in view, viz: The making of our establishment an ideal store Many lines of goods have been carefully scanned; from some lines only the best selected; other lines entirely rejected. We have demanded the newest and best of everything, and insist the best is none too good. Our efforts have been rewarded by our securing the choicest and most desirable goods from the various lines represented in our store. Our business is conducted upon a high plane, but we welcome and propose to take good care of the most humble customer. This is to be in every sense "THE PEOPLE'S STORE."

Wash Goods.

Our new wash fabrics are arriving and already we are making a most delightful showing of dainty lawns, dimities, ginghams, percales, etc., etc.

Designers of the printed fabrics have surpassed all previous efforts by producing new and dainty effects in the most serviceable colorings. Corded ginghams, introduced last season for the first, will have a prominent place in this season's showing, and are worthy of the strongest recommendation for serviceable qualities.

Fine Domestic Dimities at 14c per yard.
Genuine English " 18c per yard.

Corded Gingham (madras effects) at 10c, 20c and 25c yd are worthy especial mention.

New Spring Woollens.

52-in Vicuna Serge made by the Broadhead Worsted Mills, at 98c per yard, cannot be surpassed. They are strong, wiry, do not crush, and are sponged and shrunken. Two beautiful black Cheviots, 54 inches wide, at 79c & 98c, are very desirable; excellent color and fine lustre. 52-in Broadcloths, in all colors, 98c yd. 38-in all-wool Homespuns, 50c. 54-in Homespuns, value $1.00, 89c. 40 in Black Crepons, guaranteed value $1.35, $1.00. 38-in Black Granite Suiting; 50c.

LACES, EMBROIDERIES, Etc., Etc.

Our showing in this line surpasses that of all former years in that we have more variety and finer goods. Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss Edgings, with insertings and beadings to match. All over effects in Cambric, Nainsook, and Combination Lace and Tucked effects, Applique Bands, Edging and all overs to match. New Point de Venise Lace Collars and Revers. New Braided and Spangled Nets. New Lace Ties, narrow. New Silk Ties and a thousand other new novelties equally attractive.

FOR THE MEN.

All our 1.25 Outing Flannel Pajamas, reduced to 98c
Men's Fine Camels Hair Underwear, 98c garment
" " " " (double breasted) 1.25 "
" " Imported Natural Wool (German) 1.75 "
" " Camels Hair, ½ Hose - - 25c pr
Dent's "Breton Cape" Kid Gloves - - 1.85 pr
Myers' Cabretta Kid Gloves - - - 1.00 pr
" Silk Lined Mocha Kid Gloves (gray) 1.50 pr
" Fleece Lined Castor, reduced to - 1 25 pr
Full line men's, youths' and childs' wool gloves.
The newest of everything in gent's neckwear.

Dr. Denton's - -
SLEEPING GARMENTS
For Children,
2 yrs to 10 yrs.

In our Basement. The inevitable rise in the price of Furniture has taken place. Manufacturers everywhere have materially advanced prices, and state that further advances must come. Our stock as it is at present will be sold at the old prices. Our advice to those who need furniture is—buy it now.

Solid Oak Buffets
with double thick
FRENCH PLATE MIRRORS,
from 11.98 to 25.00.
If Bought Today Would Sell for 20 per cent. More.

5 drawer Solid Oak Chiffoniers, without glass. 4.98.

5 drawer Extra Finished, with glass. 7.98.

Better grades up to 17.98.

WHITE IRON BEDS.

1 in post, brass trimmed, heavy filling, 3.98.
Better ones at 4.98, 5.75, 6.48, 6.98, 7.98, 9 98, 14 98 and 16 75.
Iron Cribs with Spring Mattresses, 6 48, 7.75 and 11.98.
Full size soft top mattresses 2 25
" " 45 lb white cotton mattresses, one part 5.48.
Full size 45 lb white cotton mattresses, 2 parts, 5.98.
Genuine Cotton Felt mattresses, two pieces, 8.75.
Hair Mattresses made to order.

Facing the Inevitable. Prices in every line are on the jump. Cottons are higher. Woollens are higher. Manufactured goods of all kinds are higher and will be still higher. A pretty sum may be saved by early purchase. By all means make us a visit. We will appreciate it and you will be benefited.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,

334, 236, 238 and 246 WEST FRONT STREET.

PECK'S CORNER.

THE LARGEST VARIETY OF -:- Good Corsets -:- AT PECK'S.

GOOD TIMES ARE HERE.

Now is the time to place your money in Real Estate at ground floor prices.

WOODLAND PARK
will suit the aristocratic home-seekers.

DEWEY PARK and LINCOLN
will suit the small investor and home-seeker.

SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

An Annual . . . . Clearing Sale

of our entire stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's suits, reefers, overcoats, ulsters and heavy-weight trousers begins this Saturday and will last for a short time only.

All MEN'S OVERCOATS that were sold at 7.00 and 8.00, clearing sale price 4.25 and 4 75.
All MEN'S OVERCOATS that we sold from 8.50 to 10.00, clearing sale price 5 50.
350 extra fine OVERCOATS, former prices from 12.00 to 15.00, clearing sale price 6 50 and 7 00.
MEN'S ULSTERS reduced from 7.00 to 4.50.
Best Shamrock IRISH FRIEZE ULSTERS, reduced to 6.50, former price 12.00.
1,000 Men's and Youth's heavy weight suits of all descriptions, styles and qualities, which we must and will sell regardless of cost or value. 5.00 suits to be sold at 2 75. 7.50 suits to go at 4 50. 10.00 suits to go at 5 75, and all others in proportion. Children's Suits at 1.00, worth 2.00. 2.50 Child's Suits to go at 1.45.
2,000 pairs of Men's Trousers to be included in this sale at 1.00, 1.50, 2.00 and 2.25. Boys' Knee Pants with double seat and double knees at 20c.
Men's fleece lined underwear at 30c, worth 50c. Men's winter caps at 15c. Working shirts at 15c, and thousands of more bargains at this great clearing sale. Call early and avoid the great Saturday rush.

Will Pay Carfare to all Buyers of Clothing.

New York Clothing Company

M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

FURNITURE for the Parlor . . . Library . . . Dining-Room . . . Bedroom . . .

Close at 6 o'Clock.

POWLISON & JONES,

149 and 151 E. Front St.

N. K. BARNES, Grocer,

No. 245 WEST FRONT STREET,

SPECIAL FOR TEN DAYS.

GRANULATED SUGAR 5c lb.

Best Butter, lb	30c	10 cakes Laundry Soap for	19c
Best Eggs, dozen,	22c	3 lb package Prepared Buckwheat,	10c
Best Flour, 24½ lbs,	55c	Large bottle of Catsup	5c
Best Potatoes, basket,	35c	3 lb can Pineapple	10c
Best Hams, per lb,	10½c	3 lb can Bartlett Pears	10c
Best Molasses, gallon	35c	Lemon Cakes, lb	5c
Best Syrup, gallon	35c	Soda Crackers, lb	5c
Fine Drinking Tea, lb	35c	Nic Nac Crackers, lb	5c
Fine Drinking Coffee, lb	12c	Ginger Snaps, lb	5c
5 gallons Best Oil	63c	Corn Starch, package	5c

TRADING STAMPS ALSO.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, Jan. 11.—With a big scare headline the News of yesterday published the startling information that there is smallpox at New Market, giving anyone the idea that the disease is raging at that place. There happens to be one very light case of the disease at New Market, that of George Blackford, and there is not one chance in a thousand that the disease will spread from that one case Such misleading information does more harm to a community than most anything else.

Some dissatisfaction has been expressed by the members of the Presbyterian church over the fact that Mayor Swackhamer has leased the borough hall to a traveling theatrical company during the week of prayer The show is said to greatly detract from the meetings at the church.

Charles Hack, an employe of the Central railroad, who was severely injured at Plainfield last Saturday afternoon while working on a shifting engine, has partially recovered and expects to return to work tomorrow.

For the rest of the week the Methodist church will be used by the denominations of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches for the observance of the Week of Prayer.

Little Bennie Dodwell, the interesting young son of Conductor Charles Dodwell, who has been ill for a few days, is much better.

Samuel Churchill, of Jersey City, is visiting his brother, George W. Churchill, of Washington avenue.

Mrs. Annie Dunham and her daughter Ella are visiting friends in New York for a few days.

Rev. A. I. Martine was called to New York city yesterday to attend the funeral of a friend.

Miss Mary Smith, of Elizabeth, is visiting friends in the borough for a few days.

Miss Annie Abbott is visiting relatives in Brooklyn for a week.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Jan. 11.—The young people in town are taking advantage of the excellent skating on Marsh's lake. Every afternoon and evening the place has a merry crowd upon the ice.

Mrs. James S. Braker and children, who have been spending several weeks with the Misses Hayes, of Fanwood, have returned to their home in Waltham, Mass.

Miss Sadie Reger entertained friends from Westfield last evening. Games and refreshments passed away a very enjoyable evening to all.

Dr. F. W. Westcott's cottage of Fanwood is being improved by a new coat of paint. Henry Keuhn is doing the work.

Clarence Lambert has a large force of men at work on the back pond harvesting his annual ice crop.

Mrs. Lowry VanDyke, of Brooklyn, has been the guest of friends in the borough for several days.

Ernest Marsh, who has been seriously ill at his home, is reported as improving very nicely.

Mrs. Edward Emery and child, of Bayonne, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Emery.

Left Presents for Pallbearers.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Rahway, Jan. 11.—Mrs. Thomas Lee, of this city, died Tuesday, January 2, and, according to her instructions, her body was not to be buried until last Sunday. When her will was opened it was found she had bequeathed $1 000 to the First Methodist church of Rahway, and there were also six envelopes found, in each of which was a $10 bill for the persons who acted as her pallbearers.

Initiated One Candidate.

Star of Plainfield Lodge, Shepherds of Bethlehem, at last evening's regular meeting initiated one candidate and had two applications for membership. It was decided to take a trolley ride to New Brunswick Monday evening, January 22d.

George Miller.

George M ller, Alderman of the Fourth ward Rahway, died of general debility last evening, after an illness of two months. He was 78 years old. He was born in Bavaria in 1828.

It has been fully demonstrated that Ely's Cream Balm is a specific for Nasal Catarrh and cold in the head. This distinction has been achieved only as the result of continued successful use. A morbid condition of the membrane in the nasal passages can be cured by this purifying and healing treatment. Sold by druggists or it will be mailed for 50 cents by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York. It spreads over the membrane, is absorbed and relief is immediate.

CONGRESSMAN CHARLES A. BOUTELLE.

The active career of Congressman Charles A. Boutelle, of Maine, is probably at an end. He has been a sufferer for some months and was recently placed in a sanitarium for treatment. Mr. Boutelle was first elected to congress in 1880 and served continuously from that time until his present retirement. He has been chairman of the naval committee.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Busy Plainfielders

—Mintonomo tribe of Red men will hold its regular meeting tomorrow evening.

—Some improvements are being made on Daniel Page's house on Elmwood place.

—Entries for the pool tournament at the Park Club will close Monday, February 12th.

—The regular meeting of Perseverance Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be held tomorrow evening.

—Ladies who want the famous (Queen Quality) shoes can fine them at Willett's, 107 Park avenue.

—There will be no meeting this week of the Junior Endeavor Society of the Congregational church.

—J. C. Storm, butcher, of 318 Liberty street, can give you the best meat for the smallest amount of money.

—Employes of the Plainfield Electric Light Company are now busy removing some of the old poles and wires.

—Alvin E. Hoagland, of West Front street, has been making some improvements about his place, by the cutting down of trees.

—Special sale of two hundred baskets of choice Baldwin, Greening, Northern Spy and Smith's cider apples at Neuman Bros. Prices to suit all.

—The union Week of Prayer services of the Methodist church will be held in the Monroe Avenue M. E church this evening and tomorrow night.

—A gang of Street Commissioner Gavett's men are giving East Fifth street its winter cleaning. That thoroughfare has become very dusty of late.

—Next week Tuesday evening at the meeting of the Sons of Veterans two candidates will be mustered, and there will be an installation of three officers.

—The remains of Mrs. Mary Wilson, whose funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the home on West Seventh street, were taken to Paterson yesterday for interment.

—The Tuesday afternoon sewing meetings of the missionary committee of the Congregational Christian Endeavor Society have been resumed after the holidays.

—A week from next Tuesday night a supper will be given to the G. A. R. and Sons of Veterans in the W.C.T.U rooms under the auspices of the committee on soldier and sailor work.

—The Week of Prayer services being held this week at Hope Memorial chapel are well attended and are very interesting. There is a marked increase in the attendance and interest every evening.

—The Week of Prayer service in the Congregational church will be omitted this evening so as not to conflict with the Swedish service there. The last of the week's services will be held this evening.

—Letter-carrier Edward T. Dunn has his mail gig arranged in the most approved style for winter. A commodious top has been put on the gig thus making the rider very comfortable by keeping out the cold air.

—The Epworth League of Grace M. E. church will hold their yearly meeting tomorrow evening. A week from that time they will entertain the various chapters in this vicinity, when a special programme will be presented.

—The condition of affairs at Grace M E. church are very satisfactory and a source of great pleasure to Pastor Gardner and his people. The membership is constantly increasing and there is a deep interest in every department.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Miss Gertrude Tier, of Bank place, has returned from visiting relatives at Rahway.

Mrs. Fred Canfield, of Somerville, has been visiting Plainfield friends for a time.

Miss Grant, daughter of Chief Grant, has been spending a few days with Westfield friends.

Frank Clarkson, of East Second street, has secured a position as substitute letter-carrier.

The Misses Martin, of Brooklyn, have returned after a pleasant visit with Plainfield relatives.

Captain Brady, of Washington, accompanied by his daughter, have been visiting Plainfield friends.

Benjamin O. Bowers, Jr., of Franklin place, has been confined to his home this week with illness.

Walter Long, of the News, is to have a week's vacation, and he will spend it in the south hunting.

Mrs. Darby and daughter, of Alton, have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Schuck, of Vine street.

Mrs. Swackhamer, of Whitehouse, who has been visiting at the home of borough relatives, has returned home.

Mrs. Edward Fitch, of Westfield, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Darling, of Prospect avenue.

The members of Mayor Smalley's family who have been detained at home with the mumps are greatly improved.

Miss Amanda Carman, of Elmwood place, has recovered from a severe attack of facial neuralgia, and is able to go out again.

William Newcorn, of West Front street, will go to Pleasantville, N. J., this evening and assist in the work of installing officers in the order of Red Men.

Lieut. Frank Ely and wife are visiting at the home of Mrs. Ely's parents, Washington Park. Mr. Ely is stationed in Cuba, and is off on a short furlough.

The condition of Former Councilman F. E. Marsh, of Madison avenue, remains unchanged. He is still very ill and his friends are anxious concerning his recovery.

Miss Wikoff, of Woodhull & Martin's store, is enjoying her week's vacation, a portion of which she will spend with her sister, Mrs. Clarence Smock, at Red Bank.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

—The latest fashionable hat for women is a draped velvet turban, with a profusion of shirred or tucked liberty silk. Bonn, of Front street, says they are becoming to every woman.

—Schepflin & Schultz clothiers, have announced a January cut-price sale. They make all the clothing they sell, and have made a name for themselves by selling fine clothing at manufacturers prices. A cut on their already low prices must make their clothing the cheapest line in the State.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

LONG KNOWN - - - MUCH USED.

Randolph's Glycerine of Arnica.

for Cold Wind Chaps, Rough Skin and all Irritations of the Skin.

.....QUICK RELIEF GIVEN.....

25c per bottle -:- -:-

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for TELEPHONE CALL 100

Lowney's and Whitman's Chocolates and Chocolate Bon-Bons.

"PAY CASH AND SAVE MONEY" AT

V. L. FRAZEE'S,

THE PEOPLE'S CASH GROCER

151 West Front Street.

SPECIAL PRICES FOR

Friday, Saturday and Monday,

January 12th, 13th and 15th:

Best Elgin Creamery Butter	30c lb
Good Creamery Butter	25c lb
Best Full Cream Cheese	15c lb
Good Lard	6c lb
Fresh Jersey Eggs, guaranteed	22c doz
Best Fine Granulated Sugar	5c lb
Best Early Rose Potatoes	38c basket
Best Extra Fancy Seeded Raisins,	10c pkge
Best New Cleaned Currants, 1 lb package	9c
Best Vermont Maple Syrup	1 qt bottle 25c
Best Home-made Mince Meat,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best California Prunes	5c, 7c, 8c and 9c lb
Paris Sugar Corn	9c can
New York State Sugar Corn	7c can
Rose Bud brand, Early June Peas,	7c can, 4 cans for 25c
Fine Small Early June Peas	10c can
Best Solid Packed Tomatoes	7c can
Best Vanilla Drip Sugar Syrup	35c gallon
Best New Orleans Molasses	35c gallon
Best XXXX Minnesota Patent Flour	55c bag
Best Lemon Cakes, Ginger Snaps, Nic Nacs, Soda and Oyster Crackers	5c lb
Uneeda Biscuit	4c package
Best Mocha and Java Coffee	25c lb
Fresh Roasted Coffee, bean or ground	12c lb
Fine Fat Mackerel	8c each

WAKE UP!

Do not be led away with the idea that because you are getting a certain quantity for your money you are getting Real value.

Everything the very best in our stock of

Flour, Feed, Meal, Bran, Hay, Straw, Salt Moss and Shavings

TRY THEM -:- -:-

Daniel Snyder & Sons,

(Successors to P. M. French.)

24 Somerset Street.

Velvet Hats, Tam Crowns, ruffled brims, $1.49.

Bonn's

140 West Front St.

HATS TRIMMED FREE OF CHARGE.

All-Wool Flannel Waists, $1.00.
Satine Waists, with 12 tucks, $1.19.
Pretty Flannelette Waists, 49c.
French Felt Alpines, 98c and 69c.

CHARLES ARNOLD,

Dealer in all kinds of

Fresh and Salt Meats,

POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON

203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.

Telephone 238.

MARTIN ROTH, Jr.,

(Successor to Martin Roth, Sr.)

SHOEMAKER....

Repairing a specialty. First-class work. Only best material used. A trial is all that I ask.

124 EXCHANGE ALLEY,

Rear of Liefke's Bakery....

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.

Economy Days

FRIDAY & SATURDAY

This Week.

For economical shoppers and careful money spenders ours is the ideal store. The constant underselling of reliable merchandise stimulates the growth and progress of the business. Unusual offerings and money-saving chances are in abundance here Friday and Saturday.

3½c Best quality Shirting prints, usually sold at 6c.
5c Heavy quality of Outing Flannels, fifty new patterns in choice colorings, 8c quality.
7½c Best quality of English flannelettes in light and dark colors, worth 10c.
6½c Fruit of the Loom full bleached Muslin, yard wide.
6½c Lonsdale Muslin, full bleached, yard wide.
8c Best quality Lonsdale Cambric.
15c Women's all wool cashmere Hosiery, fast black and seamless, positively worth 25c.
25c Women's Swiss ribbed heavy fleece-lined grey merino vests, reduced from 50c.
10c A small lot of children's undershirts and combination suits in small sizes reduced from 25c and 35c.
5c About two thousand yards fancy ribbon two to five inches wide worth 15c to 25c the yard.
10c Women's outing flannel underskirts, plain colors with fancy borders, worth 29c.
25c Hassocks in a great assortment of patterns, covered with velvet carpet reduced from 50c.
98c Boys' suits of heavy mixed cassimere, reduced from $4.50.
1.39 Boys' suits of heavy cheviots, navy blue, all wool, reduced from $2.98.
1.98 Boys' suits of mixed cassimere, all wool, reduced from $2.98.
4c Good Household Ammonia, worth 8c.
Best "Big Wonder" Laundry Soaps, worth 7c.
18c Table Tumblers, worth 30c.
10c Granite Wash Basins worth 17c.
5c Heavy wire potato mashers, worth 10c.
18c Dozen nickle-plated Teaspoons, worth 30c,

W. R. BROKAW,

Will occupy the store 207 Park Avenue,

Marsh Building, next to Demarest's Grocery, About February 1st.

His line of MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS will be more complete than ever before, embodying everything in the music line. Don't fail to call on him at his new store for anything you want.

THIS IS THE TIME

to protect your feet from the cold and damp---We can shoe you with reliable shoes at a small cost.

VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.

Repairing Properly Done.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,

Made only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,

At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.

Capital, $150,000.

Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson.
H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold.
J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J. B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

PLANTS and FLOWERS.

All the new and latest ideas in FLORAL DESIGNS, BASKETS and WEDDING BOUQUETS.

..Ferneries at Short Notice..

CHAS. L STANLEY, 142 North Ave

Greenhouses, South Ave., Netherwood.

"Queen Quality Shoes"

Ladies' $3.00 Shoes advertised in all the Leading Magazines in the country are for sale at 107 Park Avenue.

SEE THAT THIS Queen Quality $3.00 TRADE MARK IS BRANDED ON EVERY SHOE.

Queen Quality, $3.00.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 Park Avenue.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Oldenburg.

Budjadingen. Der sehr große Bauernhof des Pächters Wettermann ist abgebrannt; 10 Pferde, 40 Stück Hornvieh und viele Schweine, auch große Erntevorräthe wurden ein Raub der Flammen. Nur wenig ist gerettet, der Schaden groß.

Mecklenburg.

Parchim. Der 70 Jahre alte Superintendentur-Kopist Schmidt gerieth bei einem Spaziergange Abends in das Slater Moor und erstickte darin. Unter den nach dem Vermißten Suchenden befand sich auch der Cigarrenarbeiter Stahlmann, ein Schwager des Schmidt. Stahlmann kam von der das Moor und das angrenzende Buchholz durchforschenden Truppe ab und irrte in der Dunkelheit der Nacht umher, bis er erschöpft zu Boden sank; er wurde am nächsten Tage gleichfalls als Leiche gefunden.

Rostock. Wegen hohen Alters tritt der Präsident des hiesigen Oberlandesgerichts, v. Maltzan, in den Ruhestand. Zu seinem Nachfolger ist der Landgerichtspräsident Dr. Martius in Schwerin ausersehen, und an dessen Stelle tritt der Geheime Ministerialrath Dr. Langfeld-Schwerin.

Braunschweig. Lippe.

Esbeck. Eine Feuersbrunst zerstörte das Anwesen des Ackermanns O. Rieseit vollständig. Der Schaden beläuft sich auf über 50,000 Mark.

Lage. Die Einwirkungen des Transvaalkrieges machen sich selbst bei uns unangenehm bemerkbar. Die hiesige Bündschnurfabrik, der es in Folge des Krieges an Absatz fehlt, stellte ihren Betrieb ein. Auch in dem in Meißen befindlichen Hauptgeschäfte haben 50 Arbeiter entlassen werden müssen.

Großherzogthum Hessen.

Darmstadt. Die hessischen Richter haben sich zu einem Verein zusammengeschlossen, der engerem Zusammenschluß, Mittheilungen und Besprechungen wichtiger Rechtsfragen, Hebung und Förderung der Kollegialität und Wahrung der Standesinteressen dienen soll. Ein Vereinsblatt soll herausgegeben werden. Vorsitzender ist Oberlandesgerichtsrath Schlink in Darmstadt.

Brauerschwend. Für das seit dem Tode des früheren Bürgermeisters Grünewald erledigte Bürgermeisteramt ist Landwirth Jakob Schuchard gewählt worden.

Mainz. Da jetzt die Feuerbestattung in Hessen gesetzlich zugelassen ist und die Benutzung des Krematoriums in Offenbach, das schon seit einigen Jahren fertig ist, freigegeben wurde, planten nun auch die Feuerbestattungsvereine von Darmstadt, Gießen und Mainz den Bau von Krematorien. Hier ist geplant, daß der Feuerbestattungsverein von Wiesbaden sich an dem Bau des Krematoriums betheiligt. — Die Wahl des Domkapitulars Brück zum Bischof von Mainz befriedigt in der Diözese allgemein.

Offenbach. Wie verlautet, sind die Waldungen des Fürsten Isenburg-Birstein bei Offenbach, über deren Ankauf unlängst ein Frankfurter Konsortium verhandelt haben soll, für 6,000,000 Mark in den Besitz des hessischen Fiskus übergegangen. Den in der Nähe liegenden Gemeinden soll, wie es heißt, so viel von den Waldungen abgetreten werden, wie sie gebrauchen.

Bayern.

München. Unlängst theilte der Staatsminister den Kreisregierungen einen Entwurf über eine verstärkte Bautontrolle durch Bauaufseher aus dem Arbeiterstande zur Begutachtung mit.— Der neue päpstliche Nuntius, Msgr. Sambucetti, tritt dieser Tage hier sein Amt an.—In der Maffei'schen Lokomotivfabrik geht die 2000. Lokomotive der Vollendung entgegen.

Altötting. Mit Jahresbeginn wurde hier die magistratische Verfassung eingeführt. Die Gemeindebevollmächtigten haben den seit 30 Jahren mit seltener Pflichttreue seines Amtes waltenden Bürgermeister Herrn Apotheker Max Beck wiedergewählt.

Berchtesgaden. Zum Königsee und von dort zurück zum hiesigen Bahnhof wird sicherem Vernehmen nach in nächster Zeit eine Postverbindung geschaffen werden.

Burglengenfeld. Hier traf die Nachricht ein, daß Herr Ingenieur Kirchberger, der seinerzeit den hiesigen Bahnbau leitete, fern von der Heimath, in China, woselbst er ebenfalls seit kurzer Zeit beim Bahnbau engagirt war, gestorben ist.

Königshofen. Die 20jährige Anna Maria Unbehaun, welche längere Zeit vermißt wurde, ist in einer leerstehenden Kegelbahn in Untereßfeld aufgefunden worden. Die Bedauernswerthe hat daselbst drei Wochen ohne Speise und Trank zugebracht und ist fast zum Skelett abgemagert.

Krapfenau. Hier wurde der Privatier L. Dauberschmidt schon dreimal zum Gemeindevorsteher mit je dreijähriger Dienstzeit und sechsmal zum Bürgermeister mit je sechsjähriger Dienstzeit, folglich bereits neunmal und jedesmal einstimmig gewählt, so daß er nach Beendigung dieser Wahlperiode der Gemeinde Krapfenau ununterbrochen 45 Jahre vorsteht.

— Use Press want ads.

(B)

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

Big With Bargains

—honest true-blue bargains in furniture and carpets here, for 'tis the great yearly clean-up time, when goods must go to make way for complete lines, and to make the stock-listing task easier. Credit terms just the same as ever—or cash, if you'd rather.

Get Carpets Now

while they're to be had at these close-out prices—it's an amazing chance for you! Thousands of rolls of pretty patterned weaves.

$28.98. Golden oak combination desk—French plate mirror, neat carvings. Worth $35.00.

$49.00. Full over-stuffed suit—heavy fringe, corded tapestry coverings. Worth $65.00.

$17.98. Solid oak—heavy carving, lined drawer for silver. Worth $25.00.

$13.98. Carved arms, claw feet, upholstered seat, velour cushions. Worth $18.00.

$9.98. for a green velour deeply tufted couch, full spring edge. Worth $15.00.

$6.23. Solid golden oak desk—swell front drawer, French legs. Worth $8.50.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,

LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St., Newark, N. J.

Note first name "Amos."

Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

A venerable old lady, whose home is in St. Louis, relates "Some time ago I started to use at the suggestion of my son, who advised me to try them. I take one Tabule after each meal, and can now look forward to meal-time with a pleasure which I have not experienced for years. The headaches that constantly harassed me in the past, and the accumulation of gases upon my stomach, have disappeared, and these improvements I attribute to Ripans Tabules. For more than twelve years I suffered from indigestion and nervous dyspepsia. I suffered intensely during that time, and spent large sums of money in the employment of St. Louis' most prominent physicians, but the relief afforded was only temporary. I had begun to give up all thoughts of ever being permanently cured, but now my only regret is that a knowledge of Ripans Tabules came to me so late in life."

R·I·P·A·N·S TABULES

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER.

ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.

169 NORTH AVENUE.

Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW, THE GROCER.

Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.

Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

GOOD THEY'RE SMALL

If Ants Were Larger They Would Undoubtedly Own the Earth.

If ants were large enough they would rule the earth. As it is, they predominate the politics of their own sphere, and have many human characteristics.

The longest time for which an ant sleeps is three and a half hours. On awakening, they stretch their legs, yawn, and then carefully clean themselves, by applying their legs to their mouths and rubbing them over their bodies, very much in the style of a cat washing her face, after which they comb and brush their heads and bodies with the natural comb which nature gives them.

The most remarkable thing about this is that almost every necessity for which we are obliged in our case to employ more or less complicated mechanical contrivances is provided for by the physical structure of the ants.

Ants clean themselves both before and after sleep, and also after eating. Frequently one ant will lick and brush another all over, limb by limb, the ant operated on sprawling on her back, relaxing her muscles and abandoning herself to the enjoyment of the operation.

They are great hunters, attacking snakes, lizards, rats, mice, centipedes and beetles.

They even kill the great African python. It is said that if a python has killed an animal, he dare not gorge himself with it until he has made a wide circuit and satisfied himself that there are no driver ants in the neighborhood. If, however, he meets with any, he abandons his prey to them, and discreetly retires. A certain species actually keep cows—in other words, plant lice. When the ants are hungry they actually milk the aphrides by tapping them briskly on the sides of the abdomen with their antennae till the fluid exudes, when it is at once sucked up by the ants.

They shut them up in cowhouses and use them for days.

Ants act as soldiers in a very real way, and it is no stretch of the language to call them pitched battles between ants of the same species, and raids of one species upon the nests of another, sometimes to carry off the larvae and pupae as food (a modified form of cannibalism), and sometimes to supply their own nests with slaves.

Certain ants are agricultural, and allow ant rice to grow up in a circle round their nests, while every other plant is carefully cut down as fast as it appears. They sow the crop regularly, tend it, and harvest it. When the seeds fall they are carried into the nest, and the stubble is cleared away. When the grain in the nests gets damped by rain these ants carry it out into the open to dry.

New Rural Mail System.

The United States postoffice department has officially adopted and commenced to operate a postal wagon, which is intended to replace the majority of the star route postoffices in the United States. The star route offices are those which are called fourth-class postoffices, and the postmasters in charge of these have been paid a percentage on the postal business they transacted. As fast as possible these wagons will be introduced throughout the United States. Each state will be divided into circuits, these circuits being of the length that a wagon can cover in a day. The postal clerks in charge of these wagons issue money orders, register letters and transact a general postal business. The mail is delivered either at the houses of the people along the route or placed in what is called a rural free delivery box near a residence. The postal clerk has one key to this box and the occupants of the residence the other. In this way the postoffice comes to the people instead of their going to the postoffice.

COLLECTING MAIL ON COUNTRY ROAD.

The inventor of this postoffice wagon is Edwin W. Shriver of Westminster, Md., who was for years a purser on the Iron Steamboat line between New York and Long Branch. Mr. Shriver has been appointed postal clerk of the wagon which began operation last Monday.

It is estimated by the postoffice department that about 40,000 of the minor rural postoffices will be done away with by the use of these wagons.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .

in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated

DOMESTIC FINISH.

Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.

Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.

Trading Stamps given.

The City Steam & Hand Laundry

MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B

19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.

Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .

Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot & Tar

is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

THE BOER WOMAN

How She Is Reared and Educated ⁘ How She Is Wooed and Wedded and How She Lives In Peace and In War.

BY ROSA C. EICHORN.

In common with the men of their race the Boer women retain the simple and conservative ways of their fatherland, staid old Holland. As their lives are passed in a faraway and isolated country doubtless they are more tenacious of the old customs and habits than their sisters in the land of dikes and windmills. But with all that has been written and said detrimental to the descendants of a race of people strong and brave enough to struggle against nature and wrench from the very arms of the sea a home such as their persistency has made of Holland the true state of affairs will "out."

The exigencies of the present war in South Africa reveal the true character not only of the men at arms, but of the Boer women and their political as well as social importance.

It goes without saying that a race of only about 60,000 fighting men which dares to defy the power of England was bred by women of no common mold—women who have braved hardship and want, who have turned their hands to the humblest and most menial services for the preservation of their moral standard and their free, peaceful homes.

BOER GIRL IN HOLIDAY DRESS.

The social status of the women of the Transvaal may be summed up in a very few words. It is quite as simple as that of her husband. Of the two classes of people who compose its population the farm woman or ranchman's wife is the true type of the Boer sweetheart, wife and mother.

Life on an isolated ranch becomes necessarily a matter of routine, of early rising and hard work. This is exactly what the life of the South African woman is. Two hours before sunrise the whole family is astir. While the husband and sons attend to stable duties, the wife and daughters prepare breakfast and straighten out the disorder occasioned by the converting of living room into sleeping room, which in itself is no light task, for the women pride themselves on their cleanliness and labor as industriously as their Dutch ancestors, whose reputation for continually polishing and scrubbing has been inspiration to less thrifty housewives.

By sunrise the men are out hunting or fishing and the household tasks have been accomplished. The women then take themselves to spinning and weaving, herding cattle and farm work. It is no uncommon sight to see the wife and daughters of a Boer whose possessions would mount up into the hundreds of thousands or even millions laboring in the fields by his side.

The Boer in the construction of his home does not aspire to a higher style of architecture than that which pleased his grandfather. The very simplest sort of dwelling, consisting of two, sometimes three or four, rooms, meets all the wants of a large family. The furniture is of the plainest and most serviceable kind. Neither expensive oil paintings nor bric-a-brac adorn this household, but conspicuously resting on a table in the center of the living room is the family Bible, which serves to instruct and encourage and on the possession of which every Boer prides himself.

The children learn to pick out the letters of their language from this one book, thus making the study of the Bible their sole inspiration for learning. Such simple taste is never disturbed by the influx of newer or more exciting literature, and the child mind is trained to the mature state by a course of the purest and highest reading. It is this taste for the ideally chaste which is nurtured in the child that makes of the men and women alike a pure minded and rigidly devoted people.

The typical Boer prides himself on being as far removed as possible from his neighbor, as he is inclined to express it, "Not within sight of his neighbor's smoke." With a home planted in the center of a farm of from 6,000 to 12,000 acres, there is very little opportunity for social intercourse. The husband contents himself with his pipe and Bible, but the women and children reach out for a more pleasurable pastime. They are inordinately fond of music and dancing. The violin is their especial delight.

On the slightest pretext, or none at all, they arrange for a "dance ball party." The young men and women gather from all the surrounding farms and prepare themselves for pleasure. Little if any party dressing is done, the men wearing their farm clothes and the women their workaday gowns, to which have been added embroidered apron and fresh cap. No square dances are introduced. After hours of slow whirling the youths retire to their wagons and the stables, the women to the couple of unoccupied rooms, for much needed rest. At intervals the dancing is renewed. Refreshments, consisting of coffee and sweet cakes, are served, and after 24 hours of jollity the company disperses.

As a rule, the South African Dutchwomen do not approach the fresh beauty of their European sisters. Here and there you will find a handsome girl, but not often. Her complexion is dull and pale, and she is strangely afraid of exposing her face and hands to the sun, wearing a large poke bonnet and hiding her hands under her apron on every available opportunity.

Yet, despite her plain appearance, the Boer woman is a model daughter and wife and is cherished beyond price by the fortunate man who wins her.

Betrothal and wedding ceremonies are peculiar. A suitor is expected to sit up all night with the girl of his choice. Where the home is a modest one, father, mother, brothers and sisters sit about the room, and the young couple have much to contend with. But even though the youthful lover may have such embarrassing conditions it does not follow that he will be accepted, for it frequently happens that on closer acquaintance the lady is not inclined to accept her parents' choice. By her decision the suitor must abide, for the Boer father would not force his daughter into an unhappy alliance.

Long candles of mutton are placed on the table and beside them a large kettle of coffee, which serves as refreshment during the hours of the night. About midnight the wooer and wooed are left by themselves if the parents are wealthy and have other rooms for sleeping; if not, they are left sitting up, while the others seek rest on improvised beds or even on the floor.

It is amazing how many people will gather together when a wedding is celebrated. Guns are fired upon the return of the wedding party and dancing is indulged in. The blushing pair is solemnly led to the nuptial chamber amid good wishes, handshaking and cheers. The rejoicing lasts for 24 hours; refreshments and dancing are the simple entertainments offered. With the morning and the departure of bride and groom for their own home the guests finally disperse.

Living away in the veldt the Boer woman has little need of education. Able to read the Bible and to write her name, the average woman is well equipped from an educational standpoint. Happily during late years the girls of the well to do class are being sent to seminaries at Cape Town, where they receive a much better education and imbibe the ideas of the women from the old world.

The woman of the Transvaal is an undreamed of power in her household, and this later means of education is strengthening her tremendous force. While the movements for the advancement of women which have swept over Europe and America have not been liberally received in the Boer state, still the women there are awake to their higher duties and opportunities. They respond to the new demands caused by the war and are being broadened by contact with new conditions.

In war they are to the fighting men of their families what the Indian squaws are to their warriors, faithful helpers and attendants. When an Indian's pony is shot in battle, his squaw brings up a fresh one, and if her brave is himself wounded she carries him out of danger and tends to his hurts.

This is substantially the position of the Boer women in South Africa. They form a mighty reserve both to the physical and moral forces of the army in the field. Women at the heads of the best households in the land are in the army hospitals as volunteer nurses.

That "Cleanliness is next to Godliness;" that "Order is heaven's first law;" that "God will punish the unjust and give strength to the righteous" are the sum total of the Boer's belief. A brave, strong race of men is evidence that pure and noble womanhood is in the background.

Mrs. Kate Chopin's novel, "The Awakening," has aroused deep public interest and much discussion. Mrs. Chopin is a native and resident of St. Louis, where the greater part of her life has been spent.

Miss Margaret Ingalls is a candidate for the position of enrolling clerk in the Kentucky house of representatives. In 1896 Miss Ingalls attained some prominence as a political orator, speaking in behalf of the Democratic national ticket. She says she will take the stump again in the next campaign.

DUEL WITH LASSOES

Fought Out to Death Between Two Desperate Experts.

Between a Mexican and an American, yes. It happened some time ago, but was about as exciting a piece of work as I ever saw. I was foreman at the time for the Seven Up (7 U P) horse ranch in Wyoming, and we were on our way from Sydney, Neb., with a band of mares that had been shipped from Missouri to Sydney, Neb. We had to drive the animals overland to the home ranch.

"Well, I picked up an outfit of men around Sydney, Seven Americans and three Mexicans—a tough lot. We started out, and when we got to the Big Cheyenne River, south of the Black Hills, we stopped to let the horses rest for a few days. There was one Mexican, Pedro Gonzales, about the most ill-natured and most quarelsome man I ever saw. He fell out with an American by the name of 'Dick' McAll, an all-around bad man. I knew 'Dick' by reputation and he had a bad record.

"Well, one day at dinner time 'Dick' made some remark about roping a 'greaser' down in Texas and hauling him across the prairie until he was worn out. The Mexican answered by saying that the man must have been asleep or dead, for you could not rope a live man and do that. 'Dick' jumped to his fet and pulled his gun, and Pedro did the same. I rushed between them and ordered them to put up their guns. The Mexican's black eyes shone like a rattlesnake's when about to strike, but he put the gun back in his belt, and 'Dick' did the same.

"I knew there would be trouble, and how to avoid it was a question not easily solved. I ordered the horse wrangler to fetch up the saddle horses, for I intended to move on that afternoon. The Mexican spoke to 'Dick' and they walked off to one side and talked in a low tone for a few minutes. When the horses came up I noticed both men saddled up their best horses. They both unwound their lasso ropes and stretched them out side by side. 'Dick's' rope was about forty-five feet long and Pedro's about sixty feet. Pedro drew his knife from his belt and cut his rope the exact size of 'Dick's.' They coiled up their ropes carefully and each man led his horse in opposite directions until they were about a hundred yards apart. Then they mounted like a flash and rode toward each other. I stood holding my horse by the bridle and watched every move. I will never forget the look of hate and murder on the Mexican's face. His lips were apart, showing his white teeth and a wicked smile seemed to play about his mouth. 'Dick's' jaws were set tight, and a look of mingled fear and rage combined on his savage face.

"They rode slowly toward each other for about fifty yards, watching each other like a pair of caged panthers. Then they made a dash and both ropes shot out like a streak of lightning. Both men dodged and escaped. In an instant they had gathered up their ropes and began to circle around and around. I could hear the swish of their ropes as they swung them around their heads, each man trying to get some advantage. They charged back and forth and finally both threw their ropes again. It was a close call for 'Dick,' for the Mexican got his rope over 'Dick's' head, but 'Dick' threw it off before he could pull up the slack. In an instant Pedro had gathered up his rope and threw it again and caught 'Dick' around the head and one arm. He drove his spurs into his horse and started across the prairie, but like a flash 'Dick's' hand went to his pistol, and before the Mexican could pull him from his horse 'Dick' sent a bullet through his head and the Mexican fell to the ground dead.

"But 'Dick' was jerked from his horse with terrible force, for the Mexican had made the end of his rope fast to the saddle horn. The Mexican's horse ran a short distance and then stopped, and before I could get to him the other Mexican had ridden up and emptied his six shooter into 'Dick's' body. He then put spurs to his horse and soon disappeared across the prairie, and that was the last I ever saw of him. The other Mexican told me that was the third duel of that kind Pedro had fought, and always got his man."—Seattle Post Intelligencer.

Effect of Marriage on Salaries.

A young man and a young woman employed in a big supply house in Chicago fell in love and were engaged to be married. The aggregate salary of the two was $18.

Man's salary.....$8 a week.
Woman's salary.....$10 a week.

The young man notified his employers that he was about to marry and rather hinted that an increase in salary would be acceptable. The young woman notified the firm that she was about to marry and hoped that she would be permitted to keep her place.

On the first pay day after the marriage the envelopes came as follows:
Man's salary.....$10 a week.
Woman's salary.....$8. a week.
—Chicago Record.

Unappreciated.

We never loved a tree or flower but that the rollingstone gathered no moss. Our jokes fall flat, stale and unprofitable, while our serious and sober efforts evoke the most enthusiastic outbursts of merriment. When we expect to split a side we break a heart, and when we would call up the tender tears from the heart of pathos wild and woolly outbursts of laughter smite upon our delicate and sensative ear. When we try to preach a sermon we are mistaken for a jester, and when we seek to rival Josh Billings, Talmage grows jealous.—Dyersburg, Tenn., Herald.

Many Mastodons.

The skeleton of the mastodon just dug up near Newburg, N. Y., is the eleventh example of such remains which Orange County has furnished, the first having been discovered in 1794 the the succeeding ones at intervals during the present century. The one found in 1845, now at the Boston Museum, is known as the finest specimen in existence, the bones being nearly perfect. It was eleven feet tall and its length was seventeen feet.

"She is two-faced, that is what she is."

"Well, she does enough talking to keep six ordinary faces busy."—Indianapolis Journal.

SNAP SHOTS IN PORTO RICO

Some of the Many Interesting Sights to Be Seen There.

The advent of Sunday in Porto Rico is marked chiefly by an exodus of those of sporting taste across the bay to picturesque Catania for a cockfight; to the Porto Ricanean soul dearer than things more spiritual. Transportation is taxed to its utmost. The fussy little ferry boat, the only one in Porto Rico, by the way, with a motley freight, and puffing and panting scurries away to overtake the cloud of felucca-like boats which, with slanting sails, are skimming ahead.

Arrived on the other side, the sailing craft touch land as best they may, the male passengers wade ashore, carrying in their arms squealing but acquiescent, their feminine companions; and old Pedro, the boatman, a gigantic African, dubbed Dom Pedro by his patrons, with an air of placid satisfaction, leads the way to the scene of action.

Below the Casa Blanca, the palace of Ponce de Leon, is port Catalina, his stronghold. It contains of few humorous suggestions on Spanish armament and cannon lore. One of its pieces is an old mortar, dating from ancient times. Its type is obsolete, as are the shells, piled close by. No one knows when last its voice spoke or precisely what might happen if ever it should speak again. It is one of many ancient guns in the ports of San Juan believed by the natives to be impregnable.

OLD SPANISH MORTAR.

Very strange it seems in this atmosphere of the middle ages to see positive America, hopelessly modern, as unconcernedly busy with military matters as at the most prosaic home port. Every day groups of keen-faced signal service men are seen, with a heliograph, flashing messages to and fro as the steady practice goes on which helps to mould "the man behind the guns."

Stretching away from San Juan eastward is the only highway leading from the city, and, running along beside, a lilliputian railroad soon to become, under the American touch, a trolley line. Its diminutive track, of twenty-two inch gauge, has its way through avennes of palms, past country homes, conveying those who seek in hours of leisure space and cool air. In the train next to the engine is a private car of which the management is very proud. It was made in the native shops, by native hands, of native wood very beautiful in finish and tone. Externally and internally it is skillfully carved, each seat arm forming a lions or a griffin's head, and, studying the real beauty of its detail, the conviction grows that here is a people capable of education and art.

Nor is there wanting other evidence that in this people is inherent a touch of art. The embroidery of the educated women is wonderfully beautiful, and there are native artists of no mean order who work their lives away for a few pesos. Manuel E. Jordan is one of these, a Pintor Paisagista—landscape artist. His work glows with the thrill of tropic life. A typical white native, in intelligence of high caste, but very poor except in those living possessions which serve to accentuate the sting of poverty.

Trade of the Ladrones.

Some indication of the trade of the Ladrone Islands is given in figures included in a recent report of Chief Frank H. Hitchcock, of the foreign markets section of the agricultural department. It is shown that the imports into the United States from the Ladrones and the Caroline Islands combined in 1897 had a value of $5,047; in 1887, ten years previously, of $3,828, and in 1889, of $242,487. The merchandise comprehended in the last named figures, however, was sugar, which probably came originally from the Philippines. The only available figures as to the exports is for 1890, when the exports from the United States to the Ladrones and the Carolines were to the value $8,884. What trade the Ladrones have is mostly with other Pacific islands.

Western Australia exported to Guam in the Ladrones, $108,484 of domestic merchandise in 1887, and but $15,-183 in 1892, and foreign merchandise fluctuating from $15 in 1887 to $242 in 1894. The total exports from Western Australia to Guam in 1896 were $137,-430.

Exports from New South Wales to Guam increased from $8,915 of domestic merchandise in 1889, to $15,145 in 1891, and in 1896 the foreign merchandise exported to Guam was only $19.

Although Victoria's commerce with the Philippines during 1897-97 was extremely small, exports of considerable value were sent to Guam. In 1892-96 the average annual value of the merchandise, foreign and domestic, shipped from Victoria to Guam reached as high as $868,209. Domestic merchandise shipped from Victoria into Guam is mostly wheat, wheat flour and biscuits.

The total exports from Guam to Queensland were $2,789 in 1889, and $20 in 1890 of domestic merchandise, and of foreign merchandise just $10 in 1892. New Zealand does a better business with the islands, her shipments to Guam footing up $14,531 in 1893 of domestic merchandise, and $63 of foreign merchandise in 1896.

Pocket picking is an occupation that results of a vast display of ingenuity. While disclaiming any particular merit for that country, says a London newspaper, it is an undisputable fact that again England is in the van of all nations in that her pickpockets hold their own against all foreign competition in London alone over 100,000 men, women and children gain their daily bread entirely by this unscrupulous mode of living.

MORTARS FOR DEFENSE.

They Are Among the Most Terrible Implements of Warfare.

The type of heavy breech-loading mortar relied upon by the army for inner-line harbor defense is one of the most terrible implements of war that have been devised. The high-power rifle is mounted in the coast defenses with an effective range of eight to ten miles, and is calculated to open fire upon a blockading fleet the moment it comes within reach. The mortar battery is concealed well away from the big guns, where it cannot be reached except accidently by the fire of the enemy, nor is this battery intended to be brought into play until the rifles in the main fortifications have been completely or partially silenced by the enemy. The mortars have a limited range of about four and one-half miles, and their tremendous bursting charges are fired high in the air, with the certainty of plunging into any vessel occupying a plotted position upon a chart which is in the possession of officers equipped with range finders of delicate precision located at a considerable distance from the concealed battery. This chart, is divided into minute squares, and as the enemy's ships cross the intersection of imaginary lines the men handling the mortars, although they cannot see the vessels, aim, load and discharge with the certainty born of long practice that every shot will tell.

These new mortars, of which 1,000 are provided for in the existing scheme of national coast defense, and of which 320 have already been mounted in positions commanding the entrances of the principal harbors on the Atlantic coast, fire a 12-inch shell weighing 1,000 pounds. This, following a high trajectory, is intended to fall upon the unarmored decks of vessels, and by exploding, demolish the machinery, destroy the crew and perhaps sink the vessel. These weapons each weigh about 13 tons, are 11 feet 9 inches long, and their 12-inch rifled bore is 10 feet in length. Their greatest diameter at the breech is 3 feet 2 inches. This great mass of metal is so nicely balanced that it can be loaded, aimed and fired by two men. The loading is performed by simple mechanisms, and with a trained gun company of six men one accurate shot can be fired every two minutes.

Spanish Courage.

The courage of the Spanish sharpshooters, who perched themselves in the trees before Santiago and did signal damage to the Americans was never properly appreciated by the men of the American Army. Here were a lot of men despatched with instructions to get out of sight somewhere and do all possible harm to advancing American troops. "And we don't care if you never come back," was the substance of the parting message hurled into their ears as they left on this mission of almost certain death. They took their water jars, a wee bit's rations, some cigarette paper and tobacco and all the Mauser cartridges they could pack in the pockets of their pajama suits. Then, climbing into the little bunches of vegetation that stuck out from the tops of the palm trees scattered around, they awaited the advancing American army to begin operations. Whenever they saw an American torso they fired. They had far-reaching rifles and smokeless powder. Their Mauser rifles made no more noise than so many popguns and threw out no more smoke than the cigarettes they puffed between whiles.

To locate these fellows was usually a difficult matter; but once located it was all up with the poor Spaniard. The general mode of disposing of a Spanish sharpshooter caught in action was simple but decisive. The Americans usually circled the tree and volleyed till their man came tumbling down. The member of the Twelfth Infantry who accounted for the death of one of these poor fellows by the grave declaration to the surgeon that "the fall killed him, I guess," must have been a bit of a humorist, for when the surgeon out of professional curiosity looked over the body he counted seven Krag bullet wounds.

Very few of these sharpshooters who were sent out to harass the Americans in this way ever saw their Spanish homes again. They were taking long chances. And they knew this when they went. Two of them were seen in the Siboney Hospital. They had been dislodged from their trees near San Juan Hill a few days before. One had five Krag bullets in him and the other six; both had shattered legs from their falls, and both were dying. One of them could speak English a little. "Me shot seventeen of you Americans," he boasted feebly before he died. No doubt he spoke the truth. They had great opportunities to do damage and they took full advantage of them.

When the American army advanced so rapidly toward Santiago on July 1 many Spanish sharpshooters were left behind their lines. This gave them a chance to fire from the rear, almost demoralizing the Americans and causing them to think for a time that their own comrades were firing into them. Most of these were eventually treed. Discovered, their finish followed at once. The Americans were greatly incensed against these marksmen, and when they uncovered one invariably made a quick finish of him as he sat in his perch among the palm branches.

Tennesse Marksmanship

A yarn is told in Manila, and it concerns the prison and two Tennessee volunteers. A Filipino convict had climbed the prison wall and was running for dear life through the open. Two long legged Tennesseeans were on guard duty. They kneeled to fire.

"I guess its more than 300 yards," said one quietly.

"I reckon it's most 500," said the other as if he was discussing the weather.

The prisoner was running like a deer and rapidly approaching the undergrowth around innumerable little huts, where he would be safe.

"Call it 400," suggested the first Tennesseean, in a conciliatory tone.

They adjusted their sights, aimed, and fired. The escaping convict fell, and the two Tenneeseans went out to bring in what was left of him:

"If he's hit in the head it's my shot," said one.

"I aimed low acco'din' to a'my regulations," drawled the other.

The convict was found with one bullet through the back of his head and another through the lower end of his spine. They know how to shoot in the mountains of Tennessee.—Harper's Weekly

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 45, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 08, 12 44, 1 25, 2 12, 2 28, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 54, 6 21, 6 36, 7 45, 8 45, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 05, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00 m, 12 58, 1 45, 2 46, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 28, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00, 12 44, 2 12, 2 28, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 30, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 32, 4 35, 5 09, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 05, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 05, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 05 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 31, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12.51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket time-tables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. L. Manning & Son,

STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

XXXX QUALITY
FINEST
LOFOTON COD LIVER OIL,

Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.

Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at

39c per Pint.

For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at

50c per Bottle,

or the Tasteless at

75c per Bottle.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
Heoburn & Co.,
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,
213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

WANTED
25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

JANUARY SPECIAL SALES.

Ladies' black cloth jackets 2 85, reduced from 5.00.
" " " " 3 85, " " 6.75.
Children's reefer jackets 2 85, former price 3.25.
" " " 5 00, " " 6.25.
Ladies' Golf Capes 5 00, worth 7 00.
" " " 8 75, " 11 75.
Misses' Golf Capes 2 98, usually sold for 4 25.
" " " 4 49, " " 6 25.
Ladies' House Waists 25c, regular price 50c.
10 doz. Silk Velvet Brilliantine Sample Waists at half value.
2,000 yards 36 in Bleached Muslin at 7¾c, usually sold for 10c.

House Furnishings.

7-piece Berry Set, complete at 10c. Dover Egg Beater 5c.
Coal Shovel, extra long handle, 5c. Wash Boards 12c.

Millinery.

Our entire stock of Winter Millinery to be closed out regardless of cost.
Diss Shapes at 15c and 25c. Trimmed Hats from 75c up.

I. H. BOEHM,
109-113 WEST FRONT STREET.

You Should See

the store in its dress of WHITE.

Particularly handsome is the showing of

--: New Embroideries, :--

of cambric, nainsook and Swiss. Edgings with insertings to match. All-over effects in embroideries and laces.

New White Dress Fabrics.

and remember that now is the time for bargain prices on

Muslin Underwear.

A most elaborate assortment of finely made garments—all marked at prices much below prevailing values.

I. LEDERER.

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas. Fine Coffee.

All the Seasonable Goods. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit.

Tel. 931. C. E. GULICK & CO., THE PARK GROCERS.

OVERCOATS & SUITS.

WE will close out all of our stock now at prices that defy competition; they must go. So if you need anything in the shape of the above call and be convinced of the fact. We have cut the prices in just half what we sold them for in the early season.

TRY A PAIR OF OUR 98c PANTS.
GET BRACED FOR 13c.
HATS, CAPS AND GENTS FURNISHINGS.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

Werner Clothing House,
206 W. Front Street.

"SOROSIS!"

The most popular shoe sold for women. 3,000 pairs turned out of the factory each work day. The best $3 50 shoe in every respect made. We sell them, as well as other lines at a higher price, and also as low as 98c $1 25, $1 50, $2 00, etc Good winter shoes for men $1 25, $1 50, $2 00 and up to $5 and $6 Felt Slippers, Rubber Boots, Arctics, Rubbers, everything you need in the shoe line. Peddles, Trunks, Dress Suit Cases and Traveling Bags.]

DOANE & EDSALL. . . . .

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.

Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,

Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.

WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER

DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

HE DELIVERED THEM

She Got All That Was Coming to Her, and More, Too.

A young village postmaster was hard at work when a gentle tap was heard at the door, and in stepped a bashful maiden of sixteen, with a money order, which she desired to cash. She handed it to the official with a bashful smile, and he, after closely examining it handed her the money it called for. At the same time he asked her if she had read what was written on the margin of the order.

No, I have not," she replied, "for I cannot make it out. Will you please read it for me?"

The young postmaster read as follows: "I send you ten shillings and a dozen kisses."

Glancing at the bashful girl, he said: "I have paid the money and I suppose you want the kisses."

"Yes," she said, "if he has sent me any kisses I want them, too."

It is hardly necessary to say that the balance of the order was promptly paid, and in a scientific manner at that and eminently satisfactory to the country maiden, for she went out of the office smacking her lips as if there were a taste upon them she never encountered before.

After she arrived home she remarked to her mother: "Eh, mother, but this post-office system of ours is a great thing, developing more and more every year, and each new feature added seems to be the best. Jimmy sent me a dozen kisses along with the money order, and the postmaster gave me twenty. It beats the parcel delivery system all hollow."

Have To Begin Over Again.

Employer—I drank a few bottles of wine last night with my bookkeeper, and suddenly he asked me for the hand of my daughter. Now, I can't, for the life of me, remember whether I said yes or no!

Bookkeeper—Last night I had quite an edge on, and asked the old man if I might marry his daughter—now, I can't, for the life of me, recall what the answer was!—Heitere Welt.

A Protest.

Old Gentleman—Ah, my little man, what do you intend to do when you grow up?

Little Boy—Well, I hope I'll have more sense than to go around askin' fool questions like that.

An Observation.

"As blind as a bat," is a saying
Of antediluvian date,
But a bat's not as blind as the average man
In church when they're passing the plate.

She Bought Them, Of Course.

Fair Customer—I don't quite like the shape of those shoes.

Shoe Clerk—They conform precisely to the shape of your foot, madam, and nothing could be more beautiful than that.

One On Uncle Sam

Stubb—That old man an artist? Why, I don't believe he could draw a straight line.

Penn—Perhaps not; but he can draw a pension.

Foolish Man.

"I told him he didn't dare kiss me," she said.

Then she added regretfully: "I sized him up just right."

APE MONEY TESTERS.

Extraordinary Use of These Animals By Siamese Merchants.

We do not often hear of monkeys being useful. We hear them called "cute," or "comical," or "amusing," or "mischievous," as well as a great many other things; but we do not hear the monkey often alluded to as "that useful animal, the monkey."

Now, the Siamese people don't think that way. They don't reflect how amusing a monkey is. They find out what a monkey can do, and make him useful by making him do it. There are plenty of monkeys in Siam. They are of all sizes, large and small; and the large apes of Siam, we have heard, are used by the Siamese merchants as cashiers in their counting-rooms. Think of making apes useful in such a way as that? To keep them for cashiers in a counting-room!

We are not told that these apes are expert at making change, or that they are able to keep the merchant's ledger for him. No; the way apes are made useful, is this:

The merchants are often deceived and frequently swindled by quantities of clever counterfeit coins, which are in circulation. The smartest men they could employ were deceived, too; for the bad money was such a wonderful imitation that the closest scrutiny often failed to find the difference between a good and a bad piece.

In this dilemma some Siamese merchants called to their help some one who was always thought not so smart as a man—a monkey. And these "large apes of Siam" proved such a success at their new avocation that the custom of employing them for the purpose of detecting bad money has become universal. The ape cashier of Siam holds his situation without a rival!

He has a peculiar method of testing coin. Every piece is handed to him and he picks up each bit of money, one at a time, and meditatively puts it into his mouth, tasting it with grave deliberation. If the coin is good, he declares the fact plainly. He takes it from his mouth and carefully places it in its proper receptacle beside him. He has pronounced judgment and every one is satisfied that the judgment is correct. But if the coin is bad, the cashier makes known his verdict in an equally unmistakable manner. He throws it violently from his mouth to the floor, shaking his head with as much disgust as the merchant himself might feel at being imposed upon. With loud chattering and angry gestures, says the Independent, he makes known his displeasure at being presented with a bad piece of money. The merchant himself could not express it better.

Now, how does a monkey know what a man cannot tell? Ah, that is his secret. He never reveals it. Perhaps he is afraid if he should make known all the mysteries of his profession his occupation might be gone, and people would once more prefer men for cashiers in place of the extraordinary apes employed by the merchants of Siam.

Spanning Niagara.

The second steel arch bridge across the Niagara gorge replaces the upper suspension bridge close to the falls. The signing of the contracts for the new arch was practically an order for the destruction of the last of the famous great suspension bridges at Niagara, so far as their original location is concerned, and the last of the structures traversed by thousands of tourists in an admiring mood will live in memory only. All arrangements for the building of the first bridge over the gorge were completed, writes Orrin E. Dunlap in Leslie's Weekly, early in 1848, and the contractors set about finding a means of establishing communication between the cliffs at the narrowest point near the whirlpool rapids. The idea of overcoming the difficulty by a powerful rocket was conceived. But this did not work, and some schoolboys flying their kites on the river bank gave the suggestion that the desired connection might be made by allowing a kite to settle on the opposite bank.

The most adept of the boys in flying their kites was little Homan Walsh, and the contractors invited him to try his skill. The prevailing wind at the falls is from the southwest, and after waiting some days for a favorable wind, young Walsh walked up stream two miles to the ferry, and crossed to the Canadian side, reaching which he proceeded down stream to the site of the bridge. The wind was blowing strong, and he soon had his kite, named the Union, flying heavenward. The cord went out rapidly, but the gale was too strong to allow the kite to settle. Night came on, and Walsh and boys who had gathered, built a fire on the bank to keep warm, awaiting a lull in the wind toward midnight. The anxious watchers on the opposite shore also built a fire. Walsh knew then that his program was understood, and that there would be a close watch kept for the kite.

The wind went down as expected, and about 12 o'clock increased tension and jerking on the kite string told him that his kite had landed and that the cord was safely across the gorge. The distance and roar of the rapids prevented verbal communication, therefore they were uncertain as to each other's movements. Suddenly there came a heavy jerk on the cord, and then it fell loose in Walsh's hands. So much sag had been given it that it had reached the river below, in which a vast amount of ice was flowing, and the cord was broken in two. Disappointed, Walsh wound up his end of the cord and started for the ferry. Reaching there, he was told the river was so full of ice that the boats dared not venture out. For eight days he was icebound on the Canadian shore.

When finally he arrived home he found his kite uninjured, and after waiting again for a favorable wind to fly it from the New York State bank, he again crossed to the Canadian side. The wind was favorable, and in thirty minutes he had landed his kite, and the desired connection between the cliffs was established. The cord was used to draw a heavier cord across the river, and this was followed by a rope and a wire cable. Other cables followed, and a cable way on which an iron basket ran, now in possession of the Buffalo Historical Society, was operated in building the bridge. Walsh received $50 for his work. He is still alive, and resides in Lincoln, Neb.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	High Score.
Roselle Casino	7	2	911
Westfield Club	5	4	866
Park Club	4	5	864
Cranford Casino	2	7	843

GOLF

The prospects are that next year will be the most active and popular in the history of golf, in this vicinity, and some great events can be looked for on the local links.

STRANGE PLACE FOR HIM.

An Opossum Found Its way Into Town and when Chased by Dog it Took Refuge in Areaway.

An opossum strayed into the city last evennig in search of adventure. He found it. He wandered through the moonlit streets and wondered when the Council was going to build a city hall. Then he discovered the railroad tracks and roamed over them. He was strolling toward the Park avenue bridge when a wandering canine discovered him. With a yelp of joy, the dog started for the 'possum. There was a fight and the 'possum departed hurriedly for the first convenient shelter. It happened to be the areaway in the rear of J. W. VanSickle's meat market on North avenue.

This morning Mr. VanSickle noticed what he supposed was an old fur muff lying on the steps that lead to the floor above. It was the only means of exit from the areaway and top was blocked by a gate. What looked like a muff proved to be the 'possum fast asleep. Mr. VanSickle captured it, and now has the animal in a cage in his store.

LEHIGH VALLEY.

Last Year's Net Earnings Were Less Than Five Millions.

The board of directors of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Co. have approved the forty-fifth annual report of the operations of the company for the year ended November 30, 1899. The report shows that the gross earnings from operation amounted to $21,570,502, an increase over the preceding fiscal year of $1,827,964; expense of operation exclusive of taxes $16,643 282; increase, $2,675 457 net earnings from operations, $4,921,673; decrease $347,493.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, the report says, has no floating debt. The net results from operation of the railroad company for the year showed a loss of $523,194, and from operation of the coal company a loss of $259,269; a total deficit of $782 464.

Included in these figures, however, are improvements and betterments amounting to $1,829,383, or $1,047,418 in excess of the apparent deficit.

Church Workers.

At the close of the prayer meeting at the Park Avenue Baptist church last night the quarterly business meeting of the Sunday-school was held. Reports for the past quarter were submitted and the following officers elected for the ensuing year: Superintendent, Mrs. D. M. Runyon; assistant superintendent, Miss Florence G. Hawkins; secretary, Thomas A. Cuming; treasurer, Joseph M. Hawkins; librarian, Frank Vail; organist, Miss Elma H Runyon; superintendent of home department, Miss E. V. Fish.

Entertained at Euchre.

Miss Lizzie Day entertained a number of friends at a euchre party at her home on West Fourth street last evening. The evening passed very peasantly with games and social intercourse. Those present were the Misses Josie Murphy, Clara Flynn, May Higgins, Kate Roache, Mamie Burke, May Day and Alice Day, Thomas Carty, John Madden, John O'Brien, Patrick Connelly, Michael Connelly and Lawrence Doyle.

—Have you seen Hepburn's new combination cigar lighter at Central Pharmacy.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary corner Park and North avenues.

If "clothes make the man"—

$1.50 GETS A NEW MAN

—at Hillier's.
Suits Cleaned and Pressed:

Coat, Vest, West, 25c; Trousers, 50c
Suits dyed, $2.25.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 W. FRONT ST.
Tel. 851.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—Neuman Bros. report a special sale of choice Baldwin, Greening, Northern Spy and Smith's cider apples at very low prices.

—If you want a good shave or a hot or cold water bath, go to "Dave's" barber shop, 213 West Front street. Open Sundays.

—Owing to the week of prayer, the weekly meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Park Avenue Baptist church tomorrow evening will be omitted this week.

—A monthly business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Seventh-Day Baptist church was held in the church parlors last night. The various reports were read.

—Geo. Huffman, of 219 West Front street, makes a specialty of children's haircutting. No extra charge for calling at your home. See his advertisement in another column.

—There will be special addresses on the subject "The Coming of the Lord" every night, for several nights, at the meeting rooms, 102 Madison avenue, by J. C. Holmes. The addresses will be illustrated by a diagram. The public cordially invited.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. John Rafferty, of Sandford avenue, is seriously ill.

The Misses Coddington, of New Brunswick, who have been spending a few days with friends in the borough, have returned home.

Rev. Dr. Henry Mottet and Mrs. Mottet, of New York, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton Edwards, of Franklin place, last night.

J. G. Kemp, general secretary of the Summit Y. M. C. A., called upon Physical Director Heywood this morning to ask him to assist in the opening of the new "gym" of the Summit association early in February.

Alex. Manning, of 317 Park avenue, one of the employes of Boice, Runyon & Co.'s lumber yard, is suffering from the effects of a badly bruised instep, caused by a heavy piece of timber rolling on his foot Tuesday afternoon.

ALMOST UNDER THE CARS.

Woman Stepped on Icy Boards and was Nearly Thrown Under a Moving Train.

The crowd at the North Avenue station held their breath this morning as the 8:46 New York local pulled out of the station. A young couple who reside in Washington Park arrived at the station just as the train was pulling out. They made a dash for it. The wife slipped on the icy boards and nearly fell under the wheels of the moving cars. Her husband steadied her and she made a grasp for the guard rail. For a moment she dragged, then landed on her knees on the car step. The man sprang on the other platform when one of the brakemen pulled the bellrope and brought the train to a sudden stand. The couple were assisted to their feet and went in the car while the crowd breathed a sigh of relief.

They Work for Uncle Sam.

The men who had the contract to repaint the letter boxes about the city have about completed their work. These men are two of several who secured the contract for the United States. The men who are working in this city have the eastern and middle States, and they rarely stay in one place over two or three days.

On a 20-Minute Headway.

Cars are now running over the line of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company on 15 and 30-minute headway. There are at present five cars on the line, four of which run on 15-minute headway and the other one on 30-minute headway. After every fifth car the next one comes along in a half hour.

Settled With Schomp for $84.

The action of Victor D. Schomp against the Brunswick Traction Company has been settled in favor of Mr Schomp, who has recovered $84 for the loss sustained by the above company killing a horse by being run over by one of the company's cars at Dunellen some months ago.

Where is John Hubbard?

The sudden disappearance of John Hubbard, a well-known mason, has caused considerable anxiety to his family and friends in Dunellen, where he lives. The last seen of Mr. Hubbard Saturday afternoon, when he started for this city on business.

Lambertville officials adopted resolutions requesting the court not to grant any more liquor licenses in the city. The resolutions were offered by Commissioner Richard H. Hughes, and will be presented to Judge Conover at the opening of court Tuesday. Six new licenses have been applied for at the term of court by foreign born citizens.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

In presenting "My Mother-in-Law" at Music Hall tonight, Miss Ullie Akerstrom has selected a comedy that will please all classes of people. Every one enjoys an evening at the theatre when they may be assured they will be well entertained. The name of the play, "My Mother-in-Law," is synonymous of fun. Somehow it is generally an accepted fact that the mother-in-law in one's family is most times always a disturber, often ending with furnishing the poor husband with a suit.

"You know the kind of suit I mean.
He'll lose his loving wife.
And pension her for life.
That's the kind of suit I mean."

Go laugh at Dr. Brown's troubles and forget your own.

* * * * *

The original Yankee comedy, J. C. Lewis' "Si. Plunkard," company, will appear in this city at Music Hall Saturday afternoon and night. This is the twelfth annual tour of this famous comedy. This season it has been put forward with all new features, introducing a full working threshing machine, a thrilling railroad scene. A locomotive and a train of cars 150 feet in length, pass across the stage at lightning speed, presenting all the sensational effects of a train of cars. The county fair scene, at a county fair, and many other catch novelties. "Si Plunkard" has been entirely re-written and reconstructed for the present season, presenting all new features and up-to date novelties, and will be produced by a strong and efficient cast of comedy artists in an entirely new and novel line of specialties. During the action of the comedy the superb orchestra carried by the company will render the latest overtures during each act.

* * * * *

Miss May Irwin, at the Bijou Theatre, New York, in "Sister Mary," just now offers the only good, hearty laugh of the theatrical season. The jolly play is now in its third month and the public seems to be appreciating Miss Irwin and Irwinians to fuller measure than it has ever done before. Surrounded with the rhythm and swing of irresistible songs and bubbling over with a cataract of laughter, Miss Irwin is seen to easily the best advantage in this her latest success than any of those which have made her famous. Another particularly special feature which is appealing to Miss Irwin's admirers is the fact that the Bijou theatre is the only one of the first-class theatres on Broadway where they do not charge $2.00 for the best orchestra seats. The entire orchestra of the Bijou during Miss Irwin's engagement has been placed at $1.50. The extremely large attendance the comedienne is attracting is substantial proof of the genuineness and enormity of the hit she has scored in "Sister Mary."

THE COURTS

JUSTICE NASH.

Summons—Anderson against Vail; contract; returnable Jan. 12. Messner against Holub; landlord and tenant; returnable Jan. 12. Cleverly against Barnett; contract; returnable Jan. 17. Carroll against Barnett; contract; returnable Jan. 17.

An execution has been issued in favor of the plaintiff in the case of Smalley against Powers.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A., will be held Thursday Jan. 18th.

Harry Gee has been secured to speak and Mrs. John Manly to sing at the Young Men's Rally at the Y. M. C. A., Sunday at 4:15 p. m. There will be instrumental music.

Kolinanskas's Many Troubles.

William Kolinanskas, of No. 124 Pine street, Elizabethport, buried his child yesterday. She was scalded to death Sunday. At the Moore Bros.' works yesterday Kolinanskas was caught by his clothing and whirled around a shaft. His legs were broken and he was badly bruised. The doctors hope to save his life.

We make them

On the premises: Hepburn's Remedies. Simple but effective in action. If not pleased with their effects your money cheerfully returned. Well known for past 20 years. See our window display.

Central Pharmacy,
Park Avenue & Second St.
Telephone 671.
Prescriptions Prepared.

GET YOUR
Children's Hair Cut at Home.
No extra charge for calling at house.
FIRST-CLASS WORK.
(For two years with Bamberger.)
Address GEO. HOFMAN,
1 11 eod 219 W. Front St.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.
TELEPHONE 722.
MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.
Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9 a. m.

Thursday Night, Jan. 11, 1900.
ULLIE ACKERSTROM
in the Laughing Comedy
"My Mother-In-Law"
Presented by a well-selected COMPANY OF COMEDIANS.
SCINTILATING WITH WIT and INCESSANT LAUGHTER.
Prices 25, 35, 50 and 75c.

Saturday, January 13, 1900.
2 Performances—Matinee and Night.
The young character comedian, J. C. LEWIS, and his Big Comedy Company in the rural farce comedy,
"SI PLUNKARD."
Entirely Re-written. New Dialogue. New Situations. New Novelties and New Scenic and Mechanical Effects. A strong and efficient comedy company.
SEE The great R. R. Scene. The Threshing Machine Scene. The County Fair Scene.
LOOK OUT! For "Si" and his Country Band Parade. For the Funniest Street Parade ever seen.
Prices—Matinee, children 12 and under, 15c. Adults, 25c. Night, orchestra, 75 and 50c; dress circle, 75 and 50c; balcony, 35 and 25c.

THE CELEBRATED
NEW YORK MUSICAL CLUB
will give an entertainment for the benefit of
The Park Golf Club
—at the—
PARK CLUB HOUSE,
Friday Evening, January 12th, 1900,
at 8:30 o'Clock.
ADMISSION - ONE DOLLAR.
1 10 3

FREE TRIAL.
ARE YOU SICK?
A sure cure for Bronchitis, Croup, Catarrh, Whooping Cough, Diphtheria, Consumption or any disease of the lungs or throat. Medicine taken into the stomach will not cure these diseases, because it is impossible to reach the affected part through the stomach. Doctors know this.
These diseases are cured by
DOWNING'S CHLORIDES.
Why? Because it cures by inhalation and reaches the affected parts. Ten to thirty drops poured on a plate and allowed to evaporate gives you immediate relief, and every breath helps to cure. The cure is positive and quick. Downing's Chlorides are breathed naturally into the lungs and throat, and is a germicide which kills all microbes, the cause of all troubles of the lungs and throat. This cure is so simple as to be perfectly safe for the youngest infant or for the aged person. There is no apparatus, smoke or danger. Unlike medicine, it cannot upset the stomach and nerves. If you have any form of lung or throat trouble, we guarantee to cure you. It is recognized and recommended by eminent specialists as the proper treatment for lung and throat troubles.
A free trial will be given by applying to the regular physician in charge of the office at 241 West 51st St., New York City. Descriptive booklet will be mailed free.
Sold by all druggist, $1 per bottle.
C. N. CRITTENTON & CO., Wholesale.

Receiver's Notice

William N. Runyon, Receiver of the Plainfield Poultry Farm Company, by direction of the Chancellor of the State of New Jersey, hereby gives notice to the creditors of the said Plainfield Poultry Farm Company, who have not already done so, to present to the subscriber, said Receiver, and prove before him under oath or affirmation or otherwise, as said Receiver shall direct, to the satisfaction of said Receiver, their several claims and demands against the said Plainfield Poultry Farm Company within three months from the eighth day of January, A. D., Nineteen Hundred, or they will be excluded from the benefits of such dividends as may thereafter be made and declared by the Chancellor upon the proceeds of the effects of said Plainfield Poultry Farm Company.
Dated No. 221 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 11th, 900.
WILLIAM N. RUNYON, Receiver.
CRAIG A. MARSH, Solicitor. 1 11 6 th

THE
First National Bank,
of Plainfield, N. J.
Capital ..... $200,000.
Surplus and Profits..... $ 90,000.
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.

DIRECTORS.
Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Coriell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store, 126 Park avenue.

Ladie Dearing . .
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 203 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

GEO. W. COLE,
—UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,—
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

DIED.

TITSWORTH—Entered into rest at Brooklyn, N. Y., Tuesday morning, Jan. 9th, 1900, Frances S. VanHoesen, wife of Aurthur L. Titsworth.
Services at her home, 415 West Seventh street, Plainfield, Friday afternoon, 12th inst., at half-past two o'clock. 1 10 2

WANTS AND OFFERS.

A man wants 2 well heated rooms, furnished, and good board, near depot. Address Home, care Press.

GIRL would like situation as chambermaid and waitress; good references. Call 207 Manson Place.

STORE and rooms to let. 541 West Fifth St.

WANTED—Colored girl for general housework; reference required. Apply 230 LaGrande Ave.

WANTED—An apprentice for dressemaking. Apply 325 West Second street.

LOST—Pocketbook, Monday afternoon. Reward for return to 208 East Front St.

TO RENT in Stillman building, the lodge room now occupied by the Red Men; completely furnished. 1 11 3

TO LET—3 rooms and basement at 432 West Sixth St. Inquire 110 West Second St. 1 11 3

WANTED—A chambermaid and waitress at 324 Franklin place.

WANTED—Roll-top desk. Address Desk, care Press. 1 11 2

FOR SALE price five hundred dollars, fifty foot lot and new stable, on Whitewood place, North Plainfield. Wm. M. Stillman. 1 11 3

FOR SALE or exchange for Plainfield property; fine new 11-room house, all improvements, hard wood finish, open nickel plumbing; located at Upper Montclair, N. J. For particulars apply to W. A. Woodruff. 1 10 3

FLAT TO RENT in new Stillman building. Inquire Wm. M. Stillman. 1 11 3

FOR SALE—A new upright steam engine, 5 horse power; used only one month. C. Schepflin, 320 West Front St. 1 9 3

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney, cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

WANTED—Office assistant. Apply by letter, VanDeventer Carpet Co., 629 South Avenue. 1 9 3

GIRL for general housework wanted; small family; references. 223 East Sixth St. 1 10 2

HOUSE and store, corner Plainfield avenue and Fourth street, for sale cheap. Apply R Frucht. 1 5 6

STORE to let, No. 220 Park avenue. Apply R. Frucht. 1 5 6

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

2 OR 3 stores to rent in Stillman building; can be thrown into one or more. 1 11 3

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

Massage, Manicuring,
Hair Dressing, Shampooing,
Facial Massage and Steaming.
MISS HOLMES, Graduate of New York Schools of Massage, Electricity and Dermatology.
440 W. Front St., near Washington Ave.

WANTED.

Day's work by good gardener. Handy at anything. Cesspools and sub-cesspools built. Best of work guaranteed. Call or address C. T., 99 Westervelt Ave. 1 10 2

M. E. Stephenson,
- - CATERER - -
Tel. 624. 146 North Ave.

FISH CAR.

At the FREIGHT HOUSE, Plainfield Avenue and South Second Street.
From 3 o'clock Thursday until 4 o'clock Friday afternoon.
Codfish ..... 6c lb
Haddock ..... 6c lb
Herring ..... 6c lb., 5 lbs for 25c
Smelts ..... 3 lbs for 25c
Oysters ..... 30c qt
Everything warranted as represented.
SEWAREN FISH CO., J. GOFF, Jr., Manager.
BRANCH STORE, 124 West Second Street, near Park Avenue. 1 11 w th

S. SCHEUER & CO.
—ARE OFFERING—
These Special Bargains
-:- FOR -:-
FRIDAY and SATURDAY.

Best Minnesota flour, per bbl	4.35
" " " 24½ lb bag	55c
Hecker's Flap Jack flour, package	8c
Best Elgin Creamery butter, per lb	30c
Best lard, per lb	6c
Fresh eggs, per dozen	19c
Armour's mince meat, 1½ lb cans	8c
Armour's condensed mince meat, 3 lb pails	25c
Duryea's corn starch, 1 lb package	4c
Shredded cocoanut, per package	4c
Choice Carolina rice, 6c lb; 3 lbs for	17c
Pearl tapioca, per lb	5c
Salt herring, per fish	1c
Salt mackerel, per fish	4c
Worcestershire sauce, per bottle	3c
Faust Oyster Cocktail catsup, per bottle	19c
Dandy mixed cakes (regular 12c,) per lb	8c
Nic nacs or ginger snaps, per lb	5c
Uneeda biscuits, per package	4c
Sweet oranges, per dozen	15c

—:— —:— —:—

In Our Meat Department.

Fancy Jersey Turkeys, per lb	14c and 16c
Fancy Roasting Chickens, per lb	14c
Prime Jersey Fowl, per lb	12c
Fancy Long Island Ducks, per lb	14c and 16c
Prime Legs of Lamb, per lb	12c
Prime Legs of Mutton, per lb	10c
Shoulder Lamb, per lb	8c
Shoulder Lamb Chops, per lb	12c
Fresh Jersey Pork, (for roasting) per lb	10c
Best Sugar Cured Hams, per lb	10c
Best California Hams, per lb	8c
Philadelphia Scrapple, per lb	7c
Fresh Tripe, per lb	6c
Pickled Pigs Feet, per lb	6c
Home-Made Sausage, per lb	10c

S. SCHEUER & CO.

Schepflin & Schultz, 322 W. Front St., near Grove St.
::: IMPORTANT :::
January Clearing Sale
: - : of CLOTHING.

We honestly believe that we are offering our stock of fine clothing at a scale of prices that will interest every man, woman and child in the vicinity. Our regular selling prices have made us famous; now we intend to create more talk by cutting and slashing our already low prices to such an extent that you will be tempted to buy clothing to put away.

Remember we manufacture all our clothing and have been giving the public the benefit of our facilities.

Here are our Cut Prices during this Sale:

Men's Black Cheviot Suits - - -	3.50
Men's Fancy Wool Cheviot Suits, excellent business suits - - - -	3.95
Men's Fancy All-Wool Cheviot Suits in gray effects	4.25
4 lots Men's Suits in Cheviot, Cassimere and worsted, cut price - - - -	5.00
1 lot Men's Fancy Over Plaid Worsted for dress, cut price - - - - - -	6 25

Some of our greatest bargains are in a lot of Men's coats and vests, odds and ends we call them, too numerous to mention prices, come and look at them, we will surprise you Youths' suits, 15 to 19 yrs. Our cut prices will give you a chance to fit the young man for about the cost of a good pair of trousers; we are showing them at 2 50, 3 00, 3.25, 3 50, 4.00, 5.00, etc, at This Sale

Child's Knee Pant suits, 95c, 1.25, 1.39, 2.50, etc.

1.39—Our Child's suits at 1.39, made us a great many friends; we have made another lot to sell at 1.39.

3.25—All our 4.00 Child's suits are going at 3.25.

Men's Single Vests 50c, 75c, 1.00, 2.00.

Men's Furnishings We are closing this line by sacrificing every article.

Men's White Shirts 25c and 39c. Men's Percale Shirts 39c. Men's Heavy Percale Shirts, the 1 00 kind, 75c.
Men's Dress Kid Gloves, the 1.25 kind, 75c.

Schepflin & Schultz,
MANUFACTURING CLOTHIERS.
M. J. Cashin, Manager.
322 West Front St.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:23 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:55 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:55 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Threatening tonight; partly cloudy Saturday; stationary temperature. Ther. 40.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., FRIDAY, JANUARY 12 1900. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

LEGAL DEFECT LETS AGED COUPLE STARVE.

New Misfortunes For Old Jim Clark and His Wife.

POORMASTER CANNOT AID.

SQUIRE DEBBY SAYS APPLICATION FOR AID IS DEFECTIVE.

Instructed Poormaster Wall, of New Providence Township, Not to Give Aid Until Corrections Are Made—When Wall Found the Couple on Verge of Starvation he Assisted Them From His Own Purse

Misfortune follows close on the path of old James Clark, the veteran fish-peddler, and his wife. Last spring they stared starvation in the face and, enfeebled by exposure and insufficient clothing, they were in trouble indeed The appeal of The Daily Press then brought them substantial aid from many quarters. Now in the heart of winter, they are left entirely without resources while certain public officials argue the question as to whether their application for aid has been properly made out.

Jim Clark has spent most of his life in the vicinity of New Providence. He was at one time well known here as a fish peddler visiting this section at frequent intervals. Now he is old and feeble and unable to earn even the barest livelihood. His wife's condition was so serious that she was confined in the Muhlenberg hospital for some time. Both are suffering from gangreen of feet, and Mrs. Clark lost several toes from that dread disease.

Last spring the Clarks moved into a small but comfortable farm house in New Providence borough. It belonged to a man named Potter living in Summit and he allowed them to live there rent free. The aid they received tided them over until summer when they were enabled to eke out a scanty existance, raising a few vegetables on the plot of land adjoining the house, while Clark earned a little now and then at odd jobs.

The cold winds of the fall and winter came and the Clarks were compelled to remain in the shelter of the little cottage. Their old trouble set in again and they were barely able to totter about the house. They asked for help. John Evans, poormaster of New Providence borough, declared that the borough could do nothing for them as they did not belong there.

An appeal was made to George Wall, poormaster of New Providence township. He was prepared to do so when he declares that Squire Peter S. Debby, of New Providence, instructed that he must give them no aid from the poor funds as their application had not been made out properly. The Squire declared that they would have to go to Elizabeth to have the papers corrected. Meantime the Clarks were left to starve.

The Clarks have a daughter who lives in Elizabeth. She sent a small sum of money, the result of careful saving, to the old folks at Christmas. That lasted until Sunday and furnished them with the bare necessities of life. Sunday they had not a cent and the cupboard was empty. Poormaster Wall heard of the situation and came to their assistance, giving aid out of his own pocket.

That afforded temporary relief and the wolf was chased from the door. He didn't go far, however, and now waits longingly for that small supply to be exhausted.

FINES FOR SLANG.

Girls in New Brunswick Organize a Society.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, Jan. 12.—The girls employed in a store here have organized an anti slang society. Fifty girls have joined it. The girls do not bind themselves not to use slang. In fact, they will encourage one another to use slang expressions, for the more slang is used the more money there will be in the treasury at the end of the year and the better time can be provided.

The members bind themselves to pay into the treasury 1 cent for each slang word or expression used in the hearing of another person.

Profit of the H. B. Claflin Company.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, January 12.—The annual meeting of the H. B. Claflin Company, of New York, was held at noon yesterday in this city. The company's annual statement shows that the net profits for the past six months were $540,818.94 against $385,295 82 for the corresponding period in 1898. For the year 1899 the net profits were $1,247,850.63 against $526,544.78 for the year 1898.

—The newest veiling is a fancy mesh, with small chenille dots one inch apart. 85c. per yard is the price at Bonn's.

FOR MEN WITH PULLS.

REGIMENT OF ENUMERATORS TO TAKE NEW JERSEY CENSUS.

Their Work will Commence June 1st—The State is Divided in Six Districts, With a Supervisor for Each One.

Ten hundred and forty-nine enumerators are to be employed in New Jersey, simultaneously with about 50 000 others throughout the United States, in taking the 12th census. Their work will commence June 1st next. Each enumerator will be armed with the required blanks and pencil, and endeavoring to remember one half the instructions he has received, will be fully impressed with the importance of the task which has been delegated to him.

In the division of New Jersey for census enumeration the congressional lines have not been strictly adhered to. The six districts are as follows: First, the county of Hudson; second, the county of Essex; third, the counties of Bergen, Morris, Passaic, Sussex and Warren; fourth, the counties of Hunterdon, Middlesex, Somerset and Union; fifth, the counties of Burlington, Mercer, Monmouth and Ocean; sixth the counties of Atlantic, Camden, Cape May, Cumberland, Gloucester and Salem.

The districts will be in charge of the following supervisors: First district, John H. Weastell, of Jersey City; Second district, Samuel A. Smith, of Newark; Third district, James M. Denton, of Paterson; Fourth district, C. S. Tunis, of Imlaystown; Fifth district, William L. James, of Riverton; Sixth district, John Blowe, of Camden. The number of enumerators in each district will be as follows: First district, 174; Second district, 186; Third district, 200; Fourth district; 141; Fifth district, 164; Sixth district, 184—making a total of 1,049 enumerators in New Jersey.

The work of the supervisors is next to that in importance of the director of the census. To them will be made the reports of the enumerators, and the accuracy of the census depends largely upon their ability and faithfulness. New Jersey is fortunate in having selected for these important positions men of high personal character, integrity and ability, and the figures for the State will be above being questioned.

PREPARING TO PAY DEPOSITORS.

Union County Bank at Rahway Expects to Settle Soon.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Rahway, Jan. 12.—The depositors of the suspended Union County Bank, this city, were notified last night to send in their books, in order that their accounts may be balanced. It is said that in thirty days the institution will begin paying off its creditors.

This news is greatly encouraging to the depositors, and a feeling of hopefulness is being gradually restored in the community that the bank in the end, will come out all right. There is no indication, however, that it will resume business.

The doors of the institution were opened yesterday for the first time since the suspension. No money was paid out, but claims against the bank were being received. President Savage this morning assured a reporter that the bank would pay off every dollar of its indebtedness, and that all it wanted was a little time in which to do so.

Must Pay for Blocking a Crossing.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Jan. 12—Judge Vail yesterday, in the Union County Court of Common Pleas, refused the application made by the Jersey Central Railroad for a writ of certiorari to prevent the City of Elizabeth from collecting a judgment for $25 obtained against the railroad company in Elizabeth's Police Court for blocking over twenty minutes the street crossing at Port avenue and Third street, Elizabethport, with a train of coal cars. The complaint against the railroad company was made by Superintendent Jenks, of the Metropolitan Insurance Company, who was held up in a rainstorm without an umbrella by the obstructing train.

The Somerset Court.

Mike Obocski was tried in the Somerset Court Monday on charges of assault and battery and atrocious assault and battery on Stephen Bires. Obocski was boarding boss in a shanty at Bernardsville and Birel was one of his men. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and Obobski was bailed to appear for sentence on the 19th.

To be Held This Evening, Too.

The statement having been made that the series of meetings at the Congregational church for the week of prayer were brought to a close last evening, the Rev. C. L. Goodrich, the pastor, writes the Press to state that a meeting will be held this Friday evening also.

—Use Press want ads.

VISITED POOR FARM.

Middlesex County Independents Found to be in Happy Frame of Mind by Officials.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Stelton, January 12.—The Middlesex County Poor Farm was visited yesterday afternoon by the township committee, together with a number of officials and prominent citizens from the county and a very pleasant time was had. It was the annual visitation and the farm was found to be in the best of condition. There are about fifteen inmates and everyone was found to be in a happy frame of mind. Noah Raby, the man who claims to be over a hundred years old, is still living and doing well. During the visit of the officials the events was made more pleasant by the serving of a lunch.

THE HORSE A SUBJECT.

Interesting and Instructive Talk Delivered by Dr. Knott to Young Pupils.

At the Randolph-Cooley Collegiate School yesterday afternoon Dr. Middleton O'Malley Knott gave to the students and their friends the first of a series of talks which he is to deliver there on four succeeding Thursday afternoons on the care of domestic animals. For the subject of his first talk Dr. Knott took "The Horse," with some of the problems of their use and abuse, and he gave many practical hints for the care and management of these dumb animals. Dr. Knott made very strong his appeal for kindness and consideration to these animals. After the talk Dr. Knott invited questions and among others one was raised as to the effielency of the Plainfield Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Everyone felt strongly the need in this city of a society of greater activity and efficiency. Plainfield seems strangely neglectful of these patient, long suffering inhabitants.

The subject of Dr. Knott's talk next week will be "The Dog and Cat," including the subject of hydrophobia, and the two following Thursdays on emergency cases and diseases of animals and how to treat them. These cannot fail to be of pleasure and service to all those who are fortunate enough to hear them.

MAD DOG'S RAVAGES.

Bit Its Owner and Several Dogs Before It Was Killed.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Flemington, N. J., Jan. 12.—John E. Lance, a farmer living near High Bridge, has gone to the Pasteur Institute, New York, for treatment.

Mr. Lance's dog suddenly sprang at him and bit him severly in the hand. He had a glove on the hand, but the brute's teeth sank deep into the flesh, inflicting a serious wound.

Its strange actions warned the family and led them to believe that the animal was suffering from hydrophobia. The brute was chained, but was later released, when it showed signs of viciousness. It left immediately in the direction of Glen Gardener and bit several dogs between High Bridge and Changewater, where it was killed by Andrew Castner. Several dogs were bitten in Irishtown. All the dogs known to have been bitten have been dispatched.

Of Special Interest to Students.

Senor Ramon Reyes Lala, the Filipino lecturer, who will be at Music Hall next Tuesday night, is an author and lecturer of much ability. He is under contract to the Board of Education of the City of New York for a series of thirty lectures during the present winter and gives three lectures weekly to the public schools of that city, which are attended in great numbers. Our own Board of Education are much interested in the forthcoming lecture, and arrangements are being made for reduced rates for tickets to teachers and pupils desirous to attend. A series of beautiful photographic illustrations will be seen with the lecture. Reserved seat tickets are now on sale at box office.

Fine Music to be Heard.

The concert that is to be given at the Park Club house this evening by the New York Musical Club for the benefit of the Park Golf Club, will be one of unusual excellence. The club includes the following artists, well-known in New York, where they bear the highest reputation: Miss Loretta Tappan Green, reciter; Miss Edith Hirchmann, soprano; Harry Willard and Clarence Bartlett, instrumentalists.

Insurance Agents to Dine.

On Wednesday evening, January 24th, the superintendents of the Prudential Insurance Company of this State will give a banquet at the Hotel Kensington, which will be a very elaborate affair. It will be similar to the one held sometime ago at the Revere House.

RAIN FROZE AS FAST AS IT FELL YESTERDAY.

Made the Sidewalk Menaces to Safe Walking.

TROUBLE FOR TROLLEY CARS

STORM CAUSED THEM TO RUN REGARDLESS OF SCHEDULE.

Old and Young Found it Impossible to Maintain Their Equilibrium and Many Took Some Very Hard Falls—Ice Finally Turned to Slush—Clear Weather is Now Promised by the Weather Forecasters.

With the mercury wandering disconsolately about the freezing point and a cold, penetrating rain steadily falling from the northeast, outdoor life in Plainfield yesterday afternoon was not possessed of a great deal of attractiveness. The sidewalks seemed effusively affectionate and showed a tendency to rise to welcome with striking eagerness those who came that way. So, at least, it looked to the pedestrians who were compelled to be out of doors.

When the storm began in earnest yesterday afternoon, there came hail. That changed to rain but the drops froze the instant they reached the ground. It didn't take long to coat the sidewalks with ice and such a grand slipping and sliding time as there was. Pedestrians took to the middle of the road but the smooth roadbeds were soon covered as well as the sidewalks and walking became a fine art.

There were hundreds of tumbles during the afternoon and evening. Old and young took their turn. Some sat down comfortably, others went through strange gyrations en route to the ground. But few escaped. It will be wonderful if some injuries were not received although none of a serious character have yet been reported.

A few horses were sharp shod but the rest found the going very difficult and they, too, took their share in falling. In some cases it was necessary to unharness them before they could be gotton on their feet again.

The trolley cars had their troubles as well. The rails were slippery while the wires sparked and flashed as the cars went by, melting off the ice that had formed on the wires. The front windows to vestibules were covered with frost so the motorman could barely see. The most effective means to overcome this trouble proved to be the little stove shovel, heated to a white heat. Held near the window, it soon melted the bothersome ice. The cars were all late and the regular schedule became disarranged. There were many who were glad of this opportunity of conveyance over the glassy streets.

Several small boys hit upon a new method of coaxing the nickels from the local store keepers. They went about with a stock of sawdust and offered to make the sidewalks in front of the various establishments walkable for a small sum. They found plenty to do, and the new industry thrived while the ice lasted.

It grew warmer as the night progressed, and the ice was turned into delightfully sloppy slush. This morning there were only occasional spots where the glare of the afternoon before remained The weather bureau promises clearing for this afternoon or evening followed by slightly colder weather.

DISCUSSING STREET WORK.

New Councilmanic Committee Go Over Work in an Informal Manner.

A meeting of the committee on streets and sewers of the Common Council was held last evening. Messrs. Tolles, Coriell, Craig and Lee being present. A preliminary discussion on the needs of the department was held, but definite plans for the years's work were deferred until the next meeting.

Insurance Policy Paid.

D. W. Littell, treasurer of Plainfield Council, 711, Royal Arcanum, has received from E. A. Skinner, supreme treasurer, a check for $3,000 to pay the insurance on the death of the late Josiah Browne. The check was received ten days from the date of mailing the proof of death claim to the supreme secretary, W. O. Robeson, Boston, Mass.

Miss Hunt a Bride

Many Plainfield friends will be interested in the cards sent out by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt, of Newton, Mass., announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Helen Trowbridge Hunt to Edwin Sumner Hunt, Thursday, January 11th. Mr. Hunt was a teacher in the high school for a number of years and is a lawyer in New York at the present time.

—Press want ads pay.

AN "AT HOME."

Pleasant Affair in Connection With the Formal Debut of the Young Lady Into Society.

The first of a series of two informal "at homes" given by Mrs. J. Hervey Ackerman in honor of her daughter, Miss Lydia P. Ackerman, who has just made her debut in Plainfield society, was held at Mrs. Ackerman's handsome residence on West Seventh street yesterday afternoon.

It was attended by prominent society folk of Plainfield and New York to the number of several hundred. The rooms were charmingly decorated, pink being the prevailing color. Those who assisted Mrs. Ackerman and Miss Ackerman in receiving were Mrs. Robert Rushmore, Mrs. Ernest R. Ackerman, Mrs. M. S. Ackerman, Mrs. Isaac W. Rushmore, Mrs. W. A. Pinto, Miss Mary Whiton and Miss Smalley.

The second of the "at homes" will be held this afternoon.

WHO THEY ARE.

Legislative Manual, Soon to be Issued, Will Tickle Vanity of the Members of the Legislature.

The Legislative Manual for 1900, which is about ready for distribution, like the several preceding editions of the work, is replete with statistical information which renders it valuable as a book of reference concerning affairs of State.

Among its many interesting features are the biographical sketches of State officials, which serve as a sort of informal introduction of the latter to the public at large. To the embryo legislator this is the most interesting part of the manual, because in it he finds a more or less complimentary description of himself, and a ready means of becoming acquainted with his colleagues and other officials.

Union county is represented by three first-year members, neither of whom held public office before. The list is headed by Ellis R. Meeker, who was born in Newark August 7, 1848. He is engaged in the building of yachts and gas motors for the propulsion of yachts and automobiles. He conducted a boat-building business in Chicago during the World's Fair and received a premium for his exhibition of launches. Chester M. Smith, one of his colleagues, is a wholesale tea merchant in New York City.

Charles S. Foote, the remaining Union conuty member, is a New York lawyer. He was born in Port Henry, N. Y., and graduated from Yale College in 1885. He resides in this city.

No Clue to Incendiaries.

The authorities have not been able to find any clue to the person or persons who, as supposed, set on fire the Kent Place Nurseries near Summit Tuesday night. That the fire was of incendiary origin is believed because the potting house, where the blaze originated, was not connected in any way with the heating plant, and had no fires of its own. W. H. DeForest has not decided whether or not to rebuild the ruined structures. Many men have been thrown out of employment by the fire.

Rear Wheel was Dished.

John Barry, the hackman, while taking two Plainfielders home from the North Avenue station last evening, met with a mishap at the corner of Park avenue and Ninth street. The street was very slippery and in turning the corner the rear wheel slipped and was dished. There was no other damage and the passengers and driver, as well as the horse, escaped all right.

Edison's Coming Cement Plant.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Phillipsburg, N. J., Jan. 12.—Thomas A. Edison, who is interested in the cement industry in this county, was here yesterday, and stated that one of the largest plants in the United States would be erected near Stewartsville, where the Edison Portland Cement Company recently made large cement land purchases.

Many Saw Stars.

There was a small circus in the vicinity of the North Avenue station yesterday afternoon when commuters arrived from New York. More than one person saw stars, although it was cloudy and they were obscured from view. To the person who could stand on his feet and watch the performance it was indeed amusing and laughable.

Called Twice in Ten Years.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Perth Amboy, Jan. 12—To the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church a call has been extended to Rev. Dr. H. G. Mendelhall, of Kansas City. The church has been without a pastor for three years. To Dr. Mendelhall was offered the pastorate ten years ago, but he declined.

Mrs. W. C. Chamberlain and daughter, Lottie, of East Third street, who were burned a few weeks ago, are now able to get about the house.

POLICE ARE WATCHING.

LOOKING FOR EVIDENCE REGARDING SWELL POKER JOINT.

Announcement Brought Out Fact That Circumstances Applied to Several Other Cases—Gossips are at Work.

What a stir in local circles has that tale of the fashionable "poker joint" made. The night after the story appeared in The Daily Press it was the general topic for conversation on the streets and at the dinner tables and the interest in the subject still continues. The most remarkable thing, however, is that while the article that appeared in The Daily Press was only intended to apply to one such establishment, it has brought to light that others exist. The coat seemed to fit in more quarters than one, and the habitues of these "quiet little games" are much disturbed.

The Mayor and the police were interested readers of the story in the Press. They claim to possess information regarding several such places and are diligently searching for evidence that will authorize a raid or the arrest of the principals. While no official action has yet been taken, the police say that arrests may follow. City Judge Runyon has shown that the city ordinances do not forbid an occasional game of poker or any other game of chance. The ordinances only cover a regular "joint," in which case the principals only can be held.

DINED AFTER THE SHOOT.

Contest Between Brunswick and Climax Clubs, After Which a Dinner was Enjoyed.

Yesterday afternoen at Scott Terry's farm there was a live bird shoot between the teams of the New Brunswick Gun Club and the Climax Gun Club, of Union county. There were twelve men on a side and the limit was ten birds each. After a spirted contest the members of the Climax Club came out victorious, winning by one bird, the score being 45 to 46.

After the shoot all adjourned to the Kensington Hotel, where a dinner was served in the grill room. Following the dinner there were toasts, and among the principal speakers was Former Judge W. A. Coddington. There were several other speakers and when the affair terminated it was rather late in the evening.

Choice Patterns in Carpets.

A large shipment of choice new carpets was received this morning at the carpet department of Woodhull & Martin's store, including velvets and Axminsters. Persons who are looking for something fine in carpets at the most reasonable prices should call and see the new stock. You can do better at this store than in New York, to say nothing of the saving of trouble in traveling, etc.

Making Arrangements for "At Piney Ridge."

John Daly, of Central avenue, who is with the "At Piney Ridge" Company for the second season as advance agent, is in town today making arrangements for the presentation of the piece in Music Hall Saturday night of next week. Since Mr. Daly left home last September he has been as far west as Denver, Col. "At Piney Ridge" has done a large business this season.

Electric Vehicle Co. Ready to Work.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, January 12.—The Riker Electric Vehicle Company obtained control of the old Fowler car works plant yesterday by a foreclosure sale. The transfer was made by the Hamilton Trust Company. The Riker company will manufacture automobiles and electric trucks and delivery wagons.

His Hand Badly Crushed.

Chester Dennis, of East Sixth street, an employe of the Potter Press Works, is detained from work owing to an accident he had yesterday while at work. His hand caught in a piece of machinery and was bady crushed. It is not believed that he will lose the hand.

Congressman Resigns as Bank Director.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Perth Amboy, N. J., Jan. 12.—Congressman B. F. Howell has resigned as a director of the First National Bank of Perth Amboy. His reason as announced was the pressure of other official duties. George J. Haney was elected to fill the vacancy.

Bought the Demler Hotel.

Fred Nelson, son of Lloyd Nelson, New Market, hotel keeper at Basking Ridge, Somerset county, has purchased the Demler Hotel property, at Washingtonville, of the present owners, estate of Peter Finger, and will take possession about March 1st.

—Press want ads bring results.

—On Saturday the New York Clothing Company, 214 West Front street, will place all their overcoats and heavy suits, on sale way below manufacture price. Everything will be marked in plain figures.

NO HEARING HELD ON STREET WIDENING.

Combination of Circumstances Kept Councilmen Away.

ONLY TWO MEMBERS THERE.

THE MATTER WAS DISCUSSED IN AN INFORMAL WAY.

About Twenty-Five Interested Property Owners Were on Hand, and Were Shown Maps of Proposed Improvement—The Widening of Street Alone Will Cost Only About $1,000.

As was to be expected there was not a quorum present last evening at the special meeting held by Mayor Smalley and the Borough Council. His Honor and Councilman Clark were the only members of the Council present. Clerk Frank Rowley was on hand, and so was Civil Engineer E. C. VanEmburgh, who has prepared plans for the widening of Somerset street, from the county line to Jackson avenue, as proposed. There were about twenty-five interested property owners in attendance to see and hear what was going on.

Mayor Smalley telephoned to Councilmen Rogers and Valliant, but they could not attend for various reasons. Councilman Swackhamer was called suddenly to New York on account of his wife being taken ill there, and as Councilman Codington fractured his arm a few days ago he could not attend. The other member, Mr. Burtis, is in Baltimore on business and could not be there. All of these things singularly formed a peculiar chain of circumstances, and together with the terrible condition of the weather had a tendency to hinder a little the project proposed.

Those present at the meeting were not discouraged and the determination to widen the street is as strong as ever. Mayor Smalley saw an opportunity to secure the opinion of the property owners attending, among whom were the largest owners along the proposed widening. A mutual admiration society was formed and informally there was a discussion of the project. Mr. VanEmburgh showed his map giving the measurements, present line and proposed line, and after the matter had been thoroughly discussed and a hundred and one questions asked there seemed to be a feeling among the owners that the widening would be a first-class thing. Much of the previous opposition was decreased, and as a result the prospects are that the widening will surely come at an early date.

A majority of the people in the borough have an idea that it will cost $5,000. to widen the street. This is wrong and when investigated in the true light and the proper idea obtained most everyone favors the improvement. On a very conservative estimate it will cost about $2,500 for the storm sewer, which is a necessity, and which really is responsible for the proposed project, as the question of establishing such a sewer, was the thing that brought about the widening. After the street is widened there will be more surface to macadamize, and as the street has not been macadamized this year the work is a necessity in the near future. This work, with the increase of surface, will cost about $1,500. In this way it can be seen that the actual widening of the street will cost the borough about $1,000, making in all an estimated cost of $5,000 for the entire job.

It will be impossible for the borough to do all the work necessary on streets during next year with an appropriation of $3,500, the present year's appropriation. Last year's Council expended nearly $7,000 in street work and was able to cover more ground. The present street committee has done most excellent work with the money at its disposal, and if the work of widening is taken up it will relieve the general street work considerably, as it will give the committee more money for the rest of the borough. These facts were brought out last evening, and were viewed by the property owners in a reasonable light. It was also shown that all property along the proposed widening would be benefitted.

New Jersey Has Enough Soldiers.

The adjutant general of New Jersey reports the present strength of the National Guard to be 238 officers and 3,455 enlisted men, enough, he says, for any need that may arise requiring its services within the borders of the State.

Case Has Been Settled.

It is reported on the best of authority that the case of Pride against Scott, Jr., for petty larceny, has been settled and nothing further will be heard of the case.

BRITAIN'S BIG TASK.

Boers Led by French and German Officers.

THE ENGLISH AT A DISADVANTAGE.

Natives Have Been Preparing for the Conflict For Two Years and Are In Splendid Fighting Condition. England Will Yet Win.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 12.—J. G. Thurtle, a prominent English resident of this city and first cousin to Lord Roberts, who is at the head of the English army in South Africa, formerly served in the English army and for several years held a commission under General Methuen in South Africa. He became thoroughly acquainted with the Boers and their country during his service on the English police guard. He says:

"The English are not fighting the Boers, for if they were and had been Lord Methuen would never have been trapped as he was. They are fighting the army officers of the French and Germans. This aid is given secretly of course, but is nevertheless effectual. The Boers are not capable of waging such a campaign as the one now in progress without assistance from those who understand the science of military tactics better than they do. Their method of fighting is that of the open field work, and they are not shrewd in the science of successful warfare.

"The English are placed at a disadvantage in fighting the Boers, due to the condition of the atmosphere in that country. In the first place, the surface of the country is mountainous but level. There are plateaus, and they are surrounded by mountain ranges. These plateaus are very large, and it is very difficult for an officer of the army who is not acquainted with the condition of the country to successfully direct the campaign. I am of the opinion that Lord Methuen's army was surrounded on one of these plateaus, and he did not understand the nature of the country sufficiently to get out of the trap. The atmosphere is perfectly clear, and objects many miles away will appear to be very close. Men a great distance away appear to be within shooting range. This is one of the difficulties in the way of the successful waging of the fight by the English.

"The Boers have been preparing for this conflict for more than two years, and as a result they are in splendid fighting condition. However, they could do nothing if it were not for the fact that they are secretly aided by the French and Germans. They cannot win if they are placed on their own resources, and it remains to be seen how far the assistance from these countries will be carried.

"Do I think the English people will win? Yes, but it will take time, money and cost many lives."

Coal In Cuba.

SANTIAGO, Cuba, Jan. 12.—Business men, especially those interested in mining, were greatly interested in a test made of coal recently discovered in the Mayari district. A coal mine in Cuba would be of the greatest possible value. At present the price of coal is $8 per ton for ships and steam plants, and there is virtually no domestic consumption owing to this prohibitive figure. Scientists have always held that it was impossible that coal should exist in Cuba, and all tests of reputed discoveries heretofore have resulted in failure. In this test the fire was kept burning continuously for ten hours. The coal appears to be a product between bituminous and cannel. With a strong draft it developed a remarkable degree of heat, and the experts declared it equal to the best steam coal in the southern states.

Price of Coal Will Go Up.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12.—The Press today says: "On April 1 there is to be an advance of at least 30 to 35 cents per ton on bituminous coal freight rates, and a meeting of the bituminous coal carrying roads is to be held within a few days. This advance will cause bituminous coal companies to put up the price of coal, as in the Cumberland region the miners will get at least 10 cents more per ton and in the Clearfield region 5 cents more, while the total increase in the cost of production will be 25 cents per ton. The bituminous trade is in a flourishing condition, and the operators are having trouble in securing enough cars to meet demands."

Educator's Statue Unveiled.

ALBANY, Jan. 12.—The public exercises attending the unveiling of the statue erected to the memory of Edward Austin Sheldon at the foot of the staircase in the capitol by the school children of the state were held in the assembly chamber yesterday afternoon before a good sized audience, which included a large number of prominent educators. Professor C. E. Franklin of this city presided. State Superintendent of Public Instruction Charles Skinner formally presented to the state the statue, which was accepted on behalf of the state by Governor Roosevelt.

Dewey Gets the Names.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Treasurer Roberts and Assistant Secretary Allen have presented to Admiral Dewey the beautiful volumes recently prepared containing the names of the contributors to the Dewey home, together with a history of the efforts to raise the money for the home. The presentation was made at the admiral's home and was without ceremony. The admiral expressed his gratitude for the present.

Heavy Snowstorm.

GENEVA, N. Y., Jan. 12.—A heavy storm broke over this city yesterday afternoon from the east, and traffic is greatly impeded in consequence. Eight inches of snow fell up to 10 o'clock last night. All trains are from 10 to 30 minutes late. Traffic on the street railway is nearly suspended.

Respite For Tankerd.

ALBANY, Jan. 12.—Governor Roosevelt has granted a respite to Squire Tankerd, the convicted wife murderer, until July 16 next. The respite is granted in view of a preliminary report received from Drs. Charles L. Dana and C. H. C. Steinsieck, who were appointed to examine as to his sanity.

Noted Woman Physician Dead.

BOSTON, Jan. 12.—Dr. Elizabeth J. French of Philadelphia, one of the best known women physicians in the country, died at her daughter's home here late yesterday.

THE CLAIM DENIED.

Manila Railway, a British Concern, In Hard Luck.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Acting Secretary Meiklejohn of the war department has denied the application of the Manila Railway company, limited, for payment by the United States of interest on the capital invested in the railway owned and operated by said company pursuant to guarantee of said interest by the Spanish government.

The Manila Railway company, limited, a corporation organized under the laws of Great Britain, obtained a concession from the Spanish government for a railroad from Manila to Dagupan, in the island of Luzon, a distance of about 130 miles. By the terms of the concession the Spanish government guaranteed a return of 8 per cent per annum upon the capital invested in the railroad. The claimants represent that the amount originally so invested was $4,964,400, but that the amount was subsequently increased, with the concurrence of the Spanish authorities, to $5,353,700.89.

The Spanish government up to the time of the Spanish-American war fulfilled its obligations under this contract by paying quarterly installments of the subvention as they accrued, the amount varying with the earnings of the railway.

The railway company contends that the United States by assuming sovereignty over the Philippines in accordance with the terms of the treaty of peace with Spain became bound to respond to the obligations of the Spanish government under said concession and should pay to it the amounts due on the subvention which have accrued since the date of the treaty of peace, aggregating $237,068.

Polish Miners Discharged.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Jan. 12.—One hundred Polish miners employed at the Henry Clay, Burnside and Bear Valley collieries of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company have been discharged because they failed to report for work Wednesday. Last Monday a Polish miner was killed in the Bear Valley shaft. He was a member of two beneficial societies, as are also most of the Polish miners employed at these collieries. The rules of the societies require that all members must attend the funeral of a dead brother if possible, and the men asked for leave of absence to attend the funeral of the miner on Wednesday. The request was refused, and the men were told that their positions would be lost if they did not go to work. About 100 of them attended the obsequies, and when they appeared for work they were told that their services were no longer desired. Many of the discharged miners are members of the United Mine Workers of America.

Small Stock of Lumber.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—In its annual review of the condition of the white pine lumber trade The American Lumberman today says: "The total stocks at the mills on Dec. 1, 1899, amounted to 2,728,271,000 feet against a total on the same date a year previous of 3,494,739,000 feet. Thus an aggregate shortage existed at that date of 766,468,000 feet. On Dec. 1, 1897, the total stocks at the mills amounted to 3,915,558,000 feet, or larger than the stock of last year by 1,187,287,000 feet. In 1895 the total stock was 4,180,360,000 feet. The stock on Dec. 1 was the lightest known since 1890."

The Roberts Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The Roberts investigating committee held a protracted executive session yesterday in the hope of reaching a conclusion, but so many legal questions were discussed that a final result was not reached, nor was any vote taken indicating the standing of the committee. A member of the committee is authority for the statement that the delay is due mainly to a desire to secure unanimity and to avoid if possible two reports. The members are practically agreed on the facts involved. The differences relate to the manner of excluding Mr. Roberts.

General Lawton's Remains.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—General Shafter has received a telegram from Nagasaki, sent by Major Hyde, quartermaster of the transport Thomas, stating that the body of General H. W. Lawton is on that vessel, which is due at San Francisco Jan. 29. The body will be escorted to Washington by General Shafter himself, accompanied by his aid, Lieutenant E. T. Wilson, Third artillery. The body of Major Logan is also on the Thomas.

Looking For Jailbirds.

ROCHESTER, Jan. 12.—Sheriff Ford is sending out cards and placards announcing a reward of $50 each for the four men who escaped from jail shortly after 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Twenty deputies are out in the surrounding country looking for the men, and the police force, with some assistance from New York Central railroad detectives, are keeping a sharp lookout in town for the escaped prisoners.

Infernal Machine Found.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 12.—An infernal machine, operated by clockwork and set for 9:20 o'clock, which had been found in a handbag in Sanders' theater exploded at that time last night. The grip had been placed in a closet near the stage. The Symphony concert was in progress at the time, but no one was hurt, and the damage was slight.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—FLOUR—State and western inactive, but steady; Minnesota patents, $3.80a4.05; winter straights, $3.40a3.45; winter extras, $2.55a2.90.

WHEAT—Opened steady and advanced a little on firm cables, light offerings and a good demand from St. Louis; March, 75 3-16a75¼c.; May, 73 13-16a74 1-16c.

RYE—Steady; state, 55a56c., c. i. f., New York, car lots; No. 2 western, 60½c., f. o. b. afloat.

CORN—Opened steady and was later firm on light country acceptances and firm cables.

OATS—Dull; track, white, state, 31a35c.; track, white, western, 31a35c.

PORK—Steady; mess, $10.25a10.75; family, $12a12.50.

LARD—Firm; prime western steam, 6.17½c.

BUTTER—Steady; state dairy, 20a23c.; state creamery, 25a30c.

CHEESE — Firm: fall made, fancy, small, 12¾a13c.; fall made, fancy, large, 12¾a13c.

EGGS—Firm; state and Pennsylvania, 20c.; western, 20c., loss off.

SUGAR—Strong; fair refining, 3⅞c.; centrifugal, 96 test, 4 5-16c.; refined firm; crushed, 5.45c.

MOLASSES—Steady; New Orleans, 32a40c.

RICE—Quiet; domestic, 4a6½c.; Japan, 4¾a5c.

TALLOW—Firm; city, 5¼c.; country, 5¼a5½c.

HAY—Firm; shipping, 72½a80c.; good to choice, 80a87½c.

Choice Meats

of all kinds.

GAME IN SEASON.

My Market is first class in every respect and people who deal with me can depend upon being treated fair, courteous and with satisfaction.

ENORMOUS SAVING

in MONEY. Every man and woman who deals with me saves money.

Quick Sales and Small Profits

I handle only the very best and highest grade of meat money can buy.

Special attention is given to home dressed poultry, Jersey pork; also prime cuts of beef, veal and mutton.

IT WILL PAY YOU

to buy of me as I give you the best meat for the smallest amount of money.

J. C. STORM,

Meat Market,

318 Liberty St., Near Fourth St.

Demulcent Cream

Will soften the skin. Will prevent roughness. Will please everyone.

"Is a Delightful Cream to use."

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

ESTATE of Sarah J. Kellaway, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made, on the application of the undersigned, executor of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the Eighth day of November, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

CHARLES K. KELLAWAY,
Executor.

11 10 9 oaw

TRY THE

QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No 337 Park Avenue

(Miller Building.)

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

WANTED

The address of all AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS in Plainfield and vicinity. If you will send us your address on a postal card we will be glad to furnish you with our latest price list. Our line is complete, and goods are always fresh and our prices are the lowest.

Geo. W. Wrennick,

133 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles.

CARDS and CALENDARS.

We make a specialty of

FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.

High Grade Cigars.

Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.

B. W. HAND,

205 W. Front Street.

H. Eggerding,

151 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 10c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,

201 PARK AVE., Cor. 2d ST.

Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.

Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635

THE East End Feed Store.

—:—PRICE LIST—:—

Best Mixed Oats	75c bag
Best White Clipped Oats	84c bag
No. 1 Timothy Hay	85c 100 lb
No. 2 Timothy Hay	84c 100 lb
Best Bran	90c 100 lb
Wheat	1.00 100 lb

Flour, Feed, Straw, etc., at low prices; satisfactory to all.

Call at once and leave your orders at the office

409 East Third St.,

and you will go away with the feeling of recommending us to your friends.

We also deal in

Blue Stone, Flagging and Curbing

with the neatest and best work.

Stone arrangements will be made by

A. KANE. PROPRIETOR.

Hay and Feed arrangements with

A. F. McKEON. Manager

TELEPHONE 913.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.

21 Steiner place, North Plainfie

R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, etc. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,

Painters and Paper Hangers,

Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully—orders promptly attended to. 9 11

M. POWERS,

DEALER IN

LEHIGH COAL.

FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.

Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.

Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

THE GRANDVIEW

Meat Market

George Egel, Manager.

Dealer in fresh and salted meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview avenue and Somerset street.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .

in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated

DOMESTIC FINISH.

Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.

Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.

Trading Stamps given.

The City Steam & Hand Laundry

MORRY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B

19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

GEO. O. STEVENS & CO. COAL. 747 WEST FRONT ST.

ALEX. LUSARDI,

211 West Front Street,

Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores.

J. C. Pope & Co.,

INSURANCE AGENTS.

110 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . .

: SPECIALS :

For This Week.

U. S. club skates.
Shinny sticks.
Skate Straps.
Boys' sleighs.
" coasters.
Steel snow shovels.
Wood " "
Carpet sweepers.
Oil heaters.
Parlor stoves reduced.

The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,

Tel. Call 682.

NEUMAN BROS.,

GROCERS.

Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.

108 NORTH AVE.

John G. Bantle,

First-class

Ladies' and Gent's

TAILOR.

428 Watchung Avenue.

Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

TELEPHONE 1163.

Your Valuables,

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS

For the Fire-place. Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates. Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.

CURTIS M. THORPE,

510-512 PARK AVENUE.

"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,

—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—

109 Park avenue. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87.

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.

I. O. H.

Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 109 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711

ROYAL ARCANUM.

The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.

A. I. LITTELL, Regent.

Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,

Watchmakers and Jewelers.

219 Park Avenue.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25.

LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.

Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.

A Big Assortment.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our add. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.

Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

Every pair of genuine P. & P. Gloves is stamped with our name.

REGISTERED BRANDS OF THE

"P. & P." Kid Gloves

MANUFACTURED BY Chaumont PINGS & PINNER CO.

PERFECT FITTING LATEST STYLES

MANUFACTURED BY Berthold PINGS & PINNER CO.

BEST VALUE NEWEST SHADES

MANUFACTURED BY Fontaine PINGS & PINNER CO.

Don't take substitutes—There's none so good.

FOR SALE BY

Crosby & Hill,

95 tu f Plainfield, N. J.

Flynn Bros.,

SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,

Near Music Hall,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

CHAS. L. FOROE,

Architect and Superintendent.

208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given. 1 21 tf

RUSHMORE & CO.

WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.

Dealers in

Lumber, Coal and Wood

Moulding & Planing Mill.

Turning and Scroll Sawing.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.

Paris for 1900.

Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.

Circulars at

191 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

Advertised Mail Matter.

JANUARY 8, 1900.

Adelson, Mr B	Knox, Miss Alice
Alner, Mr A R	Laverty, Mrs D H
Banta, Miss A B	McCarthy, Miss May
Barr, Mr John 2	Mantle Miss
Bartlett, Mr Phillip	Martin, Mr John H
Batchelor, Rufus W	Mathewson, Mrs El'th
Boice, Mrs Bessie	Murphy, E L
Boororn, Miss Mary	Pearson, Miss Marion
Borden, Miss Helen	Pendergart, Mr E
Bowman, Miss Clara	Parrott, Miss E
Binten, Mr William	Person, Mrs M
Colbert, Miss Eliza	Presberger, Mr M
Cotton, Miss Bessie	Rogers, Mrs Willis H
Drake, Mr C	Ryno, Mr Emily
Drake, Mr Fred V	Schaunenburg, Mrs
Ecoreth, Egbert C	Scott, (Col'd) Mr Ben
Fernald, Mrs Lizzie	Smalley, L M
Gratten, Miss Annie	Thomas, Miss C D
Grant, Ida M	Thompson, Mr J H
Hawkins, Mrs W A 2	Tolvor, Mrs Silvie
Hemming, Esq, J C	Weeks, Mrs Edw F
Hennessey, Mrs M'y 3	Yale, Mrs C H
	Yale, Mrs C M

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

SMALLEY BROS.,

144 North Avenue.

BUTCHERS.

Everything usually found in a first-class market.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83 A.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills

—25c.—

A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.

MALLINSON'S

North and Watchung avenues.

L. A. HUMMER,

VARIETY MARKET.

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.

163 SOMERSET ST.

Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

TRUTH IS WITHHELD.

London Papers Become Tired of Doctored Dispatches.

EXPANDING BULLETS TO BE USED.

Ladysmith Garrison Has Plenty to Eat, but Luxuries Are Scarce. Methuen Said to Be Crazy. British Fight British.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—The newspapers were reconciled during the early days of the war to cable censorship, taking it for granted that full narratives sent by mail would supply all deficiencies. For some weeks, however, even the mail correspondence that has arrived in London has shown signs of habitual scissoring by the censor. Pages are renumbered without chronological or logical connection, leaving the happenings described quite unintelligible in many cases. The editors, acting possibly in concert, are laying these facts before the public and insisting that they be permitted to know and to print the facts. The Daily Mail formally accuses the war office of "doctoring" in editing official dispatches before their issuance and cites particulars. The Daily Chronicle avers that there seems to be an official conspiracy against letting the truth be known.

Lee-Metford cartridges are running short in the British magazines, and, according to a semiofficial report, the war office purposes to fall back temporarily upon 100,000,000 "Mark IV" expanding bullets, most of which are already in storage in South Africa.

After the public announcement that no such bullet would be used in this war, its employment, The Daily Chronicle thinks, would be a serious breach of faith, especially as the British commanders have complained that the Boers occasionally use such projectiles.

The Standard has the following dispatch, dated Monday, from Frere camp:

"Our patrols have searched both flanks of the Boer position. They found a large camp five miles east of Colenso, evidently in anticipation of a British attempt at a turning movement."

A dispatch to The Daily Mail from Pietermaritzburg, dated Jan. 8, says:

"Private advices from Ladysmith, dated Jan. 2, say that rations of bread and meat are plentiful, and the garrison had not then touched the 'bully' beef and biscuit supplies. Luxuries are scarce in Ladysmith, but the hospitals are well supplied with milk, and the horses are in good condition."

The queen has proclaimed the meeting of parliament for Jan. 30.

General Lord Methuen, the British leader at Modder River, is reported in a special cable dispatch to be a maniac. He will be relieved of his command in two weeks and will return to England.

This is the second general to go mad in the Boer war. The other is General Yule.

All accounts of Magersfontein battle show it to have been a "butchery."

The insane general, to quote Wauchope, "ordered us into a butcher shop and left us there."

Sixteen thousand troops, the flower of the British army, are forced to obey this maniac general.

Although the war office declines to confirm the report that Lord Methuen has been recalled to England, inquiries made by a correspondent at Methuen's home in Wiltshire have elicited the information that when he received his wound his horse threw him heavily, and spinal and other injuries supervened.

The Cape Town correspondent of The Daily Mail, telegraphing Monday, says:

"The vanguard of the Sixth division is waiting at Table bay until the arrival of Lord Roberts.

"The British cruiser Fearless seized the bark Maria L., which arrived at Port Elizabeth Saturday from the Argentine with sulphur."

The Daily Mail says:

"We learn that in the attack on Ladysmith last Saturday, Jan. 6, the British losses were 14 officers killed, 34 wounded and over 800 noncommissioned officers and men killed or wounded. The Boer losses, we hear, are estimated at between 2,000 and 3,000."

It appears that although Great Britain has released the American flour seized by British cruisers, the British ships from which it was landed will not be permitted to take it to Delagoa Bay for shipment to the Transvaal, owing to the British government prohibiting British ships from trading with the Boers. A foreign vessel will therefore have to convey the flour to Lourenco Marques from Port Elizabeth.

A British massacre of British troops is the startling news that shocked London today.

It reached here by mail from a correspondent with Buller's army in Natal and told of a mistake that set two British regiments fighting each other in the darkness until the ground was strewn with dead, when the blunder was discovered.

The battle was fought at Willow Grange, near Estcourt, Thursday, Nov. 23, but, thanks to the censor, no word of the deadly error has heretofore reached England.

In the darkness khaki uniforms were not recognized, and it was not until the hill was strewn with dead and dying that the terrible mistake was discovered.

Filipinos Routed With Loss.

MANILA, Jan. 12.—Colonel Bullard, with the Thirty-ninth infantry, moving in three columns from Calamba, with two guns, attacked ten companies of insurgents strongly intrenched on the Santa Tomas road. They resisted stubbornly, making three stands. Twenty-four of the rebels were killed, and 60 prisoners were taken. The Filipinos retreated, carrying their wounded, toward Lake Taal. One American was killed, and two officers were slightly wounded.

Saxton to Succeed Payn.

ALBANY, Jan. 12.—Friends of Louis F. Payn, the superintendent of the insurance department, say that all the evidence in their possession points to the coming nomination by Governor Roosevelt of ex-Lieutenant Governor Charles T. Saxton for superintendent of the insurance department in Mr. Payn's place.

Deadly Storm In Japan.

VICTORIA, Jan. 12.—Advices by the steamship Empress of Japan tell of a fierce storm sweeping the Japanese coast on Dec. 24, by which 35 junks were lost while being towed from Osaka to Kobe and 171 persons perished. A tidal wave accompanied the storm, by which 413 lives in all were lost.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remembe you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.,
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

EDUCATIONAL

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
ADELLA C. PHELPS, ARTIST.
Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
: : : PIANO AND THEORY : : :
Home Studio,
100 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN,
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

.....Piano Instruction.....
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
925 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
14 Vine St. All work promptly attended to

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty.....
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
—: WILLIAM J. PRIDE, :—
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

REAL ESTATE
AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmon
Telephone 601

Don't be wasting you money and paying high prices for frames. Come and get your framing done with the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street,
where you will find a large assortment in ready-made frames and the latest styles in mouldings to make up frames to order at prices that will surprise you. Also fine drawings in crayons and pastels from all kinds of photographs.
Best Satisfaction Guaranteed.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.
Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.
HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

THE ORESCENT HOTEL.,
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
E. H. BIRD, P M.

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS.
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Fire for cnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.
T. M. INGRAHAM.

Wedding and Reception Decorations, Floral Designs & Bouquets A SPECIALTY.
Cut flowers fresh every day. Palms, ferneries, southern smilax at 10 days' notice.
MRS. L. J. DENTON, Florist,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 73L.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

COLLIER
EYE SPECIALIST,
108 Park Ave.....
Established 1869. Eyes Examined Free.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing,
Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 148 b

OUR OYSTERS
ARE THE
---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

E. B. Maynard, NEW SHOP NEW FURNITURE BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

WAKE UP!

Do not be led away with the idea that because you are getting a certain quantity for your money you are getting Real value.

Everything the very best in our stock of

Flour, Feed, Meal, Bran, Hay, Straw, Salt Moss and Shavings

TRY THEM -:- -:-

Daniel Snyder & Sons,
(Successors to P. M. French.)
24 Somerset Street.

W. R. BROKAW,
Will occupy the store 207 Park Avenue,
Marsh Building, next to Demarest's Grocery, About February 1st.

His line of MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS will be more complete than ever before, embodying everything in the music line. Don't fail to call on him at his new store for anything you want.

FURNITURE for the Parlor . . .
Library . . .
Dining-Room . . .
Bedroom . . .
Close at 6 o'Clock.
POWLISON & JONES,
149 and 151 E. Front St.

HEAT THAT COLD ROOM
with a
. . Miller Oil Heater . .
JOS. W. GAVETT,
318 W. Front St.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.
The Delineator and Glass of Fashion for January Now Ready.
Ask for the January Fashion Sheet.
A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE, AGENTS,
144 PARK AVENUE, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Manufactured at the Premises,
Wieda's
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
144 West Front St. Phone. 1188.

OUR CALF SKIN
Shoes are on the move. Oh! yes the cold weather does it. Well, they are very dressy, and stylish, too; made on the genteel mannish last.
FOR WOMEN,
$1.50, $2.00, $3.00, $3.50.
FOR MEN,
$2.00, $2.50, $3.00, $3 50, $5 00.
We can fit you now from our large stock, and the boys and girls, too.
Ask to see the "Rough Rider," in the 'SOROSIS" line.
Headquarters for Peddie's Trunks, Dress Suit Cases and Bags.
DOANE & EDSALL. . . . .

FIRE!!!
When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by Largest agency in the city 163 Nort Ave., opp. Depot.
ELSTON M. FRENCH.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

A SENATE SENSATION

Bitter Attack on Administration by Pettigrew.

TRUTH ABOUT PHILIPPINES WITHHELD

"All a Scheme to Further McKinley's Candidacy"—Senator Stewart Talks on the Financial Bill. Mr. Spooner's Resolution.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—A spirited and at times sensational debate was precipitated in the senate yesterday on the Philippine question, the basis for the speechmaking being a resolution of inquiry offered several days ago by Mr. Pettigrew of South Dakota, to which substitutes were proposed. Mr. Pettigrew attacked the administration's policy in the Philippines and also made some startling charges against those who were supporting the administration. He declared that a systematic effort was being made to prevent accurate information from reaching the people of the United States and that it was a political scheme to further the candidacy of Mr. McKinley for renomination and re-election. The discussion was terminated by a resumption of consideration of the currency bill at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Stewart of Nevada made an elaborate speech on the question of the national finances. Before adjournment the senate, after prolonged debate, passed the bill conferring additional powers upon the director of the census and a bill increasing the limit of cost of the Indianapolis public building.

Senator Spooner introduced the following bill: "That when all insurrection against the authority and sovereignty of the United States in the Philippine Islands shall have been completely suppressed by the military and naval forces of the United States all military, civil and judicial powers necessary to govern the said islands shall, until otherwise provided by congress, be vested in such persons and shall be exercised in such a manner as the president of the United States shall direct for maintaining and protecting the inhabitants of the said islands in the full enjoyment of their liberty, property and religion."

Church Building Society Prosperous.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The forty-seventh annual report of the board of trustees of the Congregational Church Building society, just issued, states, among other things, that the year of 1899 was with one exception the best in the history of the society. The number of contributing churches, which is now 3,093, was greater in 1899 by 164 than in any previous year and had increased more than 300 per cent since 1881. The receipts for 1899 were $247,307. The disbursements were $153,047 to 95 churches on houses of worship and $18,450 to 41 churches on parsonages. Pledges of aid were voted amounting to $121,649 to 125 churches on houses of worship and $29,745 to 65 churches on parsonages.

Governor Crane's Nominations.

BOSTON, Jan. 12.—Frederick Lawton of Lowell has been nominated by Governor Crane to be justice of the superior court to succeed Judge C. S. Lilley, resigned. Among other nominations sent to the executive council by the governor are the following: William R. Hessions of Springfield to be member of the state board of agriculture, vice J. S. Grinnell, resigned; Francis H. Appleton of Manchester, state board of agricultur; Elmer B. Howe of Marlborough, trustee Massachusetts Agricultural college; J. Howe Demond of Northampton, trustee of Massachusetts Agricultural college.

Prosperous Brickmaking Season.

NYACK, N. Y., Jan. 12.—The brickmaking season just closed along the beach at Haverstraw and Stony Point has been the best experienced in many years, and an inventory of the amount of brick left over and stored for future use has just been completed, showing the amount on hand along the beach for a distance of four miles to be 93,355,000. This is an increase of 18,355,000 brick on hand over the count of a year ago and 21,355,000 more than two years ago.

Laborers Discharged at the Hub.

BOSTON, Jan. 12.—Because of the lack of money in the treasury over 600 laborers were laid off at the close of work yesterday. The situation is said to be owing to the failure of the city council to organize and pass an appropriation. Water Commissioner Martin also announced that 68 laborers in the distribution district of the water department would be suspended, besides the 72 men already discharged.

A Runaway Car Injures Several.

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 12.—An electric street car ran away on Pine street hill yesterday afternoon, jumping the track at a curve and plunging into the curb. Robert Croop, one of the passengers, was fatally hurt. Mrs. O. J. Miller and Mrs. George Chubbs were seriously injured, and a dozen others suffered slightly. The accident was due to sleet on the rails.

A Supposed Suicide.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 12.—Dr. J. C. Mullhall, a noted eye and ear specialist, was found dead in his office. He had been shot through the heart. A revolver was found lying beside the body, and this, with the fact that all the doors of the office were locked, seemed to indicate suicide. It is supposed that the act was caused by despondency on account of ill health.

Boer Sympathy Postponed.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 12.—The Ohio house of representatives has indefinitely postponed action on the resolution expressing sympathy with the Boers in their war with Great Britain. A demand for the previous question prevailed by a strict party division, the Republicans voting in the affirmative.

Rosser Indicted.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The grand jury has found an indictment for assault in the first degree against Willis Rosser, the medical student who at the close of the six day bicycle race in Madison Square Garden on Dec. 9 shot Frederick Slater of Rahway, N. J., in a quarrel over a betting dispute.

Confederate General Dead.

RICHMOND, Jan. 12.—News has been received here of the death in Peoria, Ills., of General Abney H. Maury, late of the Confederate army and some time minister to Colombia. The remains will be brought to Fredericksburg for interment.

AT THE THEATRE.

As the cue is given, a last look into the mirror testifies to a fairness not gained with paints and powders, but by the use of a soap free from harmful alkali, and made of clean vegetable oils. Such a soap is "Ivory"—it is 99 44/100 per cent. pure.

COPYRIGHT 1899 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

PORTO RICO DELEGATES.

Three Committees Set Sail For the United States.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Jan. 12.—The three delegations recently appointed to lay before the government at Washington the special needs of Porto Rico have sailed for the United States by the steamer Philadelphia. Senores Finlay, Luce and Juncos go on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, Senores Gonzales and Amadeo will represent the agricultural interests and Senores Ames and Larriniga the Federal party. Senores Morales and Latimer, the Republican delegates, will probably sail on Saturday. All are representative Porto Ricans, thoroughly acquainted with the conditions existing in the island and well able to give all necessary information to the administration or to congress.

The provisional court has rendered a decision that the people of Porto Rico, in their aggregate capacity, are not sovereign and have no legal right to sue collectively. The matter was brought up in connection with the annulment of the election in Guayama, where the local court had claimed the right to issue a writ annulling the election as an incident to the sovereign sovereignty of the people. A demurrer filed by the complainants sought to be removed was sustained.

Senator Mallory Will Not Resign.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Jan. 12.—A Tampa dispatch to the Atlanta Journal announcing that Senator Mallory would resign and that Congressman Sparkman would be appointed his successor created a stir among Senator Mallory's friends here. Their uneasiness was dispelled by a telegram to John B. Jones, Mr. Mallory's law partner, from Dr. T. S. Kennedy of New Orleans, the senator's brother-in-law and physician. Dr. Kennedy stated that Senator Mallory is steadily improving in health and would soon be able to attend to his duties in Washington. The rumor that he will resign, Dr. Kennedy avers, is absolutely untrue.

Dewey Arch Fund Growing.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Charles Nicoll, secretary of the Dewey arch committee, was surprised yesterday when he was told of the rumors that it was possible that the Dewey arch project would have to be abandoned owing to the lack of subscriptions. Mr. Nicoll said that the rumor was not true and that it has never been thought possible that there would be a failure. The total amount so far received is about $210,000. Yesterday almost $7,000 was received. The largest subscription was from J. Pierpont Morgan, who sent a check for $5,000. Another check for $1,000 was received from another banker in Wall street.

Iceboats In Collision.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Iceboats owned by Charles Foxwell and Robert Hance collided while being sailed on the river at Red Bank, N. J., yesterday. Elwood Ivins and Dr. Frank Jones, who were in Foxwell's yacht, were seriously injured. Dr. Jones is internally injured, and Mr Ivins' leg is terribly cut and his body badly bruised. Miss Julia Hance and Mrs. Emily French, who were sailing in Hance's boat, were slightly hurt. Both boats were wrecked.

Antis Meet In Washington.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—About 500 persons attended an anti-imperialist meeting held in Masonic hall here. The weather was wet and disagreeable. The speakers were ex-Senator J. B. Henderson of Missouri, ex-Governor Boutwell of Massachusetts and Representative Lentz of Ohio.

Famous Bookseller Dead.

BOSTON, Jan. 12.—Alexander Williams, Boston's famous pioneer bookseller and publisher, is dead here. He was 83 years of age. Mr. Williams' place of business for years was at the Old Corner bookstore on School and Washington streets.

Fatal Fall From a Horse.

NEWPORT, R. I., Jan. 12.—Private Allen of Light Battery C, Seventh United States artillery, stationed at Fort Adams, was thrown from his horse yesterday and injured, dying later. He enlisted from East Boston.

Threatened With Water Famine.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Jan. 12.—This city, so far as the supply of water for the mills is concerned, is on the verge of a water famine, and a shutdown of some of the mills is probable.

WAR PREDICTED.

Japan and Russia Likely to Fall at Each Other Soon.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 12.—Advices by the steamship Empress of Japan, which arrived at Vancouver yesterday, say that many of the Japanese papers are predicting war between Japan and Russia at an early date. All the papers chronicle the rapid movement of Japanese troops to points of vantage.

George R. Gregg, ex-mayor of Winnipeg, who arrived from Yokohama by Wednesday's steamer, says the prospect of war between Japan and Russia has been in no respect diminished through the recent overtures of the St. Petersburg government. Shortly before he left Japan the government had placed an order for 100,000 winter uniforms with a British firm, while coincidently the Japanese press announced the purchase of large supplies of campaign foods by the army commissary department. Hundreds of horses are being mustered at Hirosham and drilled for cavalry service.

The Kobe Chronicle looks upon war as virtually assured and says that a few days ago a steamer left a certain Japanese port under sealed orders with a large force of soldiers equipped for the field on board. It also announced that three other steamers had been chartered as transports for the conveyance of troops. Their destination is Masampo, Korea, where the Russian gunboat Domsky, with several other war vessels of the same flag, had proceeded with the excuse of watering.

Another significant report is given by a Tokyo correspondent. He says the British government recently applied to the Nippon Yusen Kaisha to charter some of their steamers as transports. The application was refused, the Japanese government declining permission on the ground that it might need the steamers. It is easily understood that the situation is not improved by the Japanese active and hearty indorsement of Great Britain in her South African policy and the assurance given by no fewer than 40 Japanese towns that if desired they will supply Great Britain with complete and experienced regiments for service in the Transvaal.

United States Getting Dangerous.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 12.—One of the leaders of the Conservative party Senor Cuevas, is printing a series of articles in El Tiempo, taking the ground that the Latin-American nations should unite in a league to avoid absorption by the United States. He argues that the policy of commercial conquest and the acquirement of great properties by American capital are more perilous than an American invasion. There is much interest in prospecting for tin since the metal has risen in price, and some tin properties in the state of Durango give good promise, according to the reports of experts now on the ground. Twenty-six cotton mills have been built in this country during the last year, and new mills are being pushed to completion.

Another Kentucky Shooting.

WHITESBURG, Ky., Jan. 12.—During a quarrel over a game of cards in a "blind tiger" at Pound Gap yesterday, in which John and Tasee Hall and Arch and Henry Leap opposed Henry Sutherland, Berry Long and Henry Campbell, revolvers were drawn and 200 shots exchanged. Tasee Hall and Henry Leap were killed and Dave Sutherland and Henry Campbell mortally wounded. Arch Leap and Henry Sutherland were also wounded.

Nominations Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The senate has confirmed the following nominations: Frank H. Morris of Ohio to be auditor for the war department, W. W. Brown of Pennsylvania to be auditor for the navy department, James E. Hewey to be appraiser of merchandise district of Portland and Falmouth, Me.; Alonzo C. Yates of Virginia to be consul at Patras, Martinique, West Indies; Thomas J. Prentiss of Massachusetts to be consul at Rouen France.

Wreck on Newfoundland Coast.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Jan. 12.—A large steamer believed to be a passenger ship whose name cannot be ascertained, has been wrecked on a reef in St. Mary's bay about five miles from shore. The vessel, which lies with her head low in the water, is on fire aft. Several persons were washed off the deck during yesterday. Just before nightfall others were descried in the rigging.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORUM, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

225 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week

$5 a year—in advance.

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., JAN. 12, 1900

COMING EVENTS.

January 13—"Si Plunkard" at Music Hall.

January 14—Harry Gee will address the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. at 4:15 p. m. Mrs. John Manley will sing. Instrumental music.

January 14—Boys' rally at Y. M. C. A., 4:15 p. m., conducted by Frank O. Bristol.

January 15—Basket ball, Summit against Plainfield, at Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium, 8:15 p. m.

January 16—Union Bible class of Rev. D. M. Stearns at the Y. M. C. A. Hall at 7.45 p. m.

January 18—Annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A.

The Governor's Change of Heart.

When Governor Voorhees assumed the high office to which he had been elected by the people, his inaugural address treated the corporation laws of this State, out of which scores of trusts have been born, with considerable attention. At that time—and it was only a year ago—the Governor said that he recognized and appreciated the fact that there was a growing dissatisfaction over the way the corporation laws worked, and that it was incumbent upon the Legislature to take action that would to some extent curb the incorporation of companies whose business practices were inimical to the people's interests. The question was so important, however, that the Governor at that time did not feel assured of dealing with it in the way of making express recommendations for changes, but he promised that in a short time he would send a special message to the Legislature for the purpose of airing his views in more explicit language.

The Legislature continued on its way of making laws, changing laws and doing other things in general until it had exhausted the business in hand, but the promised message of the Governor failed to materialize. The Legislature adjourned, but the discussion of the trust business and the legal asylum that New Jersey offered the combines did not cease. The part that New Jersey was playing in the nefarious business was bringing odium and disgrace upon the commonwealth, and when the newspaper press in general and nearly all other sources of influence were denouncing the protection that New Jersey afforded trusts, lo and behold if the Governor did not appear and warmly defend the laws that he had but six months before tacitly denounced by conceding that there was a demand for reform in them, and that he proposed to make recommendations to that effect. The Governor proved himself a veritable Dr. Jeckyl and Mr. Hyde executive—so far as his ideas about the incorporation laws of New Jersey were concerned.

Now, after he has been in the Gubernatorial chair for one year, Governor Voorhees sends his first annual message to the Legislature. It is composed of some 16 000 words, which treat of nearly every department of State and discusses many matters of intense interest to the public. Let us interlope here, though, that no subject is so continually before the public as the trust question as it relates to New Jersey, and that in conformity with his bearing towards other matters of general interest in State affairs it was expected that the Governor would devote some attention to the subject in his annual message.

A studious perusal of the lengthy document does not disclose one word about trusts or the relation of great combines of capital to New Jersey. They are not denounced; they are not upheld and defended—not a line of thought concerning them. In face of the importance which the general public gives to the question the Governor's silence is oppressive.

What a conversion of the Governor there has been in a twelve month.

Whenever there is an indefinite charge made that some party or parties are engaged in questionable acts in violation of the local ordinances, and the police are unable to ferret out the alleged offenders, the attitude of our esteemed friend Runyon, of the News, is amusing. He assumes a Foxy Quiller-like manner and is always ready with the information that the disclosures are not new to him, because he has known for sometime that there was "a certain place in town," etc., etc. Even if the News editor's sang froid ways are presumptious, they add zest and humor to local life.

It was a characteristic example of the standard of professional courtesy and sense of honor of The Home News man, to roast the New Brunswick correspondent of the New York Herald in his columns, and then write a letter to The Heard begging for the job, in the expectation that his attack would prove effective. We know of no other newspaper man in New Jersey who would stoop to such a low down trick.—New Brunswick Fredonian.

We guess The Fredonian editor does not know our esteemed friend Runyon, editor of The News.

Congressman Daly's scheme of curbing the monopolistic practices of the trusts by putting the articles dealt in by such combinations on the free list, thus ensuring reasonable competition, strikes at the root of the trouble. A trust is a synonym for non-competition, and foreign competition is better than American trusts.

When the New Jersey editor of the New York Tribune gets through printing interviews favorable to the nomination of Attorney General Griggs for Vice-President, it will be a very small Republican who has not had an opportunity of saying some fine words anent the subject.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Although Governor Voorhees has ignored party lines in reappointing Justice Lippincott and will probably give another term to Judge Child on the Circuit Court bench, although he, too, is a Democrat, the same reasons do not exist for the reappointment of Judge Bartine in Somerset county. While he has administered justice satisfactorily, it cannot be said of him that he doffed his partisanship when he donned the ermine, and either of the Republican candidates — Lewis Schenck and Hugh Gaston—would make every bit as good a Judge as Mr. Bartine. It is only proper, therefore, that Senator Reed's recommendation of one of these men should be favorably acted upon by the Governor.—New York Tribune.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

J. C. Lewis, one of the cleverest of comedians, assisted by a company of merit, will present the amusing Yankee drama, "Si Plunkard," at Music Hall tomorrow afternoon and night. Mr. Lewis has surrounded himself with a good company of comedians. The characters of the play, especially the principal ones, are not greatly overdrawn from real life, and that makes the fun genuine and hearty. Si Plunkard is the story of an unsuspecting, simple old farmer being defrauded by a clever sharper from the city, assisted by an unscrupulous Jew. The sensational features presented are a full working threshing machine, a thrilling railroad scene, introducing a locomotive and a train of cars 150 feet in length, the county fair scene, and many other catchy novelties. The matinee performance should not be forgotten tomorrow. It is especially for the children, who will be charged 15 cents admission. Prices for adults and all over 12 years of age is 25 cents.

* * * * * *

The remarkable success that "The Three Little Lambs" has met with at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, has encouraged the management of that theatre to continue it longer than was first expected. It is a bright musical comedy full of funny lines. The music is exceptionally good and includes a number of new songs that found favor the first night. Miss Adele Richie, who made such a hit last season in the "Runaway Girl," plays a leading role. The rest of the cast includes a number of well-known actors and actresses. The piece is well staged and effectively costumed. There is enough story to the production to hold the interest and serve as a good foundation for the humor and the catchy music that forms a special attraction.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

—Velvet waists that were $4.49 are now selling at $2.98; others that were $3.39 are now $1.98, at Bonn's.

THERE IS A CLASS OF PEOPLE

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over ¼ as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15c. and 25c. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,

122 East Front Street.

DOUBLE TRADING STAMPS

ALL DAY SATURDAY

Through all the rush and turmoil of the Holiday Season, just past—we have been making careful preparations for an energetic Spring Mercantile Campaign. Silent, but forceful influences have been steadily at work with one object in view, viz: The making of our establishment an ideal store. Many lines of goods have been carefully scanned; from some lines only the best selected; other lines entirely rejected. We have demanded the newest and best of everything, and insist the best is none too good. Our efforts have been rewarded by our securing the choicest and most desirable goods from the various lines represented in our store. Our business is conducted upon a high plane, but we welcome and propose to take good care of the most humble customer. This is to be in every sense "THE PEOPLE'S STORE."

Wash Goods.

Our new wash fabrics are arriving and already we are making a most delightful showing of dainty lawns, dimities, ginghams, percales, etc., etc.

Designers of the printed fabrics have surpassed all previous efforts by producing new and dainty effects in the most serviceable colorings. Corded ginghams, introduced last season for the first, will have a prominent place in this season's showing, and are worthy of the strongest recommendation for serviceable qualities.

Fine Domestic Dimities at 14c per yard.
Genuine English " 18c per yard.

Corded Gingham (madras effects) at 10c, 20c and 25c yd are worthy especial mention.

New Spring Woollens.

52-in Vicuna Serge made by the Broadhead Worsted Mills, at 98c per yard, cannot be surpassed. They are strong, wiry, do not crush, and are sponged and shrunken. Two beautiful black Cheviots, 54 inches wide, at 79c & 98c, are very desirable; excellent color and fine lustre. 52-in Broadcloths, in all colors, 98c yd. 38-in all-wool Homespuns, 50c. 54-in Homespuns, value $1.00, 89c. 40-in Black Crepons, guaranteed value $1.35, $1.00. 38-in Black Granite Suiting, 50c.

LACES, EMBROIDERIES, Etc., Etc.

Our showing in this line surpasses that of all former years in that we have more variety and finer goods. Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss Edgings, with insertings and beadings to match. All over effects in Cambric, Nainsook, and Combination Lace and Tucked effects, Applique Bands, Edging and all overs to match. New Point de Venise Lace Collars and Revers. New Braided and Spangled Nets. New Lace Ties, narrow. New Silk Ties and a thousand other new novelties equally attractive.

FOR THE MEN.

All our 1.25 Outing Flannel Pajamas, reduced to 98c

Men's Fine Camels Hair Underwear, 98c garment
" " " " (double breasted) 1.25 "
" " Imported Natural Wool (German) 1.75 "
" " Camels Hair, ½ Hose 25c pr
Dent's "Breton Cape" Kid Gloves 1.85 pr
Myers' Cabretta Kid Gloves 1.00 pr
" Silk Lined Mocha Kid Gloves (gray) 1.50 pr
" Fleece Lined Castor, reduced to 1.25 pr

Full line men's, youths' and childs' wool gloves.

The newest of everything in gent's neckwear.

Dr. Denton's - -
SLEEPING GARMENTS
For Children,
2 yrs to 10 yrs.

In our Basement. The inevitable rise in the price of Furniture has taken place. Manufacturers everywhere have materially advanced prices, and state that further advances must come. Our stock as it is at present will be sold at the old prices. Our advice to those who need furniture is—buy it now.

Solid Oak Buffets
with double thick
FRENCH PLATE MIRRORS,
from 11.98 to 25.00.
If Bought Today Would Sell for 20 per cent. More.

5 drawer Solid Oak Chiffoniers, without glass, 4.98.

5 drawer Extra Finished, with glass, 7.98.

Better grades up to 17.98.

WHITE IRON BEDS.

1 in post, brass trimmed, heavy filling, 3.98.

Better ones at 4.98, 5.75, 6.48, 6.98, 7.98, 9.98, 14.98 and 16.75.

Iron Cribs with Spring Mattresses, 6.48, 7.75 and 11.98.

Full size soft top mattresses 2.25
" " 45 lb white cotton mattresses, one part 5.48.
Full size 45 lb white cotton mattresses, 2 parts, 5.98.
Genuine Cotton Felt mattresses, two pieces, 8.75.

Hair Mattresses made to order.

Facing the Inevitable. Prices in every line are on the jump. Cottons are higher. Woollens are higher. Manufactured goods of all kinds are higher and will be still higher. A pretty sum may be saved by early purchase. By all means make us a visit. We will appreciate it and you will be benefited.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,

334, 236, 238 and 246 WEST FRONT STREET.

PECK'S CORNER.

THE LARGEST VARIETY OF -:- Good Corsets -:-
AT PECK'S.

Stock Wanted!

$1.10 per share will be paid for stock of the Middlesex Land Company.

About Three Months Ago I induced a few conservative investors to purchase this stock at par, $1.00 per share.

The Middlesex Land Company control 110 acres of land at Dewey Park.

SILAS D. DRAKE,

175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.

Telephone 605.

Schepflin & Schultz, 322 W. Front St., near Grove St.

::: IMPORTANT :::

January Clearing Sale
: - : of CLOTHING.

We honestly believe that we are offering our stock of fine clothing at a scale of prices that will interest every man, woman and child in the vicinity. Our regular selling prices have made us famous; now we intend to create more talk by cutting and slashing our already low prices to such an extent that you will be tempted to buy clothing to put away.

Remember we manufacture all our clothing and have been giving the public the benefit of our facilities.

Here are our Cut Prices during this Sale:

Men's Black Cheviot Suits 3.50
Men's Fancy Wool Cheviot Suits, excellent business suits 3.95
Men's Fancy All-Wool Cheviot Suits in gray effects 4.25
4 lots Men's Suits in Cheviot, Cassimere and worsted, cut price 5.00
1 lot Men's Fancy Over Plaid Worsted for dress, cut price 6.25

Some of our greatest bargains are in a lot of Men's coats and vests, odds and ends we call them, too numerous to mention prices, come and look at them, we will surprise you Youths' suits, 15 to 19 yrs. Our cut prices will give you a chance to fit the young man for about the cost of a good pair of trousers; we are showing them at 2.50, 3.00, 3.25, 3.50, 4.00, 5.00, etc, at This Sale

Child's Knee Pant suits, 95c. 1.25, 1.39, 2.50, etc.

1.39—Our Child's suits at 1.39, made us a great many friends; we have made another lot to sell at 1.39.

3.25—All our 4.00 Child's suits are going at 3.25.

Men's Single Vests 50c, 75c, 1.00, 2.00.

Men's Furnishings We are closing this line by sacrificing every article.

Men's White Shirts 25c and 39c. Men's Percale Shirts 39c. Men's Heavy Percale Shirts, the 1.00 kind, 75c.
Men's Dress Kid Gloves, the 1.25 kind, 75c.

Schepflin & Schultz,

MANUFACTURING CLOTHIERS.

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY, JANUARY 13.

Fancy Jersey Potatoes, per bas	35c	Fancy Corn, Tomatoes and Peas 3 cans	25c
Large Red Onions, per bas	38c	Best Leaf Lard, per lb	8c
Pillsbury's Flour, per bag	60c	Extra Fancy Cal. Prunes, 3 lbs for	25c
Ceresota Flour, per bag	57c	Fancy Evap. Peaches, 2 lbs for	25c
White Swan Flour, per bag	52c	Firstbrook's Borax Soap 7 cakes	25c
Fresh Soda and Lemon crack'rs lb	5c	" Baking Powder, per lb	19c
Fresh Ging snaps and Nic-Nacs lb	5c	Best Table Syrup, per gal	33c
3-lb can Fine Jelly, per can	11c	Best " Molasses, per gal	33c
3 lb can Pears, Plums and Gages	10c	13 Fine Oranges for	25c
Best Alaska Red Salmon, per can	12½c
Good Salmon, per can	10c

½ lb of 50c Tea 25
1 lb of Old Plantation Coffee 27
½ lb can Firstbrook's Baking Powder 10
62
all for 50c.

We carry a stock of the fanciest canned vegetables and fruits and bottled goods.

FRED. H. FIRSTBROOK,

312 Liberty Street, between 3d and 4th Sts.

GOODS DELIVERED ANYWHERE.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, Jan. 12.—H. B. Willis, of New Brunswick, who is at the head of the state educational department, and is school commissioner for Middlesex county, paid an official visit to the Dunellen public schools yesterday afternoon. He found them in a satisfactory condition.

There will be a parlor meeting of the W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. John Runyon Thursday afternoon, the 18th inst., at which time Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson, National superintendent of parlor meetings, will give a report of the National convention at Seattle, Wash.

The young men of St. John's Roman Catholic church are arranging to hold a social at Apgar's Hall next Wednesday evening. The programme will include vocal and instrumental music. Refreshments will also be served.

The music has been distributed and the first rehearsal of the newly organized Choral Union will be held at the Whittier school building next Monday evening. All members are earnestly requested to be present.

The Ladies Auxiliary Society of the Methodist church are arranging to hold a dime social at the home of Mrs. George Giles Thursday afternoon and evening, January 18th.

Charles L. Adams, has secured a situation in the general office of the Central Railroad at Jersey City. Mr. Adams has taken the place vacated by Fred Wilcox, Jr.

The Misses Hetfield entertained the members of the Friendship Social Circle Wednesday. The attendance was large and the programme varied and pleasing.

The Dunellen Banjo Club and Orchestra is to give an entertainment at Apgar Hall Thursday evening, January 25th.

Postmaster Adam Dealaman has been elected a director of the Dunellen Electric Light Company,

Thomas B. Titsworth has been appointed janitor of the Babcock building at Plainfield.

M. F. Wirtts has been elected superintendent of the Methodist Sunday-school.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Jan. 12—Goodwill Lodge, K. of P., installed their recently elected officers at their meeting last night. Deputy Samuel R. Robinson did the honors as installing officers. A number of Crescent Division, Uniform Rank, of Plainfield, were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent by Goodwill and their guests.

Rev. Mr. Woodruff, who was so ill Sunday that he was unable to occupy his pulpit for the evening service, has so far recovered that it is expected that he will be found in his usual place again on Sunday.

The bad storm of yesterday afternoon and last night played havoc with the trolley schedule and the cars were running on any old time.

Mrs. George Schick has returned from a pleasant visit with relatives and friends at Bordentown, this State.

No meeting of the Epworth League Literary Society was held last evening on account of the bad storm.

George H. Johnson is detained at home suffering from an attack of La Grippe.

No prayer meeting was held in the Baptist church last evening.

WESTFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, Jan. 12 — Mrs. T. W. Powell, of Plainfield, will deliver an address, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., at Willard Hall, Prospect street, next Tuesday evening.

The case of Eugene Chamberlin, superintendent of sewers and roads, of this township, against James M. French, which was to have been tried at Elizabeth yesterday, was postponed until next Thursday morning. Attorney Brown, who is looking after Mr. French's interests, being ill. Mr. Chamberlin is suing for $300 for defamation of character.

A movement is on foot to have the new primary school building, for the erection of which $50,000 was appropriated at a recent school meeting, named Hobart School, after the late Vice-President.

Bon Ami

The Improved Cleaner.

REMOVES ONLY THE DIRT DOES NOT INJURE OR DOES NOT WEAR DELICATE SURFACES.

WHERE BULLER AND JOUBERT FACE EACH OTHER.

Colenso, Ladysmith and the country thereabouts have been for some time the rallying ground for the largest of the forces on each side in the South African war. Generals Buller and Joubert have kept close watch upon each other and preparations for a fierce and important engagement have completely filled the last several weeks.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—Charles Mann has opened a barber shop on Watchung avenue.

—Miantonomo Tribe of Red Men will hold a regular meeting this evening.

—Rev. S. P. Simpson will officiate in the Church of the Heavely Rest on Sunday next.

—There will be initiation at the meeting of Perseverance Lodge, Knights of Pythias, this evening.

—Woodhull & Martin announce double trading stamps for tomorrow (Saturday) for the first time this year.

—The last of next month the anniversary of the Order of Chosen Friends will be celebrated in an appropriate manner.

—The handsome new double house being erected by Contractor D. N. Force on Somerset place, is nearing completion.

—Next Sunday Rev. Floyd Appleton, curate of Grace P. E. church, will officiate at St. Stephens' church, Netherwood.

—Doane & Edsall are giving special attention just now to the sale of calf skin boots and shoes, so much in demand this cold weather.

—Some stores charge $1.50 for good quality flannelette gowns, empire style, lace trimmed. 98 cents is all Bonn, of Front street, asks for them.

—J. O. Campbell, owner of the West Front street property, formerly known as the Cutter property, is making some notable improvements to it.

—The last of the union Week of Prayer services of the Methodist churches will be held this evening in the Monroe Avenue M. E. church.

—Several additional electric lights have been located about the city recently under the direction of the councilmanic committee on lights.

—Greenbrook Council, Royal Arcanum, is steadily increasing in membership, and is proving a healthy rival of Plainfield Council, Royal Arcanum.

—Here's a chance for stout women that can wear 40 or 42 shirt waist. Bonn, of Front street, is closing out all wool waists that were $1 39 at 50c., and all $1 98 waists for $1 each.

—Owing to the absence of some of the officers Wednesday evening last, Unity Lodge, No. 102, K. of P., did not install their officers. The event will come off next week Wednesday.

—The Women's Society for Christian Work of the Seventh Day Baptist church is planning a social to be held in the near future at the residence of one of the principal members of the society.

—The dance to be given in the Crescent Rink Thursday evening, January 25th, under the auspices of St. Mary's T. A. B. Society, will be one of the best ever held. O'Reilly will furnish the music.

—The G. A. R. and Sons of Veterans have been invited to a dinner to be given on Tuesday evening, January 23d, in the W. C. T. U. rooms under the auspices of the committee on soldier and sailor work.

—The public drinking fountain fund, in charge of the Loyal Temperance Legion, is constantly growing, much to the gratification of those agitating the matter. It is hoped that the fountain may be erected early in the spring.

—If you or your children are suffering from a cough or any kind of cold use Downing's chlorides. Great things are claimed for this treatment. A free trial will be given by applying to the regular physician in charge of the office at 241 West 51st street, New York. See advertisement in another part of this paper.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

A. Vanderbeek, of West End Park, is detained at his home by illness.

Miss Dunham, of Sanford avenue, has recovered from her recent illness.

Mrs. F. W. Coleman, of Park avenue, has returned from a visit in Baltimore.

Henry Voehl, the Somerset street baker, is confined to his home with a slight illness.

Mrs. Oliver Voorhees, of East Front street, has been entertaining company from out of town.

Councilman Murray Burtis, of Fairview avenue, is in Baltimore for a few days on business.

Everett J. Peck, of Myrtle avenue, is home from Lehigh University on account of illness.

R. W. Barnes, of Grove street, has been enjoying a visit from his father from Staten Island.

Dr. J. H. Cooley, of Westervelt avenue, has about recovered from an attack of the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. LaRue, of the borough, have been entertaining relatives from New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. James Huntington, of Pearl street, are entertaining company from out of town.

Miss Swackhammer, of Whitehouse, who has been visiting Plainfield relatives, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron M. Higgins, of Liberty street, have been entertaining company from out of town.

Miss Nellie Delaney, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her cousins, the Misses Lawler, on John street.

Alex. D. Mallison, the Watchung avenue druggist, is confined to the house with an attack of the grip.

Miss Cain, of Raritan, has been visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. Hervey Buchanan, Duer street.

Edward Thorn, of East Second street, is so much improved from a recent illness that he is now able to be out.

Miss Abbie Lewis, of Ashaway, R. I., has been a guest at the home of Mrs. George H. Babcock, of West Eighth street.

Mrs. Morris McGrath, of New Brunswick, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sheppard, of West Fifth street.

Charles Willis, of Johnston's Drive, who has been seriously ill for three weeks, is now improving under the treatment of Dr. Jenkins.

Walter B. Bennett, of Somerset place, who has been troubled for sometime with his foot which was severely burned with an electric light wire, is greatly improved and the burn is healing nicely.

Samuel Boss, of West Fifth street, has returned from his business trip in the south. His early return has been occasioned by the severe frost which greatly damaged the fruit in the vicinity of North Carolina.

City Physician John Randolph, of Rahway, who is in California trying to recuperate his health, has written to his friends that he is getting along splendidly, and has gained thirty five pounds in weight since he went to the Pacific coast.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

LONG KNOWN - - - MUCH USED.

Randolph's Glycerine of Arnica.

for Cold Wind Chaps, Rough Skin and all Irritations of the Skin.

.....QUICK RELIEF GIVEN.....

25c per bottle -:- -:-

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for TELEPHONE CALL 160

Lowney's and Whitman's Chocolates and Chocolate Bon-Bons.

"PAY CASH AND SAVE MONEY" AT

V. L. FRAZEE'S,

THE PEOPLE'S CASH GROCER

151 West Front Street.

SPECIAL PRICES FOR

Friday, Saturday and Monday,

January 12th, 13th and 15th.

Best Elgin Creamery Butter	30c lb
Good Creamery Butter	25c lb
Best Full Cream Cheese	15c lb
Good Lard	6c lb
Fresh Jersey Eggs, guaranteed	22c doz
Best Fine Granulated Sugar	5c lb
Best Early Rose Potatoes	38c basket
Best Extra Fancy Seeded Raisins,	10c pkge
Best New Cleaned Currants, 1 lb package	9c
Best Vermont Maple Syrup	1 qt bottle 25c
Best Home-made Mince Meat,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best California Prunes	5c, 7c, 8c and 9c lb
Paris Sugar Corn	9c can
New York State Sugar Corn	7c can
Rose Bud brand, Early June Peas,	7c can, 4 cans for 25c
Fine Small Early June Peas	10c can
Best Solid Packed Tomatoes	7c can
Best Vanilla Drip Sugar Syrup	35c gallon
Best New Orleans Molasses	35c gallon
Best XXXX Minnesota Patent Flour	55c bag
Best Lemon Cakes, Ginger Snaps, Nic Nacs, Soda and Oyster Crackers	5c lb
Uneeda Biscuit	4c package
Best Mocha and Java Coffee	25c lb
Fresh Roasted Coffee, bean or ground	12c lb
Fine Fat Mackerel	8c each

"Queen Quality Shoes"

Ladies' $3.00 Shoes advertised in all the Leading Magazines in the country are for sale at 101 Park Avenue.

SEE THAT THIS Queen Quality $3.00 TRADE MARK IS BRANDED ON EVERY SHOE.

Queen Quality, $3.00.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 Park Avenue.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.

Capital, $150,000.

Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson.
H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold.
J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J. B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

CHARLES ARNOLD,

Dealer in all kinds of

Fresh and Salt Meats,

POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON

203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.

Telephone 238.

FREE TRIAL,

ARE YOU SICK?

A sure cure for Bronchitis, Croup, Catarrh, Whooping Cough, Diphtheria, Consumption or any disease of the lungs or throat. Medicine taken into the stomach will not cure these diseases, because it is impossible to reach the affected part through the stomach. Doctors know this.

These diseases are cured by

DOWNING'S CHLORIDES.

Why? Because it cures by inhalation and reaches the affected parts. Ten to thirty drops poured on a plate and allowed to evaporate gives you immediate relief, and every breath helps to cure. The cure is positive and quick. Downing's Chlorides are breathed naturally into the lungs and throat, and is a germicide which kills all microbes, the cause of all troubles of the lungs and throat. This cure is so simple as to be perfectly safe for the youngest infant or for the aged person. There is no apparatus, smoke or danger. Unlike medicine, it cannot upset the stomach and nerves. If you have any form of lung or throat trouble, we guarantee to cure you. It is recognized and recommended by eminent specialists as the proper treatment for lung and throat troubles.

A free trial will be given by applying to the regular physician in charge of the office at 241 West 51st St., New York City. Descriptive booklet will be mailed free.

Sold by all druggist, $1 per bottle.

C. N. CRITTENTON & CO., Wholesale.

MARTIN ROTH, Jr.,

(Successor to Martin Roth, Sr.)

SHOEMAKER....

Repairing a specialty. First-class work. Only best material used. A trial is all that I ask.

121 EXCHANGE ALLEY,

Rear of Lieske's Bakery....

HENRY J. WIERENGA,

Furniture and Freight Express

Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store, 126 Park avenue.

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.

Economy Days FRIDAY & SATURDAY This Week.

For economical shoppers and careful money spenders ours is the ideal store. The constant underselling of reliable merchandise stimulates the growth and progress of the business. Unusual offerings and money-saving chances are in abundance here Friday and Saturday.

3½c Best quality Shirting prints, usually sold at 6c.
5c Heavy quality of Outing Flannels, fifty new patterns in choice colorings, 8c quality.
7½c Best quality of English flannelettes in light and dark colors, worth 10c.
6½c Fruit of the Loom full bleached Muslin, yard wide.
6½c Lonsdale Muslin, full bleached, yard wide.
8c Best quality Lonsdale Cambric.
15c Women's all wool cashmere Hosiery, fast black and seamless, positively worth 25c.
25c Women's Swiss ribbed heavy fleece-lined grey merino vests, reduced from 50c.
10c A small lot of children's undershirts and combination suits in small sizes reduced from 25c and 35c.
5c About two thousand yards fancy ribbon two to five inches wide worth 15c to 25c the yard.
10c Women's outing flannel underskirts, plain colors with fancy borders, worth 29c.
25c Hassocks in a great assortment of patterns, covered with velvet carpet reduced from 50c.
98c Boys' suits of heavy mixed cassimere, reduced from $1.50.
1.39 Boys' suits of heavy cheviots, navy blue, all wool, reduced from $2.98.
1.98 Boys' suits of mixed cassimere, all wool, reduced from $2.98.
4c Good Household Ammonia, worth 8c.
Best "Big Wonder" Laundry Soaps, worth 7c.
18c Table Tumblers, worth 30c.
10c Granite Wash Basins worth 17c.
5c Heavy wire potato mashers, worth 10c.
18c Dozen nickle-plated Teaspoons, worth 30c.

S. SCHEUER & CO.

—ARE OFFERING—

These Special Bargains

-:- FOR -:-

FRIDAY and SATURDAY.

Best Minnesota flour, per bbl	4.35
" " " 24½ lb bag	55c
Hecker's Flap Jack flour, package	8c
Best Elgin Creamery butter, per lb	30c
Best lard, per lb	6c
Fresh eggs, per dozen	19c
Armour's mince meat, 1½ lb cans	8c
Armour's condensed mince meat, 3 lb pails	25c
Duryea's corn starch, 1 lb package	4c
Shredded cocoanut, per package	4c
Choice Carolina rice, 6c lb; 3 lbs for	17c
Pearl tapioca, per lb	5c
Salt herring, per fish	1c
Salt mackerel, per fish	4c
Worcestershire sauce, per bottle	3c
Faust Oyster Cocktail catsup, per bottle	19c
Dandy mixed cakes (regular 12c,) per lb	8c
Nic nacs or ginger snaps, per lb	5c
Uneeda biscuits, per package	4c
Sweet oranges, per dozen	15c

In Our Meat Department.

Fancy Jersey Turkeys, per lb	14c and 16c
Fancy Roasting Chickens, per lb	14c
Prime Jersey Fowl, per lb	12c
Fancy Long Island Ducks, per lb	14c and 16c
Prime Legs of Lamb, per lb	12c
Prime Legs of Mutton, per lb	10c
Shoulder Lamb, per lb	8c
Shoulder Lamb Chops, per lb	12c
Fresh Jersey Pork, (for roasting) per lb	10c
Best Sugar Cured Hams, per lb	10c
Best California Hams, per lb	8c
Philadelphia Scrapple, per lb	7c
Fresh Tripe, per lb	6c
Pickled Pigs Feet, per lb	6c
Home-Made Sausage, per lb	10c

S. SCHEUER & CO.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Aus der Rheinpfalz.

Speyer. Bei den jüngsten Stadtrathswahlen siegten die verbündeten Centrumsleute und Sozialdemokraten mit rund 1200 Stimmen gegen die liberale Liste, die nahezu 900 Stimmen aufwies.—Der seitherige Bürgermeister, Bankdirektor Serr, wurde mit 26 von 27 Stimmen als Bürgermeister wiedergewählt.

Albersweiler. Zwischen hier und Frankweiler wurde der Sattler Ludwig Becker von Frankweiler auf der Straße todt aufgefunden. Nach den konstatirten Verletzungen ist er von einem im raschesten Tempo daherfahrenden Radler mit solcher Wucht umgerannt worden, daß er sofort den Geist aufgab. Der Thäter ist unbekannt.

Ludwigshafen. In Mutterstadt erstickten Nachts zwei Töchter des Fabrikarbeiters Peter Renner im Alter von 17 und 19 Jahren an Kohlengasen. Die Mädchen hatten in ihrem Schlafzimmer Feuer gemacht und die Ofenklappe vor dem Schlafengehen geschlossen.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Der Verband der Seifenfabrikanten Württembergs beschloß in seiner letzten Versammlung, die Seifenpreise um 2 Mark pro 100 Kilo zu erhöhen, da dieselben seit sehr langer Zeit in einem großen Mißverhältniß zu den hohen Rohstoffpreisen stehen, und es dürfte eine weitere Erhöhung bei der Stimmung des Fettmarktes nur noch eine Frage der Zeit sein.

Böblingen. Dieser Tage hat hier eine zweite Schuhfabrik von G. Binder, langjähriger Buchhalter der J. Wanner'schen Schuhfabrik, ihren Betrieb eröffnet. In derselben finden die seit September dieses Jahres ausständigen Arbeiter Beschäftigung.

Gosheim. Unsere Gemeinde geht damit um, die Beeraquelle zu fassen und zu einer Wasserleitung mit Motorbetrieb zu benützen, wodurch dem Flüßchen die Hauptader entzogen würde.

Sonderbuch. Bei der kürzlich stattgefundenen Wahl eines Ortsvorstehers wurde Gemeindepfleger Fritz Mutschler daselbst mit 55 von 56 abgegebenen Stimmen gewählt.

Ulm. Hier starb der bekannte schwäbische Dichter und Kritiker Gustav Pfizer.

Waiblingen. Zum dritten Mal binnen ganz kurzer Zeit sind hier wieder zahlreiche Baumbeschädigungen vorgekommen, diesmal auf der Straße nach Neustadt, wo etwa 25 junge Bäume theils umgeknickt, theils eingeschnitten wurden. Von den Frevlern hat man auch im letzteren Falle, gleichwie in den vorhergegangenen, keine Spur.

Baden.

Karlsruhe. Der bekannte Bayreuther Wagnersänger Fritz Plank stürzte im Hoftheater bei einer Probe aus einer Höhe von 30 Fuß in eine Versenkung herab und zog sich schwere Verletzungen zu.

Heidelberg. Hier ist der bankerotte Bankier Wilhelm Cuntz wegen Unterschlagung verhaftet worden.

Mannheim. Das Bretzenheim'sche Palais am Carl Theodorplatz, das Kurfürst Carl Theodor seiner Geliebten, der ehemaligen Schauspielerin Gräfin Bretzenheim, zum Geschenk machte, ging für 600,000 Mark an die Rheinische Hypothekenbank über.

Konstanz. Auf der Insel Reichenau hat der dieser Tage aus dem Zuchthaus entlassene Samuel Riebel seine Ehefrau erstochen und dann Selbstmord begangen.

Mosbach. In Ripperg wurde dieser Tage ein leichtes Erdbeben verspürt.

Elsaß-Lothringen.

Straßburg. Die Ausübung der Jagd auf den Glacis durch Militärpersonen hatte zu Unzuträglichkeiten geführt und deshalb auch öffentliche Beschwerden hervorgerufen. Nun hat nach der „Straßburger Post" der in einem Falle angerufene Verwaltungsgerichtshof sich dahin ausgesprochen, daß der Militärfiskus zur Jagd auf den Glacis der Forts bei Kehl nicht berechtigt sei.

Malhausen. Zwischen Lieutenant Schlabitz von der 11. Kompagnie und Lieutenant Kießlich von der 10. Kompagnie des hier stehenden 4. Badischen Infanterie-Regiments Prinz Wilhelm Nr. 112 fand an der Schweizer Grenze ein Pistolenduell statt, in welchem Lieutenant Schlabitz todt auf dem Platze blieb. Die Duellbedingungen waren äußerst scharfe, obgleich die Veranlassung zu dem Duell ein unbedeutender Theaterstreit war.

Metz. In dem an deutschen Grenzorte Fouleree gehörigen Walde fahndeten dieser Tage die zwei Söhne des Jagdinhabers Weinhändlers G. von Fouleree mit drei wohlbewaffneten Knechten auf den gefährlichen Lothringer Adam aus dem benachbarten französischen Städtchen Blamont. Sie trafen ihn mit einem Hunde auf der Hasenjagd. Darüber, ob er nun auf einen seiner Verfolger angelegt oder nicht, gehen die Berichte auseinander, jedenfalls wurde er auf der Flucht nach der nahen Grenze von den ihm nachgesandten Kugeln schwer verwundet. Doktor Henriet von Blamont fand den Schwerverletzten an der Straße und brachte ihn auf seinem Wagen nach Blamont.

—Use Press want ads.

(B)

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

Big With Bargains

—honest true-blue bargains in furniture and carpets here, for 'tis the great yearly clean-up time, when goods must go to make way for complete lines, and to make the stock-listing task easier. Credit terms just the same as ever—or cash, if you'd rather.

Get Carpets Now

while they're to be had at these close-out prices—it's an amazing chance for you! Thousands of rolls of pretty patterned weaves.

$28.98

Golden oak combination desk—French plate mirror, neat carvings. Worth $35.00.

$49.00

Pull over-stuffed suit—heavy fringe, corded tapestry coverings. Worth $65.00.

$17.98

Solid oak—heavy carving, lined drawer for silver. Worth $25.00.

$13.98

Carved arms, claw feet, upholstered seat, velour cushions. Worth $18.00.

$9.98

for a green velour deeply tufted couch, full spring edge. Worth $15.00.

$6.23

Solid golden oak desk—swell front drawer, French legs. Worth $8.50.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,

LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,

Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.

Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

SHE WROTE FROM VIENNA.

This is the first day of August, and on the 27th of September I sail for New York from Liverpool. I am sure there will be time for you to send me a dollar's worth of Ripans Tabules. I cannot get them here and I just don't want to go aboard the ship without them.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER.

ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.

169 NORTH AVENUE.

Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life.

Telephone No. 672.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW, THE GROCER.

Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.

Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

ROLLED IN A BARREL

Punishment Pronounced Worse Than Lynching by a Victim.

"There's something barbaric about lynching, as most people will agree," said the man with the broken nose, "but I can easily name two worse things. One is rolling a man around in a barrel and the other is a coat of tar and feathers. In my foolish young days I arrived at a town in southern Indiana to find the people all excited over several arrests for robbery. A family named Black, consisting of a man and wife and a grown-up son, had been caught and made to confess to many thefts. Instead of putting them on trial, the people had determined to apply tar and feathers and walk 'em out of town. I had no objections so far as the men were concerned, but when it came to the woman I constituted myself her champion and declared that they must walk over my dead body first. For about five minutes I was a hero. Then about a dozen men grabbed me and hustled me into a room, and after the Blacks had been disposed of according to programme I was brought out for punishment. Plenty of tar and feathers were left, but the crowd wanted a change, and it was decided that I should have the barrel exercise. They got out and unheaded a big cider barrel, dropped me into it and replaced the head, and then all was ready.

"I was inclined to look upon the proceedings with contempt. I had never been rolled in a barrel, and so I had no idea of the sensations. They first kicked it along the wide, unpaved street, and it had not rolled over more than twenty times when I was sick of my job. After they had enjoyed themselves for a quarter of an hour I was praying for death to hurry up. I dimly remember that after they got tired of the football work in the street they rolled the barrel up along hill and then let it go kiting down. You talk of seasickness; but there is no comparison. Aside from the feeling of nausea, I was jarred, jolted and bruised from head to heels, and in one of the bumps had my nose broken. I was unconscious when they finally took me out, and for a week I was little better than a dead man. It was weeks and weeks before I got the revolving motion out of my head and I could walk straight, and to this day I can't see a grindstone revolving without being affected by it. It would have been far more merciful to hang me up by the neck."

"But how about the tar and feathers?" was asked.

"Well, I met the old man Black about two years later, and he still smelled of tar. He told me that it took a week's work with soap and water to get the stuff started, and that spots were left which couldn't be got off, even when rubbed with a brick. He didn't feel the degradation so much, but what hurt his feelings was that he had been obliged to put in more work on that tar than in all his life before. He had tried the barrel racket once, and he thought it a shade worse than tar, but he had no words of sympathy with me. On the contrary, he said if I hadn't mixed in the three of them would probably have got off with a ride on a rail."

Li Hung Chang's Mistake.

One day, some years ago, Li Hung Chang was making a journey from Tien-Tsin to Shanghai, on the steamer of the Chinese Mutual Company, of which he is the principal owner, says the Philadelphia Saturday Post. Being of an inquiring disposition he asked many questions about the machinery and the furnishings of the ship. What interested him most was the barometer, and Capt. Baker explained it with great care and described the minutest details.

Several months after, when Capt. Baker arrived at Tien-Tsin at the end of a voyage, he was informed at the steamship office that Earl Li wanted to see him at the Viceroy's yamen. The Captain, judging from the experience of other men, expected to receive a reward for faithful service, and dressing himself with care, took a rickshaw for the residence of the greatest man in China. Upon arrival he was shown into the reception room, and pretty soon Li Hung Chang made his appearance, followed by a servant carrying a handsomely mounted mahogany box. He put it on the table, opened it, and took out a beautiful barometer, which had just arrived from Paris. After Capt. Baker had admired the mechanism of the instrument, Earl Li turned to him and said:

"Now, I want you to show me how you foretell events with this thing."

"You cannot foretell events with a barometer," said Capt. Baker in surprise.

"You told me you could," retorted Earl Li.

"I never did anything of the kind!" exclaimed the astonished seaman. "I told you that by comparing the changes in the temperature and direction of the wind with the movements of this instrument we could anticipate a storm, but I did not say anything about foretelling events, because that is impossible."

The Viceroy stared at the sailor with astonishment, and exclaimed:

"You are an ignorant, incompetent fellow. Don't you know that the weather is the most uncertain thing in the world? Other events are governed by laws and arbitrary conditions, from which the weather is entirely free, and anybody who can find out what the weather is going to be ought to be able to foretell ordinary events."

Then with a contemptuous motion he dismissed Capt. Baker from his presence, and never spoke to him again.

On the Bargain Counter.

"Why does Miss Leftover say she is twenty-four when everybody knows she is forty?"

"Perhaps she is trying to take advantage of the speculative instinct in men."

"How can that be?"

"She may think that some would be willing to take her at twenty-four who would consider her too high at forty."—Detroit Free Press.

Sensible Idea.

"Why do you say that you will marry only a widow?"

"Well, I think it is a part of wisdom to get some one who has already discovered that men are not angels."—Chicago Post.

Incidents of Chicago's Christmas

Something over $10,000,000 represents the total of holiday buying in Chicago the past year. That sum represents more than five dollars for each man, woman and child in the entire city, it represents such a holiday season as Chicago, or for that matter any other city, has seldom seen, and the merchants say it represents prosperity.

Brought Prosperity to the Merchant.

It certainly meant prosperity to the merchants, and especially to those situated in the business district. By the close of Saturday night before Christmas 15 of the State street merchants alone had taken in over their counters something over $3,500,000. Very little of that sum represented the more expensive forms of holiday presents, for it was the receipts of the department stores for toys, and smaller and less expensive articles bought by the people who do not have a fortune to spend at each Christmas season. What the receipts of the jewelers, the furriers, the musical instrument houses, the furniture dealers, the fashionable confectioners, the book stores, and all the other dealers in special lines amounted to can only be estimated, but those competent to judge say it did not fall below the sum taken in by the department stores, and if so that would only leave another $3,000,000 for the Christmas and New Year's dinners and for the suburban merchants. Chicago spent easily more than $10,000,000 for holiday presents in 1899.

If the figures of the department store merchants are correct for the time up to the closing hour of the Christmas buying, and no one doubts them, what would be the total if the receipts of the week between Christmas and New Year's were added? The Tuesday following Christmas was almost as big a day in the down-town stores as was the Saturday preceding, and there seemed to be no bottom to the Chicago purse.

A Great Retail Mart.

Among other things that the great totals of holiday purchases have set Chicago to thinking about and talking about is the department store. Aside from the Christmas and New Year's dinners, the greater part of the money expended in Chicago was passed over counters that occupy a little section of the city hardly a mile square, and a large percentage of it was spent along half a dozen blocks of one street.

Will Fight the Department Stores.

Chicago has claimed that State street was the greatest retail mart in the world, and Chicago holiday shopping figures should easily prove this.

But while the merchants along State street and the neighborhood surrounding it grew fat because of an exceptional Christmas the suburban merchant noticed but little increase over his usual sales. So it is that he and his friends are now cursing the department store with fresh vigor. They present these figures showing such a vast centralization of business as a strong argument against the big stores, in which everything from a sewing machine needle to a threshing machine, or a yard of calico to a velvet gown can be bought. They point out the fact that it cheapens real estate all over the city, with the exception of the small district in which the big stores are located; that it throws men out of employment, and injures the city in other ways.

The proprietors of the department stores, on the other hand, contend that they benefit the public by selling goods at a lower price than it is possible for the small merchant to get down to, because of the cheaper management of a large establishment in proportion to the volume of business done.

But one thing is almost certain, and that is that the past holiday season, with its unequaled expenditures, will result in a fight against the department stores in the next session of the state legislature.

Abundance of Holiday Cheer.

It was certainly a great holiday season in Chicago in every way. Holiday cheer overflowed the homes of the wealthy into the lap of poverty and cheered the heart of many a child to whom Christmas has before been unknown. In the children's free wards in the hospitals, in the homes for the orphans, in the widow's cottage, and in the tenement districts holiday cheer was known for the first time in many years. It was but seldom that opportunity offered for the contribution of a mite of joy that it was not promptly accepted in some way.

Thirty Cents' Worth of Cheer.

In the stores the busy shoppers took time to notice the waif whose only Christmas in former years had been in looking at the toys displayed in show windows and on the counters, and many a little heart was gladdened by the receipt of a coveted plaything from strange hands.

In one of the big department stores I saw a man buy more Christmas joy for 30 cents when expended for children whom he had probably never seen before than all his other expenditures put together had brought him. A woman wearing the garb of poverty so plainly that it could not be mistaken was attempting to purchase Christmas presents for a family of five with the few cents at her command, and two of her five children were attempting to assist her. One of the two thought a bright colored lead pencil for little sister would be appreciated by her, but the pencil cost six cents and the mother felt that the sum was more than she could expend for one. A stranger noted the disappointed look on the child's face and for 30 cents he purchased one of the coveted pencils for each of the five. It was a small but gracious act, and the man who had done it felt pleased with the entire holiday season.

The Rich and the Poor.

Santa Claus stalked abroad through the city in many disguises. A family living on the South side that I know of secured their Christmas cheer by playing the part of the good saint to the poor families of their acquaintance.

A Closer Bond of Sympathy.

Husband and wife visited personally the families and carried with them the good things of the season. There were presents for the children, warm clothing for the mothers, fuel for the fires, and when they had ascertained their wants in the culinary line good Christmas dinners were bought and sent to them.

The presents brought pleasure to the children, but to the widowed mothers the touch of sympathy shown by the visit and the kind words that were said were valued far above the material assistance that was offered. It was the holiday spirit that prompted these visits, and the holiday spirit ran rampant throughout all the big western city during the closing weeks of 1899.

Whether the merchants, who pronounce prosperity as the cause of it, are right, or whether it is something else, matters but little. The fact that Chicago enjoyed an unusual Christmas season of good will and good cheer, a season that brought with it a better understanding between the rich and poor, a closer bond of sympathy which the poor appreciated, is enough in itself without seeking the cause.

In the history of Chicago holiday seasons that of 1899 will live for many years, and whether we have entered on a new century or not the closing scenes of the past year were a fitting finale for even so glorious a century as the nineteenth has been, so far as Chicago is concerned.

A Full Major.

There were two or three war correspondents in the group of Chicago newspaper men, and the talk had gradually drifted around to the events of last summer. Personal anecdotes and funny experiences were being exchanged, when some one happened to mention the name of Col. ——, who is now with his regiment in the Philippines, and who was a prime favorite among the boys who followed the first movement of regulars to Chickamauga.

Iniquities of the Liquor Traffic.

"There's a man who can hold as much good booze without getting topheavy as any man in the service," said one veteran newspaper man. "I've known him for years, knew him in fact when the two bars of a captain were all he could sport on his shoulders. You knew him at Chickamauga, didn't you, Billy??"

Billy grinned reminiscently.

"Well, I hope he gets a brigadier generalship in the new batch. He deserves it. He's seen lots of hard Indian campaigning. And that reminds me. Away back in the '70s, after the dear old boy had distinguished himself in some campaign against the Apaches, he received a long-delayed promotion to the rank of major. He was in Chicago when the news of his promotion came, and promptly proceeded to tank up a few. That evening he drifted into a newspaper office in quest of a friend. His eyesight was a little blurred, but his enthusiasm was boundless, and his anxiety to tell his friend of his good fortune equally as great. So he wobbled over to where his friend was busily engaged on some editorial on the iniquities of the liquor traffic, hit him a resounding slap on the back and said: "Congratulate me, old man, I'm a full major. Yes, sir."

"His friend looked up. Only it wasn't his friend. It was a stranger. And the stranger, after looking the major over from head to foot, said, frigidly: "Um, yes, I see you are."

WRIGHT A. PATTERSON.

MOTHS ATE THE ROOF.

The Timbers in Winchester Cathedral Were Decayed.

Winchester Cathedral is one of the old glories of England, situated in Winchester, the birthplace of Alfred the Great, whose thousandth anniversary is soon to be celebrated there. Architects and builders have just completed their three-years' work of repairing the roof of the old cathedral and giving it a general overhauling. The repairs were needed badly, for the ancient timber work was decayed and the stone vaulting of the nave underneath was in a dangerous condition.

When the workmen started in to repair the roof the curious discovery was made that the old timbers were greatly decayed by the action of worms. The insect causing the havoc is known as the Sirex gigas. Sirex penetrates its mischief in the grub state, and eats away the timber until it is like honeycomb. Several of the grubs were captured during the work and also a chrysalis, which developed into an insect one and three-quarter inches long, of the wasp shape, with a long ovipositor for which the hole for the eggs is bored in the wood.

The vast timbers of the roof were found to be, in all probability, the original Norman roof, with later work and improvements of the fifteenth century. In strengthening the tie-beams it was found necessary to renew three of them, and, owing to the difficulty in obtaining English oak nowadays of sufficient length and size (each 45 feet long and 12 inches wide and 20 inches deep), the beams had to be "made in Germany"—they came from Stettin.

While the work among the old timbers was going on the "pockets" formed by the grained work were cleaned out, and their contents examined before being carted away. Fifty cartloads of rubbish were removed from the roof. In it were found a pair of monk's shoes of the fifteenth century, some fragments of stained glass of the same date, an ancient knife, the mummies of a swallow and bat, a piece of slate inscribed with curious writing characters, apparently of the seventeenth century, a tobacco pipe a crossbow bolt and a pair of ancient nutcrackers—a strange museum of relics.

The First "Mysterious Dave."

Dave Rodebaugh was the man who was best entitled to the sobriquet of "Mysterious Dave," which has been wrongly applied to Dave Mathes. Rodebaugh's advent to the circle of famous western characters was unheralded, but in no wise lacking in brilliancy. It was at Great Bend, Kan., in the early '70s that one Frank Whitfield who, by reason of his former habitation, was known as Texas Frank, was one day amusing himself by shooting up the town. His crowning feature of deviltry was to cause the bartender of the Rome saloon to kneel with a glass full of beer upon his head and to shatter the glass with a bullet from his revolver, fired from the opposite side of the room. Much amused at the beer-bespattered bartender, Frank proceeded to execute a dance of approval. He was recalled to the bare surroundings by the sharp command:

"Drop it, pardner, and shove yer hands. I've got ye covered."

Frank turned to look into the muzzle of a six-shooter in the hand of a little red-headed man with a thin, red beard, says Chicago Inter-Ocean. Frank's hands went up very high, and the strange man ordered him to kneel with his face to the wall, which order was obeyed, and following the red-headed man's directions the bartender placed a glass of beer upon his head. The strange man then stepped against the wall opposite and with a shot from his revolver smashed the glass in the same manner that his victim had done so recently for the bartender. After doing this the stranger backed out of the saloon, mounted his pony, which had been left standing in front, and rode leisurely out of the town.

No one could be found who knew him and he was not seen again for some time. His next appearance was in the thick of a street and saloon fight, in which he contributed two men to Great Bend's boot hill. His appearance and departure were as mysterious as the first, and he was "The Mystery."

Not long after the incident last related he killed a faro dealer, whose gun caught in the scabbard, and was arrested. Although acquitted, the inquiry disclosed that his name was Dave Rodebaugh, and he was afterward known as "Mysterious Dave." After Mathes received the title "mysterious" they were distinguished by the addition of their family names. In Mathes's case the name was not a true one. Just here it may be stated that Mathes was a native of Ohio, his family being one of the most prominent of the State, and that he was educated at the Ohio Wesleyan University. The writer knows that two of his strange disppearances from his haunts in New Mexico were caused by visits to that State. One was upon the death of his father and the other to attend the marriage of his youngest sister.

New Facts About Beautiful Snow.

That eminent medical authority, the Lancet, has just discovered that snow-water will penetrate the ordinary boot and that the only sure way to prevent this is to grease the boot. The ancient and honorable custom of the Yankee farmer is set forth in the Lancet fully and scientifically—and is news to no one. But some of the Lancet's remarks upon "beautiful snow" may be new.

It is stated that few actions of nature clear and purify the air as does a fall of snow. An anlysis of newly-fallen snow shows an enormous percentage of organic impuritites and bacteria. These have been swept out of the air by the falling flakes, leving the atmosphere we breathe pure and wholesome. Again there is so much friction engendered by snow flakes dropping through the air that it gives rise to the formation of ozone. It is stated that so much ozone is formed by the descending flakes that to those familiar with it there is a marked smell of that element in the air after a snowstorm.

"He says he will stand on his records," says the politicin.

"Well, he won't, replied the man who knew him.

"Why not?" demanded the politician.

"Because it won't hold him, and he's not a heavy man at that."—Chicago Evening Post.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Jan. 14—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

TOPIC.—In the far country.—Luke xv, 11-24.

In answer to the charge of the Pharisees that He received sinners and ate with them Jesus spoke the three parables of this chapter—the parables of the lost sheep, the lost coin and the prodigal son. His purpose was to show that He had come into the world to seek and to save that which was lost. But in these parables He also touchingly pictured the anxiety of God to save the lost and the way of the lost soul back to God.

The prodigal son "in the far country" represents man in the far country of sin. Sin is indeed a far country. It is far away from God, our Heavenly Father. It is far away from heaven, our Father's home. To be in sin is to be separated from God, from home and from country and to be a wanderer and a sojourner in a land that is foreign to us. God has made us for Himself, for His home, and if away because of sin we are in a far country, and if we persist in our absence the separation will become an impassable gulf. This fact should cause us to hesitate, to pause and to consider "How may I return from the far country to my Father's home?" and to thank God that a way has been opened up by which we may return and receive a cordial welcome.

The return of the prodigal son to his father's house symbolizes the return of the sinner to his Heavenly Father's home. Life in the far country soon becomes unsatisfactory. We want to return. The prodigal did, and so sometimes will all who are away from God. The prodigal did return and thereby left an example which all may follow. Three things characterized the prodigal's return: 1. Thought. "He came to himself." He thought upon his condition, and this thought and reflection were produced by diversity. Thoughtlessness keeps many away from God. If we would think soberly of what we are away from God and what we may be if we return to God, more of us would return to God. 2. Resolution. Thought produced decision. He said, "I will arise and go to my Father." 3. Action. The prodigal not only resolved to return, but he arose and went. He acted up to his decision. Here many fail. They decide to return to God, but fail to act up to their decision. If we, like the prodigal, upon serious reflection, will decide to return to God and will do so, with confession of sin and with faith in Christ, we also shall be gladly received and cause joy upon earth and in heaven.

THE PRAYER MEETING.

Have a "called meeting." At the proper time let the leader open on the topic and on closing call for some one else to take part who, when having finished, shall call upon another, and so on until all have been called and have responded. If any one should not be prepared, he may simply call upon some one else. This will make an interesting and spirited meeting.

Bible Readings.—Ezra iii, 8-13; Ps. xix, 7-14; xxiii, 1-3; li, 11, 12; Isa. i, 18, 19; xxxv, 8-10; lv, 1-7; Jer. iv, 1; Mal. iii, 7-12; Math. xi, 28; John iii, 16; xiv, 1-3; II Tim. iv, 7, 8; Heb. xi, 9, 16; I Pet. ii, 19-25.

Good Night.

There is a tender sweetness about some of our common phrases of affectionate greeting, simple and unobtrusive as they are, which falls like dew upon the heart. "Good night!" The little one lisps it as she toddles off to bed. Sisters and brothers exchange the wish, parents and children, friend and friend. Familiar use has robbed it of its significance to some of us. We repeat it automatically without much thought. But consider. We are as voyagers putting off from time to time upon an unexplored sea. Our barks of life set sail and go onward into the darkness, and we, asleep on our pillows, take no such care as we do when awake and journeying by daylight. Of the perils of the night, whatever they may be, we take no heed. An unsleeping vigilance watches over us, but it is the vigilance of One stronger and wiser than we, who is the eternal good. Good and God spring from the same root and are the same in meaning. "Goodby" is only "God be with you." "Good night" is really "God night," or "God guard the night." It would be a churlish household in which these gentle forms of speech were ignored or did not exist. Alike the happy and the sorrowful, day by day, may say "Good night!"—American Hebrew.

Going to Church.

There must be a motive above either laughter or tears if one is to receive permanent good at any service. Learning is sobriety. The emotions have their subordinate office, but the intelligence must not be ignored. Paul might have kept his auditor awake by a humorous story, but he preferred to let him sleep. We must learn to go to church because it is the church. The first effort may not accomplish its purpose, but along this line Christ reveals Himself. Attend church not for the sake of the messenger, but the message; not for the music, but the praise; not for the pulpit, but the pew. We confess to the ideal, but there is no real worship beneath it.—Presbyterian Journal.

On Thy Word.

Lord, forever at Thy side
Let my place and portion be;
Strip me of the robe of pride,
Clothe me with humility
Meekly may my soul receive
All Thy spirit hath revealed.
Thou hast spoken; I believe
Though the prophecy were sealed.

Quiet as a little child
Weaned from the mother's breast,
By no subtlety beguiled,
On Thy faithful word I rest.
Saints rejoicing evermore,
In the Lord Jehovah trust:
Him in all his ways adore,
Wise and wonderful and just.

—James Montgomery.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning Jan. 14, "In the Far Country."
Text, Luke xv, 11-24.

The parable of the prodigal son is one of the most frequently quoted passages of the Bible and in all the Christian ages has given comforting assurance to penitent sinners of God's tender regard for them. It deserves even closer study than it has received. Much has been thought and taught regarding it which careful examination fails to sustain. The very intent of the parable is often misunderstood and its teaching strained or misapplied.

Why spoken. Publicans and men of openly and notoriously wicked lives had gathered around Jesus to listen to Him. The professedly religious Pharisees and scribes who saw it condemned Him for receiving, talking and eating with sinners. They considered any person who would do such things as no better than the ones with whom he chose to associate. Jesus explains and justifies His action by three parables—of the lost sheep, lost silver and lost son.

What it contains. The word picture drawn in the story shows a son restless under home restraints and thirsting to taste excitements of a larger experience in the world outside. Liberal means having been supplied, he chooses a course of lust and moral debasement instead of one of thrift and virtue. Poverty, hunger, shame, are the results of his conduct. Something of a better nature and memories of a purer life awaken sorrow for the evil and vice of the past, desires for betterment, resolutions to confess and repair the wrong and ask for mercy and help of the father so dishonored and disgraced. Action succeeds, and restoration to favor displays the father's nature. The doings of the elder brother show his nature also.

Meaning. The primary truth in all three parables is the regard God has for sinners and His desire to save them. The application is a general one and not directed to a special case. In the prodigal son we see not so much an individual as the whole class of sinners as distinguished from the professedly virtuous.

The pious people were provoked that Jesus should notice the wicked and have any dealings with them. He shows them the way the sinful often fall and act and the way God looks at them and acts toward them. The hatefulness of those who had always appeared to be dutiful and good is shown in its true light. No real love of the father or brother had existed in them. The returned prodigal was nobler in nature and more truly sonlike than the one who had never openly rebelled, but had always secretly harbored resentment and jealousy.

Righteousness and love are the essentials God seeks to have men acquire and not formal obedience to a set of outward rules of conduct.

Bishop Cranston.

Two years' residence in the far east has given Bishop Earl Cranston an intimate knowledge of the condition, needs and possibilities for mission work in those parts which no other one of our bishops has ever been privileged to obtain. He has presided twice over the conferences and missions in Japan, Korea and China. He has traveled extensively in all these lands, met our missionaries under all the varying circumstances of mission life, become personally acquainted with our members in their churches and homes, seen the working of our schools and hospitals and orphanages, touched the great body of heathenism in its utter moral hardness, breathed in its deadly malarial poison, mingled with rulers of the countries visited and comes home charged in mind and soul with the duty and power of the church of Jesus Christ to save the world as he never was filled before. We may expect from his words a new inspiration to touch the church and impel to seeking the prodigal races of men to recover them to God.

BISHOP EARL CRANSTON, D. D.

The Best We Have.

Christ wants the best. He in the faroff ages
Once claimed the firstlings of the flock, the finest of the wheat,
And still He asks His own with gentlest pleading
To lay their highest hopes and brightest talents at His feet.
He'll not forget the feeblest service, humblest love.
He only asks that of our store we give to Him
The best we have.

Christ gives the best. He takes the hearts we offer
And fills them with His glorious beauty, joy and peace,
And in His service, as we're growing stronger,
The calls to grand achievements still increase.
The richest gifts for us on earth or in the heaven above
Are hid in Christ. In Jesus we receive
The best we have.

And is our best too much? Oh, friends, let us remember
How once our Lord poured out His soul for us
And in the prime of His mysterious manhood
Gave up His precious life upon the cross.
The Lord of lords, by whom the worlds were made,
Through bitter grief and tears gave us
The best He had.

—Interior.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 2 27, 5 37, 6 29, 6 58, 7 25, 7 25, 7 55, 8 06, 8 12, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 45, 9 55, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 54, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 06, 7 39, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00 m, 12 58 1 45, 2 46, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 55, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 58, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 55, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5 27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 05 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 20 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked ") change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.
LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12.51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent,
218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. L. Manning & Son,

STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 100 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

POWERS' PHARMACY

Somerset St. . Craig Place.

Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .

Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot and Tar is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

DAVE'S.

213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

THIS IS THE TIME

to protect your feet from the cold and damp---We can shoe you with reliable shoes at a small cost.

VAN ARSDALE, 127 East Front St.

Repairing Properly Done.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT.

Made only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,

At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

JANUARY SPECIAL SALES.

Ladies' black cloth jackets 2 85, reduced from 5.00.
" " " " 3 85, " " 6.75.
Children's reefer jackets 2 85, former price 3.25.
" " " 5 00, " " 6.25.
Ladies' Golf Capes 5 00, worth 7.00.
" " " 8 75, " 11.75.
Misses' Golf Capes 2 98, usually sold for 4.25.
" " " 4 49, " " 6 25.
Ladies' House Waists 25c, regular price 50c.
10 doz. Silk Velvet Brilliantine Sample Waists at half value.
2,000 yards 36 in Bleached Muslin at 7¼c, usually sold for 10c.

House Furnishings.

7-piece Berry Set, complete at 10c. Dover Egg Beater 5c.
Coal Shovel, extra long handle, 5c. Wash Boards 12c.

Millinery.

Our entire stock of Winter Millinery to be closed out regardless of cost.
Diss Shapes at 15c and 25c. Trimmed Hats from 75c up.

I. H. BOEHM,

109-113 WEST FRONT STREET.

You Should See

the store in its dress of WHITE.

Particularly handsome is the showing of

--: New Embroideries, :--

of cambric, nainsook and Swiss. Edgings with insertings to match. All-over effects in embroideries and laces.

New White Dress Fabrics.

and remember that now is the time for bargain prices on

Muslin Underwear.

A most elaborate assortment of finely made garments—all marked at prices much below prevailing values.

I. LEDERER.

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas. Fine Coffee.

All the Seasonable Goods. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit.

Tel. 931. C. E. GULICK & CO., THE PARK GROCERS.

OVERCOATS & SUITS.

WE will close out all of our stock now at prices that defy competition; they must go. So if you need anything in the shape of the above call and be convinced of the fact. We have cut the prices in just half what we sold them for in the early season.

TRY A PAIR OF OUR 98c PANTS.
GET BRACED FOR 13c.
HATS, CAPS AND GENTS FURNISHINGS.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY. Werner Clothing House, 206 W. Front Street.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS

Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.
at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.

Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,

Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

NOT REGIMENTALLY DRUNK.

A Distinction Without a Difference in Military Phraseology.

"We had some very funny experiences during the late war," said an officer wearing the shoulder straps of a major of volunteers. "As you are probably aware, the greatest crime of which an enlisted man can be guilty in the eyes of the military authorities is that of drunkenness, and the severity of punishments inflicted at the camps were for this offense. While we were at Montauk incessant watchfulness had to be exercised in order to prevent the men from smuggling liquor into the camp, but in spite of all precautions, cases of intoxication were frequent. One day, a man of my command was arrested by the guard as he was trying to carry a full-sized jag past the unsympathetic sentry on duty.

"In the morning, after he had had time to sleep off the fumes of his debauch, he was brought before me as the senior officer of the regiment, for investigation. After his arrest he sent for the surgeon of the regiment and the captain of his company, and, after they had inspected him, both declared that they could detect no signs of liquor on the accused man. The case, of course, was a difficult one to decide. On the one hand the non-com. of the guard swore positively that the man was drunk, and on the other hand I had the evidence of two officers, one of whom, the doctor at least, was entitled to respectful consideration as a medical expert. After having heard the evidence of the two officers I called upon the non-com., a typical son of the Emerald Isle, for his evidence.

" 'Sergeant, was this man drunk when he came off pass?'

"True to the traditions of his race, he replied.

" 'Well, sir, he had been drinking.'

" 'That is not the question; I asked you if he was drunk?'

" 'He had taken liquor, sir.'

" 'That won't do; was he drunk? Give me a straight answer.'

"The man hummed and scratched his head as if for inspiration, and finally, finding it, drawled out, while a number of officers listened anxiously for the answer:

" 'Well, sir, he was not to say rigmintally drunk.'

"As soon as I was able to control my countenance and my risible faculties, I asked:

" 'What do you mean by "regimentally drunk?"

" 'If a man can pass the guard without falling down, and only staggers, we would not call him rigmintally drunk, but he ought to be taken in all the same.'

" Amid a roar of laughter, I discharged the man, at the same time warning the over-zealous non-com. to be sure that a man was "rigmintally drunk" before confining him, and ever after that when one of the command had been sacrificing too ardently at the shrine of Bacchus, the question used to be asked, "Was he rigmintally drunk?"

Battlefield Nobility.

It is from Miss Florence Day, who has been untiring in her devotion to the Camp Walworth work, that I have a remarkable story told by a certain Rough Rider, whose name may as well go unmentioned, says a contributor to Leslie's Weekly." This man, it seems, had been deputy marshal of Cripple Creek, and for months before the war he had been hot on the trail of a noted desperado, wanted for horse-stealing and for murder. More than once the marshal and his men had nearly run the outlaw to earth, only to lose him at the last.

Then, suddenly, the war broke out, and things of less moment were forgotten. A captain of the Rough Riders, who knew the marshal's unflinching courage and his skill as a horseman, wrote him an urgent invitation to join his troops, and the invitation was promptly accepted.

So it came, a few weeks later, that this ex-cowboy, ex-miner and ex-hunter of criminals found himself at Tampa in Uncle Sam's uniform. And one of the first men he met was the desperado, so long sought for in vain, only now he was in soldier's clothes, a Rough Rider, too, with the rest of them.

"Well," said the hunted man, coolly, as their eyes met, "you've got me at last."

"How do you mean I've got you?"

"Why, you have. You came for me, didn't you? I lay down."

"I didn't come for you," said the marshal. "I'm here to fight under Roosevelt, same as you are. I don't know you, except as a soldier."

The man stared at him, doubtful.

"You mean you're not my enemy any more?"

"No, sir: I haven't got any enemies now but Spaniards."

"And you ain't goin' to give me up?"

"Not in a hundred years. There's my hand on it, comrade."

And through the hard days that followed there were not two stancher friends in the whole island of Cuba than these two whose hatred for each other had been pitiless. And after the war, when the marshal lay ill at Roosevelt Hospital, it was the ex-outlaw who came to his bedside to cheer him. And later it was the marshal who used his influence with a man of position to get honest work for this strangely found friend, whose gratitude was as deep as his resolve to lead a better life was sincere.

Summons of the Drum.

Hark, I hear the tramp of thousands
And of armed men the hum;
Lo! a nation's hosts have gathered
Round the quick, alarming drum—
Saying "Come,
Freemen, come!
Ere your heritage be wasted," said the quick, alarming drum.

"But when won the coming battle,
What of profit springs therefrom?
What if conquest, subjugation,
Even greater ills become?"
But the drum
Answered: "Come!
You must do the sum to prove it," said the Yankee-answering drum.

Thus they answered—hoping, fearing,
Some in faith and doubting some,
Till a trumpet voice proclaiming
Said: "My chosen people, come!"
Then the drum,
Lo, was dumb!
For the great heart of the Nation throbbing, answered: "Lord, we come."

—Bret Harte.

GRATUITOUS OPINIONS

Kindly Comments of a Well Meaning But Disagreeable Friend.

(Von Blumer is showing Witherby over his new house.)

Von Blumer—What do you think of this piazza?

Witherby—Very good. Pity, though, you didn't extend it around on the other side. You'll find it hotter than smoke in summer.

Von Blumer—Oh, I don't know. Here is the hall—all hard wood.

Witherby—Why, so it is! I would never have known it if you hadn't told me. Looks like white wood stained and rubbed in. This is the reception room, eh?

Von Blumer—Yes.

Witherby—They stuck you on these floors, did man. In two months they'll be wide open.

Von Blumer—Tammany floors, eh? I hope not. How do you like this mantel?

Witherby—H'm! Pretty fair. What is that—imitation tiling? Oh, no! It's real. Too bad it isn't bigger. I could have given you some points if I had known.

Von Blumer—Wish you had, I'm sure. What do you think of this kitchen?

Witherby—To be frank with you, I don't like it. What's this cuddy hole—a butler's pantry? Ha! Now, if you had taken a slice off the dining room and put it on here—

Von Blumer—By Jove! Why in the world didn't I think of it?

Witherby—Wish I'd known you were going to build. This is the way upstairs? Ah! This is the front room. Too many windows, old man!

Von Blumer—Think so?

Witherby—I know it. No room for furniture. Hello! this is the bathroom?

Von Blumer—Ye-es.

Witherby—Hope you didn't pay full price for that tub. Looks to me like a "second." Who put the tiling in?

Von Blumer—Why, the builder's man.

Witherby—I thought so. Looks like a contract job. You should have gotten that done outside.

Von Blumer—Yes, so I should. Say, old man, you won't say anything about this, will you?

Witherby—About what?

Von Blumer—Why, your opinion of this house.

Witherby—Why, certainly not if you don't wish me to.

Von Blumer—No, I don't. You see, I built it to give away, and if your opinion should leak out no one would take it.—Puck.

The Ruling Passion Strong in the Jaws

"Heavens, there I am again! Nearly left my umbrella behind!"

With the Jokers.

Attorney—You say you saw shots fired?

Witness—Yes, sir.

Attorney—How near were you to the scene of the affray?

Witness—When the first shot was fired, ten feet from the shooter.

Attorney—Ten feet; well now, tell the court where you were when the second shot was fired.

Witness—I didn't measure the distance.

Attorney—Speaking approximately, how far would you say?

Witness—Well, it approximated to half a mile.—Youth's Companion.

And Branches Out—"Papa," asked Sammy, who was laboriously spelling out an item in the paper, "what does a "great manufacturing plant' grow from?" "From the root of all evil, my son," answered Mr. Tarbox.—Chicago Tribune.

"Say, Bill, Joe just asked the boss if he could get off to attend his brother's funeral, an' the boss says: 'Are ye sure it ain't a ball game?' 'W'well, sir,' says Joe, it's a kind o' combination—me brother's the umpire.'

"What do you call that eminence?" asked the tourist.

"We don't call it nothing," answered Pieface Johnson. "That there, I guess, is the only bluff in this country that ain't been called."

Employer—So you want a fortnight's salary in advance? But suppose you should die to-night?

Clerk (proudly)—Sir, I may be poor, but I am a gentleman.

Mistress (to Norah)—What must be the condition of a person in order to be buried in consecrated ground?

Norah (in great surprise)—Dead, mum.—Judge.

"Why does a woman always talk at whist?"

"Well, I suppose she feels like showing that there's something she can do."

A Duty and a Pleasure.

First Statesman—Did you know that over $19,000,000 a year was the amount stolen by the Spanish customs officials in Havana?

Second Statesman—Say, it will never do for us to leave a people who will stand that in the hands of some one else.—Indianapolis Journal.

Knowing When to Quit.

"I suppose you made your money through your holdings in stock."

"Well," said the financier, "they had something to do with it; but the really important considerations weren't my holdings so much as my let-goings."

Then They Shoot the Hat.

Tourist—Do you—aw—fellaws still shoot men for wearing silk hats?

Pieface Johnson—Not less'n they wears 'em with sack coats.

Evidence of Greatness.

"So many great geniuses have been fat men."

"Well, sometimes it takes genius to earn three square meals a day."

DO YOU KNOW

THAT WE SELL

- COAL? -

IF what you are buying is not perfectly satisfactory we would be pleased to have you give us a trial order. We will spare no effort to please you, and whether you buy much or little your orders will have the same careful attention.

The Paul T. Norton Co.,

133 EAST FRONT STREET.

MADISON AVE., opp. THIRD STREET.

In comparing prices it should be borne in mind that OUR GRAIN IS ALL RECLEANED and OUR FEEDS are ALL MADE ON THE PREMISES and ARE KNOWN TO BE PURE

Mixed Oats	74c per bag	Middlings	90c per 100
Mixed Clips	76c per bag	Oat Feed	73c per 100
2 White Oats	78c per bag	Gluten	95c per 100
Regular Clips	80c per bag	Oil Meal	$1 35 per 100
X. B. Clips	82c per bag	No. 1 Grain Mixture	$1.10 per 100
Yellow Corn	79c per 100	Our Poultry Food	$1.15 per 100
Cracked Corn	84c per 100	Wheat	$1 35 per 100
Coarse Meal	84c per 100	Barley (66 lbs)	$1.15 per bag
Ground Feed	84c per 100	No. 1 Hay	85c per 100
Bran	90c per 100	Clover Hay	85c per 100
Buckwheat Middlings	70c per 100	Cut Hay	8c per 100

The above prices are for spot cash at our stores.

If delivered add according to quantity as follows:

25 bags or over ..... 2c per bag
5 bags or over ..... 5c per bag
Less than 5 bags ..... 10c per bag

THE PAUL T. NORTON CO.

Elizabeth, Elizabethport, Red Bank, Plainfield, Somerville.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—Silk waists with fine tucks all over body and sleeves, were $8.98, are now only $4.98 at Bonn's.

—Fred H. Firstbrook, grocer, 312 Liberty street, has a special sale tomorrow. Look over his adv.

—If you want whipped cream the place to get it is at Debele's creamery, 111 Somerset street. Tel. 1113. Satisfaction guaranteed.

—N. K. Barnes, grocer, 245 West Front street, is making very low special prices for his goods Saturday. He gives trading stamps.

—Fred Endress, the butcher, of 131 West Front street, will always sell you tender choice meats and game at the lowest prices. Give him a trial.

—If you want good winter shoes, sensible and strong, which will give good wear and be satisfactory, go to Flynn Brothers, 222 West Front street.

—Mattlage, who purchased the grocery business of J. F. MacDonald, will serve the old established trade of the store in the same high standard of excellence as his predecessor.

—An important meeting of Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., will be held next Monday evening, when arrangements will be made by the members to attend the annual reception to be given by York Commandery in New York on the following evening.

DEADLOCK OVER NEW MAYOR.

Common Council of Burlington Ballot in Vain to Fill the Chair.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Burlington, Jan. 12.—Fifty more ballots were taken by the Common Council Wednesday night in an effort to elect a Mayor to fill out the term until the next election.

Mayor William H. McNeal died a short time ago. Fifty ballots were taken a week ago and a political deadlock has resulted. In the one hundred ballots taken Charles Y. Flanders, the Republican candidate, and W. R. Schermerhorn, the Democratic candidate, have each received six votes.

Several ordinances which have been passed by the Common Council cannot become operative, as there is no one to approve them as Mayor. Prior to Mayor McNeal's death the political tie was not important, as he could preside and cast the deciding vote.

If "clothes make the man"—

$1.50 GETS A NEW MAN

—at Hillier's.
Suits Cleaned and Pressed:

Coat, 75c; Vest, 35c; Trousers, 50c
Suits dyed, $2.75.

HILLIER & CO.,

129 W. FRONT ST.

Tel. 851.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	High Score.
Roselle Casino	7	2	911
Westfield Club	5	4	866
Park Club	4	5	864
Cranford Casino	2	7	843

The results of the bowling contest on the Y. M. C. A. alleys that was recently ended, have been announced. The contest was won by Arthur Denton with an average score in ten games of 123 5. Paul Whitall was second with 121. George M. Smith was third with 109 4, and Howard George fourth with 100 9.

BURIED DOG IN FAMILY PLOT.

Gossiping Tongues Set Wagging by the Action of a South River Doctor.

(Special to The Daily Press).

New Brunswick, Jan. 12.—Dr. Chas. Burnett, one of the leading physicians of South River, a small town, about eight miles from here, has set gossips' tongues wagging by burying his pet St. Bernard dog in a grave in his family plot in Monumental Cemetery. Dr. Burnett purchased the plot some years ago. None of his family has ever been buried there. Five days ago his pet dog, to which he was deeply attached, died suddenly.

Dr. Burnett had a coffin made for him by Clayton & Pierson, local carpenters, and, placing the dog's body in it, took it in his buggy to the cemetery and there buried it in a grave which he had caused to be opened. The cemetery trustees say that they have no particular objection to Dr. Burnett making such use of his plot, if he so desires.

LIES LIKE ONE DEAD.

Factory Girl's Strange Case Excites Attention.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Asbury Park, Jan. 12—The residents of West Grove are deeply interested in the case of Eva Rose, a factory girl, who was on Tuesday found reclining on one of the machines at the shirt factory at Bradley Beach. Her body was cold, her eyes glassy and staring, her jaws firmly set, and her fellow workers exclaimed with one voice, "Eva is dead!"

The girl was removed to her home, where a slight twitching of the hands was observed by Dr. J. F. Ackerman, who had been summoned. "She is alive," said the doctor. Still she has remained in the same condition ever since. The doctors say she may recover. Her condition was caused by overwork.

Judge Runyon Elected Vice-Chairman

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, January 12.—A meeting of the new Republican county executive committee was held at Republican headquarters here last night. Chas. N. Codding was re-elected chairman. The other officers were chosen as follows: Vice-chairman, Wm. N. Runyon, of Plainfield; secretary, Charles E. Reed, of Rahway; treasurer, M. W. Halsey, of Elizabeth; sergeant-at-arms, James White, of Elizabeth.

—Have you seen Hepburn's new combination cigar lighter at Central Pharmacy.

—The preparatory service will be held in Hope chapel tonight at 8 o'clock. There will be a meeting of the session after the service to receive members into the church.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

A rather novel ending was noted to one of the selections given by the Syracuse University Instrumental Clubs at their concert given in the Monroe Avenue M. E. church during Christmas week. The mandolin club was playing a patrol. It started very softly and gradually swelled in volume of sound until the full strength of the club was heard. Then the music died away as soft as it begun. As the audience listened carefully to the last notes of the selection, one of the players in the back row fired a revolver. The bang brought the silence to a rather abrupt ending. The small boys, who occupied the front row of seats, leaped clear out of their chairs, while everybody jumped, and a chorus of little "ohs" could be heard all over the church.

* * * * *

There came near being a little excitement at the fire on West Second street Tuesday morning that was not down on the programme. A line of the regular hose was laid in by one of the hose wagons but the Chief decided that the two streams from the chemical engine would be all that was needed. The signal was sent to the men at the hydrant not to turn on the water. There was a misunderstanding, however, and the next moment the hose began to squirm and wriggle as it filled with water. There was no one at the nozzle and the crowd fled before the expected shower of water. Luckily, the nozzle was turned nearly off and but little water escaped. Had the nozzle been turned on, the firemen might have had some fun in trying to catch the end of the hose which would managed to sprinkle everybody in the vicinity before it was caught.

* * * * *

It is to be regretted that there are people in Plainfield who are so avoid of any degree of common sense that they cannot leave alone property belonging to other people. During the past few days men have been busily engaged repainting the letter boxes about the city, and everyone has had occasion to remark about the pleasant change. The boxes had not been in their new dress very long before someone began to mark and scratch them to such an extent that their beauty is decreased considerable. Such persons ought to be caught and given a good lesson about leaving things alone. Yesterday Postmaster Bird had one of the boxes on Liberty street repainted, but during the night some vandals marked it up again. Tomorrow the cards announcing the arrival and departure of mails will be posted on the various boxes, and at the bottom it will contain a section of U. S. law which describes a heavy penalty for persons who disfigure or demolish a letter box. A watch will be kept out for the violators.

JERSEY RIFF-RAFF.

Odd Facts of Interest Gleaned From Various Sections.

The farmers who stored their sweet potatoes, at Bridgeport, last summer when the price was low will profit by the move, as the price during the past few days has jumped from $2 to $2 40 per barrel, and, as those who have them will not ship, the price is bound to go higher.

The last vestige of machinery that has remained neglected in the old iron works at Gloucester is now being removed by a scrap iron dealer. The buildings, now almost crumbling away, stand as a reminder of what was once one of the leading industries of Gloucester.

A syndicate has been formed which has for its object the building and operating of an electric trolley line between Absecon and Sommer's Point, touching at Pleasantville. The syndicate also expects to furnish lights to Pleasantville. A company is also in process of formation to construct a trolley line over the Meadow turnpike from Atlantic City to Pleasantville.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. Randolph Dunham, of Madison avenue, is visiting her daughter at Carteret.

Mrs. A. B. Meredith, of Madison avenue, has returned after a several weeks' visit in Boston.

Miss Grace Rowland, of East Second street, who has been visiting relatives for a few days in Hunterdon county, has returned home.

Speaker Jones a Master Mason.

Speaker Benjamin F. Jones, of the New Jersey House of Assembly, received the degree of Master Mason at a meeting of Century Lodge, F. and A. M., in South Orange, Wednesday night.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Frank O. Bristol will address the boys' rally meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock.

The basket ball team of the Y. M. C. A. will meet Monday evening and play the second game of the season with a team from the Summit Y. M. C. A. Monday, the 22d, the local team will play with the New Brunswick team at the latter place.

THE COURTS

JUSTICE MOFFETT.

Judgment has been rendered in the case of Lane against Dunn.

Landlord and tenant—Suydam against Cuff, possession of premises.

—Woodhull & Martin, the dry goods merchants, are busy now taking account of stock.

LOCAL and CLIMATIC

Nothing but a local remedy or change of climate will cure

CATARRH.

The Specific is

Ely's Cream Balm

It is quickly Absorbed. Gives Relief at once. Opens and cleanses the Nasal Passages. Allays Inflammation. Heals and Protects the Membrane. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. No Mercury. No Injurious drug. Regular Size 50c. Family Size $1.00. at Druggists or by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

CATARRH

COLD IN HEAD

MARKETING

is tiresome business, but we try to make it as easy as possible for our customers.

We don't keep you waiting any longer than we can help—we always try to have courteous and patient assistants.

We want your trade—we will treat you so that we will keep it.

FRED ENDRESS,

131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

Geo. L. Mitchell,

Formerly with Jas. McCreery & Co., N. Y.

LADIES' TAILOR.

Coats, Skirts, Shirt Waists and Fancy Waists to Order.

LADIES' OWN MATERIAL MADE UP.

Chestnut, cor. Mulberry Sts, NEWARK, N. J.

1 12 6

Putnam & DeGraw.

Fast Black ½ Hose, at 10, 15 and 18c, specials.

Ladies' Fast Black Hose, 10, 15, 19 and 25c, specials.

Ladies' Gloves and Mittens from 10c up.

Men's Woolen and Skin Gloves, all prices.

ESTATE OF Josiah Browne, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, this day made, on the application of the undersigned, Executrix of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the fourth day of January, 1900, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

KATE GREGG BROWNE,
Executrix.

1 12 9 onw f

We make them

On the premises; Hepburn's Remedies. Simple but effective in action. If not pleased with their effects your money cheerfully returned. Well known for past 30 years. See our window display.

Central Pharmacy,

Park Avenue & Second St.

Telephone 671.
Prescriptions Prepared.

THE

First National Bank,

of Plainfield, N. J.

Capital ..... $200,000.
Surplus and Profits ..... $ 90,000.

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.

DIRECTORS.

Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Corlett.
H. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

Ladie Desiring

KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING

done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 218 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

TELEPHONE 722.
MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.

Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9 a. m.

Saturday, January 13, 1900.

2 Performances—Matinee and Night.

The young character comedian, J. C. LEWIS, and his Big Comedy Company in the rural farce comedy,

"SI PLUNKARD."

Entirely Re-written. New Dialogue. New Situations. New Novelties and New Scenic and Mechanical Effects. A strong and efficient comedy company.

SEE The great R. R. Scene. The Threshing Machine Scene. The County Fair Scene.

LOOK OUT! For "Si" and his Country Band Parade. For the Funniest Street Parade ever seen.

Prices—Matinee, children 12 and under, 15c. Adults, 25c. Night, orchestra, 75 and 50c; dress circle, 75 and 50c; balcony, 35 and 25c.

Tuesday Night, Jan. 16, 1900.

Lecture Extraordinary

BY

RAMON REYES LALA,

Filipino Author and Lecturer

ON

THE PHILIPPINO ISLANDS,

Accompanied by over 100 beautifully illustrated photographic views.

Prices—25c, 35c, 50c and 75c. Good reserved seats in Orchestra and Dress Circle for 50c.

THE CELEBRATED

NEW YORK MUSICAL CLUB

will give an entertainment for the benefit of

The Park Golf Club

—at the—

PARK CLUB HOUSE,

Friday Evening, January 12th, 1900,

at 8:30 o'Clock.

ADMISSION - ONE DOLLAR.

1 10 3

GEO. W. COLE,

UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,

200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.

OFFICE OPEN D. Y AND NIGHT.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

GIRL wanted as cook and for general housework. 25 Fairview Ave.

WILL exchange house in Arlington N. J., eight rooms and bath, all improvements, for similar Plainfield property; or sell cheap. M. F. Wirtz, Dunellen, N. J. 1 12 2

FOR SALE—Baby-carriage robe and go-cart both in perfect order; good as new. 323 East Second St.

STORE and rooms to let. 541 West Fifth St.

MONEY to loan at 5 per cent on business properties. Murphy & Blatz, Attorneys, Dunlap building. 1 12 2

TO RENT in Stillman building, the lodge room now occupied by the Red Men; completely furnished. 1 11 3

TO LET—3 rooms and basement at 432 West Sixth St. Inquire 110 West Second St. 1 11 3

WANTED—Roll-top desk. Address Desk, care Press. 1 11 2

FOR SALE price five hundred dollars, fifty foot lot and new stable, on Whitewood place, North Plainfield. Wm. M. Stillman. 1 11 3

TO LET—One large store, and four large room flat, city water, stationery wash tubs and water closet. 304 Richmond street. 1 8 tf eod

FOR SALE or exchange for Plainfield property; fine new 11 room house, all improvements, hard wood finish, open nickel plumbing; located at Upper Montclair, N J. For particulars apply to W. A. Woodruff 1 10 3

FLAT TO RENT in new Stillman building. Inquire Wm. M. Stillman. 1 11 3

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

2 OR 3 stores to rent in Stillman building; can be thrown into one or more. 1 11 3

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

Massage, Manicuring, Hair Dressing, Shampooing, Facial Massage and Steaming.

